PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—WHEAT MARKETING QUOTAS FOR THE 1956 CROP

DATE BY WHICH WHEAT ACREAGE MUST BE UTILIZED AS WHEAT COVER CROP IN THE STATE OF KENTUCKY

The amendment herein is issued under the wheat marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, for the purpose of revising the date by which wheat acreage on a farm must be utilized as wheat cover crop in the State of Kentucky.

Since the only purpose of this amendment is to revise the date by which wheat must be used as wheat cover crop in the State of Kentucky and since the farmers involved have already been informed in writing of the date, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice, procedure, and 30-day effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the amendment herein shall become effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Section 728.651 (r), insofar as it relates to the State of Kentucky, is amended as follows:

KENTUCKY

June 11, 1956: All counties.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interprets or applies sec. 374, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 68 Stat. 904; 7 U. S. C. 1374)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of July 1956.

[Lemon Reg. 648, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN THE STATES OF CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 19 F. R. 7175; 20 F. R. 2913; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.755 (Lemon Regulation 648; 21 F. R. 4854) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 418,500 cartons.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedure alterations appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

1. The automatic direction finding procedures prescribed in § 609.8 are amended to read in part:

ADF STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Bearings, headings, and courses are magnetic. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation.

When an ADF instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

PART 104—BRISTOL BAY AREA

PART 121—SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA AREA, SUMNER STRAIT DISTRICT, SALMON FISHERIES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Basis and purpose. On the basis of good showings of pink salmon at Anan Creek, it has been determined that the opening date can be advanced without jeopardizing escapements.

1. Section 121.3 is amended in text by deleting "July 15" and substituting in lieu thereof "July 12."

2. In compliance with the requirements of paragraph (c) of § 104.5, announcement is made that registrations for the week ending July 14, 1956 were as follows:

Nushagak district—250 units.
Naknek-Kvichak district—312 units.
Egegik district—87 units.
Ugashik district—30 units.

3. Paragraph (a) of Section 104.5 notwithstanding, fishing time for the week ending July 14, 1956, will be 2 days in the Nushakag district, 3 days in the Naknek-Kvichak district, and 3 days in the Ugashik district.

Since immediate action is necessary, notice and public procedure on these amendments are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) and they shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[43 CFR Part 185]

MULTIPLE DEVELOPMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF MINERAL DEPOSITS UNDER THE MINING LAWS AND VEGETATIVE AND OTHER SURFACE RESOURCES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367) and Revised Statutes 2478 (43 U. S. C. 1201), it is proposed to issue regulations implementing the said act of July 23, 1955, supra, so far as is necessary. Primary purposes of the act include the establishment of a system of multiple use by permitting mining and management of the vegetative surface resources and other surface resources on the same tracts of public domain lands, and determination of rights to the vegetative surface resources and other surface resources on mining claims located prior to July 23, 1955.

The proposed regulations and pertinent forms, Nos. 1 to 5, inclusive, are set forth as appendices to this notice.

Interested persons may submit in triplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulations or forms to the Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

WESLEY A. D'EWART,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

JULY 5, 1956.

The title Subpart B is amended to read: "Rights Acquired by Location; Nature of Mining Claims."

Sections 185.5 to 185.22, inclusive, are renumbered 185.23 to 185.66, inclusive, and the following new §§ 185.5 to 185.22, inclusive, are added to Part 185.

AUTHORITY: §§ 185.5 to 185.22, inclusive, issued under R. S. 2478, as amended (69 Stat. 367; 43 U. S. C., sec. 1201).

§ 185.5 Purpose and authority. The Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367, 30 U. S. C., sec. 601), was enacted "To amend the Act of July 31, 1947 (61 Stat. 681) and the mining laws to provide for multiple use of the surface of the same tracts of the public lands, and for other purposes." The regulations in this part are intended to implement only sections 3 to 7, inclusive, of said act hereinafter more fully identified.[1] The word "act" when used in §§ 185.5 to 185.22, inclusive, refers to the act of July 23, 1955.

[1] Sections 1 and 2 thereof relate specifically to the Materials Act of July 31, 1947, and will be implemented by the amendments of par. 259.

§ 185.6 Common varieties: defined. (a) The act in section 3 provides:

A deposit of common varieties of sand, stone, gravel, pumice, pumicite, or cinders shall not be deemed a valuable mineral deposit within the meaning of the mining laws of the United States so as to give effective validity to any mining claim hereafter located under such mining laws: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall affect the validity of any mining location based upon discovery of some other mineral occurring in or in association with such a deposit. "Common varieties" as used in this act does not include deposits of such materials which are valuable because the deposit has some property giving it distinct and special value and does not include so-called "block pumice" which occurs in nature in pieces having one dimension of two inches or more.

(b) "Common varieties" as defined by decision of the Department and of the courts include deposits which, although they may have value for use in trade, manufacture, the sciences, or in the mechanical or ornamental arts do not possess a distinct, special economic value for such use over and above the normal uses of the general run of such deposits. Section 3 [2] of the law has no application where the mineral for which a location is made is carried in or borne by one of such common varieties.

Any mining claim hereafter located under the mining laws of the United States shall not be used, prior to issuance of patent therefor, for any purposes other than prospecting, mining or processing operations and uses reasonably incident thereto.

Rights under any mining claim hereafter located under the mining laws of the United States shall be subject, prior to issuance of patent therefor, to the right of the United States to manage and dispose of the vegetative surface resources thereof and to manage other surface resources thereof (except mineral deposits subject to location under the mining laws of the United States). Any such mining claim shall also be subject, prior to issuance of patent therefor, to the right of the United States, its permittees, and licensees, to use so much of the surface thereof as may be necessary for such purposes or for access to adjacent land: Provided, however, That any use of the surface of any such mining claim by the United States, its permittees or licensees, shall be such as not to endanger or materially interfere with prospecting, mining or processing operations or uses reasonably incident thereto: Provided, further, That if at any time the locator requires more timber for his mining operations than is available to him from the claim after disposition of timber therefrom by the United States, subsequent to the location of the claim, he shall be entitled, free of charge, to be supplied with timber for such requirements from the nearest timber administered by the disposing agency which is ready for harvesting under the rules and regulations of that agency and which is substantially equivalent in kind and quantity to the timber estimated by the disposing agency to have been disposed of from the claim: Provided, further, That nothing in this act shall be construed as affecting or intended to affect or in any way interfere with or modify the laws of the States which lie wholly or in part westward of the ninety-eighth meridian relating to the ownership, control, appropriation, use, and distribution of ground or surface waters within any unpatented mining claim.

[2] Thus, while marble used in sculpture would not be a common variety of stone, ordinary building stone or sand and gravel or pumice or limestone used in building would be,

Except to the extent required for the mining claimant's prospecting, mining or processing operations and uses reasonably incident thereto, or for the construction of buildings or structures in connection therewith, or to provide clearance for such operations or uses, or to the extent authorized by the United States, no claimant of any mining claim hereafter located under the mining laws of the United States shall, prior to issuance of patent therefor, sever, remove, or use any vegetative or other surface resources thereof which are subject to management or disposition by the United States under the preceding subsection (b). Any severance or removal of timber which is permitted under the exceptions of the preceding sentence, other than severance or removal to provide clearance, shall be in accordance with sound principles of forest management.

(b) The locator of an unpatented mining claim subject to the Act may not interfere with the right of the United States to manage the vegetative and other surface resources of the land, or use it so as to block access to or egress from adjacent public land, or use Federal timber for purposes other than for legitimate mining, in accordance with Part 259 of this chapter.[3] Nor may such locator block access to water needed in grazing use of the national forests or other public lands; to valuable recreation areas; nor prevent agents of the Federal Government from crossing the locator's claim in order to reach adjacent lands for purposes of managing wild-game habitat or improving fishing streams so as to thwart the public harvest and proper management of fish and game resources on the public lands generally, both on located and on adjacent lands. The locator of an unpatented mining claim is limited in his use of the claim to those uses specified in the act such as prospecting, mining, or processing operations and uses reasonably incident thereto and is forbidden to use it for any other purpose such, for example, as for filling stations, curio shops, cafes, tourist or fishing and hunting camps.

(c) Mining claims located prior to the date of the act will be subject to the act where determination has been made pursuant to section 5, that the locator's surface rights are limited as provided in section 4, and where the owners have waived and relinquished all rights under section 6, which are contrary to or in conflict with the limitations and restrictions specified as to hereafter located unpatented mining claims in section 4 of the act. See § 185.22 as to limitation of existing rights.

(d) On mining claims located subsequent to the act, timber may be used by the claimants for mining purposes, but except for the purpose of clearance for mining activity, such timber must be cut in accordance with sound principles of forest management. When timber on the mining claim is removed by the Government subsequent to the location of the claim, free use of timber by the mining claimant of like kind and quantity from the nearest timber administered by the disposing agency is provided for, but only when and to the extent that it is required for mining operations on that claim and only in quantity and quality substantially equivalent to the timber removed from the claim by the Government. Any such timber may be cut and removed only under the rules and regulations of the administering agency. Regulations governing applications and issuance of permits for the use of such timber on public lands administered by the Bureau of Land Management are contained in Part 259 of this chapter.[3]

The head of a Federal department or agency which has the responsibility for administering surface resources of any lands belonging to the United States may file as to such lands in the office of the Secretary of the Interior, or in such office as the Secretary of the Interior may designate, a request for publication of notice to mining claimants, for determination of surface rights, which request shall contain a description of the lands covered thereby, showing the section or sections of the public land surveys which embrace the lands covered by such request, or if such lands are unsurveyed, either the section or sections which would probably embrace such lands when the public land surveys are extended to such lands or a tie by courses and distances to an approved United States mineral monument.

The "request for publication of notice to mining claimants" authorized to be filed by the above-quoted portion of the act can be filed by the Federal department or agency which has the responsibility for administering surface resources of the lands to which the requested notice would relate. It must describe the land covered by the request by section, township, range, and meridian or, if the land is unsurveyed, either the section or sections which would probably embrace such lands if surveyed and showing the actual, or probable future township, range, and meridian depending on whether the township lines have been surveyed. If the probable future section or sections cannot be determined with reasonable certainty, then the description may be a metes and bounds description of such area with a tie to a United States mineral monument.

(b) A request for publication of notice under this subsection shall be filed with the land office of the Bureau of Land Management for the land district in which the lands are situated.[4] No request for publication may include lands in more than one land district.

§ 185.9 Evidence necessary to support a request for publication. (a) The second and third paragraphs of section 5 (a) of the act provide in detail for the filing by the head of a Federal department or agency of certain evidence in support of the request for publication of the notice referred to in § 185.8, as follows:

The filing of such request for publication shall be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits of a person or persons over twenty-one years of age setting forth that the affiant or affiants have examined the lands involved in a reasonable effort to ascertain whether any person or persons were in actual possession of or engaged in the working of such lands or any part thereof, and, if no person or persons were found to be in actual possession of or engaged in the working of said lands or any part thereof on the date of such examination, setting forth such fact, or, if any person or persons were so found to be in actual possession or engaged in such working on the date of such examination, setting forth the name and address of each such person, unless affiant shall have been unable through reasonable inquiry to obtain information as to the name and address of any such person, in which event the affidavit shall set forth fully the nature and results of such inquiry.

The filing of such request for publication shall also be accompanied by the certificate of a title or abstract company, or of a title abstractor, or of an attorney, based upon such company's, abstractor's, or attorney's examination of those instruments which are shown by the tract indexes in the county office of record as affecting the lands described in said request, setting forth the name of any person disclosed by said instruments to have an interest in said lands under any unpatented mining claim heretofore located, together with the address of such person if such address is disclosed by such instruments of record. "Tract indexes" as used herein shall mean those indexes, if any, as to surveyed lands identifying instruments as affecting a particular legal subdivision of the public land surveys, and as to unsurveyed lands identifying instruments as affecting a particular probable legal subdivision of the public land surveys.

(b) This part of the act requires the filing of an affidavit which may be made by any person or persons over twenty-one years of age who have examined the lands. It must show whether any person or persons were "in actual possession of or engaged in the working of said lands (the lands described in the request for publication of notice) or any part thereof" and, if they were, the name and address of each such person must be given if it can be learned by reasonable inquiry and if it cannot be so learned, the affidavit must show in detail what inquiry or inquiries were made to obtain each such name and address. No definition of the terms "in actual possession" or "engaged in the working of said lands" will be attempted here, but the affidavits should recite what evidences of occupancy or workings were found. The request for publication must also be accompanied by a certificate executed as provided in the third paragraph of section 5 (a) and containing the information required by that paragraph to be furnished. If there are no tract indexes, as defined in the act, in the county office of record affecting the lands described in the request for publication a certificate executed as provided in the said third paragraph of section 5 (a) to that effect must be furnished. A form of certificate which may be used at the option of the requesting department or agency is appended to the regulations in this part as Form No. 1.[4]

§ 185.10 Publication of notice. If the request for publication and the accompanying papers conform to the requirements of the act, the Manager or the Director, as may be appropriate, at the expense of the requesting department or agency, shall cause notice to mining claimants to be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the lands involved are situated. If the notice is published in a daily newspaper it shall be published in the Wednesday issue for nine consecutive weeks, if in a weekly paper, in nine consecutive issues, or if in a semi-weekly or tri-weekly paper, in the issue of the same day of each week for nine consecutive weeks.

Such notice shall describe the lands covered by such request, as provided heretofore, and shall notify whomever it may concern that if any person claiming or asserting under, or by virtue of, any unpatented mining claim heretofore located, rights as to such lands or any part thereof, shall fail to file in the office where such request for publication was filed (which office shall be specified in such notice) and within one hundred and fifty days from the date of the first publication of such notice (which date shall be specified in such notice), a verified statement which shall set forth, as to such unpatented mining claim—

(1) The date of location,

(2) The book and page of recordation of the notice or certificate of location;

(3) The section or sections of the public land surveys which embrace such mining claims; or if such lands are unsurveyed, either the section or sections which would probably embrace such mining claim when the public land surveys are extended to such lands or a tie by courses and distances to an approved United States mineral monument;

(4) Whether such claimant is a locator or purchaser under such location; and

(5) The name and address of such claimant and names and addresses so far as known to the claimant of any other person or persons claiming any interest or interests in or under such unpatented mining claim;

such failure shall be conclusively deemed (i) to constitute a waiver and relinquishment by such mining claimant of any right, title or interest under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of this act as to hereafter located unpatented mining claims, and (ii) to constitute a consent by such mining claimant that such mining claim, prior to issuance of patent therefor, shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions specified in section 4 of this act as to hereafter located unpatented mining claims, and (iii) to preclude thereafter, prior to issuance of patent, any assertion by such mining claimant of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of this act as to hereafter located unpatented mining claims.

(b) The notice should conform to Form #2 appended to the regulations in this part.[5]

[4] The use of this form is not compulsory.

§ 185.12 Service of notice. The last paragraph of section 5 (a) of the act provides with respect to service of the notice by personal delivery or by registered mail, as follows:

Within fifteen days after the date of first publication of such notice, the department or agency requesting such publication (1) shall cause a copy of such notice to be personally delivered to or to be mailed by registered mail addressed to each person in possession or engaged in the working of the land whose name and address is shown by an affidavit filed as aforesaid, and to each person who may have filed, as to any lands described in said notice, a request for notices, as provided in subsection (d) of this section 5, and shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed by registered mail to each person whose name and address is set forth in the title or abstract company's or title abstractor's or attorney's certificate filed as aforesaid, as having an interest in the lands described in said notice under any unpatented mining claim heretofore located, such notice to be directed to such person's address as set forth in such certificate; and (2) shall file in the office where said request for publication was filed an affidavit showing that copies have been so delivered or mailed.

§ 185.13 Service of copies; failure to comply. If the department or agency requesting publication under these regulations shall fail to comply with the requirements of section 5 (a) of the act as to the personal delivery or mailing of a copy of the published notice to any person, the publication of such notice shall be deemed wholly ineffectual as to that person or as to the rights asserted by that person and the failure of that person to file a verified statement, as provided in such notice shall in no manner affect, diminish, prejudice or bar any rights of that person.

§ 185.14 Proof of publication. After the period of newspaper publication has expired, the department or agency requesting the publication shall obtain from the office of the newspaper or publication a sworn statement that the notice was published at the time and in accordance with the requirements under the regulations of this part, and shall file such sworn statement in the office where the Request for Publication was filed.

§ 185.15 Failure of claimant to file verified statement. If any claimant under any unpatented mining claim located prior to July 23, 1955, which embraces any of the lands described in any notice published in accordance with the regulations in this part shall fail to file a verified statement, as specified in such published notice (see § 185.10), within one hundred and fifty days from the date of the first publication of such notice, such failure shall be conclusively deemed except as otherwise provided in § 185.13:

(a) To constitute a waiver and relinquishment by such mining claimant of any right, title or interest under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the Act as to mining claims located after its enactment.

(b) To constitute a consent by such mining claimant that such mining claim, prior to issuance of patent therefor, be subject to the limitations and restrictions specified in section 4 of the act as to mining claims located after its enactment.

(c) To preclude thereafter prior to the issuance of patent any assertion by such mining claimant of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the act as to unpatented mining claims located after its enactment. A verified statement under this section may follow Form No. 3 appended to the regulations of this part.[5]

§ 185.16 Hearing; time and place. If any verified statement shall be filed by a mining claimant as provided under § 185.11, then the Field Commissioner or the Director, as may be appropriate, shall fix a time and place for a hearing to determine the validity and effectiveness of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim which the mining claimant may assert contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the act as to unpatented mining claims located after its enactment. The Field Commissioner shall notify the department or agency and all mining claimants entitled to notice as the result of the filing of such verified statement of the time and place of such hearing at least 30 days in advance thereof. The notice of hearing shall contain a statement specifying the issues upon which evidence will be submitted at the hearing. Such hearing shall be held in the county where the lands in question, or parts thereof, are located unless the mining claimant agrees otherwise.

§ 185.17 Stipulation between parties. Where verified statements are filed asserting rights to an aggregate of more than twenty mining claims, any single hearing shall be limited to a maximum of twenty mining claims unless the parties affected shall otherwise stipulate and as many separate hearings shall be set as shall be necessary to comply with section 5 (c) of the act. If at any time prior to a hearing the department or agency requesting publication of notice and any person filing a verified statement pursuant to such notice shall so stipulate, then to the extent so stipulated, but only to such extent, no hearing shall be held with respect to rights asserted under that verified statement, and to the extent defined by the stipulation the rights asserted under that verified statement shall be deemed to be unaffected by the notice published pursuant to that request.

§ 185.18 Hearing; procedures. The procedures with respect to notice of such a hearing and the conduct thereof, and in respect to appeals, shall follow the rules of practice of the Department of the Interior and the Bureau of Land Management (Part 221 of this title) relating to contests or protests affecting public lands of the United States so far as they are applicable.

§ 185.19 Effect of decision affirming a mining claimant's rights. (a) If the final decision rendered in any hearing held pursuant to section 5 of the act shall affirm the validity and effectiveness of any mining claimant's right or interest under a mining claim asserted in accordance with the provisions of that section, then no subsequent proceedings under section 5 of the act shall have any force or effect upon the so-affirmed right or interest of such mining claimant under such mining claim.

(b) If it is finally determined as the result of such a hearing that the claimant has no right or title to or interest in or under his mining claim which he may assert contrary to or in conflict with the limitations and restrictions specified in section 4 of the act, then those limitations and restrictions shall apply with respect to such mining claim.

§ 185.20 Recording by mining claimant of request for copy of notice. (a) Section 5 (d) of the act provides as follows:

Any person claiming any right under or by virtue of any unpatented mining claim heretofore located and desiring to receive a copy of any notice to mining claimants which may be published as above provided in subsection (a) of this section 5, and which may affect lands embraced in such mining claim, may cause to be filed for record in the county office of record where the notice of certificate of location of such mining claim shall have been recorded, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of any such notice. Such request for copies shall set forth the name and address of the person requesting copies and shall also set forth, as to each heretofore located unpatented mining claim under which such person asserts rights—

(1) The date of location;

(2) The book and page of the recordation of the notice or certificate of location; and

(3) The section or sections of the public land surveys which embrace such mining claim; or if such lands are unsurveyed, either the section or sections which would probably embrace such mining claim when the public land surveys are extended to such lands or a tie by courses and distances to an approved United States mineral monument.

Other than in respect to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section 5 as to personal delivery or mailing of copies of notices and in respect to the provisions of subsection (c) of this section 5, no such request for copies of published notices and no statement or allegation in such request and no recordation thereof shall affect title to any mining claim or to any land or be deemed to constitute constructive notice to any person that the person requesting copies has, or claims, any right, title, or interest in or under any mining claim referred to in such request.

§ 185.21 Waiver of rights by mining claimants. (a) Section 6 of the Act provides as follows:

The owner or owners of any unpatented mining claim heretofore located may waive and relinquish all rights thereunder which are contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of this act as to hereafter located unpatented mining claims. The execution and acknowledgment of such a waiver and relinquishment by such owner or owners and the recordation thereof in the office where the notice or certificate of location of such mining claim is of record shall render such mining claim thereafter and prior to issuance of patent subject to the limitations and restrictions in section 4 of this act in all respects as if said mining claim had been located after enactment of this act, but no such waiver or relinquishment shall be deemed in any manner to constitute any concession as to the date of priority of rights under said mining claim or as to the validity thereof.

[6] The use of this form is not compulsory.

(b) A waiver under this section may follow Form 5 appended to the regulations in this part.[6]

§ 185.22 Limitation of existing rights: exclusion of reservation in patents. The act in section 7 provides as follows:

Nothing in this act shall be construed in any manner to limit or restrict or to authorize the limitation or restriction of any existing rights of any claimant under any valid mining claim heretofore located, except as such rights may be limited or restricted as a result of a proceeding pursuant to section 5 of this act, or as a result of a waiver and relinquishment pursuant to section 6 of this act; and nothing in this act shall be construed in any manner to authorize inclusion in any patent hereafter issued under the mining laws of the United States for any mining claim heretofore or hereafter located, of any reservation, limitation, or restriction not otherwise authorized by law, or to limit or repeal any existing authority to include any reservation, limitation, or restriction in any such patent, or to limit or restrict any use of the lands covered by any patented or unpatented mining claim by the United States, its lessees, permittees, and licensees which is otherwise authorized by law.

This section makes it clear that all of the rights of mining claimants existing on the date of the act are preserved and will continue unless:

(1) Claimant fails to file a verified statement in response to a published notice as provided in section 5 (b) of the act and § 185.15; (2) it is determined as a result of a hearing pursuant to Section 5 (c) that such rights asserted in a verified statement are not valid and effective; (3) the claimant waives and relinquishes his rights pursuant to section 6. It also preserves to all mining claimants the right to a patent unrestricted by anything in the act and provides that no limitation, reservation or restriction may be inserted in any mineral patent unless authorized by law, but it also makes it clear that all laws in force on the date of its enactment which provide for any such reservation, limitation, or restriction in such patents and all authority of law then existing for the use of lands embraced in unpatented mining claims by the United States, its lessees, permittees, and licensees continue in full force and effect.

NOTICE TO MINING CLAIMANTS

Published pursuant to section 5 of the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367).

To whomever it may concern:

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of a proper Request for Publication heretofore filed in accordance with section 5 of the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367), and the regulations thereunder (43 CFR 185.11):

1. That on _____, _____;
whose address is _____, filed in the Land Office of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior at _____, a request for publication of notice to all mineral locators or any persons claiming under them involving a mining claim or claims located on lands in the County of _____ State of _____, described as follows, to-wit: Township _____, Range _____, _____ Meridian.

(Describe in conformity with requirements of section 5 (a) of the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367; Sec. 43 CFR 185.8).)

2. That if any person claiming or asserting under, or by virtue of, any unpatented mining claim located prior to July 23, 1955, any right or interest in the vegetative surface resources and other surface resources as to the above-described lands or any part thereof, shall fail to file in the Land Office of the Bureau of Land Management at _____, and within 150 days from the below-stated date of first publication of this Notice, a verified statement which shall set forth as to such mining claim:

(1) The date of location;

(2) The book and page of recordation of the notice or certificate of location;

(3) The section or sections of the public land surveys which embrace such mining claim; or if such lands are unsurveyed either the section or sections which would probably embrace such mining claim when the public land surveys are extended to such lands or a tie by courses and distances to an approved United States mineral monument;

(4) Whether such claimant is a locator or purchaser under such location; and

(5) The name and address of such claimant and names and addresses so far as known to the claimant of any other person or persons claiming any interest or interests in or under such unpatented mining claim;

such failure shall be conclusively deemed (I) to constitute a waiver and relinquishment of such mining claimant of any right, title, or interest under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the Act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367), as to unpatented claims located after that date, and (II) to constitute a consent by such mining claimant that such unpatented mining claim shall be subject to said limitations and restrictions, and (III) to preclude thereafter, prior to issuance of patent, any assertion by such mining claimant of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with said limitations or restrictions. Section 4 provides, generally, that unpatented mining claims located after July 23, 1955, shall not be used for purposes other than mining or uses reasonably incident thereto; that such claims will be subject to the right of the United States to manage and dispose of the vegetative surface resources thereof and to manage other surface resources thereof; and that, except to the extent required for mining operations and uses reasonably incident thereto or to provide clearance for such operations or uses, claimants of such claims shall not use or dispose of vegetative or other resources thereof; and that, except for clearance for such purposes, any permitted severance or removal must be in accordance with sound principles of forest management.

AMERICAN UPLAND COTTON STANDARDS

PROPOSED STRICT GOOD MIDDLING STANDARD; FIELD TRIAL BOXES FOR SPOTTED COTTON

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the promulgation of a descriptive grade standard for Strict Good Middling (White) American upland cotton to be effective August 1, 1957, pursuant to authority contained in section 6 of the United States Cotton Standards Act as amended (42 Stat. 1518; 7 U. S. C. 56) and in section 4854 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 580; 26 U. S. C. 4854).

The European signatories to the Universal Cotton Standards Agreement recommended a descriptive standard for Strict Good Middling (White) cotton at the Universal Cotton Standards Conference held in Washington in May 1956. None of the groups represented at the conference expressed any opposition to the proposed standard.

The regulations governing the official cotton standards of the United States for the grade of American upland cotton, also termed, and referred to as the "Universal Standards for American Cotton," (7 CFR Part 27, Subpart B) would be amended by inserting a new § 27.150 to read as follows:

§ 27.150 Strict Good Middling. Strict Good Middling shall be American upland cotton which in color, leaf, and preparation is better than Good Middling.

Any interested person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendment may do so by filing them with the Director, Cotton Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 10 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Department also announces an extension for an indefinite period of the field trial for proposed physical standards for spotted cotton in the grades Strict Middling Spotted, Middling Spotted, Strict Low Middling Spotted, and Low Middling Spotted. The current standards for all grades of spotted cotton included in the official cotton standards of the United States for grade of American upland cotton are descriptive and were promulgated August 15, 1952 to be effective August 15, 1953. The purpose of the field trial is to determine the practicability of physical standards for all grades of spotted cotton except Good Middling. Boxes of the proposed physical standards for use in the field trial will be available from the Department at the following prices: $5.00 per grade box, f. o. b. Washington, D. C., for shipment within the continental United States, and $6.50 each, delivered to destination, for shipments outside the continental United States.

The Department has already conducted a 3-year trial for physical standards for spotted cotton. At the 1956 Universal Cotton Standards Conference the foreign signatories to the Universal Cotton Standards Agreement and the domestic cotton shippers recommended promulgation of physical standards as the official standards. The domestic cotton spinners and producers opposed the promulgation of physical standards but agreed to an extension of the field trial.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of July 1956.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922; sec. 4, Pub. Law 545, 84th Cong.; 7 U. S. C. 1153) hereinafter referred to as the "act," and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedures (21 F. R. 4251) notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at Washington, D. C., in Room 218, Administration Building, U. S. Department of Agriculture, on July 30, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. t. The purpose of the hearing is to receive evidence which will enable the Secretary of Agriculture to determine whether specific processes to which sugars are subjected are sufficient to fulfill the requirements of the definition of the term "to be further refined or improved in quality" as set forth in paragraph 101 (n) of the act, and whether sugar of specific qualities are raw sugar within the definition of the term "raw sugar" as set forth in paragraph 101 (d) of the act, or direct-consumption sugar within the definition of the term "direct-consumption" sugar as set forth in paragraph 101 (e) of the act.

It will be appropriate to present evidence at the hearing relevant to the subjects and issues involved which include (1) the specific processes and characteristics thereof which subject sugars substantially to the processes of affination or defecation, clarification, and further purification by adsorption or crystallization, (2) the distinction and characteristics of sugars of specific qualities which are raw sugar within the meaning of paragraph 101 (d) of the act, (3) the distinction and characteristics of sugars of specific qualities which are direct-consumption sugar within the meaning of paragraph 101 (e) of the act, (4) methods for the determination of the specific qualities of raw and direct-consumption sugars, (5) application of such methods to specific lots of sugars, and (6) substantiation required for submission to the Department of Agriculture relating to specific processes to which sugars are to be subjected substantially and the specific qualities of sugars.

Issued this 5th day of July 1956.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary.

CALIFORNIA

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION

JUNE 25, 1956.

1. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by the California State Supervisor, Bureau of Land Management, under Part II, Document 4, California State Office, dated November 19, 1954 (19 F. R. 7697), I hereby classify, under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, as amended (43 U. S. C. 682a), the 1,925 acres of public land in Riverside County described below, for lease and sale for homesite purposes only:

SAN BERNARDINO BASE AND MERIDIAN

T. 4 S., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 4: All. The following tracts are vacant and subject to veterans' preference as indicated in paragraph 8: $N\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$.
Sec. 10: All. Subject to veterans' preference: $N\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}$.
Sec. 14: All. Subject to veterans' preference: $N\frac{1}{2}NW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, $S\frac{1}{2}SE\frac{1}{4}NW\frac{1}{4}SW\frac{1}{4}$.

2. Classification of the above-described lands by this order segregates them from all appropriations, including location under the mining laws, except as to applications under the Small Tract Act and applications under the mineral leasing laws.

3. The lands are located approximately 14 miles southeast of Desert Hot Springs and 15 miles east of Palm Springs. Dillon Highway, a paved road, traverses the area in a northwesterly and southeasterly direction. Dillon Highway connects the towns of Desert Hot Springs. The lands lie in a trough bounded on the north by the Little San Bernardino Mountains and to the south by the Indio Hills. The area is readily accessible from the north and south via Dillon Highway and from the west via Thousand Palms Canyon Road and extension of Ramon Road out of Palm Springs.

Section 4 slopes to the south and west, with a fall of about 200 feet throughout the length of the section. The land is rolling to undulating in the north and west, with ravines which flow into Thousand Palms and Pushawalla Canyons. The northern portion is rocky and more broken than the southern portion.

Section 10 lies at the fall line of the Little San Bernardino Mountains and forms somewhat of a basin between these mountains and the Indio Hills. The land in general is rolling, and consists of both sandy and rocky soils.

Section 14 is relatively gently sloping terrain to the south with a drop of about 150 feet from the north to the south. The northern portion is somewhat rocky and the southern portion is sandy.

The vegetative cover over the three sections is mainly creosote bush, bursage, desert holly and annual weeds and flowers.

4. The lands will be leased and sold in rectangular tracts of 5 acres each, more or less, 330 x 660 feet in size, and described as aliquot parts of the section. The tracts will be subject to all existing rights-of-way, to rights-of-way for streets and roads and for public utilities in all of the sections as follows:

33 feet along the interior boundaries of each section;
$16\frac{1}{2}$ feet along the west line $E\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}$;
$16\frac{1}{2}$ feet along the east line $W\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}$;
$16\frac{1}{2}$ feet along the west line $W\frac{1}{2}E\frac{1}{2}$;
$16\frac{1}{2}$ feet along the east line $E\frac{1}{2}W\frac{1}{2}$;
$16\frac{1}{2}$ feet along the east line $W\frac{1}{2}W\frac{1}{2}$.

Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, County, or municipality in which the tract is located, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to issuance of patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

5. Leases will be issued to qualified applicants for a term of three (3) years and will contain option to purchase in accordance with 43 CFR 257.13. The appraised value of the tracts is $250. The advance rental is $37.50. Therefore, before leases can be issued, an additional payment for advance rental in the amount of $27.50 is due and payable to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, from individuals having statutory preference. Leases will not be renewable unless failure to construct the required improvements is justified under the circumstances and nonrenewal would work an extreme hardship on the lessee.

6. To maintain their rights under their leases, lessees will be required either (a) to construct substantial improvements on their lands, or (b) file a copy of an agreement with their neighbors binding them to construct substantial improvements on their lands. Such improvements must conform with health, sanitation, and construction requirements of local ordinances and must in addition, meet the following standards:

The dwelling house must be suitable for year-round use, on a permanent foundation and with a minimum of 400 square feet of floor space. It must be built in a workmanlike manner out of attractive materials properly finished. Adequate disposal and sanitary facilities must be installed. Conventional concrete, cement slab, or masonry foundations are acceptable. Concrete piers are not acceptable as foundations.

7. Applicants must file, in duplicate, with the Manager, Land Office, 5th floor, Bartlett Building, 215 West 7th Street, Los Angeles 14, California, application form 4–776, filled out in compliance with the instructions on the form and accompanied by any showings or documents required by those instructions. Copies of the application form can be secured from the above-named official.

8. The lands are now subject to application under the Small Tract Act. All valid applications filed prior to June 25, 1956, will be granted the preference right provided by 43 CFR 257.5 (a). All valid applications from persons entitled to veterans' preference filed after June 25, 1956, and prior to 10:00 a. m., July 31, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. All valid applications from persons entitled to veterans' preference filed after that time will be considered in the order of filing. All valid applications from other persons filed after June 25, 1956, and prior to 10:00 a. m., October 30, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. All valid applications filed after that time will be considered in the order of filing.

Applications must be accompanied by a filing fee of $10 plus the rental specified above. Failure to transmit these payments with the application will render the application invalid. Advance rentals will be returned to unsuccessful applicants. All filing fees will be retained by the United States.

9. Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to Manager, Land Office, 5th floor, Bartlett Building, 215 West 7th Street, Los Angeles 14, California.

R. G. SPORLEDER,
Officer in Charge,
Southern Field Group, Los Angeles.

JULY 5, 1956.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

Portions of the lands are within the Uintah National Forest, and have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to such other applications, selections and locations as are permitted on national forest lands effective at 10 a. m. on August 10, 1956.

Some of the lands have been patented, and others are State school lands. Approximately 31,000 acres are vacant public domain, and are grazing lands varying from semi-desert type to mountain meadow in carrying capacity.

No application for the restored lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict; and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on August 10, 1956 will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on November 9, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10 a. m. on November 9, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10 a. m. on November 9, 1956.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

DEPUE FALCK,
Acting Director.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-10180, etc.]

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 5, 1956.

In the matters of Phillips Petroleum Company, Docket No. G-10180, The Carter Oil Company, Docket No. G-10230, Hunt Oil Company, Docket No. G-10253, Louisiana Nevada Transit Company, Docket No. G-10288.

Take notice that: Phillips Petroleum Company (Phillips), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, filed on March 30, 1956, in Docket No. G-10180, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act (act), authorizing Phillips to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

The Carter Oil Company (Carter), a West Virginia corporation with principal place of business in the National Bank of Tulsa Building, Tulsa, Oklahoma, filed on April 9, 1956, as amended June 25, 1956, in Docket No. G-10230, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, authorizing Carter to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Hunt Oil Company (Hunt), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 700 Mercantile Bank Building, Dallas, Texas, filed on April 12, 1956, in Docket No. G-10253, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, authorizing Hunt to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicants Phillips, Carter, and Hunt propose to sell natural gas in interstate commerce as described below to Louisiana Nevada Transit Company for resale.

Docket No.; Applicant; and Source of Gas

G-10180; Phillips Petroleum Company; approx. 8.6 percent interest in Red Rock Unit operated by Hunt, North Shongaloo Area, Webster Parish, La.

G-10230; The Carter Oil Company, Red Rock and East Red Rock Fields, Webster Parish, La.

G-10253; Hunt Oil Company, Red Rock Field, Webster Parish, La.

Louisiana Nevada Transit Company (Louisiana Nevada), a Nevada corporation with principal place of business at 130 East 12th Street, Ada, Oklahoma, filed on April 20, 1956, in Docket No. G-10288, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the act, authorizing Louisiana Nevada to construct and operate as integral parts of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, which are necessary to the transportation and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce, for the purpose of taking natural gas from Phillips, Carter and Hunt in Red Rock Field, Webster Parish, Louisiana.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by Louisiana Nevada consist of approximately 9,000 feet of 4½-inch lateral pipeline extending from a point of interconnection with Louisiana Nevada's existing 6-inch Haynesville Lateral to a point in the Red Rock Field, Webster Parish, Louisiana, together with approximately 19,350 feet of 4½-inch and 9,000 feet of 2-inch field lines to be located in Red Rock Field.

The estimated total cost of all facilities to be installed by Louisiana Nevada is $69,994.73, of which $49,831.27 is for the 4½-inch lines, $14,339.11 is for the 2-inch lines and $5,824.35 is for the necessary metering and appurtenant facilities. The cost will be financed from company funds.

The application states that the estimated total gas supply available in reserves to Louisiana Nevada from the Red Rock Field is 16,159,000 Mcf; that the gas proposed to be delivered to Louisiana Nevada is estimated to be 2,600 Mcf per day initially; and that the additional gas supply will be used for supplying the increased demands of Louisiana Nevada's present customers.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations, and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Wednesday, July 25, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW, Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 20, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

[Notice 120]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

JULY 6, 1956.

Protests consisting of an original and two copies to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and street address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (39 CFR 1.40), protests shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall notify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in forms of affidavits. Any interested person not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, pre-hearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceeding shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operations of Motor Carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1–1520]

GENERAL TIRE & RUBBER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 5, 1956

In the matter of General Tire & Rubber Company, 3¾ percent Cumulative Preferred Stock, $100 Par Value, File No. 1–1520.

New York Stock Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2–1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

All but 1,771 shares of the 3¾ percent Preferred Stock, of the 18,605 shares previously outstanding, have been surrendered for conversion into either 4¼ percent Subordinated Debentures or 4¼ percent Preference Stock and transferable 5-year warrants for the purchase of common stock, pursuant to an offer approved by the Company's stockholders on April 3, 1956, according to advices from the Company to the Exchange. In the applicant's opinion, the outstanding amount of the 3¾ percent Preferred Stock has become so reduced as to make further dealings therein on the Exchange inadvisable and such dealings were suspended before the opening of the trading session on June 18, 1956.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before July 23, 1956, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Supp. 1, Dry Edible Beans]

PART 421—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1956-CROP DRY EDIBLE BEAN LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

A price support program has been announced for the 1956 crop of dry edible beans. The 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1 (21 F. R. 3997), issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation and containing the regulations of a general nature with respect to price support operations for certain grains and other commodities produced in 1956 is supplemented as follows:

Sec.
421.1776 Purpose.
421.1777 Availability of price support.
421.1778 Eligible beans.
421.1779 Warehouse receipts.
421.1780 Determination of quantity.
421.1781 Determination of quality.
421.1782 Credit for loss or damage.
421.1783 Maturity of loans.
421.1784 Packaging and warehouse charges.
421.1785 Support rates.
421.1786 Storage in transit.
421.1787 Liquidation of loans and delivery under purchase agreements.
421.1788 Settlement value.

AUTHORITY: §§ 421.1776 to 421.1788 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended, 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072; secs. 301, 401, 63 Stat. 1053; 15 U. S. C. 714c; 7 U. S. C. 1447, 1421.

§ 421.1776 Purpose. Sections 421.1776 to 421.1788 prescribe additional specific regulations which, together with the general regulations contained in the 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1 (§§ 421.1601 to 421.1622; 21 F. R. 3997), apply to loans and purchase agreements under the 1956-Crop Dry Edible Bean Price Support Program.

§ 421.1777 Availability of price support—(a) Method of support. Price support will be available through farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and through purchase agreements. Farm-storage loans will not be available to cooperative marketing associations of producers.

(b) Area. Farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever beans of the eligible classes are grown in all States of the continental United States, except that farm-storage loans will not be available in areas where the State committee determines the beans cannot be safely stored on the farm.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support must be made at the office of the county committee which keeps the farm-program records for the farm. An eligible cooperative marketing association of producers must make application at the county committee office for the county in which the principal office of the association is located unless the State committee designates some other county ASC office.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from the time of harvest through January 31, 1957, and the applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the county committee not later than such date. Applicable documents include the Producer's Note and Loan Agreement for warehouse-storage loans, the Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement and the Commodity Chattel Mortgage for farm-storage loans, and the Purchase Agreement for purchase agreements.

(e) Eligible producer. (1) An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, trust, or other business enterprise, or legal entity, and wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof producing eligible beans in 1956 as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper. Two or more eligible producers may obtain a joint loan on eligible beans harvested by them if stored in the same farm-storage facility. In the case of joint loans, each person signing the note shall be held jointly and severally responsible for the loan. Where the county office has experienced difficulties in settling farm-storage loans with a producer, the county committee shall determine that he is not eligible for a farm-storage loan. He shall be eligible, however, to obtain a warehouse-storage loan or sign a purchase agreement.

(2) A cooperative marketing association of producers shall be deemed to be an eligible producer for warehouse-storage loans and purchase agreements on any class of eligible beans produced by eligible producer-members, provided, (i) all beans of such class marketed or acquired by the association are produced by producer-members; (ii) the association does not release any such beans for the purpose of permitting producer-members to obtain individual price support loans or purchase agreements; (iii) the proceeds of the eligible beans marketed by the association are shared proportionately among the eligible producer-members according to the class, quality and quantity of such beans each delivers to the association; (iv) the association has authority to obtain a loan on the security of the beans and to give a lien thereon as well as authority to sell such beans.

(3) All determinations with respect to cooperative marketing associations of producers pursuant to this section shall be made by or under the direction of the State committee.

§ 421.1778 Eligible beans. At the time the beans are placed under loan or delivered under a purchase agreement, they must meet the following requirements:

(a) The beans must have been produced in the continental United States in 1956 by an eligible producer.

(b) (1) The beneficial interest in the beans must be in the producer tendering the beans for loan or for delivery under a purchase agreement and must always have been in him or in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the beans were harvested. In the case of cooperative marketing associations, the beneficial interest in the beans must have been in the producers who delivered the beans to the association and must always have been in them or in them and former producers whom they succeeded before the beans were harvested.

(2) To meet the requirements of succession to a former producer, the rights, responsibilities and interest of the former producer with respect to the farming unit on which the beans were produced shall have been substantially assumed by the person claiming succession. Mere purchase of the crop prior to harvest, without acquisition of any additional interest in the farming unit, shall not constitute succession. The county committee shall determine whether the requirements with respect to succession have been met.

(c) The beans must be dry edible beans of the classes Pea, Medium White, Great Northern, Small White, Flat Small White, Pink, Small Red, Pinto, Red Kidney, Large Lima and Baby Lima.

(d) The beans must not contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals.

(e) (1) Beans placed under warehouse-storage loan must grade U. S. Choice Handpicked, U. S. Extra No. 1, U. S. No. 1, or U. S. No. 2.

(2) Beans placed under farm-storage loan must meet the requirements set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for warehouse-storage loans, or must be beans (hereinafter referred to as "thresher run" beans) which have not been commercially cleaned; which contain not in excess of 18 percent moisture; which, after deduction of foreign material, contain not more than 8 percent of other defects, as these terms are defined in the United States Standards for Beans; which are not musty, moldy, sour, heating, hot, weevily, materially weathered, or otherwise of distinctly low quality; and which do not have any commercially objectionable odor.

(f) Beans delivered under a purchase agreement must grade U. S. Choice Handpicked, U. S. Extra No. 1, U. S. No. 1, or U. S. No. 2.

(g) If offered as security for a farm-storage loan, beans must have been stored in the storage structure for at least 30 days prior to inspection for measurement, sampling, and sealing, unless otherwise approved by the State committee.

§ 421.1779 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts, representing beans in approved warehouse-storage to be placed under loan or to be delivered under a purchase agreement must meet the following requirements:

(a) Warehouse receipts must be issued in the name of the producer or cooperative marketing association, must be properly endorsed in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be receipts issued by a warehouse approved by CCC under CCC Form 23, "Bean Storage Agreement." The receipts must be negotiable and must cover eligible beans actually in store in the warehouse.

(b) In order to be acceptable under the loan program, each warehouse receipt, or the accompanying supplemental certificate, must contain a statement that the beans are insured in accordance with CCC Form 28, "Bean Storage Agreement," and if such insurance was not effective as of the date of deposit of the beans in the warehouse the warehouseman must certify as to the effective date of the insurance and that the beans are in the warehouse and undamaged. The insurance on commingled beans must be obtained by the warehouseman. Insurance on beans with respect to which the warehouseman does not guarantee quantity and quality (hereinafter called identity-preserved beans) must be obtained by either the producer or the warehouseman. If the insurance is obtained by the producer, it must be assigned to the warehouseman, with the consent of the insurance company, before a loan will be made and the warehouseman must also certify that the insurance has been assigned to him with the consent of the insurance company. Insurance is not required in order for warehouse receipts to be purchased under the purchase agreement program.

(c) Each warehouse receipt or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate) properly identified with the warehouse receipt, must show the gross and net weight of beans, the class and the grade or all grading factors used in the determination of the quality of the beans.

(d) In the case of "identity-preserved" beans, the warehouse receipt shall show the lot number and number of bags in the lot, and the producer must execute the supplemental certificate and assume responsibility for the quantity and quality indicated thereon.

(e) The warehouse receipt may be subject to liens for warehouse charges only to the extent of the charges indicated in § 421.1784 (b).

§ 421.1780 Determination of quantity—(a) When loans are made—(1) Farm-storage or "identity-preserved" warehouse-stored beans. (i) At the time the loan is made, the quantity of beans may be determined either by weight or, if stored in bulk, by measurement. Where the quantity is determined by measurement, 2.1 cubic feet shall constitute 100 pounds.

(ii) In the case of bagged beans grading U. S. No. 2 or better, loans shall be made on the net weight of the lot or on a quantity determined by multiplying the number of bags by 100 pounds, whichever is the smaller. In the case of other eligible beans, loans shall be made on the basis of the net weight of sound beans in the lot. Sound beans, shall be beans free of dockage and other defects as defined in the United States Standards for Beans.

(iii) If the beans are stored in sacks, a deduction of ¾ pound per sack shall be made from the gross weight of sacked beans, except where the net weight is shown on the warehouse receipt.

(2) Commingled warehouse-storage beans. The quantity on which a loan shall be made shall be the net weight of beans shown on the warehouse receipt or supplemental certificate.

(b) At time of delivery or acquisition—(1) Delivery from other than an approved warehouse or delivery or acquisition as identity-preserved in an approved warehouse. The net weight of beans delivered to CCC from other than an approved warehouse, or delivered to or acquired by CCC in an approved warehouse as "identity-preserved" beans shall be determined by weighing the beans. If all the beans in the lot are not weighed, the net weight shall be determined by multiplying the average net weight of the bags weighed (but not less than 10 percent of the bags in the lot) by the total number of bags in the lot. The producer will be credited with the net weight delivered or acquired or with a quantity determined by multiplying the number of bags in the lot by 100 pounds, whichever quantity is less.

(2) Delivery or acquisition in an approved warehouse of beans covered by a commingled warehouse receipt. The net weight of beans delivered to or acquired by CCC in an approved warehouse where the warehouseman guarantees the quality and quantity shall be the net weight of beans specified on the warehouse receipt or supplemental certificate.

§ 421.1781 Determination of quality. (a) The class, grade, and all quality factors shall be determined in accordance with the United States Standards for Beans. An inspection certificate, issued by a licensed inspector, is required on all farm-storage loans.

(b) Where quality is guaranteed by the warehouseman, the class and grade acquired or delivered under a warehouse-storage loan or purchase agreement shall be that shown on the warehouse receipt. In all other cases, the class and grade shall be determined from a Federal or Federal-State inspection certificate, issued by or under the supervision of the Grain Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

§ 421.1782 Credit for loss or damage. The amount to be credited to the producer for loss or damage assumed by CCC, in accordance with § 421.1615 of 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, shall be determined by multiplying the number of hundredweight of sound beans, lost or destroyed, by the support rate for U. S. No. 2 beans of the class lost or destroyed, except that if the warehouse receipt or an official inspection certificate covering the beans shows a grade of U. S. No. 2 or better, the amount credited shall be determined by multiplying the net weight of the beans lost or destroyed by the support rate for the class and grade of such beans.

§ 421.1783 Maturity of loans. Loans mature on demand but not later than February 28, 1957, in the case of beans produced in the States of Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania, and not later than April 30, 1957, in the case of beans produced in all other States.

§ 421.1784 Packaging and warehouse charges—(a) Packaging. Unless otherwise approved by CCC, beans placed under a warehouse storage loan must be packed 100 pounds net in new bags made of 36-inch, 10.4 ounce "A" or "B" quality common jute or heavier weight jute, or provision must have been made for such packaging by the producer. Bag seams must be sufficiently strong to develop the full strength of the cloth. Bags must be marked to show the commodity name and class, the net weight when packed; and the name and address of the packer. Beans delivered under a farm-storage loan or purchase agreement must also meet the packaging requirements set forth above.

(b) Warehouse charges. Storage, bagging, cleaning, inspection fees and all other charges, except receiving and loading out charges in the warehouse in which the beans are acquired by CCC, accruing through February 28, 1957, in the case of beans produced in the States of Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania, and through April 30, 1957, in the case of beans produced in all other States, shall be paid by the producer prior to the time that the beans are placed under warehouse-storage loan or delivered under a purchase agreement, or shall be paid from the loan or purchase proceeds. Such charges include the cost of movement to a normal railroad shipping point if the warehouse is not located on a railroad, and any unpiling, turning, repiling or other charges, except loading out charges, incident to official weight and grade determinations on identity-preserved beans. CCC will assume warehouse storage charges (not in excess of those approved for the 1956 crop under CCC Form 28, "Bean Storage Agreement") accruing after April 30, 1957 (February 28, 1957, for beans produced in Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania), which are delivered to or acquired by CCC.

§ 421.1785 Support rates. (a) The loan rate for eligible beans shall be the applicable support rate shown in paragraph (b) of this section, for the class, grade, and county where produced; however, if the beans have been moved by truck to approved storage in a higher loan rate county, or if the warehouseman guarantees delivery by truck to approved storage or on track in a higher support rate county, the loan rate shall be the support rate for the county in which the beans are stored or to which delivery is guaranteed.

(b) The support rates per 100 pounds net weight established for dry edible beans are as follows:

No. 1 less $2, except in Michigan and New York, where the loan rate shall be U. S. No. 1 less $3. Quantity on thresher-run beans is the net weight of sound whole beans.

§ 421.1786 Storage in transit. (a) Reimbursement will be made by CCC to producers or warehousemen for paid-in rail freight (including freight tax) on beans stored in approved warehouses, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The movement from point of origin to storage point must be an "inline" movement as determined by CCC, and must be no greater than 100 miles from the point of production unless otherwise approved by CCC prior to the date of shipment.

(2) The freight must have been paid in by the person claiming reimbursement and he must not have been otherwise reimbursed.

(3) The warehouseman must furnish the descriptive data on all freight bills or transit tonnage slips on all eligible beans received into the storage facility at the time and in the manner stipulated in CCC Form 28, "Bean Storage Agreement," in effect with CCC for the 1956 crop.

(4) The freight bills or transit tonnage slips must be made available to CCC in accordance with the provisions of Form CCC 28, "Bean Storage Agreement".

(5) Not more than one transit stop must have been used on the billing.

(6) The freight bills must be otherwise acceptable to CCC under the terms of the storage agreement.

(b) Reimbursement for paid-in freight under this section will be made by the appropriate CSS Commodity Office subsequent to actual delivery of the beans to CCC pursuant to a loan or purchase agreement.

§ 421.1787 Liquidation of loans and delivery under purchase agreements—(a) Farm-storage loans. The provisions of § 421.1618 (a) of 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1 shall apply to farm-storage bean loans.

(b) Warehouse-storage loans. The provisions of § 421.1618 (b) of 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1 shall apply to warehouse-storage bean loans including beans stored identity-preserved.

(c) Purchase agreements. (1) The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) will not be obligated to sell any quantity of beans to CCC. However, he may sell to CCC any quantity of eligible beans not in excess of the quantity stated in the purchase agreement. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell the beans to CCC, he will have a 30-day period during which he must notify the county committee in writing of his intentions to sell. Such period shall end on the applicable loan maturity date specified in § 421.1783, or such earlier date as may be prescribed by the Executive Vice President, CCC.

(2) In the case of eligible beans stored commingled in an approved warehouse, the producer must, not later than the day following the final date of such 30-day period, or during such period of time thereafter as may be specified by the county committee, submit to the county committee warehouse receipts under which the warehouseman guarantees quality and quantity, for the quantity of beans he elects to sell to CCC. In the case of beans stored in other than approved warehouse storage, or stored identity-preserved in approved warehouse storage the county committee will, on or after the final date of such 30-day period, issue delivery instructions to the producer. The producer must then complete delivery within a 15-day period immediately following the date the county committee issues delivery instructions, unless the county committee determines that more time is needed for delivery.

(3) The producer may be required to retain beans stored in other than approved warehouse storage for a period of 60 days after the applicable loan maturity date without any cost to CCC. CCC will not assume any loss in quantity or quality of beans covered by a purchase agreement occurring prior to delivery to CCC, except for quality deterioration under the following circumstances. If a producer has properly requested delivery instructions and CCC cannot accept delivery within the 60-day period following the applicable loan maturity date, the producer may notify the county committee at any time after such 60-day period that the beans are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition. Such notice must be confirmed in writing. If the county committee determines that the beans are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition and that the beans cannot be satisfactorily conditioned by the producer, and delivery cannot be accepted within a reasonable length of time, the county committee shall obtain an inspection and grade and quality determination. If such inspection shows the beans to be of an eligible grade, settlement, when delivery is completed, shall be made on the basis of such grade and quality determination or on the basis of the grade and quality determination made at the time of delivery, whichever is higher, and on the basis of the quantity actually delivered.

(4) Eligible beans delivered under a purchase agreement will be purchased at the applicable support rate. When delivery is completed, payment will be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office. The producer shall direct on Commodity Purchase Form 4 to whom payment of the proceeds shall be made. Beans stored commingled in approved warehouses will be purchased, on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts and/or accompanying documents. Beans stored identity-preserved in an approved warehouse and beans delivered from other than approved warehouse storage will be purchased on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors, determined by the county committee at the time of delivery (in accordance with requirements for the determination of such factors under the loan program), and agreed to by the producer on Commodity Purchase Form 4.

§ 421.1788 Settlement value. The settlement value of the beans delivered or acquired under a loan or delivered under purchase agreement shall be determined as set forth in this section.

(a) Applicable support rate. Settlement of loans and purchase agreements shall be made at the support rate for the county in which the beans are produced except as follows:

(1) In the case of farm-storage loans settlement shall be made at the support rate for the county where the beans are delivered if the beans have been delivered to such county by truck and such county has a higher support rate than the county where the beans were produced.

(2) In the case of warehouse-storage loans, both identity-preserved and guaranteed, (i) if the warehouse is located off the railroad, settlement will be made with the producer at the support rate for the county to which the warehouseman guarantees delivery for loading if such support rate is higher than the support rate for the county where the beans were produced, and (ii) if the beans are acquired in storage in an approved warehouse in a county having a higher support rate than the county where the beans were produced and movement to such warehouse was made by truck, settlement will be made at the support rate for the county in which acquisition is made by CCC.

(3) In the case of beans delivered under purchase agreement from other than approved warehouse storage, the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be applicable. In the case of beans delivered under purchase agreement in an approved warehouse, the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall be applicable.

(b) Applicable support rate for class and grade—(1) Commingled warehouse-storage loans. Settlement will be made with the producer at the applicable county support rate for the class and grade of beans shown on the warehouse receipt and accompanying documents for the quantity shown thereon.

(2) Farm-storage and identity-preserved warehouse-storage loans. (i) In the case of eligible beans delivered to CCC from farm-storage or acquired by CCC in identity-preserved warehouse-storage under the loan program, settlement will be made at the applicable county support rate for the class and grade of the total quantity of beans delivered. The producer shall, at his expense, furnish to the county committee official inspection and weight certificates dated subsequent to February 15, 1957, for beans produced in Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania, and subsequent to April 15, 1957, for beans produced in all other States. On farm-storage loans such certificates shall be furnished at the time of delivery of the beans. On identity-preserved warehouse-storage loans such certificates shall be furnished within 10 days after the applicable maturity date. In any instance where the producer fails to furnish to CCC weight or inspection certificates required for settlement, CCC may obtain such certificates. The cost incurred by CCC in obtaining such certificates and any other fees or expenses incurred in connection with settlement on loans shall be for the account of the producer. However, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, if at the time of delivery to or acquisition by CCC, a commingled warehouse receipt covering the beans delivered or acquired, agreed to by the producer and warehouseman, is issued by an approved warehouse, inspection and weight certificates will not be required and settlement with the producer will be made at the applicable county support rate for the class and grade of the beans shown on the commingled warehouse receipt and accompanying documents for the quantity shown thereon.

(ii) In the case of beans (delivered under a farm-storage loan or acquired by CCC under an identity-preserved warehouse storage loan) which are of a grade for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be the settlement rate established for the class and grade placed under loan, less the difference, if any, at the time the inspection and weight certificates, or the commingled receipt, are delivered to the county committee, between the market price for the class and grade placed under loan and the market price of the beans delivered or acquired as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That in the case of thresher-run beans which, when delivered are not of a grade for which a support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be the support rate for beans of the same class grading U. S. No. 2, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for such grade and the market price of the beans delivered, as determined by CCC: Provided, further, That if any such beans are sold by CCC in order to determine the market price for purposes of settlement, the settlement value shall not be less than such sales price.

(iii) Any amount determined to be due CCC or the producer in settlement for difference in quantity or quality of an identity-preserved warehouse storage loan shall be paid as provided in § 421.1618 (a) (2) and (3) of 1956 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1.

(3) Purchase agreements. Eligible beans delivered to CCC under a purchase agreement will be purchased at the applicable support rate for the class and grade of beans delivered and the producer shall, at his expense, furnish to the county committee at the time of delivery official inspection and weight certificates dated subsequent to February 15, 1957, for beans produced in Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania, and subsequent to April 15, 1957, for beans produced in all other States: Provided, however, That if at the time of delivery to CCC, a commingled warehouse receipt covering the beans delivered, agreed to by the producer and warehouseman is issued by an approved warehouse, inspection and weight certificates will not be required and settlement with the producer will be made at the applicable county support rate for the class and grade of the beans shown on the commingled warehouse receipt and accompanying documents for the quantity shown thereon.

(c) Determination of quantity for settlement purposes. The quantity of beans on which settlement will be made shall be determined in accordance with § 421.1780 (b).

Issued this 6th day of July 1956.

PART 424—BARLEY CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR THE 1956 AND SUCCEEDING CROP YEARS

APPLICATION FOR INSURANCE; POLICY

The above identified regulations (19 F. R. 9315; 20 F. R. 7637, 10023; 21 F. R. 1004) are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 424.3, as amended, is amended, effective beginning with the 1957 crop year, to read as follows:

§ 424.3 Application for insurance. Application for insurance on a form prescribed by the Corporation may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner-operator, or tenant, in a barley crop. For any crop year applications shall be submitted to the county office on or before the following applicable closing date preceding such crop year, except that in the States of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington an application for insurance may be filed until the March 31 following the closing date provided that in such cases winter barley will not be insured for the first crop year of the contract:

State and Closing Date
California: August 31.
Idaho: October 31.
Oregon: October 31.
Washington: October 31.
All other States: March 31.

2. Subsection (d) of section 10, as amended, of the policy shown in § 424.6 is amended, effective beginning with the 1957 crop year for counties having a cancellation date of December 31, and effective beginning with the 1958 crop year for all other counties, to read as follows:

(d) In determining any loss under the contract, production shall be valued at the fixed price. However, any threshed barley which (1) does not grade No. 4 or better (determined in accordance with Official Grain Standards of the United States) because of poor quality due to insurable causes occurring within the insurance period and would not meet these requirements if properly handled, and (2) has a value per bushel which is less than the lower of the fixed price or the Commodity Credit Corporation county loan rate for No. 4 barley, shall be valued by the Corporation at a price not in excess of the fixed price: Provided, when the Commodity Credit Corporation county loan rate for No. 4 barley is less than the fixed price, the total value of such threshed barley, as determined by the Corporation, shall be adjusted by dividing it by such loan rate and multiplying the result by the fixed price.

3. Subsection (a) of section 13, as amended, of the policy shown in § 424.6 is amended, effective beginning with the 1957 crop year, by changing the phrase in the second sentence which reads, "the June 30 for Oregon and Washington" to read, "the June 30 for Idaho, Oregon, and Washington".

(Secs. 506, 516, 52 Stat. 73, 77, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1506, 1516. Interprets or applies secs. 507, 508, 509, 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1507, 1508, 1509)

Adopted by the Board of Directors on June 29, 1956.

[SEAL] E. C. NEAS,
Acting Secretary,
Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

Approved on: July 9, 1956.

MARVIN L. MCLAIN,
Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 722.742 to 722.788 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 342-347, 361-368, 372-376, 388; 52 Stat. 33, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1342-1347, 1361-1368, 1372-1376, 1388.

GENERAL

§ 722.741 Basis and purpose. The provisions of §§ 722.742 to 722.788 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. These provisions govern the identification and measurement of farms; the amount, adjustment, and review of the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess; the issuance of marketing cards and marketing certificates; the identification of cotton which is marketed as being subject to or not subject to the penalty and lien for the penalty; the rate of the penalty and the manner in which penalties shall be paid by producers and buyers; the refunding of penalty overpayments; the records and reports required to be made by cotton producers, ginners, buyers, and others; and other miscellaneous provisions regarding the production and marketing of cotton. The provisions apply (a) to cotton produced in 1956 and (b) to cotton produced in 1955 or any prior year which is marketed by producers during the 1956-57 marketing year. The provisions of §§ 722.741 to 722.788 supplement the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1956 Crop of Upland Cotton, issued October 28, 1955 (20 F. R. 8247), as amended. In accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 30, 1956 (21 F. R. 3689) that the Secretary of Agriculture had under consideration the formulation and issuance of such provisions. The data, views, and recommendations submitted by interested persons have been duly considered within the limits of the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, in connection with the preparation of §§ 722.742 to 722.788.

§ 722.742 Definitions. As used in §§ 722.742 to 722.788 and in all forms and documents in connection therewith, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter genders and the singular shall include the plural number:

(a) Terms relating to administrative organization. (1) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or the officer of the Department of Agriculture acting in his stead pursuant to delegated authority.

(2) "Deputy Administrator" means the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, or Acting Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(3) "Director" means the Director or Acting Director, of the Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) "State committee" means the persons designated by the Secretary as the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

(5) "State administrative officer" means the person employed to execute the policies of the State committee and to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the office of the State committee (hereinafter referred to as the "State office"), or the person acting in such capacity.

(6) "Review committee" means the review committee appointed by the Secretary pursuant to section 363 of the act.

(7) "County committee" means the persons elected within a county as the county committee pursuant to the Secretary's regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County and Community Committees (19 F. R. 3637), as amended.

(8) "Community committee" means the persons elected within a community as the community committee pursuant to the Secretary's regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County and Community Committees (19 F. R. 3637), as amended.

(9) "County office manager" means the person employed by the county committee to execute the policies of the county committee and to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the office of the county committee (hereinafter referred to as the "county office"), or the person acting in such capacity.

(10) "Treasurer" means the county office manager or the person designated by him to act as treasurer of the county committee.

(b) Terms relating to farm. (1) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or rangeland under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(i) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or rangeland which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as a part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and

(ii) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county or adminstrative area, as the case may be, in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(2) "Farm acreage allotment" means a cotton acreage allotment established for a farm under the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1956 Crop of Upland Cotton (20 F. R. 8247), as amended.

(3) "Acreage planted to cotton:" For purposes of determining compliance with the farm acreage allotment, the acreage planted to cotton on a farm in 1956 shall be the acreage of land seeded to cotton on the farm in 1956, excluding any acreage in excess of the farm acreage allotment which (i) is destroyed by causes beyond the producer's control prior to the expiration of the period established under item (ii) of this subparagraph for disposing of excess cotton acreage, or (ii) is disposed of not later than 20 days, or such longer period as is approved in writing by the county committee, in accordance with § 722.726 of the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1956 Crop of Upland Cotton (20 F. R. 8247), as amended, after the original notice of the measured cotton acreage is mailed to the farm operator.

(4) "New cotton farm" means a farm on which cotton is to be planted in 1956 but on which no acreage was planted to cotton in any of the years 1953, 1954, and 1955.

(5) "Normal yield" means the average yield per acre of lint cotton for the farm, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which such normal yield is determined. If for any such year the data are not available or there was no actual yield, then the normal yield for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee taking into consideration abnormal weather conditions, the normal yield for the county, and the yield in years for which data are available. The normal yield for a new cotton farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to soil and other physical factors affecting the production of cotton.

(6) "Normal production" of any number of acres means the normal yield for the farm multiplied by such number of acres.

(7) "Actual production" of cotton on the farm means the total number of pounds of lint cotton determined to have been produced on the farm in 1956.

(8) "Actual yield" per acre means the number of pounds of lint cotton determined by dividing the actual production of cotton on the farm by the acreage planted to cotton on the farm in 1956.

(9) "Farm marketing quota" means a cotton marketing quota established for the farm under § 722.749.

(10) "Farm marketing excess" means the amount of cotton determined for any farm under § 722.750 or § 722.752, whichever is applicable.

(12) "Farm with a farm marketing excess" means a farm on which the acreage planted to cotton in 1956 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment established therefor.

(13) "Serial number of the farm" or "farm serial number" means the serial number assigned to the farm by the county committee for the purpose of identification.

(14) "Producer" means a person who, as owner or landlord (other than the landlord of a standing-rent tenant, fixed-rent tenant, or cash tenant), cash tenant, standing-rent tenant, fixed-rent tenant, share tenant, or sharecropper, is entitled to all or a share of the 1956 crop of cotton (or cotton on hand from a prior crop) or of the proceeds thereof.

(15) "Owner or landlord" means a person who owns farmland and rents such land to another person or who operates such land.

(16) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(17) "Cash tenant," "standing-rent tenant," or "fixed-rent tenant" means a person who rents land from another for a fixed amount of cash or a commodity to be paid as rent.

(18) "Share tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person and pays as rent a share of the crops or the proceeds thereof.

(19) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the general supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of the crops produced thereon or the proceeds thereof.

(20) "Seed cotton" means the harvested fruit of the cotton plant before ginning.

(21) "Lint cotton" means the fiber taken from seed cotton by ginning.

(c) Terms relating to marketing. (1) "Market" means to dispose of cotton in raw or processed form by voluntary or involuntary sale, barter, or exchange, or by gift inter vivos.

(i) The term "sale" means any transfer of title to cotton by a producer to another by any means other than barter or exchange or gift inter vivos.

(ii) The terms "barter" and "exchange" mean transfer of title to cotton by a producer to another in return for cotton or any other commodity, service, or property in cases where the value of the cotton or such other commodity, service, or property is not considered in terms of money, or the transfer of title to cotton by a producer to another in payment of a fixed rental or other charge for land.

(iii) The term "gift inter vivos" means any transfer of title, accompanied by delivery, to cotton by a producer to another which takes effect immediately and irrevocably and is made without any consideration or compensation therefor.

(iv) "Marketed", "marketing", and "for market" shall have corresponding meanings to the term "market" in the connection in which they are used.

(2) "Marketing year" means the period beginning August 1, 1956, and ending July 31, 1957, both dates inclusive.

(3) "Buyer" means a person who acquires cotton from a producer by purchase. An agricultural cooperative association which makes purchase- and sale-agreements with producers, or marketing agreements under which the title to cotton passes upon delivery of cotton by the producer and the association is authorized to deal with such cotton as owner, shall be deemed to be a "buyer" with respect to any cotton acquired pursuant to such an agreement which is subject to marketing quotas as provided in § 722.748.

(4) "Transferee" means a person who receives cotton from a producer by barter or exchange, or by gift inter vivos.

(5) "Ginner" means a person engaged in the business of ginning cotton.

(6) "Ginning" means the process by which lint cotton is removed from the cotton seed.

(7) "Gin bale number or mark" means the number entered on the bale tag or any other mark made or used by the ginner to identify a bale of cotton.

(8) "Warehouse receipt number" means the number on the warehouse receipt and on the warehouse bale tag used by the warehouseman to identify a bale of cotton.

(d) Miscellaneous terms. (1) "Act" means the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 and any amendments thereto heretofore or hereafter made.

(2) "Person" means an individual, partnership, firm, joint-stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof, or the Federal Government, or any agency thereof. The term "person" shall include two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

(3) "Upland cotton" (referred to in §§ 722.741 to 722.788 as "cotton") means any cotton other than extra long staple cotton.

(4) "Extra long staple cotton" means American-Egyptian, Sea Island, and Sea-land cotton, and all other varieties of the Barbadense species, and any hybrid thereof, and any other cotton in which one or more of these varieties predominates.

(5) "Carry-over cotton" means the unmarketed cotton from the 1955 or any previous crop which the producer thereof has on hand.

(6) "State and county code member" means the applicable numbers assigned by the Commodity Stabilization Service of the United States Department of Agriculture to each State and county for the purpose of identification.

(7) "Normal yield for any county" means the average yield per acre of lint cotton for the county, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which such normal yield is determined, as established by the Director. If for any year of such five-year period the data are not available or there was no actual yield, the yield for such year shall be appraised by taking into consideration the yields in years for which data are available, abnormal weather conditions, and the yields for such year in nearby counties in which the type of soil, topography, and farming practices are similar. If because of drought, flood, insect pests, plant disease, or other uncontrollable natural cause, the yield in any year of such five-year period is less than 75 percent of the average (computed without regard to such year), such year shall be eliminated in calculating the normal yield per acre for the county. The Director shall adjust for abnormal weather conditions the county yield for any year which exceeds 125 percent of the average of the yields during the five-year period immediately preceding the year in which the county normal yield is determined by limiting the yield for any such year to 125 percent of such five-year average yield: Provided, however, That if the State committee, upon review thereof, establishes to the satisfaction of the Director that a change in cultural practices in the county, including but not limited to a change from dry land farming to irrigation, use of better fertilization, seed, or insect control program, resulted in any annual yield in excess of 125 percent of such five-year average yield, then the Director shall increase the yield for any such year to reflect the change in cultural practices. The normal yield determined for a county shall be kept readily available to the public in the county office, and the normal yield determined for each county in a State shall be kept readily available to the public in the State office.

(8) "Penalty" means the penalty provided in section 346 (a) of the Act and § 722.766.

§ 722.743 Issuance of forms and instructions. The Director shall cause to be prepared such forms and instructions with respect to internal management as are necessary for carrying out §§ 722.742 to 722.788. The forms shall be issued by the Director with the approval of the Deputy Administrator, and the instructions shall be issued by the Deputy Administrator. Copies of such forms and instructions shall be furnished free to persons needing them upon request made to the State or county office or to the Director.

§ 722.744 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. In making any computation in connection with §§ 722.742 to 722.788, the amount of lint cotton shall be rounded to the nearest whole pound and the amount of penalties or refunds shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent. Fractions of exactly five-tenths of a pound or cent shall be dropped. The acreage of each field of cotton on the farm shall be expressed in hundredths of an acre, and thousandths of an acre shall be dropped. The total acreage of cotton on the farm shall be expressed in tenths of an acre, and hundredths of an acre shall be dropped.

IDENTIFICATION AND MEASUREMENT OF FARMS

§ 722.745 Identification of farms. Each farm as operated for the 1956 crop of cotton shall be identified by a farm serial number and all records pertaining to marketing quotas for the 1956 crop of cotton shall be identified by such number.

§ 722.746 Measurement of farms. The county committee shall provide for measurement of the acreage planted to cotton on farms in accordance with § 722.726 of the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1956 Crop of Upland Cotton (20 F. R. 8247), as amended.

§ 722.747 Reports and records of farm measurements. The county committee shall keep a record of the measurements made on all farms. It shall file with the State office a written report on Form MQ-94—Cotton (Upland), setting forth for each farm with a farm marketing excess (a) the farm serial number, (b) the name of the operator, (c) the farm acreage allotment, (d) the acreage planted to cotton in 1956, and (e) the total acreage in cultivation.

FARM MARKETING QUOTA AND FARM MARKETING EXCESS

§ 722.748 Cotton subject to marketing quota provisions. Marketing quotas for the 1956 crop of cotton shall be applicable to any cotton of that crop notwithstanding that it may be available for marketing prior to the beginning of the marketing year or marketed subsequent to the end of the marketing year. Carry-over cotton marketed during the marketing year shall be subject to §§ 722.742 to 722.788 to the extent applicable.

§ 722.751 Notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess. Written notice of the farm marketing quota and, where applicable, the farm marketing excess, established for a farm shall be mailed to the operator of such farm. Notice so given shall constitute notice to each producer having an interest in the 1956 cotton crop produced or to be produced on the farm. Each notice shall contain a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for a review of the farm marketing quota or farm marketing excess, or any determination made in connection therewith, may be had in accordance with section 363 of the act. A record of the date of mailing the notice to the operator of the farm shall be kept among the records of the county office and upon request a copy of the notice shall be furnished without charge to any producer on the farm for which the notice is given. Such notice shall contain the information necessary in each case to inform the producer as to the basis for the determinations set forth in the notice and the effect thereof.

§ 722.752 Farm marketing excess adjustment.—(a) Application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess. Any producer having an interest in the cotton produced in 1956 on a farm with a farm marketing excess may apply in writing to the county committee as provided herein for a downward adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess on the basis of the amount of cotton produced in 1956 on the farm. Any such application shall be filed with the county committee not later than the earlier of (1) 60 days after harvest is completed on the farm or by such later date as is approved by the State committee on the basis of a recommendation by the county committee and a showing that the producer's failure to apply for such adjustment within the 60-day period was due to circumstances beyond his control or (2) March 15, 1957. If the harvesting of cotton on the farm has not been completed by March 15, 1957, but an application has been timely filed under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the producer may request the county committee to provide for an estimate to be made of the amount of unharvested cotton on the farm in order that a final determination of the actual production on the farm in 1956 may be made. The county committee shall keep a record of each application so made and the date thereof. The county committee shall establish a time and place at which each application will be considered and shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing. Insofar as practicable, applications shall be considered in the order in which made. Unless application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess is made within the period of time provided for in this paragraph, the farm marketing excess as determined pursuant to § 722.750 shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, whenever the county committee determines that no cotton has been or will be produced in 1956 on a farm with a farm marketing excess, the county committee may adjust the farm marketing excess and notify the operator of such adjustment, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Procedure in connection with an application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess. The county committee shall consider each application on the basis of facts known by or made available to it and on the basis of such evidence as may be presented to it by the applicant. Official measurement of the cotton acreage on the farm must have been made before the county committee approves a determination of the actual production of cotton on the farm. The actual production of cotton on any farm shall be determined in view of the relevant facts, including the measured acreage planted to cotton on the farm, the past production on the farm, the actual yields per acre in 1956 for other farms in the community which are similar with regard to farming practices followed, type of soil, and productivity; the harvesting, ginning, and sales of the cotton produced on the farm; and weather conditions and other factors affecting the production of cotton on the farm and in the locality in which the farm is situated. In the consideration of any application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess, the producer shall have the burden of proof. The evidence presented by the applicant may be in the form of written statements or other documentary evidence or of oral testimony in a hearing before the county committee during its consideration of the application. In order to expedite the consideration of applications, the county committee shall receive, in advance of the time fixed for consideration of the application, any written statement or documentary evidence offered by or on behalf of the applicant, and the application may be disposed of upon the basis of such statement or evidence, together with any other information bearing on or establishing the facts, which is available to the county committee, unless the applicant appears before the county committee at the time fixed for consideration of the application and requests a hearing for the purpose of offering additional documentary evidence or oral testimony in support of the application. Every such hearing shall be open to the public. The county committee shall make its determination in connection with each application not later than five calendar days next succeeding the day on which the consideration of the application was concluded. The determination of the county committee shall be in writing and shall contain (1) a concise statement of the grounds upon which the applicant sought an adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess, (2) a concise statement of the findings of the county committee upon the question of fact, and (3) the determination of the county committee as to the farm marketing quota, the actual production of cotton on the farm, the farm marketing excess, and the penalty due on the farm marketing excess. A notice showing the result of the determination made as aforesaid, shall be mailed to the operator of the farm and also to the applicant if he is not such operator.

§ 722.753 Publication of the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, marketing quota, and marketing excess. A record of the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, and farm marketing excess established for farms in the county shall be made available for public inspection in the county office for a period of not less than 30 calendar days. The records containing the information shall be kept where the public may freely examine them. At the end of the 30-day period the records shall be filed in the county office and remain available for further inspection upon request. There may be used for this purpose listing sheets, copies of notices, or other compilations upon which the pertinent data are shown.

§ 722.745 Marketing quotas not transferable. A farm marketing quota established for a farm may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm. Under sections 345 and 347 of the act, farm marketing quotas are established for the 1956 crops of both upland and extra long staple cotton. The farm marketing quota established under the provisions of §§ 722.748 to 722.756 for the 1956 crop of upland cotton may not be used in whole or in part in connection with the marketing of extra long staple cotton produced in 1956 or a prior crop year.

§ 722.755 Successors-in-interest. Any person who succeeds to the interest of a producer in a farm, or in a cotton crop produced on a farm, for which a farm marketing quota and a farm marketing excess were established, shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to such marketing quota and marketing excess and be subject to the penalty on the farm marketing excess and to the lien on the entire crop of cotton and to the restrictions on the marketing of cotton.

§ 722.756 Review of quotas—(a) Right to review by a review committee. Any producer on a farm with a farm marketing excess who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination for the farm in connection with marketing quotas may, within 15 calendar days after the notice thereof was mailed to him apply in writing for a review by a review committee of such acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess or other determination in connection therewith: Provided, That if a review hearing has been held and determination made by a review committee with respect to the acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination in connection therewith, any application by a producer for further review by a review committee with respect to such determination shall be dismissed without hearing. Unless application for review is made within such period, the acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination, as the case may be, shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Application for review and the review committee proceedings shall be in accordance with the marketing quota review regulations issued by the Secretary.

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after notice of such determination is mailed to him by registered mail, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the act.

MARKETING CARDS, MARKETING CERTIFICATES AND LOAN DOCUMENTS

§ 722.757 Eligibility for and issuance of marketing cards—(a) Producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Except as otherwise provided in this section the operator and any other producer on a farm, or an official of a publicly owned agricultural experiment station, shall be eligible to receive a marketing card (Form MQ–76—Upland Cotton (1956)), if (1) no farm marketing excess is determined for the farm, or (2) an amount equal to the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been received by the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located, except that a marketing card shall not be issued under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph if any producer on the farm has on hand any cotton produced in 1950, 1954, or 1955 on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid.

(b) Multiple farm producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Any person who is a cotton producer on more than one farm in a county shall not be eligible to receive a marketing card for any such farm in the county until, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, he is eligible to receive a marketing card for each of such farms. Any other producers on a farm who are eligible to receive marketing cards pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall receive marketing cards with respect to the farm notwithstanding the ineligibility of the multiple farm producer, unless the county committee determines that, in order to enforce the provisions of the act, such producers, including the multiple farm producer, should not receive marketing cards for such farm with no farm marketing excess. Where a producer is engaged in the production of cotton in more than one county (in the same State or two or more States), the procedure outlined in this section for issuing marketing cards for multiple farms in a county may be followed with respect to all such farms, wherever situated, if the county committees of the respective counties so decide, or if the State committee has reason to believe that such procedure would be necessary to enforce the provisions of the act. The State committee may require any multiple farm producer to file with it a list of all farms on which he is engaged in the production of cotton, together with any other information deemed necessary to enforce the provisions of the act.

(c) Producers to whom marketing cards will not be issued to enforce the provisions of the Act. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the county committee shall deny any producer a marketing card if it determines that such action is necessary to enforce the provisions of the act.

(d) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to producers. A marketing card shall be issued to the operator of the farm if he is eligible to receive it under the foregoing provisions of this section and, if the county committee or the county office manager determines that it will serve a useful purpose, marketing cards shall also be issued to the other eligible producers on the farm. Each marketing card when completed shall be serially numbered and shall show: (1) The names of the county and State and the serial number of the farm, (2) the name and address of the farm operator, (3) the name and address of the producer to whom issued, (4) the signature of a member of the county committee or the county office manager and the signature of the producer, (5) the farm acreage allotment and the acreage planted to cotton, and (6) such additional information and data as may be prescribed by the Deputy Administrator. The county office manager may designate not more than three employees to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each person so designated shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the county office manager as written by such person. Where the producer designates an agent to use his marketing card, the card shall also show: (i) The name and address of the agent authorized to use the marketing card and (ii) the signatures of the producer and the agent.

(e) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to experiment station officials. The county office manager shall, upon the written application of a responsible official of any publicly owned agricultural experiment station having cotton exempt from the penalty as provided in paragraph (a) of this section and determined in accordance with the provisions of § 722.718 (f) (2) of the Acreage Allotment Regulations for the 1956 Crop of Upland Cotton (20 F. R. 8247), as amended, issue a marketing card for such experiment station in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in §§ 722.757 to 722.760, inclusive.

§ 722.758 Marketing certificates and loan documents—(a) Use of marketing certificates. The county committee shall issue to a producer upon his request a marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (Upland)) to permit the marketing of cotton (1) by any such producer (i) who is eligible to receive a marketing card and who desires to market cotton by telegraph, telephone, mail, or by any other means or method other than directly to and in the presence of the buyer or transferee; (ii) who is not engaged in the production of cotton in the 1956 crop year and who desires to market cotton which he has on hand from any prior crop, except cotton from the 1950, 1954, and 1955 crops on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid; (iii) who has an interest as a cotton producer in the 1956 crop and who desires to market cotton which he has on hand from any prior crop, except cotton from the 1950, 1954, and 1955 crops on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid; (iv) who desires to market cotton produced by him on a farm with no farm marketing excess but he is not eligible to receive a marketing card under § 722.757 (b) because he or another producer on such farm is also a cotton producer on a farm with a farm marketing excess; and (v) who desires to market his share of the cotton produced on a farm with no farm marketing excess or on a farm on which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been paid but he was denied a marketing card by the county committee because it deemed such action necessary to enforce the provisions of the act, and (2) any other producer who has cotton not subject to the penalty or on which the penalty has been paid and such producer is not eligible to receive a marketing card or does not have a loan document as prescribed in § 722.764. In instances where the acreage planted to cotton on the farm in 1956 has not been determined through no fault of the operator and he, in applying for marketing certificates, certifies that he has cotton from the 1956 crop available for marketing and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the acreage planted to cotton on the farm does not exceed the farm acreage allotment, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may issue marketing certificates for his farm in a total amount for the 1956 crop not exceeding the product of the farm acreage allotment multiplied by the smaller of the normal yield per acre or the estimated actual yield per acre.

(b) Preparation and delivery of marketing certificates. Each marketing certificate shall show (1) the name and address of the producer to whom issued, (2) the names of the county and State and the serial number of the farm, if any, (3) the serial number of the 1956 marketing card issued for the farm, where applicable, (4) the description and amount of the cotton to be marketed, (5) the signature of the producer and the date thereof, and (6) the signature of a member of the county committee or the county office manager and the date thereof. The county committee shall estimate or otherwise determine the actual production on each farm for which a marketing card has not been issued and for which marketing certificates are to be issued, and certificates shall not be issued for marketings in excess of such production. The "buyer's copy," "producer's copy," and "county office copy" of the marketing certificate shall be delivered to the producer to whom issued, and such producer, upon marketing the cotton described in the marketing certificate, shall deliver all such copies to the buyer.

(c) Use of loan documents in lieu of marketing certificates to identify carry-over CCC loan cotton. Any producer who desires to sell his equity in carry-over cotton which is pledged as collateral security for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan or to sell carry-over cotton on which such a loan has been repaid may, as provided in § 722.764, identify such cotton as being penalty-free by presenting to the buyer or transferee thereof a loan document covering such cotton, and the buyer or transferee shall accept such document as evidence to him that the cotton described therein is not subject to the penalty or the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.759 Lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing cards or marketing certificates—(a) Report of loss, destruction, or theft. In case a marketing card or marketing certificate delivered to a producer is lost, destroyed, or stolen, any person having knowledge thereof shall, insofar as he is able, immediately notify the county committee of the following: (1) The name of the producer to whom the marketing card or certificate was issued; (2) the serial number of the marketing card or certificate; and (3) whether in his knowledge or judgment it was lost, destroyed, or stolen and by whom.

(b) Investigation and findings of county committee. The county committee shall make or cause to be made a thorough investigation of the circumstances of such loss, destruction, or theft. If it is found that such marketing card or marketing certificate was in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, such marketing card or certificate shall be canceled and a notice in writing to that effect shall be signed by the county office manager and mailed to the producer to whom the marketing card or certificate was issued at his last known address. If it is found that there has been no collusion or connivance in connection therewith on the part of the producer to or for whom the marketing card or certificate was issued, a marketing card or certificate shall be issued to him to replace the lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing card or certificate. Each marketing card or certificate issued under this section shall bear across its face in bold letters the word "Duplicate". In case a marketing card or certificate is canceled as provided in this section, the county office manager shall immediately notify the ginners and buyers in the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled and that a duplicate has been issued. A report of the findings and action of the county office manager shall be kept among the county office records. Any ginner or buyer or any other person coming into possession or control of a marketing card or certificate which has been canceled shall immediately return it to the county office which issued it.

§ 722.760 Cancellation of marketing cards and marketing certificates issued in error. In the event any marketing card or marketing certificate was erroneously issued, the producer to whom it was issued shall be requested to return it to the county office and upon its being returned it shall be canceled by the county office manager by endorsing thereon in bold letters the word "Canceled". Without awaiting its return the county office manager shall notify the producer in writing at his last known address that it is void and of no effect. A copy of the notice, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county office. The county committee or county office manager shall notify the ginners and buyers in the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled.

IDENTIFICATION OF COTTON

§ 722.761 Time and manner of identification. Each producer of cotton shall, at the time he markets any cotton, identify the cotton to the buyer or transferee, in the manner hereinafter provided, as being subject to or not subject to the penalty provided in § 722.766 and the lien for the penalty as provided in § 722.767.

§ 722.762 Identification by marketing card. A marketing card (Form MQ–76—Upland Cotton (1956)) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom issued, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the cotton produced on the farm for which the marketing card was issued may be purchased by him without collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.763 Identification by marketing certificate. A marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (Upland)) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom it was issued, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the cotton described on such certificate may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.764 Identification by loan document. A loan document (the original or the producer's copy) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer in whose favor it is drawn, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the carry-over cotton described in such loan document may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty. Any one of the following forms shall constitute a "loan document" for purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph: Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (CCC Cotton Form A); Producer's Loan Statement—A; or Producer's Warranty and Agreement (CCC Cotton Form C–2).

§ 722.765 Cotton not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate or loan document. All cotton marketed by a producer which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document, as provided in §§ 722.762, 722.763, or 722.764, shall be taken by the buyer or transferee thereof as cotton subject to the penalty prescribed in § 722.766 and to the lien for the penalty. The buyer or transferee of such unidentified cotton shall collect the penalty from the producer or deduct it from the purchase price of the cotton.

The buyer or transferee shall report the purchase of all such unidentified cotton on Form MQ–82—Cotton (Upland) and remit the penalty collected or deducted to the treasurer of the county committee.

PENALTY

§ 722.766 Rate of penalty. The rate of penalty for lint cotton is 50 percent of the parity price for cotton as of June 15, 1956, as provided in section 346 (a) of the act. The parity price for cotton as of June 15, 1956, is hereby determined to be 35.44 cents per pound. The rate of penalty for cotton, as calculated on the basis of such parity price, shall be 17.7 cents per pound of lint cotton.

§ 722.768 Interest on unremitted penalty. The person liable for the payment or collection of the penalty shall be liable also for interest on the amount of penalty which is not remitted in accordance with § 722.769 (b) or § 722.770 (c), as the case may be, at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the final date for remitting the penalty until the date such penalty is remitted. The computation of interest on any penalty due shall be made beginning with the day following the final date for remitting the penalty.

§ 722.769 Payment of penalty by producers—(a) Producer liable for payment of penalty. Each producer having an interest in the 1956 crop of cotton on any farm for which a farm marketing excess has been determined shall be liable to pay the entire amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess. The amount of the penalty which any producer shall pay shall nevertheless be reduced by the amount of the penalty which is paid by another producer or a buyer of cotton produced on the farm.

(b) Time when penalty becomes due and payable. The farm marketing excess for a farm shall be regarded as available for marketing and the penalty thereon shall become due at the time any cotton produced on the farm is harvested. The amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess for any farm shall be remitted on the date it becomes due or not later than March 15, 1957: Provided, however, That the penalty on any bale or lot of cotton marketed (1) from a farm for which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has not been paid or (2) without being properly identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document as provided in § 722.762, § 722.763, or § 722.764, shall be due on the date of such marketing and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the cotton was marketed.

(c) Apportionment of the penalty. The county committee may, upon application of any producer made prior to the expiration of the time allowed for remitting the penalty on the farm marketing excess, determine his proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess if, pursuant to the application, the producer establishes that he is unable to arrange with other producers on the farm for the payment of the penalty on the entire farm marketing excess, that his share of the cotton crop produced on the farm is marketed by him separately, and that he exercises no control over the marketing of the shares of the other producers in the cotton crop. The producer's proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess shall be that proportion of the entire penalty on the farm marketing excess which his share in the cotton produced in 1956 on the farm bears to the total amount of cotton produced in 1956 on the farm. When the producer pays his proportionate share of the penalty, he shall not be liable for the remainder of the penalty on the farm marketing excess and he shall be entitled to receive a marketing certificate, issued in accordance with § 722.758, to be used by him only in the marketing of his proportionate share of the cotton crop produced in 1956 on the farm.

§ 722.770 Payment of penalty by buyers and transferees—(a) Buyers and transferees liable for payment of penalty. Each person within the United States who buys or acquires from the producer any cotton subject to the lien for the penalty shall be liable for and shall pay the penalty thereon. Cotton shall be taken as subject to the lien for the penalty unless the producer presents to the buyer or transferee a marketing card (Form MQ–76—Upland Cotton (1956)), a marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (Upland)), or a loan document, as provided in §§ 722.762, 722.763, and 722.764.

(b) Payment of penalty on account of lien for the penalty. Each person within the United States who buys or acquires cotton from the producer which is subject to the lien for the penalty shall pay the amount of the penalty on each pound thereof in satisfaction of the lien thereon.

(c) Time when penalty becomes due. The penalty to be paid by any buyer or transferee pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall become due at the time the cotton is marketed and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the cotton was marketed. Cotton shall be deemed to be sold when either title to or actual or constructive possession of the cotton is delivered by or on behalf of the producer or any part of the purchase price is paid. Cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by barter or exchange when it is delivered to the transferee of the cotton by actual or constructive delivery or the transferor has received any part of the property, goods, or services for which the cotton is being bartered or exchanged. Cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by gift inter vivos when there is an actual or constructive delivery of the cotton to the transferee during the lifetime of the producer. Cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed in processed form when the producer, or some person on his behalf, converts cotton into an article of trade and thereby causes the cotton to lose its identity as seed cotton or lint cotton. An article of trade within the meaning of this provision is any article made in whole or in part from cotton for the purpose of marketing such article.

(d) Manner of deducting penalty and issuance of receipts. The buyer may deduct from the price paid for any cotton an amount equivalent to the amount of the penalty to be paid by the buyer pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Any buyer who deducts an amount equivalent to the penalty shall issue to the person from whom the cotton was purchased a receipt for the amount so deducted which shall be on Form MQ–82–Cotton (Upland).

§ 722.771 Remittance of penalty to the treasurer of the county committee. The treasurer of the county committee, for and on behalf of the Secretary, shall receive the penalty and any interest due thereon and issue a receipt therefor to the person remitting the penalty. The penalty and interest shall be remitted only in legal tender, or by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks, drafts, or money orders tendered in payment of the penalty and interest shall be received by the treasurer of the county committee subject to collection and payment at par, and the receipt issued in connection therewith shall bear a notation to that effect and a description of the check, draft, or money order.

§ 722.772 Deposit of funds. All funds received by the treasurer of the county committee in connection with penalties for cotton shall be scheduled and transmitted by him on the day received, or not later than the morning of the next succeeding business day, to the State committee, which, in accordance with applicable instructions, shall cause such funds to be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States. In the event the funds so received are in the form of cash, the treasurer of the county committee shall deposit such cash in the county committee bank account and issue a check in the amount thereof payable to the Treasurer of the United States and transmit such check to the State committee. The treasurer of the county committee shall make and keep a record of each amount received by him, showing the name of the person who remitted the funds, the identification of the farm or farms for which the funds were remitted, and the names of the persons who marketed the cotton in connection with which the funds were remitted.

§ 722.773 Refunds of money in excess of the penalty—(a) Determination of refunds. The county committee and the treasurer of the county committee, upon their own motion or upon the request of any interested person, shall review the amount of money received in connection with the penalty for any farm to determine for each producer the amount thereof, if any, which is in excess of the penalty incurred. The excess amount shall be refunded. Any refund shall be made only to persons who bore the burden of the payment and who have not been reimbursed therefor. The excess sum shall be first applied, insofar as the sum will permit, so as to make refunds to eligible persons other than producers and the remainder, if any, shall be applied so as to make refunds to the eligible producers. The amount to be refunded to each producer shall be either (1) the amount agreed upon in writing by each and every cotton producer on the farm or (2) in the event that such producers cannot agree to the division of such refund or if all of the producers on the farm are not available to apply for such refund, the amount determined by apportioning the excess among all of the producers on the farm on the basis of the amount of the penalty borne by each producer, as determined by the county committee. No refund shall be made to any buyer or transferee of any amount which he collected from the producer, deducted from the price or other consideration for the cotton, or for which he was liable.

(b) Certification of refunds. A member of the county committee, or the treasurer of the county committee, shall notify the State committee of the amount which the county committee determines may be refunded to each person with respect to the farm, and the State committee shall cause to be certified to the appropriate Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department for payment such amounts as are approved by it. No refund of money shall be certified under this section unless the money has been collected and transmitted to the State committee but has not been covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States.

§ 722.774 Refund of penalty erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected. Whenever, pursuant to a claim filed with the Secretary within the time prescribed in section 372 of the Act after payment to him of the penalty collected from any person pursuant to the Act, the Secretary finds that the penalty was erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected, he shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the claimant, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, such amount as the Secretary finds the claimant is entitled to receive as a refund of penalty. Any claim filed pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

§ 722.775 Report of violations and court proceedings to collect penalty. It shall be the duty of the county office manager to report in writing to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to pay the penalty or to remit the same as provided in §§ 722.742 to 722.788 to the Secretary when collected. It shall be the duty of the State administrative officer to report each such case in writing to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to collect the penalties as provided in section 376 of the act.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 722.776 Records to be kept and reports to be made by ginners—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each ginner shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this Section which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Ginner's record of cotton ginned. Each ginner shall keep, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record showing with respect to each bale, and each lot of cotton less than a bale, ginned by him the following information: (1) The date of ginning; (2) the name of the operator of the farm on which the cotton was produced; (3) the name of the producer of the cotton; (4) the name and address of the person who delivered the cotton to the gin in those cases where the ginner has doubt as to the accuracy of the name of the farm operator or producer of the cotton as furnished; (5) the county and State in which the farm on which the cotton was produced is located; (6) the gin bale number or mark or other identification; (7) the serial number of the gin ticket or receipt prepared or issued by the ginner; (8) the gross weight of each bale of cotton and the net weight of each lot of lint cotton less than a bale ginned by the ginner; and (9) the kind of bagging used on each bale if other than jute. The records so made shall be kept available for examination and inspection by the Secretary, or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, until December 31, 1958, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788, or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788, but not so furnished. Such records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Director.

§ 722.777 Records to be kept and reports to be made by buyers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who buys seed cotton or lint cotton from the producer thereof shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Nature of and availability of records. Each buyer shall keep, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record which shall show with respect to each bale of cotton, and each lot of cotton less than a bale, which is purchased by him from the producer thereof the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the cotton and in the case of seed cotton purchased, the number of pounds of seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the number of pounds of lint cotton in each bale, and each lot of cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of any penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.742 to 722.788 and the amount of penalty collected in connection with the cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the cotton was identified when marketed (if a loan number appears on the loan document, the buyer shall keep a record of such number and the crop year; otherwise, the buyer shall keep a record of the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan). It shall be presumed that the cotton was not identified in the manner provided in §§ 722.742 to 722.788 if the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document does not appear on the records required by this paragraph. The record so made shall be kept available for examination and inspection by the Secretary, or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, until December 31, 1958, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788, or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788 but not so furnished. Such records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Director. The county committee shall upon the request of any buyer, furnish to him without cost blank copies of Form MQ–100—Cotton (Upland) which may be used by him for the purpose of keeping the records required pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) Reports in connection with cotton not identified by marketing cards, marketing certificates, or loan documents. The buyer of cotton which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificates or loan document, as provided in §§ 722.762, 722.763 and 722.764, when marketed shall, with respect to each purchase, make a written report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (Upland) of the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or, if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of cotton, and of each lot of lint cotton less than a bale; and (5) the amount of the penalty collected in connection with the cotton purchased. The report shall be prepared and executed in triplicate; the "Producer's copy" shall be delivered to the producer, the "Buyer's copy" shall be retained by the buyer, and the buyer shall mail or deliver the "County office copy" to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such cotton was produced.

(d) Reports in connection with cotton identified by marketing certificates. The buyer of cotton which is identified, when marketed, by a marketing certificate, Form MQ–91—Cotton (Upland), as provided in § 722.763, shall make a report in connection with the transaction by executing the certificate in triplicate and by mailing or delivering the "County office copy" to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such certificate was issued. The "Buyer's copy" shall be retained by the buyer and the "Producer's copy" shall be delivered to the producer to whom such certificate was issued. The manner in which the marketing certificate shall be executed and distributed, in case the marketing is to a buyer not within the United States, is provided for in § 722.780 (b).

(e) Receipts to producers for penalties. Where the cotton is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document at the time of marketing the "Producer's copy" of the executed Form MQ–82—Cotton (Upland) shall be the receipt from the buyer to the producer for the penalty collected. The buyer shall report the giving of each such receipt to the producer by forwarding the "County office copy" of Form MQ–82—Cotton (Upland) to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such cotton was produced, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Time for making reports. Each report required by the foregoing provisions of this section shall be made not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the cotton covered thereby was marketed.

(g) Buyer's record and report. In the event the county committee, or the State committee, has reason to believe that any buyer failed or refused to collect or to remit the penalty required to be collected by him for any cotton which he purchased, or otherwise in any manner failed or refused to comply with §§ 722.742 to 722.788, the buyer shall, within fifteen days after a written request therefor by such committee is sent to him by certified mail at his last-known address, make a report verified as true and correct on Form MQ–100—Cotton (Upland) to such committee with respect to cotton purchased or acquired by him from the person or persons specified in the request or purchased or acquired by him during the period of time specified in the request. Such report shall include the following information for each bale of cotton, and each lot of cotton less than a bale, purchased by such buyer: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number, or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the cotton and, in the case of cotton purchased in the seed, the number of pounds of seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of cotton, and of each lot of lint cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.742 to 722.788 and the amount of any penalty collected in connection with the cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the cotton was identified when marketed (if the cotton was identified by a loan document when marketed, enter the loan number and the crop year or the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan).

(h) Manner of submitting reports. The treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the cotton covered by the report was produced is hereby authorized and empowered to receive, for and on behalf of the Secretary, each report required pursuant to this section. Each report shall be mailed or delivered directly to the said treasurer. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph, each report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (Upland) in connection with the purchase of cotton marketed without the use of the means of identification provided by §§ 722.742 to 722.788 may be mailed or delivered directly to the treasurer of the county committee from whom the unexecuted copy of the form was obtained.

(i) Penalty for failure or refusal to keep records or make reports. Any person engaged in the business of purchasing cotton from producers who fails to keep any record or make any report as required by this section or who makes any false report or false record shall, as provided for in section 373 (a) of the act, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense.

§ 722.778 Records to be kept and reports to be made by transferees. Each transferee who acquires seed cotton or lint cotton from the producer thereof shall keep the same records and make the same reports which are required to be kept and made by buyers pursuant to § 722.777. Also, transferees shall execute applicable certificates which are necessary to enable the producer to keep the records and make the reports required of him.

§ 722.779 Records to be kept by warehousemen and others. Each ginner, buyer, warehouseman, processor (including compressor), common carrier, and other persons, as defined in section 373 (a) of the act, who gins, buys, stores, processes (including compressing), transports as a common carrier, or otherwise deals with cotton from, for, or on behalf of the producer thereof shall make available for examination and inspection by the Secretary or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, the records kept in his business concerning such cotton, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788 or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.742 to 722.788 but not so furnished. The Secretary, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, hereby finds such records to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to cotton, the provisions of the act.

§ 722.780 Records to be kept and reports to be made by producers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who produces in 1956, or who produced in any previous year, cotton which is subject to the provisions of §§ 722.742 to 722.788, shall, in conformity with section 373 (b) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which records and reports the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Cotton marketed to persons not within the United States. In each case where cotton for which a marketing certificate has been issued pursuant to § 722.758 is marketed to any person not within the United States the producer shall enter the name and address of the buyer or transferee and indicate in the space provided for the signature of the buyer or transferee on each copy of the marketing certificate that such person is not within the United States. The producer shall retain the "Producer's copy" of the certificate, and the "County office copy" and the "Buyer's copy" shall be mailed or delivered by such producer to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the certificate was issued not later than 15 calendar days next succeeding the day on which the cotton was marketed.

(c) Farm operator's report. The operator of the farm shall file with the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (Upland) in the following cases: (1) Where the producer is making an application for a downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess pursuant to § 722.752, except that the county committee may waive this requirement in case it determines that the evidence otherwise submitted by the producer is satisfactory evidence of the actual production of cotton on the farm in 1956; (2) where a farm marketing excess is determined for the farm but an application for downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess has not been filed and the county committee or the State committee requests the report in writing; and (3) where a farm marketing excess is not established but the State committee or the county committee determines that a farm operator's report is necessary for proper administration of §§ 722.742 to 722.788 and requests such report in writing. Upon written request by the county committee or by the State committee for a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (Upland), the operator of the farm shall make the report in the manner specified in this paragraph not later than the date designated by such committee in its request. Form MQ–98—Cotton (Upland) shall show for the farm the following information or any part thereof as specified in such request: (i) The date harvesting of the 1956 crop of cotton was completed on the farm, the date of the last ginning of cotton produced on the farm in 1956, and the acreage planted to cotton on the farm; (ii) the total number of pounds of lint cotton ginned from the 1956 crop of cotton; (iii) the name and address of each ginner who ginned such cotton and the number of and net weight of bales or lots less than a bale ginned by him; (iv) the total amount of seed cotton of the 1956 crop marketed; (v) the total amount of 1956 crop lint cotton marketed; (vi) the amount of unmarketed cotton of the 1956 crop on hand; (vii) the total number of pounds of lint cotton produced in the 1956 crop year; (viii) the name and address of each buyer or transferee of 1956 crop lint or seed cotton and the amount thereof marketed to him; and (ix) the amount of penalty paid by the producer or collected by the buyer or transferee.

§ 722.781 Data to be kept confidential. Except as otherwise provided herein all data reported to or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to and in the manner provided in §§ 722.742 to 722.788 shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture, members of county committees and State committees, county agents, and the employees of such committees and county agents' offices, and shall not be disclosed to anyone not having an interest in or responsibility for any cotton, farm, or transaction covered by the particular data, record, information, report, or form; and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary deems relevant shall be disclosed by them to anyone not having such an interest or not being employed in the administration of the act and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under the provisions of the Act.

§ 722.782 Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the county office manager to report in writing in quadruplicate to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to make any report or keep any record as required by §§ 722.742 to 722.788 and so to report each case of making any false report or record. It shall be the duty of the State administrative officer to report each such case in writing, in triplicate, to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to enforce the provisions of the act.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AND EXCEPTIONS

§ 722.784 Erroneous notice of cotton acreage allotment. In any case where through error the producer is officially notified in writing of a farm acreage allotment larger than the final approved farm acreage allotment and it is found by the county committee that such producer, acting solely on the information contained in the erroneous notice, planted an acreage to cotton in excess of the final approved farm acreage allotment the producer will not be considered to have exceeded the farm acreage allotment unless he planted an acreage in excess of the allotment shown on the erroneous notice. The determination by the county committee under this section shall be subject to the approval of the State committee. The acreage planted to cotton on the farm in excess of the final approved allotment shall be considered as excess acreage for purposes of § 722.785.

§ 722.786 Availability of records. The State and county committees shall make available for inspection by owners or operators of farms receiving cotton acreage allotments all records pertaining to cotton acreage allotments and marketing quotas.

§ 722.787 Designation of representatives of the Secretary to examine records—(a) Designation of representatives. In order to carry out the provisions of §§ 722.776 to 722.779, relating to the examination of records the Deputy Administrator is hereby authorized and directed to designate in writing, with the counter signature of the State administrative officer, an appropriate number of persons from the officers or employees of the Department of Agriculture to act as the authorized representatives of the Secretary for the purposes of said provisions.

(b) Proof of designation. Each person designated pursuant to this section shall be furnished with a copy of his designation.

(c) Authorization to administer oaths. Each person designated pursuant to this section to act as the authorized representative of the Secretary is hereby authorized and empowered, pursuant to the act of Congress approved January 31, 1925 (sec. 1, 43 Stat. 803; 5 U. S. C. 521), to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever such oath, affirmation, or affidavit is for use in any prosecution or proceeding under or in the enforcement of the cotton marketing quota provisions of the Act or §§ 722.742 to 722.788.

§ 722.788 Redelegation of authority. Any authority delegated to the State committee by §§ 722.742 to 722.788 may, with the approval of the Deputy Administrator, be redelegated by the State committee.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1956. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] TRUE D. MORSE,

AUTHORITY: §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 342–347, 361–368, 372–376, 388; 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1342–1347, 1361–1368, 1372–1376, 1388.

GENERAL

§ 722.1341 Basis and purpose. The provisions of §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. These provisions govern the identification and measurement of farms; the amount, adjustment, and review of the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess; the issuance of marketing cards and marketing certificates; the identification of extra long staple cotton (hereinafter referred to as "ELS cotton") which is marketed as being subject to or not subject to the penalty and lien for the penalty; the rate of the penalty and the manner in which penalties shall be paid by producers and buyers; the refunding of penalty overpayments; the records and reports required to be made by ELS cotton producers, ginners, buyers, and others; and other miscellaneous provisions regarding the production and marketing of ELS cotton. The provisions apply (a) to ELS cotton produced in 1956 and (b) to ELS cotton produced in 1955, or any prior year which is marketed by producers during the 1956–57 marketing year. The provisions of §§ 722.1341 to 722.1389 supplement the Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1956 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton, issued November 18, 1955 (20 F. R. 8621), as amended. In accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 30, 1956 (21 F. R. 3689) that the Secretary of Agriculture had under consideration the formulation and issuance of such provisions. The data, views, and recommendations submitted by interested persons have been duly considered within the limits of the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, in connection with the preparation of §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389.

§ 722.1342 Definitions. As used in §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 and in all forms and documents in connection therewith, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter genders and the singular shall include the plural number:

(a) Terms relating to administrative organization. (1) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or the officer of the Department of Agriculture acting in his stead pursuant to delegated authority.

(2) "Deputy Administrator" means the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, or Acting Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service; United States Department of Agriculture.

(3) "Director" means the Director or Acting Director of the Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) "State committee" means the persons designated by the Secretary as the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. In Puerto Rico the Caribbean ASC Area Committee shall, insofar as applicable, perform the functions of the State committee.

(5) "State administrative officer" means the person employed to execute the policies of the State committee and to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the office of the State committee (hereinafter referred to as the "State office"), or the person acting in such capacity.

(6) "Review committee" means the review committee appointed by the Secretary pursuant to Section 363 of the act.

(7) "County committee" means the persons elected within a county as the county committee pursuant to the Secretary's regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County and Community Committees (19 F. R. 3637), as amended. In Puerto Rico the Caribbean ASC Area Committee shall, insofar as applicable, perform the functions of the county committee.

(8) "Community committee" means the persons elected within a community as the community committee pursuant to the Secretary's regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County and Community Committees (19 F. R. 3637), as amended.

(9) "County office manager" means the person employed by the county committee to execute the policies of the county committee and to be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the office of the county committee (hereinafter referred to as the "county office"), or the person acting in such capacity.

(10) "Treasurer" means the county office manager or the person designated by him to act as treasurer of the county committee. In Puerto Rico, the Caribbean ASC Area Committee shall designate one or more of the ASC employees to perform the duties and functions of treasurer of the county committee.

(11) "County" means a county (parish in Louisiana) or in the case of Puerto Rico, the Northern Area and the Southern Area each shall be considered as a county.

(b) Terms relating to farm. (1) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or rangeland under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(i) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or rangeland which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as a part of the same unit in producing range livestock or with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land; and

(ii) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(2) "Farm acreage allotment" means an ELS cotton acreage allotment established for a farm under the Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1956 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton (20 F. R. 8621), as amended.

(3) "Acreage planted to ELS cotton:" For purposes of determining compliance with the farm acreage allotment, the acreage planted to ELS cotton on a farm in 1956 shall be the acreage of land seeded to such cotton on the farm in 1956, excluding any acreage in excess of the farm acreage allotment which (i) is destroyed by causes beyond the producer's control prior to the expiration of the period established under item (ii) of this subparagraph for disposing of excess ELS cotton acreage, or (ii) is disposed of not later than 20 days, or such longer period as is approved in writing by the county committee, in accordance with § 722.1326 of the Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1956 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton (20 F. R. 8621), as amended, after the original notice of the measured ELS cotton acreage is mailed to the farm operator.

(4) "New ELS cotton farm" means a farm on which such cotton is to be planted in 1956 but on which no acreage was planted to such cotton in any of the years 1953, 1954, and 1955.

(5) "Normal yield" means the average yield per acre of ELS lint cotton for the farm, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which such normal yield is determined. If for any such year the data are not available or there was no actual yield, then the normal yield for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee taking into consideration abnormal weather conditions, the normal yield for the county, and the yield in years for which data are available. The normal yield for a new ELS cotton farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to soil and other physical factors affecting the production of ELS cotton.

(6) "Normal production" of any number of acres means the normal yield for the farm multiplied by such number of acres.

(7) "Actual production" of ELS cotton on the farm means the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton determined to have been produced on the farm in 1956.

(8) "Actual yield" per acre means the number of pounds of ELS lint cotton determined by dividing the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm by the acreage planted to such cotton on the farm in 1956.

(9) "Farm marketing quota" means an ELS cotton marketing quota established for the farm under § 722.1349.

(10) "Farm marketing excess" means the amount of ELS cotton determined for any farm under § 722.1350 or § 722.1352, whichever is applicable.

(12) "Farm with a farm marketing excess" means a farm on which the acreage planted to ELS cotton in 1956 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment established therefor.

(13) "Serial number of the farm" or "farm serial number" means the serial number assigned to the farm by the county committee for the purpose of identification.

(14) "Producer" means a person who, as owner or landlord (other than the landlord of a standing-rent tenant, fixed-rent tenant, or cash tenant), cash tenant, standing-rent tenant, fixed-rent tenant, share tenant, or sharecropper, is entitled to all or a share of the 1956 crop of ELS cotton (or ELS cotton on hand from a prior crop) or of the proceeds thereof.

(15) "Owner or landlord" means a person who owns farmland and rents such land to another person or who operates such land.

(16) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(17) "Cash tenant," "standing-rent tenant," or "fixed-rent tenant" means a person who rents land from another for a fixed amount of cash or a commodity to be paid as rent.

(18) "Share tenant" means a person other than a share-cropper who rents land from another person and pays as rent a share of the crops or the proceeds thereof.

(19) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the general supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of the crops produced thereon or the proceeds thereof.

(20) "Seed cotton" means the harvested fruit of the ELS cotton plant before ginning.

(21) "ELS lint cotton" means the fiber taken from seed cotton by ginning.

(c) Terms relating to marketing. (1) "Market" means to dispose of ELS cotton in raw or processed form by voluntary or involuntary sale, barter, or exchange, or by gift inter vivos.

(i) The term "sale" means any transfer of title to ELS cotton by a producer to another by any means other than barter or exchange or gift inter vivos.

(ii) The terms "barter" and "exchange" mean transfer of title to ELS cotton by a producer to another in return for ELS cotton or any other commodity, service, or property in cases where the value of the ELS cotton or such other commodity, service, or property is not considered in terms of money, or the transfer of title to ELS cotton by a producer to another in payment of a fixed rental or other charge for land.

(iii) The term "gift inter vivos" means any transfer of title, accompanied by delivery, to ELS cotton by a producer to another which takes effect immediately and irrevocably and is made without any consideration or compensation therefor.

(iv) "Marketed", "marketing", and "for market" shall have corresponding meanings to the terms "market" in the connection in which they are used.

(2) "Marketing year" means the period beginning August 1, 1956, and ending July 31, 1957, both dates inclusive.

(3) "Buyer" means a person who acquires ELS cotton from a producer by purchase. An agricultural cooperative association which makes purchase- and sale-agreements with producers, or marketing agreements under which the title to ELS cotton passes upon delivery of ELS cotton by the producer and the association is authorized to deal with such cotton as owner, shall be deemed to be a "buyer" with respect to any ELS cotton acquired pursuant to such an agreement which is subject to marketing quotas as provided in § 722.1348.

(4) "Transferee" means a person who receives ELS cotton from a producer by barter or exchange, or by gift inter vivos.

(5) "Ginner" means a person engaged in the business of ginning ELS cotton.

(6) "Ginning" means the process by which ELS lint cotton is removed from the cotton seed.

(7) "Gin bale number or mark" means the number entered on the bale tag or any other mark made or used by the ginner to identify a bale of ELS cotton.

(8) "Warehouse receipt number" means the number on the warehouse receipt and on the warehouse bale tag used by the warehouseman to identify a bale of ELS cotton.

(d) Miscellaneous terms. (1) "Act" means the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 and any amendments thereto, heretofore or hereafter made.

(2) "Person" means an individual, partnership, firm, joint-stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State, political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof, or the Federal Government, or any agency thereof. The term "person" shall include two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

(3) "Upland cotton" means any cotton other than extra long staple cotton.

(4) "Extra long staple cotton" (referred to in §§ 722.1341 to 722.1389 as "ELS cotton") means American-Egyptian, Sea Island, and Sealand cotton, and all other varieties of the Barbadense species, and any hybrid thereof, and any other cotton in which one or more of these varieties predominates.

(5) "Carry-over ELS cotton" means the unmarketed ELS cotton from the 1955 or any previous crop which the producer thereof has on hand.

(6) "State and county code number" means the applicable numbers assigned by the Commodity Stabilization Service of the United States Department of Agriculture to each State and county for the purpose of identification.

(7) "Normal yield for any county" means the average yield per acre of ELS lint cotton for the county, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions, during the five calendar years immediately preceding the year in which such normal yield is determined, as established by the Director. If for any year of such five-year period the data are not available or there was no actual yield, the yield for such year shall be appraised by taking into consideration the yields in years for which data are available, abnormal weather conditions, and the yields for such year in nearby counties in which the type of soil, topography, and farming practices are similar. If because of drought, flood, insect pests, plant disease, or other uncontrollable natural cause, the yield in any year of such five-year period is less than 75 percent of the average (computed without regard to such year), such year shall be eliminated in calculating the normal yield per acre for the county. The Director shall adjust for abnormal weather conditions the county yield for any year which exceeds 125 percent of the average of the yields during the five-year period immediately preceding the year in which the county normal yield is determined by limiting the yield for any such year to 125 percent of such five-year average yield: Provided, however, That if the State committee, upon review thereof, establishes to the satisfaction of the Director that a change in cultural practices in the county, including but not limited to a change from dry land farming to irrigation, use of better fertilization, seed, or insect control program, resulted in any annual yield in excess of 125 percent of such five-year average yield, then the Director shall increase the yield for any such year to reflect the change in cultural practices. The normal yield determined for a county shall be kept readily available to the public in the county office, and the normal yield determined for each county in a State shall be kept readily available to the public in the State office.

(8) "Penalty" means the penalty provided in section 347 (c) of the act and § 722.1366.

§ 722.1343 Issuance of forms and instructions. The Director shall cause to be prepared such forms and instructions with respect to internal management as are necessary for carrying out §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389. The forms shall be issued by the Director with the approval of the Deputy Administrator, and the instructions shall be issued by the Deputy Administrator. Copies of such forms and instructions shall be furnished free to persons needing them upon request made to the State or county office or to the Director.

§ 722.1344 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. In making any computation in connection with §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, the amount of ELS lint cotton shall be rounded to the nearest whole pound and the amount of penalties or refunds shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent. Fractions of exactly five-tenths of a pound or cent shall be dropped. The acreage of each field of ELS cotton on the farm shall be expressed in hundredths of an acre, and thousandths of an acre shall be dropped. The total acreage of ELS cotton on the farm shall be expressed in tenths of an acre, and hundredths of an acre shall be dropped.

IDENTIFICATION AND MEASUREMENT OF FARMS

§ 722.1345 Identification of farms. Each farm as operated for the 1956 crop of ELS cotton shall be identified by a farm serial number and all records pertaining to marketing quotas for the 1956 crop of ELS cotton shall be identified by such number.

§ 722.1346 Measurement of farms. The county committee shall provide for measurement of the acreage planted to ELS cotton on farms in accordance with § 722.1325 of the Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1956 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton (20 F. R. 8621), as amended.

§ 722.1347 Reports and records of farm measurements. The county committee shall keep a record of the measurements made on all farms. It shall file with the State office a written report on Form MQ–94—Cotton (ELS), setting forth for each farm with a farm marketing excess (a) the farm serial number, (b) the name of the operator, (c) the farm acreage allotment, (d) the acreage planted to ELS cotton in 1956, and (e) the total acreage in cultivation.

FARM MARKETING QUOTA AND FARM MARKETING EXCESS

§ 722.1348 ELS cotton subject to marketing quota provisions. Marketing quotas for the 1956 crop of ELS cotton shall be applicable to any such cotton of that crop notwithstanding that it may be available for marketing prior to the beginning of the marketing year or marketed subsequent to the end of the marketing year. (In the Southern Area of Puerto Rico ELS cotton planted in 1956 for harvest in 1957 shall be considered as the 1956 crop of ELS cotton under §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389.) Carryover ELS cotton marketed during the marketing year shall be subject to §§ 742.1342 to 722.1389 to the extent applicable.

§ 722.1351 Notice of farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess. Written notice of the farm marketing quota and, where applicable, the farm marketing excess, established for a farm shall be mailed to the operator of such farm. Notice so given shall constitute notice to each producer having an interest in the 1956 ELS cotton crop produced or to be produced on the farm. Each notice shall contain a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for a review of the farm marketing quota or farm marketing excess, or any determination made in connection therewith, may be had in accordance with section 363 of the act. A record of the date of mailing the notice to the operator of the farm shall be kept among the records of the county office and upon request a copy of the notice shall be furnished without charge to any producer on the farm for which the notice is given. Such notice shall contain the information necessary in each case to inform the producer as to the basis for the determinations set forth in the notice and the effect thereof.

§ 722.1352 Farm marketing excess adjustment—(a) Application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess. Any producer having an interest in the ELS cotton produced in 1956 on a farm with a farm marketing excess may apply in writing to the county committee as provided herein for a downward adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess on the basis of the amount of ELS cotton produced in 1956 on the farm. Any such application shall be filed with the county committee not later than the earlier of (1) 60 days after harvest is completed on the farm or by such later date as is approved by the State committee on the basis of a recommendation by the county committee and a showing that the producer's failure to apply for such adjustment within the 60-day period was due to circumstances beyond his control or (2) March 15, 1957 (June 15, 1957, in the case of the Southern Area of Puerto Rico). If the harvesting of ELS cotton on the farm has not been completed by March 15, 1957 (June 15, 1957, in the case of the Southern Area of Puerto Rico), but an application has been timely filed under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the producer may request the county committee to provide for an estimate to be made of the amount of unharvested ELS cotton on the farm in order that a final determination of the actual production on the farm in 1956 may be made. The county committee shall keep a record of each application so made and the date thereof. The county committee shall establish a time and place at which each application will be considered and shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing. Insofar as practicable, applications shall be considered in the order in which made. Unless application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess is made within the period of time provided for in this paragraph, the farm marketing excess as determined pursuant to § 722.1350 shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, whenever the county committee determines that no ELS cotton has been or will be produced in 1956 on a farm with a farm marketing excess, the county committee may adjust the farm marketing excess and notify the operator of such adjustment, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Procedure in connection with an application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess. The county committee shall consider each application on the basis of facts known by or made available to it and on the basis of such evidence as may be presented to it by the applicant. Official measurement of the ELS cotton acreage on the farm must have been made before the county committee approves a determination of the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm. The actual production of ELS cotton on any farm shall be determined in view of the relevant facts, including the measured acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm, the past production on the farm, the actual yields per acre in 1956 for other farms in the community which are similar with regard to farming practices followed, type of soil, and productivity; the harvesting, ginning, and sales of the ELS cotton produced on the farm; and weather conditions and other factors affecting the production of ELS cotton on the farm and in the locality in which the farm is situated. In the consideration of any application for adjustment in the farm marketing excess, the producer shall have the burden of proof. The evidence presented by the applicant may be in the form of written statements or other documentary evidence or of oral testimony in a hearing before the county committee during its consideration of the application. In order to expedite the consideration of applications, the county committee shall receive, in advance of the time fixed for consideration of the application, any written statement or documentary evidence offered by or on behalf of the applicant, and the application may be disposed of upon the basis of such statement or evidence, together with any other information bearing on or establishing the facts, which is available to the county committee, unless the applicant appears before the county committee at the time fixed for consideration of the application and requests a hearing for the purpose of offering additional documentary evidence or oral testimony in support of the application. Every such hearing shall be open to the public. The county committee shall make its determination in connection with each application not later than five calendar days next succeeding the day on which the consideration of the application was concluded. The determination of the county committee shall be in writing and shall contain (1) a concise statement of the grounds upon which the applicant sought an adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess, (2) a concise statement of the findings of the county committee upon the question of fact, and (3) the determination of the county committee as to the farm marketing quota, the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm, the farm marketing excess, and the penalty due on the farm marketing excess. A notice showing the result of the determination made as aforesaid, shall be mailed to the operator of the farm and also to the applicant if he is not such operator.

§ 722.1354 Marketing quotas not transferable. A farm marketing quota established for a farm may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm. Under sections 345 and 347 of the act, farm marketing quotas are established for the 1956 crops of both upland and ELS cotton. The farm marketing quota established under the provisions of §§ 722.1348 to 722.1356 for the 1956 crop of ELS cotton may not be used in whole or in part in connection with the marketing of upland cotton produced in 1956 or a prior crop year.

§ 722.1355 Successors-in-interest. Any person who succeeds to the interest of a producer in a farm, or in an ELS cotton crop produced on a farm, for which a farm marketing quota and a farm marketing excess were established, shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to such marketing quota and marketing excess and be subject to the penalty on the farm marketing excess and to the lien on the entire crop of ELS cotton and to the restrictions on the marketing of such cotton.

§ 722.1356 Review of quotas—(a) Right to review by review committee. Any producer on a farm with a farm marketing excess who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination for the farm in connection with marketing quotas may, within 15 calendar days after the notice thereof was mailed to him apply in writing for a review by a review committee of such acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess or other determination in connection therewith: Provided, That if a review hearing has been held and determination made by a review committee with respect to the acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination in connection therewith, any application by a producer for further review by a review committee with respect to such determination shall be dismissed without hearing. Unless application for review is made within such period, the acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination, as the case may be, shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Application for review and the review committee proceedings shall be in accordance with the marketing quota review regulations issued by the Secretary.

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after notice of such determination is mailed to him by registered mail, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the Act.

MARKETING CARDS, MARKETING CERTIFICATES AND LOAN DOCUMENTS

§ 722.1357 Eligibility for and issuance of marketing cards—(a) Producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Except as otherwise provided in this section the operator and any other producer on a farm, or an official of a publicly owned agricultural experiment station, shall be eligible to receive a marketing card (Form MQ–76—ELS Cotton (1956)), if (1) no farm marketing excess is determined for the farm, or (2) an amount equal to the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been received by the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located, except that a marketing card shall not be issued under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph if any producer on the farm has on hand any ELS cotton produced in 1950, 1954, or 1955 on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid.

(b) Multiple farm producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Any person who is an ELS cotton producer on more than one farm in a county shall not be eligible to receive a marketing card for any such farm in the county until, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, he is eligible to receive a marketing card for each of such farms. Any other producers on a farm who are eligible to receive marketing cards pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall receive marketing cards with respect to the farm notwithstanding the ineligibility of the multiple farm producer, unless the county committee determines that, in order to enforce the provisions of the act, such producers, including the multiple farm producer, should not receive marketing cards for such farm with no farm marketing excess. Where a producer is engaged in the production of ELS cotton in more than one county (in the same State or two or more States), the procedure outlined in this section for issuing marketing cards for multiple farms in a county may be followed with respect to all such farms, wherever situated, if the county committees of the respective counties so decide, or if the State committee has reason to believe that such procedure would be necessary to enforce the provisions of the act. The State committee may require any multiple farm producer to file with it a list of all farms on which he is engaged in the production of ELS cotton, together with any other information deemed necessary to enforce the provisions of the act.

(c) Producers to whom marketing cards will not be issued to enforce the provisions of the act. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the county committee shall deny any producer a marketing card if it determines that such action is necessary to enforce the provisions of the act.

(d) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to producers. A marketing card shall be issued to the operator of the farm if he is eligible to receive it under the foregoing provisions of this section and, if the county committee or the county office manager determines that it will serve a useful purpose, marketing cards shall also be issued to the other eligible producers on the farm. Each marketing card when completed shall be serially numbered and shall show: (1) The names of the county and State and the serial number of the farm, (2) the name and address of the farm operator, (3) the name and address of the producer to whom issued, (4) the signature of a member of the county committee or the county office manager and the signature of the producer, (5) the farm acreage allotment and the acreage planted to ELS cotton, and (6) such additional information and data as may be prescribed by the Deputy Administrator. The county office manager may designate not more than three employees to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each person so designated shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the county office manager as written by such person. Where the producer designates an agent to use his marketing card, the card shall also show: (i) The name and address of the agent authorized to use the marketing card and (ii) the signatures of the producer and the agent.

(e) Preparation and issuance of marketing cards to experiment station officials. The county office manager shall, upon the written application of a responsible official of any publicly owned agricultural experiment station having ELS cotton exempt from the penalty as provided in paragraph (a) of this section and determined in accordance with the provisions of § 722.1318 (a) of the Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1956 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton (20 F. R. 8621), as amended, issue a marketing card for such experiment station in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in §§ 722.1357 to 722.1360, inclusive.

§ 722.1358 Marketing certificates and loan documents—(a) Use of marketing certificates. The county committee shall issue to a producer upon his request a marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)) to permit the marketing of ELS cotton (1) by any such producer (i) who is eligible to receive a marketing card and who desires to market ELS cotton by telegraph, telephone, mail, or by any other means or method other than directly to and in the presence of the buyer or transferee; (ii) who is not engaged in the production of ELS cotton in the 1956 crop year and who desires to market ELS cotton which he has on hand from any prior crop, except ELS cotton from the 1950, 1954, and 1955 crops on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid; (iii) who has an interest as an ELS cotton producer in the 1956 crop and who desires to market ELS cotton which he has on hand from any prior crop, except ELS cotton from the 1950, 1954, and 1955 crops on which the penalty was incurred and has not been paid; (iv) who desires to market ELS cotton produced by him on a farm with no farm marketing excess but he is not eligible to receive a marketing card under § 722.1357 (b) because he or another producer on such farm is also an ELS cotton producer on a farm with a farm marketing excess; and (v) who desires to market his share of the ELS cotton produced on a farm with no farm marketing excess or on a farm on which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been paid but he was denied a marketing card by the county committee because it deemed such action necessary to enforce the provisions of the act, and (2) any other producer who has ELS cotton not subject to the penalty or on which the penalty has been paid and such producer is not eligible to receive a marketing card or does not have a loan document as prescribed in § 722.1364. In instances where the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm in 1956 has not been determined through no fault of the operator and he, in applying for marketing certificates, certifies that he has ELS cotton from the 1956 crop available for marketing and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm does not exceed the farm acreage allotment, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may issue marketing certificates for his farm in a total amount for the 1956 crop not exceeding the product of the farm acreage allotment multiplied by the smaller of the normal yield per acre or the estimated actual yield per acre.

(b) Preparation and delivery of marketing certificates. Each marketing certificate shall show (1) the name and address of the producer to whom issued, (2) the names of the county and State and the serial number of the farm, if any, (3) the serial number of the 1956 marketing card issued for the farm, where applicable, (4) the description and amount of the ELS cotton to be marketed, (5) the signature of the producer and the date thereof, and (6) the signature of a member of the county committee or the county office manager and the date thereof. The county committee shall estimate or otherwise determine the actual production on each farm for which a marketing card has not been issued and for which marketing certificates are to be issued, and certificates shall not be issued for marketings in excess of such production. The "buyer's copy," "producer's copy," and "county office copy" of the marketing certificate shall be delivered to the producer to whom issued, and such producer, upon marketing the ELS cotton described in the marketing certificate, shall deliver all such copies to the buyer.

(c) Use of loan documents in lieu of marketing certificates to identify carryover CCC loan ELS cotton. Any producer who desires to sell his equity in carry-over ELS cotton which is pledged as collateral security for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan or to sell carryover ELS cotton on which such a loan has been repaid may, as provided in § 722.1364, identify such cotton as being penalty-free by presenting to the buyer or transferee thereof a loan document covering such cotton, and the buyer or transferee shall accept such document as evidence to him that the ELS cotton described therein is not subject to the penalty or the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.1359 Lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing cards or marketing certificates—(a) Report of loss, destruction, or theft. In case a marketing card or marketing certificate delivered to a producer is lost, destroyed, or stolen, any person having knowledge thereof shall, insofar as he is able, immediately notify the county committee of the following: (1) The name of the producer to whom the marketing card or certificate was issued; (2) the serial number of the marketing card or certificate; and (3) whether in his knowledge or judgment it was lost, destroyed, or stolen and by whom.

(b) Investigation and findings of county committee. The county committee shall make or cause to be made a thorough investigation of the circumstances of such loss, destruction, or theft. If it is found that such marketing card or marketing certificate was in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, such marketing card or certificate shall be canceled and a notice in writing to that effect shall be signed by the county office manager and mailed to the producer to whom the marketing card or certificate was issued at his last known address. If it is found that there has been no collusion or connivance in connection therewith on the part of the producer to or for whom the marketing card or certificate was issued, a marketing card or certificate shall be issued to him to replace the lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing card or certificate. Each marketing card or certificate issued under this section shall bear across its face in bold letters the word "Duplicate". In case a marketing card or certificate is canceled as provided in this section, the county office manager shall immediately notify the ginners and buyers in the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled and that a duplicate has been issued. A report of the findings and action of the county office manager shall be kept among the county office records. Any ginner or buyer or any other person coming into possession or control of a marketing card or certificate which has been canceled shall immediately return it to the county office which issued it.

§ 722.1360 Cancellation of marketing cards and marketing certificates issued in error. In the event any marketing card or marketing certificate was erroneously issued, the producer to whom it was issued shall be requested to return it to the county office and upon its being returned it shall be canceled by the county office manager by endorsing thereon in bold letters the word "Canceled". Without awaiting its return the county office manager shall notify the producer in writing at his last known address that it is void and of no effect. A copy of the notice, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county office. The county committee or county office manager shall notify the ginners and buyers in the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or certificate has been canceled.

IDENTIFICATION OF ELS COTTON

§ 722.1361 Time and manner of identification. Each producer of ELS cotton shall, at the time he markets any ELS cotton, identify the ELS cotton to the buyer or transferee, in the manner hereinafter provided, as being subject to or not subject to the penalty provided in § 722.1366 and the lien for the penalty as provided in § 722.1367.

§ 722.1362 Identification by marketing card. A marketing card (Form MQ–76—ELS Cotton (1956)) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom issued, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the ELS cotton produced on the farm for which the marketing card was issued may be purchased by him without collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.1363 Identification by marketing certificate. A marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer to whom it was issued, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the ELS cotton described on such certificate may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty.

§ 722.1364 Identification by loan document. A loan document (the original or the producer's copy) shall, when presented to the buyer or transferee by the producer in whose favor it is drawn, be evidence to the buyer or transferee that the carry-over ELS cotton described in such loan document may be purchased by him without the collection, deduction, or payment of the penalty, and that such cotton is not subject to the lien for the penalty. Any one of the following forms shall constitute a "loan document" for purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph: Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (CCC Cotton Form A); Producer's Loan Statement—A; or Producer's Warranty and Agreement (CCC Cotton Form G–2).

§ 722.1365 ELS cotton not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate or loan document. All ELS cotton marketed by a producer which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document, as provided in § 722.1362, § 722.1363, or § 722.1364, shall be taken by the buyer or transferee thereof as ELS cotton subject to the penalty prescribed in § 722.1366 and to the lien for the penalty. The buyer or transferee of such unidentified ELS cotton shall collect the penalty from the producer or deduct it from the purchase price of the ELS cotton. The buyer or transferee shall report the purchase of all such unidentified ELS cotton on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) and remit the penalty collected or deducted to the treasurer of the county committee.

PENALTY

§ 722.1366 Rate of penalty. The rate of the penalty for ELS lint cotton is the higher of 50 percent of the parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1956, or 50 percent of the 1956 support price for ELS cotton, as provided in section 347 (c) of the Act. The parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1956, is hereby determined to be 75.2 cents per pound, which is higher than the support price of 55.65 cents per pound as of June 15, 1956, for ELS cotton of the 1956 crop as determined pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1949, as amended. The rate of penalty for ELS cotton, as calculated pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall be 37.6 cents per pound of ELS lint cotton.

§ 722.1368 Interest on unremitted penalty. The person liable for the payment or collection of the penalty shall be liable also for interest on the amount of penalty which is not remitted in accordance with § 722.1369 (b) or § 722.1370 (c), as the case may be, at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the final date for remitting the penalty until the date such penalty is remitted. The computation of interest on any penalty due shall be made beginning with the day following the final date for remitting the penalty.

§ 722.1369 Payment of penalty by producers—(a) Producer liable for payment of penalty. Each producer having an interest in the 1956 crop of ELS cotton on any farm for which a farm marketing excess has been determined shall be liable to pay the entire amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess. The amount of the penalty which any producer shall pay shall nevertheless be reduced by the amount of the penalty which is paid by another producer or a buyer of ELS cotton produced on the farm.

(b) Time when penalty becomes due and payable. The farm marketing excess for a farm shall be regarded as available for marketing and the penalty thereon shall become due at the time any ELS cotton produced on the farm is harvested. The amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess for any farm shall be remitted on the date it becomes due or not later than March 15, 1957 (June 15, 1957, in the case of the Southern Area of Puerto Rico): Provided, however, That the penalty on any bale or lot of ELS cotton marketed (1) from a farm for which the penalty on the farm marketing excess has not been paid or (2) without being properly identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document as provided in § 722.1362, § 722.1363, or § 722.1364, shall be due on the date of such marketing and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the ELS cotton was marketed.

(c) Apportionment of the penalty. The county committee may, upon application of any producer made prior to the expiration of the time allowed for remitting the penalty on the farm marketing excess, determine his proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess if, pursuant to the application, the producer estabishes that he is unable to arrange with other producers on the farm for the payment of the penalty on the entire farm marketing excess, that his share of the ELS cotton crop produced on the farm is marketed by him separately, and that he exercises no control over the marketing of the shares of the other producers in the ELS cotton crop. The producer's proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess shall be that proportion of the entire penalty on the farm marketing excess which his share in the ELS cotton produced in 1956 on the farm bears to the total amount of ELS cotton produced in 1956 on the farm. When the producer pays his proportionate share of the penalty, he shall not be liable for the remainder of the penalty on the farm marketing excess and he shall be entitled to receive a marketing certificate, issued in accordance with § 722.1358, to be used by him only in the marketing of his proportionate share of the ELS cotton crop produced in 1956 on the farm.

§ 722.1370 Payment of penalty by buyers and transferees—(a) Buyers and transferees liable for payment of penalty. Each person within the United States who buys or acquires from the producer any ELS cotton subject to the lien for the penalty shall be liable for and shall pay the penalty thereon. ELS cotton shall be taken as subject to the lien for the penalty unless the producer presents to the buyer or transferee a marketing card (Form MQ–76—ELS Cotton (1956)), a marketing certificate (Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS)), or a loan document, as provided in §§ 722.1362, 722.1363, and 722.1364.

(b) Payment of penalty on account of lien for the penalty. Each person within the United States who buys or acquires ELS cotton from the producer which is subject to the lien for the penalty shall pay the amount of the penalty on each pound thereof in satisfaction of the lien thereon.

(c) Time when penalty becomes due. The penalty to be paid by any buyer or transferee pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall become due at the time the ELS cotton is marketed and shall be remitted not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the ELS cotton was marketed. ELS cotton shall be deemed to be sold when either title to or actual or constructive possession of the ELS cotton is delivered by or on behalf of the producer or any part of the purchase price is paid. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by barter or exchange when it is delivered to the transferee of the ELS cotton by actual or constructive delivery or the transferor has received any part of the property, goods, or services for which the ELS cotton is being bartered or exchanged. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed by gift inter vivos when there is an actual or constructive delivery of the ELS cotton to the transferee during the lifetime of the producer. ELS cotton shall be deemed to have been marketed in processed form when the producer, or some person on his behalf, converts ELS cotton into an article of trade and thereby causes the ELS cotton to lose its identity as ELS seed cotton or ELS lint cotton. An article of trade within the meaning of this provision is any article made in whole or in part from ELS cotton for the purpose of marketing such article.

(d) Manner of deducting penalty and issuance of receipts. The buyer may deduct from the price paid for any ELS cotton an amount equivalent to the amount of the penalty to be paid by the buyer pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. Any buyer who deducts an amount equivalent to the penalty shall issue to the person from whom the ELS cotton was purchased a receipt for the amount so deducted which shall be on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS).

The treasurer of the county committee, for and on behalf of the Secretary, shall receive the penalty and any interest due thereon and issue a receipt therefor to the person remitting the penalty. The penalty and interest shall be remitted only in legal tender, or by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks, drafts, or money orders tendered in payment of the penalty and interest shall be received by the treasurer of the county committee subject to collection and payment at par, and the receipt issued in connection therewith shall bear a notation to that effect and a description of the check, draft, or money order.

§ 722.1372 Deposit of funds. All funds received by the treasurer of the county committee in connection with penalties for ELS cotton shall be scheduled and transmitted by him on the day received, or not later than the morning of the next succeeding business day, to the State committee, which, in accordance with applicable instructions, shall cause such funds to be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States. In the event the funds so received are in the form of cash, the treasurer of the county committee shall deposit such cash in the county committee bank account and issue a check in the amount thereof payable to the Treasurer of the United States and transmit such check to the State committee. The treasurer of the county committee shall make and keep a record of each amount received by him, showing the name of the person who remitted the funds, the identification of the farm or farms for which the funds were remitted, and the names of the persons who marketed the ELS cotton in connection with which the funds were remitted.

§ 722.1373 Refunds of money in excess of the penalty—(a) Determination of refunds. The county committee and the treasurer of the county committee, upon their own motion or upon the request of any interested person, shall review the amount of money received in connection with the penalty for any farm to determine for each producer the amount thereof, if any, which is in excess of the penalty incurred. The excess amount shall be refunded. Any refund shall be made only to persons who bore the burden of the payment and who have not been reimbursed therefor. The excess sum shall be first applied, insofar as the sum will permit, so as to make refunds to eligible persons other than producers and the remainder, if any, shall be applied so as to make refunds to the eligible producers. The amount to be refunded to each producer shall be either (1) the amount agreed upon in writing by each and every ELS cotton producer on the farm or (2) in the event that such producers cannot agree to the division of such refund or if all of the producers on the farm are not available to apply for such refund, the amount determined by apportioning the excess among all of the producers on the farm on the basis of the amount of the penalty borne by each producer, as determined by the county committee. No refund shall be made to any buyer or transferee of any amount which he collected from the producer, deducted from the price or other consideration for the ELS cotton, or for which he was liable.

(b) Certification of refunds. A member of the county committee, or the treasurer of the county committee, shall notify the State committee of the amount which the county committee determines may be refunded to each person with respect to the farm, and the State committee shall cause to be certified to the appropriate Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department for payment such amounts as are approved by it. No refund of money shall be certified under this section unless the money has been collected and transmitted to the State committee but has not been covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States.

§ 722.1374 Refund of penalty erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected. Whenever, pursuant to a claim filed with the Secretary within the time prescribed in section 372 of the act after payment to him of the penalty collected from any person pursuant to the act, the Secretary finds that the penalty was erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected, he shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment to the claimant, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, such amount as the Secretary finds the claimant is entitled to receive as a refund of penalty. Any claim filed pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

§ 722.1375 Report of violations and court proceedings to collect penalty. It shall be the duty of the county office manager to report in writing to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to pay the penalty or to remit the same as provided in §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 to the Secretary when collected. It shall be the duty of the State administrative officer to report each such case in writing to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to collect the penalties as provided in section 376 of the act.

§ 722.1376 Records to be kept and reports to be made by ginners—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each ginner shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton the provisions of the act.

(b) Ginner's record of ELS cotton ginned. Each ginner shall keep, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record showing with respect to each bale, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, ginned by him the following information: (1) The date of ginning; (2) the name of the operator of the farm on which the ELS cotton was produced; (3) the name of the producer of the ELS cotton; (4) the name and address of the person who delivered the ELS cotton to the gin in those cases where the ginner has doubt as to the accuracy of the name of the farm operator or producer of the ELS cotton as furnished; (5) the county and State in which the farm on which the ELS cotton was produced is located; (6) the gin bale number or mark or other identification; (7) the serial number of the gin ticket or receipt prepared or issued by the ginner; (8) the gross weight of each bale of ELS cotton and the net weight of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale ginned by the ginner; and (9) the kind of bagging used on each bale if other than jute. The records so made shall be kept available for examination and inspection by the Secretary, or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, until December 31, 1958, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, but not so furnished. Such records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Director.

§ 722.1377 Records to be kept and reports to be made by buyers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who buys ELS seed cotton or ELS lint cotton from the producer thereof shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) Nature of and availability of records. Each buyer shall keep, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record which shall show with respect to each bale of ELS cotton, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, which is purchased by him from the producer thereof the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton and in the case of ELS seed cotton purchased, the number of pounds of such seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the number of pounds of ELS lint cotton in each bale, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of any penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 and the amount of penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the ELS cotton was identified when marketed (if a loan number appears on the loan document, the buyer shall keep a record of such number and the crop year; otherwise, the buyer shall keep a record of the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan). It shall be presumed that the ELS cotton was not identified in the manner provided in §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 if the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document does not appear on the records required by this paragraph. The record so made shall be kept available for examination and inspection by the Secretary, or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, until December 31, 1958, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 but not so furnished. Such records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Director. The county committee shall upon the request of any buyer, furnish to him without cost blank copies of Form MQ–100—Cotton (ELS) which may be used by him for the purpose of keeping the records required pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) Reports in connection with ELS cotton not identified by marketing cards, marketing certificates, or loan documents. The buyer of ELS cotton which is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate or loan document, as provided in §§ 722.1362, 722.1363 and 722.1364, when marketed shall, with respect to each purchase, make a written report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) of the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number or, if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of ELS cotton, and of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale; and (5) the amount of the penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased. The report shall be prepared and executed in triplicate; the "producer's copy" shall be delivered to the producer, the "buyer's copy" shall be retained by the buyer, and the buyer shall mail or deliver the "county office copy" to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such cotton was produced.

(d) Reports in connection with ELS cotton identified by marketing certificates. The buyer of ELS cotton which is identified, when marketed, by a marketing certificate, Form MQ–91—Cotton (ELS), as provided in § 722.1363, shall make a report in connection with the transaction by executing the certificate in triplicate and by mailing or delivering the "county office copy" to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such certificate was issued. The "buyer's copy" shall be retained by the buyer and the "producer's copy" shall be delivered to the producer to whom such certificate was issued. The manner in which the marketing certificate shall be executed and distributed, in case the marketing is to a buyer not within the United States, is provide for in § 722.1380 (b).

(e) Receipts to producers for penalties. Where the ELS cotton is not identified by a marketing card, marketing certificate, or loan document at the time of marketing the "producer's copy" of the executed Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) shall be the receipt from the buyer to the producer for the penalty collected. The buyer shall report the giving of each such receipt to the producer by forwarding the "county office copy" of Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which such cotton was produced, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Time for making reports. Each report required by the foregoing provisions of this section shall be made not later than seven calendar days next succeeding the end of the calendar week in which the ELS cotton covered thereby was marketed.

(g) Buyer's record and report. In the event the county committee, or the State committee, has reason to believe that any buyer failed or refused to collect or to remit the penalty required to be collected by him for any ELS cotton which he purchased, or otherwise in any manner failed or refused to comply with §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, the buyer shall, within fifteen days after a written request therefor by such committee is sent to him by certified mail at his last-known address, make a report verified as true and correct on Form MQ–100—Cotton (ELS) to such committee with respect to ELS cotton purchased or acquired by him from the person or persons specified in the request or purchased or acquired by him during the period of time specified in the request. Such report shall include the following information for each bale of ELS cotton, and each lot of ELS cotton less than a bale, purchased by such buyer: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the ELS cotton was purchased; (2) the date on which the ELS cotton was purchased; (3) the original gin bale number, or if there is no gin bale number, the gin bale mark or other information showing the origin or source of the ELS cotton and, in the case of ELS cotton purchased in the seed, the number of pounds of ELS seed cotton and the known or estimated amount of lint in such seed cotton; (4) the net weight of each bale of ELS cotton, and of each lot of ELS lint cotton less than a bale, purchased from the producer; (5) the amount of penalty required to be collected under §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 and the amount of any penalty collected in connection with the ELS cotton purchased from the producer; and (6) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or a brief description of the loan document by which the ELS cotton was identified when marketed (if the ELS cotton was identified by a loan document when marketed, enter the loan number and the crop year or the form number of the CCC loan document and the date of the loan).

(h) Manner of submitting reports. The treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the ELS cotton covered by the report was produced is hereby authorized and empowered to receive, for and on behalf of the Secretary, each report required pursuant to this section. Each report shall be mailed or delivered directly to the said treasurer. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph, each report on Form MQ–82—Cotton (ELS) in connection with the purchase of ELS cotton marketed without the use of the means of identification provided by §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 may be mailed or delivered directly to the treasurer of the county committee from whom the unexecuted copy of the form was obtained.

(i) Penalty for failure or refusal to keep records or make reports. Any person engaged in the business of purchasing ELS cotton from producers who fails to keep any record or make any report as required by this section or who makes any false report or false record shall, as provided for in section 373 (a) of the act, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense.

§ 722.1378 Records to be kept and reports to be made by transferees. Each transferee who acquires ELS seed cotton or ELS lint cotton from the producer thereof shall keep the same records and make the same reports which are required to be kept and made by buyers pursuant to § 722.1377. Also, transferees shall execute applicable certificates which are necessary to enable the producer to keep the records and make the reports required of him.

§ 722.1379 Records to be kept by warehousemen and others. Each ginner, buyer, warehouseman, processor (including compressor), common carrier, and other persons, as defined in section 373 (a) of the act, who gins, buys, stores, processes (including compressing), transports as a common carrier, or otherwise deals with ELS cotton from, for, or on behalf of the producer thereof shall make available for examination and inspection by the Secretary or by any authorized representative of the Secretary, the records kept in his business concerning such cotton, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 but not so furnished. The Secretary, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, hereby finds such records to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

§ 722.1380 Records to be kept and reports to be made by producers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each person who produces in 1956, or who produced in any previous year, ELS cotton which is subject to the provisions of §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, shall, in conformity with section 373 (b) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which records and reports the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to ELS cotton, the provisions of the act.

(b) ELS cotton marketed to persons not within the United States (including Puerto Rico). In each case where ELS cotton for which a marketing certificate has been issued pursuant to § 722.1358 is marketed to any person not within the United States (including Puerto Rico), the producer shall enter the name and address of the buyer or transferee and indicate in the space provided for the signature of the buyer or transferee on each copy of the marketing certificate that such person is not within the United States. The producer shall retain the "producer's copy" of the certificate, and the "county office copy" and the "buyer's copy" shall be mailed or delivered by such producer to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the certificate was issued not later than 15 calendar days next succeeding the day on which the ELS cotton was marketed.

(c) Farm operator's report. The operator of the farm shall file with the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS) in the following cases: (1) Where the producer is making an application for a downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess pursuant to § 722.1352, except that the county committee may waive this requirement in case it determines that the evidence otherwise submitted by the producer is satisfactory evidence of the actual production of ELS cotton on the farm in 1956; (2) where a farm marketing excess is determined for the farm but an application for downward adjustment in the farm marketing excess has not been filed and the county committee or the State committee requests the report in writing; and (3) where a farm marketing excess is not established but the State committee or the county committee determines that a farm operator's report is necessary for proper administration of §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 and requests such report in writing. Upon written request by the county committee or by the State committee for a farm operator's report on Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS), the operator of the farm shall make the report in the manner specified in this paragraph not later than the date designated by such committee in its request. Form MQ–98—Cotton (ELS) shall show for the farm the following information or any part thereof as specified in such request: (i) The date harvesting of the 1956 crop of ELS cotton was completed on the farm, the date of the last ginning of ELS cotton produced on the farm in 1956, and the acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm; (ii) the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton ginned from the 1956 crop of ELS cotton; (iii) the name and address of each ginner who ginned such cotton and the number of and net weight of bales or lots less than a bale ginned by him; (iv) the total amount of ELS seed cotton of the 1956 crop marketed; (v) the total amount of 1956 crop ELS lint cotton marketed; (vi) the amount of unmarketed ELS cotton of the 1956 crop on hand; (vii) the total number of pounds of ELS lint cotton produced in the 1956 crop year; (viii) the name and address of each buyer or transferee of 1956 crop ELS lint or seed cotton and the amount thereof marketed to him; and (ix) the amount of penalty paid by the producer or collected by the buyer or transferee.

§ 722.1381 Data to be kept confidential. Except as otherwise provided herein all data reported to or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to and in the manner provided in §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture, members of county committees and State committees, county agents, and the employees of such committees and county agents' offices, and shall not be disclosed to anyone not having an interest in or responsibility for any ELS cotton, farm, or transaction covered by the particular data, record, information, report, or form; and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary deems relevant shall be disclosed by them to anyone not having such an interest or not being employed in the administration of the act and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under the provisions of the act.

§ 722.1382 Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the county office manager to report in writing in quadruplicate to the State administrative officer each case of failure or refusal to make any report or keep any record as required by §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389 and so to report each case of making any false report or record. It shall be the duty of the State administrative officer to report each such case in writing, in triplicate, to the Office of the General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator, with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to enforce the provisions of the act.

§ 722.1384 Erroneous notice of ELS cotton acreage allotment. In any case where through error the producer is officially notified in writing of a farm acreage allotment larger than the final approved farm acreage allotment and it is found by the county committee that such producer, acting solely on the information contained in the erroneous notice, planted an acreage to ELS cotton in excess of the final approved farm acreage allotment the producer will not be considered to have exceeded the farm acreage allotment unless he planted an acreage in excess of the allotment shown on the erroneous notice. The determination by the county committee under this section shall be subject to the approval of the State committee. The acreage planted to ELS cotton on the farm in excess of the final approved allotment shall be considered as excess acreage for purposes of § 722.1385.

§ 722.1386 Availability of records. The State and county committees shall make available for inspection by owners or operators of farms receiving ELS cotton acreage allotments all records pertaining to ELS cotton acreage allotments and marketing quotas.

§ 722.1387 Designation of representatives of the Secretary to examine records.—(a) Designation of representatives. In order to carry out the provisions of §§ 722.1376 to 722.1379, relating to the examination of records the Deputy Administrator is hereby authorized and directed to designate in writing, with the counter signature of the State administrative officer, an appropriate number of persons from the officers or employees of the Department of Agriculture to act as the authorized representatives of the Secretary for the purposes of said provisions.

(b) Proof of designation. Each person designated pursuant to this section shall be furnished with a copy of his designation.

(c) Authorization to administer oaths. Each person designated pursuant to this section to act as the authorized representative of the Secretary is hereby authorized and empowered, pursuant to the act of Congress approved January 31, 1925 (sec. 1, 43 Stat. 803; 5 U. S. C. 521), to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever such oath, affirmation, or affidavit is for use in any prosecution or proceeding under or in the enforcement of the ELS cotton marketing quota provisions of the Act or §§ 722.1342 to 722.1388.

§ 722.1389 Delivery of notices in Puerto Rico. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 722.1342 to 722.1389, where it is impractical or impossible to use the United States mail to serve the producer in Puerto Rico with the notice provided for therein, use shall be made of such other method of service as is available; however, when such other method is used the county committee shall make provision for keeping an accurate record of the date and method of delivery to the producer of any such notice.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1956. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter F—Determination of Normal Yields and Eligibility for Abandonment and Crop Deficiency Payments

PART 847—PUERTO RICO

LOCAL PRODUCING AREA FOR 1954–55 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Normal Yields and Eligibility for Abandonment and Crop Deficiency Payments for the 1950–51 and Subsequent Crops (15 F. R. 6490), as amended (20 F. R. 5963), the Director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Caribbean Area Office hereby determines that seven wards of the municipality of Vieques shall constitute one local producing area for the 1954–55 crop year, as follows:

§ 847.3 Vieques, Puerto Rico. For the 1954–55 crop year, the wards of Punta Arenas, Llave, Mosquito, Florida, Puerto Real, Puerto Ferro, and Puerto Diablo of the municipality of Vieques, Puerto Rico, shall constitute one local producing area.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

The seven wards specified herein are adjacent to one another, and are designated as one local producing area for determining eligibility of sugarcane farms located therein for acreage abandonment or crop deficiency payments with respect to the 1954–55 crop of sugarcane as provided in the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended. Drought conditions in these wards reduced the yields of sugar below 80 percent of the normal yields for the farms whose harvested sugarcane acreage for the 1954–55 crop was more than 10 percent of the total sugarcane acreage of such crop harvested from all farms in such wards.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Interstate Transportation of Animals and Poultry

PART 71—GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART 78—BRUCELLOSIS IN DOMESTIC ANIMALS

PART 80—PARATUBERCULOSIS IN DOMESTIC ANIMALS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On April 8, 1954, October 8, 1955, and November 4, 1955, there were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (19 F. R. 2020, 20 F. R. 7552, 8294), notices with respect to proposed amendments of Subchapter C, Chapter 1, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations. After due consideration of all relevant material submitted in connection with such notices, and pursuant to the provisions of sections 6, 7, and 13 of the act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U. S. C. 114a–1, 115, 117), sections 1 and 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111–113, 120), and section 3 of the act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U. S. C. 125), said Subchapter C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 71.3 of Part 71 is amended to read:

§ 71.3 Interstate movement of diseased animals generally prohibited. Animals affected with splenetic fever, scabies, dourine, hog cholera, swine plague, vesicular exanthema, tuberculosis, brucellosis, scrapie, paratuberculosis, glanders, lip-and-leg ulceration, anthrax, or other contagious, infectious, or communicable disease of livestock, or which are tick infested, shall not be moved interstate: Provided, however, That domestic animals which have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis or paratuberculosis, which are not affected with any other disease referred to in this section and are not tick infested, may be moved interstate in accordance with the provisions of Subpart B of Part 78 of this subchapter in the case of brucellosis reactors and with the provisions of Part 80 of this subchapter in the case of paratuberculosis reactors, and that cattle which have reacted to the tuberculin test, which are not affected with any other disease referred to above and are not tick infested, may be moved interstate in accordance with the provisions of § 77.8 of this subchapter. Before offering cattle or other livestock for interstate transportation, transporting them interstate, or introducing them into any stockyards or upon routes of traffic for interstate transportation, all persons or corporations are required to exercise reasonable diligence to ascertain that such animals are not affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and have not been exposed to the contagion or infection of any such disease by contact with other animals so diseased or by location in pens, cars, or other vehicles, or upon premises that have contained animals so diseased.

(Secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, 41 Stat. 699, sec. 2, 65 Stat. 693; 21 U. S. C. 111–113, 114a–1, 116, 120. Interpret or apply secs. 6, 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 115, 117)

2. Part 78 is amended to read:

78.13 Modified certified brucellosis-free areas.
78.14 Public stockyards.
78.15 Slaughtering establishments.
78.16 Chief of Branch may designate areas and approve stockyards and slaughtering establishments.

AUTHORITY: §§ 78.1 to 78.16 issued under secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, sec. 3, 33 Stat. 1265, as amended, sec. 2, 65 Stat. 693; 21 U. S. C. 111–113, 114a–1, 120, 125. Interpret or apply secs. 6, 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 115, 117.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 78.1 Definitions. As used in this part, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth in this section except as otherwise clearly indicated.

(a) Brucellosis. The infectious and communicable disease of domestic animals commonly known as Bang's disease, abortion disease, contagious abortion, and brucellosis.

(b) Branch. The Animal Disease Eradication Branch, Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(c) Chief of Branch. The Chief of the Branch, or any other official of the Branch to whom authority has heretofore been delegated or may hereafter be delegated to act in his stead.

(d) State. Any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia.

(e) Interstate. From one State to any other State.

(f) Person. Any person, company, or corporation.

(g) Moved. Shipped, transported or otherwise moved, or delivered or received for movement, by any person.

(h) Certified brucellosis-free herd. A herd of cattle officially declared by the Branch and a State as free from brucellosis and such declaration being evidenced by a currently effective certificate issued jointly by the Branch and such State.

(i) Modified certified brucellosis-free area. A State, or a political subdivision or portion thereof, in which the percentage of cattle affected with brucellosis has been determined by the Agricultural Research Service, United State Department of Agriculture, not to exceed one percent and the percentage of herds in which brucellosis is present has been determined by such Service not to exceed five percent, and which maintains that status in accordance with provisions of the "Uniform Methods and Rules for the Establishment and Maintenance of Certified Brucellosis-free Herds of Cattle and Modified Certified Areas", which are adopted by the United States Livestock Sanitary Association, and approved by the Branch. Copies of such Uniform Methods and Rules are available at the Washington, D. C., office of the Branch. (Such areas are specified in § 78.13.)

(j) Official vaccinate. A bovine animal vaccinated against brucellosis from 4 through 8 months of age, or a bovine animal of a beef breed in a range or semirange area, vaccinated against brucellosis from 4 to 12 months of age, under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, with a vaccine approved by the Branch; permanently identified as such a vaccinate; and reported at the time of vaccination to the appropriate State or Federal agency cooperating in the eradication of brucellosis.

(k) Public stockyard. A stockyard designated in § 78.14 (a) where trading in livestock is carried on, where yarding, feeding, and watering facilities are provided by the stockyard, transportation, or similar company, and where Federal inspection is maintained for the inspection of livestock for communicable diseases; or a stockyard specifically approved under § 78.14 (b) for the purposes of the regulations in this part.

(l) Federal inspector. An inspector of the Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture, responsible for the performance of the function involved.

(m) State inspector. An inspector regularly employed in livestock sanitary work of a State or a political subdivision thereof, and who is authorized by such State or political subdivision to perform the function involved.

(n) Accredited veterinarian. A veterinarian approved by the United States Department of Agriculture to perform the function involved.

§ 78.2 Notice relating to existence of brucellosis. On June 5, 1952, the Secretary of Agriculture issued a notice that the contagion of brucellosis exists in domestic animals in each State of the Continental United States and in Puerto Rico, Alaska, and Hawaii (17 F. R. 5260).

§ 78.3 Certificates pertaining to movement of animals. (a) Whenever the regulations in this part require a certificate in connection with the movement of animals and the animals are moved by a transportation agency issuing waybills or other forms of billing covering the movement, the certificate shall be delivered to such transportation agency by the shipper at the time the animals are delivered for shipment; shall become the property of the transportation agency; shall be attached to the billing by the transportation agency; shall accompany such billing to the destination of the animals; and shall be filed with such billing for future reference.

(b) Whenever the regulations in this part require a certificate in connection with the movement of animals and the animals are moved by a transportation agency not issuing waybills or other forms of billing, or moved by any other means, the certificate shall accompany the animals to their destination and be delivered to the consignee, or, in case the consignor and the consignee are the same person, to the first person purchasing during or after such movement, or to the person to whom the animals are delivered.

(c) The person issuing a certificate required for the interstate movement of cattle under paragraphs (d) or (e) of § 78.12 shall forward a copy thereof to the proper livestock sanitary official of the State of destination of the cattle.

SUBPART B—DOMESTIC ANIMALS AFFECTED WITH BRUCELLOSIS

§ 78.4 General restriction. Domestic animals affected with brucellosis may not be moved interstate except in compliance with the regulations in this subpart.

§ 78.5 Movement of brucellosis reactors. Domestic animals which have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis may be moved interstate under this subpart for immediate slaughter direct to a slaughtering establishment operating under the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act of March 4, 1907 (34 Stat. 1260; 21 U. S. C. 71 et seq.), or a slaughtering establishment specifically approved under § 78.15 (b) for the purpose, or to a public stockyard for sale to such a slaughtering establishment, in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) Cattle which reacted to such a test shall be marked for identification by branding the letter "B" on the left jaw in letters not less than 2 nor more than 3 inches high, and attaching to the left ear a metal tag bearing a serial number and the inscription "U. S. B. A. I. Reacted," or "U. S. Reacted," or a similar State reactor tag. Such a metal tag, affixed to the left ear, shall be sufficient identification for reactors other than cattle.

(b) The reactors shall be accompanied to destination, in accordance with § 78.3, by a certificate issued by a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian showing: (1) That the animals have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis; (2) the reactor tag number of each animal and the name of the owner of such animal when it was tested for brucellosis; (3) that the animals may be moved interstate; (4) the destintion to which they are to be moved; and (5) the purpose for which they are to be moved.

§ 78.6 Reshipment of purebred brucellosis reactors. Purebred animals which have been moved interstate for breeding purposes, and which, subsequent to such movement, have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis, may be reshipped interstate under this Subpart for purposes other than immediate slaughter in accordance with the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 78.5 and with the following additional requirements:

(a) The reactors shall be returned to the point of origin, consigned to the original owner.

(b) Test charts for the original test and any subsequent retest, showing that such tests were properly conducted, shall be submitted for examination to the person who issues the certificate required by § 78.5 (b).

(c) The reactors shall not be shipped to any State without specific provision by the appropriate livestock sanitary official thereof for the segregation or quarantine of such reactors until their death by slaughter or from natural causes.

(d) The reactors, after return to the point of origin, shall not again be moved interstate except for immediate slaughter in accordance with the provisions of § 78.5.

§ 78.7 Marking of records. Each transportation agency moving brucellosis reactors in the course of their interstate movement shall plainly write or stamp upon the face of each waybill, conductor's manifest, switch order, vehicle interchange record, and similar record, which it prepares in connection with such movement, the words "Brucellosis Reactors" and a statement to the effect that the railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, in which the animals are transported is to be cleaned and disinfected.

§ 78.8 Cleaning and disinfecting vehicles. (a) Each railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, in which brucellosis reactors are transported interstate shall be cleaned and disinfected in accordance with the provisions of §§ 71.4, 71.7, 71.9, 71.10, and 71.11 of this subchapter: Provided, however, That such vehicles may be cleaned and disinfected under the supervision of a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian: And provided, further, That if such supervision or proper cleaning and disinfecting facilities are not available at the point where the animals are unloaded, upon permission first received from the Branch, the vehicle may be forwarded empty to a point at which such supervision and facilities are available and there be cleaned and disinfected.

(b) Each railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, from which brucellosis reactors moved interstate are transferred en route to destination, shall be cleaned and disinfected, by the transportation agency delivering the vehicle to such point of transfer, under the supervision of a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian, immediately after unloading of the animals and before being moved from such point of transfer, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 71.9 through 71.11 of this subchapter: Provided, however, That if such supervision or proper cleaning and disinfecting facilities are not available at such point of transfer, upon permission first secured from the Branch, the vehicle may be forwarded empty to a point at which such supervision and facilities are available and there be cleaned and disinfected.

§ 78.9 Segregation of brucellosis reactors en route interstate. Brucellosis reactors shall not be moved interstate in a railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, containing healthy animals susceptible to brucellosis unless all of the animals are for immediate slaughter, or unless the reactors are kept separate from the other animals by a partition securely affixed to the sides of the vehicle.

SUBPART C—RESTRICTIONS ON MOVEMENT OF CATTLE BECAUSE OF BRUCELLOSIS

§ 78.10 General restriction. Cattle may not be moved interstate except as provided in the regulations in this subpart.

§ 78.11 Movement of brucellosis reactor cattle. Cattle which have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis may be moved interstate in accordance with the regulations in Subpart B of this part.

§ 78.12 Movement of cattle not known to be affected with brucellosis[1]—(a) Movement of steers, spayed heifers, and calves under 8 months of age. Steers and spayed heifers and calves under 8 months of age, not known to be affected with brucellosis, may be moved interstate without restriction under this subpart.

(b) Movement of cattle for immediate slaughter. Cattle, not known to be affected with brucellosis, may be moved interstate under this subpart for immediate slaughter direct to a slaughtering establishment operating under the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act of March 4, 1907 (34 Stat. 1260; 21 U. S. C. 71 et seq.), or a slaughtering establishment specifically approved under § 78.15 (b) for the purpose, or to a public stockyard for sale to such a slaughtering establishment, if accompanied by a waybill or similar document, or a certificate signed by the owner or shipper of the cattle, stating: (1) The destination of the animals; (2) the purpose for which they are to be moved; (3) the number of animals covered by the waybill or similar document or certificate; (4) the point from which the animals are moved interstate; and (5) the name and address of the owner or shipper: Provided, however, That the movement of said cattle from such stockyard to another destination must comply with the provisions of this part the same as if the cattle had been originally consigned direct from the point of origin to such destination.

(d) Movement of cattle into areas not certified as modified brucellosis-free areas. Cattle of the following classes, not known to be affected with brucellosis, may be moved interstate under this subpart, except into the modified certified brucellosis-free areas specified in § 78.13, if accompanied by a certificate issued by a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian showing the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the identification tag number, tattoo, or registration number of each animal or other proper identification, and showing the specific class in which the cattle fall:

(1) Cattle originating in certified brucellosis-free herds;

(2) Cattle originating in the modified certified brucellosis-free areas specified in § 78.13;

(3) Cattle which are official vaccinates under 30 months of age at the time of interstate movement;

(4) Cattle which are official vaccinates over 30 months of age at the time of movement interstate; which have been subjected to a test, recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis, under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, within 30 days prior to the interstate movement and found not to disclose a reaction exceeding incomplete agglutination in a dilution of 1:100; and which are moved interstate under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of the State of destination;

(5) Cattle which have been subjected to a test, recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, within 30 days prior to the date of movement interstate and found negative; and

(6) Bulls and female cattle of the beef type moved interstate, for feeding or grazing purposes only, to a State which has laws, rules, or regulations, which provide for the segregation or quarantine of such cattle brought into the State, and under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of such State of destination.

(e) Movement of cattle into modified certified brucellosis-free areas. Cattle of the following classes, not known to be affected with brucellosis, may be moved interstate under this subpart into the modified certified brucellosis-free areas specified in § 78.13, if accompanied by a certificate issued by a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian showing the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the identification tag, tattoo, or registration number of each animal or other proper identification, and showing the specific class in which the cattle fall:

(1) Cattle originating in certified brucellosis-free herds;

(2) Cattle originating in the modified certified brucellosis-free areas specified in § 78.13;

(3) Cattle which are official vaccinates under 30 months of age at the time of interstate movement, and which are moved interstate under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of the State of destination;

(4) Cattle which are official vaccinates over 30 months of age at the time of movement interstate; which have been subjected to a test, recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis, under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, after 30 months of age and found not to disclose a reaction exceeding incomplete agglutination in a dilution of 1:100; and which are moved interstate under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of the State of destination to be maintained in quarantine in such State until they are negative to another such test or until their death by slaughter or from natural causes;

(5) Cattle which have been subjected to a blood agglutination test, recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis, under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, within 30 days prior to the date of movement interstate and found negative, and which are moved interstate under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of the State of destination to be maintained in quarantine in such State separate from other cattle until they are negative to another such test administered not less than 30 days after the date of the interstate movement or until their death by slaughter or from natural causes;

(6) Cattle from herds, under Federal-State supervision for the control of brucellosis, in which all animals, required to be tested, over eight months of age, except official vaccinates under thirty months of age, have been subjected to a blood agglutination test, recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for brucellosis, under the supervision of a Federal or State veterinary official, within 90 days prior to the date of movement interstate and found negative; the individual animals to be moved interstate having been subjected to another such test at least 30 days from the date of the previous herd test and within 30 days prior to the date of movement interstate and found negative; and

(7) Bulls and female cattle of the beef type moved interstate, for feeding or grazing purposes only, to a State which has laws, rules, or regulations, which provide for the segregation or quarantine of such cattle brought into the State, and under a permit from the appropriate livestock sanitary official of such State of destination.

(f) Other movements. The Chief of Branch may provide for the movement, not otherwise provided for in this section, of cattle, not known to have reacted to a test for brucellosis, under such conditions as he may prescribe to prevent the spread of brucellosis. The Chief of Branch will promptly notify the appropriate livestock sanitary officials of the States involved of any such action.

[1] In each instance, the regulations of the State of destination should be consulted before interstate shipments are made.

SUBPART D—DESIGNATION OF MODIFIED CERTIFIED BRUCELLOSIS-FREE AREAS, PUBLIC STOCKYARDS, AND SLAUGHTERING ESTABLISHMENTS

§ 78.13 Modified certified brucellosis-free areas. The following States, Counties, and Municipalities, are hereby designated as modified certified brucellosis-free areas:

(a) The entire State of Maine;

(b) The entire State of New Hampshire;

(c) The entire State of North Carolina;

(d) The entire State of Washington;

(b) There are no stockyards specifically approved for the purposes of the regulations in this part at the present time. When such specific approval is given to any stockyard, this section will be amended accordingly.

§ 78.15 Slaughtering establishments. (a) Information with respect to the slaughtering establishments operating under the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act of March 4, 1907, may be obtained from the Meat Inspection Branch, Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., and from the Federal Inspectors and State Inspectors.

(b) There are no slaughtering establishments specifically approved for the purposes of the regulations in this part at the present time. When such specific approval is given to any slaughtering establishment, this section will be amended accordingly.

§ 78.16 Chief of Branch may designate areas and approve stockyards and slaughtering establishments. (a) The Chief of Branch is hereby authorized to amend § 78.13 to designate additional States, or political subdivisions or portions thereof, as modified certified brucellosis-free areas when he determines that the areas come within the definition in § 78.1 (i), and to delete any such area from the list of modified certified brucellosis-free areas when he determines that the area no longer comes within such definition.

(b) The Chief of Branch is hereby authorized to amend §§ 78.14 and 78.15 to add the names of additional stockyards at which Federal inspection is maintained for the inspection of livestock for communicable diseases; to specifically approve stockyards and slaughtering establishments for the purposes of the regulations in this part when he determines that the inspection and handling of livestock or carcasses or products thereof at such stockyards or establishments are adequate to effectuate the purposes of such regulations; to delete the name of any stockyard at which such Federal inspection is no longer maintained; and to delete the name of any stockyard or slaughtering establishment so specifically approved when he finds that the inspection or handling of livestock or carcasses or products thereof at such stockyard or establishment is no longer adequate to effectuate the purposes of such regulations.

3. A new Part 80 is added to read:

Sec.
80.1 Definitions.
80.2 Notice relating to existence of paratuberculosis.
80.3 General restriction.
80.4 Movement of paratuberculosis reactors.
80.5 Reshipment of purebred paratuberculosis reactors.
80.6 Marking of records.
80.7 Cleaning and disinfecting vehicles.
80.8 Segregation of paratuberculosis reactors en route interstate.
80.9 Certificates pertaining to movement of animals.

AUTHORITY: §§ 80.1 to 80.9 issued under secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, sec. 3, 33 Stat. 1265, as amended, sec. 2, 65 Stat. 693; 21 U. S. C. 111–113, 114a–1, 120, 125. Interpret or apply secs. 6, 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 115, 117.

§ 80.1 Definitions. As used in this part, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth in this section except as otherwise clearly indicated.

(a) Paratuberculosis. The infectious and communicable disease of domestic animals commonly known as Johne's disease and paratuberculosis.

(b) State. Any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia.

(c) Interstate. From one State to any other State.

(d) Person. Any person, company, or corporation.

(e) Moved. Shipped, transported or otherwise moved, or delivered or received for movement, by any person.

(f) Public stockyard. A stockyard designated in § 78.14 (a) of this subchapter where trading in livestock is carried on, where yarding, feeding, and watering facilities are provided by the stockyard, transportation, or similar company, and where Federal inspection is maintained for the inspection of livestock for communicable diseases; or a stockyard specifically approved under § 78.14 (b) of this subchapter.

(g) Federal inspector. An inspector of the Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture, responsible for the performance of the function involved.

(h) State inspector. An inspector regularly employed in livestock sanitary work of a State or political subdivision thereof, and who is authorized by such State or political subdivision to perform the function involved.

(i) Accredited veterinarian. A veterinarian approved by the United States Department of Agriculture to perform the function involved.

§ 80.2 Notice relating to existence of paratuberculosis. On June 5, 1952, the Secretary of Agriculture issued a notice that the contagion of paratuberculosis exists in domestic animals in Puerto Rico and in each State of the Continental United States except Arizona, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Utah, and Wyoming (17 F. R. 5260).

§ 80.3 General restriction. Domestic animals affected with paratuberculosis may not be moved interstate except in compliance with the regulations in this part.

§ 80.4 Movement of paratuberculosis reactors. Domestic animals which have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for paratuberculosis may be moved interstate under this part for immediate slaughter direct to a slaughtering establishment operating under the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act of March 4, 1907 (34 Stat. 1260; 21 U. S. C. 71 et. seq.), or a slaughtering establishment specifically approved under § 78.15 (b) of this subchapter, or to a public stockyard for sale to such a slaughtering establishment, in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) Cattle which have reacted to such a test shall be marked for identification by branding the letter "T" on the left jaw in letters not less than 2 nor more than 3 inches high, and attaching to the left ear a metal tag bearing a serial number and the inscription "U. S. B. A. I. Reacted," or "U. S. Reacted," or a similar State reactor tag. Such a metal tag, affixed to the left ear, shall be sufficient identification for reactors other than cattle.

(b) The reactors shall be accompanied to destination, in accordance with § 80.9, by a certificate issued by a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian showing: (1) That the animals have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for paratuberculosis; (2) the reactor tag number of each animal and the name of the owner of such animal when it was tested for tuberculosis; (3) that the animals may be moved interstate; (4) the destination to which they are to be moved; and (5) the purpose for which they are moved.

§ 80.5 Reshipment of purebred paratuberculosis reactors. Purebred animals which have been moved interstate for breeding purposes, and which, subsequent to such movement, have reacted to a test recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for paratuberculosis, may be reshipped interstate under this part for purposes other than immediate slaughter in accordance with the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 80.4 and with the following additional requirements:

(a) The reactors shall be returned to the point of origin, consigned to the original owner.

(b) Test charts for the original test and any subsequent retest, showing that such tests were properly conducted, shall be submitted for examination to the person who issues the certificate required by § 80.4 (b).

(c) The reactors shall not be shipped to any State without specific provision by the appropriate livestock sanitary official thereof for the segregation or quarantine of such reactors until their death by slaughter or from natural causes.

(d) The reactors, after return to the point of origin, shall not again be moved interstate except for immediate slaughter in accordance with the provisions of § 80.4.

§ 80.6 Marking of records. Each transportation agency moving paratuberculosis reactors in the course of their interstate movement shall plainly write or stamp upon the face of each waybill, conductor's manifest, switch order, vehicle interchange record, and similar record, which it prepares in connection with such movement, the words "Paratuberculosis Reactors" and a statement to the effect that the railroad car, boat, truck or vehicle, in which the animals are transported is to be cleaned and disinfected.

§ 80.7 Cleaning and disinfecting vehicles. (a) Each railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, in which paratuberculosis reactors are transported interstate shall be cleaned and disinfected in accordance with the provisions of §§ 71.4, 71.7, 71.9, 71.10, and 71.11 of this subchapter: Provided, however, That such vehicles may be cleaned and disinfected under the supervision of a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian: And provided, further, That if such supervision or proper cleaning and disinfection facilities are not available at the point where the animals are unloaded, upon permission first secured from the Animal Disease Eradication Branch, Agricultural Research Service, United States Department of Agriculture, the vehicle may be forwarded empty to a point at which such supervision and facilities are available and there be cleaned and disinfected.

(b) Each railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, from which paratuberculosis reactors moved interstate are transferred en route to destination, shall be cleaned and disinfected, by the transportation agency delivering the vehicle to such point of transfer, under the supervision of a Federal or State inspector or an accredited veterinarian, immediately after unloading of the animals and before being moved from such point of transfer, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 71.9 through 71.11 of this subchapter: Provided, however, That if such supervision or proper cleaning and disinfection facilities are not available at such point of transfer, upon having first secured permission from the Animal Disease Eradication Branch, the vehicle may be forwarded empty to a point at which such supervision and facilities are available and there be cleaned and disinfected.

§ 80.8 Segregation of paratuberculosis reactors en route interstate. Paratuberculosis reactors shall not be moved interstate in a railroad car, boat, truck, or other vehicle, containing healthy animals susceptible to paratuberculosis unless all of the animals are for immediate slaughter, or unless the reactors are kept separate from the other animals by a partition securely affixed to the sides of the vehicle.

§ 80.9 Certificates pertaining to movement of animals. (a) Whenever the regulations in this part require a certificate in connection with the movement of animals and the animals are moved by a transportation agency issuing waybills or other forms of billing covering the movement, the certificate shall be delivered to such transportation agency by the shipper at the time the animals are delivered for shipment; shall become the property of the transportation agency; shall be attached to the billing by the transportation agency; shall accompany such billing to the destination of the animals; and shall be filed with such billing for future reference.

(b) Whenever the regulations in this part require a certificate in connection with the movement of animals and the animals are moved by a transportation agency not issuing waybills or other forms of billing, or moved by any other means, the certificate shall accompany the animals to their destination and be delivered to the consignee, or, in case the consignor and consignee are the same person, to the first person purchasing during or after such movement, or to the person to whom the animals are delivered.

The foregoing amendments make certain changes in the proposed amendments published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 8, 1954, and October 8, 1955. Most of such changes are matters of form and were made to clarify provisions of the regulations. Other changes make certain provisions of the regulations less restrictive than the proposed amendments. Certain changes relate to matters of agency organization. The remaining changes are minor and will not seriously affect the rights or obligations of persons subject to the regulations. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to such changes are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest.

Effective dates. The amendment of § 71.3, Subparts A, B, and D of amended Part 78, and the new Part 80 shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Subpart C of amended Part 78 shall become effective on January 1, 1957.

The amendment of § 71.3, Subparts A, B, and D of amended Part 78, and the new Part 80 in certain respects are in the nature of a relief of restrictions presently imposed and in certain respects clarify provisions of the present regulations, and should be made effective promptly to be of maximum benefit to affected persons. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), good cause is found for making these amendments effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1956.

Acting Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supp. 24]

PART 3—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS: NORMAL, UTILITY, AND ACROBATIC CATEGORIES

FLIGHT TESTS TO DETERMINE FREEDOM FROM FLUTTER

Section 3.311-2 establishes CAA's policy for the use of flight tests in determining freedom from flutter and was prepared to insure that reliable data on freedom from flutter be obtained through flight recording instrumentation before conducting official CAA flight tests.

A new § 3.311-2 is added as follows:

§ 3.311-2 Substantiation of freedom from flutter by flight flutter tests (CAA policies which apply to § 3.311). Various procedures are available for demonstrating freedom from flutter in complying with the requirements of § 3.311 (a) and (b), namely: performance of a flutter analysis, application of the simplified criteria of § 3.311-1 when applicable, and performance of a flight flutter test by the applicant. It is not recommended that flight flutter tests be used as a general procedure for substantiating freedom from flutter. The performance of a flutter analysis or the application of the simplified flutter criteria are considered preferred procedures due to the hazards involved in flight flutter tests.

(a) Acceptability. Flight flutter tests will be acceptable as substantiation of freedom from flutter when it can be demonstrated by such tests that proper and adequate attempts to induce flutter have been made within the speed range up to V_d, and the vibratory response of the structure during the tests indicates freedom from flutter.

(b) Records. Flight recording instrumentation of either the electrical or photographic type should be installed to provide a permanent record of the control surface and/or fixed surface response to the applied flutter exciting forces, as well as a record of the associated test airspeed.

(c) Test procedures. The following is an outline of an acceptable procedure for demonstrating freedom from flutter by flight tests in which rapid control surface deflections are applied to induce flutter:

(1) The tests should cover the flight speed range with excitation applied at small incremental increases of airspeed up to V_d. The incremental speed increases between 0.8 V_d and V_d should be not more than 5 m. p. h. At lower flight speeds, larger increments or airspeed may be used.

(2) The controls should be deflected to attempt to excite flutter as follows:

(i) Aileron control to induce wing and aileron flutter.

(ii) Rudder control to induce rudder and vertical tail flutter.

(iii) Elevator control to induce elevator and horizontal tail flutter, and symmetric wing flutter.

(iv) Control surface to which the tab is attached to induce tab flutter.

(3) Attempts to induce flutter should be made by abrupt rotational deflections of the respective control surfaces. These deflections should be obtained by striking the corresponding control with the free hand, or foot, and the disturbed control should be allowed to stabilize without restraint by the pilot. The force applied should be sufficient to produce an impulsive deflection of the control surface of at least 3 degrees.

(4) At each test speed, at least 3 attempts to induce flutter should be made for each of the surfaces being investigated.

(5) A permanent record[1] at each test speed should be obtained as follows:

(i) In flutter tests of the rudder, elevator and tab surfaces; a time history of the control surface rotational deflection, and the associated airspeed.

(ii) In flutter tests of the wing and aileron; a time history of the aileron rotational deflection, a time history of the wing vibratory response, and the associated test airspeed.

(6) The tests should consider significant variations in mass and rigidity values which might be expected in service. The aileron and tab control systems should be freed to the extent necessary to be representative of what might be expected in service. (See Airframe and Equipment Engineering Report No. 45.)[2] In tests of wings incorporating wing-tip fuel tanks, the tip-tank weight during the tests should include the weight which results in the most adverse wing flutter characteristics. An engineering evaluation of the ground vibration survey results may be made to determine which value of tip-tank weight is most critical. In some instances, such an engineering evaluation will not permit selection of any single weight as being most critical and flight flutter tests at several tip-tank weights should be performed.

(7) The tests should be conducted at altitudes of approximately 50 to 75 percent of the service ceiling.

(8) The vibration survey required under § 3.311 (c) should be conducted prior to performing the flight flutter tests. The structural frequency and vibration mode data should be evaluated to determine what structural modes are most likely to be flutter critical. An engineering evaluation of the wing bending and torsion frequencies as well as the ratios of wing bending to wing torsion frequencies should be made for various wing tip-tank weight conditions to determine the critical tip-tank weight(s) which should be considered in the flight flutter tests.

[1] These data can be obtained by installing a control surface position indicating device at the control surface, a vibration pickup in the vicinity of one wing tip to detect the wing response, and a suitable pressure transducer connected to the aircraft's pitot-static system to measure the airspeed with the electrical signals from these instruments connected to a recording oscillograph.

Alternatively, photographic methods using cameras may also be used for recording the flight test data. However, the photographic records obtained should be of a nature that will permit satisfactory evaluation of the degree of control surface deflection applied, the flutter stability and a correlation of the airspeed record with the associated flutter test point.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 5989]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

FRUITVALE CANNING CO.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Price discrimination under 2 (a): § 13.715 Charges and price differentials.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Fruitvale Canning Company, Oakland, Calif., Docket 5989, June 15, 1956]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission, charging a corporate packer of canned fruits in Oakland, Calif., with following a consistent pattern of charging favored chain stores in San Francisco, which purchased directly through their buyers, less for its products of like grade and quality than it charged unfavored buyers who purchased through brokers, by variations in price per dozen cans ranging from 2½ cents to 55 cents during 1950, the majority of which were 5 cents or 10 cents per dozen.

Following respondent's answer and joining of the issues, the hearing examiner granted motion of respondent's counsel for a more definite statement than that contained in the complaint which, however, was vacated on appeal to the Commission. Thereafter, evidence was submitted at hearings in due course, and finally proposed findings as to the facts and proposed conclusions were submitted by both counsel.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision[1] and order to cease and desist which, after denial of respondent's appeal[1] therefrom, were, on June 15, 1956, adopted as the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Fruitvale Canning Company, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale or distribution of canned fruits in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of canned fruits of like grade and quality:

1. By selling at differing prices to wholesalers who in fact compete with each other in the resale or distribution of such canned fruits;

2. By selling at differing prices to retailers who in fact compete with each other in the resale or distribution of such canned fruits;

3. By selling to any retailer at prices lower than prices charged any wholesaler who competes, or whose customers compete, with such retailer in the sale or distribution of such canned fruits.

The term "price" as used in this order means the net price after all discounts, rebates or other allowances have been deducted.

By "Final Order" report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Fruitvale Canning Company, shall within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order contained in said initial decision.

Issued: June 15, 1956.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

CYRUS SWIFT ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.90 History of product or offering; § 13.170 Qualities or properties of product or service.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Cyrus Swift et al. doing business as Fairyfoot, Chicago, Ill., Docket 6479, June 19, 1956]

In the Matter of Cyrus Swift and Myrtle F. Swift, Individuals Doing Business Under the Trade Name of Fairyfoot

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging an individual with representing falsely in advertising in newspapers and other periodicals, leaflets, and form letters, that her bunion plasters designated as "Fairyfoot for Bunions" were a sensational and miraculous scientific achievement, use of which would permanently stop the pain of a bunion, cause the inflammation and swelling to quickly subside, correct the deformity of the foot associated with a bunion, etc.—and an agreement for a consent order disposing of the issues without hearing.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision[1] and order to cease and desist which became, on June 19, 1956, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent Myrtle F. Swift, individually and doing business under the trade name of Fairyfoot or under any other name, and respondent's agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in conection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of bunion plasters or of any other product of substantially the same composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents, directly or indirectly:

(a) That said product is a sensational or scientific achievement, or sensational or miraculous;

(b) That the use of said product,

(1) Permanently stops the pain of a bunion,

(2) Causes the swelling to quickly subside,

(3) Subdues inflammation or swelling through a pain relieving ingredient;

(4) Corrects the deformity of the foot associated with a bunion or reduces the bony enlargement,

(5) Causes a bunion to get smaller and smaller until the sufferer is able to wear regular shoes again in comfort.

2. Disseminating or causing the dissemination of any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said product, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the complaint, as to respondent Cyrus Swift, be and hereby is dismissed without prejudice.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon her of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which she has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: June 19, 1956.

By the Commission.

WAIVER OF COASTWISE TOWING LAWS TO PERMIT USE OF CANADIAN TUGS "HARBOR MASTER" AND "RADEL" IN ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY PROJECT

JULY 6, 1956.

Upon written recommendation in the interest of national defense by the Secretary of the Army, acting under the delegation of August 18, 1955 (20 F. R. 6361), of certain powers of the Secretary of Defense with respect to matters concerning the St. Lawrence Seaway Power Project or the St. Lawrence Seaway Navigation Project, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of December 27, 1950 (64 Stat. 1120), and Revised Treasury Department Order No. 165, as amended (T. Ds. 53654 and 53966), I hereby waive compliance with section 316, title 46, United States Code, to the extent necessary to permit the Canadian tugs "Harbor Master" and "Radel" to tow the barge "Sill No. 55" from the mouth of the Grass River in the United States through the Cornwall Canal in Canada and return to the Massena Power Canal in the United States on one voyage to commence on or about July 9, 1956.

PART 14—APPRAISEMENT

EXAMINATION OF MERCHANDISE

On the basis of a number of reports from field offices commenting on a suggestion to modify the requirement of the deposit of estimated additional expense incident to the examination and appraisement of imported articles coming within the purview of § 14.2 (e) of the Customs Regulations, the Bureau has decided that an amendment is in order which will permit the collector to dispense with the deposit when conditions are such that prompt, full payment of actual expenses is assured, thereby avoiding, without appreciable risk, the accounting of refunds. Under other conditions or when deemed necessary or advisable for any proper purpose, the collector shall exercise his discretion to invoke the requirement.

Consistent with the foregoing, the second sentence of § 14.2 (e) is amended to read: "In all such cases a bond on customs Form 7551, 7553, or other appropriate form shall be taken; the collector also may require that a deposit be made of the estimated additional expense."

PART 145—OPERATIONS

AUDITS OF FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

JULY 6, 1956.

Resolved that, pursuant to Part 108 of the general regulations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (24 CFR Part 108) and § 142.1 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR 142.1), § 145.25 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR 145.25) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 145.25 Audits. If a Federal association has neither been audited by independent auditors and in a manner satisfactory to the Board within the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of the supervisory examination (provided for by § 145.24) or within the period that has elapsed since the last preceding supervisory examination, whichever is greater, nor adopted and maintained an internal audit program acceptable to the Board, the examination of the association made pursuant to the provisions of § 145.24 shall include an audit. A Federal association shall promptly file with the Board, through the Chief Examiner of the Federal Home Loan Bank District in which it is located, two copies of every report of its independent audit, which reports must be certified by the independent auditors. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions hereof, a Federal association may be audited at any time by the Board.

Resolved further that, since this amendment relates to procedure and practice, it is found that it is not necessary to issue such amended regulation with notice and public procedure thereon under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

(Sec. 17, 47 Stat. 736, as amended, sec. 5, 48 Stat. 132, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 1437, 1464)

This amendment shall be effective 30 days after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 163—OPERATIONS

EXAMINATIONS AND AUDITS OF INSURED INSTITUTIONS

JULY 6, 1956.

Resolved that, pursuant to Part 108 of the general regulations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (24 CFR Part 108) and § 167.1 of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts (24 CFR 167.1), § 163.17 of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts (24 CFR 163.17) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 163.17 Examinations; examination and audit; cost of same. For the protection of its insured members and other insured institutions each insured institution shall maintain safe and sound management, pursue financial policies that are safe and consistent with economical home financing and the purposes of insurance of accounts and shall be examined periodically by the Corporation, with appraisals when deemed advisable, in accordance with general policies from time to time established by resolution of the Board. Each insured institution shall be audited periodically by auditors and in a manner satisfactory to the Corporation, and may be audited at any time by the Corporation. The insured institution shall promptly file with the Corporation, through the Chief Examiner of the Federal Home Loan Bank District in which it is located, a copy of every report of its independent audit, which reports must be certified by the independent auditors. If the association has neither been audited by independent auditors within the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of such examination or within the period that has elapsed since such last preceding examination, whichever is greater, nor adopted and maintained an internal audit program acceptable to the Corporation, the examination by the Corporation shall include an audit. The cost, as computed by the Corporation, of any such audit or examination, or both, including office analysis thereof, and appraisals made in connection therewith, overhead, per diem, and travel expenses, shall be paid by the institution examined or audited. The Corporation may obtain at any time, at its expense, such appraisals of any of the assets of an insured institution as it deems appropriate.

Resolved further that, since this amendment relates to procedure and practise, it is found that it is not necessary to issue such amended regulation with notice and public procedure thereon under the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

(Sec. 402, 48 Stat. 1256, as amended, 12 U. S. C. 1725. Interprets or applies sec. 17, 47 Stat. 736, as amended, 12 U. S. C. 1437)

This amendment shall be effective 30 days after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter I—Office of Defense Mobilization

[Defense Mobilization Order I-1, Revised]

DMO I-1—REGIONAL COORDINATION

Defense Mobilization Order I-1 dated July 14, 1953 (18 F. R. 4099) is hereby revised to read as follows:

1. There are hereby established Mobilization Regions, Regional Mobilization Committees (RMCs) and a Central Committee on Regional Mobilization.

2. Mobilization regions: Mobilization regions are established as follows:

Region and States in Region

1—Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island.
2—New York, New Jersey.
3—Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, District of Columbia.
4—Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia.
5—Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida.
6—Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Missouri.
7—Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado.
8—Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana.
9—California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona.
10—Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana.

The regional boundaries described above are tentative and subject to such modification as experience may indicate to be necessary.

3. Regional Mobilization Committees are hereby established with the following composition and responsibilities.

a. Composition. A Regional Mobilization Committee shall be composed of the Regional Mobilization Coordinator (appointed by the Director, Office of Defense Mobilization) who will serve as Chairman, and representatives designated by the following departments and agencies:

Treasury Department.
Department of Defense.
Department of Justice.
Post Office Department.
Department of the Interior.
Department of Agriculture.
Department of Commerce.
Department of Labor.
Department of Health, Education and Welfare.
Federal Civil Defense Administration.
Federal Reserve Board.
General Services Administration.
Housing and Home Finance Agency.
Interstate Commerce Commission.
Selective Service System.
Small Business Administration.
U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Representatives from other agencies having essential wartime functions may be requested to participate in Regional Mobilization Committee consideration of problems which relate to the functions of such agencies. In the event of the establishment of any new mobilization agencies with field organizations, such agencies shall make arrangements for participation in RMC activities.

b. Responsibilities. The responsibilities and functions of the Regional Mobilization Committees are to advise and assist the Regional Mobilization Coordinators; more specifically to:

(1) Recommend solutions to field problems resulting from mobilization programs in which more than one agency has an interest.

(2) Develop coordinated plans, within the general guidelines issued by the Office of Defense Mobilization and by their respective agencies, for maintaining continuity of the essential wartime functions of the Federal government within the regions.

(3) Participate in and evaluate test exercises within the region on mobilization plans and operational readiness.

(4) Perform such other duties as requested by the Regional Mobilization Coordinators within the scope of Coordinators' present or post-attack responsibilities.

4. Central Committee on Regional Mobilization. The Central Coordinating Committee, previously established under this order, is hereby reconstituted as the Central Committee on Regional Mobilization with the following composition and functions.

a. Composition. The Central Committee on Regional Mobilization shall be composed of representatives of the agencies represented on the Regional Mobilization Committees. The chairman shall be designated by the Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization.

b. Functions. The functions of the Central Committee on Regional Mobilization are:

(1) To advise the Office of Defense Mobilization on regional coordination of mobilization activities.

(2) To provide points of staff contact for exchange of information on matters relating to regional coordination.

5. This order is effective immediately.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 104—BRISTOL BAY AREA

NAKNEK-KVICHAK; ADDITIONAL FISHING TIME

Basis and purpose. On the basis of continuing improvement in the red-salmon runs in the Naknek-Kvichak district of Bristol Bay, it has been determined that additional fishing time can be permitted.

Therefore, effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the allowable fishing time in the Naknek-Kvichak district for the week ending July 14, 1956, shall be 3½ days, and § 104.5 is so amended in paragraph (a).

Since immediate action is necessary, notice and public procedure on these amendments are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

CIGAR-FILLER TOBACCO AND CIGAR-FILLER AND BINDER TOBACCO

MARKETING OF CIGAR-FILLER AND BINDER TOBACCO, COLLECTION OF MARKETING PENALTIES, AND RECORDS AND REPORTS, 1956-57 MARKETING YEAR

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301, 1311-1315, 1372-1375), marketing quota regulations are being prepared governing the issuance of marketing cards, the identification of tobacco, the collection and refund of penalties, and the records and reports incident thereto on the marketing of cigar-filler and binder tobacco, types 42-44 and 51-55, inclusive, for the 1956-57 marketing year.

It is contemplated that the regulations for the 1956-57 marketing year will be substantially the same as those issued for the 1955-56 marketing year (20 F. R. 5765) except for changes and additional provisions as follows:

A. Prior regulations relating to the marketing of tobacco grown for experimental purposes only would be changed to provide that the Director of a publicly-owned Agricultural Experiment Station furnish the State committee a list by counties showing the following information with respect to the farms on which tobacco is grown for experimental purposes only:

1. Name and address of the publicly-owned experiment station.

2. Name of the owner, and name of the operator if different from the owner, of each farm on which tobacco is grown for experimental purposes only.

3. The acreage of tobacco grown on each farm for experimental purposes only.

4. A certification signed by the Director of the publicly-owned agricultural experiment station to the effect that,

(a) Such acreage of tobacco was grown on each farm for experimental purposes only;

(b) The tobacco was grown under his direction;

(c) The acreage in each plot was considered necessary for carrying out the experiment.

Provision would be made for issuing to the experiment station a within quota marketing card for use in identifying marketings of tobacco grown on farmz or land for which the above information is furnished.

B. The provision in prior regulations for placing excess tobacco in storage under bond as a method by which the farm operator may dispose of excess tobacco so as to avoid the payment of penalty would be eliminated. The definition of "carry-over tobacco" would be continued as in prior regulations, however, and provisions would be made for marketing penalty-free an amount of carry-over tobacco or tobacco under bond from a prior marketing year equal to the amount, as determined under the regulations, by which the harvested acreage is less than the acreage allotment for a subsequent marketing year.

C. As in the previous regulation, a "zero percent" excess marketing card will be required to be issued where a request for a remeasurement of tobacco acreage in excess of the farm acreage allotment is not made within the prescribed time limit even though the excess acreage is disposed of other than by marketing. In addition, a provision would be included which would require the issuance of a "zero percent" excess marketing card if excess tobacco is harvested from a farm even though such excess tobacco is disposed of prior to marketing any tobacco from the farm. The effect of these provisions would be to deny price support loans on a kind of tobacco if a request for remeasurement, in case of excess acreage, is not timely made, or if tobacco is harvested from an acreage in excess of the allotment for the farm. The proposed regulations also will provide that where more than one kind of tobacco is produced on a farm, a "zero percent" excess marketing card will be issued for each kind of tobacco for which the harvested acreage does not exceed the farm acreage allotment in the event an excess marketing card other than "zero percent" is issued for any kind of tobacco on the farm.

Prior to the final adoption and issuance of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than ten days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER in order to be considered.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of July 1956.

[SEAL] WALTER C. BERGER,
Acting Administer.

[7 CFR Part 727]

MARYLAND TOBACCO

ESTABLISHMENT OF FARM ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR 1957-58 MARKETING YEAR

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301, 1312, 1313), regulations are being prepared governing the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for the 1957 crop of Maryland tobacco.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 212 of the act, as amended (7 U. S. C. A. 1312), the Secretary of Agriculture has proclaimed marketing quotas for the marketing year 1957-58 for Maryland tobacco and such quota has been approved by growers voting in a referendum (21 F. R. 638). In accordance with section 312 of the act, the amount of such marketing quota will be determined and announced, and under the provisions of section 313 of the act (7 U. S. C. 1313), such quota will be apportioned among the States and converted into State acreage allotments.

It is contemplated that the regulations for Maryland tobacco will provide for the establishment of farm acreage allotments and the issuance of notices of allotments and marketing quotas by County Committees substantially the same as provided with respect to the 1956 crop (20 F. R. 6969), except as stated below.

1. The entire § 727.716 of the 1956 regulations providing for determination of preliminary allotments would be revised to provide as follows:

The 1957 preliminary acreage allotment for an old tobacco farm shall be the 1956 farm acreage allotment with the following exceptions:

(a) If the harvested acreage (as that term is explained in paragraph (b) of this section) of tobacco on the farm in each of the three years 1954-56 was less than 75 percent of the 1956 farm acreage allotment, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in any one of such three years, or (2) the average acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the five years 1952-56: Provided, That any 1957 preliminary allotment shall not exceed the 1956 farm acreage allotment or be less than 0.01 acre.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this section, the 1956 harvested acreage shall include any tobacco acreage on the farm applicable to Maryland tobacco which is devoted in 1956 to participation in the Acreage Reserve Program or the Conservation Reserve Program. Also, for such purposes, the 1956 harvested acreage shall be deemed to be the 1956 farm acreage allotment in any case in which (1) the tobacco planted acreage in 1956 was less than the acreage allotment for such farm, and (2) the owner or operator of such farm notified the county committee not later than August 1, 1956, that he desired to preserve such allotment.

(c) If the county committee determines for any farm (except farms to which paragraph (a) of this section is applicable and farms subject to reduction in the 1957 acreage allotment for violation of marketing quota regulations) that the 1956 acreage allotment does not reflect for the farm the past acreage of tobacco (excluding tobacco acreage harvested in excess of the 1955 and 1956 acreage allotments) with due allowance made for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco; the county committee shall determine a preliminary allotment for such farm based on such aforestated factors which is fair and equitable in relation to the preliminary allotments for other old farms in the community: Provided, That the total acreage of all the 1957 preliminary acreage allotments determined under this paragraph (c) for farms in any county shall not exceed the total acreage of the 1956 acreage allotments for such farms.

(d) If the county and State committees determine that a farm has been retired from agricultural production, no 1957 preliminary acreage allotment (or 1957 farm tobacco acreage allotment) shall be determined for such farm: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production.

(e) The 1956 farm acreage allotment as used in this section shall mean the correctly determined 1956 farm acreage allotment prior to reduction, if any, because of a violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year.

2. The definitions of "new farm", "old farm", and "cropland" would read as follows:

(a) "New farm" means a farm on which tobacco will be harvested in 1957 for the first time since 1951. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any acreage of tobacco harvested in 1955 or 1956, respectively, shall not be considered as harvested acreage in determining whether the farm is a new farm.

(b) "Old farm" means a farm on which tobacco was harvested in one or more of the five years 1952 through 1956. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any acreage of tobacco harvested in 1955 or 1956, respectively, shall not be considered as harvested acreage in determining whether the farm is an old farm.

(c) "Cropland" means farm land which in 1956 was tilled or was in regular crop rotation, including also land which was established in permanent vegetative cover, other than trees, since 1953 and which was classified as cropland at the time of seeding, but excluding (1) bearing orchards and vineyards (except the acreage of cropland therein), (2) plowable noncrop open pasture, and (3) any land which constitutes or will constitute, if tillage is continued, an erosion hazard to the community.

3. Consideration is being given to withholding no acreage reserve for adjustments of 1957 farm acreage allotments, but to provide that an acreage reserve from the State acreage allotment be made for correcting errors and for overlooked farms.

4. Provision will be made for determining farm normal yields per acre.

5. The 1956 provision providing that a new farm allotment shall not be approved for any farm which was part of another farm during the past five years for which an old farm allotment was established, would be restated substantially as follows:

The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years 1952-56 for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined, except that this provision shall not of itself make a farm ineligible for a new farm allotment (a) if it is the same farm or a portion of the same farm for which an old farm allotment was cancelled since 1951 due to no tobacco being produced thereon for five years, or (b) if it was a portion of an old farm during any of the years 1952-56 and at time of division of the farm contained cropland but received no part of the allotment due (1) to division of the allotment on a contribution basis, or (2) to agreement and approval of all interested parties as provided in the section of the regulations governing divisions and combinations of allotments.

6. The provisions governing determination of new farm tobacco acreage allotments would provide, as provided by law, that production of tobacco on a farm in 1955 or 1956 for which, in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1955 or 1956 tobacco acreage allotment, respectively, was determined shall not be deemed qualifying tobacco experience for any producer.

7. The acreage available for allotments to new farms would be one-fourth of one percent of the 1957-58 national marketing quota converted to acreage.

8. The section on farms divided or combined would read as follows:

(a) If land operated as a single farm in 1956 will be operated in 1957 as two or more farms, or is divided into two or more tracts pursuant to a legal transfer of ownership or possession which tracts may or may not be operated as farms, the 1957 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland available for the production of tobacco in each such tract in 1956 bore to the total number of acres of cropland available for the production of tobacco on the entire farm in such year, except that, upon recommendation of the county committee and with State committee approval and agreement of the interested parties in writing, the 1957 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm may be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the five-year average acreage of tobacco harvested on each such tract during the years 1952-56 bore to the five-year average acreage of tobacco harvested on the entire farm during 1952-56: Provided, That with the recommendation of the county committee and approval of the State committee and with the written agreement of all interested persons, the tobacco acreage allotment determined for a tract under the provisions of this paragraph may be increased or decreased by not more than the larger of one-hundredth acre or 10 percent of the 1957 acreage allotment determined for the entire farm with corresponding increases or decreases made in the acreage allotment apportioned to the other tract or tracts.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1956 are combined and operated in 1957 as a single farm, the 1957 allotment shall be the sum of the 1957 allotments determined for each of the farms comprising the combination.

(c) If a farm is to be divided in 1957 in settling an estate the allotment may be divided among the various tracts in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, or on such other basis as the State committee determines will result in equitable farm allotments.

9. A section entitled "Notice of Farm Acreage Allotments" would be included and would read substantially as follows:

(a) The County Committee shall mail a written notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota to the operator of each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to such allotment. Insofar as practical all allotment notices shall be mailed in time to be received prior to the date of any tobacco marketing quota referendum. The notice to the operator of the farm shall constitute notice to all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper are interested in the farm for which the allotment is established. A copy of such notice, containing thereon the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the county committee, and, upon request, a copy of such notice certified as true and correct shall be furnished without charge to any person interested in the farm in respect to which the allotment is established.

(b) If the records of the county committee indicate that the allotment established for any farm may be changed because of (1) a violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year, (2) removal of the farm from agricultural production, (3) division of the farm, or (4) combination of the farm, no notice of such allotment shall be mailed until the proper allotment is determined for the farm by the county committee with the approval of the State committee: Provided, That the notice of allotment for any farm shall be mailed at least thirty days prior to the beginning of the normal planting season for the county in which the farm is located as determined by the State committee.

(c) If the county committee determines with the approval of the State committee that the official written notice of the farm acreage allotment issued for any farm erroneously stated the acreage allotment to be larger than the correct allotment, and the county committee also determines that the error was not so gross as to place the operator on notice thereof, and that the operator, relying upon such notice and acting in good faith, planted an acreage of tobacco in excess of the correct farm acreage allotment, the acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice shall be deemed to be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1957-58 marketing year, provided the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm is not in excess of the acreage shown on the erroneous notice. In the event the acreage of tobacco harvested exceeds the farm acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice, the acreage allotment for the farm as correctly determined and shown on a revised notice of farm acreage allotment and marketing quota shall be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1957-58 marketing year.

10. The time for filing an application for a new farm allotment would be no later than February 15, 1957.

Prior to the final adoption and issuance of these regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than ten days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER in order to be considered.

GENERAL RULES, REGULATIONS AND FORMS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSED EXEMPTION FOR SHARES OF STOCK ISSUED PURSUANT TO RESTRICTED STOCK OPTIONS AND OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF INSTRUCTIONS TO FORM 8–A

The Commission on November 5, 1952, In Release No. 3458–X under the Securities Act of 1933 and Release No. 4766–X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, announced that it had under consideration a conditional exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act for the issuance, not exceeding $300,000 in any one year, of shares of stock to be issued pursuant to restricted stock options within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code and a related interpretative rule. It was also proposed to amend Form 8–A (17 CFR 249.208a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to provide for simplified registration, upon notice of issuance, of additional shares to be issued in connection with such options.

The Commission has since generally simplified its registration forms and procedures under the Securities Act of 1933 and has provided for class registration of securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Commission today announced that after thorough consideration of the entire matter it had decided not to adopt the proposed conditional exemption and related rule under the Securities Act of 1933, or the proposed amendment to Form 8–A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

By the Commission.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO EXEMPT STATE REGULATED ISSUES OF SUBSIDIARIES

The Commission, on November 25, 1953, in Holding Company Act Release No. 12217–X, gave notice that it was considering amending § 250.50 (Rule U-50). The amendment would have provided an exception from competitive bidding for securities of operating utility subsidiaries of registered holding companies if the issuance and sale of such securities was subject to the jurisdiction of the regulatory commission of the state in which such subsidiary was organized and doing business.

Today the Commission announced that after thorough consideration of the entire record it had decided not to adopt the proposed amendment to the rule.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

[Case No. 214A]

UNITED PETROLIFERA ITALIANA, S. R. L., ET AL.

ORDER REVOKING EXPORT LICENSES AND DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of United Petrolifera Italiana, S. R. L., (formerly United Refineries Corp.), Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo, Via Manzoni 41A, Milan, Italy; Emilio Oliva, doing business as Ditta Oliva, Via Atto Vannucci, 3, Milan, Italy; respondents.

The respondents, United Petrolifera Italiana, S. R. L., Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo and Emilio Oliva, doing business under the firm name of Ditta Oliva, hereinafter referred to as United or as Oliva, were charged by the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce of the Department of Commerce, with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, in that, as alleged, (a) in connection with the obtaining of 164 drums of lubricating oil from the United States, United caused false representations to be made on an export license application, (b) both respondents attempted, without authorization, to transship such oil from the Genoa Free Zone first to Chiasso and then to another port in Italy with the intention to deliver it to Gdynia, Poland, and (c) they concealed material facts during the course of an investigation into the purchase, ownership and attempted disposition of the oil. The charging letter was duly served on both respondents but only Oliva answered. United is in default.

In accordance with the practice, this case was referred to the Compliance Commissioner. After the evidence was submitted, the Compliance Commissioner in due course made his report and recommendation, which, upon the facts as hereinafter found, appears to be fair and just and is therefore adopted. He has recommended that the charge against Oliva, to the effect that it concealed facts during the investigation, be dismissed.

Now, after considering the entire record consisting of the charges, the answer to the respondent Oliva, the evidence submitted in support of the charges and the report and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. At all times hereinafter mentioned, United Petrolifera Italiana, S. R. L., formerly known as United Refineries Corporation, was and now is engaged in the oil business in Milan, Italy, and Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo was its director, managed its business and performed on its behalf the acts hereinafter found to have been performed by United.

2. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Emilio Oliva, doing business under the name of Ditta Oliva, was and now is engaged in the freight forwarding business at Milan, Italy.

3. Heretofore, in August 1952, United, through the Milan agent of an American exporter, ordered from an American exporter, in the name of another importing firm in Milan, Italy, 100 metric tons of bright stock lubricating oils and represented to the American firm, for submission to the Office of International Trade, (now the Bureau of Foreign Commerce), that the oils were to be sold to transient steamers as ships' supplies in the Free Zone at Genoa.

4. The American firm then submitted to the Office of International Trade an application for license to export said 100 metric tons of lubricating oils to the firm named by United as the ultimate consignee and purchaser of said oils and stated, as the end use, that the oils were to be sold as ships' supplies to transient steamers in the Free Zone of Genoa.

5. In reliance on said statements, the Office of International Trade issued a validated export license for the exportation of said oils to the firm mentioned and for the purpose set forth in the application and, under and pursuant to the authority of the said license, the American firm exported 211 barrels (164 drums) of said oils to Genoa, Italy, with Oliva named in the order bill of lading as the party to be notified.

6. When the oils arrived at Genoa, Oliva endorsed and presented said bill of lading and obtained possession of the oils. The bill of lading had endorsed on it a warning that the oils were licensed for exportation to Genoa as the ultimate destination and that diversion, contrary to U. S. law, was prohibited.

7. He then, on instructions from United, attempted to ship said oils to Chiasso but, upon request of the Office of International Trade, which had learned of such intention, the Italian authorities halted said shipment.

8. Thereafter, and with the additional knowledge, by reason of the stoppage of the Chiasso shipment, that diversion from Genoa was prohibited, Oliva, again on instructions from United, shipped the said oils to Savona for the purpose of having them loaded upon the ship Volonta, a ship he knew was too small to require that quantity of oils for ship's supplies. The Volonta's itinerary included, as a port of call, Gdynia, Poland. Such attempted diversion was discovered and, upon orders of the Italian authorities, the oils were removed from the Volonta.

9. The oils, in fact, had been purchased by and paid for by funds supplied by United and, when the representations as to the name of the ultimate consignee and end use were made, United knew they were false and made them with the intention that the American supplier and the Office of International Trade would rely on them in connection with the application for and issuance of the export license.

And, from the foregoing, it is my conclusion

A. That United Petrolifera Italiana, S. R. L. and Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo made false representations and concealed material facts from the Office of International Trade in violation of § 381.1 (b) (3) (i) (ii) (iv) of the export control regulations then in effect;

B. That United Petrolifera Italiana, S. R. L., Del Bo and Emilio Oliva attempted to violate § 379.5 of the export control regulations then in effect by undertaking to transship and divert said 164 drums of oils in violation of § 381.2 of said regulations.

In his report, the Compliance Commissioner said:

> Del Bo and United have not only violated the Act as already stated but they have indicated by their conduct during the investigation that they would violate again, if given the opportunity. They have evaded or ignored all efforts of American representatives to ascertain the true facts of ownership and direction of this transaction. Evidence submitted to me indicates that the intention had been to ship these oils to a Communist destination. The oils had a high strategic value. It is my recommendation that Del Bo and United be denied export privileges so long as export controls are in effect.
> Oliva is a freight forwarder, and, because of this, some consideration is accorded him. It is always pointed out that if a freight forwarder is denied export privileges, while he suffers a business loss, innocent shippers who use his services are inconvenienced or actually hurt. Yet, it is the freight forwarder who performs a very important part of the export process and it is he who is often in a position to facilitate or halt an unauthorized disposition of goods exported from the United States. Moreover, by reason of his calling, it is his duty to be familiar with the salient factors of export control, particularly destination and end-use control. In this case, Oliva ignored the destination control notice on the bill of lading when he attempted to transship to Chiasso. Then, after conferences with his Government's officials and American officials relating to this particular shipment, he transshipped the oils to Savona with knowledge that the alleged intended disposition there could not be a true disposition. Any denial of export privileges will not have as great an impact on him as it would on an American freight forwarder because, while his privileges with respect to exports from the United States will be denied, he will still be able to handle all other forwarding business.

Having concluded that the action recommended by the Compliance Commissioner is fair, just, and necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the law; It is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which United Petrolifera Italiana, S.R.L. and Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo appear or participate as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II. Henceforth, and for the duration of export controls, the respondents United Petrolifera Italiana, S.R.L. and Giacinto Leopoldo Del Bo be, and they hereby are suspended from and denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denial of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by the respondent, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents, (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (d) in storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

III. The respondent Emilio Oliva, doing business as Ditta Oliva, for a period of two months commencing August 9, 1956, be and he hereby is suspended from and denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denial of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by the respondent, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents, (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (d) in storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

IV. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondents but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which they may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade in which may be involved exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

V. Upon condition that the respondent, Emilio Oliva, complies in all respects with this order, and with all other requirements of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations promulgated thereunder, during a probation period of one full year following the date hereof, no additional remedial action shall be taken against him.

VI. If, however, during the said probation period of one year following the date hereof, it be found by the Director of the Office of Export Supply, or such other official as may at that time be exercising the duties now exercised by him, that the respondent, Emilio Oliva, has, at any time during such year, knowingly failed to comply with any of the conditions or provisions set forth in Part V hereof, then and in that event, and without prejudice to any other action which may be taken by reason of any such new or additional violation, such respondent shall be denied all export privileges for an additional four months from the date of such determination and finding, in the same manner as now in Part III hereof provided.

VII. No person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, during any time when any respondent is prohibited under the terms hereof from engaging in any activity within the scope of Parts II, III and VI hereof, shall, without prior disclosure to, and specific authorization from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) apply for, obtain, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any such prohibited activity, (b) order, receive, buy, use, dispose of, finance, transport or forward, any commodity on behalf of or in any association with the respondent, or (c) do any of the foregoing acts with respect to any commodity or exportation in which the respondent may have any interest of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

Dated: July 9, 1956.

JOHN C. BORTON,
Director,
Office of Export Supply.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation 6]

PEANUTS

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL INVESTIGATION AND PUBLIC HEARING

Investigation No. 6 Under Section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended.

The United States Tariff Commission, on the 6th day of July 1956, instituted an investigation supplemental to its Investigation No. 6 under section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, with respect to: Peanuts, shelled (not including peanut butter or peanuts blanched, salted, prepared, or preserved), of sizes averaging in representative samples not more than 40 kernels per ounce.

Purpose of supplemental investigation. Existing quota restrictions under section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, limit the quantity of peanuts, whether shelled, not shelled, blanched, salted, prepared, or preserved (including roasted peanuts but not including peanut butter), which may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in any quota year beginning August 1 to 1,709,000 pounds (aggregate quantity). This quota was originally imposed by proclamation of the President dated June 8, 1953, after investigation and report to him by the Tariff Commission under the provisions of section 22 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended. The Commission has received a request from the Peanut and Nut Salters Association for a review of the import restrictions on peanuts under section 22, with a view to the admission to entry of an additional quantity of peanuts consisting of large-size "Virginia type" peanuts over and above the existing quota on peanuts. The purpose of the instant supplemental investigation, which is being made under the provisions of section 22(d) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, is to determine whether there is a need for an additional quantity of imported peanuts consisting of the larger size "Virginia type" and, if so, what additional quantity may be permitted to be entered during the early months of the next quota year under conditions which would avoid material interference with the program of the Department of Agriculture for peanuts.

Hearing. A public hearing in this supplemental investigation will be held beginning at 10 a. m. e. d. s. t., on July 31, 1956 in the Tariff Commission Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D. C.

Request to appear. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at the hearing should notify the Secretary of the Commission in writing at its offices in Washington, D. C., at least 3 days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

Issued: July 9, 1956.

By order of the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-10714]

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP. AND AMERE GAS UTILITIES CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATE SCHEDULES

On June 7, 1956, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Seaboard) and Amere Gas

Utilities Company (Amere), affiliates of The Columbia Gas System, Inc., tendered for filing with the Commission their revised agreement dated May 28, 1956, to supersede and cancel the agreement between the parties dated May 6, 1954. The agreement is designated in the Commission's files as Seaboard Rate Schedule X–10 and as Amere's Rate Schedule X–1. The revised agreement constitutes Third Revised Sheet Nos. 50, 51, 52, and 53 of Seaboard's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2, and Third Revised Sheet Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5 of Amere's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2. The agreements dated May 6, 1954 and May 28, 1956 provide for the distribution between Seaboard and Amere of gas purchased from Columbian Carbon Company in Raleigh County, West Virginia, the exchange between Seaboard and Amere of a portion of such gas and the sale by Seaboard to Amere of its gas requirements in excess of local gas supplies available to Amere. The proposed agreement would effect a reduction in rate, from 50 cents to 40 cents per Mcf, for the gas sold by Seaboard to Amere and would also effect a change in accounting by the affiliates for gas purchased from Columbian Carbon Company. The proposed effective date for the filing is November 1, 1954. Seaboard's filing of its proposed revised rate schedule X–10 is intended to replace and supersede its rate schedule X–10 which, together with its FPC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1 is presently in effect subject to an undertaking to assure the refund of charges found not to be justified pursuant to an order of the Commission issued November 16, 1954 In the Matter of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, Docket No. G–2452. The proceeding in that docket has not been concluded.

The changes proposed in the aforesaid revised rate schedules have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services provided by the above agreements and rate schedules including said proposed revised rate schedules and that the proposed changes be suspended and the use thereof be deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4, 5, 15 and 16 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services provided by the above agreements and rate schedules, including said proposed revised rate schedules and, pending such hearing thereon, the above-designated revised rate schedules be and the same hereby are suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 8, 1956, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Issued: July 6, 1956.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 24D–1867]

BLACKSTONE URANIUM MINES, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 6, 1956.

I. Blackstone Uranium Mines, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "issuer"), 209 Colorado National Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder, filed with the Commission on August 3, 1955, a notification on Form 1–A and an offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed offering of 15,000,000 shares of 1¢ par value common stock at 2¢ per share.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe:

A. That Item 3 of the notification on Form 1–A is false and misleading in stating that the officers and directors named in the offering circular are also the promoters of the issuer.

B. That the offering circular is false and misleading:

1. In stating that Earl N. Murray, the president of the issuer, owns 2,850,000 shares of the issuer, but omitting to state that Murray was not in fact in control of the issuer and that he intended to resign as president of the company as soon as the offering under this notification was completed and further intended to give up any claim to stock of the issuer over and beyond 300,000 shares.

2. In stating that Earl N. Murray assigned to the issuer all of his right, title and interest in certain mining leases and that the issuer was obligated to pay Murray $9,000 for such leases but omitting to state that Murray acted and is intended to act only as a nominee for others and not on his own behalf.

C. That the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. The offering circular fails to name the promoters of the issuer and give other information about them required by Rule 219 (c) (2).

2. The issuer has failed to file reports of sales on Form 2–A, as required by Rule 224.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL RESERVE OIL CO.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 6, 1956.

I. Central Reserve Oil Company, 210 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, filed with the Commission on May 31, 1955, a notification and offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to a proposed public offering of 300,000 shares of its 1¢ par value capital stock at $1 per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reason to believe:

A. That an exemption under Regulation A is not available for the present offering in that the aggregate offering price of all securities being offered exceeds the limitation of $300,000 as prescribed by Rule 217 (a) (iii) since the issuer agreed to issue to the underwriter of the offering 60,000 shares of its capital stock which were not included in the computation of the $300,000 maximum and since John V. Holmes is an affiliate of the issuer and an affiliate of Arrow Graphic Corporation, which filed on February 20, 1956 a notification and offering circular (File No. 24NY–4232) in connection with an aggregate offering of $245,000 of its securities.

B. That the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. An offering of the securities of the issuer has been made by communications not filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 221 under Regulation A;

2. Item 1 of the notification failed to state all the jurisdictions in which the issuer's securities are being offered;

3. Item 3 of the notification failed to disclose information concerning the sale of securities by the issuer to John V. Holmes;

4. Robert M. Schluster and James S. Richards are acting as underwriters without being named as such in the notification and offering circular; and

5. No notification or offering circular has been filed pertaining to a new and separate offering of capital stock of the issuer limited to customers of Petroleum Lease Corporation in connection with the acquisition by the issuer of additional properties, a purpose not contemplated as part of the original offering.

C. That the offering was made in such a manner as to operate as a fraud and deceit upon the purchasers in that it was not disclosed to the purchasers by way of amendment of the offering circular, or otherwise, that the officers and directors of the issuer resigned and new management took office.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within twenty days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for a hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

SCOTT URANIUM, INC.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 6, 1956.

I. The Scott Uranium, Inc., a Colorado corporation, 1309 Garfield, Loveland, Colorado, filed with the Commission on June 24, 1954, a notification and offering circular relating to an offering of 24,625 shares of Class B common stock at $10 per share for an aggregate of $246,250 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

A. The offering, if made or continued, would be made in such a manner as to operate as a fraud or deceit upon the purchasers in that material changes in the condition of the company since June 24, 1954 are not reflected in the material filed by The Scott Uranium, Inc. under Regulation A concerning, among others, (1) annual assessment work and annual rental payments in connection with each of the 146 mining tracts and 6 unpatented mining claims held by the issuer; (2) financial information concerning the company, including information concerning cash receipts and disbursements; and (3) information concerning the exploratory and development work performed by the company on the tracts and mining claims held and the results thereof.

B. The company has used advertising material without filing it with the Commission as required by Rule 221 under Regulation A.

C. The company has failed to file reports on Form 2–A as required by Rule 224 under Regulation A.

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given, that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

NORTHAMPTON GAS LIGHT CO. AND NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION REGARDING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY AND ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT

JULY 6, 1956.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary, Northampton Gas Light Company ("Northampton"), have filed a joint application under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9 (a) and 10 of the act regarding the following proposed transactions:

Northampton, which now has outstanding 12,778 shares of capital stock (par value $25 per share), proposes to issue and sell for cash 6,000 additional shares at the price of $55 a share, as fixed by its directors, or a total cash consideration of $330,000. NEES, the sole stockholder of Northampton, proposes to acquire the additional shares, and in payment therefor to use available treasury funds. The proceeds from the sale of the additional shares will be applied by Northampton to the payment of a like amount of notes payable to NEES.

Northampton and NEES desire to consummate the transactions in order to finance permanently a portion of the capitalizable additions to Northampton's plant through the issuance of equity securities.

The Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts, in which State Northampton is organized and doing business, has authorized the issuance and sale of the additional shares.

Total expenses of Northampton are estimated at $1,740 and of NEES at $300.

Notice of the filing of the application having been duly given in the manner prescribed by Rule U–23 promulgated under the act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

It appearing that the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are not unreasonable if they do not exceed the estimates set forth above; and the Commission observing no basis for adverse findings, or for the imposition of terms and conditions, other than those contained in Rule U–24, and finding that the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that the application should be granted effective forthwith upon issuance:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U–23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the application be, and it hereby is, granted effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U–24.

STANDARD SHARES, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF DECLARATION REGARDING PROPOSAL TO EXTEND BANK LOAN FOR ONE YEAR

JULY 6, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Standard Shares, Inc. ("Standard Shares"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration, pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), regarding a proposal to extend for one year from July 30, 1956, its outstanding bank loan indebtedness in the amount of $1,500,000 to the Hanover Bank of New York, New York ("Hanover Bank").

All interested persons are referred to the declaration on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

Standard Shares proposes, pursuant to a loan extension agreement, to extend the payment of its bank loan indebtedness of $1,500,000 to the Hanover Bank for one year from July 30, 1956, with interest at the prime commercial rate on that date. The company will have the right at any time to prepay all or any part of the loan without premium.

In justification of the proposal to extend said bank loan, the company states that it is not practicable, nor is it in the best interests of the stockholders of the company, to pay the loan at its present maturity. It is represented, among other things, that to do so would require the sale of a substantial amount of portfolio securities with resulting loss of dividend income; that such sale of securities would complicate the company's tax situation with respect to its operation as an investment company; that pursuant to an application now pending before the Commission Standard Shares proposes the acquisition of up to 51 percent of the common stock of Pittsburgh Railways Company, a non-utility subsidiary company, which may require an expenditure of $3,300,000 or more of cash to be obtained through the sale of Duquesne Light Company common stock or an additional bank loan, or a combination of both and the sale of assets in order to retire the loan now would unnecessarily prejudice Standard Shares operations; and that Standard Shares' assets and contemplated income are and will be more than sufficient to provide for the payment of the interest and principal of the bank loan within the period contemplated by the proposed extension thereof.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 23, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on this matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said declaration which he proposes to controvert, or he may request to be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any request shall be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may hereafter be amended, may be permitted to become effective pursuant to Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof or take such other action as it deems appropriate.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter D—Regulations Under Soil Bank Act

PART 485—SOIL BANK

SUBPART—ACREAGE RESERVE PROGRAM

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, published in 21 F. R. 4379, governing the 1956 acreage reserve part of the Soil Bank Program are hereby amended as set forth below:

1. Section 485.110 is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) which reads as follows:

(e) If there are any liens or encumbrances on any crop which, under the acreage reserve program, is to be plowed under or otherwise physically incorporated into the soil, or clipped, mowed, or cut, waivers of such liens or encumbrances on Form CSS 809 (Soil Bank) must be furnished to the county committee prior to execution of the agreement. The operator or landlord may designate such holder of a lien or encumbrance as payee to receive all or any part of the compensation payable under the agreement to such operator or landlord, but may not designate such holder of a lien or encumbrance as payee to receive any of the compensation due tenants and sharecroppers.

2. Paragraph (a) of § 485.111 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Reduction of the acreage may be by underplanting the allotment or Soil Bank corn base, if the underplanting in the case of fall-seeded wheat, was due to adverse weather, or, in the case of any of the other commodities (including spring-seeded wheat) was due to adverse weather or was in anticipation of participating in the Soil Bank Program: Provided, That, in the case of spring-seeded wheat, the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if the farm is one on which fall-seeded wheat is normally planted and on which spring-seeded wheat was not planted in 1954, 1955, or 1956.

3. The first sentence of paragraph (b) of § 485.111 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Reduction of the acreage may be by plowing the crop under or otherwise physically incorporating it into the soil, or clipping, mowing, or cutting it to prevent maturing, subsequent to May 27, 1956, and prior to the date indicated in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph but in no event later than July 31, 1956: Provided, That if the final disposition date fixed for the area for compliance with allotments for purposes of price support and marketing quotas is prior to May 28, 1956, and the farm was in compliance with its allotment on such final disposition date, reduction for purposes of the acreage reserve program may be accomplished at any time subsequent to such final disposition date and on or before June 30, 1956. • • •

4. Paragraph (b) of § 485.112 is amended to read as follows:

(b) No crop shall have been harvested from the acreage reserve in 1956 or shall be harvested from the acreage reserve prior to January 1, 1957, and the acreage reserve shall not have been grazed since June 22, 1956, and shall not be grazed after execution of the agreement and prior to January 1, 1957, unless the Secretary, after certification by the Governor of the State in which the farm is located of the need for grazing on the acreage reserve, determines that it is necessary to permit grazing thereon in order to alleviate damage, hardship, or suffering caused by severe drought, flood, or other natural disasters and gives written consent to such grazing. The operator must furnish, prior to the execution of the agreement, a certified statement that no crop has been harvested from the acreage reserve in 1956 and that the acreage reserve has not been grazed since June 22, 1956. The provision of section 2 (b) of the printed form of the agreement that "the acreage reserve has not been grazed in 1956" shall not be construed as a representation that such acreage reserve was not grazed during the period January 1, 1956, to June 22, 1956, inclusive.

(a) In the case of reduction of acreage by underplanting the allotment for cotton, rice, peanuts, tobacco, spring-seeded wheat, or underplanting the Soil Bank corn base, the yield factor shall be the normal yield for the farm; unless the normal yield for the tract of land designated as the acreage reserve is less than the normal yield for the farm, in which case the yield factor shall be the normal yield for the tract of land designated as the acreage reserve. The normal yield for the tract of land designated as the acreage reserve shall be determined by the county committee on the basis of (1) the normal yield for the farm and (2) any variation in yield between the farm and the tract of land designated as the acreage reserve.

6. Paragraph (b) of § 485.118 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Appraised yield for the field. In appraising the yield for a crop destroyed due to natural causes, the county committee shall estimate the yield on the basis of the actual condition of the crop after the damage or destruction took place. In the case of total destruction, the yield will be zero. In appraising the yield for a crop plowed under or otherwise physically incorporated into the soil, or clipped, mowed, or cut to prevent maturing before an agreement has been signed by the operator and filed with the county committee, the county committee shall estimate the yield on the basis of the actual condition of the crop before such adjustment in the acreage took place. In appraising the yield for a crop to be plowed under, or otherwise physically incorporated into the soil, or clipped, mowed, or cut to prevent maturing, after the agreement is signed, the county committee shall estimate the yield on the basis of the actual condition of the crop prior to the signing of the agreement.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Agricultural Marketing Service (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Regulations and Standards Under the Farm Products Inspection Act

PART 56—GRADING AND INSPECTION OF SHELL EGGS AND UNITED STATES STANDARDS, GRADES, AND WEIGHT CLASSES FOR SHELL EGGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Notice of a proposed amendment to the regulations governing the grading and inspection of shell eggs and United States standards, grades, and weight classes for shell eggs (7 CFR Part 56) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 4, 1956 (21 F. R. 2984). The amendment hereinafter promulgated is pursuant to authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

The amendment changes the form of application for grading service by incorporating most of the provisions which are currently set forth in the application form into the main portion of the regulations. The amendment hereinafter set forth is essentially the same as was published in the aforesaid notice.

After consideration of all relevant material presented, the amendment hereinafter set forth is promulgated to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the reasons that (1) the changes will improve the grading program; (2) it will preclude new firms applying for the service from making two applications within a 30-day period; and (3) no additional time is required by interested persons to prepare for this amendment.

The amendment is as follows:

1. Delete the word "contract" in the definition of "Grading" or "grading service" in § 56.2 Terms defined, and substitute in lieu thereof the word "resident".

2. Change paragraph (b) of § 56.21 How application may be made, to read as follows:

(b) On a resident grading basis. An application for continuous grading service on a resident grading basis to be rendered in an official plant must be made in writing on forms approved by the Administrator and filed with the Administrator.

3. Change § 56.47 Fees for appeal grading, to read as follows:

§ 56.47 Fees for appeal grading. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be double the fee specified in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken: Provided, That, the fee for any appeal grading requested by the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, shall be the same as set forth in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken. If the fee on the certificate from which the appeal is taken is based on the provisions of § 56.52, then the fee for such appeal grading shall be double the amount specified in § 56.50 for the applicable volume of product appeal graded. If the result of any appeal grading discloses that a material error was made in the grading appealed from, no fee shall be required.

4. Change § 56.52 On a contract basis, to read as follows:

§ 56.52 On a resident grading basis—(a) Charges. The charges for grading of shell eggs shall be paid by the applicant for the service and shall include such of the items listed in this section as are applicable. Payment for the full cost of the grading service rendered to the applicant shall be made by the applicant to the Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as "AMS") not later than fifteen (15) days from the date of billing. Such full costs shall comprise such of the items listed in this section as may be due and may be included, from time to time, in the bill or bills covering the period or periods during which the grading service may be rendered. A charge will be made by AMS in the amount of one (1) percent per month or fraction thereof of any amounts remaining unpaid after thirty (30) days from the date of bill.

(1) A charge of $5.00 per hour plus a charge to cover travel and per diem costs incurred by AMS in making the initial survey of the designated plant and its premises prior to the performance, by AMS, of the grading service;

(2) A charge of $100 for the final survey and inauguration of the grading service including the assignment of one grader and one alternate grader, provided they are installed at the same time;

(3) A charge of $50 for each additional grader or replacement of a previously assigned grader to the designated plant; Provided, That, in the sole discretion of the Service no such charge will be made for a replacement when such replacement is made by the use of a regular employee of the Service, or when the replacement is made necessary by the transfer of an employee of the Service for the sole benefit of the Service;

(4) A charge equal to the salary cost paid to each grader assigned to the applicant's plant by AMS including an amount for annual leave and sick leave: Provided, That, no charge is to be made for salary cost of any assigned grader of the designated plant while temporarily reassigned by AMS to perform grading service for other than the applicant, except when the assigned grader is performing service for the Department of Defense on products accepted for delivery by the applicant to the Department of Defense, in which case the applicant will be given credit for the service rendered based on a formula concurred in jointly by the Departments of Defense and Agriculture;

(5) A charge equal to the salary cost, travel expenses and per diem paid by AMS to any grader whose services are required for relief purposes when regular graders are on annual leave or sick leave;

(6) A charge for the actual cost to AMS of any travel or per diem incurred by each grader assigned to the plant while in the performance of grading service rendered the applicant;

(7) A charge, at the sole discretion of AMS of an amount not in excess of the actual cost to AMS of the travel (including the cost of household goods and dependents) and per diem with respect to each grader or inspector who is transferred from an official station to the designated plant;

(8) A charge, included in salary cost, equal to the Employer's tax imposed under the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.) for Old Age and Survivors Benefits under the Social Security System, and an amount equal to the cost to AMS for insurance as provided in the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Act of 1954.

(9) An administrative service charge based upon the aggregate number of thirty dozen cases of shell eggs handled in the plant per month and computed in accordance with the following table:

COMPUTATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE CHARGES

0 to 500 cases	$25.00
501 to 1,750 cases	33.25
1,751 to 2,750 cases	38.00
2,751 to 3,750 cases	42.75
3,751 to 5,000 cases	47.50
5,001 to 6,000 cases	52.25
6,001 to 7,000 cases	57.00
7,001 to 8,000 cases	61.75
8,001 to 9,000 cases	66.50
9,001 to 10,000 cases	71.25
10,001 to 11,000 cases	76.00
11,001 to 12,000 cases	80.75
12,001 to 13,000 cases	85.50
13,001 to 14,000 cases	90.25
14,001 and over	95.00

(10) A charge of $5 per hour plus actual cost to AMS for per diem and travel cost incurred in rendering service not specifically covered in this section such as surveys in addition to the initial and final.

(11) A charge equal to 7 percent of the salary paid by AMS to each grader exclusive of one regular grader whose salary is paid by AMS.

(b) Other provisions. (1) The applicant shall designate in writing the employees of the applicant who will be required and authorized to furnish each grader with such information as may be necessary for the performance of the grading service.

(2) AMS will provide as available an adequate number of graders to perform the grading service.

(3) At the sole discretion of AMS, graders may be either Federal or State employees or licensed employees of the applicant.

(4) The grading service shall be provided at the designated plant and shall be continued until the service is suspended, withdrawn, or terminated by

(i) Mutual consent;

(ii) Thirty (30) days' written notice, by either the applicant or AMS specifying the date of suspension, withdrawal, or termination.

(iii) One (1) day's written notice by AMS to the applicant if the applicant fails to honor any invoice within thirty (30) days after date of invoice covering the cost of the grading service; or

(iv) Termination of the services pursuant to the provisions of (v) of this paragraph;

(v) Grading service shall be terminated by AMS at any time AMS, acting pursuant to any applicable laws, rules and regulations, debars the applicant from receiving any further benefits of the service.

(5) Federally employed graders will be required to confine their activities to those duties necessary in the rendering of grading service and such closely related activities as may be approved by AMS: Provided, That, in no instance will the Federally employed grader assume the duties of management.

5. Delete the word "contract" in § 56.56 Grading certificate issuance and substitute in lieu thereof the word "resident".

6. Delete the words "or contract" in the last sentence of § 56.75.

7. Change § 56.100 to read as follows:

§ 56.100 Application for grading service with respect to shell eggs.

Application is hereby made, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the regulations governing the grading and inspection of shell eggs and United States standards, grades and weight classes for shell eggs, for shell egg grading service at the following designated plant:

[P. P. C. 615, 3d Rev.]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES
SUBPART—MEDITERRANEAN FRUIT FLY

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS DESIGNATING CERTAIN LOCALITIES AS REGULATED AREA

Pursuant to § 301.78-2 of the regulations supplemental to the Mediterranean Fruit Fly Quarantine (7 CFR Supp. 301.78-2, 21 F. R. 3214) under sections 8 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161, 162), administrative instructions issued as 7 CFR Supp. 301.78-2a (21 F. R. 3216), effective May 16, 1956, as amended effective June 1, 1956, and July 7, 1956 (21 F. R. 3722, 5032), are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.78-2a Administrative instructions designating regulated area under the Mediterranean fruit fly quarantine and regulations. Infestations of the Mediterranean fruit fly have been determined to exist in the civil divisions listed below. Accordingly, such civil divisions are hereby designated as the Mediterranean fruit fly regulated area within the meaning of the provisions in this subpart:

Florida. The counties of Broward, Collier, Dade, Hendry, Lee, Palm Beach, and Pinellas.

These amended administrative instructions shall become effective July 13, 1956.

The purpose of the amendment is to add the Florida county of Pinellas to the list of counties in which Mediterranean fruit fly infestations have been determined to exist, and designate this county as part of the area regulated under the Mediterranean fruit fly quarantine and regulations.

Surveys have shown that a rather general infestation of the Mediterranean fruit fly has developed along the coastal area of heavily populated Pinellas County, involving a part of St. Petersburg. The Florida Plant Board has acted promptly to prevent spread of infestation from this county by establishing road inspection stations on the five exit highways.

This amendment imposes restrictions supplementing Mediterrean fruit fly quarantine regulations already effective. It must be made effective promptly in order to carry out the purposes of the regulations. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the foregoing amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making the effective date thereof less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1956.

Chapter IV—Federal Crop Insurance Corporation

PART 425—PEACH CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR CONTRACTS FOR 1957 CROP YEAR

By virtue of the authority contained in the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended, these regulations are hereby published and prescribed to be in force and effect, with respect to peach crop insurance contracts for the 1957 crop year.

Sec.
425.1 Availability of peach crop insurance.
425.2 Coverages, premium rates, and guaranteed production.
425.3 Application for insurance.
425.4 Public notice of indemnities paid.
425.5 Creditors.
425.6 The policy.

AUTHORITY: §§ 425.1 to 425.6 issued under secs. 506, 516, 52 Stat. 73, 77, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1506, 1516. Interpret or apply secs. 507, 508, 509, 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1507, 1508, 1509.

§ 425.1 Availability of peach crop insurance. (a) Peach crop insurance may be provided for experimental purposes in counties designated by the Manager of the Corporation from a list approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. A list of the designated counties shall be published by appendix to this section.

(b) Insurance will not be provided in a county unless the minimum participation requirement established by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended, is met. For the purpose of determining whether the minimum participation requirement is met, each insurance unit shall be counted as one farm.

§ 425.2 Coverages, premium rates, and guaranteed production. (a) The Corporation shall establish dollar coverage(s), premium rate(s), and a bushel guaranteed production(s) per acre which shall be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office.

(b) The premium shall be paid on or before December 31, 1956, except that the payment may be deferred to February 1, 1957, upon the insured making arrangements satisfactory to the Corporation for payment of the premium.

§ 425.3 Application for insurance. Application for insurance on a form prescribed by the Corporation may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner-operator, or tenant in a peach crop. Applications shall be submitted to the county office on or before December 31, 1956.

§ 425.4 Public notice of indemnities paid. The Corporation shall provide for the posting annually in each county at the county courthouse of a list of indemnities paid for loses in the county.

§ 425.5 Creditors. An interest in an insured crop existing by virtue of a lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or any involuntary transfer shall not entitle the holder of the interest to any benefit under the contract.

§ 425.6 The policy. The provisions of the policy for the 1957 crop year are as follows:

Pursuant to the provisions of the application upon which this policy is issued, which application together with this policy shall constitute the contract, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (herein called the "Corporation") does insure the applicant (herein called the "insured") subject to the acceptance of his application against unavoidable loss on his peach crop due to frost, freeze, hurricane, tornado, hail, or windstorm when accompanied by hail.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Insurable acreage. Any acreage is insurable if a coverage for such acreage is shown on the county actuarial table.

2. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. The insured shall specify on his application all the insurable acres of peaches in the county in which he has an interest on the date the application is signed, and his interest in each such acreage. These data shall be revised by the insured on or before December 31, 1956, provided that the data on the application or latest revision are incorrect, to show the actual insurable acreage of peaches in which he has an interest on such date and his interest therein. If such data are not so revised, the data on the latest revision, or the application if there has been no revision, shall constitute the insured's report of his peach acreage and his interest therein on December 31, 1956.

3. Insured acreage. The insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the insurable acreage of peaches in which the insured has an interest on December 31, 1956, as reported by the insured, or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect.

4. Insured interest. The insured interest in the peach crops covered by the contract shall be the insured's interest on December 31, 1956, as reported by the insured, or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss.

5. Coverage, premium rate, and guaranteed production per acre. (a) The coverage(s) and premium rate(s) per acre shall be those established by the Corporation for the area in which the insured acreage is located, and shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office.

(b) Where more than one coverage per acre is established for a county, the amount of coverage elected by the insured shall be specified on the application for insurance. Provided, however, That on any acreage the Corporation reserves the right to limit the amount of coverage per acre which may be elected by the insured.

(c) The guaranteed production of peaches per acre shall be the number of bushels of peaches established by the Corporation for the area in which the insured acreage is located, and shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office.

6. Insurance period. Insurance shall attach on January 1, 1957. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of a peach crop covered by the contract upon harvest but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect after September 15, 1957, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

7. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss caused by (a) failure to follow good orchard practices, (b) failure properly and without unreasonable delay to care for, harvest, salvage, or market the insured peach crops, (c) failure of a marketing agency or buyer to accept delivery of marketable fruit, (d) drought, (e) flood, (f) lightning, (g) fire, (h) excessive rain, (i) wildlife, (j) insect infestation, (k) plant disease, (l) normal dropping of fruit, (m) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the orchard as caretaker, sharecropper, tenant, or wage hand, or (n) any cause of loss other than frost, freeze, hurricane, tornado, hail, or windstorm when accompanied by hail.

8. Amount of premium. (a) The premium for each insurance unit under the contract will be based upon (1) the insured acreage, (2) the applicable premium rate(s), and (3) the insured interest(s) in the peach crop(s) on December 31, 1956. The premium for the contract shall be the total of the premiums computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The premium with respect to any insured coverage shall be regarded as earned on January 1, 1957.

(b) If a premium is earned under this contract and totals less than $50.00 the amount shall be increased to $50.00.

9. Notice of loss or damage. (a) Notice shall be given within seven days after each material damage to the insured crop on any insurance unit from an insured cause. Such notice shall state the cause and date of damage.

(b) Notice of the time of intended harvesting shall be given at least seven days before the beginning of harvest if a loss is to be claimed, and final adjustment has not been made by that time. Provided, however, if damage occurs within the seven-day period before the beginning of harvest, or during harvest, and a loss is to be claimed, notice shall be given immediately.

(c) Any notice required by this section shall be given the Corporation in writing at the county office and if any such notice is not so given, the Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity.

10. No abandonment. There shall be no liability under the contract on any peach crop or part thereof which is abandoned by the insured without the written consent of the Corporation. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.

11. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period unless the entire crop on the insurance unit was destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage as determined by the Corporation.

12. Proof of loss. (a) For each insurance unit on which a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form prescribed by the Corporation, such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. This form containing such information shall be executed and submitted within 30 days after the time of loss, unless additional time is granted in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss is not due to an uninsured cause(s) and has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period.

13. Insurance unit. An insurance unit means (a) all the insurable acreage of peaches in the county in which the insured has 100 percent interest on December 31, 1956, that is located on contiguous land under the same ownership, or (b) all the insurable acreage of peaches in the county in which two or more persons have 100 percent interest on December 31, 1956, that is located on contiguous land under the same ownership, excluding any other acreage of peaches in which such persons do not have 100 percent interest on such date. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee. Contiguous land shall include only land that is touching at any point except that land that is separated only by a public or private way shall be considered contiguous. Any acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage is shown therefor on the county acturial table.

14. Amount of loss. (a) Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit. The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by (1) subtracting from the guaranteed production of peaches for the insurance unit the bushels of peaches produced plus the estimated bushels lost from causes not insured against other than normal dropping, (2) dividing the result by the said guaranteed production of peaches, (3) multiplying the ratio thus obtained by the coverage for the insurance unit, and (4) deducting from this amount 40 percent of the coverage for the insurance unit: Provided, however, That peaches which do not grade U. S. No. 2 or better (determined in accordance with U. S. Standards for Peaches, effective June 15, 1952 (17 F. R. 4473)) becaues of poor quality due to insurable causes occurring within the insurance period shall not be counted as production.

(b) The amount of coverage with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the insured acreage of peaches on the insurance unit by the insured interest and the result by the applicable coverage per acre.

(c) The Corporation reserves the right in any case to delay settlement until the amount of loss can be determined.

(d) If the production from an insurance unit is commingled with the production from any other acreage and the insured fails to keep records satisfactory to the Corporation of the acreages involved and the production from each, the Corporation may (1) deny liability with respect to all insurance units involved without affecting the insured's liability for premium(s), or (2) allocate the commingled production in such manner as it determines appropriate.

15. Payment of indemnity. (a) Any indemnity will be payable within 30 days after a claim for loss is approved by the Corporation. In no event shall the Corporation be liable for interest or damage in connection with any claim for indemnity.

(b) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent or disappears during an insurance period, any indemnity which is, or becomes, part of his estate shall be paid to the legal representative of the estate. Should no such representative be qualified, the Corporation may pay the indemnity to the person(s) it determines to be beneficially entitled thereto or to any one or more of such persons on behalf of all such persons, or may withhold payment until a legal representative of the estate is qualified. In such cases, and in any other case where an indemnity is claimed by a person(s) other than the original insured or diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, the determination of the Corporation as to the existence or non-existence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment shall be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligations with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid.

16. Transfer of interest. If the insured transfers all or part of his insured interest in a peach crop before the end of the insurance period the transferee upon written request made by the transferor will be entitled to the benefits of the contract, subject to its terms and conditions, accruing after the transfer with respect to the interest so transferred. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 17. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

17. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form prescribed by the Corporation, and upon approval thereto by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized and the assignee shall have the right to submit the loss notices and forms as required by the contract if the insured neglects or refuses to take such action.

18. Records and access to orchard. The insured shall keep or cause to be kept, for two years after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale or other disposition of all peaches produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and separate records showing the same information for production on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. Any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to such records and the orchard(s) for purposes related to the contract.

19. Avoidance of contract. The Corporation may void the contract without affecting the insured's liability for premium(s) or waiving any right or remedy including the right to collect any unpaid premium(s), if (a) at any time, either before or after loss, the insured has concealed or misrepresented any material fact or committed any fraud relating to the contract, or (b) the insured fails to give any notice or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract at the time and in the manner prescribed.

20. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or a change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract, nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of this contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder.

21. Forms. Copies of forms referred to in the contract are available at the county office.

22. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the peach insurance program:

(a) "County" means the area shown on the county actuarial table which may include orchards located in a local producing area(s) bordering on the county.

(b) "County actuarial table" means the form(s) and related materials (including the crop insurance maps) which are approved by the Corporation and show the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre applicable in the county.

(c) "County office" means the Corporation office for the county shown on the application for insurance or such other office as may be specified by the Corporation from time to time.

(d) "Crop year" means the period beginning January 1, 1957, and extending through September 15, 1957.

(e) "Harvest" means (i) any severance of the fruit from the tree by picking, or (ii) picking up marketable fruit from the ground.

(f) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Adopted by the Board of Directors on June 29, 1956.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—WHEAT MARKETING QUOTAS FOR THE 1955 CROP

RECORDS AND REPORTS, REVISION

This amendment is issued under the wheat marketing provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, for the purpose of revising the wheat marketing quota regulations so as to state in more detail the kind of records relating to wheat purchased, acquired or received which warehousemen, elevator operators, feeders, other processors, and buyers other than intermediate buyers shall make available to authorized representatives of the Department of Agriculture in order for such representatives to ascertain the correctness of any report made by such persons or to obtain the information required to be reported but not so reported.

Prior to the preparation of this amendment, public notice (21 F. R. 3969) of the Secretary's intention to issue the amendment was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which were received pursuant to such notice have been duly considered in the preparation of the amendment.

Paragraph (b) of § 728.586 of the regulations for the 1955–56 marketing year (20 F. R. 1630) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Nature and availability of records. Each warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, and each buyer other than an intermediate buyer, shall keep, as part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record which shall show with respect to the wheat purchased, acquired, or received by him from the producers or the intermediate buyers thereof the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer of the wheat, (2) the date of the transaction, (3) the amount of the wheat, (4) the serial number of the marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1955)), or marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat), or intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1955)), by which the wheat was identified, or the report and penalty receipt (MQ–81—Wheat (1955)), and (5) the amount of any lien for the penalty or of any penalty incurred in connection with the wheat purchased, acquired, or received by him. The record so made and all business records of such persons required to keep such records shall be kept available for examination by the county office manager or any authorized representative of the State Administrative Officer or investigators and accountants (special agents) or other authorized representatives of the Director, Compliance and Investigation Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, for two calendar years beyond the calendar year in which the marketing year ends. Such records shall include relevant books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, check stubs, canceled checks, documents, and memoranda but shall be examined only for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report or record kept pursuant to the regulations in this subpart, or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to the regulations in this subpart but not so furnished. The County office manager shall furnish, without cost, blank copies of MQ–97—Wheat which may be used for the purpose of keeping the record required under this section.

All reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Report Act of 1942.

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter G—Determination of Proportionate Shares

[Sugar Determination 855.3, Revised]

PART 855—MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA

PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR SUGARCANE FARMS IN THE MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA FOR 1956 CROPS

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 302 of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "act"), the Determination of Proportionate Shares, Mainland Cane Sugar Area, 1956 Crop, (§ 855.3) issued October 10, 1955 (20 F. R. 7639) is hereby revised by changing paragraph (a) and subparagraphs (1), (2) and (4) (i) of paragraph (a), by renumbering subparagraphs (5) and (6) of paragraph (a) as (6) and (7), respectively, and by inserting a new subparagraph (5). Section 855.3, as revised, reads as follows:

§ 855.3 Proportionate shares for sugarcane farms in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area for the 1956 crop—(a) Farm proportionate share. A 1956-crop proportionate share for each sugarcane farm in the mainland cane sugar area shall be established in terms of acres (acreage or acres as used herein means the area on which sugarcane is grown on the farm and marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar, except any area on which sugarcane is grown and marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar for use as livestock feed, or for the production of livestock feed, and the area of sugarcane harvested for seed or abandoned and classified as bona fide abandonment under procedure issued by the Commodity Stabilization Service) as follows:

(1) Farm bases—(i) All farms except those in Avoyelles, St. Landry, and Rapides Parishes, Louisiana. The farm base for each farm for which a proportionate share was established pursuant to § 855.2 (Determination of Proportionate Shares for the 1955 Crop) shall be such share, except that if the 1955 acreage on any farm was less than 80 percent of its 1955 proportionate share, due to a cause other than drought, flood, storm, freeze, disease or insects, as determined by the appropriate Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee (referred to in this section as County Committee) the base shall be the larger of 5 acres or 125 percent of such 1955 acreage.

(ii) All farms in Avoyelles, St. Landry, and Rapides Parishes, Louisiana. A base shall be established for each farm on which there was surgarcane acreage in any of the years within the period 1948 through 1952 (hereinafter referred to as "base period") by adding 50 percent of the largest acreage on the farm in any one of the years within the base period and 12.5 percent of the total acreage on the farm for the other four years within the base period.

(2) Farms with bases—(i) All farms except those in Avoyelles, St. Landry, and Rapides Parishes, Louisiana. The proportionate share for any farm for which a farm base is established under subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph shall be the largest of (a) 5 acres; (b) the farm base, but not in excess of 25.0 acres; and (c) 87.0 percent of such farm base.

(ii) All farms in Avoyelles, St. Landry, and Rapides Parishes, Louisiana. The proportionate share for any farm for which a farm base is established under subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph shall be the largest of (a) 5 acres; (b) the farm base, but not in excess of 25.0 acres; (c) 71.34 percent of such farm base; and (d) the proportionate share established for the farm under the provisions of the 1956 crop Determination of Proportionate Shares as originally issued on October 10, 1955.

(3) New farms. The proportionate share for any farm without a farm base and on which there was no sugarcane acreage during the 1955-crop year, shall be 5.0 acres.

(4) Transfer of farm bases—(i) Land acquired by Federal or State Agency, County, Parish, Township, Municipality, Public or Private Association or Corporation, having the right of eminent domain. The base established, or which would have been established pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, for any land transferred by sale, lease or donation, to any Federal or State agency, or county, parish, township, municipality or instrumentality thereof, or public or private association or corporation, each having the right of eminent domain, shall be available for use in providing an equitable base for land owned, purchased, or leased by the owner of the land so transferred. Upon application to the appropriate Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Office (referred to in this section as State Office) within five years from the date of such transfer, any such owner shall be entitled to a base for any other land owned, purchased, or leased by him equal to the farm base which would have been established for such other land, plus the farm base which would have been established for the land so transferred, as determined by the appropriate State Office.

(ii) Dividing or combining ownership tract acreage records. (a) Where an ownership tract of land (a farm or a portion of a farm which is separately owned) which was part of a farm as constituted for the 1955 program becomes a part of another farm or a separate farm under the 1956 program, a base for such tract shall be determined by multiplying the 1955 proportionate share for the farm of which such tract was a part by the percentage that the total acreage of sugarcane for the tract for the crop years 1951–54 plus the 1955 measured acreage within the proportionate share is of the total sugarcane acreage within the farm's proportionate shares in this period for all tracts comprising the 1955 farm of which it was a part. Where an ownership tract of land which was part of a 1955 farm is subdivided, the base for each subdivision shall be determined by multiplying the base established for the tract in accordance with the above method by the percentage that the total cropland acreage in each subdivision of the tract suitable for the production of sugarcane is of the total acreage of such cropland in the tract. Where a 1955 farm consisting of one ownership tract is subdivided, the base for each subdivision shall be obtained by multiplying the 1955 proportionate share by the percentage that the total cropland acreage suitable for the production of sugarcane in each subdivision of the tract is of the total acreage of such cropland in the ownership tract. Where the County Committee determines that the use of the cropland relationships in any case results in the establishment of a base which is not representative of the crops growing on the 1955 farm at the time of subdivision or combination or is inconsistent with written evidence of sugarcane acreage records supplied by the parties affected, such base shall be adjusted by the County Committee taking into consideration the foregoing factors.

(b) The base for such tract or subdivision thereof determined as heretofore provided shall, for the purposes of determining a farm base under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, be considered as the 1955-crop proportionate share for such tract or subdivision thereof, if it becomes a separate farm, or as a part of the 1955-crop proportionate share of the farm of which the tract or subdivision thereof becomes a part.

(c) Where two or more farms, for each of which a 1955 proportionate share was established, are combined as one farm for the 1956 crop, the sum of the 1955 proportionate shares established for each of the farms combined shall, for the purposes of determining a farm base under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, be considered as the 1955-crop proportionate share for such combined farm.

(d) A farm proportionate share shall be established as provided in this section for each farm involved in a division or combination under this paragraph.

(5) Reallotment of unused acreage. If it is determined by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Louisiana State Committee that the proportionate share established in accordance with the foregoing provisions for any farm in Avoyelles, St. Landry, and Rapides Parishes of Louisiana will not be fully used for sugarcane to be marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar (except sugar or liquid sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed), harvested for seed, or classified as bona fide abandonment, the proportionate shares for other farms within such parishes which are capable of marketing sugarcane for sugar or liquid sugar or harvesting sugarcane for seed from an acreage in excess of the proportionate shares established under subparagraph (2) (ii) of this paragraph may be increased prior to August 1, 1956, by prorating the total unused acreage among such farms on the basis of their proportionate shares established under subparagraph (2) (ii) of this paragraph. Before prorating unused acreage with respect to any farm, the State Committee shall obtain a statement from the operator thereof as to the number of acres within the proportionate share that will not be used.

(6) Appeals. (i) A producer of sugarcane who believes that the proportionate share established for his farm pursuant to this determination is inequitable may file an appeal in writing at the local county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office (referred to in this section as county office) prior to July 1, 1956. The county committee shall make such adjustments as are necessary due to the use of any incorrect data in determining the proportionate share. In other cases, the county committee shall, after review of all of the facts, forward the case, together with its recommendation, to the State Committee. The State Committee shall consider the appeal and the county committee's recommendation in light of the interest of the appellant as related to the interests of all other producers of sugarcane in the State and shall return the case to the county committee, indicating the appropriate disposition.

(ii) Upon receipt thereof, the county committee shall notify the producer in writing as soon as possible regarding the decision on his appeal. If the producer is dissatisfied with the decision he may appeal in writing before September 1, 1956, to the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., whose decision shall be final.

(7) Delegation. Farm bases and farm proportionate shares shall be established by the county committee in accordance with this determination.

(b) Share tenant and sharecropper protection and compliance with other conditions for payment. In addition to compliance with the proportionate share for the farm in accordance with this determination, eligibility for payment of any producer of sugarcane shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) That the number of share tenants or sharecroppers engaged in the production of sugarcane of the 1956 crop on the farm shall not be reduced below the number so engaged with respect to the previous crop, unless such reduction is approved by the State Committee. In considering such approval the State Committee shall be guided by whether the reduction was the result of a voluntary action of the share tenant or sharecropper, or whether the reduction was beyond the control of the producer;

(2) That such producer shall not have entered into any leasing or cropping agreement for the purpose of diverting to himself or any other producer any payments to which share tenants or sharecroppers would be entitled if their leasing or cropping agreements for the previous crop were in effect; and

(3) That such producer has met the requirements of the act with respect to child labor, wage rates and, in the case of a processor-producer, prices paid for sugarcane.

Statement of bases and considerations. As indicated in the statement issued in conjunction with the original determination, farm bases for the 1956 crop will be established generally from the proportionate shares established under the 1955-crop determination. Farm bases under the 1955-crop determinations were established for each farm on which there was sugarcane acreage in any of the crop years 1949 through 1953 by assigning a weighting of 50 percent to the largest acreage on the farm in any of such years as a measure of "ability to produce" and a weighting of 12.5 percent to the total acreage on the farm in the other four years of such period as a measure of "past production".

The parishes of Avoyelles, Rapides, and St. Landry in Louisiana comprise the northernmost portion of the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. Because of location and accompanying climatic conditions, sugarcane in this area is subject to damage from freeze and other vagaries of weather to a much greater extent than is the sugarcane acreage in other producing districts in the area. This is reflected in the fact that the percentage of abandoned acres in these parishes, as related to the total planted acreage during the five-year period 1950–54 was more than two times the average for all other parishes and counties in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. Moreover, the yield of sugar per harvested acre for this same period was more than 15 percent below the average for other parishes and counties in the area.

Largely as a result of the foregoing factors, the total acreage of sugarcane for sugar in these parishes has decreased in recent years. Although the average acreage of sugarcane in the entire mainland area increased slightly during the period 1949–53, as compared with the 1948–52 period, the average acreage for the three parishes in the 1949–53 period decreased by over 9.0 percent from the average for the 1948–52 period. Moreover, the average acreage for the three parishes during the 1949–53 period declined 7.2 percent, as compared with the average acreage for the 1944–48 period. Therefore, the average acreage for the 1949–53 period in these three parishes was subnormal, as compared with the average acreage during earlier periods. While the average sugarcane acreage in these three parishes during the 1949–53 period declined from the average acreage during the 1944–48 and 1948–52 periods, the average acreage increased during the same periods in the balance of the area. The factors of weather and low yields have also contributed to the failure of producers in these parishes to fully utilize the proportionate shares established for their farms. For the years 1954 and 1955, the percentage of deficits within proportionate shares for these parishes was greatly in excess of the percentage for the area as a whole. This fact resulted in a smaller acreage of sugarcane in these parishes in relation to the sugarcane acreage for the Mainland Area than was contemplated.

The revised determination establishes the parishes of Avoyelles, Rapides, and St. Landry, Louisiana, as an area separate from the balance of the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. Because of the reduced acreage in sugarcane in these parishes during the period 1949–53 as compared with that in prior years, this period is not considered a fair measure of "past production" and "ability to produce" for the farms in such parishes. Accordingly, the revised determination establishes a base period comprising the crop years 1948–52 for these parishes which more fairly represents these factors, with a minimum proportionate share equivalent to the 1956-crop farm proportionate share established under the original determination. The adjustment factor of 71.34 percent, which will be applied to the farm bases in excess of 25 acres, is the product of the 1955 adjustment factor of 82 percent and the 1956 adjustment factor of 87 percent applicable generally to the large farms located in the balance of the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. In addition, provision is made whereby deficits in proportionate share acres on farms in such parishes may be prorated to other farms having acreage available for harvest, thus protecting the interests of the producers of sugarcane in these parishes by permitting the planting of an acreage representing their equitable share of the over-all acreage limitation for the mainland area. Moreover, to bring about a further utilization of the proportionate shares established for the farms in these parishes, the proportionate shares of the producers therein will not be subject to a reduction for failure to fill their previous year's proportionate shares to the 80 percent level.

Under the original determination, a provision was included whereby the farm base established, or which would have been established for any land acquired by purchase or lease by any Federal or State Agency having the right of eminent domain would be available for use in providing an equitable base for other land owned, purchased, or leased by the owner of the land so transferred. Situations have arisen wherein owners wish to sell, lease, or donate portions of their farms to other than Federal or State agencies having the right of eminent domain. These owners are reluctant to transfer voluntarily their land if the action results in a reduction of the proportionate shares for their farms. It is believed that in cases in which sugarcane acreage is transferred to other than Federal or State agencies having the right of eminent domain and such acreage is to be used in the public interest, the proportionate share rights should remain with the original farm just as it does in cases wherein the land is transferred to a Federal or State agency. This revision, therefore, extends the provision of the original determination relating to transfers to include any county, parish, township, municipality or instrumentality thereof, or public or private association or corporation, each having the right of eminent domain as well as Federal or State agencies.

The provision excluding from the definition of "acres" any acreage from which sugarcane is marketed (or processed) into sugar for livestock feed or for the production of livestock feed is necessitated by a recent amendment to the Sugar Act of 1948. Regulations governing the processing and marketing of such sugar will be issued in the near future.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing revised Determination of Proportionate Shares for Sugarcane Farms in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area for the 1956 Crop will effectuate the applicable provisions of the act.

Subchapter H—Determination of Wage Rates

[Sugar Determination 863.9]

PART 863—WAGES; SUGARCANE; FLORIDA

FAIR AND REASONABLE WAGE RATES FOR PERSONS EMPLOYED IN PRODUCTION, CULTIVATION, ON HARVESTING OF SUGARCANE IN FLORIDA DURING THE PERIOD JULY 1, 1956-JUNE 30, 1957

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Clewiston, Florida on May 10, 1956, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 863.9 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period July 1, 1956, through June 30, 1957—(a) Requirements. A producer of sugarcane in Florida shall be deemed to have complied with the wage provisions of the act during the period July 1, 1956 through June 30, 1957 if all persons employed on the farm in production, cultivation or harvesting work shall have been paid in accordance with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All such persons shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the worker, and after July 1, 1956, or the date of publication of this section in the FEDERAL

REGISTER, whichever is later, not less than the following:

(i) For work performed on a time basis.

	Cents per hour
Tractor drivers and operators of mechanical harvesting or loading equipment	75.0
All other workers	65.0

(ii) For work performed on a piecework basis. The piecework rate for any operation shall be as agreed upon between the producer and the worker: Provided, That the hourly rate of earnings of each worker employed on piecework during each pay period (such pay period not to be in excess of two weeks) shall average for the time involved not less than the applicable hourly rate prescribed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(2) Compensable working time. For work performed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, compensable working time includes all time which the worker spends in the performance of his duties except time taken out for meals during the work day. Compensable working time commences at the time the worker is required to start work and ends upon completion of work in the field. However, if the producer requires the operator of mechanical equipment, driver of animals, or any other class of worker to report to a place other than the field, such as an assembly point, tractor shed, etc., located on the farm, time spent in transit to and from the field is compensable working time. Any time spent in performing work directly related to the principal work performed by the worker, such as servicing equipment, is compensable working time. Time of the worker while being transported from a central recruiting point or labor camp to the farm is not compensable working time.

(3) Equipment necessary to perform work assignment. The producer shall furnish without cost to the worker any equipment required in the performance of any work assignment. However, a charge may be made for equipment furnished any worker for the cost of such equipment in the event of its loss or destruction through negligence of the worker. Equipment includes, but is not limited to, hand and mechanical tools and special wearing apparel, such as boots and raincoats, required to discharge the work assignment.

(b) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to workers below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(c) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this determination may file a wage claim with the local County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the local county ASC office. Upon receipt of a wage claim the county office shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the worker. The county ASC Committee shall arrange for such investigation as it deems necessary and the producer and worker shall be notified in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, Cheops Building, Gainesville, Florida, which shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and worker in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State ASC Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement from the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlements will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Division, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payments under the act are concerned.

Statement of bases and considerations—(a) General. The foregoing determination establishes the fair and reasonable wage rates to be paid for work performed by persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period from July 1, 1956 through June 30, 1957, as one of the conditions with which producers must comply to be eligible for payments under the act.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. Section 301 (c) (1) of the act requires that all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets or sugarcane with respect to which an application for payment is made shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determinations the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, (i. e., cost of living, prices of sugar and by-products, income from sugarcane, and cost of production), and the differences in conditions among various producing areas.

(c) 1956–57 wage determination. This determination increases the level of wage rates five cents per hour, or 8 percent, above the wage rates specified in the 1955–56 wage determination and eliminates the requirement that producers furnish to workers the customary perquisites. Other provisions of the 1955–56 determination remain unchanged.

A public hearing was held in Clewiston, Florida on May 10, 1956, at which interested persons were afforded the opportunity to testify with respect to fair and reasonable wage rates during the period July 1, 1956 through June 30, 1957. At this hearing several producers recommended that the wage levels and other provisions of the 1955–56 wage determination be continued in the 1956–57 determination. These witnesses stated that acreage of sugarcane has declined although the fixed costs of production remain the same. They also cited the decline in living costs, and anticipated that lower sugar prices and income would prevail during the coming year. Producers generally opposed the elimination of the perquisite provision of the determination, although some stated that the provision could be eliminated provided that the value of perquisites did not become a part of the minimum wage structure. A representative of a labor union which negotiates an agreement with one large producer stated that because of the large scale sugarcane operations in Florida and the extent of mechanization, fieldworkers should be deemed to be industrial workers and paid accordingly. This representative recommended a minimum wage of $1.25 per hour for the reasons that substantial wage increases had occurred throughout the national economy, that living costs are higher, and that data as to the financial condition of large sugarcane producers indicates their ability to pay higher wage rates.

Consideration has been given to the recommendations made at the hearing, to the results of studies and investigations of the sugarcane industry, and to other pertinent factors. Data for several recent crops covering the returns, costs, and profits of sugarcane production have been re-stated in terms of conditions likely to prevail for the 1956 crop. Analysis of all factors indicates that the wage rates of this determination are within the producers' ability to pay.

The labor force in Florida in sugarcane fields is composed primarily of imported workers from the British West Indies. These workers are mostly unskilled—the skilled and semi-skilled workers generally are resident of the farms or nearby communities. Most of the unskilled hand work on sugarcane farms is done on a piecework basis. Tractor drivers and other semi-skilled or skilled workers generally are paid by the hour. Earnings of workers employed on the piecework and time basis during previous crops have substantially exceeded the minimum wage rates of the determinations.

Determinations since 1937 have provided that a producer must furnish workers with the perquisites customarily furnished by him, such as housing, garden and pasture plots, and medical services. This provision resulted in some inequities in the furnishing of perquisites as among producers and as among workers. Furthermore, during the intervening years there have been substantial changes in the working force which have caused changes in the types of perquisites furnished. The elimination of the perquisite provision is expected to have no effect upon the furnishing of customary perquisites to workers. However, it will provide both producers and workers greater flexibility in their appraisal of the perquisite situation and in making such adjustment as may be needed.

After consideration of all the factors, the wage rates and other provisions of this determination are deemed to be fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

Subchapter I—Determination of Prices

[Sugar Determination 871.9]

PART 871—SUGAR BEETS

FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR 1956 CROPS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (2) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and due consideration of evidence presented at the several public hearings held in November 1955 (for southern Oregon, California, southwestern Arizona, and western Nevada), and during January 1956 (for States other than those regions), the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 871.9 Fair and reasonable prices for the 1956 crop of sugar beets. A producer of sugar beets who is also a processor of sugar beets (herein referred to as "processor") shall have paid, or contracted to pay for sugar beets of the 1956 crop grown by other producers and processed by him, in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) Purchase agreements. (1) The price for sugar beets in regions other than Imperial Valley, California, shall be not less than that determined pursuant to the 1956 crop sugar beet purchase contract between the processor and producers; (2) the price for sugar beets in Imperial Valley, California, shall be not less than that determined pursuant to the 1956 crop sugar beet purchase contract which may be negotiated between the processor and producers, unless the Secretary gives public notice prior to December 31, 1956, that such price is found not to be fair and reasonable, or the price for sugar beets in Imperial Valley, California, is otherwise determined by an amendment to this determination.

(b) Subterfuge. The processor shall not reduce returns to producers below those determined herein through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

Statement of basis and considerations—(a) General. The foregoing determination establishes the fair and reasonable price requirements which must be met, as one of the conditions for payment under the act, by a producer who processes sugar beets of the 1956 crop grown by other producers.

(b) Requirements of the act. Section 301 (c) (2) of the act provides that the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or surgarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing.

(c) 1956 fair price determination. The 1956 price determination provides that in regions other than Imperial Valley, California, a processor shall be deemed to have complied with the fair price provisions of the act if he has paid, or contracted to pay, prices for sugar beets not less than those determined pursuant to his 1956 crop purchase contract with producers. The price for 1956 crop sugar beets in Imperial Valley, California, shall be that determined pursuant to purchase contracts which may be negotiated by the processor and producers unless such prices are deemed to be inequitable or a contract is not negotiated.

At the public hearings testimony was offered by only one processor representative. In most regions, producers reported that the majority of contracts had been negotiated with processors and approved by producers. The processor representative testified as to the high freight costs on sugar beets paid by producers in one region of the factory district located at some distance from the mill. Because of competitive factors, this processor proposed to offer producers a contract in which the processor would absorb a portion of the freight costs. The witness stated that no other changes were contemplated in the purchase contract.

An analysis of the 1956 crop sugar beet purchase contracts which have been negotiated by producers and processors indicates that the scales of payment for sugar beets are the same as those provided for in the 1955 crop contracts with two exceptions. In these two contracts, between producers and processors in the eastern sugar beet region, the sharing ratio has been changed. In the 1955 crop contract the producer received 50 percent of the net proceeds from sugar, pulp, and molasses, plus an additional 15 percent of the amount by which the average net proceeds from sugar exceeded $6.70 per hundred pounds. The 1956 crop contract provides a sliding scale of payments per ton of sugar beets under which the producer will receive 48 to 52 percent of the net proceeds from sugar, pulp, and molasses depending on the level of such proceeds. If net proceeds are less than $20.00 per ton of sugar beets, the percentage share is further decreased. At present levels of net proceeds and sugar extraction this change in the sharing ratio reduces the price per ton of beets to the producers who deliver to one processor by approximately sixty cents per ton, and by approximately forty cents per ton to producers who deliver beets to another processor. Other changes have been made in a few contracts which affect the price of seed, freight allowances, the use of nitrogen fertilizer, and the basis of computing net returns. The effect of these changes on the returns to producers for 1956 crop sugar beets is considered to be nominal.

Purchase contracts for the Imperial Valley (California) for the 1956 crop (to be planted in the fall of 1956 and harvested in 1957) have not been negotiated and therefore were not available for examination. When the contracts covering the purchase of sugar beets in this region are negotiated and are received by the Department, they will be analyzed to determine whether the terms and conditions provide for an equitable sharing relationship. If the contracts are found to be fair and reasonable, no amendment to this determination will be required. However, if any of the contracts do not provide for an equitable sharing of returns, or no contract is negotiated, an amendment to this determination will be issued.

In analyzing 1956 crop purchase agreements, consideration has been given to the results of investigations covering economic conditions, volume of production, and price levels which are likely to exist during the production and marketing of the 1956 crop of sugar beets, and to comparative operating results of processors and producers. The analysis indicates that prices payable for sugar beets in the 1956 crop purchase contracts are fair and reasonable at sugar prices around the current price level for refined cane sugar.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing price determination will effectuate the price provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

[Sugar Determination 876.8]

PART 876—HAWAII

FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR 1956 CROPS OF HAWAIIAN SUGARCANE

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (2) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Hilo, Hawaii on November 7 and 8, 1955, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 876.8 Fair and reasonable prices for the 1956 crop of Hawaiian sugarcane. A producer of sugarcane in Hawaii who is also a processor of sugarcane (referred to in this part as "processor") shall have paid, or contracted to pay, for sugarcane of the 1956 crop grown by other producers and processed by him, or shall have processed sugarcane of other producers under a tolling arrangement, in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) Purchase agreements. (1) The price for sugarcane of the 1956 crop under adherent planter agreements shall be not less than a price determined in accordance with the agreement between the processor and the producer applicable to the 1955 crop or as otherwise specified in the price determination applicable to that crop.

(2) The price for sugarcane under independent grower purchase agreements at the Lihue Plantation Company, Ltd., and Oahu Sugar Company, Ltd. shall be not less than a price determined in accordance with the agreement between the processor and the producer applicable to the 1955 crop: Provided, however, That the items of expense incurred for the 1956 crop which may be deducted in computing net returns shall be limited to those applicable to the 1955 crop, except that if the processor incurs handling and delivery expenses otherwise allowable under the agreement and which are incurred under abnormal conditions which the Director, Hawaiian Area Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, Honolulu, Hawaii (referred to in this part as "Director of the Area Office"), determines justify the incurrence of such expenses under the circumstances, such expenses also shall be deductible.

(3) The price for sugarcane delivered under an independent grower purchase agreement to a processor specified under subparagraph (b) (2) of this part shall be not less than the price the producer would have received for such sugarcane had it been delivered, processed, and the resultant sugar and molasses delivered pursuant to the requirements of such subparagraph (b) (2).

(b) Toll agreement. (1) The rate for processing sugarcane under a toll agreement at Lihue Plantation Company, Ltd., Olokele Sugar Company, Ltd., and Kekaha Sugar Company, Ltd., shall be not more than the rate provided in the agreement between the producer and the processor applicable to the 1955 crop.

(2) (i) The rate for processing sugarcane delivered by a producer under a toll agreement to those processors listed in the table below shall be not more than that specified for each such processor.

Processor	Rate for processing—expressed as a percentage of the gross proceeds from raw sugar and molasses stated in dollars per hundredweight of sugar, raw value basis	Delivery point
Olaa Sugar Co., Ltd	30	Mill.
Kohala Sugar Co	26	Do.
Laupahoehoe Sugar Co	40	Loaded in trucks.
Hilo Sugar Co., Ltd	42	Do.[1]
Onomea Sugar Co	42	Do.[1]
Pepeekeo Sugar Co	42	Do.[1]
Hakalau Sugar Co., Ltd.	42	Do.[1]
Paauhau Sugar Co., Ltd	42	Do.
Hawaiian Agricultural Co.	42	Do.
Hutchinson Sugar Co., Ltd.	42	Do.

[1] Where flumes are used to transport sugarcane to the mill the delivery point shall be alongside flume.

(ii) The gross proceeds from sugar and molasses shall be determined in accordance with the Standard Sugar Marketing Contract and the Standard Molasses Marketing Contract entered into by the producer, or his agent, with the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, Ltd. (a cooperative agricultural marketing association referred to in this part as "Association"): Provided, however, That the gross proceeds so determined to be applicable to the sugar and molasses recovered from the sugarcane of the producer shall be converted to dollars per hundredweight of sugar, raw value basis, for the purpose of applying the rate for processing.

(iii) The applicable rate specified in this subparagraph for processing the sugarcane of the producer shall cover (a) all transporting, handling, and processing costs applicable to such sugarcane, from the delivery point specified in the table above until the raw sugar and molasses, recovered therefrom, leaves the bulk sugar bin or the molasses tank of the processor, except those costs incurred for insuring such raw sugar and molasses while stored therein; (b) the cost of insuring the sugarcane of the producer against loss by fire to the same extent that sugarcane of the processor is insured; (c) the costs of weighing, sampling, and taring the sugarcane of the producer; (d) the cost of general weed and rodent control; (e) the cost of research and experimental work relating to the production and processing of sugarcane; and (f) in the case of Hilo Sugar Company, Ltd., Onomea Sugar Company, Pepeekeo Sugar Company, and Hakalau Sugar Company, Ltd. if sugarcane of the producer is cut by hand and transported by flume or otherwise to the point of delivery such rate shall also cover the costs of placing sugarcane in the flume, fluming, applicable infield transportation, and the loading of such sugarcane on trucks at the point of delivery.

(iv) The sugarcane received from producers shall be handled and processed by the processor in a manner which is no less favorable than the handling and processing of the sugarcane of the processor. The processor, in acting as agent of the producer, shall handle and deliver to the Association the raw sugar and molasses recovered from the sugarcane of the producer in a manner which is no less favorable than the handling and delivery to the Association of the raw sugar and molasses recovered from the sugarcane of the processor. The processor shall promptly transmit to the producer the amount of gross proceeds received for the sugar and molasses, recovered from the sugarcane of the producer, less the applicable processing fee, and less the expenses paid by the processor, as agent for the producer, in handling and delivering to the Association the raw sugar and molasses of the producer pursuant to the toll agreement.

(c) Sugarcane trash and quality determination. The processor shall determine the net weight and quality of the sugarcane received from the producer and allocate sugar and molasses recoveries to the producer in accordance with methods customarily used by the processor which will reflect the true weight, quality and quantities of sugar and molasses recovered from the sugarcane of the producer.

(d) Overhead charges for services furnished producers. In instances where the processor, at the producer's request furnishes the producer labor, material, or services used in the production of the producer's crop of sugarcane, the processor may charge in addition to the direct costs of such labor, material, or services, those overhead expenses which are properly apportionable under generally accepted accounting principles, as approved by the Director of the Area Office, and may also charge a profit not to exceed 5 percent of the sum of the direct and overhead cost of such labor, material, or services.

(e) Reporting requirements. With respect to purchase agreements which provide that payment for sugarcane is to be based on net returns from sugar and molasses and with respect to toll agreements which provide that handling and delivery expenses on sugar and molasses are to be deducted by the processor from the gross proceeds from sugar and molasses otherwise due the producer, the processor shall submit to the Director of the Area Office a certified statement of the gross proceeds and handling and delivery expenses incurred.

(f) Subterfuge. The processor shall not reduce returns to the producer below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

Statement of bases and considerations—(a) General. The foregoing determination establishes the fair and reasonable rate requirements which must be met, as one of the conditions for payment under the act, by a producer who processes sugarcane of the 1956 crop grown by other producers.

(b) Requirements of the act. Section 301 (c) (2) of the act provides, as a condition for payment, that the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly a processor of sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing.

(c) Public hearing. A public hearing was held in Hilo, Hawaii, on November 7 and 8, 1955 and testimony was received with regard to fair and reasonable prices or rates for the 1956 crop of Hawaiian sugarcane.

During recent years, processors in Hawaii have purchased sugarcane from most producers under independent grower purchase agreements. These agreements generally provided a price for sugarcane cut and piled in the field, from which point the processor assumed the costs of transporting and processing the cane and the costs of handling and the delivery of the sugar and molasses to the Association. Title to the sugar and molasses produced from such sugarcane was vested in the processor. The testimony offered at the hearing by processor representatives was devoted to the introduction and explanation of proposed toll agreements in lieu of the sugarcane purchase agreements. These proposed toll agreements generally provide that sugarcane would be delivered to the processor loaded in trucks for transporting to the mill, or delivered directly to the mill; that title to the sugar and molasses produced from such sugarcane would remain in the producer until these products are delivered to the Association; that the producer would pay the processor a fixed percentage of the gross proceeds from sugar and molasses as a rate for processing; and that the processor, as agent for the producer, would enter into marketing contracts with the Association, would act for the producer in the handling and delivery of the sugar and molasses, and would promptly transmit to the producer the gross proceeds received from the Association for the sale of these products, after deducting the processing rate and the handling and delivery expenses.

Representative of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association—This witness stated that practically all raw sugar and molasses produced in Hawaii is marketed through the Association. He stated that the Association must operate in a manner to assure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and interpretations by the courts governing cooperatives. He pointed out that in view of recent rulings it is desirable that if sugar and molasses produced from sugarcane grown by independent growers are to be marketed through the Association, that such independent growers enter into Standard Sugar and Molasses Marketing Contracts. Under these contracts the independent growers will retain title to the sugar and molasses until the products are delivered to the Association. These growers would become nonmember patrons, but would not be subject to any withholding of proceeds for capital purposes and would have the right to cancel their contracts. The witness stated that the various processors would submit toll agreements under which sugarcane of independent growers would be processed to carry out these objectives.

The representative of the six major producer associations stated that the producers he represented had been studying the toll agreements proposed by the processors but no decision had been made as to all of the terms and conditions of these agreements.

Olaa Sugar Company and related producers—The processor representative submitted a proposed toll agreement which provides for sugarcane of the producer to be delivered to the mill at the expense of the producer; for the processor to process the sugarcane and act as agent in the handling and delivery of the raw sugar and final molasses for a processing rate of 35.25 percent of gross returns from sugar and molasses, plus an agency fee of .75 percent; and that the processor would charge a profit of ten percent on services furnished to producers. The witness stated that the processor would absorb the cost, above the average cost, for harvesting sugarcane of producers who had not prepared their land for mechanical harvesting. The witness recommended that the proposed toll agreement and the charge on services furnished to producers be approved as fair and reasonable.

The representative of the producers who deliver sugarcane to this processor stated that the producers had the proposed toll agreement under consideration, but had not reached a decision. In a supplemental brief these producers recommended a processing rate of 34.5 percent of the gross proceeds from sugar and molasses, but objected to the charging of a profit on services and the agency fee.

In a joint supplemental brief, representatives of the processor and the producers stated that the parties would execute a tentative toll agreement providing for a processing rate of 36 percent for purposes of a provisional settlement, and that the charge for profit and the agency fee proposed by the processor would be held in a special account pending the issuance of the 1956 crop fair price determination. The brief pointed out that such tentative agreement should not jeopardize the position of the respective parties.

Hilo Sugar Company, Ltd., Onomea Sugar Company, Pepeekeo Sugar Company, Hakalau Sugar Company, Ltd., Paauhau Sugar Company, Ltd., Hawaiian Agricultural Company, Hutchinson Sugar Company, Ltd., and related producers—The representative for these processors submitted a proposed toll agreement applicable to all of these processors providing for the delivery of sugarcane loaded on trucks or placed alongside flumes, and for a processing rate of 45 percent of gross returns from sugar and molasses. The representative stated that the supplement to the toll agreement provides that certain processors would absorb the additional costs on hand cut sugarcane of the 1956 crop which are the result of the change in delivery point. The witness recommended the adoption of this toll agreement and the supplement, where applicable, for the 1956 crop and that the remaining adherent planter agreements continue unchanged for 1956.

The representative of the majority of the producers who deliver sugarcane to these processors stated that no agreement had been reached regarding the proposed toll agreement. In a supplemental brief the producers who deliver sugarcane to the four Hilo Coast processors recommended a processing rate of 38 percent of gross proceeds from sugar and molasses for hand cut sugarcane delivered in the field, and a rate of 46 percent for mechanically harvested sugarcane piled in the field. In another brief the producers who deliver cane to the Hawaiian Agricultural Company, recommended a processing rate of 32 percent for mechanically harvested sugarcane piled in the field.

In a joint supplemental brief by representatives of the four Hilo Coast processors and of the producers who deliver sugarcane to those processors, it was stated that the toll agreement would be executed only by those producers whose sugarcane was to be mechanically harvested prior to the issuance of the price determination. However, it was pointed out that the execution of the contract should not be considered as acceptance of the processing rate nor the delivery point proposed by the processor.

A representative of a number of producers who deliver sugarcane to Onomea Sugar Company, recommended that the processing rate proposed by the processor be reduced and that the point of delivery of sugarcane be at roadside instead of loaded on trucks.

Laupahoehoe Sugar Company and related producers—The representative of this processor submitted a proposed toll agreement providing for a processing rate of 47.85 percent for sugarcane piled at designated points for loading into trucks, and a charge of ten percent profit on services furnished to producers. A representative of producers who deliver sugarcane to this processor stated that since the independent grower agreement had been in effect only one year, producers found it difficult to appraise their economic position under either that agreement or the proposed toll agreement. However, in a supplemental brief, the representative of these producers recommended a processing rate of 47 percent; that infield transportation costs be borne by the processor; and that the charge for profit on services furnished to producers by processors not be approved but, if any such charge were included it should be less than 10 percent.

Kohala Sugar Company and related producers—The representative of this processor submitted a toll agreement which provides for a processing rate of 26 percent for sugarcane delivered at the mill, and for a ten percent profit on services furnished to producers by the processor. The representative of the producers at Kohala Sugar Company stated that they were still negotiating with the processor regarding the proposed agreement. In a supplemental brief, these producers recommended a processing rate of 24 percent and that the charge for profit on services not be approved. In a joint supplemental brief the parties agreed upon the toll agreement proposed by the processor, but eliminated contractual provisions relating to the profit on services furnished to producers.

(d) 1956 price determination. This determination provides (1) that the price for sugarcane under adherent planter agreements between producers and processors, shall be not less than that determined pursuant to such agreements for the 1955 crop or as otherwise specified in the 1955 price determination; (2) that the price for sugarcane under independent grower agreements between producers and those processors who did not submit a proposed toll agreement at the hearing to be applicable to the 1956 crop, shall be not less than that determined pursuant to the independent grower agreement for the 1955 crop; (3) that the price for sugarcane delivered by a producer under an independent grower agreement to a processor who submitted a proposed toll agreement at the hearing applicable to the 1956 crop, shall be not less than that which would be payable had the sugarcane been delivered to such processor pursuant to the toll agreement; (4) that the rate for processing sugarcane under a toll agreement between producers and those processors who entered into such agreements for the 1955 crop, shall be not more than that specified in the 1955 crop agreement; and (5) that the rate for processing sugarcane for those processors who submitted proposed toll agreements at the hearing for the 1956 crop, shall be not more than the rate specified in this determination, at designated delivery points, for each of such processors.

This determination specifies that the rate for processing sugarcane, for those processors who submitted toll agreements at the hearing for the 1956 crop, shall be applied to the gross proceeds received from the Association from the sale of sugar and molasses and enumerates the items of costs which are covered in the rate for processing. The determination also provides that the processor shall process and, as agent of the producer, shall handle and deliver to the Association the products of the producer in a manner which is no less favorable than the processing and the handling and delivery of the same products of the processor; and that the processor shall promptly transmit to the producer the net proceeds from sugar and molasses.

This determination provides under all types of agreements, that processors who render services or provide materials or labor to producers at their request, may charge a profit not to exceed five percent of the total cost thereof. The basis on which the profit may be computed is the direct costs of such services, materials, or labor and all overhead or indirect costs properly related thereto in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The processor is required to submit to the Director of the Area Office a certified statement of gross proceeds and the handling and delivery expenses on sugar and molasses where the agreement provides for the deduction of these expenses.

Consideration has been given to the recommendations and information submitted at the hearing, to the results of studies and investigations of the economic position of producers and processors, and to other pertinent factors. Analysis of the returns, costs, and profits of sugarcane production and processing, obtained by survey for prior years and restated in terms of prospective price and production conditions for the 1956 crop, indicates that the sharing relationships provided in this determination are fair and reasonable.

The rates for processing sugarcane which are specified in this determination have been developed by adjusting the indicated 1956 costs of producing and processing sugarcane under the various independent grower agreements to the toll agreement basis. These adjustments recognize the shifts in the costs of the handling and delivery of sugar and molasses from the processor to the producer and the additional costs incurred by the producer for changes in sugarcane delivery points. Furthermore, adjustments have been made in production costs whereby the producer assumes the costs of direct and appropriate overhead charges for labor, services, or materials furnished to him by the processor. Heretofore, some processors had not charged producers for all applicable overhead costs of such services. Adjustments have been made in the indicated 1956 processing costs to reflect the costs of services which are customarily recognized as part of processing costs or those costs with respect to which a proration between producers and processors is not practicable. Adjustments also were made in the costs of one processor to reflect the cost of insuring the sugarcane of the producer against loss by fire and for another processor to reflect the costs of unloading, weighing, and taring sugarcane at the mill. Under the proposed toll agreements submitted by these processors such costs would have been borne by the producer.

Recently data have become available covering the harvesting and transportation of sugarcane during the first four months of 1956 at one mill. The costs of these operations are considerably in excess of the cost estimates presented by this processor at the hearing, and in addition, the yields of sugar have declined. This situation appears attributable primarily to extremely unfavorable weather conditions which have prevailed during the early part of the year. The major impact of the cost increases affects producers, inasmuch as the sugarcane delivery point under the toll agreement is different from that under the former purchase agreement. Accordingly, adjustments have been made to take into account the results of these abnormal conditions even though it is expected that operations for the remainder of the year will substantially improve. These adjustments result in a lower rate for processing than would otherwise be indicated.

The rate for a profit charge on labor, material, and services furnished to producers by processors is not as high as that recommended by certain processors at the hearing. Heretofore, processors have furnished these items to producers without including a charge for profit. It is believed that the rate chargeable for profit is adequate to enable processors to continue to provide these necessary services to producers.

The sugarcane delivery points specified in this determination are deemed to be equitable and practical under current operating methods and provide for a measure of uniformity in establishing rates for processing.

The determination relates the gross proceeds from sugar and molasses to which the rate for processing applies to the applicable provisions of the Standard Sugar Marketing Contract as amended, effective July 1, 1955, and the Standard Molasses Marketing Contract as amended, effective January 1, 1952, both as submitted at the public hearing. Such contracts, under the provisions of the 1956 crop toll agreements, are to be entered into by the producer, or his agent, with the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, Ltd.

The determination provides that the price for sugarcane processed under an independent grower agreement by a processor who offers a 1956 crop toll agreement to producers, is to be not less than the price determined in accordance with the provisions of this determination applicable to the toll agreement specified herein for such processor. This provision establishes a uniform basis for payment to producers who deliver sugarcane to each of these processors under either type of agreement.

This determination requires that the processor compute net weights, tare, and quality of the sugarcane of the producer, and allocate sugar and molasses recoveries to the producer in accordance with customary practices. Further studies need to be made of these practices to provide more specific and uniform procedures in future price determinations.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing price determination will effectuate the price provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Suppl. 1]

PART 14—AIRCRAFT PROPELLER AIRWORTHINESS

Civil Aeronautics Manual 14 contains policies of the Civil Aeronautics Administration, listing design data required to be furnished by the manufacturer of propellers to obtain a type certificate. Recommended methods and procedures for testing and recording of tests required to show compliance with airworthiness regulations are also provided. Procedures for obtaining type certification of propellers manufactured for military use are included.

Civil Aeronautics Manual 14 is adopted to read as follows:

Sec.

14.1–1	Definitions.
14.14–1	Type design data.
14.14–2	Data required for military propellers.
14.16–1	Required tests.
14.16–2	Testing facilities.
14.16–3	Propeller operating limitations.
14.100–1	Design features.
14.103–1	Reversible propeller failure analysis.
14.150–1	Essential accessories.
14.151–1	Centrifugal load test.
14.153–1	Endurance test.
14.156–1	Teardown inspections.

AUTHORITY: §§ 14.1–1 to 14.156–1 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended, 1009, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553.

§ 14.1–1 Definitions (CAA policies which apply to § 14.1). Those technical terms used in the CAM material implementing this part which have special meanings are listed and defined as follows:

(1) Blade angle. This is the acute angle between the blade reference station airfoil section chord line and the plane of rotation. The blade reference station is normally located at 75 percent of the blade radius.

(2) Manifold pressure. The absolute pressure in inches of mercury in the intake manifold of the engine is the manifold pressure.

(3) Maximum continuous rating. This rating is composed of the power and r. p. m. limits for which the propeller is certificated for continuous operation.

(4) Pitch. The distance the propeller would advance in one revolution if it were moving along a helix having an angle equal to its blade angle is the geometric pitch of the blade.

(5) Power. This is the brake horsepower (b. hp.) delivered by the engine to the propeller.

(6) Shank. Shank is that portion of the blade which is used to attach the propeller blade to the hub. In the case of a fixed-pitch propeller, the term "shank" applies to that portion at which the blade fairs into the hub.

(7) Takeoff rating. This is a rating composed of the power and r. p. m. limits for which the propeller is certificated for takeoff.

§ 14.14–1 Type design data[1] (CAA policies which apply to § 14.14). The data specified in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section constitute the type design data which should be submitted in complying with § 14.14.[2]

(a) Parts list. No parts list need be submitted for fixed-pitch propellers. For all other type propellers, two copies of the parts list should be submitted, one copy of which, upon certification of the propeller, will be sealed and returned to the manufacturer.

(b) Drawings. (1) For fixed-pitch propellers, two sets of drawings should be submitted, one set of which will be sealed and returned to the manufacturer upon certification of the propeller.

(2) Only one set of drawings for propellers other than the fixed-pitch type should be submitted by the manufacturer.

(3) The following drawings should be submitted. Other drawings in lieu of those listed are acceptable provided they disclose the same information.

(i) Complete propeller assembly.
(ii) Hub assembly.
(iii) Hub.
(iv) Blade retention structural parts.
(v) Blade assembly.
(vi) Blade design (if not disclosed in the blade assembly drawing).
(vii) Pitch control assemblies (if not disclosed in the propeller or hub assembly drawings).
(viii) Schematic pitch control diagram.

[1] Vibration stress data is not acceptable for determining the airworthiness of a propeller with respect to power and r. p. m. ratings since vibratory stresses bear no relationship to the steady stresses present during operating conditions.

[2] The initial request for approval of a propeller should be accompanied by at least the drawings specified in § 14.14–1 (b) (3) (i), (vi), and (viii), stress analyses as discussed in § 14.14–1 (f) where applicable, and the proposed test program as specified in § 14.16–1.

(ix) Such other drawings as the Administrator may find necessary to determine compliance with the requirements of this part.

(c) Production specifications. (1) Specifications covering all materials used in the manufacture of the propellers.

(2) Specifications covering all processes used in the manufacture of the propellers.

(3) Military or SAE specifications need not be submitted, but should be referred to in all drawings and materials and process specifications where applicable.

(d) Type test report. The type test report, suitably identified by title and number and signed by a responsible representative of the applicant for the type certificate, should cover the items listed in this paragraph. The applicant's report number should appear on all pages of the report.

(1) Conclusions and/or recommendations for operating limitations, if any.

(2) Description of propeller, including all accessories, such as governor and synchronizer.

(3) Summary of test conditions and log. The report need not contain the complete test log.

(4) Calibration of test instruments when necessary.

(5) Test engine specification. At least enough information to unquestionably identify the engine, including such information as complete model number, takeoff and maximum continuous ratings and reduction gear ratio.

(6) Description of test setup if other than established test stand.

(7) Test irregularities, failures and forced stops due to the propeller.

(8) Description of the condition of the propeller at the teardown inspection, including the results of magnetic particle, dye penetrant, fluorescent penetrant and X-ray inspections.

(9) Changes in the propeller during testing and proposed changes as a result of testing.

(10) If the approved version of the propeller differs from the prototype (i. e., the test propeller) parts lists for both propellers should be included in the test report and appropriately identified.

(11) Photos of failed or worn parts of the test propeller. Photos of the assembled test propeller if it is unconventional or has special features. Photos of the test rig if other than established test stand.

(e) Other reports. The applicant should submit reports covering any special tests that may be required by § 14.155.

(f) Stress analysis. A stress analysis may be acceptable in lieu of type tests for a propeller which incorporates major components similar to those in an applicant's previously certificated propeller. The analysis should present a comparison of stresses in the new propeller to those in the older propeller.

(1) For a propeller which incorporates a hub similar to one previously certificated, and previously certificated blades, the analysis should include:

(i) Total bending moment and total centrifugal force which the blade imposes on the new hub and the old hub.

(2) For a propeller which incorporates blades similar to ones previously certificated, and a previously certificated hub and pitch changing mechanism, the analysis should include:

(i) Combined stresses for several stations along the blade for the new blade and the old blade.

(ii) Total centrifugal force twisting moments at representative blade angles for the new blades and the old blades to demonstrate the relative loading of the pitch change mechanism.

(iii) Total bending moment and total centrifugal force which the new blades and the old blades impose on the hub.

(g) Reversible propeller failure analysis. The failure analysis covered by § 14.103-1 should determine what types of failures or malfunctions are most likely to occur to all components of the reversing system, should disclose how such failures or malfunctions affect propeller pitch, and what design feature prevents unwanted travel of the propeller blades to a position substantially below the normal flight low pitch stop.

(h) Flight time data. Where acceptable in the type certification of a propeller, flight time data should include a copy of the flight log certified to by the person flying the aircraft, and a statement of the estimated number of hours operated both at the maximum continuous rating and at the takeoff rating. The data should also include the model designations of the aircraft, the engine, and the propeller.

(i) Referral to data previously submitted. In lieu of submitting all of the data required for a new approval, the applicant may refer to data previously submitted by him, or if he is the holder of a current right to the benefits of a previous approval or type certificate, he may refer to data previously submitted in connection with such approval or type certificate. In any case the applicant should identify the data referred to and establish that they are pertinent and equivalent to the data required for the new approval.

§ 14.14–2 Data required for military propellers (CAA policies which apply to § 14.14). In addition to data specified in § 14.14–1 (a), (b), (c), (e) and (g), the applicant should submit the data specified in either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this section.

(a) A copy of the official report which forms the basis of military approval.

(b) A letter from the military which includes the following information:

(1) Identification of the propeller.

(2) Identification of the engine upon which the endurance test was run.

(3) Duration and r. p. m. of overspeed test.

(4) Duration and rating at which the normal-rating endurance test was run.

(5) Duration and rating at which the flash performance endurance test was run.

(6) Number of pitch change cycles accomplished.

(7) Number of feathering cycles accomplished.
(8) Number of reversing cycles accomplished.
(9) Results of teardown inspection.
(10) Operating limitations if any.

§ 14.16–1 Required tests (CAA policies which apply to § 14.16). The applicant should submit for approval his proposed type test program. The data submitted should include:
(a) How each test will be conducted.
(b) Identification of propeller and accessories being tested.
(c) Identification of engine used.
(d) Location of tests and teardown inspection.

§ 14.16–2 Testing facilities (CAA policies which apply to § 14.16 (a)). The testing equipment available for conducting the tests specified in §§ 14.151 through 14.155 should be:
(a) An engine capable of developing at least the power and speed for which certification of the propeller is desired.
(b) A suitable engine mount.
(c) An accurate tachometer, which should be calibrated before and after testing or checked with a stopwatch and revolution counter during testing.
(d) A suitable manifold pressure gage if the test is not run at full throttle (not required for fixed-pitch wood propeller tests). The manifold pressure connection should be permanently located so that the manifold pressure is a uniform indication of power. All test values should be on a basis of dry absolute manifold pressure which is obtained by subtracting the vapor pressure from the observed absolute manifold pressure.

§ 14.16–3 Propeller operating limitations[3] (CAA policies which apply to § 14.16 (c)). (a) The following operating limitations will be established as determined from tests conducted for type certification:
(1) Maximum continuous power and r. p. m.
(2) Takeoff power and r. p. m.
(3) When applicable, avoidance of continuous operation at or between certain r. p. m.
(4) When applicable, special limitations imposed due to functional or structural considerations, such as minimum engine oil pressure necessary and life limit.
(b) Requests for increases in power and/or r. p. m. ratings up to a maximum of 10 percent above the values substantiated by actual tests, provided there are no structural changes in the propeller, should be accompanied by substantiating test data or stress analysis as covered in § 14.14–1 (e), (f) and (h). Requests for increases greater than 10 percent should be substantiated in a manner satisfactory to the Administrator.

§ 14.100–1 Design features (CAA policies which apply to § 14.100). Where applicable, the propeller should incorporate design features to comply with the requirements of pertinent portions of Parts 3 and 4b of this subchapter, regarding feathering and unfeathering, r. p. m. governing, de-icing, low pitch stops, r. p. m. and pitch controls, feathering controls, and reversing controls.

§ 14.103–1 Reversible propeller failure analysis. (CAA interpretations which apply to § 14.103). The words "reversing system" apply to the portion of the complete propeller reversing system incorporated into the propeller itself, and to the portions supplied by the applicant for installation into the aircraft. (For requirements with regard to the failure analysis, see § 14.14–1 (g)).

§ 14.150–1 Essential accessories (CAA policies which apply to § 14.150). All accessories and appurtenances intended for use with the propeller should be included in the tests required in §§ 14.153, 14.154 and 14.155. These accessories and appurtenances include, but are not limited to:
(a) Propeller spinner.
(b) Propeller brakes.
(c) Propeller cuffs or fairings.
(d) De-icing fluid slinger rings.
(e) De-icing fluid distributing strips.

§ 14.151–1 Centrifugal load test[4] (CAA policies which apply to § 14.151)—(a) Whirl test. The complete propeller, or the propeller hub with weighted stub blades, may be used in this test. If stub blades are used, they should produce the required centrifugal force at the test r. p. m. Any type of motive power may be used for this test. The propeller may be reduced in pitch any amount so as to reduce the power if desired.
(b) Static pull test. Stub blades used for this test need not be formed into airfoil sections, but should be flared out to provide adequate holding means to insure that any failure will occur in the blade retention arrangement.

§ 14.153–1 Endurance test (CAA policies which apply to § 14.153). Endurance block tests should take into account air temperature, barometric pressure, humidity, engine manifold pressure or torque meter or torque reaction stand readings, and engine r. p. m.
(a) Continuity of test. The endurance test may be continuous or in increments agreed upon between the propeller manufacturer and the Administrator.
(b) Power output. The engine power output should be at least equal to the manufacturer's official ratings (hp. and r. p. m.).
(1) The engine power output should be determined on torque reaction test stands, by calibrated propellers or by engine torque meters. If a torque reaction stand is not used, an engine torque meter should be used for power monitoring during the test.
(c) Forced stop. The test should be terminated upon evidence of any unusual vibration, hunting or noncontrollability of the propeller, a change in power or r. p. m. not attributable to general atmospheric conditions or any change in the readings descriptive of the propeller during the testing.
(1) The test should be terminated when any failure of the propeller or its essential accessories would result in an immediate forced landing of an aircraft. The failures should be corrected to the satisfaction of the Administrator before official type certification testing is resumed.
(2) The failure of the test stand equipment or engine accessories is not a forced stop.

§ 14.156–1 Teardown inspections (CAA policies which apply to § 14.156). The teardown inspection is one of the means for determining the airworthiness of the propeller and compliance with the requirements of this part. As a result of the inspection the Administrator may require such revisions to the design or additional tests to establish the airworthiness of the propeller before approving the issuance of a type certificate.
(a) Wood or composition propellers. Wood propellers or those with blades of composition or of other than conventional wood or metal construction should be thoroughly examined for evidence of loosened or excessively cracked tipping, opened glue joints, cracks in the wood, local failure or cracking around the hub bolt holes, and slipping or crushing around the shank. Some flexural cracks in the metal tipping is considered normal. Plastic covered propellers should be inspected for cracks in the covering which would indicate a cracked lamination or open glue joint. Failures of these types are cause for the refusal to issue a type certificate.
(b) Variable pitch propellers. No vital part of the propeller should bear evidence of fatigue cracks or wear which would necessitate altering or replacing such part. Wear measurements should be made on parts that are visibly unduly worn. All unduly worn or cracked parts should be photographed for further study in determining the airworthiness of the propeller. No parts of the propeller should show evidence of impending failure.
(c) Hub and control mechanism. All ferrous parts of the hub and control mechanism should be given a magnetic particle inspection. All aluminum parts should be carefully inspected for cracks by a suitable process such as etching, anodizing, fluorescent penetrant or dye penetrant.
(d) Aluminum alloy propellers and blades. Aluminum alloy propellers or propeller blades should be thoroughly inspected for cracks and material defects by a suitable process such as etching, anodizing, fluorescent penetrant or dye penetrants. Particular attention should be given to critical sections such as fillets and points of abrupt curvature. The blades should then be inspected for cracks with a 4 to 6 power magnifying glass.
(e) Steel blades. Hollow steel blades and solid steel blades should be given a thorough visual and magnetic inspection for cracks and material defects in accordance with the manufacturer's established procedures and specifications. The magnetic inspection should be made only by a highly skilled operator. Any magnetic indication should be discussed with a representative of the Administrator since such indication may warrant a complete metallurgical examination.

This supplement shall become effective August 20, 1956.

Acting Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

[3] The operating limitations together with diameter and pitch limits and general specifications for the propeller are published in the form of propeller specifications available free of charge from the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Aviation Information Office, W–47, Washington 25, D. C.

[4] So that it will not be necessary to repeat this test for new blade designs which would impose greater centrifugal loading on the retention system, it is suggested that the test selected be conducted at the greatest centrifugal loading anticipated.
The double centrifugal force loading for this test, the purpose of which is to substantiate the structural integrity of the blade retention arrangement, is based on the maximum continuous r. p. m. for which the propeller is to be certificated.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATION

The restricted area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Panel and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.21, the Savanna, Illinois, temporary area (R–498), published on December 13, 1955, in 20 F. R. 9301, is amended to make it a permanent area and by changing the "Time of Designation" column to read: "Continuous".

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective on July 15, 1956.

[SEAL] JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 6212]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

HENRY ROSENFELD, INC., ET AL.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Payment for services or facilities for processing or sale under 2 (d); § 13.824 Advertising expenses.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Henry Rosenfeld, Inc., et al., New York, N. Y., Docket 6212, June 21, 1956]

In the Matter of Henry Rosenfeld, Inc., a Corporation, and Henry Rosenfeld, Individually and as President of Henry Rosenfeld, Inc.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission, charging a corporation and its responsible officer—engaged in selling and distributing women's dresses from their place of business in New York City to retailers throughout the United States, with gross sales in each of the years 1949, 1950, and 1951 exceeding $10,000,000—with violating subsection 2 (d) of the Clayton Act as amended, through paying some of its customers credits or sums of money by way of promotional allowances for advertising amounting to 50 percent of the retailer's local advertising costs up to $1.00 per garment, while not making such credits or payments available to all other of their competing customers.

Following respondents' answer, hearings in due course, denial of respondents' motion to dismiss, filing of proposed findings of fact[1] and conclusions[1] by all counsel, the hearing examiner made his initial decision[1] and order to cease and desist, from which respondents appealed.

The Commission, after hearing the matter upon the record, including briefs and oral arguments of counsel, on June 21, 1956, rendered its decision denying the appeal and adopting as its decision the initial decision as modified by its opinion delivered by Commissioner Secrest.[1]

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents, Henry Rosenfeld, Inc., a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, and Henry Rosenfeld, individually and as president of Henry Rosenfeld, Inc., directly or through any corporate or other device, in or in connection with the sale of women's clothing in commerce, as commerce is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Making or contracting to make, to or for the benefit of any customer, any payment of anything of value as compensation or in consideration for any advertising or other services or facilities furnished by or through such customer, in connection with the handling, offering for resale, or resale of products sold to him by respondents, unless such payment is affirmatively offered or otherwise made available to all competing customers in amounts determined by the same percentage of the same measurable base.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist contained in the aforesaid initial decision.

Issued: June 21, 1956.

By the Commission.[2]

[SEAL] ROBERT M. PARRISH,
Secretary.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1312]

[M–013826 (S. D.)]

NORTH AND SOUTH DAKOTA

WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LANDS FOR USE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY IN CONNECTION WITH THE OAHE RESERVOIR PROJECT

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described public lands in North and South Dakota are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining and mineral-leasing laws, except for oil and gas, and reserved for use in connection with the Oahe Reservoir Project, under the supervision of the Department of the Army as authorized by the Flood Control Act of December 22, 1944 (58 Stat. 887):

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter E—Alaska Wildlife Protection

PART 46—TAKING ANIMALS, BIRDS, AND GAME FISHES

Basis and purpose. Section 9 of the Alaska Game Law of July 1, 1943, as amended (57 Stat. 306; 48 U. S. C. 198), authorizes and directs the Secretary of the Interior, from time to time, upon consultation with or recommendations from the Alaska Game Commission, to determine when, to what extent, and by what means, game animals, fur animals, game birds, nongame birds, and nests or eggs of birds, and game fishes may be taken, possessed, transported, bought or sold in the Territory of Alaska, and to adopt suitable regulations permitting and governing such activities in accordance with such determinations.

By Notice of Proposed Rule Making published on February 1, 1956 (21 F. R. 698), the public was notified of a hearing to be held by the Alaska Game Commission in Juneau, Alaska, on February 13, 1956, and was afforded an opportunity to present views, data or arguments with respect to amendments to Part 46, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, to be proposed for the purpose of specifying open seasons, means of taking, bag and possession limits, and other conditions to govern the taking of game and fur animals, birds, and game fishes in Alaska. The public was also invited to submit written views with respect to these matters to John L. Farley, Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., on or before February 20, 1956.

Investigations by the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Alaska Game Commission, and personal observations of citizens and agencies within the Territory of Alaska, indicate that changing conditions within the Territory, including changes in both human and wildlife populations, require a further protection to wildlife in some instances and permit some relaxation of regulatory protection in other instances. Following the public hearings held at Juneau and elsewhere in the Territory on proposed amendments to existing regulations and after giving due consideration to all relevant matters presented in response to the Notice of Proposed Rule Making, the Commission has recommended a number of substantive changes in the regulations to conserve the game resources of the Territory and at the same time permit such utilization of these resources as is consistent with the preservation of breeding stocks of game and fur animals, birds, and game fishes.

The complete text of the regulations in Part 46, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, was last published in a single document, pursuant to the Federal Register Act, on May 11, 1949 (14 F. R. 2442, 2501). Since that date portions of the regulations have been substantially amended at least once each year, certain section headings and numbers have been revised and redesignated, changes in format have been accomplished, and various other changes have been effected which occasion difficulty in codifying and interpreting the regulations which are presently applicable. To obviate this difficulty and in order to combine the numerous amendments to the part in a single document the revision of Part 46 set forth below has been adopted. This revision incorporates the substantive changes recommended by the Alaska Game Commission, contains minor editorial changes, and changes the titles of various officers referred to in the regulations to conform to the present organization of the Fish and Wildlife Service in Alaska.

Part 46 is completely revised and republished to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 46.1 Meaning of terms. For purposes of the regulations in this part, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this section.

(a) Territory. Territory of Alaska.

(b) Commission. The Alaska Game Commission.

(c) Secretary. The Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

(d) Director. Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior.

(e) Administrator. Administrator, Alaska Wildlife Resources.

(f) Person. Individual, club, association, partnership or corporation, any one or all, as the context requires.

(g) Indians. Natives of one-half or more Indian blood.

(h) Eskimos. Natives of one-half or more Eskimo blood.

(i) Take. Taking, pursuing, disturbing, hunting, capturing, trapping, or killing game animals, fur animals, game or nongame birds, or game fishes; attempting to take, pursue, disturb, hunt, capture, trap, or kill such animals, birds, or game fishes, or setting or using a net, trap, or other device for taking them, or collecting the nests or eggs of such birds, unless the context otherwise requires. Whenever the taking of animals, birds, or nests or eggs of birds, or game fishes is permitted, reference is had to taking by lawful means and in lawful manner.

(j) Open season. The time during which animals, birds, or game fishes may lawfully be taken. Each period of time prescribed as an open season shall be construed to include the first and last days thereof. Whenever the word year is used in the regulations in this part it shall mean the year from July 1 to June 30 of the following year.

(k) Closed season. The time during which animals, birds, or game fishes may not be taken.

(l) Transport. Shipping, transporting, carrying, importing, exporting, or receiving or delivering for shipment, transportation, carriage, or export, unless the context otherwise requires.

(m) Big-game animals. Deer, moose, caribou, elk, mountain sheep, mountain goat, bison, muskox, and the large brown, grizzly, and black bears.

(n) Small-game animals. Hare and rabbit.

(o) Fur animals. Beaver, muskrat, marmot, raccoon, pika, squirrel, fisher, fox, lynx, marten or sable, mink, weasel or ermine, sea otter, land otter, wolverine, coyote, wolf, and polar bear, excepting therefrom domestically raised animals. Fur animals which have escaped from captivity and which are not recaptured within a period of thirty days after the discovery of the escape shall be deemed to have reverted to a natural and undomesticated state.

(p) Game birds. Anatidae, commonly known as waterfowl, including ducks, geese, brant, and swans: Haematopodidae, Charadriidae, Scolopacidae, and Phalaropodidae, commonly known as shorebirds, including oyster-catchers, plovers, sandpipers, snipe, curlew, and phalaropes; Gruidae, commonly known as cranes; and the several species of grouse and ptarmigan, and such other birds as have been or may hereafter be transplanted, introduced, or reintroduced into the Territory, or any part thereof, and found and declared by the Secretary to be game birds.

(q) Nongame birds. All wild birds except game birds.

(r) Game fishes. Rainbow, steelhead, cutthroat, Mackinaw or lake trout, eastern brook, and Dolly Varden trout, and grayling, and such other fishes as the Secretary may declare, from time to time, to be game fishes.

(s) Resident. A citizen or a national of the United States who has maintained a bona fide residence in the Territory for a period of twelve months, three years in the case of trapping, immediately preceding his claim for resident hunting, trapping, fishing, or other privileges under this part, or a foreign-born person not a citizen or a national of the United States who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and who has resided in the Territory for the required period, shall be considered a resident; but if such a foreign-born person shall not have been admitted to citizenship within seven years from the date he first declared his intention to become a citizen, he shall thereafter be deemed to be an alien until admitted to citizenship. Accumulated periods of residence in Alaska while engaged in seasonal activities do not qualify for resident privileges.

(t) Nonresident. A citizen or a national of the United States who has not maintained a bona fide residence in the Territory for a period of twelve months or for the extended period of three years, as the case may be, immediately preceding his claim for resident privileges, shall be considered a nonresident.

(u) Alien. Any person not a citizen or a national of the United States and who is not a resident or a nonresident of the Territory, as defined herein.

(v) Camp. An erected structure providing overnight shelter and equipped with bedding and messing facilities for the occupants.

(w) Yearly bag limit. The greatest number of a species permitted to be taken during the current license year (July 1 to June 30) in any area designated in this part as open to hunting or trapping.

(x) Highway. Any road supported or maintained by a governmental agency.

(y) Fawn deer. Spotted young deer of the year.

(z) Antlerless deer. Deer of either sex without antlers or having antlers not more than three inches in length (but not including fawns).

(aa) Wildlife Management Units. The twenty-six geographical divisions of the Territory described as follows:

Unit 1, Southeast Mainland. The southeast Alaska mainland from Dixon Entrance to Cape Fairweather and those islands lying east of Clarence Strait from Dixon Entrance to Caamano Point and all islands in Stephens Pass and Lynn Canal north of Taku Inlet.

Unit 2, Prince of Wales. Prince of Wales and all adjacent islands bounded by a line from Dixon Entrance in the center of Clarence, Kashevarof, and Sumner Straits, to and including Warren Island, in southeastern Alaska.

Unit 3, Petersburg-Wrangell. Coronation, Kuiu, Kupreanof, Mitkof, Zarembo, Kashevarof, Woronkofski, Etolin, Wrangell, Deer and all adjacent islands in southeastern Alaska.

Unit 4, Admiralty-Baranof-Chichagof. Admiralty, Baranof, Chichagof, Yakobi, Inian, Lemesurier, Pleasant, and adjacent islands in southeastern Alaska.

Unit 5, Yakutat. The mainland drainage into the Gulf of Alaska between Cape Fairweather and Icy Cape.

Unit 6, Cordova-Valdez. That area draining into the Gulf of Alaska and Prince William Sound between Icy Cape and Cape Fairfield but not extending above Miles Glacier on the Copper River; and Kayak, Hinchinbrook, Montague and adjacent islands.

Unit 7, Seward. That part of the Kenai Peninsula which drains into the Gulf of Alaska between Pt. Fairfield and Pt. Gore; the drainage into the Kenai River upstream from the Chugach National Forest boundary and the drainage into Turnagain Arm east of the Chugach National Forest boundary to and including the Placer River drainage near Portage.

Unit 8, Kodiak-Shelikof. Kodiak, Afognak, Chirikof, the Semidi and all their adjacent offshore islands and that part of the Alaska Peninsula which drains into the Pacific Ocean between Cape Douglas to but not including Kujulik Bay; and adjacent islands.

Unit 9, Alaska Peninsula. That part of the Alaska Peninsula and adjacent mainland, which drains into the Pacific Ocean from and including Kujulik Bay to False Pass and into Bristol Bay from False Pass to Etolin Point on the eastern entrance to Nushagak Bay.

Unit 10, Aleutian Islands. The Aleutian Islands.

Unit 11, Wrangell Mts.-Chitina River. That area draining into the headwaters of the Copper River above the mouth of the Slana River and the area drained by all tributaries into the east bank of the Copper River between the mouth of the Slana River and Miles Glacier.

Unit 12, Upper Tanana-White River. That area drained by the Tanana River and tributaries upstream from the east bank of the Robertson River to the Alaska-Canada boundary and the White River and tributaries lying within Alaska.

Unit 13, Nelchina-Upper Susitna. That area westerly of the east bank of the Copper River and drained by all tributaries into the west bank of the Copper River from Miles Glacier to and including the Slana River; the drainage into the Delta River upstream from Clear Creek and Black Rapids Glacier; the drainage into the Nenana River upstream from the southeast corner of Mt. McKinley National Park near Windy; the drainages into the Susitna and Chulitna Rivers upstream from their junction; the drainage into the north bank of the Talkeetna River; and the drainages into the Matanuska and Chickaloon Rivers above their junction.

Unit 14, Anchorage. That area draining into the north side of Turnagain Arm west of the Placer River drainage; into Knik Arm except from above the junction of the Matanuska and Chickaloon Rivers; into the head of Cook Inlet east of the Susitna River, and into all tributaries into the east bank of the Susitna River upstream to the north bank of the Talkeetna River.

Unit 15, Kenai. That part of the Kenai Peninsula draining into the Gulf of Alaska, Cook Inlet and Turnagain Arm from Pt. Gore to the Chugach National Forest boundary near Big Indian Creek and the drainage into the Kenai River downstream from the Chugach National Forest boundary.

Unit 16, Lower Susitna. That area draining into the west side of Cook Inlet from Cape Douglas northward to and including the Susitna River and its drainage from the west upstream to its junction with the Chulitna River.

Unit 17, Bristol Bay. That part of the mainland draining into Bristol Bay between Etolin Pt. west to Cape Newenham.

Unit 18, Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta. That area draining into the Yukon and Kuskokwim Rivers downstream from the Paimiut-Kalskag portage and into all streams flowing into the Bering Sea from Cape Newenham on the south to and including the Pastolik River drainage on the north; Nunivak and adjacent islands.

Unit 19, McGrath. All of the drainage into the Kuskokwim River upstream from the Paimiut-Kalskag portage.

Unit 20, Fairbanks-Central Tanana. That area drained by the Tanana River and tributaries downstream from the east bank of the Robertson River to the east banks of the Toklat and lower Kantishna Rivers on the south, and to and including the Tolovana River drainage on the north but not including the headwater portions of the Nenena and Delta Rivers described as part of Unit 13; and the Ladue and Fortymile River drainages within Alaska.

Unit 21, Middle Yukon. That area draining into the Yukon River from the Paimiut-Kalskag portage upstream to but not including the Hess Creek drainage; the Koyukuk River upstream to and including the Dubil River drainage; and the Tanana River upstream to the Tolovana River drainage on the north and to the east banks of the lower Kantishna and Toklat Rivers on the south.

Unit 22, Nome. That part of the Seward Peninsula and adjacent mainland drained by all streams flowing into Kotzebue Sound, Bering Strait, and Norton Sound from but not including the Goodhope River drainage on the north to but not including the Pastolik River drainage on the south; King, Little Diomede, St. Lawrence, Sledge, Stuart, and adjacent islands.

Unit 23, Kotzebue Sound. That area drained by all streams flowing into the Arctic Ocean and Kotzebue Sound from Cape Lisburne on the north to and including the drainage into the Goodhope River on the south.

Unit 24, Koyukuk. That area drained by the Koyukuk River and tributaries upstream from but not including the Dubil River drainage.

Unit 25, Fort Yukon. The drainage into the Yukon River upstream from and including the Hess Creek drainage to the Alaska-Canada boundary.

Unit 26, Arctic Slope. That area drained by all streams and rivers flowing into the Arctic Ocean between Cape Lisburne and the Alaska-Canada boundary; and the Firth River drainage lying within Alaska.

LICENSES

§ 46.6 General provisions. Except as permitted in § 46.51, no person shall take, possess or transport game animals, wild fur animals (other than wolves and coyotes), game birds, or game fishes, or purchase or sell wild fur animals or parts thereof, or act as a guide in the Territory, unless he is in possession of a valid license, as required by the Alaska Game Law and regulations of the Commission thereunder (Part 161 of this chapter), bearing his signature written in ink on the face thereof, and he shall have his license on his person when taking such animals, birds, or fishes, or when acting as a guide, and shall produce it for inspection by any game management agent or other authorized person requesting to see it.

§ 46.7 Application. Each application for a license shall be made on the form prescribed by the Commission and if the application is made by mail it shall be accompanied by a bank draft or an express or postal money order payable to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service for the amount of the license fee.

§ 46.8 Exemptions. No license shall be required of native Indians and Eskimos, or of residents under the age of sixteen.

PERMITTED FOOD AND CLOTHING USES

§ 46.11 Emergency use. An explorer, prospector, traveler, Indian or Eskimo may, when in need thereof and other sufficient food is not available, take animals, birds (except migratory birds), or game fishes in any part of the Territory at any time for food; but he shall not transport or sell any animal, bird, game fish, or part thereof so taken.

§ 46.12 Native use. An Indian or Eskimo may take, possess, and transport, at any time, auks, auklets, guillemots, murres, and puffins, and their eggs for food, and their skins for clothing, for his own use and that of his immediate family.

ESCAPED ANIMALS AND BIRDS

§ 46.21 Pursuit of escaped animals and birds. Operators of licensed fur farms or game farms from which fur or game animals and game birds escape from captivity may conduct operations for the recapture of such escaped animals or birds through the use of legal trapping devices within a period of thirty days after the discovery of the escape. If such operations are conducted during the closed season on wild animals or birds of the same species, such operators shall immediately notify the nearest game management agent, in writing, of the numbers and kinds of escaped animals or birds, the kinds of devices being used in recapturing operations, and the locality where such operations are being conducted.

INSPECTIONS AND REPORTS [1]

§ 46.31 Inspections. Each fur dealer, including Indian or Eskimo cooperative stores operated exclusively by and for native Indians or Eskimos, and stores operated by missions exclusively for native Indians or Eskimos, shall allow any member of the Commission, any game management agent, or any authorized employee of the Department of the Interior to enter at all reasonable hours and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under the Alaska Game Law and the regulations thereunder, and to inspect the books and records relating thereto.

§ 46.32 Reports by fur dealers. Each fur dealer, including Indian or Eskimo cooperative stores operated exclusively by and for native Indians or Eskimos, and stores operated by missions exclusively for native Indians or Eskimos, shall keep records showing the number and kind of each fur purchased or procured, the names of the persons from whom purchased and to whom sold, data of purchase or sale, name of trapper and his license number, and shall, on or before thirty days after the expiration of his license, make a written report to the Commission on a form furnished by it setting forth in full such data.

[1] The record-keeping requirements contained in the regulations in this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 46.33 Reports by hunters and trappers. Each person taking animals or birds in the Territory shall keep records to show the kind and number of each species taken, and shall, at the time of renewal of his license, make a written report to the Commission of all game taken on a form furnished for that purpose.

§ 46.34 Records retention period. The records required to be maintained for the purpose of making reports under the regulations in this part shall be retained by the person or persons responsible for their preparation and maintenance for a period of six months following the date on which such reports are submitted.

POSSESSION AND TRANSPORTATION

§ 46.41 General provisions. Game animals, wild fur animals, game birds, and game fishes, and parts thereof, taken in conformity with the season and bag and possession limits prescribed by the regulations in this part, and articles manufactured from such animals, birds, and fishes may be possessed within the Territory by any person, at any time, and may be transported within and exported out of the Teritory by any person, at any time, subject to the following restrictions and limitations:

(a) Limitations with respect to animals killed to protect life or property. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to authorizd the possession or transportation of game animals or wild fur animals killed in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in this part to prevent injury to persons or damage to livestock, poultry, or other property, and the skins or hides, and carcasses of any such animals so killed shall be surrendered upon demand to any game management agent or other official authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law.

(b) Possession of game. No person may possess any dead game animal, game bird, game fish, or part thereof, not legally taken by himself unless he furnishes upon request of any official authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law, a written statement of the name, address, and license or permit number of the person from whom such animal, bird, fish, or part thereof, was obtained.

(c) Evidence of sex and identity. (1) No person shall possess or transport any dead mountain goat or mountain sheep unless the horns accompany such animal.

(2) Whenever the taking of any big-game animal is restricted to the male sex during all or a portion of an open season, no person shall possess or transport the carcass of any big-game animal (irrespective of the time when taken) which does not have sufficient portions of the sex organs attached to indicate conclusively the sex of the animal. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall apply to the carcass of any big-game animal which has been cut and placed in storage for preservation, or otherwise prepared for consumption, upon arrival at the location where it is to be consumed.

(d) Fur dealers. No fur dealer shall possess or transport the skin of any wild fur animal, or part thereof, unless at the time of such possession or transportation he is licensed to carry on such business.

(e) Beaver skins. No skins of beavers, whether taken within or without the Territory shall be exported from the Territory until the same have been sealed with a Commission-prescribed seal, or possessed or transported by any person within the Territory until the same have been tagged or sealed with a Commission-prescribed tag or seal, except that persons taking beaver within the Territory may possess the untagged or unsealed skins thereof, during the open season therefor and for thirty days thereafter, and within the same period may transport the same untagged or unsealed for the purpose of having them tagged or sealed by a game management agent or other officer authorized by the Commission.

(f) Transportation of skins. Where skins of wild fur animals, black bear, hare or rabbit, or parts thereof, are shipped out of the Territory the shipper shall, if shipment is by express or freight, first deliver to the common, contract or private carrier, or his transportation agent at the point of shipment, or if by parcel post, to the postmaster at the point of mailing, a statement on a form prescribed by the Commission clearly showing the number and kind of skins in each shipment and declaring that no illegal skin or unsealed beaver skin is contained therein. Such statements shall be promptly forwarded to the Commission by the carrier, transportation agent or postmaster receiving them. Where such skins are transported out of the Territory by means other than express, freight, or parcel post the person transporting them shall make and forward a like statement to the Commission immediately prior to exporting such skins.

(g) Export permits. No person shall export from the Territory any game animal, game bird, trophy therefrom, or other part thereof, except in accordance with the terms of an export permit issued under the direction of the Executive Officer of the Commission. Such permit shall be obtainable from any game management agent or other officer designated by the Commission, upon payment of a fee of fifty cents (50¢), for each animal, bird, trophy therefrom, or other part thereof, and the Commission tags furnished with such permit shall be securely attached on the outside of each package in the shipment by the shipper at the point of origin and accompany it to final destination: Provided, That a licensed nonresident or alien hunter shall be permitted to export lawfully taken game birds and small-game animals, and not exceeding one season's bag limit, as applied to nonresidents or aliens, of big-game animals and polar bear by first obtaining from any game management agent or other officer designated by the Commission a permit to export same, for which no additional fee will be charged.

(h) Marking of packages. No package containing game animals, game birds, game fishes, parts thereof, or articles manufactured therefrom, shall be possessed or transported unless it has clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and an accurate and detailed statement of its contents and, if exported, the number and kind of permit as required by paragraph (g) of this section.

(i) Bald eagles. No bald eagle, part, nest or egg thereof may be exported to the United States or any of its territories except under permit authorized by the Act of June 8, 1940 (54 Stat. 250; 16 U. S. C. 668).

(j) Migratory birds. The possession and transportation of migratory birds are subject to such additional restrictions as may be imposed by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act regulations (Part 6 of this chapter).

(k) Duties of transportation agents. No common, contract or private carrier or transportation agent shall transport or accept for transportation out of the Territory, any game animals or game birds, or parts thereof, to which the Commission tags required by paragraph (g) of this section have not been attached, or any skins of wild fur animals, black bear, hare or rabbit, unless accompanied by the statement required by paragraph (f) of this section, which statement shall be promptly forwarded to the Commission. Such carrier or agent shall record the Commission tag numbers upon the shipping documents or other permanent records accompanying shipments of game animals or game birds, or parts thereof.

PURCHASE AND SALE

§ 46.51 General provisions. Purchases or sales of the following designated parts or products of game and fur animals, and game fishes may be made by any person, other than a fur dealer, without a permit or license, and by any fur dealer holding a valid fur dealer license.

(a) Skins, hides, and meat. Tagged or sealed skins of beaver; skins of other fur animals; skins of black bear; hides of deer, moose, and caribou; and the meat and skins of hare and rabbit.

(b) Manufactured articles. Articles manufactured from the hides and hoofs of moose, caribou, deer, and mountain goat, and from the skins of black bear.

(c) Shed antlers. Shed antlers of deer, moose, and caribou.

(d) Strips of grizzly bear hides. In Units 18, 22, 23, and 26, parka hood trimmings cut from hides of grizzly bear in strips not to exceed 4 inches in width.

(e) Steelhead trout. Steelhead trout taken in salt water incidental to commercial salmon-fishing operations.

(f) Dolly Varden trout and Mackinaw or lake trout. Dolly Varden trout taken in salt water and Dolly Varden and Mackinaw or lake trout taken in conformity with the provisions of § 46.121 (b).

(g) Trout reared in captivity. Trout reared in captivity for food purposes on commercial fish farms within the Territory under permits issued pursuant to § 46.151 and trout so reared outside of and shipped into the Territory: Provided, That such trout must be accompanied by an invoice or bill of sale showing the names and addresses of the buyer and seller, date of sale, and the total weight and number of each species in each lot of such fish.

LIVE ANIMALS, BIRDS, AND FISHES

§ 46.61 Restrictions with respect to live animals, birds, and fishes. No game or fur animals, game or nongame birds, or game fishes shall be taken alive, possessed, or transported except in accordance with the terms of a permit issued pursuant to § 46.161, but this section shall not preclude the importation, possession, or transportation of nongame birds in accordance with Part 9 of this chapter.

METHODS, SEASONS, AND LIMITS

§ 46.71 General provisions. The game and fur animals, game and nongame birds, and game fishes on which open seasons are prescribed in the succeeding sections of this part may be taken during such open seasons (dates inclusive), by the methods and means, in the designated open areas, and in numbers not exceeding the limits prescribed therefor, but not at any other time, by any other method, aid, or means; nor in any other areas or numbers: Provided, That no person while on any railroad or highway or within 100 feet of the centerline of any highway shall take any such birds or animals (except wolves and coyotes); nor shall such birds or animals (except wolves and coyotes) be taken from, on, or across any railroad or from, on, across, or within 100 feet of the centerline of any highway: Provided further, That when any person shall have taken game or fur animals equal to the yearly bag limit prescribed for any of the designated open areas within the Territory, he shall not again hunt or trap for the species so taken except in a designated open area where a greater yearly bag limit on such species is prescribed; and in no event shall the cumulative numbers of the species taken by him exceed the yearly bag limit prescribed for the respective area in which the additional game or fur animals are taken.

GAME ANIMALS

§ 46.81 Methods and means. Game animals may be taken only with a shotgun (not larger than No. 10 gauge and not capable of holding more than three shells), rifle or pistol (except those using rim-fire cartridges), or bow and arrow; but not with aid or use of a dog, machine or submachine gun, set gun of any description, or spear, pit, deadfall, fire, jacklight, searchlight or other artificial light, two-way radio communications, or artificial salt licks, or from or by means or aid of an aircraft, motor vehicle, motorboat, or any other boat except that propelled by paddle, oars, or pole; nor while such animals are swimming: Provided, That rabbits may be taken by snares not larger than No. 1, by rifles and pistols using rim-fire cartridges, and with the aid of a dog: Provided further, That no aircraft or motordriven vehicle shall be used for the purpose of driving, herding, or molesting big-game animals: And provided further, That no helicopter shall be used in any manner in the taking or transportation of game animals.

§ 46.82 Seasons, limits and other provisions. The open seasons (dates inclusive), bag limits, and other provisions applicable to the taking of game animals shall be as prescribed annually in § 46.201.

FUR ANIMALS

§ 46.91 Methods and means. Fur animals may be taken by any means except by aid or use of a set gun, a shotgun, artificial light of any kind, a steel bear trap or other trap with jaws having a spread exceeding 9 inches, poison, a dog, a fish trap or net, by setting any trap or snare within 25 feet of a beaver house or den or within 100 feet of a fox den, by use of smoke or chemicals, by destroying or disturbing houses, dens, dams, or runways of such animals: Provided, That mink and beaver may be taken only by means of a steel trap or snare only by persons who have attained the age of 11 years: Provided further, That snares larger than No. 1 are prohibited on the Kenai Peninsula, except in the taking of beaver: Provided further, That wolves and coyotes may be killed at any time by means of a bow and arrow, rifle, shotgun, or pistol, by any person permitted to carry firearms: Provided further, That no aircraft shall be used in taking fur animals, except as a means of transportation between a settlement or point of outfitting and a single base camp, and for locating, but not for taking, polar bear, and for the taking of wolves and coyotes by authorized predator-control agents or by persons conducting operations under authority of a permit: Provided further, That no helicopter shall be used in any manner in the taking or transportation of fur animals, including polar bear: And provided further, That land otter may not be taken with steel traps smaller than size 48 during any closed season on mink or marten within the same unit.

§ 46.92 Permits to set traps during closed season on certain fur animals. During the closed season on mink, land otter, weasel, fox, wolverine, lynx and marten, in the respective units, no person shall set, maintain, or attend traps for wolves or coyotes, or other fur animals upon which there is no closed season, without first procuring a permit issuable at the discretion of the Commission, authorizing him to do so. Applications for such permits shall be addressed to the nearest Fish and Wildlife Service field office and shall contain a statement of the nature, extent, and locality of the proposed operation and the species of animals to be taken.

GAME BIRDS

§ 46.101 Methods and means. Grouse and ptarmigan only may be taken with a shotgun (not larger than No. 10 gauge and not capable of holding more than 3 shells), rifle, pistol, bow and arrow, or spear, or with the aid of a dog, but not from or by means of a motor vehicle. Any game bird protected under the provisions of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918, as amended, may be taken only in the manner, by the means, and at the times or places permitted by the regulations of the Secretary adopted pursuant to the terms of that act.

§ 46.102 Seasons, limits, and other provisions. The open seasons (dates inclusive), bag limits, and other provisions applicable to the taking of game birds shall be as prescribed annually in § 46.301.

NONGAME BIRDS

§ 46.111 Methods and means. Nongame birds on which open seasons are prescribed in § 46.112 may be taken by any means except by the use of poison.

§ 46.112 Species, seasons, and limits. A continuously open season, with no limit on the numbers which may be taken, is prescribed on the following nongame birds and their nests and eggs: Crows, hawks, owls, golden eagles, ravens, magpies, and cormorants.

§ 46.113 Bald eagles. No open season. Bald eagles may be killed only when committing damage to fishes, other wildlife, domestic birds, and animals. No bald eagle so killed, or the carcass or any part thereof, including feathers, may be possessed or transported for any purpose.

GAME FISHES

§ 46.121 Methods and means. (a) Except as permitted in paragraph (b) of this section, game fishes may be taken only by angling with a single line held in the hand or attached to a rod so held, or fixed within sight of the owner when used for angling through the ice (in which case the fixed line shall be clearly marked with the name and address of the operator), but no line shall at any time have attached to it more than two flies or hooks, nor more than on plug, spoon, or spinner: Provided, That the use of snag or gang hooks is prohibited: Provided further, That Dolly Varden and Mackinaw or lake trout may be taken by use of gill net, trap or seine in all drainages into the Arctic Ocean north of Cape Krusenstern and in salt water; but no game fish may be taken by any means within 300 feet of any operating fish weir or fish ladder; nor in those portions of the lower Russian and Kenai Rivers which lie within 300 yards of the mouth of the lower Russian River; nor in waters where game-fish planting or restocking is being conducted and such waters are so designated by appropriately posted Alaska Game Commission signs.

(b) Commercial fishing for Dolly Varden and Mackinaw or lake trout may be conducted during the period December 1 through April 30 in the waters of Iliamna, Ugashik, and Becharof Lakes and their outlet rivers, the Nushagak and Chilkat river drainages, and in such additional waters as may be designated, from time to time, by the Director upon recommendation of the Commission, and announced by him through suitable publication subject to the following terms, conditions, and restrictions:

(1) Such fish may be taken by use of gill net, trap, or seine, but they may not be taken by any means within 300 feet of any operating fish weir or fish ladder.

(2) In addition to such fishing license as may be required by the regulations in this part or by other law, every person conducting operations under this paragraph shall possess a special commercial fishing permit issued without charge by the Administrator, and shall produce said permit for inspection by any member of the Commission, any game management agent, or any authorized employee of the Department of the Interior.

(3) Every person engaging in commercial-fishing operations in accordance with this paragraph shall maintain accurate records showing the numbers of each species of trout taken, the dates taken, and the names and addresses of the persons to whom sold or other means of disposition of trout so taken. Such records shall be preserved for a period of six months following the close of the commercial-fishing season prescribed in this paragraph and shall be produced at any reasonable time for inspection by any officer authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law.

(4) Every person who shall sell Dolly Varden and Mackinaw or lake trout taken in accordance with this paragraph shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of sale an invoice or bill of sale showing the names and addresses of the buyer and seller, date of sale, and the numbers of each species of trout sold. Such invoice or bill of sale shall constitute authority for the use, possession, resale, or transportation, within or without the Territory, of the trout therein described.

(c) The Director may shorten the commercial-fishing season prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section and impose further restrictions on the means, methods, and areas of fishing and on the catch of trout otherwise permitted to be taken thereunder whenever he shall determine that such measures are necessary to prevent undue depletion of game fishes. Any shortening of the season or restriction on the means and methods of fishing or on the catch of fish to be taken shall be effected through publication of an appropriate announcement in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 46.122 Seasons, limits, and other provisions. The open seasons (dates inclusive), bag limits, and other provisions applicable to the taking of designated species of game fishes shall be as prescribed annually in § 46.351.

RESERVES

§ 46.131 National park or national monument. Any national park or national monument is closed to the taking of all species of animals and birds except that (subject to laws and regulations applicable to areas administered by the National Park Service) specimens of animal life may be collected for scientific or educational purposes under permits issued as hereinafter provided in this part.

§ 46.132 Reserves continuously closed on all animals and birds; exceptions. A continuously closed season, except for scientific purposes when authorized by a permit issued in accordance with § 46.161, is prescribed on all species of game and fur animals, except wolves and coyotes, and on game and nongame birds in the following described reserves:

Birch Lake Reserve (near Fairbanks). On and within ½ mile of Birch Lake.

Eklutna Lake Reserve (near Anchorage). The entire drainage into Eklutna Lake and the Eklutna River above the mouth of Thunderbird Creek.

Harding Lake Reserve (near Fairbanks). On and within ½ mile of Harding or Salchaket Lake.

Highway Reserve. The area within 100 feet of the centerline of all highways.

Rainbow Reserve. The entire drainage into Turnagain Arm from the Potter Railroad station to the Alaska Railroad—Seward-Anchorage Highway crossing near Girdwood.

Tongass National Forest Reserve. Ward Lake area as described and posted by the U. S. Forest Service.

University of Alaska Reserve. Posted lands in the vicinity of the University of Alaska, the College and Farmers' Loop Roads, and the Steese Highway, within Secs. 27, 28, 29, 31, 33, 34, and 35, Twp. 1 N., R. 1; Sec. 36, Twp. 1 N., R. 2; Sec. 6, Twp. 1 S., R. 1; and Sec. 1, Twp. 1 S., R. 2; all west of the Fairbanks Meridian.

§ 46.141 Reserves continuously closed to the taking of designated game and fur animals and game birds. A continuously closed season, except for scientific or propagating purposes when authorized by permits issued in accordance with § 46.161, is prescribed for the designated species of game and fur animals and game birds in the following described reserves:

Anan Creek Reserve (in Unit 1). The drainage of Anan Creek on the Cleveland Peninsula. (Closed on black bear.)

Cooper Landing Reserve. Beginning at the Forest Service trail from Kenai Lake and running to Cooper Lake and following this trail to its confluence with upper Russian Lake; thence downstream along upper and lower Russian Lakes and Russian River to its confluence with Kenai River; thence north along the National Forest boundary line to Chickaloon River; thence easterly to Summit Lake on the Seward-Anchorage Highway; thence southerly and westerly along the Seward-Anchorage Highway and Kenai River Highway to Kenai Lake; thence southerly along the west side of Kenai Lake to the place of beginning. (Closed on mountain goat and mountain sheep.)

Denali Reserve. That part of Unit 13 lying north of the Denali Highway from and including the McClaren River drainage to a point 10 miles east of Cantwell. (Closed on all big-game animals.)

Eagle River Reserve (near Anchorage). The entire watershed of Eagle River upstream from the Anchorage-Palmer Highway. (Closed on mountain goat and mountain sheep.)

Juneau Reserve. The strip within ¼ mile of the mainland coast between Thane and Eagle River (near Juneau). (Closed on all fur animals.)

Kenai Peninsula Highway Reserve. A strip ½ mile wide on each side of all highways on the Kenai Peninsula. (Closed on all big-game animals.)

McNeil River Reserve (in Kamishak Bay). The entire watershed of McNeil River which empties into the head of Kamishak Bay in lower Cook Inlet. (Closed on brown and grizzly bear.)

Mitkof Island Reserve. From the steamer channel in Wrangell Narrows on the west, including that portion of Mitkof Island draining into Wrangell Narrows and Frederick Sound from Blind Point on the south to and including Sandy Beach on the north. (Closed on game animals, game birds, and beaver.)

Hayes; thence to a point on the Big Delta River due west of Donnelly Roadhouse; thence northerly along the west bank of the Big Delta River to the Tanana River; thence following the south bank of the Tanana River to the point of beginning. (Closed on all game animals, except black bear, hare and rabbit.)

Pack Creek Reserve (on Admiralty Island). The entire watershed of Pack Creek, which empties into Seymour Canal near the north side of the entrance to Windfall Harbor, containing approximately 21 square miles. (Closed on brown and grizzly bear.)

Sheep Mountain Reserve. Beginning at Caribou Creek Milepost 107 Glenn Highway; thence easterly along highway to Milepost 123; thence in a line going north to Squaw Creek; thence downstream to Caribou Creek and downstream to point of beginning. (Closed on mountain goat and mountain sheep.)

Southeastern Alaska Highway Reserve. A strip ¼ mile wide on each side of all highways in Southeastern Alaska. (Closed on all big-game animals.)

Steese Highway Reserve. The area lying within 5 miles of each side of the Steese Highway between Mileposts 102 and 112 on Eagle Summit. (Closed on caribou.)

Sullivan Island-Taiya Reserve. All of the drainage into Lynn Canal north of the latitude of Point Sherman in Southeastern Alaska. (Closed on deer.)

Thayer Mountain Reserve (on Admiralty Island). Beginning at the foot of the waterfall at the mouth of Hasselborg River on Salt Lake, head of Mitchell Bay; thence along the easterly bank of the Hasselborg River to the outlet of Hasselborg Lake; thence along the west shore of said lake to the outlet of the creek flowing into the head of the lake; thence upstream along the east bank of said creek to the trail crossing; thence in a southwesterly direction along the trail to the head of Thayer Lake; thence along the easterly shore of said lake to the extreme southern end of the lake; thence southeasterly approximately 2 miles in a straight line to the west end of Salt Lake at the head of Mitchell Bay; thence along to the line of mean high tide of Salt Lake to the foot of the waterfall on Hasselborg River, the place of beginning, containing approximately 60 square miles. (Closed on brown and grizzly bear.)

Tok River Reserve (in Mentasta Pass). A strip 1 mile wide on each side of the Slana-Tok Highway between Mileposts 80 and 100. (Closed on mountain sheep.)

EMERGENCY CLOSURES

pears that lives and property may be seriously endangered through the taking of big-game animals in particular areas or excessive killing of big-game animals may result from the taking of such animals when concentrated near highways, the Director may close the affected area or areas to the taking of these animals for such periods as may be deemed necessary to alleviate the hazard to lives and property or to afford these animals additional protection on their annual migrations. The facts concerning the existence of an emergency condition in any area which requires the closing of the season and the period of time during which the season shall be closed will be ascertained by the Director and announced through publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by suitable posting in the area or areas where the emergency exists. Any period of time for which an emergency closure is effected may be shortened and the area or areas reopened to hunting by similar publication upon a finding that the particular emergency condition no longer exists.

PERMITS

§ 46.161 General provisions. The Administrator, upon recommendation of the Commission, may prescribe the terms and conditions of and issue permits authorizing the taking, possession, purchase, sale, exchange, or transportation, of such game and fur animals, game fishes, and game and nongame birds and their nests and eggs for scientific, propagating, educational, exhibition, or other limited purposes (including mounting, tanning, processing, or other preparation by a taxidermist), and for the protection of property as may be determined, from time to time, to be consistent with the proper conservation and development of the species. Any act authorized by a permit issued under this section shall be subject to any applicable law or regulation administered by any other Federal agency or by any agency or municipality of the Territory.

§ 46.162 Carrying and exhibition. Any permit issued under § 46.161 shall be carried by the permittee when taking, possessing, or transporting said animals, fishes, birds or their nests or eggs, and shall be exhibited to any game management agent or other authorized person requesting to see it.

§ 46.163 Applications. Applications for permits should be addressed to the Administrator, Alaska Wildlife Resources, Juneau, Alaska.

§ 46.164 Reports. Unless a different date is stated on the permit, reports of operations required under the terms of any permit shall be filed, in duplicate, on or before the 10th day of January following issuance of the permit with the Administrator, Alaska Wildlife Resources, Juneau, Alaska. The records required to be maintained for the purpose of making reports pursuant to the provisions of any permit shall be retained by the person or persons responsible for their preparation and maintenance for a period of six months following the date on which such reports are submitted.

A majority of the seasons prescribed herein are identical so far as opening dates are concerned with those previously prescribed and in effect immediately prior to the publication of this revision. With the exception of the seasons on game fishes prescribed by § 46.351, none of the opening dates prescribed herein, and which amend previously existing opening dates, will begin within a period of less than 30 days from the publication hereof. Since this revision of Part 46 does not affect materially privileges heretofore granted, it has been determined that, except for § 46.351 the revision may become effective when published under the provisions of the exceptions provided in section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 237). Accordingly, this revision shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except § 46.351 which shall become effective 30 days from the date of such publication.

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated July 10, 1956.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[FCC 56-643; Rules Amdt. 2-23]

PART 2—FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS AND RADIO TREATY MATTERS; GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

LAWS, TREATIES, AGREEMENTS AND ARRANGEMENTS RELATING TO RADIO

In the matter of amendment to § 2.601 of Part 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of July 1956;

The Commission having under consideration § 2.601 of Part 2 of its rules and regulations; and

It appearing that the proposed changes are not substantive and do not in any way affect the requirements of any of the Commission's rules and regulations; and

It further appearing that because of the informational nature of the proposed changes, notice and public procedure thereon as prescribed by section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, and that this order may be made effective immediately for the same reasons; and

It further appearing that authority for this action is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

It is ordered, That, effective immediately, Part 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: July 9, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Part 2 is amended by replacing the existing text of § 2.601 with the text below:

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of §3.606, Table of assignments, rules governing television Broadcast stations (Alamosa, Colorado).

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued in this proceeding on July 15, 1955, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 20, 1955 (20 F. R. 5208), proposing to shift Channel 3 from Pueblo, Colorado to Alamosa, Colorado, in response to the petition of Star Broadcasting Company, Inc.

2. No comments opposing the proposed amendment have been filed. Star Broadcasting Company, Inc. filed comments in support of the requested amendment in which it is urged that the assignment of Channel 3 to Alamosa would fully comply with the Commission's minimum mileage separation requirements and provide a first television service for Alamosa and its surrounding area with a total population of approximately 50,000 persons; that Alamosa is presently isolated from any existing VHF or UHF television service; that the nearest operating UHF stations are more than 450 miles away and that there are no applications or authorizations for UHF stations in Colorado including Channel 19 which is presently assigned to Alamosa, or the contiguous states of New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming or Nebraska; and, further, that the rugged terrain and low population density in the area make UHF operation completely unfeasible.

3. It is also argued that the VHF assignments nearest to Alamosa are in Pueblo, approximately 88 miles from Alamosa; that even with maximum power and an antenna height of 2,000 feet above average terrain, a Pueblo station could not place a Grade B signal over Alamosa, particularly in view of the fact that Pueblo is separated from Alamosa by the Sangre de Cristo Mountain range.

4. Petitioner also urges that in view of the fact that Pueblo now receives service from VHF stations in Pueblo and Colorado Springs, there is no likelihood that additional applications will be made for television facilities in Pueblo in the foreseeable future; that Station KDHA-TV, which operated on Channel 3 in Pueblo from March 1953 to April 1954, relinquished its construction permit in September 1954 and; that there have been no other applications for channels now assigned to Pueblo.

5. The Commission is of the view that the assignment of Channel 3 to Alamosa would serve the public interest by making more effective use of available television facilities. It would provide a new television service in conformance with the rules and standards.

6. Authority for the adoption of the amendment herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective August 15, 1956, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the communities named are concerned, as follows:

City:	Channel No.
Pueblo, Colo	5, *8, 28+, 34—
Alamosa, Colo	3—, 19+

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, rules governing Television Broadcast Stations.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued in this proceeding on September 1, 1955 (FCC 55-894), and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 6562). The Notice was issued in response to the mutually exclusive petitions of Aaron B. Robinson, Greenwood Broadcasting Company and Lamar Life Broadcasting Company, respectively, requesting the Commission to institute rule making proceedings to amend the Table of Television Assignments to shift Channel 6 from Clarksdale to Indianola, Greenwood, or Cleveland-Ruleville, Mississippi. Alternatively, Lamar Life Broadcasting Company requests that Channel 6 be transferred to an area bounded by lines drawn between the communities of Cleveland-Ruleville, Greenwood and Indianola.

2. Comments in support of their respective proposals were filed by each of the petitioners. Comments opposing the transfer of Channel 6 from Clarksdale were filed by the Coahoma County Chamber of Commerce.

3. In support of his request to assign Channel 6 to Indianola, Aaron B. Robinson urges that it would provide a television service to an area of 7,850 square miles and a population of 430,000 people, of whom 386,500 within a radius of 50 miles are without service, whereas within the same radius around Clarksdale 44 percent of the population would receive one or more services; and that the area is of such economic importance as to warrant and be able to support a television station. With respect to the other proposals, Robinson urges that his proposal is to be preferred since it would provide a "city-grade" service of 74 dbu within a radius of 28 miles, assuming a power of 100 kw and an antenna height of 1,000 feet, to a greater population than would an assignment at Greenwood or Cleveland-Ruleville; that such a station would place a 74 dbu signal over Greenville, Greenwood, and Cleveland-Ruleville whereas a station at Cleveland-Ruleville would not so cover Greenwood or Greenville; that the priorities would be better served if the station is at Indianola; and that the other proposals would result in only one assignment in Clarksdale since neither of the other parties have proposed a replacement for Channel 6 at Clarksdale.

4. Greenwood Broadcasting Company urges that Greenwood is located in the heart of the northwestern section of the state and is the largest retail and wholesale center in the Mississippi Delta area; and that it is an important population, industrial and trade area and includes Indianola in its general retail and wholesale trade area.

5. Lamar Life Broadcasting Company urges that the cities of Cleveland and Ruleville are centrally located in the area in which Channel 6 can be assigned and with respect to the four markets of Memphis, Jackson, Little Rock, and Monroe in which there are operating TV stations. Lamar suggests that it would be desirable that Channel 6 be used for an area station and that it therefore be assigned to the area bounded by lines joining the cities of Cleveland, Ruleville, Greenwood and Indianola.

6. The Coahoma County Chamber of Commerce opposed the above three petitions and urged that Channel 6 be retained in Clarksdale. It urged that the elimination of this asignment would preclude the possibility of a local television outlet; that the area has VHF sets installed to receive signals from the Memphis area and hence an intermixture of VHF and UHF in this area would spell the death knell for future television there; that it is possible for several UHF stations to be operated in the Greenwood, Indianola, Cleveland, Ruleville, area thus making it an all UHF area; that Clarksdale is one of the largest and most important cities in the Delta region and a station at Clarksdale would serve practicaly all of the area in question; that the Commission should not change the Table of Assignments merely because the channel involved has not been applied for; and that it has been advised that interested parties are contemplating an application for Channel 6 in Clarksdale.

7. The first question to be determined is whether the Channel 6 assignment should be moved from Clarksdale. The Coahoma County Chamber of Commerce states that it is advised that interested parties are contemplating an application for a station to operate on Channel 6 in Clarksdale. However, no applications therefor have been received by the Commission during the more than three years that the channel has been assigned to Clarksdale. On the other hand, the petitioners have each represented to the Commission that they will file an application for a station to operate on Channel 6 if their respective proposals are approved. The Commission does not believe that it would be justified in withholding action which would bring additional television service to a significant number of people. Refusing to make use of this valuable VHF frequency would, we believe, be a waste of valuable spectrum space for which active demand is indicated. We must therefore determine which of the conflicting proposals is to be preferred.

8. Upon careful consideration of all the comments and evidence submitted in this proceeding, we have concluded that the public interest would be best served by assigning Channel 6 to Greenwood, Mississippi. A station at Greenwood would provide Grade B or better service to all of the communities here under consideration, including Clarksdale and Greenville. At the same time it would provide an outlet for local expression to a significantly greater number of people than would an assignment to Cleveland-Ruleville or Indianola.

9. We find no merit in the argument advanced by Aaron B. Robinson that his proposal is to be preferred since it would provide a "city-grade" service to a greater population than would an assignment at Greenwood or Cleveland-Ruleville. While it is true, as contended by Robinson, that a station at Indianola would place a 74 dbu signal over Greenville, Greenwood and Cleveland-Ruleville whereas a station at Greenwood would not provide such service to Greenville or Cleveland and a station at Cleveland-Ruleville would not so cover Greenwood or Greenville, a station located in one of the three communities would provide Grade B service to substantially the same number of persons.

10. Authority for the adoption of the amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

11. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That, effective August 15, 1956, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the communities named are concerned, as follows:

City:	Channel No.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of assignments, rules governing television broadcast stations (Marquette, Michigan).

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued in this proceeding on September 1, 1955 (FCC 55-895), and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 6563) proposing to amend the Commission's Table of television channel assignments by adding Channel 13 to Marquette, Michigan. It was proposed to accomplish this assignment by substituting Channel 5 for Channel 13 at Calumet, Michigan.[1]

2. No comments opposing the proposed amendment have been filed. Channel 13 in Marquette would provide facilities for affording an additional television service to the Marquette area. This assignment can be accomplished in complete conformity with the Commission's rules and Standards. The Commission believes that the public interest would be served by finalizing this assignment.

3. Authority for the adoption of the amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

4. In view of the foregoing; It is ordered, That effective August 15, 1956, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the communities named are concerned, as follows:

City:	Channel No.

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of assignments, rules governing television broadcast stations (Clarkston, Washington).

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued in this proceeding on January 13, 1956 (FCC 56-46), and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 19, 1956 (21 F. R. 375), proposing to amend the Commission's Table of Television Assignments by adding Channels 34 and 40 to Clarkston, Washington.

2. Comments in support of the proposal were submitted by several local organizations.[2] They urge that Chan-

[1] Commissioner Bartley dissenting and voting for an area assignment; Commissioner Lee not participating; Commissioner Craven abstaining from voting.

[1] The instant rule making proceeding was initiated upon the petition of Lake Superior Broadcasting Company, Marquette, Michigan. After the Notice was adopted, Lake Superior advised the Commission that it had acquired a television station in Marquette and no longer desired to prosecute its rule making petition. Nevertheless, the Commission believes that the assignment of Channel 13 in Marquette would serve the public interest and should be finalized.

[2] IWA—Local 10-364, Lewiston Valley Grange #300, VFW Post #1443, Clarkston Lions Club, Asotin Lions Club, VFW Post #16043, Paper Makers Local A 1608 and I. B. P. S. & M. W. Local #712.

nels 34 and 40 should be assigned to Clarkston in order that three free television services will be available in the area.

3. Lewiston TV Co., permittee of Station KLEW-TV in Lewiston, Idaho, opposes the proposal. Lewiston states that if the channels are assigned as proposed, they will be employed for the purpose of establishing satellites. Lewiston urges that satellite stations should not be authorized where an established television station in the area would be placed in jeopardy. They note that Clarkston already receives service from Station KLEW–TV and that a community antenna system brings the signals of three Spokane stations into the area.

4. The assignment of Channels 34 and 40 can be accomplished in Clarkston in conformity with the Commission's engineering requirements. The addition of these frequencies in the Clarkston area would make possible the bringing of additional television service. The question as to the use of these frequencies for satellite operation and the effect such operation might have on KLEW–TV can be more appropriately considered in connection with applications that may be filed for the channels and need not be determined in this rule making proceeding.

5. Authority for the adoption of the amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective August 15, 1956, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended by the addition of the following community and its channel assignments:

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54131]

PART 74—IMPORTATION OF ARTICLES IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC EXPOSITION AT WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNDER PUBLIC LAW NO. 513, 84th CONGRESS [1]

The following regulations under Public Law No. 513, 84th Congress, approved May 9, 1956, relate to the entry of articles in connection with the International Photographic Exposition to be held at Washington, District of Columbia, March 18 to April 4, 1957.

Sec.
74.1 Invoices; marking; bond
74.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure
74.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act
74.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses
74.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment

AUTHORITY: §§ 74.1 to 74.5 issued under sec. 6, Pub. Law No. 513, 84th Cong.

§ 74.1 Invoices; marking; bond. (a) Articles intended for exhibition under the provisions of Public Law No. 513, 84th Congress, and valued at over $500, are subject to the usual special customs invoice requirements if of a class for which such invoices are required under the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder. The invoices shall be on foreign service Form 138 (Invoice of Merchandise) and shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930. (19 U. S. C. 1481.)

(b) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under the regulations in this part except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) The Master Photo Dealers and Finishers Association shall give to the collector of customs at Baltimore, Maryland, a bond in an amount to be determined by the collector and containing such conditions for compliance with Public Law No. 513, 84th Congress, and the regulations in this part, as shall be approved by the Bureau of Customs.

§ 74.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure. (a) All entries under the regulations in this part shall be made at the port of Washington, District of Columbia, in the name of the Master Photo Dealers and Finishers Association, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under these regulations, an entry under the general tariff law in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the Master Photo Dealers and Finishers Association to make such entry may be accepted by the collector.

(b) Articles to be entered under the regulations in this part which arrive at ports other than Washington, D. C., shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner prescribed by the general customs regulations.

(c) Upon the arrival at the port of Washington, D. C., of articles to be entered under the regulations in this part, they shall be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

no additional duty shall be assessed such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States.

"SEC. 4. At any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered under this Act may be abandoned to the United States or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such articles shall be remitted.

"SEC. 5. Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the exposition under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

"SEC. 6. The association shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under this Act. The actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for, articles imported under this Act, shall be reimbursed by the association to the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Receipt from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1524)."

"SEC. 2. It shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition to sell within the area of the exposition any articles provided for in this Act, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. All such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure, the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry under this Act for consumption or entry under the general tariff law.

"SEC. 3. Imported articles provided for in this Act shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but

(d) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. The articles shall be tentatively appraised prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits entered under these regulations shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with § 74.5 (a).

(e) If for any reason articles imported for entry under the regulations in this part are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided for, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period, they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(f) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any customs law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 10.49 (c) of this chapter, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (c) of this section shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in paragraph (c) of this section shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 8.33 of this chapter.

§ 74.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 151–164a, 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Plant Quarantine Branch of the Agriculture Research Service, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations. The entry of food products shall conform to the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 301 et seq.), and regulations issued thereunder.

§ 74.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses. (a) The collector of customs at Baltimore, Maryland, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the exposition and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary to properly protect the revenue.

(b) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the exposition or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the Master Photo Dealers and Finishers Association to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Baltimore, Maryland, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

§ 74.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment. (a) Any articles entered under the regulations of this Part may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the exposition or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidential handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Law No. 513 of the 84th Congress.

(b) At any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in § 15.4 of this chapter.

(c) Any articles entered under the regulations in this part which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF EXEMPTION FROM NECESSITY OF TOLERANCE FOR RESIDUES OF AMMONIA

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (1)), the following notice is issued:

A petition has been filed by the Regents of The University of California, Berkeley 4, California, proposing that the pesticide chemical ammonia be exempted from the requirement of a tolerance when applied after harvest to grapefruit, lemons, and oranges.

Analytical methods proposed in the petition for determining residues of ammonia as ammonia nitrogen, urease nitrogen, and total nitrogen are the standard Kjeldahl methods reported in "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Eighth Edition, 1955.

[Docket No. 11497; FCC 56-630]

RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of assignments, rules governing television broadcast stations.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued in this proceeding on September 1, 1955, concerning the proposal of Artesia Broadcasting Company to shift Channel 10 from Roswell, New Mexico, to Artesia, New Mexico.

2. Roswell, with a population of 25,300 persons presently has three TV channels, Channels 3, 8 and 10, Channel 3 being reserved for education. Station KSWS-TV operates on Channel 8. No applications have been filed for an educational station on Channel 3. On October 7, 1955, Taylor Broadcasting Company filed an application for a station on Channel 10 (BPCT-2043). Artesia, located some 45 miles south of Roswell, has a population of 8,244 persons and one UHF channel, Channel 21, is assigned. No applications have been filed for this frequency.

3. Artesia Broadcasting Company filed a comment in support of its proposal to shift Channel 10 from Roswell to Artesia. Artesia Broadcasting Company urges that Artesia is an important industrial, population and cultural center and that the assignment of Channel 10 to this community will bring a television service to an area without adequate service. It is argued that operation on UHF Channel 21 would not be feasible in view of the approaching saturation of the area by VHF receivers. Artesia Broadcasting Company represents that it will file an application for this assignment if Channel 10 is assigned to Artesia.

4. Taylor Broadcasting Company, licensee of AM station KBIM in Roswell, filed an opposition to the proposed shift of Channel 10 to Artesia. On October 7, 1955, Taylor filed an application for a station on Channel 10 in Roswell (BPCT-2043. Taylor submits that Artesia receives good television service from a station in Roswell and notes that a construction permit has been granted for a VHF station in Carlsbad, New Mexico, and that Artesia will also receive service from this station. It is argued, therefore, that Artesia will receive two VHF services, while Roswell, a much larger community, presently only gets good television service from one station. Taylor contends that Roswell's viewing and listening audience is much larger than census figures indicate since the figures do not include the population of the Walker Air Force Base, 5 miles from Roswell, which has about 9,000 people and New Mexico Military Institute, also located at Roswell.

5. In reply, Artesia Broadcasting Company argues that even though Taylor has filed an application for Channel 10 in Roswell, section 307 (b) of the Communications Act requires that the channel be reassigned to Artesia to provide a local service in each city.

6. The Commission believes that the public interest would be served by retaining Channel 10 in Roswell, a city of over 25,000 persons. We do not believe that Channel 10 should be deleted from a community of this size in order to provide a frequency for Artesia, a community of less than 9,000 persons. Channel 21 as assigned to Artesia and this community will receive service from stations in other communities. We believe that a second commercial VHF channel in Roswell is to be preferred to a first VHF station in Artesia. At the time the Commission issued its Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this proceeding, no application had been filed for Channel 10 in Roswell. Since our Notice, however, a demand for this frequency has been indicated by the filing of such an application. In view of the foregoing, we believe that Channel 10 should be retained in Roswell.

7. It is ordered, That the aforesaid petition of Artesia Broadcasting Company, Inc., is denied, and this proceeding, is terminated.

Adopted: July 5, 1956.

Released: July 9, 1956.

RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Youngstown, Ohio and New Castle, Pa.).

1. Notice is hereby given of rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on March 19, 1956, by Sanford A. Schafitz and Guy W. Gulley d/b as Community Telecasting Company requesting the Commission to amend the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations, as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Youngstown, Ohio	21-, 27, 73-	21-, 27, 33
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2-, 11, 13-, 16, 47-, 53+	2-, 11, 13, 16, 22, 53+
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 22, 69-	12+, 69-, 79+

3. Community Telecasting Company is authorized to operate television Station WXTV on Channel 73 in Youngstown. In support of its petition, Community Telecasting alludes to the problems inherent in the operation of television stations on the higher UHF channels in light of difficulties in obtaining proper equipment, network and advertiser reluctance in utilizing such stations, and competition with other stations in the community on lower assignments. Community Telecasting urges that no other stations would suffer loss of service as a result of its proposal and that proposed assignments would comply with the minimum spacing requirements. Since petitioner's proposal would substitute Channel 33 for its present authorized frequency, it requests that it be ordered to show cause why its outstanding authorization should not be so modified. In addition, Station WTVQ is authorized to operate on Channel 47 in Pittsburgh and Community Telecasting requests that this station also be ordered to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 22, which would replace Channel 47 in Pittsburgh under petitioner's proposed amendment.

4. The Commission has previously denied in a rule making proceeding (Docket No. 11280) a request by WKST, Inc., to shift the operation of its station on Channel 45 from New Castle, Pennsylvania, to Youngstown, Ohio. (See Report and Order of January 13, 1956, FCC 56-45.) However, upon reconsidering this matter on its own motion, the Commission is of the view that further rule making proceedings should be instituted to consider the request of WKST, Inc. Three alternative plans have been advanced to accomplish the change in assignment, as follows:

City	Plan I
	Present	Proposed
Youngstown, Ohio	21-, 27, 73-	21-, 27, 45-, 73-
New Castle, Pa.	45-	33
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2-, 11, 13*-, 16, 47-, 53+	2-, 11, 13*-, 16, 22, 53+
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 2, 69-	12+, 69-, 79+
	Plan II
Youngstown, Ohio	21-, 27, 73-	21-, 27, 45-, 73-
New Castle, Pa.	45	51+
Wheeling-Steubenville, W. Va.	7, 9+, 51+	7, 9, 22
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 22, 69-	12+, 69-, 79+
Meadville, Pa.	37	[1] 62+
	Plan III
Youngstown, Ohio	21-, 27, 73-	21-, 27, 45-, 73-
New Castle, Pa.	45-	55-
Akron, Ohio	49+, 55*-, 61+	49+, 61*, 71-

[1] This plan would require a change in the offset carrier requirement for Frederick, Md., from Channel 62 plus to Channel 62 even.

5. WKST is presently authorized to operate as a New Castle station. In order to implement its proposal it would be required to shift the operation of its station to Youngstown. Under Plan I, Channel 22 would replace Channel 47 in Pittsburgh. Golden Triangle Television Corporation is authorized to operate Station WTVQ on this frequency and would be required to show cause in this proceeding why its authorization should not be modified to specify Channel 22. Under Plan II, Channel 22 would replace Channel 51 in Wheeling-Steubenville. Polan Industries is authorized to operate Station WLTV on this frequency, and would be required to show cause in this proceeding why its authorization should not be modified to specify Channel 22.

6. Plans I and II above conflict with the request of Community Telecasting for Youngstown since Plan I would assign Channel 33 to New Castle and Community Telecasting's proposal would employ this channel in Youngstown; and since in Plan II channel 22 would be assigned to Wheeling-Steubenville, while Community Telecasting would assign this frequency to Clarksburg.

7. The Commission believes the public interest would be served by considering the above conflicting requests in a rule making proceeding in order that all interested parties may submit their views with respect to these proposals to the Commission. Parties are also requested to direct their comments to the question of whether either Channel 33 or Channel 45 should be assigned to Youngstown-New Castle as a hyphenated community.

8. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), 307 (b) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. Any interested person who is of the view that the proposals herein should not be adopted may file with the Commission on or before September 10, 1956, written data, views, or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposals may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be submitted should be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for filing such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such additional comments submitted before taking further action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing, oral argument, or demonstration, notice of the time and place of such hearing, oral argument or demonstration will be given.

10. The various rule making proposals would change channel asignments of authorized television stations. However, the Commission does not believe that show cause orders should be issued at this time to be considered in this rule making proceeding. At the conclusion of the rule making proceeding when the Commission has determined what, if any, changes in channel assignments should be made, such additional proceedings as may be necessary in light of changes to authorized stations can be undertaken.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 5, 1956.

Released: July 9, 1956.

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, television broadcast stations (Elk City and Woodward, Oklahoma).

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on August 11, 1955, by Video Independent Theatres for amendment of the Table of Assignments in § 3.606 of its rules and regulations by shifting Channel 8+ from Woodward, Oklahoma, to Elk City, Oklahoma, and susbtituting Channel 35+ in Woodward.

3. In support of the proposed amendment, petitioner notes that there are no pending applications for a television station in either Elk City or Woodward and that the assignment of Channel 8+ to Elk City and Channel 35+ to Woodward, in the manner proposed, would meet all separation requirements of the Commission. Petitioner states that Elk City is located in Beckham County, which has a population of 21,627 persons and that Woodward is located in Woodward County, which has a population of 14,383 persons. It is argued that Beckham County is the more thickly populated and economically active. Petitioner represents that if Channel 8 is assigned to Elk City, it will apply for a station in that community.

4. The Commission is of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted in this matter in order that interested parties may submit their views, and that the Commission may be apprised of such views prior to taking further action.

5. Authority for the issuance of the instant Notice is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested person who is of the view that petitioner's proposal herein should not be adopted may file with the Commission on or before August 31, 1956, written data, views, or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposal may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be submitted should be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for filing such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such additional comments submitted before taking further action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing, oral argument, or demonstration, notice of the time and place of such hearing, oral argument or demonstration will be given.

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, television broadcast stations. (Anderson, Indiana, Indianapolis, Indiana).

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. On April 12, 1956, the Great Commission Schools, Inc., permittee of television Station WCBC-TV authorized to operate on Channel 61 in Anderson, Indiana, filed a petition requesting rule making to amend § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations so as to assign Channel 26 to Anderson, Indiana in lieu of Channel 16 as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Delete	Add
Anderson, Ind.	61	26+
Indianapolis, Ind.	26+	77

Petitioner further requests that the Commission Order it to Show Cause why its outstanding authorization for Station WCBC-TV should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 26 in lieu of Channel 61 at Anderson.

3. In support of its request, petitioner submits that it is important that it operate on the lowest possible channel in view of the high saturation of VHF-only sets in the area and the higher cost in providing the greater power needed on the high channels to overcome the difficulties inherent in present day receivers; and that the proposal conforms to the rules and would not adversely affect any other party.

4. The Commission is of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted in this matter in order that all interested parties may submit their views to the Commission and the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action.

5. We do not believe, however, that we should direct the Great Commission Schools, Inc., in this proceeding to show cause why its authorization for Station WCBC-TV should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 26 in place of Channel 61. Such additional show cause proceedings which may be necessary can be instituted at the termination of this rule making proceeding.

6. Any interested party who is of the view that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before August 31, 1956, a written statement setting forth his comments. Comments supporting the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to original comments may be filed within 15 days from the last date for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established.

7. Authority for the adoption of the amendment proposed herein is contained in sections 1, 4 (i) and (j), 301, 303 (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), (h) and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

8. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments shall be furnished the Commission.

ORDER OF REVOCATION

JANUARY 17, 1955.

Pursuant to the authority delegated by Departmental Order No. 2765 of July 30, 1954, I hereby revoke Departmental Orders of March 22, 1934, and June 13, 1947, in so far as said orders affect the following-described land: Provided, however, That such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said orders or affect any other orders withdrawing or reserving the land hereinafter described:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN, OREGON

T. 9 N., R. 29 E.,
Sec. 14, $SW\frac{1}{4}$.
T. 27 N., R. 34 E.,
Sec. 2, $SW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$.

The above areas aggregate approximately 200 acres.

W. A. DEXHEIMER,
Commissioner.

JULY 9, 1956.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

1. The $SW\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$, sec. 2, T. 27 N., R. 34 E., lies in a steep rocky point bordering Roosevelt Lake on the Columbia River behind Grand Coulee Dam. It supports a fair stand of fir and pine timber, and an understory of grass makes the tract desirable for grazing livestock.

2. No application for the lands described in paragraph 1 may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 13, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 13, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

4. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

5. The $SW\frac{1}{4}$, sec. 14, T. 9 N., R. 29 E., shall not become subject to the initiation of any rights or to any disposition under the public-land laws until it is so provided by an order of classification to be issued by an authorized officer opening the lands to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, with a ninety-one day preference-right period for filing such applications by veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284) as amended.

b. The lands in paragraph 1 have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 13, 1956.

6. Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Spokane, Washington.

DEPUE FALCK,
Acting Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

GENERAL EXPORT CLOTHING CORP.

APPEALS BOARD DECISION

In the matter of General Export Clothing Corp., 145–147 Mulberry Street, New York 13, New York.

The Appeals Board has carefully examined the extensive record in this matter and has considered the arguments of this appellant at a hearing before the Board.

Not finding justification for a modification of the Order Revoking Export Licenses and Denying Export Privileges, issued by the Director of Export Supply, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, dated May 14, 1956, the Board finds that the Order should be sustained.

Now, therefore: It is ordered, That the appeal be and hereby is denied.

United States Weather Bureau

WEATHER SERVICES

1. General state weather forecasts. A general public weather service of daily weather bulletins, forecasts, warnings, and advices for agriculture, business, commerce, industry, etc., is provided through the field stations of the Weather Bureau. This information is based upon the forecasts issued from 29 forecast offices which are listed below. Forecasts are regularly available four times daily to cover weather developments expected during the ensuing 36 to 48 hours, but in critical situations warnings of storms and cold waves are issued as developments warrant, without regard to regular forecasting schedules.

Five-day weather outlook statements are issued for all parts of the United States three times weekly. A 30-day outlook is issued at Washington twice a month.

Forecast Offices

Albany, N. Y.	Los Angeles, Calif.
Albuquerque, N. Mex.	Miami, Fla.
Anchorage, Alaska.	Minneapolis, Minn.
Atlanta, Ga.	New Orleans, La.
Baltimore, Md.	New York, N. Y.
Boston, Mass.	Oklahoma City, Okla.
Buffalo, N. Y.	Philadelphia, Pa.
Chicago, Ill.	Pittsburgh, Pa.
Denver, Colo.	Raleigh, N. C.
Des Moines, Iowa.	Salt Lake City, Utah.
Great Falls, Mont.	San Francisco, Calif.
Hartford, Conn.	San Juan, P. R.
Harrisburg, Pa.	Seattle, Wash.
Honolulu, T. H.	Washington, D. C.
Kansas City, Mo.

2. Local weather forecasts. Local Weather Bureau offices throughout the nation provide reports, advices, and forecast, warning and information services to the public for their respective communities and surrounding areas. Detailed and localized forecasts are prepared by these offices for their own locality; many offices prepare individual forecasts for nearby localities also. These localized forecasts are adaptations of the general state forecasts issued by the forecast centers. They contain more detail than the general state forecasts and take into account the local climatology, topography and weather pecularities of the particular limited area to which they apply.

Weather bulletins and forecasts issued by the local Weather Bureau offices are published in nearly all daily newspapers and broadcast by most commercial radio and TV stations in the country. Weather information service is also given wide distribution to the general public by means of direct radio broadcasts which originate in Weather Bureau offices and are carried by about 700 radio stations. Local forecasts and reports are available by telephone or personal visit at all Weather Bureau offices.

3. Severe local storm warning service. The primary objective of the severe local storm warning service is to have warnings reach all residents of a threatened area as quickly as possible, in order to provide the maximum amount of time for disaster preparations including possible evacuation measures.

The service consists of the regular Weather Bureau forecast centers and field offices supplemented by local networks of cooperative observers and coordinated on a national basis at the Severe Local Storm Warning Center located at Kansas City, Mo. This Center maintains a continuous watch of weather conditions across the United States to detect the possibility of severe local storm development (tornadoes, damaging local wind storms, severe thunder storms or damaging hail storms) issues severe weather forecasts for national distribution, provides technical information to forecast centers, and coordinates the issuance of forecasts across forecast center boundaries. Within the boundaries of a particular forecast area, severe storm warnings covering the location and direction of movement are issued by the forecast center by telephone and teletypewriter to local Weather Bureau offices which adapt and distribute them locally by telephone, television, press, radio and other media for mass dissemination. Severe local storm warnings are telephoned to Civil Defense agencies, safety officials, and other responsible civic representatives in communities without Weather Bureau offices for further dissemination locally.

4. Hurricane forecasts and warnings. The hurricane warning service has three main functions: the collection or reports, the preparation of forecasts and warnings, and the immediate and widespread distribution of information to the public and ships at sea. Forecast services are provided by Hurricane Forecast Centers on the Gulf and Atlantic Coasts, on the Pacific Coast and in Hawaii. All Weather Bureau stations on the Gulf and Atlantic Coasts from Brownsville, Tex., to Portland, Maine are connected by a special hurricane teletypewriter circuit. In this way, all special reports and all warnings and advisories are available simultaneously at all connecting stations. Emergency Warning Centers to serve as "news rooms" have been set up in all major cities in the coastal areas of the hurricane belt so that radio-TV announcers and newsmen can operate from on-the-spot locations to disseminate the official advisories and bulletins.

Surface and upper-air observations from the regular Weather Bureau network are supplemented by special observations furnished through the cooperation of various agencies and governments. Included are observations from Coast Guard stations, lighthouses, mobile units, stations in Mexico, Central and South America, the West Indies, Bahamas, and Cuba, and from amateur radio reporting networks in a number of states. Air Force and Navy reconnaissance aircraft patrol areas of suspected activity or fly into and report on existing storms. Radar stations (military, private and Weather Bureau) also observe and report on tropical storms. Also, observations from ships at sea are received by radio, and special ship reports from designated areas are furnished hourly when needed.

Hurricane Forecast Centers

Boston, Mass.	New Orleans, La.
Honolulu, T. H.	San Francisco, Calif.
Los Angeles, Calif.	San Juan, P. R.
Miami, Fla.	Washington, D. C.

5. Horticultural and agricultural forecast service. This service is intended to provide the farmer with the weather information he needs for planning and conducting his operations, and is provided at most local Weather Bureau offices. Specialized forecasts for the protection of fruit and truck crops are issued in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture Extension Service, county agents, local growers' organizations, and local radio stations. Forecasts are specific with respect to rain, wind, and other weather conditions affecting spraying and dusting for insect and disease control; harvesting fruit and vegetable crops; fruit drying; haying; irrigation; fertilizing and other farm, grove, and marketing activities subject to weather hazard. Where winter and spring crops require protection against frost and low temperatures, an intensive fruit-frost service is maintained on a cooperative basis with states, counties or local growers' organizations bearing a portion of the operating costs. Intensive fruit-frost services are now provided to fruit growers in sections of the States of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arizona, Wisconsin, California and Florida.

6. Fire-weather forecast and warning service. This service provides forecasts of humidity, wind, precipitation, thunderstorm conditions, temperature, and other weather elements affecting fire behavior, in the forested regions of the country to assist the federal, state, and private forest protection agencies in combatting the fire menace. Operations that are controlled by the weather forecast include such items as suppression work on going fires, alerting cooperators, manning lookout towers, issuing burning permits, closing forest areas to public use, suspending logging operations, requiring speeder-patrols on railroads, burning slash and firing railroad right-of-way, etc.

Fire-weather service is available from Weather Bureau offices in the following localities:

Albany, N. Y.	Kansas City, Mo.
Albuquerque, N. Mex.	Little Rock, Ark.
Asheville, N. C.	Los Angeles, Calif.
Anchorage, Alaska.	Miami, Fla.
Atlanta, Ga.	Missoula, Mont.
Baltimore, Md.	Montgomery, Ala.
Billings, Mont.	Olympia, Wash.
Boise, Idaho.	Pendleton, Oreg.
Boston, Mass.	Philadelphia, Pa.
Cheyenne, Wyo.	Phoenix, Ariz.
Chicago, Ill.	Portland, Oreg.
Denver, Colo.	Rapid City, S. Dak.
Fort Smith, Ark.	Redding, Calif.
Fresno, Calif.	Reno, Nev.
Harrisburg, Pa.	Salt Lake City, Utah.
Hartford, Conn.	San Francisco, Calif.
Houston, Tex.	Seattle, Wash.
Jackson, Miss.	Shreveport, La.
Jacksonville, Fla.	Tallahassee, Fla.

7. Domestic aviation weather service. Domestic service consists of about 241 airport stations. These are connected by nationwide teletypewriter circuits operated by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, which collect and exchange detailed reports hourly on weather conditions along the civil airways, and disseminate forecasts and other current weather information. Flight weather briefing is available at all airport stations. Operational forecasts for aviation are issued every 6 hours by specially trained forecast personnel at 26 Flight Advisory Weather Service Centers. As a further aid to safety in the air, each Center working through its associated CAA Air Route Traffic Control Center provides in-flight weather service as required.

Flight Advisory Weather Service Centers are located at:

Albuquerque, N. Mex.	Los Angeles, Calif.
Atlanta, Ga.	Memphis, Tenn.
Boston, Mass.	Miami, Fla.
Chicago, Ill.	Minneapolis, Minn.
Cincinnati, Ohio.	New Orleans, La.
Cleveland, Ohio.	New York, N. Y.
Denver, Colo.	Pittsburgh, Pa.
Detroit, Mich.	Salt Lake City, Utah.
El Paso, Tex.	San Antonio, Tex.
Fort Worth, Tex.	San Francisco, Calif.
Great Falls, Mont.	Seattle, Wash.
Jacksonville, Fla.	St. Louis, Mo.
Kansas City, Mo.	Washington, D. C.

8. Marine meteorological service. This service collects weather observations from vessels at sea, and supplies bulletins of whether reports, forecasts, and storm warnings for surface shipping on the oceans and the Great Lakes. At present over 700 United States vessels furnish weather reports by radio and/or mail while at sea, and arrangements have been made on a worldwide basis for vessels of all flags to report to designated radio stations when in specified areas. Reports are also received from all U. S. military vessels. Observations are normally made at 6-hourly intervals but, under adverse weather conditions, are made oftener as warranted.

Marine weather information is available by telephone or personal visit at Weather Bureau offices in the following coastal cities:

Anchorage, Alaska.	New Orleans, La.
Baltimore, Md.	New York, N. Y.
Boston, Mass.	Norfolk, Va.
Brownsville, Tex.	Pensacola, Fla.
Charleston, S. C.	Philadelphia, Pa.
Corpus Christi, Tex.	Port Arthur, Tex.
Galveston, Tex.	Portland, Maine.
Honolulu, T. H.	Portland, Oreg.
Houston, Tex.	Providence, R. I.
Jacksonville, Fla.	San Diego, Calif.
Juneau, Alaska.	San Francisco, Calif.
Key West, Fla.	San Juan, P. R.
Lake Charles, La.	Savannnh, Ga.
Los Angeles, Calif.	Seattle, Wash.
Miami, Fla.	Tampa, Fla.
Mobile, Ala.	Wilmington, N. C.

9. International aviation weather service. Weather forecasting and briefing services for trans-oceanic flights are provided by Weather Bureau offices at the following locations:

Anchorage, Alaska.	Cold Bay, Alaska.
Boston, Mass.	Detroit, Mich.
Canton Island (Phoenix Island).	Honolulu, T. H.
Chicago, Ill.	Houston, Tex.
	Los Angeles, Calif.
Miami, Fla.	Seattle, Wash.
New Orleans, La.	Tampa, Fla.
New York, N. Y.	Wake Island (Pacific).
Portland, Oreg.	Washington, D. C.
San Francisco, Calif.
San Juan, P. R.

10. Hydrologic services. River and flood forecast and warning service is concerned with the preparation and issuance of river-stage and flood warnings in advance of a flood's occurrence, in order to provide the time needed for evacuation of people and movable property, and for the strengthening and operation of protective installations and measures. In non-flood periods the daily river forecast is used in planning the operation of locks, dams, and other river structures as well as reclamation and irrigation projects.

There are nine river forecast centers, each responsible for a major river basin and furnishing key river forecasts to the local district offices. There are 88 districts covering all the principal rivers and tributaries of the United States. River stages are observed daily at about 1,000 stations and daily river stage forecasts from 24 to 72 hours in advance are made on many of the larger rivers for the benefit of river navigation and control, in addition to flood stage forecasts made as needed. The observed stages are published in an annual summary for the use of industry, commerce, water utilization, and flood-control interests.

In collaboration with the United States Corps of Engineers, the Weather Bureau maintains and publishes data from a network of some 3,000 special precipitation measuring stations, and makes studies of outstanding storms of record to determine the maximum rainfall amounts likely to fall over river basins for which engineering works are under development. In the western States the Bureau's network of mountain snowfall stations is used to provide forecasts of runoff from the snow fields for irrigation and other water interests, published from January to May, inclusive, in "Water Supply Forecasts for the Western United States".

River district offices are located in the following communities:

Albany, N. Y.	Fort Worth, Tex.
Albuquerque, N. Mex.	Fresno, Calif.
Allentown, Pa.	Grand Junction, Colo.
Asheville, N. C.	Grand Rapids, Mich.
Atlanta, Ga.	Harrisburg, Pa.

11. Climatological Services. The climatological service seeks to determine and record the various types of climate, and to explain the causes of these climates, their variation, geographical location, and their effects on the economy of the nation. This service collects and makes statistical analyses of noncurrent observations from all sources in the United States, its territories, and ocean areas.

The work is supported basically by the observations taken at about 11,300 substations, the majority of which are manned by unpaid cooperative observers. Also, there are three data monitoring centers—San Francisco, Calif., Kansas City, Mo., and Chattanooga, Tenn.—equipped to receive and process, by modern tabulating methods, the original climatological observations of all the substations and regular Weather Bureau stations and to publish the established monthly and annual statistical summaries of climatological data for the United States. The final repository for American weather records, plus facilities for handling large-scale tabulation and summarization projects, are maintained in the National Weather Records Center in Asheville, N. C. This Center produces special machine tabulations of an operational or investigational nature for government use and, through trust fund arrangements, provides statistical studies of meteorological data for nongovernmental uses.

Each Weather Bureau office maintains local climatological records. Information concerning state-wide weather records can be obtained from the State Climatologist offices listed below.

12. Publications. The Weather Bureau has available for public distribution numerous bulletins, charts, maps and pamphlets containing statistical information recording the weather which has occurred throughout the country. These publications provide weekly, monthly and annual summaries for specific cities, states and for the country as a whole, including contiguous ocean areas. Printed lists of the publications are available from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., or samples may be inspected at the nearest Weather Bureau office.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 11685, 11686; FCC 56M-665]

POLK RADIO, INC., AND DUANE F. MCCONNELL

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Polk Radio, Inc., Lakeland, Florida, Docket No. 11685, File No. BP-10136 and Duane F. McConnell, Winter Haven, Florida, Docket No. 11686, File No. BP-10400; for construction permits.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a motion for continuance filed by Duane F. McConnell on July 5, 1956;

It appearing that consolidation of a third mutually exclusive application in this proceeding is imminent; and

It further appearing that all participants in the proceeding have agreed to the requested continuance and to waiver of the provisions of § 1.745 of the Commission's rules;

It is ordered, This 6th day of July 1956, that the hearing now scheduled for July 9, 1956, is continued without date.

[Docket Nos. 11763, 11764; FCC 56-620]

J. E. WILLIS AND CRAWFORDSVILLE BROADCASTERS, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of J. E. Willis, Lafayette, Indiana, Docket No. 11763, File No. BP-10253 and Crawfordsville Broadcasters, Inc., Crawfordsville, Indiana, Docket No. 11764, File No. BP-10460; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of July 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of J. E. Willis, and the Crawfordsville Broadcasters, Inc., each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1410 kilocycles with a power of one kilowatt, directional antenna, daytime only, at Lafayette and Crawfordsville, Indiana, respectively;

It appearing that each of the applicants is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate its proposed station, but that the operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; that both proposals would cause interference to Station WIRE, Indianapolis, Indiana (1430 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, U); that neither proposal may comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules due to interference which would be received by the proposal of J. E. Willis from Stations WING, Dayton, Ohio (1410 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, U) and WRMN, Elgin, Illinois (1410 kc, 500 w, Day) and due to interference which would be received by the Crawfordsville Broadcasters, Inc., proposal from Station WING; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated April 25, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that a timely reply was filed by each of the applicants; and

It further appearing, that both applicants have requested a waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operations would cause interference to Station WIRE, Indianapolis, Indiana, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether, because of the interference received, the proposed operations would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

4. To determine in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

5. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either, of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Indianapolis Broadcasting, Incorporated, licensee of Station WIRE, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, in the event the application of J. E. Willis is granted, J. E. Willis shall be responsible for the installation and adjustment of suitable filter circuits, or other equipment as may be necessary to prevent interaction between the proposed antenna system and the antenna system of Station WBAA, West Lafayette, Indiana.

[Docket No. 11765; FCC 56-623]

BABYLON-BAY SHORE BROADCASTING CORP.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re Application of Babylon-Bay Shore Broadcasting Corp., Babylon, New York, Docket No. 11765, File No. BP-10144; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of July 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of the Babylon-Bay Shore Broadcasting Corp. for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1440 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, daytime only, at Babylon, New York;

It appearing that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate the proposed station, but that the proposed operation may cause interference to Stations WNJR, Newark, New Jersey (1430 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, U) and WBIS, Bristol, Connecticut (1440 kc, 500 w, Day); that the proposed operation will not provide adequate coverage to the city sought to be served as required by §§ 3.182 and 3.188 of the Commission's rules; and that the aerial site photograph submitted with the application does not show sufficient detail within the proposed 1000 mv/m contour upon which to base a determination that proposed transmitter site will be satisfactory; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicant was advised by letter dated June 15, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that a timely reply was received from the applicant; and

It further appearing that counsel for Station WNJR, by letters dated April 11 and May 15, 1956, opposed the grant of the subject application and has requested that the application be designated for hearing; and

It further appearing that the applicant, on March 2, 1956, requested a waiver of § 3.182 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the Commission is unable to make a determination with respect to the request for a waiver of § 3.182 of the Commission's rules on the basis of the data before it;

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues;

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operation would cause objectionable interference to Stations WNJR, Newark, New Jersey, and WBIS, Bristol, Connecticut, or any other standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the proposed operation would be in compliance with §§ 3.182 and 3.188 of the Commission's rules with regard to adequate coverage to the city sought to be served, and if compliance with §§ 3.182 and 3.188 is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said Sections of the Rules.

4. To determine whether the proposed installation and operation would be in compliance with the Commission's Rules and Technical Standards with particular reference to the suitability of the proposed transmitter site.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, if a grant of the subject application would serve the public interest.

It is further ordered, That the Great Northern Television, Inc. and The Bristol Broadcasting Corporation, licensees of Stations WNJR and WBIS, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

Released: July 9, 1956.

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO INSTITUTING INVESTIGATIONS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of July 1956;

The Commission having under consideration its announcement of April 25, 1956, regarding its plans for one meeting and no hearings or oral arguments in August 1956; planned summer absences of its members; and the limitation on the delegation of authority to a Board of Commissioners, contained in section 0.213 of the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information, whereby such Board cannot institute investigations;

It appearing, that a quorum of the Commission may not be present at times during the period from July 15, 1956 to August 29, 1956, inclusive;

It further appearing that it is necessary to the proper functioning of the Commission and the prompt and orderly conduct of its business during the above-described period, that a Board of Commissioners be authorized to institute investigations whenever a quorum of the Commission is not present during the above-described period;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 5 (d) (1) of The Communications Act of 1934, as amended, during the period from July 15, 1956 to August 29, 1956, inclusive, there is delegated to a Board of Commissioners, to be composed of all Commissioners present and able to act during said period, authority to institute investigations whenever a quorum of the Commission is not present.

UNION ELECTRIC COMPANY

[File No. 70-3485]

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE REGARDING THE ISSUANCE AND SALE PURSUANT TO RULE U-50 OF $40,000,000 OF NEW BONDS

JULY 9, 1956.

Union Electric Company ("Union"), a registered holding company and a public-utility company, has filed a declaration and amendments thereto with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder, regarding the following proposed transactions:

Union proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $40,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds ("New Bonds"), -- percent Series due July 1, 1986. The New Bonds will be issued under and secured by a Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated June 15, 1937, as heretofore amended and supplemented and as to be amended and supplemented by a further supplemental indenture to be dated as of July 1, 1956. The interest rate on the New Bonds, which is to be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent, and the price thereof to Union, which price, exclusive of accrued interest, is to be not less than 100 percent and not more than 102.75 percent of the principal amount, will be determined by the competitive bidding.

The declaration as amended states that the net proceeds to be received from the issuance and sale of the New Bonds will be used by the company to provide funds, through reimbursement of its treasury for capital expenditures heretofore made, to retire short-term bank loans, to finance in part the cost of continuing additions and improvements to its utility plant, and for other corporate purposes.

Union has received permission from the Commission (Holding Company Act Release No. 13174 (May 10, 1956)) for a temporary increase in the amount of promissory notes it may issue to evidence short-term bank loans from 5 percent as specified in section 6 (b) of the act to 8 percent, such increase to remain in effect until September 14, 1956, or such earlier date upon which Union shall have completed the sale of the New Bonds, and it is expected that such short-term bank loans will aggregate approximately $21,000,000 by the time the New Bonds are sold. The declaration as amended states that approximately $41,950,000 of construction expenditures are budgeted for the year 1956, and for the two years 1956 and 1957 are expected to aggregate approximately $90,850,000. It is estimated by Union that the proceeds from the sale of the New Bonds, together with cash to be derived from operations, will be sufficient to provide for the above purposes in 1956 and in part for construction in 1957, but that its cash requirements for construction and other purposes in 1957 will require short-term borrowings or some other form of financing, the type and amount of which have not been determined.

The issue and sale of the New Bonds by Union, a Missouri corporation doing business in Missouri, Illinois, and Iowa have been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commisison of Missouri and the Illinois Commerce Commission. No other State commisison and no Federal commission other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Fees and expenses in connection with the issuance and sale of the bonds are estimated by the declarant as follows:

Filing fee for registration statement	$4,160
Fee payable to Public Service Commission of Missouri	13,000
Fee payable to Illinois Commerce Commission	13,904
Federal tax on original issue	44,000
Printing	47,000
Charges of trustee for authentication of new bonds	13,500
Fees and expenses of counsel for the company:
Keefe, Doerner, Schlafly & Griesedieck	9,000
Pope & Driemeyer	1,500
Boyd, Walker, Hulskamp & Concannon	750
Clifton J. O'Harra	750
Fees and expenses of accountants:
Price Waterhouse & Co	2,000
Advertising expenses	2,000
Out-of-pocket expenses of underwriters to be reimbursed by Company (maximum)	1,000
Title expenses and recording of supplemental indenture	11,500
Miscellaneous expenses	8,000
Total	172,064

The fee of Cahill, Gordon, Reindel & Ohl, independent counsel for the underwriters, in the amount of $12,000 is to be paid by the successful bidder or bidders.

Notice of said filing having been duly given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that the fees and expenses set forth above are not unreasonable, and that the declaration as amended should be permitted to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said declaration as amended be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and Rule U-50.

By the Commission.

spection mark, a minimum meat content of poultry pies; provides a new definition for poultry labeled as "Rock Cornish game hens"; deletes a provision under inspection charges to eliminate any implication that transfers of inspectors will be made at the request of an applicant for the service; and changes the application form for grading services by incorporating most of the provisions now contained in the application into Subpart A of the regulations under the general heading of fees and charges. The proposal to prescribe limitations pertaining to the use of grade terminology on packages bearing the inspection mark, when the products are not officially graded, is not being adopted in order to afford opportunity for further consideration of views and arguments submitted thereon.

After consideration of all relevant material presented, the amendment hereinafter set forth is promulgated to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the reason that: (1) The changes will improve the grading and inspection program; (2) it will preclude new firms applying for the service from making two applications within a 30-day period; (3) the major portion of this amendment changes the form of application for service and changes, effective December 31, 1956, a form of official identification. Other provisions are in the nature of clarifying amendments or relieving restrictions; and (4) no additional time is required by interested persons to prepare for this amendment.

The amendment is as follows:

1. Delete the word "contract" in the definition of "Grading or grading service" in § 70.1 Definitions, and substitute in lieu thereof the word "resident".

2. Change the definition of "Potable water" in § 70.1 Definitions, to read as follows:

"Potable water" means water that has been approved by the State health authority as safe for drinking and suitable for food processing.

3. Add a new definition in § 70.1 Definitions, which reads as follows:

"Rock Cornish game hen" or "Cornish game hen" means a young immature chicken (usually 5 to 8 weeks of age) weighing not more than 2 pounds ready-to-cook weight, which was prepared from a Cornish chicken or a Cornish chicken crossed with other breeds of chickens.

4. Add a new § 70.19 which reads as follows:

§ 70.19 Processing poultry for export. With respect to processed poultry that will be exported, the Administrator is authorized to waive any particular provision of the regulations that conflicts with the contract specifications of the foreign importer. Any poultry which was prepared for export on the basis of waived provisions pursuant to this section and which for some reason is not exported shall have all official marks removed therefrom and from the containers thereof prior to sale for domestic consumption.

5. Change paragraph (b) of § 70.48 Suspension of plant approval, to read as follows:

(b) During such period of suspension, inspection and grading service shall not be rendered. However, the other provisions of the regulations pertaining to providing service on a resident basis will remain in effect unless such service is terminated in accordance with the provisions of this part. If the plant facilities or methods of operation are not brought into compliance within a reasonable period of time, to be specified by the Administrator, the service shall be terminated. Upon termination of inspection or grading service in an official plant pursuant to the regulations in this part, the plant approval shall also become terminated, and all labels, seals, tags or packaging material bearing official identification shall, under the supervision of a person designated by the Service, either be destroyed, or the official identification completely obliterated, or sealed in a manner acceptable to the Service.

6. Change paragraph (b) Wording on labels, of § 70.93 Marking inspected products, to read as follows:

(b) Wording on labels. Each trade label approved for use on an immediate container pursuant to §§ 70.90 to 70.94 with respect to any graded or inspected and certified edible product, shall bear the following information:

(1) The common or usual name of the edible product;

(2) The name and address of the packer or distributor, and when the name of the distributor is shown, it shall be qualified by such term as "packed for," "distributed by," or "distributors";

(3) A statement of the net contents;

(4) The inspection mark, or grade mark, or the combined inspection and grade mark;

(5) The plant number, if any, of the official plant in which the product was inspected and certified or graded; and

(6) A statement of ingredients, if the edible product is made up of two or more ingredients; such ingredients shall be listed by their common or usual names in the order of descending proportion. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term "chicken meat" is construed to mean deboned white and dark meat; whereas, the term "chicken" includes other edible parts such as skin and giblets not in excess of their natural proportions, in addition to the chicken meat. If the term "chicken meat" is listed and the product also contains skin, giblets, or fat, it is necessary to also list them in the ingredient statement. This terminology shall apply to edible products prepared from other kinds of poultry where applicable.

7. Redesignate paragraphs (d), (e), and (f) of § 70.93 as paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) respectively, and add a new paragraph (d) which reads as follows:

(d) Meat content of poultry pies. On and after September 1, 1956, poultry pies, or pot pies, which are to bear the inspection mark and which are prepared from cooked meat shall contain a minimum of 14 percent (1⅛ ounces per 8-ounce pie) of cooked deboned poultry meat. Poultry pies, or pot pies, prepared with raw meat shall contain a minimum of 25 percent (2 ounces per 8-ounce pie) of raw deboned poultry meat. Both percentages shall be exclusive of any skin, giblets, or fat which may be included in the product.

8. Change § 70.132 Fees for appeal grading, to read as follows:

§ 70.132 Fees for appeal grading. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be double the fee specified in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken: Provided, That the fee for any appeal grading requested by the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, shall be not more than that set forth in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken. If the fee on the certificate from which the appeal is taken is based on the provisions of § 70.138, then the fee for such appeal grading shall be double the amount specified in § 70.133 for the applicable volume of product appeal graded. If the result of any appeal grading discloses that a material error was made in the grading appealed from, no fee shall be required.

9. Delete § 70.138 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 70.138 Grading performed on a resident grading basis. Fees to be charged and collected for any grading service, other than for an appeal grading, on a resident grading basis, shall be those provided in this section. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be as provided in § 70.132.

(a) Charges. The charges for grading of poultry and edible products thereof shall be paid by the applicant for the service and shall include such of the items listed in this section as are applicable. Payment for the full cost of the grading service rendered to the applicant shall be made by the applicant to the Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as "AMS") not later than fifteen (15) days from the date of billing. Such full costs shall comprise such of the items listed in this section as may be due and may be included, from time to time, in the bill or bills covering the period or periods during which the grading service may be rendered. A charge will be made by AMS in the amount of one (1) percent per month or fraction thereof of any amounts remaining unpaid after thirty (30) days from the date of bill.

(1) A charge of $75 for the initial survey and examination of blue prints of the designated plant and its premises prior to the performance by AMS of grading service provided that when the plant is approved for inspection of dressed poultry the charge shall be as provided in subparagraph (10) of this paragraph;

(2) A charge of $100 for the final survey and inauguration of the grading service including the assignment of one grader and one alternate grader provided they are installed at the same time;

(3) A charge of $50 for each additional grader or replacement of a previously assigned grader to the designated plant provided that at the sole discretion of the Service no such charge will be made for a replacement when such replacement is made by the use of a regular employee of the Service or when the replacement is made necessary by the transfer of an employee of the Service for the sole benefit of the Service;

(4) A charge equal to the salary costs paid to each grader assigned to the applicant's plant by AMS including an amount for annual leave and sick leave: Provided, That, no charge is to be made for salary costs of any assigned grader of the designated plant while temporarily reassigned by AMS to perform grading service for other than the applicant except when the assigned grader is performing service for the Department of Defense on products for delivery by the applicant to the Department of Defense, in which case the applicant will be given credit for the service rendered, based on a formula concurred in jointly by the Departments of Defense and Agriculture.

(5) A charge equal to the salary costs, travel expenses, and per diem paid by AMS to any grader whose services are required for relief purposes when regular graders are on annual or sick leave;

(6) A charge for the actual cost to AMS of any travel and per diem incurred by each grader assigned to the plant while in the performance of grading service for the applicant;

(7) A charge, at the sole discretion of AMS, of an amount not in excess of the actual cost to AMS of the travel (including the cost of movement of household goods and dependents) and per diem with respect to each grader who is transferred from an official station to the designated plant;

(8) A charge included in salary costs equal to the Employer's tax imposed under the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C.) for Old Age and Survivor's benefits under the Social Security System and an amount equal to the cost to AMS for insurance as provided in the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Act of 1954.

(9) An administrative service charge based upon the aggregate weight of the total monthly volume of all poultry handled in the plant, and computed in accordance with the following table:

COMPUTATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE CHARGES

0 to 20,000 pounds	$25.00
20,001 to 100,000 pounds	38.00
100,001 to 150,000 pounds	42.75
150,001 to 200,000 pounds	47.50
200,001 to 250,000 pounds	52.25
250,001 to 300,000 pounds	57.00
300,001 to 400,000 pounds	61.75
400,001 to 500,000 pounds	66.50
500,001 to 600,000 pounds	71.25
600,001 to 700,000 pounds	76.00
700,001 to 800,000 pounds	80.75
800,001 to 900,000 pounds	85.50
900,001 to 1,000,000 pounds	90.25
1,000,001 pounds or more	95.00

(10) A charge of $5 per hour plus actual costs to AMS for per diem and travel costs incurred in rendering service not specifically covered in this section; such as, surveys in addition to the initial and final.

(11) A charge equal to 7 percent of the salary paid by AMS to each grader exclusive of one regular grader whose salary is paid by AMS.

(b) Other provisions. (1) The applicant shall designate in writing the employees of the applicant who will be required and authorized to furnish each grader with such information as may be necessary for the performance of the grading service.

(2) AMS will provide as available an adequate number of graders to perform the grading service.

(3) At the sole discretion of AMS graders may be either Federal or State employees or licensed employees of the applicant.

(4) The grading service shall be provided at the designated plant and shall be continued until the service is suspended, withdrawn, or terminated by:

(i) Mutual consent;

(ii) Thirty (30) days' written notice by either the applicant or AMS specifying the date of suspension, withdrawal, or termination;

(iii) One (1) day's written notice by AMS to the applicant, if the applicant fails to honor any invoice within thirty (30) days after date of invoice covering the cost of the grading service; or

(iv) Termination of the services pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (v) of this subparagraph;

(v) Grading service shall be terminated by AMS at any time AMS, acting pursuant to any applicable laws, rules, and regulations, debars the applicant from receiving any further benefits of the service.

(5) Federally employed graders will be required to confine their activities to those duties necessary in the rendering of grading service and such closely related activities as may be approved by AMS: Provided, That, in no instance will the Federally employed grader assume the duties of management.

9a. Change subparagraph (8) of paragraph (a) Charges of § 70.141 Inspection performed on a resident inspection basis, to read as follows:

(8) A charge of $250.00 to cover the average cost of travel per diem and movement of household goods of an inspector and his dependents whose travel headquarters is changed, when the assignment is made for the purpose of (i) installation of service, or (ii) when an additional inspector is assigned to the plant to handle increased workload: Provided, That, no charge shall be made when the assignment of an inspector is made at the sole discretion of AMS to replace an inspector who has resigned, retired, died, or otherwise become unable to perform the inspection work, or if his services are no longer required in the plant due to a decrease in the volume of work or the cancellation of the inspection service by the applicant, or for other administrative reasons.

10. Change paragraph (a) of § 70.201 Issuance and disposition, to read as follows:

(a) Each grader shall issue a grading certificate covering each product graded, except that with respect to products graded on a resident grading basis, certificates will be issued upon a request therefor by the applicant or the Service.

11. Change the first sentence of § 70.384 Identification of dressed poultry processed under sanitary standards only, to read as follows: "With respect to dressed poultry which has been graded or inspected for condition pursuant to § 70.16, the form of identification approved for use shall contain the wording 'Dressed Poultry—Eligible for Further Processing in U. S. Department of Agriculture Official Plants.' Identification labels approved prior to the effective date of this amendment may continue to be used until January 1, 1957."

[Sugar Determination 850.30, Supp. 1]

PART 850—DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR PRODUCING AREA

COLORADO PROPORTIONATE SHARE AREAS AND FARM PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1956 CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of the Determination of Proportionate Shares for Farms in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area, 1956 Crop (20 F. R. 7159) as amended (20 F. R. 8772; 21 F. R. 986, 3670), the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Colorado State Committee has issued the bases and procedures for dividing the State into proportionate share areas and establishing individual farm proportionate shares from the allocation of 131,591 acres established for Colorado by the Determination. Copies of these bases and procedures are available for public inspection at the office of such Committee at the New Custom House, Denver, Colorado, and at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees in the sugar beet producing counties of Colorado. These bases and procedures incorporate the following:

§ 850.31 Colorado—(a) Proportionate share area. Colorado shall be divided into three proportionate share areas comprising the parts of the State included in the factory districts of the Great Western Sugar Company, the Rocky Ford-Sugar City-Swink factory districts, and the Delta factory district. These areas shall be designated Northern Area, Southern Area, and Western Area, respectively. Acreage allotments for these areas shall be computed by applying to the planted sugar beet acreage record for each area a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production", and a weighting of 25 percent to the largest acreage of any of the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce" with a reduction to 98.5 percent of the result of such weightings for each area in which 1955-crop plantings were less than 95 percent of the 1955-crop area allotment and with pro rata adjustments to a total of 131,591 acres. Acreage allotments computed as aforestated are established as follows: Northern Area—107,754 acres; Southern Area—18,867 acres; and Western Area—4,970 acres.

(b) Set-asides of acreage. Set-asides of acreage shall be made from area allotments as follows: Northern Area—1,078 acres for new producers, and 1,078 acres for appeals; Southern Area—189 acres for new producers, 189 acres for appeals and 950 acres for adjustments in initial shares; and Western Area—50 acres for new producers, 50 acres for appeals and 1,230 acres for adjustments in initial shares.

(c) Requests for proportionate shares. A request for each farm proportionate share shall be filed at the local ASC County Office on Form SU–100, Request for Sugar Beet Proportionate Share. The request shall be signed by the farm operator or owner (or legal representative) and shall be filed on or before the closing date for such filling, as provided in § 850.30.

(d) Establishment of individual farm proportionate shares—(1) For new producers. Within the acreage set aside for new producers in each proportionate share area, proportionate shares shall be established in an equitable manner for farms to be operated during the 1956-crop year by new producers (as defined in § 850.30) by taking into consideration the availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(2) For second-year producers. For each farm operated in the 1956-crop year by a second-year producer (as defined in § 850.30), an initial proportionate share shall be established equal to the initial 1955-crop share established for such farm.

(3) For old producers—(i) Farm bases. For each farm operated by an old producer (any producer except a new producer or a second-year producer) in the Southern or Western Area, the farm base shall be computed from the planted sugar beet acreage record of the farm by giving a weighting of 75 percent to the average acreage for the crops of 1950 through 1954, as a measure of "past production," and a weighting of 25 percent to the average acreage of the crops of 1953 and 1954, as a measure of "ability to produce." For each farm operated by an old producer in the Northern Area the factors "past production" and "ability to produce" shall be measured by establishing a farm base computed by multiplying the average planted sugar beet acreage for the farm for the crops of 1950 through 1954 (total planted acreage divided by the number of crops for which beets were actually planted) by the percentage shown for the category applicable to the farm as follows:

	Percent
Planted acreage for all 5 crops	96
Planted acreage only for last 4 crops	83
Planted acreage only for 4 crops other than last 4 consecutive crops	75
Planted acreage only for last 3 crops	66
Planted acreage only for 3 crops other than last 3 consecutive crops	54
Planted acreage only for last 2 crops	46
Planted acreage only for 2 crops other than last 2 consecutive crops	31
Planted acreage only for 1954 crop	24
Planted acreage only for 1 crop other than 1954 crop	16

(ii) Initial proportionate shares. Initial proportionate shares shall be established from farm bases in each area on a pro rata basis so that the total of the farm shares equals the area allotment less the prescribed set-asides and the initial shares of second-year producers.

(4) Adjustments in initial shares. Within the acreage available from the set-aside for adjustments, and from acreage of initial shares in excess of requested acreages in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in initial farm proportionate shares for old producers and second-year producers so as to establish a proportionate share for each farm which is fair and equitable as compared with proportionate shares for all other farms in the area by taking into consideration availability and suitability of land, area of available fields, availability of irrigation water, adequacy of drainage, availability of production and marketing facilities and the production experience of the operator.

(5) Adjustments under appeals. Within the acreage set aside for making adjustments under appeals and any other acreage remaining unused in each proportionate share area, adjustments shall be made in proportionate shares under appeals to establish fair and equitable farm shares in accordance with the provisions of § 850.30 applicable to appeals.

(6) Adjustments because of unused acreage. To the extent of acreage available within the allotment for each proportionate share area from underplanting and failure to plant, and unused acreage from set-asides and other sources, adjustments shall be made in farm proportionate shares during the 1956-crop season. Insofar as practicable, acreage remaining unused in any area shall be reallotted to the other areas wherein it may be used.

(7) Notification of farm operators. The farm operator shall be notified concerning the proportionate share established for his farm on form SU–103, Notice of Farm Proportionate Share—1956 Sugar Beet Crop, even if the acreage established is "none", and in each case of approved adjustment the farm operator shall be notified regarding the adjusted proportionate share on another form SU–103 if the adjustment results from an appeal, otherwise on a form SU–103–A or other similar written notice.

(8) Determination provisions prevail. The bases and procedures set forth in this section are issued in accordance with and subject to the provisions of § 850.30.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

This supplement sets forth the bases and procedures established by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Colorado State Committee for determining farm proportionate shares in Colorado in accordance with the determination of proportionate shares for the 1956 crop of sugar beets, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In general, the bases and procedures specified herein are the same as those which were effective in the State for the 1955 crop. Colorado is again divided into three areas, which division is considered reasonable and appropriate considering geographical locations, the operation of sugar beet processing plants and the organization of advisory committees including grower and processor representatives. Farm proportionate shares of old producers are established under formulas which measure "past production" and "ability to produce" sugar beets. These standards are reflected in the initial farm shares established for second-year producers, which coincide with their initial 1955-crop shares, as provided under § 850.30. The procedure for establishing farm shares for new producers meets the related requirements of such section.

The bases and procedures for making adjustments in initial proportionate shares and for adjusting shares subsequently because of unused acreage and appeals are designed to provide a fair and equitable proportionate share for each farm of the total acreage of sugar beets required to enable the domestic beet sugar area to meet its quota and provide a normal carryover inventory.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 77]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.377 Valencia Orange Regulation 77—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922; 21 F. R. 4392), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on July 12, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 22, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 785,400 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.538 Plum Order 13—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 15, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are now being made and this section should be applicable, insofar as possible, to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Sugar plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1, and, except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7½ row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1\frac{8}{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1\frac{5}{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1\frac{5}{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed eleven and eleven one-hundredth ($11\frac{11}{100}$) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the applicable one of following requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 8½-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1\frac{6}{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1\frac{5}{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1\frac{5}{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days but only after shipment has been made of any other quantities of such smaller-sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on those 2 succeeding calendar days.

(4) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are now being made, and this regulation should be applicable, insofar as possible to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Diamond plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7½-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1\frac{8}{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than

$1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(3) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" means the shortest distance measured through the center of a plum at a right angle to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.540 Plum Order 15—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 15, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information was submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about July 15, 1956, and this section should be applicable to all such shipments of such plums in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Late Tragedy plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1 with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade: Provided, That, gum spots which do not cause serious damage shall not be considered as a grade defect with respect to such grade; and

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 8½-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(3) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "serious damage," "fairly uniform in size," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" means the shortest distance measured through the center of a plum at a right angle to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.541 Plum Order 16—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 15, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about July 15, 1956; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Mariposa plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 4 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 6-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{12}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the applicable one of following requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days but only after shipment has been made of any other quantities of such smaller-sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on those 2 succeeding calendar days.

(4) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this regulation. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

[Lemon Reg. 650]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.757 Lemon Regulation 650—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451; 21 F. R. 4393), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on July 11, 1956, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 22, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 325,500 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 993—DRIED PRUNES PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

RECEIVING BY HANDLERS; REPORTS OF HOLDINGS, ACQUISITIONS, SALES, USES AND SHIPMENTS

Notice was published in the June 12, 1956 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 4022) that the Secretary of Agriculture was considering a proposed rule to approve further amendments, as set forth in such notice, of the amended administrative rules and procedures (19 F. R. 5297, 6908; 20 F. R. 1240, 9961) issued pursuant to the applicable provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 110, as further amended, and Marketing Order No. 93, as further amended (19 F. R. 1301), regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In said notice, opportunity was afforded all interested persons to file written data, views, or arguments with respect thereto. No such written data, views, or arguments were filed, and the period provided therefor has now expired.

After consideration of all pertinent available information, it is concluded that the proposed amendments of the amended administrative rules and procedures as set forth in the aforesaid notice would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act and should be approved.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the aforesaid administrative rules and procedures be further amended as set forth below:

1. Amend the provisions of § 993.148 (b) (1) to read as follows:

§ 993.148 Receiving of prunes by handlers. * * *

(b) Incoming inspection—(1) General. For all prunes placed for holding by or with a handler, the handler shall, immediately upon receipt thereof, issue to the inspection agency an identification tag which will show the name and address of the producer, dehydrator, or handler holding title to the prunes, the date when placed with the handler for holding, the county of production, the number and type of containers, the approximate net weight of the prunes, the name and location of the handler's plant where the prunes are held, and any other information necessary to identify such prunes to the satisfaction of the inspector. For each tender of prunes made to a handler by a producer or dehydrator, the handler shall, immediately upon tentative acceptance thereof, issue to the producer or dehydrator a door receipt or weight certificate showing the name and address of such producer or dehydrator, the weight of the tender, and any other information necessary to identify the tender. Any prunes so tendered to a handler must, prior to their acceptance, be inspected at an inspection station, and in order to be received as standard prunes must be certified as standard prunes. The handler shall identify each tender tentatively accepted by him pending inspection with its corresponding door receipt or weight certificate until the prunes in such tender have been inspected and accepted by him or returned to the producer or dehydrator tendering the prunes. A separate inspection shall be made of each lot and an inspection certificate shall be limited to the prunes included in one lot. Certification of any lot shall be made and computed on the basis of the net weight of prunes included in such lot, and the handler shall supply such information to the inspector. At the time of inspection of any lot, the handler shall provide the inspector with any assistance necessary in drawing samples. When necessary, in order to perform proper inspection, the inspector may require the handler to dump containers to permit proper sampling. Each lot shall be inspected immediately following tentative acceptance by a handler of all of the prunes to be included in such lot, except that any lot of prunes tendered to a handler by a producer or dehydrator in "ton box" containers or tendered in lug boxes on pallets and remaining intact thereon which cannot be dumped for sampling at the time of such acceptance, because of inadequate handling equipment, may be held for later inspection: Provided, That each lot of prunes so held is identified by the handler to the satisfaction of the inspector until the lot is inspected. After inspection, each lot of prunes shall be promptly accepted by the handler or returned to the producer or dehydrator. When a lot of prunes is inspected at other than a handler's plant, the inspector shall forward, with such a lot to the handler, the handler's copies of the certificate.

2. Amend the provisions of § 993.172 by relettering existing paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) as (b), (c) and (d), respectively, and inserting a new paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 993.172 Reports of holdings, acquisitions, sales, uses, and shipments—(a) Holdings as of March 31. Each handler shall, on or before the 15th day of April, file with the committee a signed report of holdings of prunes which have not been inspected and/or accepted by him as a handler as of March 31. The report shall show for such prunes the name and address of the producer or dehydrator, the date of each identification tag assigned to such prunes, the numbers and dates of door or weight receipts or any other identifying documents assigned to such prunes, the net weight of the prunes, the total net weight of all prunes so held, and the name and address of the handler making the report.

* * * * *

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of the order with respect to the foregoing amendments for 30 days after their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that: (1) A new crop year under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order will begin August 1, 1956, and the said further amendments of the amended administrative rules and procedures should be effective with respect to all prunes received by handlers during such crop year; (2) handlers generally are aware of the proposed further amendments of the said amended administrative rules and procedures, and, as indicated above, notice of the proposed rule thereon was heretofore published and opportunity to file written data, views, or arguments was afforded, but none was received; and (3) handlers will not need to make any preparation for compliance with the requirements of these further amended administrative rules and procedures which cannot be accomplished readily before August 1, 1956.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753 as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated July 10, 1956, to become effective August 1, 1956.

Acting Deputy Administrator, Marketing Services.

TITLE 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 60—DOMESTIC URANIUM PROGRAM

URANIUM LEASES ON LANDS CONTROLLED BY COMMISSION

Notice is hereby given that the following regulations have been adopted by the Atomic Energy Commission, effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

§ 60.8 Uranium leases on lands controlled by the Commission—(a) What this section does. This section sets forth regulations governing the issuance of leases for mining deposits of uranium in public lands withdrawn from entry and location under the general mining laws for the use of the Commission, and in certain other lands under Commission control.

(b) Statutory authority. The Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 919) is the authority for this section.

(c) Who may hold leases. Only parties who are (1) citizens of the United States; (2) associations of such citizens; or (3) corporations organized under the laws of the United States or territories thereof, are eligible lessees under this section. Persons under 21 years of age or employees of the Commission are not eligible.

(d) Issuance of leases through competitive bidding. Except under special circumstances as provided in this section a lease will be issued only to the acceptable bidder offering the highest cash bonus. Before any lease is awarded the Commission may require high bidders to submit a detailed statement of the facts as to such matters as their experience, organization and financial resources. The Commission reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

(e) Solicitation of bids. Invitation to bid for a lease will be publicly posted and published. Copies will also be mailed to parties who submit to the Commission's Grand Junction, Colorado, Operations Office written request that their names be placed on a mailing list for the receipt of such invitations. The invitation will set forth the location of the land or deposits to be leased, the term, royalty rate, work requirements and certain other conditions which will become a part of the lease. The invitation will specify a period following notice of award during which the successful bidder may explore the land or deposit, and will also specify the percentage of the bonus offered which must be transmitted with the bid and set the place and time the bids will be publicly opened. A detailed statement of the terms of the invitation and the factual data pertinent to the land or deposit obtained from Commission exploration will be available for public inspection at offices listed in the invitation and upon payment of a nominal charge copies of these statements and data may be acquired from the Grand Junction Operations Office.

(f) Bidding requirements; deposits. All bids must be filed at the place and prior to the time set in the invitation.

Each bid must be sealed and accompanied by a deposit, in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, bank draft or cash, equal to the specified percentage of the bonus offered. Deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned. If the bidder is an individual he must submit with his bid a statement of his citizenship and age. If the bidder is an association (including a partnership), the bid shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the articles of association together with a statement as to the citizenship and age of its members. If the bidder is a corporation, evidence that the officer signing the bid had authority to do so and a statement as to the state of incorporation shall also be submitted.

(g) Award of lease. Following public opening of the bids the Commission, subject to the right to reject any and all bids, will determine the successful bidder. In the event the highest acceptable bids are tie bids, a public drawing will be held by the Commission to determine the successful bidder. After notice of award and prior to expiration of the period prescribed in the invitation, the successful bidder may explore the land or deposit, shall execute and return to the Commission three (3) copies of the lease and shall pay the balance of the bonus unless the bidder chooses to forfeit his deposit. Should the successful bidder fail to execute the lease and pay the balance of the bonus within the time specified in the invitation, or fail to otherwise comply with applicable regulations, he will also forfeit his deposit. In such event the Commission may offer the lease to the second highest acceptable bidder. If the awarded lease is executed by the bidder through an agent, evidence of authorization must be submitted.

(h) Dating of lease. A lease issued under this section will ordinarily be effective as of the date it is signed by the Commission.

(i) Term of lease. A lease shall be for the period specified in the invitation to bid. When deemed desirable by the Commission it will state in the invitation that the lease term may be extended for a specified period and upon stipulated conditions at the option of the lessee. In such event the lease will include this option.

(j) Royalty. Royalty shall be at the rate specified in the invitation to bid.

(k) Direction of ore shipments. The lessee shall ship all ore with reasonable diligence to such uranium ore receiving station or purchaser within the United States as the Commission may designate, and shipment shall be at lessee's own expense up to 100 miles. The Commission reserves the right to take and remove all ores not so shipped with reasonable diligence, and to credit the lessee with the value of such ores less sums due the Government from the lessee, including the cost of such taking and removal. The Commission also reserves the property and right to property in and to all ores not shipped within sixty (60) days after the expiration or other termination of the lease. Unless the Commission directs otherwise, all ores which are of too low a grade to be acceptable under the Commission's published price schedule applicable to such ore shall remain on the leased premises and be kept separate from and not mixed with waste.

(l) Initial production bonus. Bonus payments under Domestic Uranium Program Circular 6 will not be made on ores produced from properties leased to private operators by the Commission except under special circumstances and as provided for in the lease.

(m) Work requirements. A condition of every lease entered into under these regulations will be the conduct on the leased premises of exploration, development, and mining activities with reasonable diligence, and the skill and care required to achieve and maintain maximum production of uranium ore consistent with good and safe mining practice. A lease may require a minimum number of man-shifts during a designated period.

(n) Lessee's records. Leases shall provide that the lessee keep proper records of (1) shifts worked; (2) wages and salaries paid; (3) expenditures for supplies and services and costs of operation of every kind; (4) tonnage and grade of ore mined; (5) development work and drilling performed; and (6) such other matters as in the Commission's opinion would be of assistance to it in determining the cost of the operation.

(o) Rights of Commission. The Commission reserves the right to enter upon the leased property and into all parts of the mine for inspection and other purposes. The Commission and its contractors shall have free access to the property for conducting exploratory work. The Commission also reserves the right to grant to other persons easements or rights of way upon, through, or in the leased premises. The Commission and the Comptroller General of the United States or any of his duly authorized representatives shall, until the expiration of three years after termination or expiration of the lease, have access to and the right to examine any directly pertinent books, documents, papers, and records of the lessee involving transactions related to the lease.

(p) Relinquishment of leases. A lease may be surrendered by the lessee upon filing with and approval by the Commission of a written application for relinquishment. Approval of the application shall be contingent upon the delivery of the leased premises to the Commission in good condition and the continued liability of the lessee to make payment of all royalty and other debts due the Commission.

(q) Assignment of leases. Any transfer of a lease, or of any interest therein or claim thereunder, by assignment, sublease, operating agreement or otherwise, will not be recognized unless and until approved by the Commission in writing. Ordinarily the Commission will not approve any transfer of a lease which involves over-riding royalties or deferred payments of any kind.

(r) Cancellation. Any lease may be canceled by the Commission whenever the lessee fails to comply with the provisions of the lease. Failure of the Commission to exercise its right to cancel shall not be deemed a waiver thereof.

(s) Form of lease. Leases will be issued on forms prescribed by the Commission.

(t) Non-competitive leases. Under special circumstances, where the Commission believes it is to the best interest of the Government or where the use of competitive bidding may be impracticable, the Commission at its discretion may award or extend leases on the basis of negotiation.

(u) Commission decisions. All matters connected with the issuance and administration of leases will be determined by the Commission whose decisions shall be final and conclusive.

(v) Definitions. "Commission" as used in this section means the Atomic Energy Commission established by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 or its duly authorized representative or representatives.

(w) Multiple use of lands. Leases issued under this section shall provide that operations under them will be conducted so as not to interfere with the lawful operations of any third party having a lease, permit, easement, or other right or interest in the premises.

(60 Stat. 755–775; 42 U. S. C. 1801–1819)

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of June 1956.

K. E. FIELDS,
General Manager.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 172]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The restricted area alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Panel, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date, provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.12, the Fort Huachuca, Ariz., area (R–181), amended on November 17, 1955, in 20 F. R. 8519, is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 35,000 feet MSL".

2. In § 608.28, the Assateague Island, Md., area (R–42 formerly D–42), published on July 16, 1949 in 14 F. R. 4291 is rescinded.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective on August 3, 1956.

[SEAL] C. J. LOWEN,
Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

SUBPART A—INTRODUCTION

§ 31.0–1 Introduction—(a) In general. The regulations in this part relate to the employment taxes imposed by subtitle C (chapters 21 to 25, inclusive) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. References in the regulations to the "Internal Revenue Code" or the "Code" are references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, unless otherwise indicated. References to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, the Railroad Retirement Tax Act, and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act are references to chapters 21, 22, and 23, respectively, of the Code. References to sections of law are references to sections of the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise indicated.

(b) Division of regulations. The regulations in this part are divided into 7 subparts. Subpart A contains provisions relating to general definitions and use of terms, the division and scope of the regulations in this part, and the extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations relating to employment taxes. Subpart B relates to the taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. Subpart C relates to the taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act. Subpart D relates to the tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Subpart E relates to the collection of income tax at source on wages under chapter 24 of the Code. Subpart F relates to the provisions of chapter 25 of the Code which are applicable in respect of the taxes imposed by chapters 21 to 24, inclusive, of the Code. Subpart G relates to selected provisions of subtitle F of the Code, relating to procedure and administration, which have special application in respect of the taxes imposed by subtitle C of the Code. Inasmuch as these regulations constitute Part 31 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations, each section of the regulations is preceded by a section symbol and 31 followed by a decimal point (§ 31.). Sections of law or references thereto are preceded by "Sec." or the word "section".

§ 31.0–2 General definitions and use of terms—(a) In general. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated—

(1) The terms defined in the provisions of law contained in the regulations in this part shall have the meanings so assigned to them.

(2) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 means the act approved August 16, 1954 (68A Stat.), entitled "An act to revise the internal revenue laws of the United States", as amended.

(3) The Internal Revenue Code of 1939 means the act approved February 10, 1939 (53 Stat., Part 1), as amended.

(6) Employee tax means the tax imposed by section 3201 of the Code.

(7) Employee representative tax means the tax imposed by section 3211 of the Code.

(8) Employer tax means the tax imposed by section 3221 of the Code.

(d) Subpart D. As used in Subpart D of this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated—

(1) Act means the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

(2) Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act means the act approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1094), as amended.

(3) Tax means the tax imposed by section 3301 of the Code.

(e) Subpart E. As used in Subpart E of this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated, tax means the tax required to be deducted and withheld from wages under section 3402 of the Code.

§ 31.0–3 Scope of regulations—(a) Subpart B. The regulations in Subpart B of this part relate to the imposition of the employee tax and the employer tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act with respect to wages paid and received after 1954 for employment performed after 1936. In addition to employment in the case of remuneration therefor paid and received after 1954, the regulations in Subpart B of this part relate also to employment performed after 1954 in the case of remuneration therefor paid and received before 1955. The regulations in Subpart B of this part include provisions relating to the definition of terms applicable in the determination of the taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, such as "employee", "wages", and "employment". The provisions of Subpart B of this part relating to the definition of "employment" are applicable also, to the extent provided in § 31.3121 (b)–2, to services performed before 1955 the remuneration for which is paid after 1954. (For prior regulations on similar subject matter, see Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Part 408.)

(b) Subpart C. The regulations in Subpart C of this part relate to the imposition of the employee tax, the employee representative tax, and the employer tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act with respect to compensation paid after 1954, for services rendered after such date. The regulations in Subpart C of this part include provisions relating to the definition of terms applicable in the determination of the taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act, such as "employee", "employee representative", "employer", and "compensation". (For prior regulations on similar subject matter, see Regulations 114; 26 CFR (1939) Part 411.)

(c) Subpart D. The regulations in Subpart D of this part relate to the imposition on employers of the excise tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for the calendar year 1955 and subsequent calendar years with respect to wages paid after 1954 for employment performed after 1938. In addition to employment in the case of remuneration therefor paid after 1954, the regulations in Subpart D of this part relate also to employment performed after 1954 in the case of remuneration therefor paid before 1955. The regulations in Subpart D of this part include provisions relating to the definition of terms applicable in the determination of the tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, such as "employee", "employer", "employment", and "wages". The regulations in Subpart D of this part also include provisions relating to the credits against the Federal tax for State contributions. (For prior regulations on similar subject matter, see Regulations 107; 26 CFR (1939) Part 403.)

(d) Subpart E. The regulations in Subpart E of this part relate to the withholding under chapter 24 of the Code of income tax at source on wages paid after 1954, regardless of when such wages were earned. The regulations in Subpart E of this part include provisions relating to the definition of terms applicable in the determination of the tax under chapter 24 of the Code, such as "employee", "employer", and "wages". (For prior regulations on similar subject matter, see Regulations 120; 26 CFR (1939) Part 406.)

(e) Subpart F. The regulations in Subpart F of this part deal with the general provisions contained in chapter 25 of the Code, which relate to the employment taxes imposed by chapters 21 to 24, inclusive, of the Code. (For prior regulations on the subject matter of section 3504, see §§ 406.807 and 408.906 of Regulations 120 and Regulations 128, respectively; 26 CFR (1939) Parts 406 and 408.)

(f) Subpart G. The regulations in Subpart G of this part, which are prescribed under selected provisions of subtitle F of the Code, relate to the procedural and administrative requirements in respect of records, returns, deposits, payments, and related matters applicable to the employment taxes imposed by subtitle C (chapters 21 to 25, inclusive) of the Code. In addition, the provisions of Subpart G of this part relate to adjustments and to claims for refund, credit, or abatement, made after 1954, in connection with the employment taxes imposed by subtitle C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, by chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, or by the corresponding provisions of prior law, but not to any adjustment reported, or credit taken, in whole or in part on any return or supplemental return filed on or before the last day of the first month following the calendar quarter in which the regulations in Subpart G of this part are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The provisions of Subpart G of this part also relate to deposits of taxes imposed by subchapter B of chapter 9 of the 1939 Code or by corresponding provisions of prior law with respect to compensation paid after 1954 for services rendered before 1955. For other administrative provisions which have application to the employment taxes imposed by subtitle C of the Code, see the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (Part 301 of this chapter). (The administrative and procedural regulations applicable with respect to a particular employment tax for a prior period were combined with the substantive regulations relating to such tax for such period. For the regulations applicable to the respective taxes for prior periods, see paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section.)

§ 31.0–4 Extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations. The regulations in this part, with respect to the subject matter within the scope thereof, supersede Regulations 107, Regulations 114, Regulations 120, and Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Parts 403, 411, 406, 408.

TAX ON EMPLOYEES

§ 31.3101 Statutory provisions; rate of tax.

SEC. 3101. Rate of tax. In addition to other taxes, there is hereby imposed on the income of every individual a tax equal to the following percentages of the wages (as defined in section 3121 (a)) received by him with respect to employment (as defined in section 3121 (b))—

(1) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1955 to 1959, both inclusive, the rate shall be 2 percent;

(2) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive, the rate shall be 2½ percent;

(3) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, the rate shall be 3 percent;

(4) With respect to wages received during the calendar years 1970 to 1974, both inclusive, the rate shall be 3½ percent;

(5) With respect to wages received after December 31, 1974, the rate shall be 4 percent.

[Sec. 3101 as amended by sec. 208 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3101–1 Measure of employee tax. The employee tax is measured by the amount of wages received after 1954 with respect to employment after 1936. See §§ 31.3121 (a)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive, relating to wages; and §§ 31.3121 (b)–1 to 31.3121 (b) (15)–1, inclusive, relating to employment. For provisions relating to the time of receipt of wages, see § 31.3121 (a)–2.

§ 31.3101–2 Rates and computation of employee tax. (a) The rates of employee tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1955 to 1959, both inclusive	2
For the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive	2½
For the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive	3
For the calendar years 1970 to 1974, both inclusive	3½
For the calendar year 1975 and subsequent calendar years	4

(b) The employee tax is computed by applying to the wages received by the employee the rate in effect at the time such wages are received.

Example. In 1953 employee A performed for employer X services which constituted employment (see § 31.3121 (b)–2). In 1955, A receives from X $1,000 as remuneration for such services. The tax is payable at the 2 percent rate in effect for the calendar year 1955 (the year in which the wages are received) and not at the 1½ percent rate which was in effect for the calendar year 1953 (the year in which the services were performed).

§ 31.3101–3 When employee tax attaches. The employee tax attaches at the time that the wages are received by the employee. For provisions relating to the time of such receipt, see § 31.3121 (a)–2.

§ 31.3102 Statutory provisions; deduction of tax from wages.

SEC. 3102. Deduction of tax from wages—(a) Requirement. The tax imposed by section 3101 shall be collected by the employer of the taxpayer, by deducting the amount of the tax from the wages as and when paid. An employer who in any calendar quarter pays to an employee cash remuneration to which paragraph (7) (B) or (C) or (10) of section 3121 (a) is applicable may deduct an amount equivalent to such tax from any such payment of remuneration, even though at the time of payment the total amount of such remuneration paid to the employee by the employer in the calendar quarter is less than $50; and an employer who in any calendar year pays to an employee cash remuneration to which paragraph (8) (B) of section 3121 (a) is applicable may deduct an amount equivalent to such tax from any such payment of remuneration, even though at the time of payment the total amount of such remuneration paid to the employee by the employer in the calendar year is less than $100.

(b) Indemnification of employer. Every employer required so to deduct the tax shall be liable for the payment of such tax, and shall be indemnified against the claims and demands of any person for the amount of any such payment made by such employer.

[Sec. 3102 as amended by sec. 205 A, Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3102–1 Collection of, and liability for, employee tax. (a) The employer shall collect from each of his employees the employee tax with respect to wages for employment performed for the employer by the employee. The employer shall make the collection by deducting or causing to be deducted the amount of the employee tax from such wages as and when paid. (For provisions relating to the time of such payment, see § 31.3121 (a)–2.) The employer is required to collect the tax, notwithstanding the wages are paid in something other than money, and to pay over the tax in money. (As to the exclusion from wages of remuneration paid in any medium other than cash for certain types of services, see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1, relating to such remuneration paid for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business or for domestic service in a private home of the employer; and § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1, relating to such remuneration paid for agricultural labor.)

(b) The employer may deduct amounts equivalent to employee tax from payments to an employee of cash remuneration to which the sections referred to in this paragraph are applicable prior to the time that the sum of such payments equals:

(1) $50 in the calendar quarter, for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, to which § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 is applicable; or

(2) $50 in the calendar quarter, for domestic service in a private home of the employer, to which § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 is applicable; or

(3) $100 in the calendar year, for agricultural labor, to which § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1 is applicable; or

(4) $50 in the calendar quarter, for service performed as a home worker, to which § 31.3121 (a) (10)–1 is applicable.

At such time as the sum of the cash payments in the calendar quarter or the calendar year, as the case may be, for a type of service referred to in this paragraph equals or exceeds the amount specified, the employer is required to collect from the employee any amount of employee tax not previously deducted. If an employer pays cash remuneration to an employee for two or more of the types of service referred to in this paragraph, the provisions of this paragraph are to be applied separately to the amount of remuneration attributable to each type of service. For provisions relating to the repayment to an employee, or other disposition, of amounts deducted from an employee's remuneration in excess of the correct amount of employee tax, see § 31.6413 (a)–1. The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). In the calendar year 1955 employer X makes several payments of cash remuneration to employee A for agricultural labor which constitutes employment. In January employer X makes his first payment of such cash remuneration to employee A in the amount of $10. X deducts 20 cents (2 percent of $10) as an amount equivalent to employee tax. In June X makes his second payment of cash remuneration to A in the amount of $50. X does not deduct from this payment an amount equivalent to employee tax. In October X makes his third payment of cash remuneration to A in the amount of $40. This amount brings the sum of such payments in 1955 to $100, and X is now required to collect employee tax from A. The amount of employee tax applicable to the $100 so paid is $2 (2 percent of $100). Inasmuch as X previously deducted 20 cents in January 1955, X is required to deduct $1.80 ($2 minus 20 cents) from the $40 paid in October 1955.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), and assume further that employer X deducted $1.80 from the October payment to employee A. In November 1955, X makes his next payment of cash remuneration to A in the amount of $10. X is required to deduct 20 cents (2 percent of $10) from such payment.

(c) In collecting employee tax, the employer shall disregard any fractional part of a cent of such tax unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent. The employer is liable for the employee tax with respect to all wages paid by him to each of his employees whether or not it is collected from the employee. If, for example, the employer deducts less than the correct amount of tax, or if he fails to deduct any part of the tax, he is nevertheless liable for the correct amount of the tax. Until collected from him the employee also is liable for the employee tax with respect to all the wages received by him. Any employee tax collected by or on behalf of an employer is a special fund in trust for the United States. See section 7501. The employer is indemnified against the claims and demands of any person for the amount of any payment of such tax made by the employer to the district director.

§ 31.3102–2 Manner and time of payment of employee tax. The employee tax is payable to the district director in the manner and at the time prescribed in Subpart G of the regulations in this part.

TAX ON EMPLOYERS

§ 31.3111 Statutory provisions; rate of tax.

SEC. 3111. Rate of tax. In addition to other taxes, there is hereby imposed on every employer an excise tax, with respect to having individuals in his employ, equal to the following percentages of the wages (as defined in section 3121 (a)) paid by him with respect to employment (as defined in section 3121 (b))—

(1) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1955 to 1959, both inclusive, the rate shall be 2 percent;

(2) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive, the rate shall be 2½ percent;

(3) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, the rate shall be 3 percent;

(4) With respect to wages paid during the calendar years 1970 to 1974, both inclusive, the rate shall be 3½ percent;

(5) With respect to wages paid after December 31, 1974, the rate shall be 4 percent.

[Sec. 3111 as amended by sec. 208 (c), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3111–1 Measure of employer tax. The employer tax is measured by the amount of wages paid after 1954 with respect to employment after 1936. See §§ 31.3121 (a)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive, relating to wages, and §§ 31.3121 (b)–1 to 31.3121 (b) (15)–1, inclusive, relating to employment. For provisions relating to time of payment of wages, see § 31.3121 (a)–2.

§ 31.3111–2 Rates and computation of employer tax. (a) The rates of employer tax applicable for the respective calendar years are as follows:

	Percent
For the calendar years 1955 to 1959, both inclusive	2
For the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive	2½
For the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive	3
For the calendar years 1970 to 1974, both inclusive	3½
For the calendar year 1975 and subsequent calendar years	4

(b) The employer tax is computed by applying to the wages paid by the employer the rate in effect at the time such wages are paid.

§ 31.3111–3 When employer tax attaches. The employer tax attaches at the time that the wages are paid by the employer. For provisions relating to the time of such payment, see § 31.3121 (a)–2.

§ 31.3111–4 Liability for employer tax. The employer is liable for the employer tax with respect to the wages paid to his employees for employment performed for him.

§ 31.3111–5 Manner and time of payment of employer tax. The employer tax is payable to the district director in the manner and at the time prescribed in Subpart G of the regulations in this part.

§ 31.3112 Statutory provisions; instrumentalities of the United States.

SEC. 3112. Instrumentalities of the United States. Notwithstanding any other provision of law (whether enacted before or after the enactment of this section) which grants to any instrumentality of the United States an exemption from taxation, such instrumentality shall not be exempt from the tax imposed by section 3111 unless such other provision of law grants a specific exemption, by reference to section 3111 (or the corresponding section of prior law), from the tax imposed by such section.

§ 31.3112–1 Instrumentalities of the United States specifically exempted from the employer tax. Section 3112 makes ineffectual as to the employer tax imposed by section 3111 those provisions of law which grant to an instrumentality of the United States an exemption from taxation, unless such provisions grant a specific exemption from the tax imposed by section 3111 by an express reference to such section or the corresponding section of prior law (section 1410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939). Thus, the general exemptions from Federal taxation granted by various statutes to certain instrumentalities of the United States without specific reference to the tax imposed by section 3111 or by section 1410 of the 1939 Code are rendered inoperative insofar as such exemptions relate to the tax imposed by section 3111. For provisions relating to the exception from employment of services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States specifically exempted from the employer tax, see § 31.3121 (b) (5)–1. For provisions relating to services performed for an instrumentality exempt on December 31, 1950, from the employer tax, see § 31.3121 (b) (6)–1 (c).

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 31.3121 (a) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

• • • • •

§ 31.3121 (a)–1 Wages. (a) Whether remuneration paid after 1954 for employment performed after 1936 constitutes wages is determined under section 3121 (a). This section and §§ 31.3121 (a) (1)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive (relating to the statutory exclusions from wages), apply with respect only to remuneration paid after 1954 for employment performed after 1936. Whether remuneration paid after 1936 and before 1940 for employment performed after 1936 constitutes wages shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 91; 26 CFR (1939) Part 401. Whether remuneration paid after 1939 and before 1951 for employment performed after 1936 constitutes wages shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 106; 26 CFR (1939) Part 402. Whether remuneration paid after 1950 and before 1955 for employment performed after 1936 constitutes wages shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Part 408.

(b) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment unless specifically excepted under section 3121 (a) (see §§ 31.3121 (a) (1)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive) or paragraph (j) of this section.

(c) The name by which the remuneration for employment is designated is immaterial. Thus, salaries, fees, bonuses, and commissions on sales or on insurance premiums, are wages if paid as compensation for employment.

(d) The basis upon which the remuneration is paid is immaterial in determining whether the remuneration constitutes wages. Thus, it may be paid on the basis of piecework, or a percentage of profits; and it may be paid hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, or annually.

(e) Generally the medium in which the remuneration is paid is also immaterial. It may be paid in cash or in something other than cash, as for example, goods, lodging, food, or clothing. Remuneration paid in items other than cash shall be computed on the basis of the fair value of such items at the time of payment. See, however, §§ 31.3121 (a) (7)–1, 31.3121 (a) (8)–1, and 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, relating to the treatment of remuneration paid in any medium other than cash for services not in the course of the employer's trade or business and for domestic service in a private home of the employer, for agricultural labor, and for services performed by certain home workers, respectively.

(f) Ordinarily, facilities or privileges (such as entertainment, medical services, or so-called "courtesy" discounts on purchases), furnished or offered by an employer to his employees generally, are not considered as remuneration for employment if such facilities or privileges are of relatively small value and are offered or furnished by the employer merely as a means of promoting the health, good will, contentment, or efficiency of his employees. The term "facilities or privileges", however, does not ordinarily include the value of meals or lodging furnished, for example, to restaurant or hotel employees, or to seamen or other employees aboard vessels, since generally these items constitute an appreciable part of the total remuneration of such employees.

(g) Amounts of so-called "vacation allowances" paid to an employee constitute wages. Thus, the salary of an employee on vacation, paid notwithstanding his absence from work, constitutes wages.

(h) Amounts paid specifically—either as advances or reimbursements—for traveling or other bona fide ordinary and necessary expenses incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred in the business of the employer are not wages. Traveling and other reimbursed expenses must be identified either by making a separate payment or by specifically indicating the separate amounts where both wages and expense allowances are combined in a single payment.

(i) Remuneration for employment, unless such remuneration is specifically excepted under section 3121 (a) or paragraph (j) of this section, constitutes wages even though at the time paid the relationship of employer and employee no longer exists between the person in whose employ the services were performed and the individual who performed them.

Example. A is employed by B during the month of January 1955 in employment and is entitled to receive remuneration of $100 for the services performed for B, the employer, during the month. A leaves the employ of B at the close of business on January 31, 1955. On February 15, 1955 (when A is no longer an employee of B), B pays A the remuneration of $100 which was earned for the services performed in January. The $100 is wages and the taxes are payable with respect thereto.

(j) In addition to the exclusions specified in §§ 31.3121 (a) (1)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive, the following types of payments are excluded from wages:

(1) Remuneration for services which do not constitute employment under section 3121 (b) (see §§ 31.3121 (b)–1 to 31.3121 (b) (15)–1, inclusive) and which are not deemed to be employment under section 3121 (c) (see § 31.3121 (c)–1).

(2) Remuneration for services which are deemed not to be employment under section 3121 (c) (see § 31.3121 (c)–1).

(3) Tips or gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of an employer, and not accounted for by the employee to the employer.

§ 31.3121 (a)–2 Wages; when paid and received. (a) In general, wages are received by an employee at the time that they are paid by the employer to the employee. Wages are paid by an employer at the time that they are actually or constructively paid unless under paragraph (c) of this section they are deemed to be subsequently paid.

(b) Wages are constructively paid when they are credited to the account of or set apart for an employee so that they may be drawn upon by him at any time although not then actually reduced to possession. To constitute payment in such a case the wages must be credited to or set apart for the employee without any substantial limitation or restriction as to the time or manner of payment or condition upon which payment is to be made, and must be made available to him so that they may be drawn upon at any time, and their payment brought within his own control and disposition. For provisions relating to the treatment of deductions from remuneration as payments of remuneration, see § 31.3123–1.

(c) (1) The first $50 of cash remuneration paid, either actually or constructively, by an employer to an employee in a calendar quarter for—

(i) Service to which § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 is applicable (service not in the course of the employer's trade or business and domestic service in a private home of the employer); or

(ii) Service to which § 31.3121 (a) (10)–1 is applicable (service performed by certain home workers), shall be deemed to be paid by the employer to the employee at the first moment of time in such calendar quarter that the sum of such cash payments made within such quarter is at least $50.

(2) The first $100 of cash remuneration paid, either actually or constructively, by an employer to an employee in a calendar year for agricultural labor to which § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1 is applicable shall be deemed to be paid by the employer to the employee at the first moment of time in such calendar year that the sum of such cash payments made within such year is at least $100.

(3) If an employer pays cash remuneration to an employee for two or more of the types of service referred to in this paragraph, the provisions of this paragraph are to be applied separately to the amount of remuneration attributable to each type of service.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

(1) That part of the remuneration which, after remuneration (other than remuneration referred to in the succeeding paragraphs of this subsection) equal to $4,200 with respect to employment has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year. If an employer (hereinafter referred to as successor employer) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the property used in a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor), or used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, and immediately after the acquisition employs in his trade or business an individual who immediately prior to the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of such predecessor, then, for the purpose of determining whether the successor employer has paid remuneration (other than remuneration referred to in the succeeding paragraphs of this subsection) with respect to employment equal to $4,200 to such individual during such calendar year, any remuneration (other than remuneration referred to in the succeeding paragraphs of this subsection) with respect to employment paid (or considered under this paragraph as having been paid) to such individual by such predecessor during such calendar year and prior to such acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by such successor employer;

[Sec. 3121 (a) (1) as amended by sec. 204 (a) Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (a) (1)–1 $4,200 limitation—(a) In general. (1) The term "wages" does not include that part of the remuneration paid within any calendar year after 1954 by an employer to an employee which exceeds the first $4,200 of remuneration (exclusive of remuneration excepted from wages in accordance with § 31.3121 (a)–1 (j) or §§ 31.3121 (a) (2)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive) paid within such calendar year by such employer to such employee for employment performed for him at any time after 1936.

(2) The $4,200 limitation applies only if the remuneration received during any one calendar year by an employee from the same employer for employment performed after 1936 exceeds $4,200. The limitation in such case relates to the amount of remuneration received during any one calendar year for employment after 1936 and not to the amount of remuneration for employment performed in any one calendar year.

Example. Employee A, in 1955, receives $3,500 from employer B on account of $4,000 due him for employment performed in 1955. In 1956 A receives from employer B the balance of $500 due him for employment performed in the prior year (1955), and thereafter in 1956 also receives $4,000 for employment performed in 1956 for employer B. The $3,500 received in 1955 is subject to the taxes in 1955. The balance of $500 received in 1956 for employment during 1955 is subject to the taxes in 1956, as is also the first $3,700 paid of the $4,000 for employment during 1956 (this $500 for 1955 employment added to the first $3,700 paid for 1956 employment constitutes the maximum wages which could be received by A in 1956 from any one employer). The final $300 received by A from B in 1956 is not included as wages and is not subject to the taxes.

(3) If during a calendar year the employee receives remuneration from more than one employer, the limitation of wages to the first $4,200 of remuneration received applies, not to the aggregate remuneration received from all employers with respect to employment performed after 1936, but instead to the remuneration received during such calendar year from each employer with respect to employment performed after 1936. In such case the first $4,200 received during the calendar year from each employer constitutes wages and is subject to the taxes, even though, under section 6413 (c), the employee may be entitled to a special credit or refund of any amount of employee tax deducted from his wages which exceeds the employee tax with respect to the first $4,200 of wages received during the calendar year from all employers. In this connection and in connection with the two examples immediately following, see § 31.6413 (c)–1, relating to special credits or refunds of employee tax on wages over $4,200. In connection with the application of the $4,200 limitation on wages in the case of remuneration paid for services performed in the employ of the United States or a wholly owned instrumentality thereof, see § 31.3122. In connection with the application of the $4,200 limitation, see also paragraph (b) of this section, relating to the circumstances under which wages paid by a predecessor employer are deemed to be paid by his successor.

Example (1). During 1955 employee C receives from employer D a salary of $700 a month for employment performed for D during the first 7 months of 1955, or total remuneration of $4,900. At the end of the sixth month C has received $4,200 from employer D, and only that part of his total remuneration from D constitutes wages subject to the taxes. The $700 received by employee C from employer D in the seventh month is not included as wages and is not subject to the taxes. At the end of the seventh month C leaves the employ of D and enters the employ of E. C receives remuneration of $840 a month from employer E in each of the remaining 5 months of 1955, or total remuneration of $4,200 from employer E. The entire $4,200 received by C from employer E constitutes wages and is subject to the taxes. Thus, the first $4,200 received from employer D and the entire $4,200 received from employer E constitute wages.

Example (2). During the calendar year 1955 F is simultaneously an officer (an employee) of the X Corporation, the Y Corporation, and the Z Corporation and during such year receives a salary of $4,200 from each corporation. Each $4,200 received by F from each of the Corporations X, Y, and Z (whether or not such corporations are related) constitutes wages and is subject to the taxes.

(b) Wages paid by predecessor attributed to successor. (1) If an employer (hereinafter referred to as a successor) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the property used in a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor), or used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, and if immediately after the acquisition the successor employs in his trade or business an individual who immediately prior to the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of such predecessor, then, for purposes of the application of the $4,200 limitation set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, any remuneration (exclusive of remuneration excepted from wages in accordance with § 31.3121 (a)–1 (j) or §§ 31.3121 (a) (2)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, inclusive) with respect to employment paid (or considered under this paragraph as having been paid) to such individual by such predecessor during such calendar year and prior to such acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by such successor.

(2) The wages paid, or considered as having been paid, by a predecessor to an employee shall, for purposes of the $4,200 limitation, be treated as having been paid to such employee by a successor, if:

(i) The successor during a calendar year acquired substantially all the property used in a trade or business, or used in a separate unit of a trade or business, of the predecessor;

(ii) Such employee was employed in the trade or business of the predecessor immediately prior to the acquisition and is employed by the successor in his trade or business immediately after the acquisition; and

(iii) Such wages were paid during the calendar year in which the acquisition occurred and prior to such acquisition.

(3) The method of acquisition of the property is immaterial. The acquisition may occur as a consequence of a corporate merger or consolidation, the incorporation of a business by a sole proprietor or a partnership, the continuance without interruption of the business of a previously existing partnership by a new partnership or by a sole proprietor, or a purchase or any other transaction whereby substantially all the property used in a trade or business, or used in a separate unit of a trade or business, of one employer is acquired by another employer.

(4) Substantially all the property used in a separate unit of a trade or business may consist of substantially all the property used in the performance of an essential operation of the trade or business, or it may consist of substantially all the property used in a relatively self-sustaining entity which forms a part of the trade or business.

Example (1). The M Corporation which is engaged in the manufacture of automobiles, including the manufacture of automobile engines, discontinues the manufacture of the engines and transfers all the property used in such manufacturing operation to the N Company. The N Company is considered to have acquired a separate unit of the trade or business of the M Corporation, namely, its engine manufacturing unit.

Example (2). The R Corporation which is engaged in the operation of a chain of grocery stores transfers one of such stores to the S Company. The S Company is considered to have acquired a separate unit of the trade or business of the R Corporation.

(5) A successor may receive credit for wages paid to an employee by a predecessor only if immediately prior to the acquisition the employee was employed by the predecessor in his trade or business which was acquired by the successor and if immediately after the acquisition such employee is employed by the successor in his trade or business (whether or not in the same trade or business in which the acquired property is used). If the acquisition involves only a separate unit of a trade or business of the predecessor, the employee need not have been employed by the predecessor in that unit provided he was employed in the trade or business of which the acquired unit was a part.

Example. The Y Corporation in 1955 acquires all the property of the X Manufacturing Company and immediately after the acquisition employs in its trade or business employee A, who, immediately prior to the acquisition, was employed by the X Company. The X Company has in 1955 (the calendar year in which the acquisition occurs) and prior to the acquisition paid $2,500 of wages to A. The Y Corporation in 1955 pays to A remuneration with respect to employment of $2,500. Only $1,700 of the remuneration paid by the Y Corporation is considered to be wages. For purposes of the $4,200 limitation, the Y Corporation is credited with the $2,500 paid to A by the X Company. If, in the same calendar year, the property is acquired by the Z Company from the Y Corporation and A immediately after the acquisition is employed by the Z Company in its trade or business, no part of the remuneration paid to A by the Z Company in the year of the acquisition will be considered to be wages. The Z Company will be credited with the remuneration paid to A by the Y Corporation and also with the wages paid to A by the X Company (considered for purposes of the application of the $4,200 limitation as having also been paid by the Y Corporation).

(6) Where a corporation described in section 501 (c) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) has in effect a certificate filed pursuant to section 3121 (k), or pursuant to section 1426 (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, waiving its exemption from the taxes imposed by the Act, the activity in which such corporation is engaged is considered to be its trade or business for the purpose of determining whether the transferred property was used in the trade or business of the predecessor and for the purpose of determining whether the employment by the predecessor and the successor of an individual whose services were retained by the successor constitute employment in a trade or business. Thus, if a charitable or religious organization, subject to the taxes by virtue of its certificate, acquires all the property of another such organization likewise subject to the taxes and retains the services of employees of the predecessor, wages paid to such employees by the predecessor in the year of the acquisition (and prior to such acquisition) will be attributed to the successor for purposes of the $4,200 limitation.

§ 31.3121 (a) (2) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments under employers' plans on account of retirement, sickness or accident disability, medical or hospitalization expenses, or death.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(2) The amount of any payment (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) made to, or on behalf of, an employee or any of his dependents under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for his employees generally (or for his employees generally and their dependents) or for a class or classes of his employees (or for a class or classes of his employees and their dependents), on account of—

(A) Retirement, or

(B) Sickness or accident disability, or

(C) Medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or

(D) Death.

§ 31.3121 (a) (2)–1 Payments under employers' plans on account of retirement, sickness or accident disability, medical or hospitalization expenses, or death. (a) The term "wages" does not include the amount of any payment (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) made to, or on behalf of, an employee or any of his dependents under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for his employees generally (or for his employees generally and their dependents) or for a class or classes of his employees (or for a class or classes of his employees and their dependents), on account of—

(1) An employee's retirement,

(2) Sickness or accident disability of an employee or any of his dependents,

(3) Medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability of an employee or any of his dependents, or

(4) Death of an employee or any of his dependents.

(b) The plan or system established by an employer need not provide for payments on account of all of the specified items, but such plan or system may provide for any one or more of such items. Payments for any one or more of such items under a plan or system established by an employer solely for the dependents of his employees are not within this exclusion from wages.

(c) Dependents of an employee include the employee's husband or wife, children, and any other members of the employee's immediate family.

(d) It is immaterial for purposes of this exclusion whether the amount or possibility of such benefit payments is taken into consideration in fixing the amount of an employee's remuneration or whether such payments are required, expressly or impliedly, by the contract of service.

§ 31.3121 (a) (3) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; retirement payments.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(3) Any payment made to an employee (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) on account of retirement;

§ 31.3121 (a) (3)–1 Retirement payments. The term "wages" does not include any payment made by an employer to an employee (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment) on account of the employee's retirement. Thus, payments made to an employee on account of his retirement are excluded from wages under this exception even though not made under a plan or system.

§ 31.3121 (a) (4) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments on account of sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expenses.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

* * * * *

(4) Any payment on account of sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, made by an employer to, or on behalf of, an employee after the expiration of 6 calendar months following the last calendar month in which the employee worked for such employer;

§ 31.3121 (a) (4)–1 Payments on account of sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expenses. The term "wages" does not include any payment made by an employer to, or on behalf of, an employee on account of the employee's sickness or accident disability or the medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with the employee's sickness or accident disability, if such payment is made after the expiration of 6 calendar months following the last calendar month in which such employee worked for such employer. Such payments are excluded from wages under this exception even though not made under a plan or system. If the employee does not actually perform services for the employer during the requisite period, the existence of the employer-employee relationship during that period is immaterial.

§ 31.3121 (a) (5) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments from or to certain tax-exempt trusts or under or to certain annuity plans.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

* * * * *

(5) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary—

(A) From or to a trust described in section 401 (a) which is exempt from tax under section 501 (a) at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as such employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust, or

(B) Under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment, meets the requirements of section 401 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6);

§ 31.3121 (a) (5)–1 Payments from or to certain tax-exempt trusts or under or to certain annuity plans. The term "wages" does not include—

(a) Any payment made by an employer, on behalf of an employee or his beneficiary, into a trust or annuity plan, if at the time of such payment the trust is exempt from tax under section 501 (a) as an organization described in section 401 (a) or the annuity plan meets the requirements of section 401 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6); or

(b) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary from a trust or under an annuity plan, if at the time of such payment the trust is exempt from tax under section 501 (a) as an organization described in section 401 (a) or the annuity plan meets the requirements of section 401 (a) (3), (4), (5), and (6).

A payment made to an employee of a trust described in section 401 (a) which is exempt from tax under section 501 (a) for services rendered as an employee of such trust and not as a beneficiary of the trust is not within this exclusion from wages.

§ 31.3121 (a) (6) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payment by employer of employee tax under section 3101 or employee contributions under a State law.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such terms shall not include—

* * * * *

(6) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee)—

(A) Of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 (or the corresponding section of prior law), or

(B) Of any payment required from an employee under a State unemployment compensation law;

§ 31.3121 (a) (6)–1 Payment by an employer of employee tax under section 3101 or employee contributions under a State law. The term "wages" does not include any payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of, or other reimbursement from, the employee) of either (a) the employee tax imposed by section 3101 or the corresponding section of prior law, or (b) any payment required from an employee under a State unemployment compensation law.

§ 31.3121 (a) (7) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business or for domestic service.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

* * * * *

(7) (A) Remuneration paid in any medium other than cash to an employee for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business or for domestic service in a private home of the employer;

(B) Cash remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar quarter to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer, if the cash remuneration paid in such quarter by the employer to the employee for such service is less than $50. As used in this subparagraph, the term "domestic service in a private home of the employer" does not include service described in subsection (g) (5);

(C) Cash remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar quarter to an employee for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, if the cash remuneration paid in such quarter by the employer to the employee for such service is less than $50. As used in this subparagraph, the term "service not in the course of the employer's trade or business" does not include domestic service in a private home of the employer and does not include service described in subsection (g) (5);

[Sec. 3121 (a) (7) as amended by sec. 204 (b) (1), (2), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 Payments for services not in the course of employer's trade or business or for domestic service—(a) Meaning of terms—(1) Services not in the course of employer's trade or business. The term "services not in the course of the employer's trade or business" includes services that do not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer. Such term does not include services performed for a corporation. As used in this section, the term does not include service not in the course of the employer's trade or business performed on a farm operated for profit or domestic service in a private home of the employer. See § 31.3121 (g)–1 (f) for provisions relating to services not in the course of the employer's trade or business performed on a farm operated for profit.

(2) Domestic service in a private home of the employer. Services of a household nature performed by an employee in or about a private home of the person by whom he is employed constitute domestic service in a private home of the employer. A private home is a fixed place of abode of an individual or family. A separate and distinct dwelling unit maintained by an individual in an apartment house, hotel, or other similar establishment may constitute a private home. If a dwelling house is used primarily as a boarding or lodging house for the purpose of supplying board or lodging to the public as a business enterprise, it is not a private home. In general, services of a household nature in or about a private home include services performed by cooks, waiters, butlers, housekeepers, governesses, maids, valets, baby sitters, janitors, laundresses, furnacemen, caretakers, handymen, gardeners, footmen, grooms, and chauffeurs of automobiles for family use. The term "domestic service in a private home of the employer" does not include the services enumerated above unless such services are performed in or about a private home of the employer. Services not of a household nature, such as services performed as a private secretary, tutor, or librarian, even though performed in the employer's home, are not included within the term "domestic service in a private home of the employer". As used in this section, the term does not include domestic service in a private home of the employer performed on a farm operated for profit or service not in the course of the employer's trade or business. See § 31.3121 (g)–1 (f) for provisions relating to domestic service in a private home of the employer performed on a farm operated for profit.

(b) Payments other than in cash. The term "wages" does not include remuneration paid in any medium other than cash (1) for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, or (2) for domestic service in a private home of the employer. Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, such as lodging, food, clothing, car tokens, transportation passes or tickets, or other goods or commodities, for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business or for domestic service in a private home of the employer does not constitute wages.

(c) Cash payments. (1) The term "wages" does not include cash remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar quarter after 1954 to an employee for—

(i) Domestic service in a private home of the employer, or

(ii) Service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, unless the cash remuneration paid in such quarter by the employer to the employee for such service is $50 or more.

(2) The test relating to cash remuneration of $50 or more is based on the remuneration paid in a calendar quarter rather than on the remuneration earned during a calendar quarter. It is immaterial whether the remuneration was earned before 1955 or after 1954.

Example. In the calendar quarter ending March 31, 1955, employer X pays employee A cash remuneration of $50 for service not in the course of X's trade or business. Such remuneration constitutes wages subject to the taxes even though $10 thereof represents payment for such service performed by A for X in December 1954.

In determining whether $50 or more has been paid either for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, only cash remuneration for such service shall be taken into account. Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any other medium, such as lodging, food, clothing, car tokens, transportation passes or tickets, or other goods or commodities, is disregarded in determining whether the cash-remuneration test is met. If an employee receives cash remuneration from an employer in a calendar quarter for both types of services the $50 cash-remuneration test is to be applied separately to each type of service. If an employee receives cash remuneration from more than one employer in a calendar quarter for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business, the $50 cash-remuneration test is to be applied separately to the remuneration received from each employer. See § 31.3102–1, relating to deduction of employee tax or amounts equivalent to the tax from cash payments for the services described in this section; § 31.3121 (a)–2, relating to time of payment of wages for such services; and § 31.3121 (i)–1, relating to computation to the nearest dollar of any payment of cash remuneration for domestic service in a private home of the employer.

§ 31.3121 (a) (8) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments for agricultural labor.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

* * * * *

(8) (A) Remuneration paid in any medium other than cash for agricultural labor;

(B) Cash remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar year to an employee for agricultural labor, if the cash remuneration paid in such year by the employer to the employee for such labor is less than $100;

[Sec. 3121 (a) (8) as amended by sec. 204 (b) (3), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (a) (8)–1 Payments for agricultural labor—(a) Scope of this section. For purposes of the regulations in this section, the term "agricultural labor" means, except as otherwise expressly indicated, only such agricultural labor (see § 31.3121 (g)–1) as constitutes employment or is deemed to constitute employment by reason of the rules relating to included and excluded services contained in section 3121 (c) (see § 31.3121 (c)–1) or the corresponding section of prior law.

(b) Payments other than in cash. The term "wages" does not include remuneration paid in any medium other than cash for agricultural labor. Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, such as lodging, food, clothing, car tokens, transportation passes or tickets, farm products, or other goods or commodities, for agricultural labor does not constitute wages.

(c) Cash payments. (1) The term "wages" does not include cash remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar year after 1954 to an employee for agricultural labor unless the cash remuneration paid in such year by the employer to the employee for such labor is $100 or more. If an employee receives cash remuneration from an employer both for services which constitute agricultural labor and for services which do not constitute agricultural labor, only the amount of such remuneration which is attributable to agricultural labor shall be included in determining whether the cash-remuneration test is met.

Example. Employer X operates a store and also is engaged in farming operations. Employee A, who regularly performs services for X in connection with the operation of the store, works on X's farm when additional help is required for the farm activities. In the calendar year 1955, X pays A $90 in cash for agricultural labor performed on X's farm and $1,500 for services performed in connection with the operation of the store. Since only $90 in cash remuneration is paid by X to A in the calendar year 1955 for agricultural labor, the cash-remuneration test is not met and the $90 so paid to A does not constitute wages subject to the taxes.

(2) The test relating to cash remuneration of $100 or more is based on the remuneration paid in a calendar year rather than on the remuneration earned during a calendar year. It is immaterial whether the remuneration was earned before 1955 or after 1954.

Example. Employer X pays cash remuneration of $100 in the calendar year 1955 to employee A for agricultural labor. Such remuneration constitutes wages even though $10 of such amount represents payment for agricultural labor performed by A for X in December 1954.

(3) If the services performed by an employee for his employer in any pay period include both agricultural labor and other services and either the agricultural labor or the other services are excepted from employment under any of the numbered paragraphs of section 3121 (b), the rules in § 31.3121 (c)–1, relating to included and excluded services, must be applied to the services performed in such pay period. Thus, any cash remuneration paid for agricultural labor which is performed in the pay period and which is deemed to be employment under the included-excluded rules must be taken into account in determining whether the cash remuneration paid to the employee for agricultural labor meets the $100 cash-remuneration test.

Example. Employer X, who is engaged in farm operations and also in the harvesting of crude gum (oleoresin) from living trees, employs A to perform services in connection with both types of operations. X pays A cash remuneration of $135 in the calendar year 1955 in 3 equal monthly payments of $45 each for such services. A spends more than one-half of his time in the first monthly pay period in harvesting crude gum and more than one-half of his time in the second and third pay periods in cultivating the soil. While both types of services performed by A for X constitute agricultural labor as defined in section 3121 (g), A's services in connection with the cultivation of the soil constitute employment and his services in connection with the harvesting of crude gum are excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (1) (see § 31.3121 (b) (1)–1 (a)). By application of the rules relating to included and excluded services, none of A's services in the first pay period are deemed to constitute employment and the $45 paid for his services in such pay period is disregarded for purposes of the $100 cash-remuneration test. Although all of A's services in the second and third pay periods are deemed to constitute employment by application of the included-excluded rules, the $90 paid by X to A for his services in such periods does not constitute wages subject to the taxes since the total cash remuneration paid to A by X in the calendar year for agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment is less than $100.

(4) In determining whether $100 or more has been paid to an employee for agricultural labor, only cash remuneration for such labor shall be taken into account. Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any other medium, such as lodging, food, clothing, car tokens, transportation passes or tickets, farm products, or other goods or commodities, is disregarded in determining whether the cash-remuneration test is met. If an employee receives cash remuneration in any one calendar year from more than one employer for agricultural labor, the $100 cash-remuneration test is to be applied with respect to the remuneration received by the employee from each employer in such calendar year for such labor. See § 31.3102–1, relating to deduction of employee tax or amounts equivalent to the tax from cash payments for agricultural labor, and § 31.3121 (a)–2, relating to the time of payment of wages for agricultural labor.

§ 31.3121 (a) (9) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments to stand-by employees.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(9) Any payment (other than vacation or sick pay) made to an employee after the month in which he attains the age of 65, if he did not work for the employer in the period for which such payment is made; or

§ 31.3121 (a) (9)–1 Payments to stand-by employees. The term "wages" does not include any payment (other than vacation or sick pay) made by an employer to an employee after the calendar month in which the employee attains age 65, if—

(a) Such employee does no work (other than being subject to call for the performance of work) for such employer in the period for which such payment is made; and

(b) The employer-employee relationship exists between the employer and employee throughout the period for which such payment is made.

Vacation or sick pay is not within this exclusion from wages. If the employee does any work for the employer in the period for which the payment is made, no remuneration paid by such employer to such employee with respect to such period is within this exclusion from wages. For example, if employee A, who attained the age of 65 in January 1955, is employed by the X Company on a stand-by basis and is paid $200 by the X Company for being subject to call during the month of February 1955 and an additional $25 for work performed for the X Company on one day in February 1955, then none of the $225 is excluded from wages under this exception.

§ 31.3121 (a) (10) Statutory provisions; definitions; wages; payments to certain home workers.

SEC. 3121. Definitions—(a) Wages. For purposes of this chapter, the term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(10) Remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar quarter to an employee for service described in subsection (d) (3) (C) (relating to home workers), if the cash remuneration paid in such quarter by the employer to the employee for such service is less than $50.

§ 31.3121 (a) (10)–1 Payments to certain home workers. (a) The term "wages" does not include remuneration paid by an employer in any calendar quarter to an employee—

(1) For services performed after 1954 as a home worker who is an employee by reason of the provisions of section 3121 (d) (3) (C) (see § 31.3121 (d)–1 (d)), or

(2) For services performed after 1950 and before 1955 as a home worker who is an employee by reason of the provisions of section 1426 (d) (3) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, unless the cash remuneration paid in such quarter by the employer to the employee for such services is $50 or more. The test relating to cash remuneration of $50 or more is based on remuneration paid in a calendar quarter rather than on remuneration earned during a calendar quarter. If $50 or more of cash remuneration is paid in a particular calendar quarter, it is immaterial whether the $50 is in payment for services performed during the quarter of payment or during any other quarter.

(b) The application of paragraph (a) of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, a home worker, performs services for X, a manufacturer, in 1954 and 1955. In the performance of the home work A is an employee both in 1954 (by reason of section 1426 (d) (3) (C) of the 1939 Code) and in 1955 (by reason of section 3121 (d) (3) (C)). In March 1955, A returns to X articles made by A at home from materials received by A from X in 1954. X pays A cash remuneration of $50 for such work when the finished articles are delivered. The $50 includes $10 which represents remuneration for home work performed by A in 1954. The entire $50 is subject to the taxes.

Example (2). Assume that the same transactions occur, but that A is not subject in 1954 to licensing requirements under the laws of the State in which the home work is performed. A, therefore, does not perform home work in 1954 as an employee of X by reason of section 1426 (d) (3) (C) of the 1939 Code, and the $10 paid in 1955 for such work is not remuneration for employment. The remaining $40 for the home work performed in 1955 is remuneration for employment, but is excluded from wages by application of the $50 cash-remuneration test.

(c) In the event an employee receives remuneration in any one calendar quarter from more than one employer for services performed as a home worker of the character described in paragraph (a) of this section, the regulations in this section are to be applied with respect to the remuneration received by the employee from each employer in such calendar quarter for such services. This exclusion from wages has no application to remuneration paid for services performed as a home worker who is an employee under either section 3121 (d) (2) (see § 31.3121 (d)–1 (c)) or section 1426 (d) (2) of the 1939 Code, relating to common law employees.

(d) Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any other medium, such as clothing, car tokens, transportation passes or tickets, or other goods or commodities, is disregarded in determining whether the $50 cash-remuneration test is met. If the cash remuneration paid in any calendar quarter by an employer to an employee for services performed as a home worker of the character described in paragraph (a) of this section is $50 or more, then no remuneration, whether in cash or in any medium other than cash, paid by the employer to the employee in such calendar quarter for such services is excluded from wages under this exception.

(e) For provisions relating to whether a home worker is an employee under section 1426 (d) (3) (C) of the 1939 Code, see § 408.204 of Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Part 408. See also § 31.3102–1, relating to deduction of employee tax or amounts equivalent to the tax from cash payments for services performed as a home worker of the character described in paragraph (a) of this section, and § 31.3121 (a)–2, relating to the time of payment of wages for such services.

(b) Employment. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employment" means any service performed after 1936 and prior to 1955 which was employment for purposes of subchapter A of chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 under the law applicable to the period in which such service was performed, and any service, of whatever nature, performed after 1954 either (A) by an employee for the person employing him, irrespective of the citizenship or residence of either, (i) within the United States, or (ii) on or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft under a contract of service which is entered into within the United States or during the performance of which and while the employee is employed on the vessel or aircraft it touches at a port in the United States, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel or aircraft when outside the United States, or (B) outside the United States by a citizen of the United States as an employee for an American employer (as defined in subsection (h)); except that, in the case of service performed after 1954, such term shall not include—

[SEC. 205. Amendments to definition of employment [Social Security Amendments of 1954]. (a) Section 3121 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (A) Service performed in connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity defined as an agricultural commodity in section 15 (g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended (46 Stat. 1550 § 3; 12 U. S. C. 1141j);

(B) Service performed by foreign agricultural workers (i) under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended (65 Stat. 119; 7 U. S. C. 1461–1468), or (ii) lawfully admitted to the United States from the Bahamas, Jamaica, and the other British West Indies on a temporary basis to perform agricultural labor;

(b) Section 3121 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is amended by striking out paragraph (3) and redesignating paragraphs (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), and (14), and any references thereto contained in such code, as paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), and (13), respectively.

• • • • • •

(f) • • • The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall be applicable only with respect to services (whether performed after 1954 or prior to 1955) for which the remuneration is paid after 1954.]

§ 31.3121 (b)–1 Employment; services to which the regulations in this subpart apply. (a) The provisions of the regulations in this subpart relating to the term "employment" apply with respect to services performed after 1954. Certain provisions also apply with respect to services performed before 1955 for which the remuneration is paid after 1954 (see § 31.3121 (b)–2 (b)). For provisions relating generally to services performed before 1955, see § 31.3121 (b)–2 (a). For provisions relating to the circumstances under which services which do not constitute employment are nevertheless deemed to be employment, and relating to the circumstances under which services which constitute employment are nevertheless deemed not to be employment, see § 31.3121 (c)–1. For provisions relating to who are employees and who are employers, see §§ 31.3121 (d)–1 and 31.3121 (d)–2, respectively.

(b) The taxes apply with respect to remuneration paid after 1954 for services performed before 1955, as well as for services performed after 1954, to the extent that the remuneration and services constitute wages and employment. See §§ 31.3121 (a)–1 to 31.3121 (a) (10)–1, relating to wages.

§ 31.3121 (b)–2 Employment; services performed before 1955—(a) General rule. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section:

(i) Services performed after 1936 and before 1955 which were employment under the applicable law in effect before 1955 constitute employment under section 3121 (b).

(ii) Services performed after 1936 and before 1955 which were not employment under the applicable law in effect before 1955 do not constitute employment under section 3121 (b).

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, determination of whether services performed before 1955 constitute employment shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions of law in effect before 1955 and of the regulations thereunder. The regulations applicable in determining whether services performed after 1936 and before 1955 constitute employment are as follows:

(i) Services performed after 1936 and before 1940—Regulations 91; 26 CFR (1939) Part 401.

(ii) Services performed after 1939 and before 1951—Regulations 106; 26 CFR (1939) Part 402.

(iii) Services performed after 1950 and before 1955—Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Part 408.

(b) Certain services performed before 1955 the remuneration for which is paid after 1954. (1) Services of the following character performed before 1955, for which remuneration is paid after 1954, constitute employment under section 3121 (b):

(i) Agricultural labor, as defined in section 3121 (g) (see § 31.3121 (g)–1), other than services of the character described in section 3121 (b) (1) (relating to services performed in connection with the production or harvesting of certain oleoresinous products and services performed by certain foreign agricultural workers), which, at the time performed, constituted employment under section 1426 (b) of the 1939 Code, or would have constituted employment except for the provisions of section 1426 (b) (1) of such Code, as in effect at the time the services were performed.

(ii) Services not in the course of the employer's trade or business (see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 (a) (1)) which, at the time performed, constituted employment under section 1426 (b) of the 1939 Code, or would have constituted employment except for the provisions of section 1426 (b) (3) of such Code, as in effect at the time the services were performed.

(2) Services of the character described in section 3121 (b) (1) (B) (see § 31.3121 (b) (1)–1 (b) and (c), relating to services performed by certain foreign agricultural workers), which were performed before 1955 and the remuneration for which is paid after 1954, do not constitute employment under section 3121 (b), irrespective of whether they constituted employment under section 1426 (b) of the 1939 Code, as in effect at the time the services were performed.

(3) This paragraph has no application to services performed before 1955 and the remuneration for which was paid before 1955.

§ 31.3121 (b)–3 Employment; services performed after 1954—(a) In general. Whether services performed after 1954 constitute employment is determined in accordance with the provisions of section 3121 (b).

(b) Services performed within the United States. Services performed after 1954 within the United States, that is, within any of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, or Puerto Rico, by an employee for his employer, unless specifically excepted by section 3121 (b), constitute employment. The place where the contract of service is entered into and the residence of the employee or of the employer are immaterial. The citizenship of the employee or of the employer also is immaterial except to the extent provided in any specific exception from employment. Thus, the employee and the employer may be citizens and residents of a foreign country and the contract of service may be entered into in a foreign country, and yet, if the employee under such contract performs services within the United States, there may be to that extent employment.

(c) Services performed outside the United States—(1) In general. Except as provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, services performed outside the United States, that is, outside the several States, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico, do not constitute employment.

(2) On or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft. (i) Services performed after 1954 by an employee for an employer "on or in connection with" an American vessel or American aircraft outside the United States (that is, the several States, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico) constitute employment if:

(a) The employee is also employed "on and in connection with" such vessel or aircraft when outside the United States; and

(b) The services are performed under a contract of service, between the employee and the employer, which is entered into within the United States; or during the performance of the contract under which the services are performed and while the employee is employed on the vessel or aircraft it touches at a port within the United States; and

(c) The services are not excepted under section 3121 (b).

(ii) An employee performs services on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft if he performs services on such vessel or aircraft which are also in connection with the vessel or aircraft. Services performed on the vessel by employees as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel, for example, are performed under such circumstances, since such services are also connected with the vessel. Similarly, services performed on the aircraft by employees as officers or members of the crew of the aircraft are performed on and in connection with such aircraft. Services may be performed on the vessel or aircraft, however, which have no connection with it, as in the case of services performed by an employee while on the vessel or aircraft merely as a passenger in the general sense. For example, the services of a buyer in the employ of a department store while he is a passenger on a vessel are not in connection with the vessel.

(iii) If services are performed by an employee "on and in connection with" an American vessel or American aircraft when outside the United States and the conditions listed in subdivision (i) (b) and (c) of this subparagraph are met, then the services of that employee performed on or in connection with the vessel or aircraft constitute employment. The expression "on or in connection with" refers not only to services performed on the vessel or aircraft but also to services connected with the vessel or aircraft which are not actually performed on it (for example, shore services performed as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel).

(iv) Services performed by a member of the crew or other employee whose contract of service is not entered into within the United States, and during the performance of which and while the employee is employed on the vessel or aircraft it does not touch at a port within the United States, do not constitute employment under this subparagraph, notwithstanding services performed by other members of the crew or other employees on or in connection with the vessel or aircraft may constitute employment.

(v) A vessel includes every description of watercraft, or other contrivance, used as a means of transportation on water. An aircraft includes every description of craft, or other contrivance, used as a means of transportation through the air. In the case of an aircraft, the term "port" means an airport.

An airport means an area on land or water used regularly by aircraft for receiving or discharging passengers or cargo. For definitions of "American vessel" and "American aircraft", see § 31.3121 (f)–1.

(vi) With respect to services performed outside the United States on or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft, the citizenship or residence of the employee is immaterial, and the citizenship or residence of the employer is material only in case it has a bearing in determining whether a vessel is an American vessel.

(3) By a citizen of the United States as an employee for an American employer. Services performed after 1954 outside the United States by a citizen of the United States as an employee for an American employer constitute employment provided the services are not specifically excepted under section 3121 (b). For definitions of "citizen of the United States" and "American employer", see §§ 31.3121 (e)–1 and 31.3121 (h)–1, respectively.

(4) By a citizen of the United States as an employee for a foreign subsidiary corporation. For provisions relating to the extension of the Federal old-age and survivors insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act to certain services not constituting employment which are performed outside the United States by citizens of the United States in the employ of a foreign subsidiary of a domestic corporation, see section 3121 (l) and the Regulations Relating to Contract Coverage of Employees of Foreign Subsidiaries (Part 36 of this chapter).

§ 31.3121 (b)–4 Employment; excepted services in general. (a) Services performed after 1954 by an employee for an employer do not constitute employment for purposes of the taxes if they are specifically excepted from employment under any of the numbered paragraphs of section 3121 (b). Services so excepted do not constitute employment for purposes of the taxes even though they are performed within the United States, or are performed outside the United States on or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft, or are performed outside the United States by a citizen of the United States for an American employer.

(b) The exception attaches to the services performed by the employee and not to the employee as an individual; that is, the exception applies only to the services in an excepted class rendered by the employee.

Example. A is an individual who is employed part time by B to perform services which are specifically excepted from employment under one of the numbered paragraphs of section 3121 (b). A is also employed by C part time to perform services which constitute employment. While no tax liability is incurred with respect to A's remuneration for services performed in the employ of B (the services being excepted from employment), the exception does not embrace the services performed by A in the employ of C (which constitute employment) and the taxes attach with respect to the wages (see § 31.3121 (a)–1) for such services.

(c) For provisions relating to the circumstances under which services which are excepted are nevertheless deemed to be employment, and relating to the circumstances under which services which are not excepted are nevertheless deemed not to be employment, see § 31.3121 (c)–1.

(1) To recruit such workers (including any such workers who have resided in the United States for the preceding five years, or who are temporarily in the United States under legal entry);

• • • • • •

(5) To assist such workers and employers in negotiating contracts for agricultural employment (such workers being free to accept or decline agricultural employment with any eligible employer and to choose the type of agricultural employment they desire, and eligible employers being free to offer agricultural employment to any workers of their choice not under contract to other employers);

• • • • • •

(f) "Agriculture" includes farming in all its branches and among other things includes the cultivation and tillage of the soil, dairying, the production, cultivation, growing, and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities (including commodities defined as agricultural commodities in section 15 (g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended), the raising of livestock, bees, fur-bearing animals, or poultry, and any practices (including any forestry or lumbering operations) performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with such farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market or to carriers for transportation to market.

• • • • • •

§ 31.3121 (b) (1)–1 Services performed in connection with the production or harvesting of certain oleoresinous products and services performed by certain foreign agricultural workers. (a) Services performed in connection with the production or harvesting of crude gum (oleoresin) from a living tree or the processing of such crude gum into gum spirits of turpentine and gum rosin, provided such processing is carried on by the original producer of such crude gum, are excepted from employment. However, the services to which this paragraph relates constitute agricultural labor as defined in section 3121 (g) (see § 31.3121 (g)–1 (d)). Thus, any cash remuneration paid for such services, to the extent that the services are deemed to constitute employment by reason of the rules relating to included and excluded services contained in section 3121 (c) (see § 31.3121 (c)–1), is taken into account in applying the test prescribed in section 3121 (a) (8) (B) for determining whether cash remuneration paid for agricultural labor constitutes wages (see § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1 (c)).

(b) Services performed by foreign agricultural workers from the Republic of Mexico under contracts entered into in accordance with title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, are excepted from employment. Contracts entered into pursuant to the provisions of such title V may provide for the performance only of services which constitute "agricultural employment". The term "agricultural employment" includes certain services which do not constitute "agricultural labor" as that term is defined in section 3121 (g) (see § 31.3121 (g)–1). For purposes of title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, the term "agricultural employment" includes services or activities included within the provisions of section 3 (f) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, or section 3121 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code, horticultural employment, cotton ginning, compressing and storing, crushing of oil seeds, and the packing, canning, freezing, drying, or other processing of perishable or seasonable agricultural products.

(c) Services performed by a foreign agricultural worker lawfully admitted to the United States from the Bahamas, Jamaica, or the other British West Indies, on a temporary basis to perform agricultural labor are excepted from employment.

(d) See § 31.3121 (b)–2 (b) for provisions relating to the status of services of the character to which this section applies which were performed before 1955 and the remuneration for which is paid after 1954.

(2) Domestic service performed in a local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at a school, college, or university;

§ 31.3121 (b) (2)–1 Domestic service performed by students for certain college organizations. (a) Services of a household nature performed in or about the club rooms or house of a local college club, or in or about the club rooms or house of a local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, by a student who is enrolled and regularly attending classes at a school, college, or university are excepted from employment. For purposes of this exception, the statutory tests are the type of services performed by the employee, the character of the place where the services are performed, and the status of the employee as a student enrolled and regularly attending classes at a school, college, or university.

(b) In general, services of a household nature in or about the club rooms or house of a local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority include services rendered by cooks, waiters, butlers, maids, janitors, laundresses, furnacemen, handymen, gardeners, housekeepers, and housemothers.

(c) A local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority does not include an alumni club or chapter. If the club rooms or house of a local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority is used primarily for the purpose of supplying board or lodging to students or the public as a business enterprise, the services performed therein are not within the exception.

(d) The term "school, college, or university" within the meaning of this exception is to be taken in its commonly or generally accepted sense.

(e) Services of a household nature are not within the exception if performed in or about rooming or lodging houses, boarding houses, clubs (except local college clubs), hotels, hospitals, eleemosynary institutions, or commercial offices or establishments.

(f) For provisions relating to domestic service in a private home of the employer, see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1.

[Sec. 3121 (b) (4), Internal Revenue Code 1954 redesignated paragraph (3) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (3)–1 Family employment. (a) Certain services are excepted from employment because of the existence of a family relationship between the employee and the individual employing him. The exceptions are as follows:

(1) Services performed by an individual in the employ of his or her spouse;

(2) Services performed by a father or mother in the employ of his or her son or daughter; and

(3) Services performed by a son or daughter under the age of 21 in the employ of his or her father or mother.

(b) Under paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section, the exception is conditioned solely upon the family relationship between the employee and the individual employing him. Under paragraph (a) (3) of this section, in addition to the family relationship, there is a further requirement that the son or daughter shall be under the age of 21, and the exception continues only during the time that such son or daughter is under the age of 21.

(c) Services performed in the employ of a corporation are not within the exception. Services performed in the employ of a partnership are not within the exception unless the requisite family relationship exists between the employee and each of the partners comprising the partnership.

(4) Service performed by an individual on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel, or on or in connection with an aircraft not an American aircraft, if (A) the individual is employed on and in connection with such vessel or aircraft, when outside the United States and (B) (i) such individual is not a citizen of the United States or (ii) the employer is not an American employer.

[Sec. 3121 (b) (5), Internal Revenue Code 1954, as amended and redesignated paragraph (4) by section 205 (b), (c), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (4)–1 Services performed on or in connection with a non-American vessel or aircraft. (a) Services performed within the United States by an employee for an employer "on or in connection with" a vessel not an American vessel, or "on or in connection with" an aircraft not an American aircraft, are excepted from employment if—

(1) The employee is employed by such employer "on and in connection with" such vessel or aircraft when outside the United States, and

(2) (i) The employee is not a citizen of the United States, or (ii) the employer is not an American employer.

(b) An employee performs services on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft if he performs services on the vessel or aircraft when outside the United States which are also in connection with the vessel or aircraft. Services performed on the vessel outside the United States by employees as officers or members of the crew, or by employees of concessionaires, of the vessel, for example, are performed under such circumstances, since such services are also connected with the vessel. Similarly, services performed on the aircraft outside the United States by employees as officers or members of the crew of the aircraft are performed on and in connection with such aircraft. Services may be performed on the vessel or aircraft, however, which have no connection with it, as in the case of services performed by an employee while on the vessel or aircraft merely as a passenger in the general sense. For example, the services of a buyer in the employ of a department store while he is a passenger on a vessel are not in connection with the vessel.

(c) The expression "on or in connection with" refers not only to services performed on the vessel or aircraft but also to services connected with the vessel or aircraft which are not actually performed on it (for example, shore services performed as officers or members of the crew, or as employees of concessionaires, of the vessel).

(d) Services performed within the United States on or in connection with a non-American vessel or aircraft for an employer by an employee who is not a citizen of the United States are excepted from employment, irrespective of whether the employer is or is not an American employer, provided the employee also is employed by such employer on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft when outside the United States. Services performed within the United States on or in connection with a non-American vessel or aircraft by an employee for an employer who is not an American employer also are excepted from employment, irrespective of whether the employee is or is not a citizen of the United States, provided the employee also is employed by such employer on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft when outside the United States. Services performed within the United States on or in connection with a non-American vessel or aircraft for an American employer by an employee who is a citizen of the United States are not excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (4), irrespective of whether the employee is employed by such employer on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft when outside the United States. Further, section 3121 (b) (4) does not except from employment services performed within the United States for an employer, whether or not an American employer, on or in connection with a non-American vessel or aircraft by an employee, whether or not a citizen of the United States, who is not also employed by such employer on and in connection with the vessel or aircraft when outside the United States.

(e) Services performed outside the United States on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel, or on or in connection with an aircraft not an American aircraft, by a citizen of the United States as an employee for an American employer are not excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (4), irrespective of whether the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel or aircraft when outside the United States. Services performed outside the United States on or in connection with a vessel not an American vessel or on or in connection with an aircraft not an American aircraft, either by an employee who is not a citizen of the United States or for an employer who is not an American employer, do not, in any event, constitute employment. See § 31.3121 (b)–3 (c), relating to services performed outside the United States which constitute employment.

(f) See § 31.3121 (b)–3 (c) (2) (v) for definitions of "vessel" and "aircraft", § 31.3121 (f)–1, for definitions of "American vessel" and "American aircraft", § 31.3121 (e)–1, for definition of "citizen of the United States", and § 31.3121 (h)–1, for definition of "American employer".

(5) Service performed in the employ of any instrumentality of the United States, if such instrumentality is exempt from the tax imposed by section 3111 by virtue of any provision of law which specifically refers to such section (or the corresponding section of prior law) in granting such exemption;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (6), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (5) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (5)–1 Services in employ of an instrumentality of the United States specifically exempted from the employer tax. Services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States are excepted from employment if such instrumentality is exempt from the employer tax imposed by section 3111 by virtue of any other provision of law which specifically refers to such section 3111 or the corresponding section of prior law (section 1410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939) in granting exemption from the employer tax. This exception does not operate to exclude from employment services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States unless the Congress has granted to such instrumentality a specific exemption from the tax imposed by section 3111 or the corresponding section of prior law. For provisions which make general exemptions from Federal taxation ineffectual as to the employer tax imposed by section 3111, see § 31.3112–1. For other exceptions from employment applicable with respect to services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States, see § 31.3121 (b) (6)–1.

(B) Service performed by an individual in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States if such an instrumentality was exempt from the tax imposed by section 1410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 on December 31, 1950, and if such service is covered by a retirement system established by such instrumentality; except that the provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to—

(i) Service performed in the employ of a corporation which is wholly owned by the United States;

(ii) Service performed in the employ of a national farm loan association, a production credit association, a Federal Reserve Bank, or a Federal Credit Union;

(iii) Service performed in the employ of a State, county, or community committee under the Commodity Stabilization Service;

(iv) Service performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, Army and Air Force Motion Picture Service, Navy Exchanges, Marine Corps Exchanges, or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense, at installations of the Department of Defense for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of such Department; or

(v) Service performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Coast Guard Exchanges or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, at installations of the Coast Guard for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of the Coast Guard;

(C) Service performed in the employ of the United States or in the employ of any instrumentality of the United States, if such service is performed—

(i) As the President or Vice President of the United States or as a Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner of or to the Congress;

(ii) In the legislative branch;

(iii) In a penal institution of the United States by an inmate thereof;

(iv) By any individual as an employee included under section 2 of the Act of August 4, 1947 (relating to certain interns, student nurses, and other student employees of hospitals of the Federal Government; 5 U. S. C., sec. 1052);

(v) By any individual as an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, earthquake, flood, or other similar emergency; or

(vi) By any individual to whom the Civil Service Retirement Act of 1930 does not apply because such individual is subject to another retirement system;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (7), Internal Revenue Code 1954, as amended and redesignated paragraph (6) by sec. 205 (b), (d), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (6)–1 Services in employ of United States or instrumentality thereof—(a) In general. This section relates to services performed in the employ of the United States Government or in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States. Particular services which are not excepted from employment under one rule set forth in this section may nevertheless be excepted under another rule set forth in this section or under § 31.3121 (b) (5)–1, relating to services in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States specifically exempted from the employer tax. Moreover, services performed in the employ of the United States or of any instrumentality thereof which are not excepted from employment under paragraph (5) or (6) of section 3121 (b) may nevertheless be excepted under some other paragraph of such section. For provisions relating generally to the application of the taxes in the case of services performed in the employ of the United States or a wholly owned instrumentality thereof, see § 31.3122.

(b) Services covered under a retirement system established by a law of the United States. Services performed in the employ of the United States or in the employ of any instrumentality thereof are excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (6) (A) if such services are covered under a law enacted by the Congress of the United States which specifically provides for the establishment of a retirement system for employees of the United States or of such instrumentality. Determinations as to whether services are covered by a retirement system of the requisite character are to be made as of the time such services are performed. Services of an employee who has an option to have his services covered under a retirement system are not covered under such retirement system unless and until he exercises such option. The test is whether particular services performed by an employee are covered by a retirement system of the requisite character rather than whether the position in which such services are performed is covered by such retirement system.

(c) Services performed for an instrumentality not subject to employer tax on December 31, 1950, and covered under a retirement system established by such instrumentality. (1) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the United States are excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (6) (B) if—

(i) The particular instrumentality was not subject on December 31, 1950, to the employer tax imposed by section 1410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and

(ii) The services are covered by a retirement system established by such instrumentality.

(2) If the particular instrumentality was not in existence on December 31, 1950, but is created thereafter under a law which was in effect on December 31, 1950, services performed in the employ of such instrumentality are excepted from employment (unless otherwise provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph) if—

(i) The instrumentality had it been in existence on December 31, 1950, would not have been subject on that date to the employer tax imposed by section 1410 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and

(ii) The services are covered by a retirement system established by such instrumentality.

It is immaterial, for purposes of this exception, whether the exemption from the employer tax on December 31, 1950, resulted, or would have resulted, from a tax exemption as such in effect on December 31, 1950, or from the provisions of section 1426 (b) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 in effect on that date, relating to the exception from employment of services performed in the employ of certain instrumentalities of the United States.

(3) Determinations as to whether services performed in the employ of an instrumentality referred to in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph are covered by a retirement system established by such instrumentality are to be made as of the time such services are performed. Services of an employee who has an option to have his services covered under a retirement system established by the instrumentality are not covered under such retirement system unless and until he exercises such option. The test is whether particular services performed by an employee are covered by a retirement system established by the instrumentality rather than whether the position in which such services are performed is covered by such retirement system.

(4) The exception from employment provided in section 3121 (b) (6) (B) has no application with respect to any of the following classes of services:

(i) Services performed in the employ of a corporation which is wholly owned by the United States;

(ii) Services performed in the employ of a national farm loan association, a production credit association, a Federal Reserve Bank, or a Federal Credit Union;

(iii) Services performed in the employ of a State, county, or community committee under the Commodity Stabilization Service;

(iv) Services performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, Army and Air Force Motion Picture Service, Navy Exchanges, Marine Corps Exchanges, or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense, at installations of the Department of Defense for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of such Department, or

(v) Services performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Coast Guard Exchanges or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, at installations of the Coast Guard for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of the Coast Guard.

(d) Special classes of services. The following classes of services performed either in the employ of the United States or in the employ of any instrumentality thereof are excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (6) (C):

(1) Services performed as the President or Vice President of the United States or as a Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, of or to the Congress of the United States;

(2) Services performed in the legislative branch of the United States Government;

(3) Services performed in a penal institution of the United States by an inmate thereof;

(4) Services performed by student nurses, medical or dental interns, residents-in-training, student dietitians, student physical therapists, or student occupational therapists, assigned or attached to a hospital, clinic, or medical or dental laboratory operated by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government, or by certain other student employees described in section 2 of the act of August 4, 1947 (5 U. S. C. 1052);

(5) Services performed by an individual as an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, earthquake, flood, or other similar emergency; and

(6) Services performed by an individual to whom the Civil Service Retirement Act does not apply because he is, with respect to such services, subject to another retirement system, established either by a law of the United States or by the agency or instrumentality of the United States for which such services are performed.

§ 31.3121 (b) (7) Statutory provisions; definitions; employment; services in employ of States or their political subdivisions or instrumentalities.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(b) Employment. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after 1954 • • •; except that • • • such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(7) Service (other than service which, under subsection (j), constitutes covered transportation service) performed in the employ of a State, or any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one or more States or political subdivisions;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (8), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (7) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (7)–1 Services in employ of States or their political subdivisions or instrumentalities. Services, other than covered transportation service as defined in section 3121 (j), performed in the employ of any State, or of any political subdivision thereof, are excepted from employment. Services, other than covered transportation service, performed in the employ of an instrumentality of one or more States or political subdivisions thereof are excepted from employment if the instrumentality is wholly owned by one or more of the foregoing. The term "State" includes the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico (see § 31.3121 (e)–1). For provisions relating to service which constitutes covered transportation service, see § 31.3121 (j)–1.

§ 31.3121 (b) (8) Statutory provisions; definitions; employment; services performed by a minister of a church or a member of a religious order; services in employ of religious, charitable, educational, or certain other organizations exempt from income tax.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(b) Employment. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after 1954 • • •; except that • • • such term shall not include—

• • • • • •

(8) (A) Service performed by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order;

(B) Service performed in the employ of a religious, charitable, educational, or other organization described in section 501 (c) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a), but this subparagraph shall not apply to service performed during the period for which a certificate, filed pursuant to subsection (k) (or the corresponding subsection of prior law), is in effect if such service is performed by an employee—

(i) Whose signature appears on the list filed by such organization under subsection (k) (or the corresponding subsection of prior law), or

(ii) Who became an employee of such organization after the calendar quarter in which the certificate was filed;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (9), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (8) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (8)–1 Services performed by a minister of a church or a member of a religious order—(a) In general. Services performed by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry, or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order, are excepted from employment. For provisions relating to the election available to certain ministers and members of religious orders to have the Federal old-age and survivors insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act extended to certain services performed by them, see the Income Tax Regulations (Part 1 of this chapter).

(b) Service by a minister in the exercise of his ministry. Except as provided in paragraph (c) (3) of this section, service performed by a minister in the exercise of his ministry includes the ministration of sacerdotal functions and the conduct of religious worship, and the control, conduct, and maintenance of religious organizations (including the religious boards, societies, and other integral agencies of such organizations), under the authority of a religious body constituting a church or church denomination. The following rules are applicable in determining whether services performed by a minister are performed in the exercise of his ministry:

(1) Whether service performed by a minister constitutes the conduct of religious worship or the ministration of sacerdotal functions depends on the tenets and practices of the particular religious body constituting his church or church denomination.

(2) Service performed by a minister in the control, conduct, and maintenance of a religious organization relates to directing, managing, or promoting the activities of such organization. Any religious organization is deemed to be under the authority of a religious body constituting a church or church denomination if it is organized and dedicated to carrying out the tenets and principles of a faith in accordance with either the requirements or sanctions governing the creation of institutions of the faith. The term "religious organization" has the same meaning and application as is given to the term for income tax purposes.

(3) (i) If a minister is performing service in the conduct of religious worship or the ministration of sacerdotal functions, such service is in the exercise of his ministry whether or not it is performed for a religious organization.

(ii) The rule in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. M, a duly ordained minister, is engaged to perform service as chaplain at N University. M devotes his entire time to performing his duties as chaplain which include the conduct of religious worship, offering spiritual counsel to the university students, and teaching a class in religion. M is performing service in the exercise of his ministry.

(4) (i) If a minister is performing service for an organization which is operated as an integral agency of a religious organization under the authority of a religious body constituting a church or church denomination, all service performed by the minister in the conduct of religious worship, in the ministration of sacerdotal functions, or in the control, conduct, and maintenance of such organization (see subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) is in the exercise of his ministry.

(ii) The rule in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. M, a duly ordained minister, is engaged by the N Religious Board to serve as director of one of its departments. He performs no other service. The N Religious Board is an integral agency of O, a religious organization operating under the authority of a religious body constituting a church denomination. M is performing service in the exercise of his ministry.

(5) (i) If a minister, pursuant to an assignment or designation by a religious body constituting his church, performs service for an organization which is neither a religious organization nor operated as an integral agency of a religious organization, all service performed by him, even though such service may not involve the conduct of religious worship or the ministration of sacerdotal functions, is in the exercise of his ministry.

(ii) The rule in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. M, a duly ordained minister, is assigned by X, the religious body constituting his church, to perform advisory service to Y Company in connection with the publication of a book dealing with the history of M's church denomination. Y is neither a religious organization nor operated as an integral agency of a religious organization. M performs no other service for X or Y. M is performing service in the exercise of his ministry.

(c) Service by a minister not in the exercise of his ministry. (1) Section 3121 (b) (8) (A) does not except from employment service performed by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church which is not in the exercise of his ministry.

(2) (i) If a minister is performing service for an organization which is neither a religious organization nor operated as an integral agency of a religious organization and the service is not performed pursuant to an assignment or designation by his ecclesiastical superiors, then only the service performed by him in the conduct of religious worship or the ministration of sacerdotal functions is in the exercise of his ministry. See, however, subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(ii) The rule in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. M, a duly ordained minister, is engaged by N University to teach history and mathematics. He performs no other service for N although from time to time he performs marriages and conducts funerals for relatives and friends. N University is neither a religious organization nor operated as an integral agency of a religious organization. M is not performing the service for N pursuant to an assignment or designation by his ecclesiastical superiors. The service performed by M for N University is not in the exercise of his ministry. However, service performed by M in performing marriages and conducting funerals is in the exercise of his ministry.

(3) Service performed by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church as an employee of the United States, or a State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or a foreign government, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing, is not considered to be in the exercise of his ministry for purposes of the taxes, even though such service may involve the ministration of sacerdotal function or the conduct of religious worship. Thus, for example, service performed by an individual as a chaplain in the Armed Forces of the United States is considered to be performed by a commissioned officer in his capacity as such, and not by a minister in the exercise of his ministry. Similarly, service performed by an employee of a State as a chaplain in a State prison is considered to be performed by a civil servant of the State and not by a minister in the exercise of his ministry.

(d) Service in the exercise of duties required by a religious order. Service performed by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order includes all duties required of the member by the order. The nature or extent of such service is immaterial so long as it is a service which he is directed or required to perform by his ecclesiastical superiors.

§ 31.3121 (b) (8)-2 Services in employ of religious, charitable, educational, or certain other organizations exempt from income tax. (a) Services performed by an employee in the employ of a religious, charitable, educational, or other organization described in section 501 (c) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) are excepted from employment. However, this exception does not apply to services with respect to which a certificate, filed pursuant to section 3121 (k), or section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, is in effect. For provisions relating to the services with respect to which such a certificate is in effect, see § 31.3121 (k)-1.

(b) For provisions relating to exemption from income tax of an organization described in section 501 (c) (3), see the Income Tax Regulations (Part 1 of this chapter). For provisions relating to waiver by an organization of its exemption from the taxes imposed by sections 3101 and 3111, see § 31.3121 (k)-1. See also § 31.3121 (b) (8)-1, relating to services performed by a minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order; § 31.3121 (b) (10)-1, relating to services for remuneration of less than $50 for calendar quarter in the employ of certain organizations exempt from income tax; § 31.3121 (b) (10)-2, relating to services performed in the employ of a school, college, or university by certain students; and § 31.3121 (b) (13)-1, relating to services performed by certain student nurses and hospital interns.

(b) Employment. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after 1954 • • •; except that • • • such term shall not include—

(9) Service performed by an individual as an employee or employee representative as defined in section 3231;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (10), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (9) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (9)-1 Railroad industry; services performed by an employee or an employee representative as defined in section 3231. Services performed by an individual as an "employee" or as an "employee representative", as those terms are defined in section 3231, are excepted from employment. For definitions of employee and employee representative, see §§ 31.3231 (b)-1 and 31.3231 (c)-1.

§ 31.3121 (b) (10) Statutory provisions; definitions; employment; services for remuneration of less than $50 for calendar quarter in the employ of certain organizations exempt from income tax; services performed in the employ of a school, college, or university by certain students.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(b) Employment. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employment" means • • • any service, of whatever nature, performed after 1954 • • •; except that • • • such term shall not include—

• • • • •

(10) (A) Service performed in any calendar quarter in the employ of any organization exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) (other than an organization described in section 401 (a)) or under section 521, if the remuneration for such service is less than $50;

(B) Service performed in the employ of a school, college, or university if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university;

[Sec. 3121 (b) (11), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (10) by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (10)-1 Services for remuneration of less than $50 for calendar quarter in the employ of certain organizations exempt from income tax. (a) Services performed by an employee in a calendar quarter in the employ of an organization exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) (other than an organization described in section 401 (a)) or under section 521 are excepted from employment, if the remuneration for the services is less than $50. The test relating to remuneration of $50 is based on the remuneration earned during a calendar quarter rather than on the remuneration paid in a calendar quarter. The exception applies separately with respect to each organization for which the employee renders services in a calendar quarter. The type of services performed by the employee and the place where the services are performed are immaterial; the statutory tests are the character of the organization in the employ of which the services are performed and the amount of the remuneration for services performed by the employee in the calendar quarter. For provisions relating to exemption from income tax under section 501 (a) or 521, see the Income Tax Regulations (Part 1 of this chapter).

Example (1). X is a local lodge of a fraternal organization and is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) as an organization of the character described in section 501 (c) (8). X has two paid employees, A, who serves exclusively as recording secretary for the lodge, and B, who performs services for the lodge as janitor of its clubhouse. For services performed during the first calendar quarter of 1955 (that is, January 1, 1955, through March 31, 1955, both dates inclusive) A earns a total of $30. For services performed during the same calendar quarter B earns $180. Since the remuneration for the services performed by A during such quarter is less than $50, all of such services are excepted, and the taxes do not attach with respect to any of the remuneration for such services. Since the remuneration for the services performed by B during such quarter, however, is not less than $50, none of such services are excepted, and the taxes attach with respect to all of the remuneration for such services (that is, $180) as and when paid.

Example (2). The facts are the same as in example (1), above, except that on April 1, 1955, A's salary is increased and, for services performed during the calendar quarter beginning on that date (that is, April 1, 1955, through June 30, 1955, both dates inclusive), A earns a total of $60. Although all of the services performed by A during the first quarter were excepted, none of A's services performed during the second quarter are excepted since the remuneration for such services is not less than $50. The taxes attach with respect to all of the remuneration for services performed during the second quarter (that is, $60) as and when paid.

Example (3). The facts are the same as in example (1), above, except that A earns $120 for services performed during the year 1955, and such amount is paid to him in a lump sum at the end of the year. The services performed by A in any calendar quarter during the year are excepted if the portion of the $120 attributable to services performed in that quarter is less than $50. If, however, the portion of the $120 attributable to services performed in any calendar quarter during the year is not less than $50, the services during that quarter are not excepted, and the taxes attach with respect to that portion of the remuneration attributable to his services in that quarter.

(b) See § 31.3121 (b) (8)-2, relating to services performed in the employ of religious, charitable, educational, and certain other organizations exempt from income tax; § 31.3121 (b) (8)-1, relating to services performed by a minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order; § 31.3121 (b) (10)-2, relating to services performed in the employ of a school, college, or university by certain students; and § 31.3121 (b) (13)-1, relating to services performed by certain student nurses and hospital interns.

§ 31.3121 (b) (10)-2 Services performed in the employ of a school, college, or university by certain students. (a) Services performed in the employ of a school, college, or university (whether or not such organization is exempt from income tax) are excepted from employment, if the services are performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university.

(b) For purposes of this exception, the amount of remuneration for services performed by the employee in the calendar quarter, the type of services performed by the employee, and the place where the services are performed are immaterial; the statutory tests are the character of the organization in the employ of which the services are performed, and the status of the employee as a student enrolled and regularly attending classes at the school, college, or university in the employ of which he performs the services.

(c) The status of the employee as a student performing the services shall be determined on the basis of the relationship of such employee with the organization for which the services are performed. An employee who performs services in the employ of a school, college, or university as an incident to and for the purpose of pursuing a course of study at such school, college, or university has the status of a student in the performance of such services.

(d) The term "school, college, or university" within the meaning of this exception is to be taken in its commonly or generally accepted sense.

(e) For provisions relating to domestic service performed by a student in a local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, see § 31.3121 (b) (2)-1.

§ 31.3121 (b) (11)-1 Services in the employ of a foreign government. (a) Services performed by an employee in the employ of a foreign government are excepted from employment. The exception includes not only services performed by ambassadors, ministers, and other diplomatic officers and employees but also services performed as a consular or other officer or employee of a foreign government, or as a nondiplomatic representative thereof.

(b) For purposes of this exception, the citizenship or residence of the employee is immaterial. It is also immaterial whether the foreign government grants an equivalent exemption with respect to similar services performed in the foreign country by citizens of the United States.

§ 31.3121 (b) (12)–1 Services in employ of wholly owned instrumentality of foreign government. (a) Services performed by an employee in the employ of certain instrumentalities of a foreign government are excepted from employment. The exception includes all services performed in the employ of an instrumentality of the government of a foreign country, if—

(1) The instrumentality is wholly owned by the foreign government;

(2) The services are of a character similar to those performed in foreign countries by employees of the United States Government or of an instrumentality thereof; and

(3) The Secretary of State certifies to the Secretary of the Treasury that the foreign government, with respect to whose instrumentality and employees thereof exemption is claimed, grants an equivalent exemption with respect to services performed in the foreign country by employees of the United States Government and of instrumentalities thereof.

(b) For purposes of this exception, the citizenship or residence of the employee is immaterial.

§ 31.3121 (b) (13)–1 Services of student nurse or hospital intern. (a) Services performed as a student nurse in the employ of a hospital or a nurses' training school are excepted from employment, if the student nurse is enrolled and regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school and such nurses' training school is chartered or approved pursuant to State law.

(b) Services performed as an intern (as distinguished from a resident doctor, in the employ of a hospital are excepted from employment, if the intern has completed a 4 years' course in a medical school chartered or approved pursuant to State law.

§ 31.3121 (b) (14)–1 Services in delivery or distribution of newspapers, shopping news, or magazines—(a) Services of individuals under age 18. Services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution (as, for example, by a regional distributor) to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution, are excepted from employment. Thus, the services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in making house-to-house delivery or sale of newspapers or shopping news, including handbills and other similar types of advertising material, are excepted from employment. The services are excepted irrespective of the form or method of compensation. Incidental services by the employee who makes the house-to-house delivery, such as services in assembling newspapers, are considered to be within the exception. The exception continues only during the time that the employee is under the age of 18.

(b) Services of individuals of any age. Services performed by an employee in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price, his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, are excepted from employment. The services are excepted whether or not the employee is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such services, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back. Moreover, the services are excepted without regard to the age of the employee. Services performed other than at the time of sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. Thus, the services of a regional distributor which are antecedent to but not immediately part of the sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. However, incidental services by the employee who makes the sale to the ultimate consumer, such as services in assembling newspapers or in taking newspapers or magazines to the place of sale, are considered to be within the exception.

[Sec. 3121 (b) (17), Internal Revenue Code 1954, redesignated paragraph (15) by sec. 205 (e), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (b) (15)–1 Services in employ of international organization. (a) Subject to the provisions of section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act, services performed in the employ of an international organization as defined in section 7701 (a) (18) are excepted from employment.

(b) (1) Section 7701 (a) (18) provides as follows:

SEC. 7701. Definitions. (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

• • • • •

(18) International organization. The term "international organization" means a public international organization entitled to enjoy privileges, exemptions, and immunities as an international organization under the International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U. S. C. 288–288f).

(2) Section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act provides as follows:

SEC. 1. [International Organizations Immunities Act.] For the purposes of this title [International Organizations Immunities Act], the term "international organization" means a public international organization in which the United States participates pursuant to any treaty or under the authority of any Act of Congress authorizing such participation or making an appropriation for such participation, and which shall have been designated by the President through appropriate Executive order as being entitled to enjoy the privileges, exemptions, and immunities herein provided. The President shall be authorized, in the light of the functions performed by any such international organization, by appropriate Executive order to withhold or withdraw from any such organization or its officers or employees any of the privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided for in this title (including the amendments made by this title) or to condition or limit the enjoyment by any such organization or its officers or employees of any such privilege, exemption, or immunity. The President shall be authorized, if in his judgment such action should be justified by reason of the abuse by an international organization or its officers and employees of the privileges, exemptions, and immunities herein provided or for any other reason, at any time to revoke the designation of any international organization under this section, whereupon the international organization in question shall cease to be classed as an international organization for the purposes of this title.

§ 31.3121 (c) Statutory provisions; definitions; included and excluded services.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(c) Included and excluded service. For purposes of this chapter, if the services performed during one-half or more of any pay period by an employee for the person employing him constitute employment, all the services of such employee for such period shall be deemed to be employment; but if the services performed during more than one-half of any such pay period by an employee for the person employing him do not constitute employment, then none of the services of such employee for such period shall be deemed to be employment. As used in this subsection, the term "pay period" means a period (of not more than 31 consecutive days) for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee by the person employing him. This subsection shall not be applicable with respect to services performed in a pay period by an employee for the person employing him, where any of such service is excepted by subsection (b) (9).

[Sec. 3121 (c) as amended by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (c)–1 Included and excluded services. (a) If a portion of the services performed by an employee for an employer during a pay period constitutes employment, and the remainder does not constitute employment, all the services performed by the employee for the employer during the period shall for purposes of the taxes be treated alike, that is, either all as included or all as excluded. The time during which the employee performs services which under section 3121 (b) constitute employment, and the time during which he performs services which under such section do not constitute employment, within the pay period, determine whether all the services during the pay period shall be deemed to be included or excluded.

(b) If one-half or more of the employee's time in the employ of a particular person in a pay period is spent in performing services which constitute employment, then all the services of that employee for that person in that pay period shall be deemed to be employment.

(c) If less than one-half of the employee's time in the employ of a particular person in a pay period is spent in performing services which constitute employment, then none of the services of that employee for that person in that pay period shall be deemed to be employment.

(d) The application of the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Employer B, who is engaged in the operation of a store and also in the harvesting of crude gum (oleoresin) from living trees, employs A to perform services in connection with both operations. A's services in connection with the harvesting of crude gum do not constitute employment, and his services in the store constitute employment. He is paid at the end of each month. During a particular month A works 120 hours in harvesting the crude gum and 80 hours in the store. None of A's services during the month are deemed to be employment, since less than one-half of his services during the month constitutes employment. During another month A works 75 hours in harvesting crude gum and 120 hours in the store. All of A's services during the month are deemed to be employment, since one-half or more of his services during the month constitutes employment.

(e) For purposes of this section, a "pay period" is the period (of not more than 31 consecutive calendar days) for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee by the employer. Thus, if the periods for which payments of remuneration are made to the employee by the employer are of uniform duration, each such period constitutes a "pay period". If, however, the periods occasionally vary in duration, the "pay period" is the period for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee by the employer, even though that period does not coincide with the actual period for which a particular payment of remuneration is made. For example, if an employer ordinarily pays a particular employee for each calendar week at the end of the week, but the employee receives a payment in the middle of the week for the portion of the week already elapsed and receives the remainder at the end of the week, the "pay period" is still the calendar week; or if, instead, that employee is sent on a trip by such employer and receives at the end of the third week a single remuneration payment for three weeks' services, the "pay period" is still the calendar week.

(f) If there is only one period (and such period does not exceed 31 consecutive calendar days) for which a payment of remuneration is made to the employee by the employer, such period is deemed to be a "pay period" for purposes of this section.

(g) The rules set forth in this section do not apply (1) with respect to any services performed by the employee for the employer if the periods for which such employer makes payments of remuneration to the employee vary to the extent that there is no period "for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee", or (2) with respect to any services performed by the employee for the employer if the period for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee by such employer exceeds 31 consecutive calendar days, or (3) with respect to any service performed by the employee for the employer during a pay period if any of such service is excepted by section 3121 (b) (9) (see § 31.3121 (b) (9)–1).

(h) If during any period for which a person makes a payment of remuneration to an employee only a portion of the employee's services constitutes employment, but the rules prescribed in this section are not applicable, the taxes attach with respect to such services as constitute employment as defined in section 3121 (b).

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(d) Employee. For purposes of this chapter, the term "employee" means—

(1) Any officer of a corporation; or

(2) Any individual who, under the usual common law rules applicable in determining the employer-employee relationship, has the status of an employee; or

(3) Any individual (other than an individual who is an employee under paragraph (1) or (2)) who performs services for remuneration for any person—

(A) As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or dry-cleaning services, for his principal;

(B) As a full-time life insurance salesman;

(C) As a home worker performing work, according to specifications furnished by the person for whom the services are performed, on materials or goods furnished by such person which are required to be returned to such person or a person designated by him; or

(D) As a traveling or city salesman, other than as an agent-driver or commission-driver, engaged upon a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for sideline sales activities on behalf of some other person) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations;

if the contract of service contemplates that substantially all of such services are to be performed personally by such individual; except that an individual shall not be included in the term "employee" under the provisions of this paragraph if such individual has a substantial investment in facilities used in connection with the performance of such services (other than in facilities for transportation), or if the services are in the nature of a single transaction not part of a continuing relationship with the person for whom the services are performed.

[Sec. 3121 (d) as amended by sec. 206, Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (d)–1 Who are employees—(a) In general. (1) Whether an individual is an employee with respect to services performed after 1954 is determined in accordance with section 3121 (d). This section of the regulations applies with respect only to services performed after 1954. Whether an individual is an employee with respect to services performed after 1936 and before 1940 shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 91; 26 CFR (1939) Part 401. Whether an individual is an employee with respect to services performed after 1939 and before 1951 shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 106; 26 CFR (1939) Part 402. Whether an individual is an employee with respect to services performed after 1950 and before 1955 shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of law and of Regulations 128; 26 CFR (1939) Part 408.

(2) Section 3121 (d) contains three separate and independent tests for determining who are employees. Paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section relate to the respective tests. Paragraph (b) relates to the test for determining whether an officer of a corporation is an employee of the corporation. Paragraph (c) relates to the test for determining whether an individual is an employee under the usual common law rules.

Paragraph (d) relates to the test for determining which individuals in certain occupational groups who are not employees under the usual common law rules are included as employees. If an individual is an employee under any one of the tests, he is to be considered an employee for purposes of the regulations in this subpart whether or not he is an employee under any of the other tests.

(3) If the relationship of employer and employee exists, the designation or description of the relationship by the parties as anything other than that of employer and employee is immaterial. Thus, if such relationship exists, it is of no consequence that the employee is designated as a partner, coadventurer, agent, independent contractor, or the like.

(4) All classes or grades of employees are included within the relationship of employer and employee. Thus, superintendents, managers, and other supervisory personnel are employees.

(5) Although an individual may be an employee under this section, his services may be of such a nature, or performed under such circumstances, as not to constitute employment (see § 31.3121 (b)–3).

(b) Corporate officers. Generally, an officer of a corporation is an employee of the corporation. However, an officer of a corporation who as such does not perform any services or performs only minor services and who neither receives nor is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, any remuneration is considered not to be an employee of the corporation. A director of a corporation in his capacity as such is not an employee of the corporation.

(c) Common law employees. (1) Every individual is an employee if under the usual common law rules the relationship between him and the person for whom he performs services is the legal relationship of employer and employee.

(2) Generally such relationship exists when the person for whom services are performed has the right to control and direct the individual who performs the services, not only as to the result to be accomplished by the work but also as to the details and means by which that result is accomplished. That is, an employee is subject to the will and control of the employer not only as to what shall be done but how it shall be done. In this connection, it is not necessary that the employer actually direct or control the manner in which the services are performed; it is sufficient if he has the right to do so. The right to discharge is also an important factor indicating that the person possessing that right is an employer. Other factors characteristic of an employer, but not necessarily present in every case, are the furnishing of tools and the furnishing of a place to work, to the individual who performs the services. In general, if an individual is subject to the control or direction of another merely as to the result to be accomplished by the work and not as to the means and methods for accomplishing the result, he is an independent contractor. An individual performing services as an independent contractor is not as to such services an employee under the usual common law rules. Individuals such as physicians, lawyers, dentists, veterinarians, construction contractors, public stenographers, and auctioneers, engaged in the pursuit of an independent trade, business, or profession, in which they offer their services to the public, are independent contractors and not employees. If an individual enters into an agreement with another person pursuant to which such individual undertakes to produce a crop or livestock on land owned or leased by such other person and pursuant to which (i) the crop or livestock produced by such individual or the proceeds thereof are to be divided between such individual and such other person, and (ii) the amount of such individual's share depends on the amount of the crop or livestock produced, such individual is, with respect to such undertaking, an independent contractor and not an employee.

(3) Whether the relationship of employer and employee exists under the usual common law rules will in doubtful cases be determined upon an examination of the particular facts of each case.

(d) Special classes of employees. (1) In addition to individuals who are employees under paragraph (b) or (c) of this section, other individuals are employees if they perform services for remuneration under certain prescribed circumstances in the following occupational groups:

(i) As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or dry-cleaning services for his principal;

(ii) As a full-time life insurance salesman;

(iii) As a home worker performing work, according to specifications furnished by the person for whom the services are performed, on materials or goods furnished by such person which are required to be returned to such person or a person designated by him; or

(iv) As a traveling or city salesman, other than as an agent-driver or commission-driver, engaged upon a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for side-line sales activities on behalf of some other person) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations.

(2) In order for an individual to be an employee under this paragraph, the individual must perform services in an occupation falling within one of the enumerated groups. If the individual does not perform services in one of the designated occupational groups, he is not an employee under this paragraph. An individual who is not an employee under this paragraph may nevertheless be an employee under paragraph (b) or (c) of this section. The language used to designate the respective occupational groups relates to fields of endeavor in which particular designations are not necessarily in universal use with respect to the same service. The designations are addressed to the actual services without regard to any technical or colloquial labels which may be attached to such services. Thus, a determination whether services fall within one of the designated occupational groups depends upon the facts of the particular situation.

(3) The factual situations set forth below are illustrative of some of the individuals falling within each of the above enumerated occupational groups. The illustrative factual situations are as follows:

(i) Agent-driver or commission-driver. This occupational group includes agent-drivers or commission-drivers who are engaged in distributing meat or meat products, vegetables or vegetable products, fruit or fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or dry-cleaning services for their principals. An agent-driver or commission-driver includes an individual who operates his own truck or the truck of the person for whom he performs services, serves customers designated by such person as well as those solicited on his own, and whose compensation is a commission on his sales or the difference between the price he charges his customers and the price he pays to such person for the product or service.

(ii) Full-time life insurance salesman. An individual whose entire or principal business activity is devoted to the solicitation of life insurance or annuity contracts, or both, primarily for one life insurance company is a full-time life insurance salesman. Such a salesman ordinarily uses the office space provided by the company or its general agent, and stenographic assistance, telephone facilities, forms, rate books, and advertising materials are usually made available to him without cost. An individual who is engaged in the general insurance business under a contract or contracts of service which do not contemplate that the individual's principal business activity will be the solicitation of life insurance or annuity contracts, or both, for one company, or any individual who devotes only part time to the solicitation of life insurance contracts, including annuity contracts, and is principally engaged in other endeavors, is not a full-time life insurance salesman.

(iii) Home workers. This occupational group includes a worker who performs services off the premises of the person for whom the services are performed, according to specifications furnished by such person, on materials or goods furnished by such person which are required to be returned to such person or a person designated by him. For provisions relating to the determination of wages in the case of a home worker to whom this subdivision is applicable, see § 31.3121 (a) (10)–1.

(iv) Traveling or city salesman. (a) This occupational group includes a city or traveling salesman who is engaged upon a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for side-line sales activities on behalf of some other person or persons) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations. An agent-driver or commission-driver is not within this occupational group. City or traveling salesmen who sell to retailers or to the others specified, operate off the premises of their principals, and are generally compensated on a commission basis, are within this occupational group. Such salesmen are generally not controlled as to the details of their services or the means by which they cover their territories, but in the ordinary case they are expected to call on regular customers with a fair degree of regularity.

(b) In order for a city or traveling salesman to be included within this occupational group, his entire or principal business activity must be devoted to the solicitation of orders for one principal. Thus, the multiple-line salesman generally is not within this occupational group. However, if the salesman solicits orders primarily for one principal, he is not excluded from this occupational group solely because of side-line sales activities on behalf of one or more other persons. In such a case, the salesman is within this occupational group only with respect to the services performed for the person for whom he primarily solicits orders and not with respect to the services performed for such other persons. The following examples illustrate the application of the foregoing provisions:

Example (1). Salesman A's principal business activity is the solicitation of orders from retail pharmacies on behalf of the X Wholesale Drug Company. A also occasionally solicits orders for drugs on behalf of the Y and Z Companies. A is within this occupational group with respect to his services for the X Company but not with respect to his services for either the Y Company or the Z Company.

Example (2). Salesman B's principal business activity is the solicitation of orders from retail hardware stores on behalf of the R Tool Company and the S Cooking Utensil Company. B regularly solicits orders on behalf of both companies. B is not within this occupational group with respect to the services performed for either the R Company or the S Company.

Example (3). Salesman C's principal business activity is the house-to-house solicitation of orders on behalf of the T Brush Company. C occasionally solicits such orders from retail stores and restaurants. C is not within this occupational group.

(4) (i) The fact that an individual falls within one of the enumerated occupational groups, however, does not make such individual an employee under this paragraph unless (a) the contract of service contemplates that substantially all the services to which the contract relates in the particular designated occupation are to be performed personally by such individual, (b) such individual has no substantial investment in the facilities used in connection with the performance of such services (other than in facilities for transportation) and (c) such services are part of a continuing relationship with the person for whom the services are performed and are not in the nature of a single transaction.

(ii) The term "contract of service", as used in this paragraph, means an arrangement, formal or informal, under which the particular services are performed. The requirement that the contract of service shall contemplate that substantially all the services to which the contract relates in the particular designated occupation are to be performed personally by the individual means that it is not contemplated that any material part of the services to which the contract relates in such occupation will be delegated to any other person by the individual who undertakes under the contract to perform such services.

(iii) The facilities to which reference is made in this paragraph include equipment and premises available for the work or enterprise as distinguished from education, training, and experience, but do not include such tools, instruments, equipment, or clothing, as are commonly or frequently provided by employees. An investment in an automobile by an individual which is used primarily for his own transportation in connection with the performance of services for another person has no significance under this paragraph, since such investment is comparable to outlays for transportation by an individual performing similar services who does not own an automobile. Moreover, the investment in facilities for the transportation of the goods or commodities to which the services relate is to be excluded in determining the investment in a particular case. If an individual has a substantial investment in facilities of the requisite character, he is not an employee within the meaning of this paragraph, since a substantial investment of the requisite character standing alone is sufficient to exclude the individual from the employee concept under this paragraph.

(iv) If the services are not performed as part of a continuing relationship with the person for whom the services are performed, but are in the nature of a single transaction, the individual performing such services is not an employee of such person within the meaning of this paragraph. The fact that the services are not performed on consecutive workdays does not indicate that the services are not performed as part of a continuing relationship.

§ 31.3121 (d)–2 Who are employers. (a) Every person is an employer if he employs one or more employees. Neither the number of employees employed nor the period during which any such employee is employed is material for the purpose of determining whether the person for whom the services are performed is an employer.

(b) An employer may be an individual, a corporation, a partnership, a trust, an estate, a joint-stock company, an association, or a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, group, or entity. A trust or estate, rather than the fiduciary acting for or on behalf of the trust or estate, is generally the employer.

(c) Although a person may be an employer under this section, services performed in his employ may be of such a nature, or performed under such circumstances, as not to constitute employment (see § 31.3121 (b)–3).

(e) State, United States, and citizen. For purposes of this chapter—

(1) State. The term "State" includes Alaska, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

(2) United States. The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

An individual who is a citizen of Puerto Rico (but not otherwise a citizen of the United States) shall be considered, for purposes of this section, as a citizen of the United States.

§ 31.3121 (e)–1 State, United States, and citizen. For purposes of the regulations in this subpart, the terms defined in section 3121 (e) have the meanings so assigned to them. When used in the regulations in this subpart, the term "United States", when used in a geographical sense, means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico. The term "citizen of the United States" includes a citizen of the Virgin Islands or of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(f) American vessel and aircraft. For purposes of this chapter, the term "American vessel" means any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States; and includes any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State; and the term "American aircraft" means an aircraft registered under the laws of the United States.

§ 31.3121 (f)–1 American vessel and aircraft. (a) The term "American vessel" means any vessel which is documented (that is, registered, enrolled, or licensed) or numbered in conformity with the laws of the United States. It also includes any vessel which is neither documented nor numbered under the laws of the United States, nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if the crew of such vessel is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any State (including the District of Columbia, the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, or Puerto Rico). As used herein, a citizen of the United States includes a citizen of the Virgin Islands or of Puerto Rico.

(b) The term "American aircraft" means any aircraft registered under the laws of the United States.

(c) For provisions relating to services performed outside the United States on or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft, see § 31.3121 (b)–3 (c) (2).

(g) Agricultural labor. For purposes of this chapter, the term "agricultural labor" includes all service performed—

(1) On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wildlife;

(2) In the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm, in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment, or in salvaging timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm;

(3) In connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity defined as an agricultural commodity in section 15 (g) of the Agricultural Marketing Act, as amended (46 Stat. 1550, sec. 3; 12 U. S. C. 1141j), or in connection with the ginning of cotton, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways, not owned or operated for profit, used exclusively for supplying and storing water for farming purposes;

(4) (A) In the employ of the operator of a farm in handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, in its unmanufactured state, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such operator produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed;

(B) In the employ of a group of operators of farms (other than a cooperative organization) in the performance of service described in subparagraph (A), but only if such operators produced all of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed. For purposes of this subparagraph, any unincorporated group of operators shall be deemed a cooperative organization if the number of operators comprising such group is more than 20 at any time during the calendar quarter in which such service is performed;

(C) The provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to service performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption; or

(5) On a farm operated for profit if such service is not in the course of the employer's trade or business or is domestic service in a private home of the employer.

As used in this subsection, the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards.

SEC. 15. Miscellaneous provisions [Agricultural Marketing Act]. • • •

(g) As used in this Act, the term "agricultural commodity" includes • • • crude gum (oleoresin) from a living tree, and the following products as processed by the original producer of the crude gum (oleoresin) from which derived: Gum spirits of turpentine and gum rosin, as defined in the Naval Stores Act, approved March 3, 1923 [42 Stat. 1435; 7 U. S. C. 92 (c), (h)].

SEC. 2. [The Naval Stores Act.] That, when used in this Act—

• • • • •

(c) "Gum spirits of turpentine" means spirits of turpentine made from gum (oleoresin) from a living tree.

• • • • •

(h) "Gum rosin" means rosin remaining after the distillation of gum spirits of turpentine.

• • • • •

§ 31.3121 (g)–1 Agricultural labor—(a) In general. (1) The term "agricultural labor" as defined in section 3121 (g) includes services of the character described in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of this section. In general, however, the term does not include services performed in connection with forestry, lumbering, or landscaping.

(2) The term "farm" as used in the regulations in this subpart includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, orchards, and such greenhouses and other similar structures as are used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities. Greenhouses and other similar structures used primarily for other purposes (for example, display, storage, and fabrication of wreaths, corsages, and bouquets) do not constitute "farms".

(3) For provisions relating to the exceptions from employment provided with respect to services performed in connection with the production or harvesting of certain oleoresinous products and to services performed by certain foreign agricultural workers, see § 31.3121 (b) (1)–1. For provisions relating to the exclusion from wages of remuneration paid in any medium other than cash for agricultural labor and to the test for determining whether cash remuneration paid for agricultural labor constitutes wages, see § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1.

(b) Services described in section 3121 (g) (1). (1) Services performed on a farm by an employee of any person in connection with any of the following activities constitute agricultural labor:

(i) The cultivation of the soil;

(ii) The raising, shearing, feeding caring for, training, or management of livestock, bees, poultry, fur-bearing animals, or wildlife; or

(iii) The raising or harvesting of any other agricultural or horticultural commodity.

(2) Services performed in connection with the production or harvesting of maple sap, or in connection with the raising or harvesting of mushrooms, or in connection with the hatching of poultry constitute agricultural labor only if such services are performed on a farm. Thus, services performed in connection with the operation of a hatchery, if not operated as part of a poultry or other farm, do not constitute agricultural labor.

(c) Services described in section 3121 (g) (2). (1) The following services performed by an employee in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of one or more farms constitute agricultural labor, provided the major part of such services is performed on a farm:

(i) Services performed in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of any of such farms or its tools or equipment; or

(ii) Services performed in salvaging timber, or clearing land of brush and other debris, left by a hurricane.

(2) The services described in subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph may include, for example, services performed by carpenters, painters, mechanics, farm supervisors, irrigation engineers, bookkeepers, and other skilled or semiskilled workers, which contribute in any way to the conduct of the farm or farms, as such, operated by the person employing them, as distinguished from any other enterprise in which such person may be engaged.

(3) Since the services described in this paragraph must be performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of the farm, the term "agricultural labor" does not include services performed by employees of a commercial painting concern, for example, which contracts with a farmer to renovate his farm properties.

(d) Services described in section 3121 (g) (3). Services performed by an employee in the employ of any person in connection with any of the following operations constitute agricultural labor without regard to the place where such services are performed:

(1) The ginning of cotton;

(2) The operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways, not owned or operated for profit, used exclusively for supplying or storing water for farming purposes; or

(3) The production or harvesting of crude gum (oleoresin) from a living tree or the processing of such crude gum into gum spirits of turpentine and gum rosin, provided such processing is carried on by the original producer of such crude gum.

(e) Services described in section 3121 (g) (4). (1) Services performed by an employee in the handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, of any agricultural or horticultural commodity constitute agricultural labor if:

(i) Such services are performed by the employee in the employ of an operator of a farm or in the employ of a group of operators of farms (other than a cooperative organization);

(ii) Such services are performed with respect to the commodity in its unmanufactured state; and

(iii) Such operator produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which such services are performed during the pay period, or such group of operators produced all of the commodity with respect to which such services are performed during the pay period.

(2) The term "operator of a farm" as used in this paragraph means an owner, tenant, or other person, in possession of a farm and engaged in the operation of such farm.

(3) The services described in this paragraph do not constitute agricultural labor if performed in the employ of a cooperative organization. The term "organization" includes corporations, joint-stock companies, and associations which are treated as corporations pursuant to section 7701 (a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of this paragraph, any unincorporated group of operators shall be deemed a cooperative organization if the number of operators comprising such group is more than 20 at any time during the calendar quarter in which the services involved are performed.

(4) Processing services which change the commodity from its raw or natural state do not constitute agricultural labor. For example, the extraction of juices from fruits or vegetables is a processing operation which changes the character of the fruits or vegetables from their raw or natural state and, therefore, does not constitute agricultural labor. Likewise, services performed in the processing of maple sap into maple sirup or maple sugar do not constitute agricultural labor. On the other hand, services rendered in the cutting and drying of fruits or vegetables are processing operations which do not change the character of the fruits or vegetables and, therefore, constitute agricultural labor, if the other requisite conditions are met. Services performed with respect to a commodity after its character has been changed from its raw or natural state by a processing operation do not constitute agricultural labor.

(5) The term "commodity" refers to a single agricultural or horticultural product, for example, all apples are to be treated as a single commodity, while apples and peaches are to be treated as two separate commodities. The services with respect to each such commodity are to be considered separately in determining whether the condition set forth in subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph has been satisfied. The portion of the commodity produced by an operator or group of operators with respect to which the services described in this paragraph are performed by a particular employee shall be determined on the basis of the pay period in which such services were performed by such employee.

(6) The services described in this paragraph do not include services performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption. Moreover, since the services described in this paragraph must be rendered in the actual handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, of the commodity, such services do not, for example, include services performed as stenographers, bookkeepers, clerks, and other office employees, even though such services may be in connection with such activities. However, to the extent that the services of such individuals are performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm and are rendered in major part on a farm, they may be within the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Services described in section 3121 (g) (5). (1) Services not in the course of the employers' trade or business (see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 (a) (1)) or domestic service in a private home of the employer (see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1 (a) (2)) constitutes agricultural labor if such services are performed on a farm operated for profit. The determination whether remuneration for such services performed on a farm operated for profit constitutes wages is to be made under § 31.3121 (a) (8)–1 rather than under § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1.

(2) Generally, a farm is not operated for profit if it is occupied by the employer primarily for residential purposes, or is used primarily for the pleasure of the employer or his family such as for the entertainment of guests or as a hobby of the employer or his family.

§ 31.3121 (h) Statutory provisions; definitions; American employer.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(h) American employer. For purposes of this chapter, the term "American employer" means an employer which is—

(1) The United States or any instrumentality thereof,

(2) An individual who is a resident of the United States,

(3) A partnership, if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States,

(4) A trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States, or

(5) A corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any State.

§ 31.3121 (h)–1 American employer. (a) The term "American employer" means an employer which is (1) the United States or any instrumentality thereof, (2) an individual who is a resident of the United States (that is, the several States, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico), (3) a partnership, if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States, (4) a trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States, or (5) a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any State (including the District of Columbia, the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, or Puerto Rico).

(b) For provisions relating to services performed outside the United States by a citizen of the United States as an employee for an American employer, see §§ 31.3121 (b)–3 (c) (3) and 31.3121 (b) (4)–1 (e).

§ 31.3121 (i) Statutory provisions; definitions; computation of wages in certain cases.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(i) Computation of wages in certain cases. For purposes of this chapter, in the case of domestic service described in subsection (a) (7) (B), any payment of cash remuneration for such service which is more or less than a whole-dollar amount shall, under such conditions and to such extent as may be prescribed by regulations made under this chapter, be computed to the nearest dollar. For the purpose of the computation to the nearest dollar, the payment of a fractional part of a dollar shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half dollar or more, in which case it shall be increased to $1. The amount of any payment of cash remuneration so computed to the nearest dollar shall, in lieu of the amount actually paid, be deemed to constitute the amount of cash remuneration for purposes of subsection (a) (7) (B).

§ 31.3121 (i)–1 Computation to nearest dollar of cash remuneration for domestic service. An employer may, for purposes of the act, elect to compute to the nearest dollar any payment of cash remuneration for domestic service described in section 3121 (a) (7) (B) (see § 31.3121 (a) (7)–1) which is more or less than a whole-dollar amount. For the purpose of the computation to the nearest dollar, the payment of a fractional part of a dollar shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half dollar or more, in which case it shall be increased to one dollar. For example, any amount actually paid between $4.50 and $5.49, inclusive, may be treated as $5 for purposes of the taxes imposed by the act. If an employer elects this method of computation with respect to any payment of cash remuneration made in a calendar quarter for domestic service in his private home, he must use the same method in computing each payment of cash remuneration of more or less than a whole-dollar amount made to each of his employees in such calendar quarter for domestic service in his private home. Moreover, if an employer elects this method of computation with respect to payments of the prescribed character made in any calendar quarter, the amount of each payment of cash remuneration so computed to the nearest dollar shall, in lieu of the amount actually paid, be deemed to constitute the amount of cash remuneration for purposes of the act. Thus, the amount of cash payments so computed to the nearest dollar shall be used for purposes of determining whether such payments constitute wages; for purposes of applying the employee and employer tax rates to the wage payments; for purposes of any required record keeping; and for purposes of reporting and paying the employee tax and employer tax with respect to such wage payments.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(j) Covered transportation service. For purposes of this chapter—

(1) Existing transportation systems—General rule. Except as provided in paragraph (2), all service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision in connection with its operation of a public transportation system shall constitute covered transportation service if any part of the transportation system was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and prior to 1951.

(2) Existing transportation systems—Cases in which no transportation employees, or only certain employees, are covered. Service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision in connection with the operation of its public transportation system shall not constitute covered transportation service if—

(A) Any part of the transportation system was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and prior to 1951, and substantially all service in connection with the operation of the transportation system was, on December 31, 1950, covered under a general retirement system providing benefits which, by reason of a provision of the State constitution dealing specifically with retirement systems of the State or political subdivisions thereof, cannot be diminished or impaired; or

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LIBRARIES

(B) No part of the transportation system operated by the State or political subdivision on December 31, 1950, was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and prior to 1951; except that if such State or political subdivision makes an acquisition after 1950 from private ownership of any part of its transportation system, then, in the case of any employee who—

(C) Became an employee of such State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of its acquisition after 1950 of such part, and

(D) Prior to such acquisition rendered service in employment (including as employment service covered by an agreement under section 218 of the Social Security Act) in connection with the operation of such part of the transportation system acquired by the State or political subdivision, the service of such employee in connection with the operation of the transportation system shall constitute covered transportation service, commencing with the first day of the third calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the acquisition of such part took place, unless on such first day such service of such employee is covered by a general retirement system which does not, with respect to such employee, contain special provisions applicable only to employees described in subparagraph (C).

(3) Transportation systems acquired after 1950. All service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision thereof in connection with its operation of a public transportation system shall constitute covered transportation service if the transportation system was not operated by the State or political subdivision prior to 1951 and, at the time of its first acquisition (after 1950) from private ownership of any part of its transportation system, the State or political subdivision did not have a general retirement system covering substantially all service performed in connection with the operation of the transportation system.

(4) Definitions. For purposes of this subsection—

(A) The term "general retirement system" means any pension, annuity, retirement, or similar fund or system established by a State or by a political subdivision thereof for employees of the State, political subdivision, or both; but such term shall not include such a fund or system which covers only service performed in positions connected with the operation of its public transportation system.

(B) A transportation system or a part thereof shall be considered to have been acquired by a State or political subdivision from private ownership if prior to the acquisition service performed by employees in connection with the operation of the system or part thereof acquired constituted employment under this chapter or subchapter A of chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or was covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 218 of the Social Security Act and some of such employees became employees of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of such acquisition.

(C) The term "political subdivision" includes an instrumentality of—

(i) A State,

(ii) One or more political subdivisions of a State, or

(iii) A State and one or more of its political subdivisions.

§ 31.3121 (j)–1 Covered transportation service—(a) Transportation systems acquired in whole or in part after 1936 and before 1951—(1) In general. Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, all service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision thereof in connection with its operation of a public transportation system constitutes covered transportation service if any part of the transportation system was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and before 1951. For purposes of this subparagraph, it is immaterial whether any part of the transportation system was acquired before 1937 or after 1950, whether the employee was hired before, during, or after 1950, or whether the employee had been employed by the employer from whom the State or political subdivision acquired its transportation system or any part thereof.

(2) General retirement system protected by State constitution. Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision in connection with its operation of a public transportation system acquired in whole or in part from private ownership after 1936 and before 1951 does not constitute covered transportation service, if substantially all service in connection with the operation of the transportation system was, on December 31, 1950, covered under a general retirement system providing benefits which are protected from diminution or impairment under the State constitution by reason of an express provision, dealing specifically with retirement systems established by the State or political subdivisions of the State, which forbids such diminution or impairment.

(3) Additions to certain transportation systems by acquisition after 1950. This subparagraph is applicable only in case of an acquisition after 1950 from private ownership of an addition to an existing public transportation system which was acquired in whole or in part by a State or political subdivision thereof from private ownership after 1936 and before 1951 and then only in case service for such existing transportation system did not constitute covered transportation service by reason of the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. Service in connection with the operation of such transportation system (including any additions acquired after 1950) constitutes covered transportation service commencing with the first day of the third calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the addition to the existing transportation system was acquired, if such service is performed by an employee who became an employee of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of its acquisition from private ownership of such addition and who before the acquisition of such addition rendered service in employment in connection with the operation of the addition so acquired by such State or political subdivision. However, service performed by such employee in connection with the operation of the transportation system does not constitute covered transportation service if, on the first day of the third calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the addition was acquired, such service is covered by a general retirement system which does not, with respect to such employee, contain special provisions applicable only to employees who became employees of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of its acquisition of such addition.

(b) Transportation systems in operation on December 31, 1950, no part of which was acquired after 1936 and before 1951—(1) In general. Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, no service performed in the employ of a State or a political subdivision thereof in connection with its operation of a public transportation system constitutes covered transportation service if no part of such transportation system operated by the State or political subdivision on December 31, 1950, was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and before 1951.

(2) Additions acquired after 1950. This subparagraph is applicable only in case of an acquisition after 1950 from private ownership of an addition to an existing public transportation system which was operated by a State or political subdivision on December 31, 1950, but no part of which was acquired from private ownership after 1936 and before 1951. Service in connection with the operation of such transportation system (including any additions acquired after 1950) constitutes covered transportation service commencing with the first day of the third calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the addition to the existing transportation system was acquired, if such service is performed by an employee who became an employee of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of its acquisition from private ownership of such addition and who before the acquisition of such addition rendered service in employment in connection with the operation of the addition so acquired by such State or political subdivision. However, service performed by such employee in connection with the operation of the transportation system does not constitute covered transportation service if, on the first day of the third calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the addition was acquired, such service is covered by a general retirement system which does not, with respect to such employee, contain special provisions applicable only to employees who became employees of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of its acquisition of such addition.

(c) Transportation systems acquired after 1950. All service performed in the employ of a State or political subdivision thereof in connection with its operation of a public transportation system constitutes covered transportation service if the transportation system was not operated by the State or political subdivision before 1951 and, at the time of its first acquisition after 1950 from private ownership of any part of its transportation system, the State or political subdivision did not have a general retirement system covering substantially all service performed in connection with the operation of the transportation system.

(d) Definitions. For purposes of this section:

(1) The term "general retirement system" means any pension, annuity, retirement, or similar fund or system established by a State or by a political subdivision thereof for employees of the State, political subdivision, or both; but such term does not include such a fund or system which covers only service performed in positions connected with the operation of its public transportation system.

(2) A transportation system or a part thereof is considered to have been acquired by a State or political subdivision from private ownership if prior to the acquisition service performed by employees in connection with the operation of the system or an acquired part thereof constituted employment under the act or under subchapter A of chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or was covered by an agreement entered into pursuant to section 218 of the Social Security Act, and some of such employees became employees of the State or political subdivision in connection with and at the time of such acquisition.

(3) The term "political subdivision" includes an instrumentality of a State, of one or more political subdivisions of a State, or of a State and one or more of its political subdivisions.

(4) The term "employment" includes service covered by an agreement entered into pursuant to section 218 of the Social Security Act.

§ 31.3121 (k) Statutory provisions; definitions; waiver of exemption by religious, charitable, and certain other organizations.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(k) Exemption of religious, charitable, and certain other organizations—(1) Waiver of exemption by organization. An organization described in section 501 (c) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) may file a certificate (in such form and manner, and with such official, as may be prescribed by regulations made under this chapter) certifying that it desires to have the insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act extended to service performed by its employees and that at least two-thirds of its employees concur in the filing of the certificate. Such certificate may be filed only if it is accompanied by a list containing the signature, address, and social security account number (if any) of each employee who concurs in the filing of the certificate. Such list may be amended at any time prior to the expiration of the twenty-fourth month following the first calendar quarter for which the certificate is in effect, by filing with the prescribed official a supplemental list or lists containing the signature, address, and social security account number (if any) of each additional employee who concurs in the filing of the certificate. The list and any supplemental list shall be filed in such form and manner as may be prescribed by regulations made under this chapter. The certificate shall be in effect (for purposes of subsection (b) (8) (B) and for purposes of section 210 (a) (8) (B) of the Social Security Act) for the period beginning with the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which such certificate is filed, except that, in the case of service performed by an individual whose name appears on a supplemental list filed after the first month following the first calendar quarter for which the certificate is in effect, the certificate shall be in effect, for purposes of such subsection (b) (8) and for purposes of section 210 (a) (8) of the Social Security Act, only with respect to service performed by such individual after the calendar quarter in which such supplemental list is filed. The period for which a certificate filed pursuant to this subsection or the corresponding subsection of prior law is effective may be terminated by the organization, effective at the end of a calendar quarter, upon giving 2 years' advance notice in writing, but only if, at the time of the receipt of such notice, the certificate has been in effect for a period of not less than 8 years. The notice of termination may be revoked by the organization by giving, prior to the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination, a written notice of such revocation. Notice of termination or revocation thereof shall be filed in such form and manner, and with such official, as may be prescribed by regulations made under this chapter.

(2) Termination of waiver period by Secretary or his delegate. If the Secretary or his delegate finds that any organization which filed a certificate pursuant to this subsection or the corresponding subsection of prior law has failed to comply substantially with the requirements applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this chapter or the corresponding provisions of prior law or is no longer able to comply with the requirements applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this chapter, the Secretary or his delegate shall give such organization not less than 60 days' advance notice in writing that the period covered by such certificate will terminate at the end of the calendar quarter specified in such notice. Such notice of termination may be revoked by the Secretary or his delegate by giving, prior to the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination, written notice of such revocation to the organization. No notice of termination or of revocation thereof shall be given under this paragraph to an organization without the prior concurrence of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(3) No renewal of waiver. In the event the period covered by a certificate filed pursuant to this subsection or the corresponding subsection of prior law is terminated by the organization, no certificate may again be filed by such organization pursuant to this subsection.

[Sec. 3121 (k) as amended by secs. 205 (b), 207, and 402, Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (k)–1 Waiver of exemption from taxes—(a) Who may waive exemption. Any organization described in section 501 (c) (3) which is exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) may waive its exemption from the taxes imposed by sections 3101 and 3111 by filing a certificate on Form SS–15, provided that at least two-thirds of the employees of the organization concur in the filing of the certificate. The organization must be exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) as an organization of the character described in section 501 (c) (3) for the taxable year in which the certificate is filed; otherwise, the Form SS–15 filed by the organization is void. A certificate in effect under section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 on December 31, 1954, continues in effect under, and is subject to the provisions of, section 3121 (k). If the period covered by a certificate filed under section 3121 (k), or under section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, is terminated by the organization, a certificate may not thereafter be filed by the organization under section 3121 (k).

(b) Execution and filing of waiver. (1) The certificate on Form SS–15 shall be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal office or principal place of business in the United States of the organization. The organization shall certify in the certificate that it desires to have the Federal old-age and survivors insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act extended to services performed by its employees and that at least two-thirds of its employees, determined on the basis of the facts existing as of the date the certificate is filed, concur in the filing of the certificate. All individuals who are employees of the organization within the meaning of section 3121 (d) (see § 31.3121 (d)–1) shall be included in determining whether two-thirds of the employees of the organization concur in the filing of the certificate; except that there shall not be included (i) those employees who at the time of the filing of the certificate are performing for such organization services only of the character specified in paragraphs (8) (A), (10) (B), and (13) of section 3121 (b) (see §§ 31.3121 (b) (8)–1, 31.3121 (b) (10)–2, and 31.3121 (b) (13)–1, respectively), and (ii) those alien employees who at the time of the filing of the certificate are performing services for such organization under an arrangement which provides for the performance only of services outside the United States not on or in connection with an American vessel or American aircraft. As used in this subparagraph, the term "alien employee" does not include an employee who is a citizen of Puerto Rico or of the Virgin Islands, and the term "United States" includes Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

(2) A certificate may be filed under section 3121 (k) only if it is accompanied by a list on Form SS–15a, containing the signature, address, and social security account number, if any, of each employee who concurs in the filing of the certificate. (For provisions relating to account numbers, see the regulations under section 6011 (b) in Subpart G of the regulations in this part.) The list on Form SS–15a accompanying a certificate filed under section 3121 (k), or under section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, may be amended, at any time before the expiration of the twenty-fourth month following the first calendar quarter for which the certificate is in effect, by filing a supplemental list or lists on Form SS–15a Supplement, containing the signature, address, and social security account number (if any) of each additional employee who concurs in the filing of the certificate.

(c) Effect of waiver. (1) A certificate filed by an organization under the provisions of section 3121 (k) shall be in effect, for the period beginning with the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed, with respect to services performed in its employ by any employee:

(i) Whose signature appears on the list on Form SS–15a filed with the certificate on Form SS–15, or on a supplemental list on Form SS–15a Supplement filed before the expiration of the fourth calendar month following the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed.

(ii) Who became an employee of the organization after the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed.

In no case, however, shall a certificate filed under the provisions of section 3121 (k) be in effect with respect to services performed in the employ of the organization before January 1, 1955. A certificate is not terminated if the organization loses its exemption under section 501 (a) as an organization of the character described in section 501 (c) (3), but continues effective with respect to any subsequent periods during which the organization is so exempt.

(2) If a list accompanying a certificate filed by an organization under the provisions of section 3121 (k), or under the provisions of section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, is amended under the provisions of section 3121 (k) by the filing of a supplemental list on Form SS–15a Supplement after the expiration of the fourth calendar month following the calendar quarter in which the certificate was filed, the certificate shall be in effect with respect to services performed in the employ of the organization by an individual whose signature appears on such supplemental list—

(i) In the period beginning with the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which such supplemental list is filed, if such supplemental list is filed on or after October 1, 1954, or

(ii) On and after January 1, 1955, if such supplemental list is filed in the month of September 1954.

(3) Services performed in the employ of an organization which has duly filed a certificate under section 3121 (k), or under section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, by any employee (i) whose signature appears on the list filed by the organization on Form SS–15a or on Form SS–15a Supplement, or (ii) who becomes an employee of the organization after the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed, are not excepted from employment under section 3121 (b) (8) (B) during the period for which the certificate is in effect with respect to such services. Thus, the taxes imposed by sections 3101 and 3111 will apply to wages paid by the organization for services performed, on and after the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed (but not earlier than January 1, 1955), by each employee whose signature appears on the Form SS–15a accompanying the certificate or on any supplemental list or lists on Form SS–15a Supplement filed before the expiration of the fourth calendar month following the calendar quarter in which the certificate was filed. Such taxes will also apply immediately with respect to wages paid by the organization to any individual who enters the employ of the organization on or after the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which the certificate is filed. In the case of an employee whose signature appears on a supplemental list filed after the expiration of the fourth calendar month following the calendar quarter in which a certificate was filed either under section 3121 (k), or under section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, the taxes imposed by sections 3101 and 3111 apply only with respect to wages paid to such individual for services performed after the calendar quarter in which the supplemental list is filed, but in no case earlier than January 1, 1955. A former employee of the organization who is rehired on or after the first day following the close of the calendar quarter in which the certificate was filed shall be considered to have entered the employ of the organization after such calendar quarter, regardless of whether or not such individual concurred in the filing of the certificate.

(d) Termination of waiver by organization. (1) The period for which a certificate filed pursuant to section 3121 (k), or pursuant to section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, is in effect may be terminated by the organization upon giving to the district director with whom the organization is filing returns 2 years' advance notice in writing of its desire to terminate the effect of the certificate at the end of a specified calendar quarter, but only if, at the time of the receipt of such notice by the district director, the certificate has been in effect for a period of not less than 8 years. The notice of termination shall be signed by the president or other principal officer of the organization. Such notice shall be dated and shall show (i) the title of the officer signing the notice, (ii) the name, address, and identification number of the organization, (iii) the district director with whom the certificate was filed, (iv) the date on which the certificate became effective, and (v) the date on which the certificate is to be terminated. No particular form is prescribed for the notice of termination.

(2) In computing the effective period which must precede the date of receipt of the notice of termination, there shall be disregarded any period or periods as to which the organization was not exempt from income tax under section 501 (a) as an organization of the character described in section 501 (c) (3) or under section 101 (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

(3) The notice of termination may be revoked by the organization by giving, prior to the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination, a written notice of such revocation. The notice of revocation shall be filed with the district director with whom the notice of termination was filed. The notice of revocation shall be signed by the president or other principal officer of the organization. Such notice shall be dated and shall show (i) the title of the officer signing the notice, (ii) the name, address, and identification number of the organization, and (iii) the date of the notice of termination to be revoked. No particular form is prescribed for the notice of revocation.

(e) Termination of waiver by Commissioner. (1) The period for which a certificate filed pursuant to section 3121 (k), or pursuant to section 1426 (l) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, is in effect may be terminated by the Commissioner, with the prior concurrence of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, upon a finding by the Commissioner that the organization has failed to comply substantially with the requirements applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by the act (or the corresponding provisions of prior law) or is no longer able to comply therewith. The Commissioner shall give the organization not less than 60 days' advance notice in writing that the period covered by the certificate will terminate at the end of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination.

(2) The notice of termination may be revoked by the Commissioner, with the prior concurrence of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, by giving written notice of revocation to the organization before the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination.

§ 31.3121 (l) Statutory provisions; definitions; agreements entered into by domestic corporations with respect to foreign subsidiaries.

SEC. 3121. Definitions. • • •

(l) Agreements entered into by domestic corporations with respect to foreign subsidiaries—(1) Agreement with respect to certain employees of foreign subsidiaries. The Secretary or his delegate shall, at the request of any domestic corporation, enter into an agreement (in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate) with any such corporation which desires to have the insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act extended to service performed outside the United States in the employ of any one or more of its foreign subsidiaries (as defined in paragraph (8)) by all employees who are citizens of the United States, except that the agreement shall not be applicable to any service performed by, or remuneration paid to, an employee if such service or remuneration would be excluded from the term "employment" or "wages", as defined in this section, had the service been performed in the United States. Such agreement may be amended at any time so as to be made applicable, in the same manner and under the same conditions, with respect to any other foreign subsidiary of such domestic corporation. Such agreement shall be applicable with respect to citizens of the United States who, on or after the effective date of the agreement, are employees of and perform services outside the United States for any foreign subsidiary specified in the agreement. Such agreement shall provide—

(A) That the domestic corporation shall pay to the Secretary or his delegate, at such time or times as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe, amounts equivalent to the sum of the taxes which would be imposed by sections 3101 and 3111 (including amounts equivalent to the interest, additions to the taxes, additional amounts, and penalties which would be applicable) with respect to the remuneration which would be wages if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment as defined in this section; and

(B) That the domestic corporation will comply with such regulations relating to payments and reports as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe to carry out the purposes of this subsection.

(2) Effective period of agreement. An agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be in effect for the period beginning with the first day of the calendar quarter in which such agreement is entered into or the first day of the succeeding calendar quarter, as may be specified in the agreement, but in no case prior to January 1, 1955; except that in case such agreement is amended to include the services performed for any other subsidiary and such amendment is executed after the first month following the first calendar quarter for which the agreement is in effect, the agreement shall be in effect with respect to service performed for such other subsidiary only after the calendar quarter in which such amendment is executed.

(3) Termination of period by a domestic corporation. The period for which an agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection is effective may be terminated with respect to any one or more of its foreign subsidiaries by the domestic corporation, effective at the end of a calendar quarter, upon giving two years' advance notice in writing, but only if, at the time of the receipt of such notice, the agreement has been in effect for a period of not less than eight years. The notice of termination may be revoked by the domestic corporation by giving, prior to the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination, a written notice of such revocation. Notice of termination or revocation thereof shall be filed in such form and manner as may be prescribed by regulations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the period for which any such agreement is effective with respect to any foreign corporation shall terminate at the end of any calendar quarter in which the foreign corporation, at any time in such quarter, ceases to be a foreign subsidiary as defined in paragraph (8).

(4) Termination of period by Secretary. If the Secretary or his delegate finds that any domestic corporation which entered into an agreement pursuant to this subsection has failed to comply substantially with the terms of such agreement, the Secretary or his delegate shall give such domestic corporation not less than sixty days' advance notice in writing that the period covered by such agreement will terminate at the end of the calendar quarter specified in such notice. Such notice of termination may be revoked by the Secretary or his delegate by giving, prior to the close of the calendar quarter specified in the notice of termination, written notice of such revocation to the domestic corporation. No notice of termination or of revocation thereof shall be given under this paragraph to a domestic corporation without the prior concurrence of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(5) No renewal of agreement. If any agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection is terminated in its entirety (A) by a notice of termination filed by the domestic corporation pursuant to paragraph (3), or (B) by a notice of termination given by the Secretary or his delegate pursuant to paragraph (4), the domestic corporation may not again enter into an agreement pursuant to paragraph (1). If any such agreement is terminated with respect to any foreign subsidiary, such agreement may not thereafter be amended so as again to make it applicable with respect to such subsidiary.

(6) Deposits in trust fund. For purposes of section 201 of the Social Security Act, relating to appropriations to the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, such remuneration—

(A) Paid for services covered by an agreement entered into pursuant to paragraph (1) as would be wages if the services constituted employment, and

(B) As is reported to the Secretary or his delegate pursuant to the provisions of such agreement or of the regulations issued under this subsection, shall be considered wages subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter.

(7) Overpayments and underpayments. (A) If more or less than the correct amount due under an agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection is paid with respect to any payment of remuneration, proper adjustments with respect to the amounts due under such agreement shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as may be required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

(B) If an overpayment cannot be adjusted under subparagraph (A), the amount thereof shall be paid by the Secretary or his delegate, through the Fiscal Service of the Treasury Department, but only if a claim for such overpayment is filed with the Secretary or his delegate within two years from the time such overpayment was made.

(8) Definition of foreign subsidiary. For purposes of this subsection and section 210 (a) of the Social Security Act, a foreign subsidiary of a domestic corporation is—

(A) A foreign corporation more than 50 percent of the voting stock of which is owned by such domestic corporation; or

(B) A foreign corporation more than 50 percent of the voting stock of which is owned by the foreign corporation described in subparagraph (A).

(9) Domestic corporation as separate entity. Each domestic corporation which enters into an agreement pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection shall, for purposes of this subsection and section 6413 (c) (2) (C), relating to special refunds in the case of employees of certain foreign corporations, be considered an employer in its capacity as a party to such agreement separate and distinct from its identity as a person employing individuals on its own account.

(10) Regulations. Regulations of the Secretary or his delegate to carry out the purposes of this subsection shall be designed to make the requirements imposed on domestic corporations with respect to services covered by an agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection the same, so far as practicable, as those imposed upon employers pursuant to this title with respect to the taxes imposed by this chapter.

[Sec. 3121 (l) as added by sec. 209, Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3121 (l)–1 Agreements entered into by domestic corporations with respect to foreign subsidiaries. For provisions relating to the extension of the Federal old-age and survivors insurance system established by title II of the Social Security Act to certain services performed outside the United States by citizens of the United States in the employ of a foreign subsidiary of a domestic corporation, see the Regulations Relating to Contract Coverage of Employees of Foreign Subsidiaries (Part 36 of this chapter).

§ 31.3122 Statutory provisions; Federal service.

SEC. 3122. Federal service. In the case of the taxes imposed by this chapter with respect to service performed in the employ of the United States or in the employ of any instrumentality which is wholly owned by the United States, the determination whether an individual has performed service which constitutes employment as defined in section 3121 (b), the determination of the amount of remuneration for such service which constitutes wages as defined in section 3121 (a), and the return and payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter, shall be made by the head of the Federal agency or instrumentality having the control of such service, or by such agents as such head may designate. The person making such return may, for convenience of administration, make payments of the tax imposed under section 3111 with respect to such service without regard to the $4,200 limitation in section 3121 (a) (1), and he shall not be required to obtain a refund of the tax paid under section 3111 on that part of the remuneration not included in wages by reason of section 3121 (a) (1). The provisions of this section shall be applicable in the case of service performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, Army and Air Force Motion Picture Service, Navy Exchanges, Marine Corps Exchanges, or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense, at installations of the Department of Defense for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of such Department; and for purposes of this section the Secretary of Defense shall be deemed to be the head of such instrumentality. The provisions of this subsection [section] shall be applicable also in the case of service performed by a civilian employee, not compensated from funds appropriated by the Congress, in the Coast Guard Exchanges or other activities, conducted by an instrumentality of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary, at installations of the Coast Guard for the comfort, pleasure, contentment, and mental and physical improvement of personnel of the Coast Guard; and for purposes of this subsection [section] the Secretary shall be deemed to be the head of such instrumentality.

[Sec. 3122 as amended by secs. 202 (c) and 203, Social Security Amendments 1954]

SEC. 3123. Deductions as constructive payments. Whenever under this chapter or any act of Congress, or under the law of any State, an employer is required or permitted to deduct any amount from the remuneration of an employee and to pay the amount deducted to the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof, then for purposes of this chapter the amount so deducted shall be considered to have been paid to the employee at the time of such deduction.

§ 31.3123–1 Deductions by an employer from remuneration of an employee. Any amount deducted by an employer from the remuneration of an employee is considered to be part of the employee's remuneration and is considered to be paid to the employee as remuneration at the time that the deduction is made. It is immaterial that any act of Congress or the law of any State requires or permits such deductions and the payment of the amount thereof to the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof.

§ 31.3124 Statutory provisions; estimate of revenue reduction.

SEC. 3124. Estimate of revenue reduction. The Secretary or his delegate at intervals of not longer than 3 years shall estimate the reduction in the amount of taxes collected under this chapter by reason of the operation of section 3121 (b) (9) and shall include such estimate in his annual report.

[Sec. 3124 as amended by sec. 205 (b), Social Security Amendments 1954]

§ 31.3125 Statutory provisions; short title.

SEC. 3125. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Federal Insurance Contributions Act."

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 27—CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED FRUIT JUICES; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY; AND FILL OF CONTAINER

ORDER CORRECTING WORDING OF DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR CANNED PRUNE JUICE, STAYING EFFECTIVENESS OF A PART THEREOF, AND CONFIRMING EFFECTIVE DATE

In the matter of adopting a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice.

An order ruling on a proposal to adopt a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 17, 1956 (21 F. R. 1094). This order provided that the regulations establishing a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice would become effective 6 months from the date of publication of the order except as to any provisions stayed as the result of the filing of objections thereto requesting a public hearing.

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401 (b) (2), 52 Stat. 1046, 68 Stat. 54; 21 U. S. C. 341 (b) (2)), W. F. Straub and Company, Chicago, Illinois, a firm which cans and distributes canned prune juice containing approximately 2 percent of added honey, filed objections to the order. These objections made a showing that W. F. Straub and Company would be adversely affected by the order if it should go into effect without making any provision for permitting honey to be used as an added ingredient in canned prune juice and included a request for a public hearing on this particular issue.

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, 68 Stat. 54, 55; 21 U. S. C. 341) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), It is ordered, That the regulations establishing a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice (21 CFR 27.60), as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 17, 1956 (21 F. R. 1094), shall go into effect on August 17, 1956, except that:

1. Paragraph (c) (1) shall read as follows:

(c) (1) The name of the food is "Prune juice—A water extract of dried prunes." For the purposes of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act concerning the label declaration of the name of the food, the explanatory statement "A water extract of dried prunes" may appear immediately below the words "prune juice," but there shall be no intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, and the type used for the words "A water extract of dried prunes" shall be of the same style and not less than half the point size of the type used for the words "prune juice."

2. Such regulations are stayed to the extent that they would cause to be deemed to be misbranded under section 403 (g) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1047; 21 U. S. C. 343 (g)) canned prune juice that in all respects complies with the regulations except for containing not more than 2 percent of honey. This stay shall continue until final action is taken disposing of the objections after public hearing thereon, the date of which will be announced in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Notice of a public hearing to receive evidence on including in the definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice a provision permitting the addition of limited amounts of honey will be announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 341)

Dated: July 9, 1956.

Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 33—METERED STAMPS

MANUFACTURE AND DISTRIBUTION OF POSTAGE METERS

Part 33, Postage Meters, which appeared as a notice of proposed rule making in the April 11, 1956, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER at page 2345, is redesignated as § 33.8 and adopted to read as follows, and shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

§ 33.8 Manufacture and distribution of postage meters—(a) Authorization to manufacture and lease—(1) Qualification. Any concern desiring authorization to manufacture and lease postage meters for use by mailers under § 33.1 (d) of this chapter must qualify as follows:

(i) Satisfy the Post Office Department as to its integrity and financial responsibility.

(ii) Obtain approval of at least one model postage meter incorporating all the mechanical features and safeguards specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

(iii) Have, or establish, and maintain under its supervision and control adequate manufacturing facilities suitable to carry out to the satisfaction of the Post Office Department the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section. Such facilities shall be subject to inspection by representatives of the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department.

(iv) Have, or establish, and maintain adequate facilities for the control, distribution, and maintenance of postage meters and their replacement when necessary. See paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.

(2) Application. Any person or concern seeking authorization to manufacture postage meters may make application to the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department in person or in writing. On qualification and approval the applicant will be authorized in writing to manufacture postage meters and to lease them to mailers. The name of the manufacturer will be listed in the Code of Federal Regulations. (See § 33.1 (d) for listings).

(3) Suspension. The Post Office Department may require a manufacturer to suspend production and distribution of any or all of his models of postage meters pending investigation to determine if his authorization should be revoked and will fully advise him of the facts which may warrant such action. The manufacturer will be given an opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with all the lawful requirements within a reasonable, specified time limit.

(4) Revocation. Authorization may be revoked if the manufacturer engages in any scheme or enterprise of an unlawful character or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this part.

(b) Specifications. Postage meters must incorporate all of the following mechanical features and safeguards:

(1) A postage meter may be either the detachable portion containing the printing die and registering mechanism of a mailing machine, or it may be complete in itself. In either case, it must be suitable for the mailer to bring to the Post Office for setting.

(2) A postage meter may be capable of printing one denomination of postage and registering the number of such impressions made (single denomination); or it may be capable of printing several denominations and registering either multiples of the smallest unit printed (multi denomination) or the currency value of the impressions made (omni denomination). The printing die or dies, counters, and counter-actuating mechanism must be inseparable in the unit brought to the Post Office for setting.

(3) In each postage meter there must be two accurate and dependable counting devices, one ascending and registering the total imprinted, the other descending and registering the balance of the last setting remaining unused. The descending register must actuate a locking mechanism preventing further operation of the meter after the register has reduced to an amount less than the largest denomination printable in one operation or to zero. The descending register must be so constructed as to be easily set at the Post Office for any amount of postage or number of impressions within its capacity, prepaid by the mailer.

(4) The entire mechanism must be encased in a substantial housing. The descending register must be accessible to the Post Office by means of a door equipped with a suitable lock and with provision for a Post Office seal. The ascending register and all other mechanism must be so shielded as not to be accessible even when the door is open. The readings of both registers must be easily obtainable at any time between operations, either by visibility through closed windows, or by imprint on tape or card, or by a combination of the two methods. The housing must be of such construction that it is impossible to alter the readings of the ascending register except by normal operation, or to gain access to the internal mechanism except for setting the descending register as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, without mutilation.

(5) The printing die must either conform in design to one already in use or be approved by the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department. It must include the serial number of the meter and identification of the manufacturer, and be so constructed or shielded that it is not practically possible without proper registration in the ascending and descending register to obtain imprints fraudulently.

(6) The meter die must include a postmark to print the name of the city and State from which mail is dispatched and the date of mailing. The postmark must be printed at the left of but adjacent to the denomination stamp and may be either included in an overall design with the demomination stamp or separated from it. Provision must be made so that the date may be either printed or omitted as required by the Post Office Department on the various classes of mail. Provision may be made to print an hour of mailing either within or in a close position outside the postmark. Provision may also be made to print designations such as "Nonprofit Org.", and the like, adjacent to and in the same operation with the meter stamp. The denomination die must not be completely exposed at any time during the process of installing or removing postmark dies, daters, hour type, or special designation slugs or when changing the date.

(7) Provision may be made in a meter for a meter slogan or ad plate to print to the left of and adjacent to the postmark. The size and position of a slogan or meter ad must be such that it will not interfere with or obscure the meter stamp or postmark and it must be possible to install the plate easily without exposing the meter stamp die. Plates must be made of suitable, durable material which will not soften or disintegrate while in use. They must be well fitted and so securely fastened to the printing mechanism that they will not become loose or detached or otherwise interfere with proper operation of a meter.

(8) The entire mechanism must be of such solid, substantial, and dependable construction as to protect the Post Office Department amply against loss of revenue from fraud, manipulation, misoperation, or breakdown.

(c) Testing and approval—(1) Submission of each model. Each model meter proposed for manufacture must be approved by the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department, after being tested by the National Bureau of Standards at the expense of the manufacturer. A preliminary working model may be submitted for tentative approval. No meters of any model may be distributed or used for payment of postage until a complete unit made to production drawings and specifications has been submitted, tested, and approved, except as may be specifically authorized for preliminary field testing.

(2) Deposit of specimen meter. One production model of each meter approved must be deposited with the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department and no changes affecting the basic features or safeguards may be made thereafter without departmental approval.

(3) Tests after approval. Additional meters from current manufacture must be submitted to the National Bureau of Standards for test, at the expense of the manufacturer, as may be requested by the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department.

(d) Safeguards—(1) Materials and workmanship. All meters must closely adhere to the quality in materials and workmanship of the approved production model and must be manufactured with suitable jigs, dies, tools, etc., to assure proper maintenance and interchangeability of parts.

(2) Breakdown tests. At reasonably frequent intervals the manufacturer must take meters at random from production and subject them to breakdown tests to make certain that quality and performance standards are maintained.

(3) Protection of printing dies and keys. During the process of fabricating parts and assembling postage meters, the manufacturer must exercise due care to prevent loss or theft of keys or of serially numbered postage printing dies or component parts, such as denomination printing dies, which might be used in some manner to defraud the Government of postal revenues. All serially numbered printing dies produced should be accounted for by assembly into meters or by evidence of mutilation or destruction. Postage printing dies removed from meters and not suitable for reassembly must also be mutilated beyond the possibility of use, or be completely destroyed.

(4) Destruction of meter stamps. All meter stamps printed in the process of testing dies or meters must be collected and destroyed.

(5) Inspection of new and rebuilt meters. All new and rebuilt meters must be carefully inspected before leaving the manufacturer's meter service station.

(6) Keys and setting equipment. The meter manufacturer must furnish keys and other essential equipment for setting his meters to all post offices under whose jurisdiction his meters are licensed for use. These items must be protected and shall not be furnished to persons not authorized by the Post Office Department to have them.

(e) Distribution—(1) Facilities. Authorized manufacturers must maintain adequate facilities for the distribution, control and maintenance of postage meters. All such facilities are subject to inspection by representatives of the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department.

(2) Controls. Each authorized manufacturer is required to:

(i) Retain title permanently to all meters of his manufacture except such as may be purchased by the Post Office Department for use in post offices.

(ii) Lease his meters only to mailers to whom meter licenses have been issued by the post office.

(iii) Supply only those meter slogan or ad plates that meet the requirements of the Department for suitable quality and content.

(iv) Deliver meters to post offices or postal stations only—never to mailers until set and sealed at a post office.

(v) Take reasonable precautions in the transportation and storage of his meters to prevent their reaching the hands of unauthorized individuals.

(vi) Report the loss or theft of any of his meters or the recovery of any lost or stolen meters immediately to the local postmaster, the local police, and the Bureau of Post Office Operations, Post Office Department.

(vii) Report to the appropriate Regional Controller of the Post Office Department each time a meter is presented at a post office for initial setting or to be checked out of service—the report to include the name and address of the mailer, the post office or postal station through which it was handled, and the readings of both registers at the time the meter left or was returned to the manufacturer's possession.

(viii) Maintain at his headquarters a complete record by serial number of all meters manufactured, showing all movements of each from the time it is produced until it is scrapped, and the reading of the ascending register each time it is checked into or out of service through a post office. These records must be subject to inspection at any time during business hours by officials of the Post Office Department.

(ix) Cancel his lease agreement with any mailer whose meter license is canceled by the Department and remove his meter promptly.

(x) Maintain a record by serial number of all meter keys issued to postmasters as well as those sections of the manufacturer's establishment in which their use is essential, preferably in the form of signed receipt cards.

(xi) Examine each meter withdrawn from service for failure to record its operations correctly and accurately, and report to the Post Office Department the mechanical condition or fault which caused the failure.

(xii) Submit such other reports to the Post Office Department as may be required from time to time.

(f) Maintenance—(1) Replacement. The manufacturer must maintain his meters in proper operating condition for mailers by replacing them when necessary or desirable to forestall mechanical breakdown.

(2) Inspection of meters in use. The manufacturer must have all of his meters in service with mailers inspected at least once each 6 months. Inspections must be sufficiently thorough to determine that each meter is clean and in proper operating condition, is recording its operations correctly and accurately, and that neither the Post Office seal nor any seal placed by the manufacturer to prevent access to the mechanism has been removed or tampered with. Any irregularities found in the operation of a meter at any time or any improper usage of a meter must be reported immediately to the mailer's postmaster, and appropriate steps must be taken to have the meter discontinued.

(3) Repair of internal mechanism. Repair or reconditioning of meters involving access to internal mechanisms must be performed only within a factory or suitable meter repair department under the direct control and supervision of the manufacturer. Meters must be checked out of service through the post office or setting before they are opened or any internal repairs undertaken.

(g) Notice of proposed changes in regulations. So far as may be consistent with the public interest, before any changes are made in the regulations of this part, the Post Office Department will give notice of any proposed changes sufficiently far in advance of the proposed effective date to enable persons who manufacture, or who may be interested in manufacturing, postage meters, a reasonable opportunity to be heard and to adjust their operations to accord with the proposed changes if they are adopted.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 11387; FCC 56-626]

[Rules Amdt. 3-17]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS; TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS (NASHAQUITSA, MASSACHUSETTS)

1. The Commission has under consideration its notice of proposed rule making issued on May 5, 1955 (FCC 55-535) and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 11, 1955 (20 F. R. 3188) proposing to assign Channel 6 to Nashaquitsa, Massachusetts in response to a petition for rule making by E. Anthony and Sons, Inc., New Bedford, Massachusetts.

2. Comments were filed by petitioner; Congress Square Hotel Company, Portland, Maine; Southern Connecticut and Long Island Television Company, Inc., Bridgeport, Connecticut; Triangle Publications, Inc., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; The Vineyard Gazette, Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts; and the Blacksmith Valley Association, Nashaquitsa, Massachuetts.[1]

3. In support of the requested amendment petitioner urges that the assignment of Channel 6 to Nashaquitsa may be made in conformance with the Commission's rules and Standards; would not affect any other assignment in the Table; would be in accord with the mandate of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act; and would provide a primary VHF service to southern Massachusetts.

4. Congress Square Hotel Company, licensee of television Station WCSH-TV on Channel 6 at Portland, Maine, opposes the assignment of this channel to Nashaquitsa. It urges that the proposed assignment would, by interference, reduce the Grade B coverage of its station. Congress Hotel concedes that existing stations are afforded protection from interference by the minimum spacings but urges that the Commission is not foreclosed from taking interference into account when considering new assignments. Congress submits that there has been no showing of need for the assignment in the small community of Nashaquitsa and that the only reason this town was chosen was because it is the only one in which Channel 6 may be placed without violating the minimum mileage separations. Congress Hotel maintains that the proposed assignment would be inefficient since much of the potential coverage would be lost over water and since the total interference caused would be greater than the resulting interference-free area. In reply to these objections, petitioner argues that the increased interference to WCSH-TV is very slight, and that, in any event, the rules indicate that protection from interference is limited entirely by the minimum separations. Petitioner states that although Nashaquitsa is a small community, it is the only one in which the assignment can be made in accordance with the rules and in which the important southern Massachusetts area may have its own television station. Petitioner further concedes that much of the signal would be dissipated over water but urges that this is also the case with many coastal assignments.

5. Southern Connecticut and Long Island Television Company, permittee of television Station WICC-TV on Channel 43 in Bridgeport, Connecticut, opposed the proposed assignment of Channel 6 to Nashaquitsa. WICC noted that it had filed a petition for rule making to permit the filing of applications not limited to channels in the Table of Assignments where the power, antenna height, and directional patterns proposed would not result in greater interference to other assignments and stations than would normally be received from stations meeting the minimum spacings, and that it had also tendered an application for a modification of its construction permit to change the operation of WICC-TV from Channel 43 to Channel 6 utilizing a directional antenna and less than maximum power and antenna height. WICC stated that since Bridgeport and Nashaquitsa are less than the required 170 miles, the two proposals are mutually exclusive and that, under the Ashbacker doctrine, must be set for consolidated hearing. In reply, petitioner argues that the proposal to assign Channel 6 to Bridgeport requires substantial changes in the basic rules and standards governing the television service whereas petitioner's proposal is contemplated by and provided for in the Rules. Petitioner further submits that in rule making proceedings there is no legal obligation for a hearing as in the case of an adjudicatory proceeding. It should be pointed out that the WICC petition referred to above was denied by the Commission in a Memorandum Opinion and Order issued on November 10, 1955 (FCC 55-1126).

6. Triangle Publications, Inc., licensee of television Station WFIL-TV, operating on Channel 6 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, expresses the fear that severe interference would be caused to the service area of WFIL-TV as a result of the abnormally high tropospheric propagation which may occur because of the 200 mile water path between the two stations. It recommends that the proposed assignment at Nashaquitsa be offset from that of WFIL-TV and suggests that this may be accomplished by assigning Channel 6+ to Nashaquitsa, changing the offset designation of the assignment at Portland from 6+ to 6— and at Montreal from 6— to 6+. Petitioner states that the extent of the interference predicted by WFIL-TV and the factual basis for the fear that such interference will occur are not provided, but that it would have no objection to the offset proposal advanced by WFIL-TV.

7. The Vineyard Gazette, the Blacksmith Valley Association, and others, oppose the assignment of Channel 6 to Nashaquitsa principally on the ground that the location of a commercial television station on the Island of Martha's Vineyard would be detrimental to the natural beauty of the Island and would depreciate property values, endangering the ability of the inhabitants to earn a livelihood. They further urge that such an Assignment would be inefficient since a large part of the signal would be over water; that the assignment is unnecessary in view of channels in other nearby cities; and that a tower in the area would represent an air hazard to naval aircraft. In reply to these contentions, petitioner submits that it proposes to utilize a site which is removed from residences and to construct the buildings so as to be in conformity with the type of existing structures on Martha's Vineyard in order that the proposed station would not threaten the property values or the peace of the summer residents.

8. The Commission is presented with a request for the assignment of a VHF channel in an area where there are no operating stations and no VHF assignments within 50 miles. The assignment would bring an additional television service to a large area and population in southern Massachusetts. Channel 6 in the community of Nashaquitsa would conform to all the Rules and Standards.[2]

[1] Numerous letters were received from summer residents and property-owners in the general area of Nashaquitsa. In the main, the contentions advanced by these individuals and organizations are the same as those of the last two parties named above.

[2] The Vineyard Gazette contends that the distance from the center of Martha's Vineyard to the reference point in Portland, i. e., the transmitter site of WCSH-TV, is only 156.3 miles. However, the proposed assignment is for the community of Nashaquitsa and the distance from its center to WCSH-TV meets the 170-mile requirement.

WCSH-TV at Portland, Maine, concedes that the separation would conform with the requirements but urges the Commission to take into account the additional interference which would be caused to its operation on Channel 6 from the Nashaquitsa station. The Rules provide that existing stations are afforded protection from interference by the minimum separation requirements and the maximum heights and powers. The Commission has consistently maintained this policy in considering requests for changes in the Table of Assignments and we do not believe we would be warranted in departing from this policy in the instant case.

9. With respect to the oppositions based on an alleged detriment to the beauty of the landscape and the property values of surrounding residences and summer homes on the Island, the Commission is of the view that such contentions are not germane to the rule making proceeding here. We are here considering the question of making an assignment to a community and not the granting of a particular station application. These questions and other similar ones are more appropriately within the jurisdiction of local zoning authorities. Similarly, the question of air hazard is one which is considered at the time of a grant of a particular application with a specific proposal for a tower location and height.

10. Upon consideration of the record in this proceeding, we are of the view that the proposed assignment would serve the public interest by providing an additional TV service to a significant number of people. We believe such assignment comports with the objectives set out in our recent Report and Order in Docket No. 11532. Triangle Publications has suggested that this assignment should be offset with that of WFIL-TV by making additional changes in offset carrier requirements. We have adopted this suggestion.

11. Authority for the adoption of the amendment herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f) and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

12. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective August 15, 1956, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the community named is concerned, as follows:

(a) Add to the table:

City:	Channel No.
Nashaquitsa, Mass	6+

(b) Change the offset carrier requirement only at Portland, Maine, from Channel 6+ to Channel 6—.

PART 6—PUBLIC RADIOCOMMUNICATION SERVICES (OTHER THAN MARITIME MOBILE)

STATION IDENTIFICATION

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of July 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the desirability of amending § 6.37 of Part 6 of its rules and regulations governing Public Radiocommunication Services (other than Maritime Mobile) to reflect changes in the manner of identification of emissions by point-to-point radiotelegraph and radiotelephone stations in the International Fixed Public and Fixed Public Press Services;

It appearing that the proposed amendments constitute rewording, renumbering and rearranging of the parts of the present rule to provide for the insertion therein of certain substantive changes;

It further appearing that the substantive changes in § 6.37 to be effected by the proposed amendments are to provide for the use, under certain prescribed conditions, of a general form of identification signal in lieu of the usual call signs and to provide for the transmission of a special signal (QTT) preceding the transmission of superimposed identification;

It further appearing that since the proposed amendment has been brought to the attention of all licensees in the International Fixed Public Service by letter and no objections have been raised thereto, and that since time is of the essence because operations under the amended rule would materially assist the Commission in the performance of its monitoring duties, which have an important bearing on national security, the publication of a Notice of Proposed Rule Making pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act is both unnecesary and contrary to the public interest;

It further appearing that authority for the proposed amendments is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective August 1, 1956, § 6.37 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended, as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: July 10, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

Section 6.37 is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.37 Station identification.—(a) General. (1) Every radiotelegraph or radiotelephone station in the International Fixed Public or Fixed Public Press Service shall transmit, as provided below, the identifying call sign or other approved identification signal on each of its assigned frequencies below 50,000 kc on which energy is being radiated.

(b) When required. (1) The call sign assigned to each frequency shall be transmitted on that frequency at the beginning and end of each period of use of the frequency.

(2) During regular operation on any frequency, the call sign or other approved identification signal shall be transmitted at least at hourly intervals within the period from 10 minutes before to 10 minutes after each hour. If identification during this period would require an interruption in the transmission of a radiophoto, a telephone conversation, an addressed program or a multiple addressed press message, or a break in the continuity of a "conference" or "leased line" type of service, the identifying signal shall be transmitted at the first break in, at the conclusion of, or simultaneously with, the particular transmission as described below.

(c) Methods of transmission. (1) All Identifying signals shall be transmitted in such a manner as to permit identification without special equipment other than communication type receivers, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. When emissions are being used which are not capable of identification without special equipment, the identifying signal shall be transmitted by one of the following methods:

(i) By interrupting the transmission and transmitting the call sign in a manner which can be identified without special equipment.

(ii) By superimposing the call sign or other approved identification signal on the emission being transmitted without interrupting the transmission as provided for by paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section.

(d) Emissions to be used. (1) Except as otherwise provided, the following emissions shall be used for identification:

(i) Radiotelegraph stations. The identifying call sign shall be transmitted by International Morse code at a speed not to exceed 25 words per minute and shall consist of the signal "QRA de" followed by the call sign. This transmission shall be made at least three times.

(ii) Radiotelegraph stations using telephone type emissions. When telephone type emissions are being used in accordance with Section 6.11 of the Rules, identification may be made by voice and shall consist of announcing three times in English the call sign of the frequency being used.

(iii) Radiotelephone stations. The identifying transmission may be made utilizing either telegraph or telephone type emissions. When telegraph emission is used, the transmission shall be made in International Morse Code at a speed not to exceed 25 words per minute and shall consist of the signal "QRA de" followed by the call sign. This transmission shall be made at least three times. When telephone emission is used, the identification shall consist of announcing three times in English the call sign of the frequency being used, provided that all privacy or secrecy devices shall be removed from the circuit during such transmissions.

(e) Superimposed identification. (1) Radiotelegraph or radiotelephone stations identifying simultaneously with transmission of traffic—call signs or the general identification signal described below may be superimposed on the emission being transmitted by any method which will make identification possible with communication type receivers provided that approval of any such method shall first have been obtained from the Federal Communications Commission. (Approval by the Federal Communications Commission of any means of identification of complex emissions by superimposing identification of regular transmissions will be given upon satisfactory completion of co-ordinated tests thereof by the applicant and the Commission's Field Engineering and Monitoring Bureau.) Commission approval may be withdrawn if at any subsequent time harmful interference to adjacent frequencies is caused by the superimposed identification. When superimposed identification by call sign is used, the ideltifying signal shall consist of "QTT de (call sign)" transmitted at least three times in International Morse Code at a speed not to exceed 25 words per minute.

(f) General identification signal. (1) When an approved method of superimposed identification is used, the identification signal shall consist of "QTT de (abbreviated name of company recorded with the Commission) (abbreviated name of station recorded with the Commission)." (It is suggested that "abbreviated company name" consist of two to five letters such as the initials of the company name and that "abbreviated name of station" consist of two or three letters indicating the name of the city where the licensee's message center is located. Both of these abbreviations shall be notified to the Commission before being used for identification.) This general identification signal shall be transmitted in International Morse Code at a speed not to exceed 25 words per minute and may be transmitted continuously or intermittently as desired provided that it shall be transmitted for at least five minutes total time during the period from 10 minutes before to 10 minutes after each hour that energy is being radiated on the frequency. The same signal may be superimposed on all transmissions being made at a particular station: Provided, however, That licensed call signs shall be transmitted on the frequencies to which they are assigned as often as is practicable and reasonable or at least at the beginning and end of each period of use of each frequency.

(g) Identification by printer. (1) Notwithstanding the foregoing with respect to methods of transmission, when single channel start-stop 5 unit code printer equipment is being used, the identifying call sign may be transmitted by means of printer signals. When identification is made by printer signals, it shall consist of the call sign for the particular frequency being used and shall be made at least three times at a speed of approximately 60 words per minute.

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

SINGLE APPLICATION AND AUTHORIZATION FOR TWO OR MORE UNITS OF BASE OR FIXED STATIONS AT TEMPORARY LOCATIONS

In the Commission's order of January 11, 1956 (FCC 56-37), § 16.156 (b) should be corrected to read as follows:

(b) The current authorization for each base or fixed station authorized to be operated at a permanent location shall be posted at what the licensee considers to be the principal control position for such base or fixed station: Provided, however, That, in the Railroad Radio Service, a licensee may post a full-size photocopy of (and in lieu of) the current authorization. A photocopy of the current authorization for each base or fixed station authorized to be operated at a permanent location shall be posted at all other control positions for such base or fixed station. An executed Transmitter Identification Card (FCC Form 452-C, Revised) shall be affixed to each transmitter operated at a permanent location, if such transmitter is not in view from what the licensee considers to be the principal control position for such transmitter, or if such transmitter is not readily accessible for inspection by the Commission.

PART 21—DOMESTIC PUBLIC RADIO SERVICES (OTHER THAN MARITIME MOBILE)

ERRATA

The Commission's Report and Order (FCC 56-553) of June 13, 1956, in the above entitled matter, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 28, 1956, at page 4724, is corrected in the following respects:

In the Report and Order:

1. In paragraph 11 under the discussion of § 21.510, change the expression "• • • at paragraph (e) of § 21.509." to read "• • • as paragraph (f) of § 21.509.".

2. In paragraph 13 under the discussion of § 21.701 (e), change the frequency band "98-100 Mc" to read "98-108 Mc".

In new Part 21:

3a. In § 21.1, change the definition of "Antenna structure" to read as follows:

Antenna structures. The term antenna structures includes the radiating system, its supporting structures and any surmounting appurtenances.

b. In § 21.1, change the word "station" in the definition of "Point-to-point microwave radio service" to read "stations".

4. In § 21.12 (a), change "of Part O," to read "of the Commission's".

5a. In § 21.15 (f) (1), change the first semi-colon to a comma.

b. In § 21.15 (h), change "set forth in subsection (f)" to read "set forth in paragraph (f) of this section".

6a. In § 21.19 (a), change "Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Services" to read "Domestic Public Radio Services".

b. In footnote 8, change the reference to "§ 2.103 (e)" to read "§ 2.103 (a)".

7. In the fifth sentence of § 21.26 (c), change "• • • further issues and it may prescribe. • • • " to read "• • • further issues as it may prescribe. • • • ".

8. In § 21.27 (a), change the last word of the first sentence from "findings" to "finding".

9. In the first sentence of § 21.29 (i), change "tse Secretary" to "the Secretary".

10. In §-21.118 (g), change the reference to "§ 21.205 (i)" to specify the letter "I" rather than the figure "1".

11. In the text preceding paragraph (a) of § 21.206, insert the word "shall" preceding the word "operate".

12. In § 21.207 (e), delete the word "or" from the parenthetical expression.

13. In § 21.213 (d) (2) and (3), change "QRA do" to read "QRA de".

14. In the last sentence of § 21.604 (b), change "omission" to read "emission".

15a. In the table in § 21.701 (b):

a. Change the footnote designator for the frequency band 2450-2500 Mc from "1" to "2".

b. Change the footnote designator for the frequency band 16000-18000 Mc from "2" to "3".

c. Redesignate footnote "2" as "3".

d. Insert new footnote "2" to read as follows:

[2] Stations operating on these frequencies will not be protected from such interference as may be experienced from the emissions of industrial, scientific, and medical equipment on the frequency 2450 Mc, in accordance with § 2.104 (a) of this chapter.

b. In the table in § 21.701 (c), footnote "1" is changed to a position following the table.

16. In footnote "1" of § 21.801 (h), change the frequency "27.255 Mc" to read "27.12 Mc".

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 104—BRISTOL BAY AREA

NUSHAGAK DISTRICT; ADDITIONAL FISHING TIME

Basis and purpose. On the basis of improvement in the red salmon runs in the Nushagak district of Bristol Bay, it has been determined that some additional fishing time can be permitted there.

Therefore, effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, § 104.5, as amended in item 3 of the amendment published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 11, 1956 (21 F. R. 5136), is further amended to permit fishing to extend to 3 o'clock postmeridian July 13, 1956 in the Nushagak district only.

Since immediate action is necessary, notice and public procedure on these amendments are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 930]

(Docket No. AO-72-A21)

HANDLING OF MILK IN TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in Room 330, Davis Building, 147 Michigan Street, Toledo, Ohio, July 31, 1956 at 10:00 a. m., for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to marketing conditions and proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by The Northwestern Cooperative Sales Association, Inc.:

1. Expand the marketing area so as to cover all of the territory of Monroe County (except the townships of Ash and Berlin), the townships of Riga, Deerfield, Blissfield, Palmyra and Ogden in Lenawee County all in the State of Michigan, and the counties of Fulton, Wood and Lucas, the town of Elmore, and the townships of Allen and Clay in Ottawa County, and the town of Gibsonburg, and the townships of Madison and Woodville in Sandusky County, all in the State of Ohio. All this new territory to be added to the present territory included in § 930.5.

2. In § 930.50 (a) (1), consider the fixing of a Class I price in relation to competing markets and in relation to seasonal variations in prices in nearby markets.

3. Consider possible changes in the supply-demand factor as outlined in § 930.50 (a) (2).

4. Insert contra-seasonal factors in Class I pricing so as to insure encouragement of fall production.

5. Make the Class II price in § 930.50 (b) the effective basic formula price for the delivery period.

6. Set up a separate price class for milk used in the making of cottage cheese and fix such price at the basic formula price plus 30 cents.

7. Consider the definition of producer with respect to deliveries through the bulk tank system and the establishment of a premium for such deliveries.

8. Consider the question of diverted milk in relation to bulk deliveries and as to pooling problems.

9. Consider the inclusion of a new producer clause in the order.

10. Clarify § 930.6 so as to make definite that all handlers operating a processing or a receiving or a packaging plant are covered under the order.

11. Amend § 930.80 (b) so that—Class I milk sold by a handler within the marketing area governed by another Federal order shall be priced at the higher of the prices paid for Class I milk in the two areas involved: Provided, That this section shall not be effective unless there is a corresponding provision in the Federal order regulating prices in the other area.

12. In view of the proposed new definitions and to clarify order language, consider changes in §§ 930.11, 930.42, 930.44 to conform with these proposals and specifically provide for the classification, allocation and pricing of milk in inventories of fluid milk products and make such other changes as may be necessary or desirable or required to make the marketing agreement and order in their entirety conform with any amendment thereto that may result from the hearing.

Proposed by The Page Dairy Company, Toledo, Ohio.

13. Location adjustments to handlers (§930.63):

With respect to the actual weight of any product named in Class I and Class II which is (a) moved directly to the marketing area from a receiving plant located outside the marketing area; and (b) disposed of outside the marketing area as Class I or Class II milk from a receiving plant so located there shall be deducted in the computation of the handlers gross value with respect to such amounts received and disposed of from plants located more than 60 miles but not more than 75 miles by shortest highway distance from Toledo City Hall, Toledo, Ohio, as determined by the market administrator, 15 cents per hundredweight, from plants located as so determined more than 75 miles but not more than 90 miles, 18 cents per hundredweight and 2 cents additional for each 15-mile zone.

Proposed by Driggs Dairy Farm, Inc., and Babcock Dairy Company, Toledo, Ohio:

14. That the minimum prices for milk disposed of in out-of-area Class I sales be established as 50 cents per hundredweight less than the minimum prices prescribed in the order for milk disposed of in Class I sales within the marketing area.

Proposed by The Bordon Company, Detroit 7, Michigan:

15. That milk used for Class I sales in an area covered by another Federal order be priced at the Class I price prevailing in that area in which the sale was made.

Proposed by Twin Pines Farm Dairy, Inc., Detroit 38, Michigan:

16. Provide that all Class I sales made in any other Federal order area shall be at the Class I price of that area.

17. The Toledo order Class I price shall be the basic formula price plus $1.23 during the months of February through July and plus $1.63 in all other months.

Proposed by Ira Wilson & Sons Dairy Company, Detroit 8, Michigan:

18. Provide for Class I prices within the Federal order area in which Class I milk sales are actually made.

19. Provide Class I pricing formulas for Toledo identical with Detroit.

Proposed by The Dairy Division:

20. Review all other provisions of Order No. 30 in light of the above stated proposals to extend the marketing area and to consider suggestions for changes in the order language which may be appropriate in redrafting and reissuance of the entire order.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order now in effect, may be procured from the market administrator, 312 Davis Building, 147 Michigan Street, Toledo 2, Ohio or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: July 10, 1956.

[SEAL] F. R. BURKE,
Acting Deputy Administrator.

MARYLAND TOBACCO

MARKETING OF MARYLAND TOBACCO, COLLECTION OF MARKETING PENALTIES, AND RECORDS AND REPORTS, 1956–57 MARKETING YEAR

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301, 1311–1314, 1372–1375), marketing quota regulations are being prepared governing the issuance of marketing cards, the identification of tobacco, the collection and refund of penalties, and the records and reports incident thereto on the marketing of Maryland (type 32) tobacco for the 1956–57 marketing year.

It is contemplated that the regulations for the 1956–57 marketing year will be substantially the same as those issued for the 1953–54 marketing year (18 F. R. 4273 and 18 F. R. 6445) except for changes and additional provisions as follows:

1. An additional provision would be included requiring that all acreage of tobacco on any farm in an area normally growing tobacco subject to marketing quotas will be considered a kind of tobacco subject to marketing quotas until such time as the county committee is furnished satisfactory proof by the farm operator that the tobacco is not subject to marketing quotas. The effect of this provision would be to prevent the production and marketing of alleged nonquota kinds of tobacco in quota tobacco producing and marketing areas.

2. The rule of fractions applicable to the harvested acreage of tobacco on a farm would be changed to provide that the harvested acreage for 1956 will be expressed in hundredths of acres dropping all fractions of less than one hundredth of an acre.

3. An additional section would be added to provide specifically for serial number identification of farms.

4. An additional section would be added prescribing specifically the duties of county committeemen and producers in determining the acreage of tobacco on each farm and prescribing the duty of the farm operator or his representative to report all fields of tobacco on the farm.

5. The prior regulations setting forth the provisions under which within quota marketing cards would be issued for farms would be changed. This change would be made by amending subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a), § 727.738 (which appears as § 727.436 in the regulations for the 1953–54 marketing year) to read as follows:

(a) Within Quota Marketing Card (MQ–76—Tobacco). A Within Quota Marketing Card authorizing price support loans and the marketing without penalty of any tobacco available for marketing shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco for the farm in 1956 is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment therefor and any excess carry-over tobacco can be marketed without penalty under the provision of § 725.744 (b) except that if:

(i) More than one kind of tobacco is produced on a farm in 1956 a "zero percent" excess marketing card (ineligible for price support loans) shall be issued for each kind of tobacco for which the harvested acreage is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment if at the time of issuing marketing cards for the farm the harvested acreage of any kind is in excess of the farm acreage allotment;

(ii) For any kind of tobacco produced on a farm in 1956 the acreage of which is in excess of the allotment and the operator or any other producer on the farm fails to file with the county ASC office a written request (with deposit to cover the cost as estimated by the county committee) to dispose of the excess tobacco acreage or to have a remeasurement made of the tobacco acreage within ten (10) days from the date of notice to the farm operator on Form CSS–595—Tobacco, Notice of Excess Tobacco Acreage, a "zero percent" excess marketing card shall be issued for each such kind of tobacco even though the excess acreage is disposed of other than by marketing unless the county committee with the approval of a representative of the State committee determines that the failure to file such written request was due to circumstances beyond the control of the farm operator or producer; or

(iii) Any tobacco is physically harvested from a farm in 1956 from an acreage in excess of the allotment for the farm and even though it is disposed of in accordance with § 725.745 (a), a "zero percent" excess marketing card shall be issued for each such kind of tobacco, unless the county committee with the approval of a representative of the State committee determines that the acreage of tobacco was not measured in sufficient time to afford the farm operator an opportunity to dispose of the excess acreage prior to harvest.

6. The provision in prior regulations relating to the marketing of tobacco grown for experimental purposes only would be changed to provide that the Director of a publicly owned Agricultural Experiment Station furnish the State committee a list by counties showing the following information with respect to the farms on which tobacco is grown for experimental purposes only:

1. Name and address of the publicly-owned experiment station.

2. Name of the owner, and name of the operator if different from the owner, of each farm on which tobacco is grown for experimental purposes only.

3. The acreage of tobacco grown on each farm for experimental purposes only.

4. A certification signed by the Director of the publicly-owned agricultural experiment station to the effect that:

(a) Such acreage of tobacco was grown on each farm for experimental purposes only;

(b) The tobacco was grown under his direction;

(c) The acreage in each plot was considered necessary for carrying out the experiment.

Provision would be made for issuing to the experiment station a within quota marketing card for use in identifying marketings of tobacco grown on farms or land for which the above information is furnished.

7. The provision in prior regulations for placing excess tobacco in storage under bond as a method by which the farm operator may dispose of excess tobacco so as to avoid the payment of penalty would be eliminated. The definition of "carry-over tobacco" would be continued as in prior regulations, however, and provision would be made for marketing penalty-free an amount of carry-over tobacco or tobacco under bond from a prior marketing year equal to the amount, as determined under the regulations, by which the harvested acreage is less than the acreage allotment for a subsequent marketing year.

8. A provision would be included which would serve to clarify the fact that any marketing of tobacco by a person other than the producer thereof on a marketing card other than the one issued for the farm on which such tobacco was produced is deemed to be a marketing of excess tobacco and is subject to penalty.

9. A provision would be included which would serve to clarify the producer's liability for penalty due on the basis of a redetermination of the acreage of tobacco by the county committee after part or all the tobacco produced on the farm has been marketed.

Prior to the final adoption and issuance of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or recommendations pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than ten days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER in order to be considered.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of July 1956.

Administrator.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 10]

[Docket No. 11770; FCC 56–650]

PUBLIC SAFETY RADIO SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of §§ 10.101, 10.103 and 10.255 of the Commission's rules.

1. The Commission has under consideration five non-related amendments to Part 10 of its rules and notice of proposed rule making in this matter is hereby given. The items under consideration in this docket are as follows:

(a) It is proposed to amend § 10.101 of the rules by adding a new paragraph to reflect certain conditions affecting the availability of frequencies below 27 megacycles in the Public Safety Radio Services. In some instances the Commission has been unable to authorize a particular frequency at a requested location because of various factors such as international priorities, and the probability of interference to existing operations on closely adjacent frequencies. In this area it is thought that the rules should be clarified to point out this situation as well as to include the alternative which the Commisison will employ in such a case, namely, to authorize a suitable substitute frequency, provided such a frequency can be located by the applicant.

(b) It is proposed to amend § 10.103 (a) of the rules to permit the use of tone signals, by stations licensed in the Public Safety Radio Services for voice emissions, to actuate sirens or other warning devices which are intended to advise the general public, or emergency personnel of an emergency condition. This proposal is responsive to a request made by the Associated Police Communication Officers, Inc.

(c) It is proposed to amend § 10.255 of the rules to permit use of the frequencies 39.46 Mc and 45.86 Mc for intersystem operation in the Police Radio Service. These frequencies would be commonly available to all licensees in the Police Radio Service at any location where intersystem operation required their use. The present rules have provided for base and mobile station use of a common area frequency in the 150 Mc band for police intersystem operation for a number of years. This provision appears to have been highly valuable and policing agencies have on many occasions expressed a desire for similar provisions in the frequency bands, other than 152–162 Mc, available to the Police Radio Service. In this connection the proposal is intended to be responsive to a petition filed with the Commission on March 22, 1955 by the Buckeye Sheriffs Association and endorsed by the Ohio Chapter, and the National Planning Committee of the Associated Police Communication Officers, Inc., requesting rule changes to permit intersystem operation in the 39 Mc band.

(d) It is proposed to amend § 10.255 of the rules to limit the power which may be authorized to new stations on the frequency 39.06 Mc to a maximum of 3 watts input to final radio frequency stage of the transmitting apparatus, and make the frequency commonly available to all licensees in the Police Radio Service for low powered operations. The desirability of such action has been brought to the Commission's attention by resolutions of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the Associated Police Communication Officers, Inc. It is observed that similar operation has been provided in the Fire Radio Service for some eight years and experience in that service indicates that protection from high powered operations on one or more frequencies within a service provides for very efficient use of hand carried and other low powered mobile radiocommunication equipment by all licensees within the service desiring such operation.

(e) It is proposed to amend § 10.101 of the rules by adding a new paragraph to permit use of the aeronautical universal emergency and distress frequency 121.5 megacycles by licensees in some of the Public Safety Radio Services when such use is necessary to facilitate search and rescue operations.

2. The Commission proposes to implement the five provisions outlined herein by amending Part 10 of its rules as set forth below. It may be noted that in cases where existing stations are utilizing frequencies in a manner contrary to these proposed revisions, provision has been made to continue such operation. These proposed amendments are issued, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (c), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

3. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file with the Commission on or before August 22, 1956 written comments or briefs setting forth his objections. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for the filing of said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments prior to taking final action in this matter, and if any comments warrant oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

4. In accordance with § 1.764 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 6, 1956.

Released: July 10, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

It is proposed to amend Part 10, Public Safety Radio Services, in accordance with the following particulars:

1. Section 10.101; add new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) Frequencies below 25 megacycles listed in the various services of this part are the frequencies normally assigned to stations in those services under the indicated conditions and limitations. In individual cases it may be impracticable to authorize the normally assignable frequencies because of potential interference to existing frequency use in the area involved. In such cases substitute frequencies, which are in accordance with the Commission's table of frequency allocations and compatible with existing United States and foreign assignments made pursuant to outstanding international agreements, may be authorized even though such frequencies are not listed in this part.

2. Section 10.103; amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, stations in these services will be authorized to use only A3 or F3 emission for radiotelephony. The authorization to use A3 or F3 emission is construed to include the use of tone signals or signaling devices the function of which is limited to establishing or maintaining voice communications or to actuating emergency warning devices used solely for the purpose of advising the general public or emergency personnel of an impending emergency situation.

3. Section 10.255; in the frequency tabulation of paragraph (g) of this section change the entries 39.46, 45.86 and 45.90 Mc to read as follows:

Frequency or band (Mc)	Class of station(s)	Limitations
39.46	do	16
45.86	Base and mobile	16
45.90	do

4. Section 10.255; in paragraph (h) add a new limitation note 16 to read as follows:

(16) This frequency is reserved for assignment to stations in the Police Radio Service for intersystem operations only: Provided however, That licensees holding a valid authorization to use this frequency for local base or mobile operations as of June 1, 1956, may continue to be authorized for such use.

5. Section 10.255; in the frequency tabulation of paragraph (g) of this section opposite the entry 39.06 Mc enter the limitation 17.

6. Section 10.255; in paragraph (h) add a new limitation note 17 to read as follows:

(17) The maxmum plate input power to the final radio frequency stage of any transmitter authorized to operate on this frequency, after June 1, 1956, shall not exceed three watts. Licensees holding a valid authorization as of June 1, 1956, for base or mobile station operation on this frequency, with a power in excess of three watts, may continue to be authorized for such operation without regard to this power limitation.

7. Section 10.101; add new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) The frequency 121.5 Mc is available for assignment to stations in the Police, Fire, Forestry-Conservation, and Highway Maintenance Radio Services, utilizing type A3 emission, for the sole purpose of communicating with stations in the Aviation Services when such Public Safety stations are engaged in search and rescue operations involving lost aircraft. All operations on this frequency by public safety radio stations shall be confined to such search and rescue operations and shall conform strictly to the provisions of applicable International Agreements and to the provisions of Part 9 of this chapter. This frequency will not be assigned to Police, Fire, Forestry-Conservation and Highway Maintenance Radio stations unless there are also assigned and available for use, other frequencies to accommodate the normal communication needs of such stations. All transmitting equipment used by public safety licensees on the frequency 121.5 Mc shall be of a type acceptable under and complying with the applicable requirements of Part 9 of this chapter and must be listed on the station authorization.

[Docket No. 11769; FCC 56-638]

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS, CLASS A AND CLASS B TELEPHONE COMPANIES

ACCOUNTING FOR STATION APPARATUS, STATION INSTALLATIONS AND STATION WIRING

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to amend Part 31, Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies, of the Commission's rules and regulations as set forth below.

3. The paragraphs below contain a general description of the proposed changes in the Commission's accounting rules which are the subject of this Notice of Proposed Rule Making. Factual data are included with respect to the historical development of certain of the present accounting practices. The basic reasoning behind the Commission's decision to propose changes is given. It is hoped that these data will provide background useful to those commenting upon the proposals.

4. The proposed revisions in the System of Accounts are intended to accomplish two principal general objectives. These are (1) to simplify the prescribed accounting for station apparatus by including the investment in most equipment on subscribers' premises in a telephone plant in service account from the time such equipment is purchased with a view to early use on subscribers' premises until its final disposition by the telephone company, ignoring, for purposes of plant investment accounting, movements out of and back into active service during its overall life, and (2) to treat the costs of installation and of the wiring directly associated with equipment on subscribers' premises as depreciable plant. Under (1), in addition to subscriber telephones, such equipment as telephone booths, small private branch exchanges (both manual and dial), and teletypewriters would receive the so-called "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting treatment. The Bell System, at the instance of this Commission and the Accounting and Depreciation committees of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, has made an exhaustive study of the feasibility of accounting changes of the type proposed herein. It has requested the institution of rule making proceedings in the matter in a letter from American Telephone and Telegraph Company to the Commission dated June 25, 1956. The United States Independent Telephone Association has also considered the practicability of accounting revisions of this type.

5. The accounting practice for equipment on subscribers' premises is, and so far as is known always has been, to carry items destined for such use in Material and Supplies account until withdrawn from such stock for actual installation. Once installed, this equipment is carried in a plant in service account only so long as actually connected for service or, in the case of subscriber telephone instruments, so long as it remains physically on the premises where it was formerly connected for service (left-in stations). Subscriber telephone instruments are written out of the plant in service asset account at original cost when they are removed from subscriber premises with the contra charge, of course, being to the depreciation reserve. At the same time, an entry is made for those instruments which it is expected will be reused. They are charged to material and supplies at their estimated original cost and the contra credit is to the depreciation reserve. The cost of removing a subscriber telephone instrument is now charged to operating expense as well as the cost of reconditioning it for reuse in a new location. The proposed revisions in the system of accounts will do away with plant retirement accounting for interim outward and plant addition accounting for inward movement of station apparatus reused leaving such equipment in the plant in service asset account at original cost throughout its physical life whether as a unit of telephone equipment in stock available for installation or in process of being repaired or rebuilt, installed and used in service, or in the status of left-in equipment. Under the revisions as proposed no costs of removal will be recognized as such for station apparatus. Instead, costs of removal related to station apparatus not replaced will be treated as costs of removal of station connections and be charged to the depreciation reserve. The accounting for costs of reconditioning station apparatus will continue to be charged to operating expense as is done at present.

6. The present method of accounting for equipment on subscriber premises would appear to be more in accord with accepted plant accounting than that proposed for the future. It should be understood, however, that the present accounting requires burdensome (time consuming, expensive and irksomely detailed) reporting on the part of plant field personnel. There is promise of worthwhile economies in record keeping from the simplification proposed which appear to outweigh any disadvantages involved in the departure from the present accounting.

7. Small private branch exchanges and booths are now carried in account 234, "Private branch exchanges" and account 235, "Booths and special fittings," respectively. The costs so carried include costs of installation and inside wires. The revisions proposed call for the transfer of both small private branch exchanges and booths to the proposed enlarged account 231, "Station apparatus." It is to be noted, however, that such transfer will not include costs of installation and inside wires. The latter will be transferred to the proposed account 232, "Station connections."

8. The proposed revisions in the system of accounts in the form issued for purposes of comment eliminate any provision for a list of retirement units, as such, for account 231, "Station apparatus." Instead, each company is directed to prepare and keep up-to-date its own list of "station apparatus disposition units." This list will govern the plant retirement entries for account 231 since only items appearing on the list will be made the subject of plant retirement entries when they are finally disposed of. These station apparatus disposition units are distinguishable from retirement units in that they will be employed exclusively in conjunction with "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting so that their movement outward from station apparatus equipment assemblies other than for final disposition will not affect the plant account. Use of a different descriptive title is considered justified in order to emphasize the exclusive association of this list of units with "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting.

9. Ordinarily, a list of property units such as retirement units or station apparatus disposition units would be prescribed as a part of a system of accounts rather than being left up to each company to prepare subject to review by the Commission. The provision as proposed is designed to give the flexibility considered desirable to meet the problems of certain carriers with a great many transactions involving station apparatus and having particular type arrangements with their equipment and maintenance supplier. At the same time it is adaptable to the needs of other carriers employing other arrangements for maintaining and rebuilding station apparatus. The indications are that the Bell System telephone companies will propose quite detailed lists of station apparatus disposition units while other companies may be expected to propose lists similar to the retirement units presently prescribed. It is recognized that differences in lists of station apparatus disposition units may affect station apparatus depreciation rates as well as maintenance expense as between carriers and that a change in its list by a carrier may call for a review of the depreciation rate being used for station apparatus. Effects on depreciation rates will be available for review and appropriate action through the requirement that changes in lists of station apparatus disposition units shall be filed with the Commission annually.

10. The accounting revisions, in the form presented for comment below, provide for "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting treatment for teletypewriter and other telegraph equipment. Such equipment differs from telephone instruments, the principal component of station apparatus account, in a number of respects. For example, teletypewriter and other telegraph installations are relatively few in number. Teletypewriters have a unit cost many times as great as regular telephone instruments. Teletypewriter and other telegraph equipment is understood to be installed and serviced to a large extent by employees specializing in those activities. Record communications services of telephone companies are offered in competition with like services of The Western Union Telegraph Company, thus indicating a possible need for comparable treatment of telephone and telegraph companies with respect to accounting for telegraph plant. In view of these and other distinctive characteristics of teletypewriter and other telegraph equipment, suggestions are especially solicited regarding the advisability of excluding such equipment from "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting and of providing special accounting treatment for it. Possibilities would be to establish a single account for all inside plant used exclusively in record communications services or for all such plant on customer premises. Such account would be depreciable but, as stated above, would not receive the "cradle-to-grave" plant accounting treatment.

11. The costs of installation and the costs of the wiring directly associated with equipment on subscribers' premises (other than private branch exchanges and booths) have been capitalized in separate plant accounts since the beginning of telephone accounting.[1] Since January 1, 1933 they have definitely been nondepreciable. It was argued in justification of making them nondepreciable, which is "retirement accounting", that it results in relatively constant charges to operating expense so there is little, if any, distortion. On the other hand, that argument was made prior to 1930 and subsequent experience has shown that the retirement practice can result in fluctuating, expense-distorting, charges to operating expenses, particularly with respect to smaller companies. Thus, the principal argument in favor of instituting depreciation accounting now seems to be to give greater assurance of a proper matching of revenues and expenses than is given by the present retirement accounting basis by preventing expense increases during periods of high removals of stations.

12. In the period 1913–1932, the practices with respect to depreciation accounting for plant then included in account 232, "Station installations," account 233, "Interior block wires," and the portion of account 243, "Exchange aerial wire," covering drop wires, seem to have varied as among companies and as among years in individual companies. Speaking generally, however, it appears that some depreciation was accrued during the period on one or more of these accounts by most, if not all, companies, but not in all years. These depreciation accruals were generally not for the purpose of providing for regularly accruing depreciation but were to provide in advance for the cost of retirements arising out of extensive replacements of plant on subscriber premises due to extraordinary circumstances such as conversions from manual to dial operation. It appears that amounts capitalized with respect to installation costs and costs of wiring associated with stations have always been written off to expense at time of station removal with the exception of some retirement costs incurred in connection with extensive replacements involved in conversion projects which may have been charged in some cases to the depreciation reserve. The expense account has been credited for the wiring gain when any wiring previously so charged off was reused. The same accounting has been continued to date except that no depreciation whatever has been accrued since January 1, 1933.

13. It is contemplated by the proposed revision of the system of accounts that costs of wiring and station installation will be written out of the plant accounts at the time the associated stations are physically removed or, if they are reconnected for service without physical removal, the portions of costs of wiring and station installation lost by disconnection will be written out at the time of such reconnection. The present accounting also calls for delaying book retirement of station connections until physical removal of stations but in case of reconnection in place no capital accounting is performed and the costs of reconnection are charged to operating expenses. Performance of capital accounting for reconnects will result in plant book costs more accurately reflecting changes in price levels than the present accounting. The proposed timing of accounting entries for retirement of station wiring and installation costs is the same as is provided for in the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts for Class C telephone companies in which these classes of plant have been depreciable since January 1, 1939.

14. It seems in order to call attention to a seeming anomaly in the accounting proposed for the costs of wiring associated with equipment on subscriber premises. This is in the provision that the cost of replacement of all or a portion of a station connection (including drop and block wires) when there is no discontinuance of service by the customer shall be charged to expense. It might well be that the replacement of an entire station connection assembly should be treated as a plant retirement and an installation of a new unit of plant. We have given consideration to this problem and believe, subject to comments we may receive in this proceeding, that, due to the infrequency of an entire station connection being replaced under such circumstances and the advantages of simplicity in reporting of plant work and changes, the proposed accounting is justified.

15. Two minor revisions are proposed which have no relation to the two principal general objectives of the rules revision. One is in § 31.2–20 (d) where "$10" is proposed to be changed to read "$25." This change in amount merely recognizes broadly the change in price levels that has occurred since the time (January 1, 1933) the $10 provision became effective. The second revision is to add to § 31.122 (b) a provision that sales and use taxes, so far as practicable, shall be included as a part of the cost of the particular material to which they relate. Along with this provision there is a deletion of a provision that when not so includible such taxes, as well as transportation charges, shall be charged to account 704, "Supply Expense." This revision specifically recognizes sales and use taxes in the system of accounts and meets tax allocation problems for accounting purposes of carriers operating in jurisdictions where sales and use taxes are selective, i. e., their imposition depends upon the use to which a purchase is put.

16. This notice is issued under authority of sections 4 (i) and 220 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

17. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file on or before August 22, 1956, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to original comments may be filed within twenty days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and, if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, a notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

18. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 5, 1956.

Released: July 10, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1a. Delete present paragraph (r) of § 31.01–3 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(r) "Minor items," as applied to depreciable telephone plant, means any part or element which is not designated either as a retirement unit in § 31.8 or as a station apparatus disposition unit in account 231, "Station apparatus."

b. In paragraph (bb) of § 31.01–3 change the period to a comma and add the following words "or other appropriate account."

2. Add the following two sentences at the end of paragraph (c) of § 31.02–80: "For purposes of the records required to be kept under this paragraph no costs of removal or disconnection shall be associated with account 231, 'Station apparatus.' Any such costs shall be recorded as applicable to account 232, 'Station connections.'"

3. In § 31.02–82, beneath the words "Station apparatus (account 231).", insert the words "Station connections (account 232).", change the words "Private branch exchanges" to read "Large private branch exchanges"; and delete the words "Booths and special fittings (account 235)." Section 31.02–82, as amended, will read as follows:

[1] Drop wires were carried in account 243, "Exchange aerial wire," and protectors in account 231, "Station apparatus" prior to January 1, 1933. Costs of installation and wiring in connection with private branch exchanges and booths have always been carried in the respective equipment accounts.

§ 31.02–82 Classes of depreciable telephone plant. The classes of depreciable telephone plant and the accounts covering such plant are as follows:

Right of way (account 207).
Buildings (account 212).
Central office equipment (account 221).
Station apparatus (account 231).
Station connections (account 232).
Large private branch exchanges (account 234).
Pole lines (account 241).
Aerial cable (account 242:1).
Underground cable (account 242:2).
Buried cable (account 242:3).
Submarine cable (account 242:4).
Aerial wire (account 243).
Underground conduit (account 244).
Furniture and office equipment (account 261).
Vehicles and other work equipment (account 264).

NOTE: When depreciable plant carried in account 276, "Telephone plant acquired," is distributed to the appropriate plant accounts, adjusting entries shall be made covering the depreciation charges applicable to such plant for the period during which it was carried in account 276.

4. Delete paragraph (a) of § 31.100:2 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(a) This account shall include the original cost (note § 31.01–3 (x)) of construction of telephone plant other than station apparatus that is not completed ready for service. It shall include interest during construction, taxes during construction, and all other elements of cost of such construction works. (Note also §§ 31.2–20 to 31.2–22 and account 231.)

In the note to § 31.100:2, the words "installation of station apparatus," have been deleted effective January 1, 1957.

5. In § 31.100:3 (a), add the words "other than station apparatus" between the words "property" and "owned."

6. Amend section 31.122 as follows:

a. In paragraph (a), after the words "held in stock," insert "(see also Note E to this account)". Paragraph (a), as amended, will read as follows:

(a) This account shall include the cost of unapplied material and supplies held in stock (see also Note E to this account), including plant supplies, tools, fuel, stationery, directory paper stock, and other supplies; and material and articles of the company in process of manufacture for supply stock.

b. In the first sentence of paragraph (b), after the word "charges," insert the words "and sales and use taxes,". Delete the second sentence of paragraph (b). Paragraph (b), as amended, will read as follows:

(b) Transportation charges and sales and use taxes, so far as practicable, shall be included as a part of the cost of the particular material to which they relate.

c. Following Note D, add a new note as follows:

NOTE E: This account shall not include items in stock which are includible in account 231, "Station apparatus." Materials in stock that are normally used for station apparatus repair purposes shall be included in account 605, "Repairs of station equipment," if company-held, and in this account if in stocks held by others.

7. Amend paragraph (b) of § 31.171 as follows:

a. In the first sentence, delete the words "(except the cost of removal of station apparatus)". Insert the following as a new second sentence: "(With respect to entries relating to station apparatus and station connections, see accounts 231 and 232.)"

Change present second sentence to read: "This account shall also be credited with amounts chargeable to account 138, 'Extraordinary maintenance and retirements,' as provided in § 31.02–83."

b. Paragraph (b), as amended, will read as follows:

(b) At the time of retirement of depreciable telephone plant, this account shall be charged with the original cost (note § 31.01–3 (x)) of the property retired plus the cost of removal and shall be credited with the salvage value and insurance recovered, if any. (With respect to entries relating to station apparatus and station connections, see accounts 231 and 232.) This account shall also be credited with amounts chargeable to account 138, "Extraordinary maintenance and retirements," as provided in § 31.02–83. (Note also § 31.2–25.)

8a. In the last sentence of paragraph (b) of § 31.2–20 delete the words "or account 607, 'Station removals and changes,' as appropriate."

b. In paragraph (d) of § 31.2–20 change "$10" to read "$25".

9. After paragraph (b) (10) (iii) of § 31.2–22 insert a new paragraph reading as follows:

(iv) No interest charges shall be included in these accounts with respect to construction work that is not included in account 100.2, "Telephone plant under construction."

10. Amend § 31.2–25 as follows:

a. In the first sentence of paragraph (a) delete the words "(except as provided in paragraph (b) (2) of this section)" and substitute the words "(except as provided in paragraph (b) (2) of this section and in account 231)".

b. At the end of the first sentence of paragraph (b) (2), delete the period and add the words "or as a station apparatus disposition unit."

c. At the beginning of the third sentence of paragraph (b) (2), delete the words "Except as provided in the note under account 231, 'Station apparatus,' in § 31.8," and capitalize the first letter of the word "if".

d. After paragraph (b) (2) add new subparagraphs (3) and (4) as follows:

(3) Station apparatus: The accounting to be performed upon the disposition of station apparatus shall be as provided in account 231. (Note also § 31.02–80 (c).)

(4) Station connections: The accounting to be performed upon the retirement of station connections shall be as provided in account 232. (Note also § 31.02–80 (c).)

e. Delete present paragraphs (c) and (d) and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(c) Leaseholds: The accounting for leaseholds retired shall be as provided for in the texts of account 172, "Amortization reserve," and account 613, "Amortization of intangible property."

(d) Land: The original cost of land retired shall be credited to account 211, "Land." If the land is sold, the difference between such original cost and the sale price (less commissions and other expenses of making the sale) of the land shall be credited to account 401, "Credits for telephone plant sold," or debited to account 410, "Debits for telephone plant sold," as may be appropriate. If the land is retained by the company and held for sale, its cost shall be charged to account 103, "Miscellaneous physical property."

b. In the third sentence of paragraph (e) change the word "installations" to "connections".

11. Delete § 31.231 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 31.231 Station apparatus. (a) This account shall include the original cost (note § 31.01–3 (x)) of station apparatus, including small private branch exchanges and booths, installed either for customers' or the company's use. This account shall also include the cost of materials in stock which are normally used as station apparatus or additions thereto, as distinguished from items normally used for repair purposes. Items included in this account which are normally used as station apparatus shall remain herein until finally disposed of or until used in such manner as to be includible in other accounts.

(b) Each company shall prepare a list of items of station apparatus which shall be used as its list of disposition units for this account the cost of which when finally disposed of shall be credited to this account and charged to the depreciation reserve. Two copies of such list shall be submitted to the Commission not later than the date it is to be made effective for use by the company, together with the company's plan for determining disposition unit costs and the methods to be used to insure that an equitable portion of the cost of minor items, supply expense, and other amounts included in this account will be credited hereto and charged to account 171, "Depreciation reserve," upon the ultimate disposal of any disposition unit. Revisions made during any year to the effective list of disposition units shall be submitted in duplicate to the Commission not later than March 1 of the following year.

ITEMS

(Note § 31.01–8)

Amplifying equipment.
Answering equipment.
Attendants' cabinets.
Attendants' desks.
Backboards.
Battery boxes.
Booths.
Code call units.
Code sending sets.
Coin collectors.
Desk sets, hand sets, wall sets, and combined sets, including those used at main, extension, private branch exchange, and private line stations, etc. This includes such sets used as operators' sets at large private branch exchanges and in central offices and operators' schools. (See also Note C to this account.)
Directory stands or shelves.
Distributing frames.
Extension bells.
Hand-set mountings.
Messenger, and similar signaling devices.
Mobile telephone equipment.
Operators' chairs.
Operators' head sets and breastplate transmitters. (See also Note C to this account.)
Order receiving tables.
Order turrets.
Power equipment.
Printer-telegraph equipment.
Private branch exchange equipment—nonmultiple manual and cordless switchboards and dial equipment of types designed for not more than two digit operation.
Program supply equipment.
Public telephone signs.
Station switching and signaling devices, including apparatus cabinets, keys, key cabinets, and other devices used as parts of intercommunicating systems.
Subscriber sets.
Telegraph equipment.
Teletypewriter equipment.

NOTE A: The cost of installation (including cabling, station protectors, and wiring) shall be charged to account 232, "Station connections."

NOTE B: The cost of cross-connection boxes installed as a part of the house cable system, including those used as distributing frames, shall be charged to account 242.1, "Aerial cable."

NOTE C: Operators' head sets and breastplate transmitters in central offices and at large private branch exchanges, and test sets such as those used by wire chiefs, linemen, and others, shall be included in account 221, "Central office equipment," account 234, "Large private branch exchanges," or account 264, "Vehicles and other work equipment," as appropriate.

NOTE D: Items of station apparatus in stock for which no further use in the ordinary conduct of the business is contemplated, or which are specially segregated from those to be used in the normal conduct of the business shall be excluded from this account and included in account 122, "Material and supplies."

NOTE E: An annual inventory shall be taken of all telephones in stock that are included in this account. The number of such telephones as determined by this inventory, together with the number of all other telephones included in this account, shall be compared with the corresponding number of telephones as shown by the respective control records. The original cost of any unreconciled differences thereby disclosed shall be adjusted through account 171, "Depreciation reserve." Appropriate verifications shall also be made at suitable intervals and necessary adjustments between this account and account 171 shall be made for all other station apparatus included in this account.

12. Delete § 31.232 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 31.232 Station connections. (a) This account shall include the original cost (note § 31.01–3 (x)) of installing or connecting items of station apparatus and the original cost of inside wiring and cabling and drop and block wires. (See also account 605, "Repairs of station equipment.")

(b) When station apparatus is installed, the cost of installation shall be charged to this account. The estimated original cost of any portion of the station connections which is thereby returned to service shall also be charged to this account and credited to account 171, "Depreciation reserve."

(c) When a left-in station is reconnected, the cost of reconnection shall be charged to this account. The estimated original cost of the portion of the station connections associated with the left-in station which is retired as a result of the reconnection work shall be credited hereto and charged to account 171, "Depreciation reserve."

(d) When station apparatus is physically removed, the original cost (actual or estimated average unit cost) of the associated station connections carried in this account shall be credited here to and charged to account 171, "Depreciation reserve." In the event of the replacement of a small private branch exchange or booth, if the cost of installation of the replacement is charged to this account, an appropriate retirement shall be made from this account for the station connections associated with the plant replaced.

ITEMS

(Note § 31.01–8)

The wires (or small cables) from the station apparatus to the point of connection with the general overhead or underground system or to the junction boxes where the house cable or other cable terminates. This includes circuits, carried by means of wire or small cables, extending to the cable terminal in cases where connection is made with a general cable system, or to the point of connection with the aerial wire plant in cases where connection is made with a general wire system.
The wires (or small cables) used to connect station apparatus in the same building, such as main stations with extension stations, and stations of intercommunicating systems.
The wires (or small cables) used to connect private branch exchange switchboards or their distributing frames with terminal stations located in the same building.
The wires (or small cables) used to connect the various parts of a small private branch exchange, such as the cables or wires from distributing frame to switchboard.
The wires (or small cables) installed specifically to serve as trunk, battery, or generator circuits from a small private branch exchange to the point of connection with the permanent house or outside cables or wires.
Connecting blocks, ground wires, ground rods, station protectors, clamps, cleats, nails, screws and other material used in the installation of station apparatus and inside wiring and cabling.
Labor and other costs incurred in connection with station apparatus and station connection installations or additions thereto.
Brackets, bridle rings, insulators, knobs, span clamps, screws, sleeves, strand, tubes, and other material used in the installation of drop and block wires; trimming trees and other costs incurred in the installation of such wires; pipes or other protective covering for underground service connections; and permits and privileges for construction.

NOTE A: Costs chargeable to this account in connection with inside cabling are restricted to small cables used in station installations instead of wires, such as those run from wall outlets or floor terminals to the station apparatus, and to cables used in installing small private branch exchanges. The cost of cables used in installing large private branch exchanges is chargeable to account 234, "Large private branch exchanges." The cost of other inside cables, including riser and distributing cables in buildings, which by their physical character, method of installation, and permanence constitute house cables, is chargeable to account 242:1, "Aerial cable."

NOTE B: The cost of outside plant, such as poles, wires, and cables, whether or not on private property, used to connect a private branch exchange with its terminal stations shall be charged to the appropriate pole, wire and cable accounts.

NOTE C: The cost of disconnecting or removing station apparatus and station connections shall be charged to account 171, "Depreciation reserve." However, provisional denials of service to stations for nonpayment shall not be treated as stations disconnected unless the denials become final. Similarly, restoration of service to such stations subjected to provisional denials which have not become final shall not be treated as stations reconnected. The cost of disconnecting and reconnecting customers' lines at customers' premises to effect such provisional denials and restorations shall be charged to account 605, "Repairs of station equipment." If the disconnection and reconnection are made in central offices, the cost thereof shall be charged to account 604, "Repairs of central office equipment."

13. Delete § 31.233.

14. Delete § 31.234 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 31.234 Large private branch exchanges. This account shall include the original cost (note § 31.01–3 (x)), including cost of installation, of multiple manual private branch exchanges, and of dial system private branch exchanges of types designed for more than two digit operation (types designed to accommodate normally 100 or more extensions) installed either for customers' or the company's use. (See also account 231.)

ITEMS

(Note § 31.01–8)

Cables or wires from distributing frame to switchboard.
Dial system private branch exchanges of types designed for more than two digit operation, including any nonmultiple manual switchboards used as attendants' positions in connection with such dial system exchanges.
Distributing frames.
Multiple manual switchboards.
Operators' chairs.
Operators' head sets and breastplate transmitters.
Power equipment, including special foundations.
Switching equipment at automatic switching centers of private line teletypewriter systems.
Wires (or small cables used instead of wires) installed specifically to serve as trunk, battery, or generator circuits from a large private branch exchange to the point of connection with the permanent house or outside cables or wires.

NOTE A: The cost of riser and distributing cables in buildings other than central offices, which by their physical characteristics, method of installation, and permanence constitute regular house cables shall be charged to account 242:1.

NOTE B: The cost of outside plant, such as poles, wires, and cables, whether or not on private property, used to connect a private branch exchange with its terminal stations shall be charged to the appropriate pole, wire, and cable accounts.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LIBRARIES

NOTE C: The cost of cross-connection boxes installed as a part of the house cable system, including those used as distributing frames, shall be charged to account 242:1.

15. Delete § 31.235.

16. In the last sentence of Note A to § 31.242:1, change the words "account 234." to read "account 232 or account 234, as appropriate."

17. Delete Note B to § 31.242:2 and substitute the following:

NOTE B: The cost of small cables used in station installations or as drop wires shall be charged to account 232.

In the second sentence of Note D to § 31.242:2, change the words "account 234." to read "account 232 or account 234, as appropriate."

18. In the note to § 31.243, change the words "account 233." to read "account 232."

19. In Note B to § 31.244, change the words "account 233." to read "account 232."

20. In § 31.261, delete the words "(Note also accounts 221, 234, and 235 and § 31.2–20 (d).)" and substitute the words: "(Note also § 31.2–20 (d) and accounts 221 and 234.)".

21. Following Note F to § 31.305, add a new note as follows:

NOTE G: Sales and use taxes shall be accounted for, so far as practicable, as a part of the cost of the items to which the taxes relate.

22. Delete paragraph (b) (2) of § 31.-5–50 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(2) Amounts of initial nonrecurring charges for plant or equipment, furnished in rendering service to a customer, includible in accounts 231, 232, and 234, except initial charges based on the cost of specially assembled private branch exchanges includible in account 234. (Note paragraph (b) and Note A of § 31.2–20.)

23. In paragraph (a) of § 31.603, delete the words "station reconnections, reinstallations, inside moves and rearrangements of station equipment" and substitute the words "inside moves and rearrangements of station apparatus, including service regrades".

24. Delete § 31.605 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 31.605 Repairs of station equipment. (a) This account shall include the cost of repairing station apparatus, station connections and large private branch exchanges. It shall also include the cost of replacing station apparatus (excluding the cost of material other than repair parts) and the cost of replacing station connections where service discontinuance is not involved.

(b) This account shall include also amortization of costs of extensive replacements of station apparatus, inside wires, and drop and block wires, which, under conditions provided in § 31.6–64, have been included in account 138, "Extraordinary maintenance and retirements."

ITEMS

(Note § 31.01–8)

Changing type of telephone, such as from desk set to hand set, wall set to desk set, magneto to common battery, or nondial to dial.
Changing inside and drop and block wires, or replacing stations where service discontinuance is not involved.
Cleaning station apparatus and large private branch exchange equipment.
Disconnecting and reconnecting customers' lines at customers' premises to deny service provisionally for nonpayment and to restore service in cases of provisional denials which have not become final. (See also Note C to account 232.)
Inside moves (moves or relocations on the same premises or at the same address) of items of station apparatus. (See also Note A to this account.)
Inspecting, testing, and reporting on condition of equipment to determine the need for repairs or replacements. (See also account 603.)
Materials normally used as repair parts for station apparatus.
Number plate changes not incident to station connections.
Removing sediment from and cleaning batteries.
Repainting and other repairs of booths, including those owned by others.
Repairing used station equipment for reuse.
Replacing dry-cell batteries.
Replacing minor items of large private branch exchanges, including labor and material used and the removal and recovery of the items retired less salvage recovered, except when such items are replaced through the replacement of retirement units. (Note also § 31.2–25.
Replacing one small private branch exchange by another of the same capacity and type. (See paragraph (d) of account 232.)
Routine work to prevent trouble, such as trimming trees to protect existing drop and block wires.
Supply expense applicable to station apparatus being reused.
Testing for, locating and clearing trouble in station apparatus and large private branch exchanges. (See also account 603.)

NOTE A: The accounting for station connections in cases of customers' moves to different premises or to a different address shall be on the basis of a retirement or a disconnection at the old location and an installation or a reconnection at the new location.

NOTE B: Amounts charged customers for moves and changes of station apparatus and large private branch exchanges shall be credited to account 500 or to other revenue accounts appropriate for the class of service involved.

25. Delete § 31.607.

26. In § 31.632, add the following new item after the fifth item in the item list: "Repairs of furniture and office equipment used at public telephone locations and cost and repairs of individual items of small value or short life. (Note also § 31.2–20 (d).)"

27. Delete paragraph (b) of § 31.704 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(b) This account shall be cleared by equitably distributing the total expense on the basis of material and supplies and items of station apparatus.

28. Amend § 31.8 as follows:

a. In subsection 221 Central office equipment, after the words "Teletypewriter sets:", delete the words "Units specified under account 231." and substitute the words "The disposition units maintained by each company for account 231 in accordance with the provisions of that account."

b. Delete subsection 231 Station apparatus in its entirety and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

231 Station apparatus. Each company shall maintain its own list of station apparatus disposition units in lieu of retirement units for account 231 in accordance with the provisions of that account.

c. Delete subsection 232 Station installations in its entirety and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

232 Station connections. (See § 31.2–25 and accounts 232 and 605.)

d. Delete subsection 233 Drop and block wires in its entirety.

e. Delete subsection 234 Private branch exchanges in its entirety and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

234 Large private branch exchanges. Units specified under subsection 221 Central office equipment of this section.

f. Delete subsection 235 Booths and special fittings in its entirety.

29. In Case 6–R–2 of Appendix A, delete paragraph (h) and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

(h) All the central office equipment, station apparatus, station connections, large private branch exchanges, furniture and office equipment, or vehicles and other work equipment situated in or utilized in a single exchange area, central office area, or other extensive area, without additional classes of associated plant.

30. In the last sentence of Case 9–R–1 of Appendix A, delete the words "see account 233, 'Drop and block wires'." and substitute the words "see account 232, 'Station connections.' ".

31. In the first sentence of paragraph 4 (a) of Appendix B, delete the words "station installations" and substitute the words "station connections".

In the second sentence of paragraph 5 of Appendix B, delete the words "station apparatus, station installations, and drop and block wires)" and substitute the words "station apparatus and station connections)".

32. In paragraph (b) of § 31.6–61 delete the words "except as provided in account 605, 'Repairs of station equipment,' for labor and incidental costs in the replacement of station apparatus".

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. F–24]

GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF CONSTRUCTION PERMIT

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission has issued the construction permit set forth below to the General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York. In accordance with the procedure set forth in the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2), the Commission will direct the holding of a formal hearing upon timely receipt of a request therefor from the applicant or an intervenor.

Construction permit, No. CPCX–4. The General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York (hereinafter "GE"), on March 26, 1956, filed its application for license under section 104c of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (hereinafter "the act") to construct and operate a critical experiment facility (hereinafter "the facility"). An amendment to the application was filed on June 4, 1956. The original application together with said amendment are hereinafter referred to as "the application".

The Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter the "Commission") has found that:

(A) The facility will be a utilization facility as defined in the Commission's regulations contained in 10 CFR Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities."

(B) GE proposes to utilize the facility in the conduct of research and development activities of the types specified in section 31 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954.

(C) GE is financially qualified to construct and operate the facility in accordance with the regulations contained in 10 CFR, Chapter I.

(D) GE is technically qualified to design and construct the facility.

(E) GE has submitted sufficient information to provide reasonable assurance that the facility can be constructed and operated at the proposed location without undue risk to the health and safety of the public; and that additional information required to complete its application will be supplied.

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 and 10 CFR Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities," the Commission hereby issues a construction permit to GE to construct the facility as a utilization facility. This permit shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in §§ 50.54 and 50.55 of said regulations; is subject to all applicable provisions of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 and rules, regulations and orders of the Atomic Energy Commission now or hereafter in effect; and is subject to any additional conditions specified or incorporated below.

(1) The earliest date for the completion of the facility is April 1, 1957. The latest date for completion of the facility is September 1, 1957.

(2) The site proposed for the location of the facility is the location known as the Vallecitos Road Laboratory site in Alameda County, California, specified in report GEAP–069, "Technical Information and Environmental Factors Regarding Devolpmental Boiling Water Reactor".

(3) The general type of facility authorized for construction is a critical experiment facility designed primarily for testing reactor cores at near zero power levels using uranium enriched in the isotope uranium 235 in the fuel elements.

(4) At such time as this Construction Permit is converted into a license to operate the facility, such license will incorporate—as one of its conditions—a requirement that no critical experiment may be conducted in the facility until a description of the experiment and hazards evaluation report shall have been submitted to the Commission and the Commission shall have specifically authorized the experimental activity.

(5) Upon completion of the construction of the facility in accordance with the terms and conditions of this permit, upon the filing of any additional information needed to bring the original application up to date, and upon finding that the facility authorized has been constructed in conformity with the application as amended and in conformity with the provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations of the Commission, and in the absence of any good cause being shown to the Commission why the granting of a license would not be in accordance with the provisions of the act, the Commission will issue a Class 104 license to GE pursuant to section 104c of the act, which license shall expire twenty (20) years after the date of this Construction Permit.

Pursuant to § 50.60 of the regulations in 10 CFR Part 50, the Commission has allocated to GE for use in performing critical experiments for the Commonwealth Edison reactor in this facility, seventy-one (71.0) kilograms of uranium 235 contained in uranium at the isotopic ratios specified in GE's application.

Date of issuance: June 29, 1956.

Dated at Washington, D. C. this 5th day of July 1956.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

H. L. PRICE,
Director,
Division of Civilian Application.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 7913]

GROUP EXCURSION FARES INVESTIGATION

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the investigation instituted by the Board's Order No. E–10239 into the lawfulness of certain group excursion fares for foreign air transportation.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding will be held on July 30, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in Room No. E–224, Temporary Building No. 5, Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before Examiner Barron Fredricks.

Without limiting the scope of the issues, particular attention will be directed to the following matters:

1. To what extent, if any, are or will the fares and rules under investigation be unjustly discriminatory, under sections 404 (b) and 1002 (f) of the Civil Aeronautics Act, insofar as they are limited in application to two or more persons?

2. If the Board finds the fares and rules under investigation unlawful, what action should it take with respect thereto?

Notice is further given that any interested person, not a party of record, desiring to be heard in this proceeding must file with the Board, not later than the beginning of the hearing, a written statement setting forth the matters of fact or law that he desires to present.

Dated at Washington, D. C., July 11, 1956.

In re application of WGLI, Incorporated, Babylon, New York, Docket No. 11742, File No. BP-10276; for construction permit.

It is ordered, This 6th day of July 1956, that all parties in the above-entitled proceeding, or their counsel, are directed to appear for a pre-hearing conference pursuant to the provisions of §§ 1.813 and 1.841 of the Commission's rules, at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., at 10:00 a. m., July 18, 1956, for the purpose of considering among other things, the following matters:

(1) The necessity or desirability of simplification, clarification, amplification or limitation of the issues;

(2) Admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;

(3) The possibility of stipulating with respect to facts;

(4) Need, if any, for depositions;

(5) The date for the exchange of exhibits between the applicants, as required by § 1.841, supra; and

(6) Such other matters as will be conducive to an expeditious conduct of the hearing.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6690]

ARIZONA PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 9, 1956.

Take notice that on June 29, 1956, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act, by Arizona Public Service Company ("Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Arizona and doing business in said State, with its principal business office at Phoenix, Arizona, seeking an order authorizing Applicant to acquire from Southwest Lumber Mills, Inc. ("Southwest") of a certain electric generating plant and the transfer from Applicant of a certain electric generating plant and related equipment to Southwest, more fully described below. Applicant proposes to transfer to Southwest its Flagstaff steam electric generating plant and related facilities and equipment and to receive and acquire from Southwest the so-called Saginaw steam electric generating plant. In addition to the exchange of plants and facilities, Applicant will enter into contracts pursuant to which it will purchase electricity and steam from the Flagstaff plant, and Applicant will cancel and terminate its agreement under which it has been purchasing power from the Saginaw plant. In addition to the exchange of the facilities, heretofore mentioned, and the arrangement for the purchase of electricity and steam, Southwest will pay to Applicant an aggregate of $100,000, of which $50,000 is to be paid at the time of closing, with the remaining amount to be payable over a two-year period thereafter; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission which is open for public inspection.

Any person desiring to be heard, or to make any protest with reference to said application, should, on or before the 27th day of July 1956, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS AND DATE OF HEARING

Take notice that each of the Applicants listed below has filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing such Applicant to continue to sell natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the respective applications which are on file with the Commission and open for public inspection. These matters should be consolidated and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on the date and at the place hereinafter stated, concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) not less than ten days before the date of hearing. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request for waiver is made. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

The dockets, Applicants and material averments in applications to which reference is made above are as follows:

[Docket No. G-9938]

HARROD GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 9, 1956.

Take notice that The Harrod Gas Co. (Applicant), an Ohio corporation with principal place of business at 401 Defiance Avenue, Findlay, Ohio, filed, on January 30, 1956, as supplemented March 19, 1956, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, an application for an order directing The Ohio Fuel Gas Company to establish physical connection of its natural gas transportation facilities with the proposed natural gas facilities of Applicant and to sell natural gas to Applicant for resale and distribution in the Village of Harrod, Hardin County, Ohio, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

The proposed distribution system will consist of approximately 75 feet of 2-inch transmission line and 10,000 feet of 2-inch distribution lines together with the necessary valves, meters, fittings and other facilities. The gas will be delivered to Applicant by The Ohio Fuel Gas Company's system from a connection at a point approximately 75 feet from Applicant's proposed distribution system. An intermediate pressure system will be constructed and operated by Applicant of sufficient capacity to serve the village.

The application states that the estimated total overall capital cost of the proposed facilities is between $7,000 and $8,000 which will be raised through the sale of stock. The estimated peak day requirements of the proposed system for the first (1956), third and fifth years of operation are stated to be 204 Mcf, 270 Mcf and 315 Mcf respectively and the annual gas requirements for the same years are estimated to be 21,400 Mcf, 27,000 Mcf and 31,000 Mcf respectively.

The Ohio Fuel Gas Company (Ohio Fuel), an Ohio corporation with principal place of business at 99 North Front Street, Columbus, Ohio, filed, on March 15, 1956, pursuant to § 1.9 (a) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, an Answer to the aforesaid application wherein Ohio Fuel states that it has no present objection to being directed to establish a physical interconnection with and render service to Applicant if the Commission finds such action necessary or desirable in the public interest; that Ohio Fuel's existing transmission facilities possess sufficient capacity to deliver the volumes of natural gas requested for the first year peak-day requirements of Applicant; that no additional transmission facilities other than a physical interconnection and tap need be constructed by Ohio Fuel to effect such deliveries; and that the sale and delivery by Ohio Fuel to Applicant of the volumes set forth in the application would not adversely affect either Ohio Fuel's gas supply or its ability to render adequate service to its existing customers.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 25, 1956.

MISSOURI INTRASTATE FREIGHT RATES AND CHARGES

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of July A. D. 1956.

It appearing that in the proceedings listed in Appendix A below the Commission authorized carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act parties thereto to make certain increases in their freight rates and charges for interstate application throughout the United States, and that increases under such authorizations have been made;

It further appearing that a petition, dated June 8, 1956, has been filed on behalf of certain common carriers by railroad operating to, from and between points in the State of Missouri, averring that the Missouri Public Service Commission by various orders in its Cases Nos. 10562 and 13310 has refused to authorize or permit, in whole or in part, petitioners to apply to their rates on the commodities described in Appendix A below, increases corresponding to those approved for interstate application in the proceedings referred to, as more fully set forth in the petition; and alleging that such refusal causes and results in undue and unreasonable advantage, preference, and prejudice as between persons and localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, and in undue, unreasonable and unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in violation of section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act;

And it further appearing that there have been brought in issue by the said petition rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Missouri;

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondents hereinafter designated and any other persons interested to determine whether the rates and charges of the common carriers by railroad, or any of them, operating in the State of Missouri, for the intrastate transportation of property, made or imposed by authority of the State of Missouri, cause or will cause, by reason of the failure of such rates and charges to include increases corresponding to those permitted by the Commission for interstate traffic in the proceedings listed in Appendix A hereto, any undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice, as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce; and to determine what rates and charges, if any, or what maximum, or minimum, or maximum and minimum rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, prejudice, or discrimination, if any, that may be found to exist;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad operating within the State of Missouri which are subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents, and that the State of Missouri be notified of the proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State and to the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Missouri at Jefferson City, Mo.;

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., for public inspection, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.;

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such time and place as the Commission may hereafter designate.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[No. 31964]

INDIANA INTRASTATE BITUMINOUS COAL RATES AND CHARGES

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of July A. D. 1956.

It appearing that a petition dated March 29, 1956, has been filed on behalf of The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and other common carriers by railroad operating to, from, and between points in Indiana in interstate and intrastate commerce, averring that in Ex Parte No. 196, Increased Freight Rates, 1956 (decided May 7, 1956), the Commission authorized certain increases in interstate freight rates, including rates on bituminous coal, maintained by petitioners and other common carriers by railroad which were later established; and that the Public Service Commission of Indiana has declined to authorize or permit said petitioners to apply to the intrastate transportation of bituminous coal between points in Indiana increases in rates and charges corresponding to those approved for interstate application in the proceeding above cited, as more particularly described in the said petition.

It further appearing that said petitioners allege that the rates and charges which they are required to maintain for the intrastate transportation of bituminous coal between points in Indiana as a result of such refusal by the Public Service Commission of Indiana cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference and prejudice as between persons and localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce on the other hand, and undue, unreasonable and unjust discrimination against interstate commerce;

And it further appearing that the said petition brings in issue freight rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Indiana:

It is ordered, That, in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondents hereinafter designated and any other persons interested, to determine whether the rates and charges of said respondents, or any of them, for the intrastate transportation of bituminous coal by railroad between points in the State of Indiana cause or may cause any undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce; and to determine, what rates and charges, if any, or what maximum, or minimum, or maximum and minimum rates and charges, shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, prejudice, or discrimination, if any, that may be found to exist;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad operating within Indiana, subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission, be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents; and that the State of Indiana be notified of this proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of said State and to the Public Service Commission of Indiana;

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby assigned for hearing July 31, 1956, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., U. S. Standard Time (or 9:30 a. m. local Daylight Saving Time, if that time is observed), at the rooms of the Public Service Commission of Indiana, Indianapolis, Ind., before Examiner Mittelbronn.

By the Commission, Division 2.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3492]

FLAT TOP POWER CO. ET AL.

JULY 10, 1956.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY UTILITY COMPANY IN EXCHANGE FOR ASSETS OF ASSOCIATE UTILITY COMPANY, LIQUIDATION AND DISSOLUTION OF ASSOCIATE COMPANY AND ACQUISITION BY PARENT OF COMMON STOCK OF SUBSIDIARY UTILITY COMPANY

In the matter of Flat Top Power Company, Appalachian Electric Power Company, American Gas and Electric Company; File No. 70-3492).

Notice is hereby given that American Gas and Electric Company ("American"), a registered holding company, and two of its subsidiaries, Appalachian Electric Power Company ("Appalachian") and Flat Top Power Company ("Flat Top"), have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 6, 9, 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder as applicable to proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

American owns all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Appalachian (9,100,000 shares) and all of the outstanding securities of Flat Top (1,900 shares of common stock), the latter of which were acquired pursuant to this Commission's order of March 26, 1954 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12429). Appalachian supplies all of Flat Top's power and the latter's properties are located within the Appalachian territory of the American system.

The present proposals relate to the acquisition by Appalachian of the assets of Flat Top and the subsequent liquidation and dissolution of Flat Top and involve (1) the transfer by Flat Top and the acquisition by Appalachian of all of Flat Top's assets which amounted to $133,844 at March 31, 1956, and the rendering of service by Appalachian in the area theretofore served by Flat Top, (2) the issuance by Appalachian, and the acquisition by Flat Top, of 10,000 shares of Appalachian's common stock, without par value, and the assumption by Appalachian of all of Flat Top's liabilities which amounted to $8,140 at March 31, 1956, and (3) the liquidation and dissolution of Flat Top and the transfer to American of the 10,000 shares of Appalachian common stock theretofore received by Flat Top.

Applications have been made to the Virginia State Corporation Commission, the Public Service Commission of West Virginia and the Tennessee Public Service Commission for approval of certain of the proposed transactions and the orders of these commissions to be issued in respect thereof are to be supplied by amendment.

Miscellaneous expenses estimated not to exceed $1,000 are to be paid by Appalachian and the legal fees are to be supplied by amendment. It is represented that no other fees, commissions or expenses are to be incurred except that routine services will be performed by the service company for the American system.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 24, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., request in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the application-declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

MARKET AGENCIES AT SIOUX CITY STOCK YARDS

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on October 12, 1954 (13 A. D. 983), authorizing the respondents to modify temporarily their schedule of rates and charges in certain respects and to assess the modified schedule to and including July 30, 1956, unless changed by further order before the latter date.

By petition filed on July 5, 1956, respondents have requested authority to modify the current schedule of rates and charges in certain respects and to continue assessing the current schedule as so modified to and including July 31, 1958. The modifications requested are as follows:

SELLING AND RESELLING CHARGES

SECTION A

	Present rate per head	Proposed rate per head

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[Amdt. 1]

PART 472—WOOL

SUBPART A—1956 INCENTIVE PAYMENT PROGRAM FOR SHORN WOOL

SUBPART B—1956 PAYMENT PROGRAM FOR UNSHORN LAMBS, PULLED WOOL

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service, containing the requirements of the 1956 Incentive Payment Program for Shorn Wool, 21 F. R. 1877, are amended as follows:

1. In § 472.707 (b) at the end of the first sentence, the words "grading, scouring, or carbonizing; or storage." are amended to read as follows: "grading; scouring; or carbonizing." The third and fourth sentences are amended to read as follows: "For the purpose of this program, the producer is expected to deliver his wool packed in bags to his local shipping point and to bear the storage expenses until the wool is sold. Consequently, charges made for furnishing wool bags, storing wool, or transporting wool to the producer's local shipping point shall not be considered marketing charges."

2. In § 472.710 (a), subparagraphs (4), (5), and (6) are amended to read as follows:

§ 472.710 Contents of sales documents.

(a) Sales other than at farm, ranch, or local shipping point. * * *

(4) The gross sales proceeds or sufficient information from which the gross sales proceeds can be determined, except when the practice is otherwise as provided in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph.

(5) Marketing deductions, if any (see § 472.707 (b)), except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph. The marketing deductions may be itemized or they may be shown on the sales document as a composite figure for all marketing charges with an explanation of what services are included in that figure. If it is the practice of a marketing agency to show, on the sales document, only the net proceeds after marketing deductions, the gross sales proceeds and the amount of the marketing deductions need not be shown, provided the sales document contains a statement reading substantially as follows: "The net sales proceeds after marketing deductions shown herein were computed by deducting from the gross sales proceeds charges for the following marketing services: _____. Details of these charges will be furnished on request." All the services for which deductions are made shall be enumerated in the blank space indicated. If a sales document shows charges without specifying their nature, they will be considered marketing charges and will thus diminish the net proceeds on which the incentive payment is computed.

(6) Net proceeds after marketing deductions. If a sales document issued after July 31, 1956, contains a figure for net proceeds after marketing deductions computed for a location other than the producer's farm, ranch, or local shipping point, the person preparing the sales document shall show thereon the name of the location for which the net proceeds have been computed.

3. In § 472.710 (b), the words "the net amount received by the producer for the wool," are amended to read as follows: "the net amount received by the producer for the wool at his farm, ranch, or local shipping point,".

4. At the end of this subpart, the following new section is added:

§ 472.723 Waiver by Executive Vice President or other official. The Executive Vice President of CCC or his designee and the Deputy Administrator, Production Adjustment, of CSS are authorized to approve waivers covering the submission of evidence by sales documents or by other procedural methods,

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 5882]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

OUTBOARD, MARINE & MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Subpart—Dealing on exclusive and tying basis: § 13.670 Dealing on exclusive and tying basis.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 3, 38 Stat. 731; 15 U. S. C. 14) [Cease and desist order, Outboard, Marine & Manufacturing Company, Milwaukee, Wis., and Galesburg and Waukegan, Ill., Docket 5882, June 27, 1956]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging the manufacturer of "Johnson Sea Horse", "Evinrude", and "Buccaneer" outboard motors for boats and parts and accessories therefor—having factories and offices at Milwaukee, Wis., and Galesburg and Waukegan, Ill., and accounting for one-third to one-half of total sales of said products in the United States—with violating section 3 of the Clayton Act, through selling its outboard motors to distributors and dealers on the condition that they not deal in its competitors' products.

After extensive hearings, the proceeding was closed and an initial decision filed December 29, 1952. The case was tried and decided—on the theory of, and the quantitative tests applied by, the Court in the Standard Stations and similar cases—on the showing that in 1949 respondent's business accounted for more than 50 percent of all outboard motor sales. Accordingly all evidence by respondent justifying its merchandising practices, as well as evidence to show actual injury to competitors, was rejected by the hearing examiner or stricken from the record as immaterial.

Upon appeal by respondent, the Commission set the initial decision aside, stating that such rejected evidence was material and necessary, and remanded the case with instructions to reconsider such rulings.

Since that hearing examiner was then about to be mandatorily retired for age, the proceeding was transferred to another hearing examiner for completion. After extensive additional hearings, the proceeding was again closed and the hearing examiner made his initial decision including findings of fact,[1] conclusions of law,[1] and order to cease and desist. Respondent's appeal therefrom was denied and by order of June 27, 1956, the initial decision was adopted as the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Company, a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offer for sale, sale or distribution of outboard motors for boats, or parts therefor, or other similar or related products in commerce, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Selling or making any contract or agreement for the sale of any such products on the condition, agreement or understanding that the purchaser thereof shall not use, or deal in, or sell, outboard motors or parts therefor, or other similar or related products supplied by any competitor or competitors of respondent.

2. Enforcing or continuing in operation or effect, any condition, agreement, or understanding in, or in connection with, any existing contract of sale, which condition, agreement, or understanding is to the effect that the purchaser of such products shall not use or deal in outboard motors or parts therefor, or other similar or related products supplied by any competitor or competitors of respondent.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent, Outboard, Marine & Manufacturing Company, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order contained in said initial decision.

Issued: June 27, 1956.

By the Commission.

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

JOS. MARTINSON & CO., INC.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Payment for services or facilities for processing or sale under 2 (d): § 13.824 Advertising expenses.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Jos. Martinson & Co., Inc., New York, N. Y., Docket 6469, June 30, 1956]

[1] Filed as part of original document.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a corporation and its officers with office in New York City, engaged in producing and selling a line of coffee and tea products, over 90 percent of them directly to retail grocery stores including large retail chain store organizations, and the balance through brokers and grocery wholesale distributors, with total sales in 1955 amounting to $14,000,000, with paying $3,300 for advertising its products to Food Fair Stores, Inc., of Philadelphia, Pa., among other things, while not making such allowance available on proportionally equal terms to Food Fair's competitors.

Following hearings, an agreement was reached between the parties providing for entry of a consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which by order of June 29, 1956, became, on June 30, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Jos. Martinson & Co., Inc., a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in or in connection with the sale of coffee and tea products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act, as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Making or contracting to make, to or for the benefit of any customer, any payment of anything of value as compensation or in consideration for any advertising or other service or facilities furnished by or through such customer, in connection with the handling, offering for resale or resale of products sold to him by respondent, unless such payment is affirmatively offered or otherwise made available to all competing customers on proportionally equal terms.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: June 29, 1956.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging an individual engaged in selling, from his office in Washington, D. C., a correspondence course intended to prepare students for examinations for certain U. S. Civil Service positions, with representing on postal cards and circulars and through his sales agents and their credentials that he and his agents were connected with the U. S. Government or the Civil Service Commission, that Civil Service jobs were available and guaranteed to persons completing the course, and that the course must be taken to obtain Civil Service positions, among other things—and an agreement containing a consent order to cease and desist disposing of all the issues without hearing.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which, by order of June 29, 1956, became, on July 3, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

In the Matter of James N. McCorvey, Trading as North American Training Center

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging an individual engaged in selling, from his office in Washington, D. C., a correspondence course intended to prepare students for examinations for certain U. S. Civil Service positions, with representing on postal cards and circulars and through his sales agents and their credentials that he and his agents were connected with the U. S. Government or the Civil Service Commission, that Civil Service jobs were available and guaranteed to persons completing the course, and that the course must be taken to obtain Civil Service positions, among other things—and an agreement containing a consent order to cease and desist disposing of all the issues without hearing.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which, by order of June 29, 1956, became, on July 3, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent, James N. McCorvey, individually and doing business under the name of North American Training Center, or under any other name, and respondent's representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of courses of study and instruction, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication:

(a) That there are vacancies for any United States Civil Service positions when such vacancies do not exist.

(b) That positions in the United States Civil Service which may be open are available to all persons.

(c) That positions in the United States Civil Service which are restricted to any group or otherwise restricted or require certain qualifications, are open, unless such restrictions and qualifications are clearly set forth.

(d) That respondent has an instructional department, or representing or implying that he operates an educational institution.

(e) That the starting salary, or any other salary, that may be received by persons receiving a Civil Service appointment is higher than is the fact.

(f) That respondent, his school, his agents or representatives, or anyone of them has any connection with the United States Civil Service Commission, any agency thereof, or any other agency of the United States Government.

(g) That respondent's sales agents are paid irrespective as to whether or not prospective student enrolls for the training.

(h) That prospective students or purchasers of respondent's course of study are especially recommended or selected.

(i) That completion of respondent's course of instruction makes persons eligible for appointment to, or assures them of or guarantees United States Civil Service positions.

(j) That upon completion of said course of study persons may obtain employment in Civil Service at or near their home, within a short distance therefrom, or at any other certain location.

(k) That respondent's course of study must be taken and completed in order to obtain Civil Service positions or such positions are more difficult to obtain without having taken such course.

(l) That prospective students lose the opportunity to enroll for respondent's course of study unless they enroll at the time of the first visit of respondent's agent or representative.

(m) That persons taking respondent's course of study may be exempt from, or delayed from, induction into military service.

2. Using the word "registrar" or any word of similar import to designate or describe respondent's agents or representatives; or otherwise representing that respondent's agents or representatives perform the functions usually performed by officers of educational institutions known as registrars.

3. Soliciting, procuring, or accepting contracts for respondent's course of study, without permitting prospects to read the same over fully and thoroughly so as to fully understand the terms thereof.

4. Using sales material upon which appear prominently "Confidential Report", "Credential", and "Washington" when contacting prospective students, or using any other material indicating that respondent or his agents are connected with the United States Government or any agency thereof, or that the purpose of the call by the salesman is to verify the record of the prospect.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: June 29, 1956.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54132]

PART 12—SPECIAL CLASSES OF MERCHANDISE

MERCHANDISE PRODUCED BY CONVICT, FORCED, OR INDENTURED LABOR

Section 12.42 (f) of the Customs Regulations provides that findings to the effect that imported merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 307 of the Tariff Act of 1930, relating to merchandise produced by convict, forced or indentured labor, shall be published. In order to specify the method of publication and to provide a list of findings published pursuant to such instructions, section 12.42 of the Customs Regulations is amended as set forth below:

Paragraph (f) is amended by deleting the period at the end thereof and adding "in a weekly issue of the Treasury Decisions and in the FEDERAL REGISTER."

A new paragraph (h) is added reading as follows:

(h) The following findings made under the authority of section 307, Tariff Act of 1930 are currently in effect with respect to the merchandise listed below:

Merchandise	Country	T. D.
Canned crabmeat	Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.	52655

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF TOXAPHENE

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of toxaphene (chlorinated camphene containing 67 percent–69 percent chlorine) in or on a number of raw agricultural commodities. Later, portions of the petition were withdrawn without prejudice to a future filing.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR Part 120) are amended by adding the following new section:

§ 120.138 Tolerances for residues of toxaphene. A tolerance of 7 parts per million is established for residues of toxaphene (chlorinated camphene containing 67 percent—69 percent chlorine) in or on each of the following raw agricultural commodities: Cranberries, hazelnuts, hickory nuts, horseradish, parsnips, pecans, peppers, pimentos, rutabagas, walnuts.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies sec. 408, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a)

Dated: July 10, 1956.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 522—EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS

PART 528—ANNULMENT OR WITHDRAWAL OF CERTIFICATES FOR EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS, HANDICAPPED PERSONS, AND STUDENT WORKERS AT SUBMININUM WAGE RATES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On April 18, 1956, a proposal was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 2532) to issue Part 528 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, and amend Parts 522 and 524, relating to the annulment and withdrawal of certificates for the employment of learners, handicapped persons, and student workers at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201) pursuant to section 14 of that act and 29 CFR, Parts 522, 524, and 527. Interested persons were invited to present data, views, or arguments related to the proposal.

The main purpose of these regulations is to decentralize the method of dealing with fraud and violations related to the employment of learners, handicapped persons and student workers under the act. This purpose is based on the fact that Regional Offices have a broad experience in investigating individual cases of fraud and violations. So that this decentralization will not result in uneven application of authorized sanctions in the several regions, the subsidiary purposes are (1) to provide a uniform rule for all three types of certificates which is reasonably specific as to the results which will flow from each type of misconduct, and (2) to provide specific procedures designed to satisfy the generalized requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act.

The International Ladies' Garment Workers Union has noticed that in revoking § 522.9 and substituting revised substantive and procedural rules for fraud and violations, the proposed plan eliminates one of the present provisions for cancellation or modification of outstanding certificates necessitated by changed economic conditions. There was no intent to eliminate authority to make such adjustments. Hence, the proposal will be amended by adding a paragraph (c) to § 528.3 to provide for such adjustments. These terminations will not be decentralized, however, any more than certificate issuing authority is decentralized, because the reason for them is to coordinate outstanding certificates with changes in certificate issuing policy.

This union also suggests adding noncompliance with Parts 522, 524, and 527 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the causes expressed in the proposal as grounds for annulment. Under section 15 (a) (2) of the act, violation of Parts 522, 524, or 527 is a violation of the act, and § 528.3 of the proposed regulations makes that a ground for withdrawal of certificates. As the union gives no reason why annulment rather than withdrawal should be the result, and none occurs to us, this recommendation will not be accepted.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers suggests amendment to authorize review of actions refusing to order annulment or withdrawal and refusing to institute proceedings therefor. Insofar as the fraud and violations type cases are concerned, these proceedings are quite comparable to the judicial enforcement proceedings provided in sections 16 (a) and 17 of the act and to the administrative enforcement proceedings provided in section 5 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act. Though employees, the unions, and competing employers may have more or less direct interests in those proceedings, only the Government or its officer and the employer accused of misconduct have status as parties with rights to obtain review of initial decisions in such litigation. No reason appears why employees interested should have greater standing in the proceedings to withdraw or annual these certificates on the ground of fraud or violations than they have in the comparable judicial proceedings. Whether changes in economic conditions require curtailment of certificates, however, is a question of a different nature which does not ordinarily require disclosure of confidential information gathered in investigations. Furthermore, the provision in the present regulations authorizing this type of actions permits review on application of any aggrieved person. Such provision will be made in the new regulations, therefore, only for the orders in proceedings instituted for changed economic circumstances, and not for those instituted by reason of fraud or violations.

Next the Amalgamated Clothing Workers protests some ambiguity on the point, but assumes that the Regional Director, in deciding whether to institute proceedings for annulment or withdrawal, will have authority to differ with the supervising investigator's conclusion whether the employer demonstrated or achieved compliance. Suitable change will be made so that it will be clear this assumption is correct.

Finally the Amalgamated Clothing Workers states a preference for the present provision authorizing cancellation "for cause" if it is broader than the grounds presently proposed. As mentioned above, there is greater need for specificity in the proposed regulations than in the present ones because of the wider delegation of authority here proposed. As there is no suggestion of other specific situations which should be regarded as "cause" for withdrawal or annulment, the terminology in the proposal on this point will be retained.

The proposal contained a paragraph deleting the sections then in the handicapped persons regulation (29 CFR Part 524) dealing with Revocation and Cancellation and False Evidence. Since then, the handicapped persons regulations have been revised in a way which, among other changes, deleted those sections (21 F. R. 2861). Accordingly this order will not contain the paragraph in the proposal of this regulation amending 29 CFR Part 524.

Accordingly, pursuant to authority contained in section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214), Reorganization Plan No. 6 (5 U. S. C. 611) and General Order No. 45–A (15 F. R. 3290), and after giving full consideration to all relevant matters presented, Regulations Part 522 is hereby amended and Part 528 is hereby issued as follows:

1. Section 522.9 is hereby revoked.

2. In § 522.10 (a) the words "denying, granting, or cancelling a learner certificate" are hereby amended to read "denying, or granting a learner certificate".

3. Sections 522.10, 522.11, and 522.12 are hereby redesignated as §§ 522.9, 522.10, and 522.11, respectively.

4. Part 528 entitled Annulment or Withdrawal of Certificates for the Employment of Learners, Handicapped Workers and Student Workers at Subminimum Wages is hereby issued to read as follows:

Sec.
528.1 Applicability of the regulations in this part.
528.2 Definition of terms.
528.3 Withdrawal and annulment of certificates.
528.4 According opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance.
528.5 Proceedings for annulment or withdrawal.
528.6 Review.
528.7 Effect of annulment or withdrawal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 528.1 to 528.7 issued under section 14, 52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214.

§ 528.1 Applicability of the regulations in this part. The regulations in this part shall govern the annulment or withdrawal of any certificate except a temporary certificate issued pending final action on an application, issued pursuant to Parts 522, 524, and 527 of this chapter, and having effect under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

§ 528.2 Definition of terms. As used in the regulations contained in this part, the term:

(a) "Withdrawal" shall mean termination of validity of a certificate with prospective effect from the time of the action of withdrawal;

(b) "Annulment" shall mean withdrawal of a certificate with retroactive effect to the date of issuance;

(c) "Regional Director" shall include any Regional Director of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the Territorial Director for Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, the Territorial Representative for Hawaii, and the Federal Representative for the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions in the State of North Carolina;

(d) "Supervising Investigator" shall include any employee of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions who is authorized to use that title, the Territorial Representative for Alaska, the chief of the office of the Divisions in Alaska, and officers designated for this purpose by the Commissioner of the North Carolina Department of Labor.

§ 528.3 Withdrawal and annulment of certificates. (a) The Regional Director may withdraw a certificate from any employer who, acting under color of any certificate or application for the employment of learners, handicapped persons, or student workers at subminimum wages under section 14 of the act, fails to comply with the limitations in such certificate or otherwise violates the act.

(b) The Regional Director may annul a certificate affected by mistake in its issuance if the employer knowingly induced or knowingly took advantage of the mistake. Where the employer did not knowingly induce the mistake but knowingly took advantage of it, a new certificate shall be issued by the authorized officer if, and on such terms as, such certificate would have been issued had there been no mistake, limited in its term from the date of issuance to the date of annulment of the annulled certificate.

(c) A certificate may be withdrawn in the public interest by the officer authorized to issue such type of certificate whenever any part of the exemption it provides is no longer necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. If appropriate, a more limited replacement certificate may be issued by the authorized officer.

§ 528.4 According opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance. Prior to instituting proceedings for withdrawal of a certificate under paragraph (a) of § 528.3, except in cases of wilfulness, a supervising investigator shall mail a letter to the employer setting forth alleged facts or conduct which may warrant withdrawal of the certificate and fixing a time and place for a conference at which the employer shall be accorded opportunity to show that no cause for withdrawal under § 528.3 exists, or that he has achieved compliance by paying wages improperly withheld and by taking steps adequate to insure that new cause for annulment or withdrawal will not occur By written report to the Regional Director, a copy of which shall be mailed to the employer, the supervising investigator shall concisely summarize the conference and shall include conclusions as to whether the employer demonstrated or achieved compliance. If the Regional Director is satisfied that the employer either demonstrated or achieved such compliance, no proceedings shall be instituted under § 528.3 for withdrawal of the certificate.

§ 528.5 Proceedings for annulment or withdrawal. The officer authorized to withdraw or annul a certificate under § 528.3 shall institute proceedings by a letter mailed to the employer setting forth alleged facts which may warrant such annulment or withdrawal and advising him that such an annulment or withdrawal of the scope provided in § 528.7 will take effect at a time specified unless facts are presented which convince the officer that such action should not be taken. The letter shall advise the employer of his right to respond by mail or to appear by or with counsel or by other duly qualified representative at the specified time and place. The proceedings shall be as informal as practicable commensurate with orderly dispatch and fairness. Department of Labor investigation files or reports, or portions thereof, may be considered in such proceedings to the extent they are made available for examination during the proceedings. If objection to the proposed annulment or withdrawal is made by such specified time, the officer shall, after considering all pertinent matter presented, mail a letter to the employer setting out his findings of specific pertinent facts and conclusions, and his order concerning the proposed annulment or withdrawal. In proceedings instituted for annulment, the order may provide for withdrawal instead of annulment, if the proof warrants such withdrawal but fails to support adequately the annulment. Such an order shall be deemed issued and effective according to its terms when mailed to the employer. If no timely objection to the proposed annulment or withdrawal is expressed, the order shall be deemed issued and effective at the time stated in the letter proposing it.

§ 528.6 Review. Any employer who expressed objection to such an order may obtain review, limited to the question of whether the findings of fact support the order under the regulations in this part. Application for such review shall be in writing addressed to the Administrator and mailed within 15 days after the order is issued. The Administrator may affirm, modify, or reverse the order, or may remand it for further proceedings. The order under review shall not be stayed in effect pending such review. Any aggrieved person may obtain such review of an order entered in proceedings instituted under paragraph (c) of § 528.3.

§ 528.7 Effect of order of annulment or withdrawal. Except as otherwise expressly provided in such order, any order of annulment or withdrawal under paragraph (a) or (b) of § 528.3 shall be effective to terminate all certifications to which the regulations in this part apply in effect at the establishment where the cause for withdrawal arose or where the annulled certificate had effect. After such annulment or withdrawal, such employer shall be ineligible to obtain or exercise the privileges granted in such a certificate until he satisfied the issuing officer that he will not again give cause for annulment or withdrawal if a certificate is issued.

These amendments and order shall take effect upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of July 1956.

NEWELL BROWN,
Adminstrator.

Chapter I—Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter D—Grants

PART 53—GRANTS FOR SURVEY, PLANNING AND CONSTRUCTION OF HOSPITALS AND MEDICAL FACILITIES

SIZE OF TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITALS

Notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure, and postponement of effective date have been omitted in the issuance of the following amendment of § 53.103 of this part, which relates solely to grants to States, political subdivisions and public or other nonprofit agencies for construction of public and other nonprofit hospitals and medical facilities.

1. Section 53.103 is amended to read as follows:

§ 53.103 Size of tuberculosis hospitals. No application for construction of a tuberculosis hospital with a capacity of less than 100 beds shall be approved, except that an application for construction of a tuberculosis hospital with a capacity from 50 to 100 beds may be approved where necessary (a) to provide facilities for an isolated area too small to support a larger hospital, or (b) to expand, remodel, or alter existing hospital facilities.

(Sec. 215, 58 Stat. 690 as amended; 42 U. S. C. 216. Interprets or applies sec. 622, 60 Stat. 1042; 42 U. S. C. 291e)

2. The above amendment was approved by the Federal Hospital Council at a meeting held June 28, 1956 and is effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: July 6, 1956.

PART 403—VENDING STAND PROGRAM FOR THE BLIND ON FEDERAL AND OTHER PROPERTY

Part 403 is amended by adding a new paragraph to § 403.4 to permit an interest which existed on June 30, 1955, in stock of a vending stand to continue under certain described circumstances, even though such interest is owned by other than the licensing agency or the operator. The new paragraph, designated (d), is issued under section 2, 49 Stat. 1559 as amended by 68 Stat. 663; 20 U. S. C. 107a, and reads as follows:

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, any right, title to or interest which existed on June 30, 1955, in stock, may continue so long as:

(1) The interest is with respect to the stock of a stand established under the program prior to July 1, 1955, and

(2) The operator was licensed in the program (whether or not for the operation of the vending stand in question) prior to July 1, 1955.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

Subchapter B—Carriers by Motor Vehicles

PART 141—FREIGHT SCHEDULES

PART 187—FREIGHT RATE TARIFFS, SCHEDULES, AND CLASSIFICATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of regulations governing the construction and filing of freight rate publications, including classifications, pipeline schedules, and tariffs containing joint rail-motor, motor-water and rail-motor-water rates.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of February A. D. 1956.

It appearing that on June 1, 1954, notice to the public was given of proposed changes to be made in the regulations governing the construction of freight rate publications, including classifications, pipeline schedules, and tariffs containing joint rail-motor, motor-water, and rail-motor-water rates; that written statements containing data, views and arguments had been received; and that full consideration has been given to all of the matters and things involved:

It is ordered, That Part 141 of this Title, Freight Schedules, be, and it is hereby, amended in the manner and to the extent hereinafter indicated, and as so amended these regulations are hereby approved and prescribed to govern the construction of tariffs filed under section 6, part I, section 217, part II, and section 306, part III, of the Interstate Commerce Act, including classifications, pipeline schedules and tariffs containing joint rail-motor, motor-water and rail-motor-water rates.

It is further ordered, That:

1. From cross references immediately preceding § 141.0, reference to 46 CFR 234 and U. S. Maritime Commission Circulars Nos. 1 and 2, 46 CFR, 1938 ed., 1943 Cum. Supp., Parts 231 and 233 is deleted.

2. Cross references following § 141.0 (a) are changed to read:

CROSS REFERENCES: For filing tariffs, see § 141.13. For provisions covering statutory notice, additional procedure in filing tariffs, rejection of tariffs or schedules, see § 141.14. For provisions concerning powers of attorney and concurrences, see §§ 141.17 to 141.26, inclusive.

3. Cross reference following § 141.0 (b) (4) is changed to read:

CROSS REFERENCES: For joint tariffs issued by joint agents, see § 141.18 (e).

4. Subparagraphs (6) and (7) and the cross reference following subparagraph (6) of § 141.0 (b) are deleted.

5. Section 141.3 is amended by deleting paragraph (a) (designation (a) is reserved) and the cross reference following paragraph (i), and by changing the introductory paragraph and paragraphs (d), (f) and (i) to read:

§ 141.3 Content of tariff title page. The title page of every tariff and of every supplement shall show in the order named:

* * * * * *

(d) Whether tariff or supplement contains local, joint, proportional, export, or import rates, or any combination of such rates; whether it contains class or commodity rates or both; and whether it contains all-rail, rail-motor, all-water, or rail-water rates, or any combination of such rates.

* * * * * *

(f) (1) Reference by name and I. C. C. number to the classification, exceptions thereto and/or rules circular, if any, governing the tariff. One of the following forms modified as required shall be used.

Governed, except as otherwise provided herein, by the ____ classification, ____ I. C. C. No. __, by exceptions thereto, ____ I. C. C. No. __, and by supplements to or successive issues of said publications, or

Governed, except as otherwise provided herein, by (here insert common or popular name of governing classification) and by exceptions thereto, as described in Item __.

(2) Use of the short form title page reference as provided in (ii) is on condition that complete and formal description of the governing publication(s) be made in the numbered item to which reference is made on the title page.

(3) A tariff is not governed by a classification, classification exceptions, or rules circular, except when and to the extent stated on or in the tariff.

* * * * *

(i) At the bottom of the title page—name, title and mail address of the individual actually responsible for compiling and filing the schedule. If the tariff is issued by a natural person as agent, his name must be shown with the title of "Agent." If issued by a corporation or association as agent, the name and title of the person responsible for the actual compilation and filing must be shown.

6. Section 141.4 Content of tariffs is amended by deleting paragraph (e) (designation (e) is reserved) and the cross reference following paragraph (d) (6), and by changing the cross reference following paragraph (c) (3) to read:

CROSS REFERENCE: For commodity-list tariffs see § 141.6.

7. Section 141.4 Content of tariffs is further amended by changing paragraph (b) and the cross reference following it to read:

(b) Names of participating carriers. A list, alphabeticaly arranged, of the correct names of all carriers participating therein, together with the form and number of power of attorney or certificate of concurrence. If there be not more than 10 participating carriers, their names and power of attorney or concurrence forms and numbers may be shown on the title page. Reference to the forms and numbers of powers of attorney and concurrences may be omitted provided this information is furnished to the Commission in an acceptable form.

CROSS REFERENCE: For provisions concerning powers of attorney and concurrences, see §§ 141.17 to 141.26, inclusive.

8. Section 141.4 Content of tariffs is further amended by changing paragraph (i) to read:

(i) Rates. (1) An explicit statement of the rates, in cents or in dollars and cents, per 100 pounds, per ton, per car, or other unit, together with the names or designation of the places from and to which they apply, all arranged in a simple and systematic manner. Complicated plans or ambiguous terms must not be used.

(2) Insofar as possible such rates should be subdivided into small sections (by items, index numbers, or similar method) to each of which should be assigned an identifying number to facilitate reference thereto.

(3) If all rates in a tariff are stated in the same unit, that fact may be indicated on the title page immediately in connection with the application of the tariff. Tariffs containing rates per ton must state that rates apply per ton of 2,000 pounds or per ton of 2,240 pounds as the case may be. Where rates are stated in amounts per package definite specifications of the packages on which such rates apply must be shown or reference must be made to the I. C. C. number of a publication containing such specifications.

(4) A tariff may provide rates from or to designated points by the addition or deduction of arbitraries or differentials, from or to rates shown therein from or to base points, but provision for the addition or deduction of arbitraries or differentials must be shown either in connection with the base rate or in a separate item which must specifically name the base point. (See § 141.15.)

(5) A tariff also may contain through rates made by combination on a base point when the factors are subject to different minimum weights or other conditions which affect the measure of the charge, provided the base point is named, the factors are shown immediately in connection with each other, and the conditions to which each factor is subject are shown in connection with each factor, except that each factor may refer to the governing classification or exceptions for such conditions. When all the conditions governing the separate factors are the same, this method of publication must not be used.

(6) A tariff may provide rates via water or rail-and-water routes by the deduction of arbitraries or differentials from the all-rail rates from and to the same points published in the same tariff.

(7) Minimum weights governing the application of commodity rates must be specifically stated in immediate conjunction with such rates or shown in such manner as will avoid an extensive search therefor, except as provided in subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, and excepting also that reference may be made to the appropriate rule of the governing classification or exceptions tariff for carload minimum weights graduated according to the length or capacity of the car or for carload minimum weights on shipments in tank cars. Minimum weights for mixed carload shipments may be provided for in rules authorizing such mixtures.

(8) An item of a commodity tariff may provide rates on a group of related articles by means of a generic description and without naming the individual articles, provided such item refers to another item of the same tariff or to another tariff (as authorized by §§ 141.6 (a) and 141,16) which contains under an identical generic description a complete list of the articles included; for example, "Iron and steel articles as described under that heading in Item ------ of ---------- I. C. C. No. -------."
(Tariff)

Where cross reference is made to a list of commodities in which rates apply (as authorized in the preceding sentence), the minimum weight (or weights) governing the application of the rates may be omitted from the commodity-rate item and published with the list of commodities to which reference is made, provided the commodity-rate item specifically states that the minimum weight (or weights) will be found in the list of commodities referred to.

(9) If a carrier (not an agent) publishes, either for itself or jointly with other carriers, a tariff containing only commodity rates on a single commodity or a group of related commodities, it must include therein all commodity rates which it (not an agent) publishes on the same article or articles from the same points of origin to the same destination area. If additional commodity rates, local or joint, are published for it by an agent on the same article or articles from any of the same points of origin to other points in the same destination area, the individually-published commodity tariff must so state and make reference to the agency tariff in which the additional rates are published.

(10) A general commodity tariff or a combined class and commodity tariff shall contain reference to other tariffs in which rates on other commodities are published from any point of origin to any point of destination named therein via the same route. Such reference shall include the I. C. C. number or numbers of such other tariff or tariffs with a brief description of the character of traffic and territory or points of origin and of destination and may be shown in the index, or in alphabetical order in the rate tables, or in a separate list arranged alphabetically by commodities, such list to be specifically referred to in the table of contents. For example, "Staves, from -------- to ---------, -------- I. C. C. No. ---------." Carriers' tariff numbers may also be shown. The publication of class or commodity rates which duplicate or conflict with the rates published in some other tariff via the same route is not permissible and except as otherwise authorized in §§ 141.7, 141.10 (g) and 141.27, the publication of a statement in a tariff to the effect that the rates published therein take precedence over the rates published in some other tariff, or that the rates published in some other tariff take precedence over the rates published therein, is hereby prohibited.

9. Section 141.4 Content of tariffs is further amended by adding after paragraph (k):

(l) [Reserved.]

(m) Explanation of abbreviations and reference marks. (1) At the end of each tariff, except loose-leaf tariffs, there shall appear an Explanation of Abbreviations, followed by an Explanation of Reference Marks. Under the Explanation of Abbreviations shall appear an explanation of all abbreviations used in the tariff, except that commonly used abbreviations of State names may be omitted, and except further that the abbreviations of the names of participating carriers may be explained in the list of such carriers, provided a statement to that effect is included under the Explanation of Abbreviations.

(2) Under the Explanation of Reference Marks shall appear an explanation of all reference marks used in the tariff except reference marks used only one or a few times, which shall be explained on the page or pages of the tariff on which they appear.

(3) The following reference marks shall be used, and shall only be used, for the purposes indicated:

- ↓ to denote reductions.
- ◆ to denote increases.
- ▲ to denote changes in wording which result in neither increases nor reductions in charges.
- ● to denote no change in rate. (See § 141.2 (a).)
- ✻ to denote prepay stations or points.
- + to denote intrastate application only.
- □ to denote reissued matter. (See § 141.9 (d).)

(4) At the end of each supplement there shall likewise appear an Explanation of Abbreviations followed by an Explanation of Reference Marks. Under those headings shall be shown, subject to the exceptions stated in the preceding paragraphs of this section, an explanation of all abbreviations appearing in the supplement which were not explained in the original tariff (if explained in a prior supplement, the explanation shall be repeated); and an explanation of all reference marks appearing in the supplement.

(5) In loose-leaf tariffs an Explanation of Abbreviations followed by an Explanation of Reference Marks as provided for in this rule may be shown immediately following the index of stations.

10. The text of § 141.5 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.5 Proportional rates. Tariffs containing proportional rates must clearly and definitely show the application thereof. If the application is not restricted, such proportional rates will be usable in connection with any other applicable rates from or to the proportional rate point. It will not be permissible for a tariff to state that a proportional rate applies from (or to) points from (or to) which no through rates are published. Such a provision is not sufficiently definite to restrict the application of the rate. If a proportional rate is intended for use on traffic destined to a restricted territory such territory should be clearly defined. For example, a tariff naming a proportional rate to St. Louis intended for use on traffic destined to Kansas should state that the rates apply on traffic destined to Kansas only.

11. The text of § 141.6 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.6 Commodity-list tariffs. (a) A rate tariff may not refer to another rate tariff for a list of commodities on which rates apply. A separate tariff not containing rates may be filed either by a carrier or by an agent, showing under appropriate generic headings lists of commodities which are accorded common treatment for rate or other tariff purposes; and rate and other tariffs (including tariffs of classification exceptions, but not classifications) may be made subject thereto. When any commodity list consists of less than 20 articles it may not be published in a commodity-list tariff and must be published in the tariff naming the related rates or ratings. The commodities in each list shall be alphabetically arranged. Such tariffs shall be known as general commodity-list tariffs. No carrier or agent may maintain in effect at any time more than one such publication.

(b) In addition to one such general commodity-list tariff, a carrier or agent may file for the same purpose separate tariffs, each containing under an appropriate generic heading a single list of commodities (not less than 20, alphabetically arranged). Such publications shall be known as specific commodity-list tariffs. Rate and other tariffs, including tariffs of classification exceptions, but not classifications, may be made subject thereto.

(c) The title page of the tariffs authorized in this section shall contain the following: (1) In the case of the general commodity-list tariff, in large type the words "List of commodities upon which rates or other provisions affecting charges are published in tariffs making reference hereto"; and in the case of specific commodity-list tariffs, in large type the words "List of (here insert the generic description of the commodities listed in the tariffs, such as 'Iron and Steel Articles') upon which rates or other provisions affecting charges are published in tariffs making reference hereto;" and (2) in smaller type "This tariff is applicable only in connection with tariffs specifically made subject hereto." Rate or other tariffs governed by a commodity-list tariff shall, to the extent they are so governed, employ the same generic descriptions or headings as the commodity-list tariff, followed in each case by the words "as shown in Item ------ of ------ I. C. C. No. -------," or language equally definite. Commodity-list tariffs shall contain no other matter than that authorized in this section, except that they may contain minimum weights as authorized by § 141.4 (i) and except further that a specific commodity-list tariff may also contain rules applicable in connection therewith.

(d) All carriers that are parties to a tariff making reference to a general or specific commodity-list tariff must also be parties to the tariff so referred to.

(e) Where a tariff contains commodity rates on a given article (termed in this paragraph the basic article) rates may be provided in the same tariff on one or more related articles either (1) by a statement that the rates for the related articles will be specified amounts more or less than the rates for the basic article between the same points, or (2) by a table showing in adjoining columns what the rate for the related articles will be when the rate for the basic article is a specified amount.

(f) When commodity rates are established, the description of the commodity must be specific and the rates thereon must not be applied to analogous articles. As far as possible, uniform commodity descriptions should be used in all tariffs.

12. The text of § 141.7 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.7 Alternating rates—(a) Alternative rates or ratings subject to different minimum weight or quantity limitations. (1) Where it is desired to provide for the alternating application of rates or ratings subject to different minimum weight or quantity limitations otherwise than as authorized in paragraph (b) or (c) of this section, the following procedures must be observed:

(i) Alternating commodity rates must be published together, that is, in the same item or on the same page of the tariff.

(ii) Alternating ratings must be published in the same item of the tariff.

(iii) There must be published in the same tariff a note or rule plainly stating, in substance, that where rates or ratings are so published the applicable rate on any given shipment will be that which, subject to the minimum attached thereto, produces the lowest charge.

(2) Commodity rates may be established on different articles for shipment in mixed carloads and will be the applicable rates for such mixtures. Minimum carload weights should be specified, together with a statement in connection with the commodity description that the rates apply when shipped in mixed carloads. Such rates may also be made applicable upon straight carloads of one or more or all of the articles by provision to that effect in connection with the commodity description. When more than one article is included in an item or commodity description the tariff must specifically state whether or not the rates apply on straight or mixed carloads or both.

(b) Alternative use of rates in sectional tariffs. (1) Except as authorized or required by paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section, alternation of rates may be provided by publishing such rates in different sections of a single tariff in the manner herein prescribed. When alternating rates are so provided, carriers and publishing agents shall, at frequent intervals, carefully check the rates in one section against those in other sections and make proper cancellations to avoid unnecessary alternation of rates. Alternating reference obviously should not be given to another section unless that section contains rates which in fact alternate.

(2) The first page of each section, which shall be known as the title page of the section, shall contain the number of the section and, if desired, the application of the rates published in that section. Each succeeding page of the section shall also bear the section number. The title page of each section containing alternating rates (not the non-alternating section hereinafter referred to) shall also contain the following notation:

If the charge accruing on a given shipment under section -------- or -------- of this tariff is lower than that accruing under this section, the charge accruing under section -------- or --------, whichever is lower, will apply.

(3) Where the purpose is to provide for application of the higher or highest of the alternating rates or charges, rather than the lower or lowest of such charges, the foregoing notation and other notations prescribed in this section shall be appropriately changed.

(4) Each commodity tariff or class and commodity tariff arranged in alternating sections shall also contain a section hereinafter referred to as the non-alternating section. That section shall contain only commodity rates which in all instances result in charges lower than would result from the application of the commodity rates (but not necessarily the class rates) in any other section. If the tariff contains only commodity rates, the non-alternationg section shall be section 1; if the tariff contains both class and commodity rates, the class rates shall be published in a section or sections preceding the commodity sections and the non-alternating section shall be the first commodity section. The title page of the non-alternating section shall contain either of the two following notations, as appropriate:

When rates are published in this section on a given shipment, such rates will apply to the exclusion of the rates in any other section.

or

When rates are published in this section on a given shipment, such rates will apply to the exclusion of the rates in any other commodity section; but if the charge accruing on the shipment under the class rates in section _____ is lower than that accruing under this section, the charge accruing under the class rates in section _____ will apply.

(5) The tile page of each other commodity section of the tariff shall contain the following notation preceding that prescribed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph:

When rates are published in section _____ (the non-alternating section) on a given shipment, such rates will apply to the exclusion of the rates in this section.

(6) The publication of alternating rates in different sections of a tariff is subject to the following restrictions: (i) that class rates in one section may alternate with class rates in only one other section, and that commodity rates in one section may alternate with commodity rates in not more than two other sections; (ii) that rates published in another tariff may not be reproduced for purposes of alternation; (iii) that one section of a tariff may not alternate with more than three other sections; and (iv) that alternating sections may not be subdivided and, except as authorized in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, a rate in one section may not be alternated with a rate in the same section.

(c) Alternation of commodity rates in one tariff with class rates in another tariff. (1) Provision for the alternation of the commodity rates in a tariff containing only commodity rates with class rates published in other tariffs may be made by including a notation in the following form in the commodity tariff amongst rules governing the application of rates:

If by use of the class rates published in the following tariffs, the charge accruing on a given shipment is lower than that accruing under the commodity rates published in this tariff, such lower charge will apply: (here show the I. C. C. numbers of the class-rate tariffs, together with so much of the territorial application of each class-rate tariff as lies within the territorial application of the commodity tariff).

(2) If a commodity tariff contains only a few rates which result in higher charges than would accrue under the class rates, the reference to the class tariffs prescribed in this section should be shown immediately in connection with such commodity rates or may be shown in a separate item under an appropriate heading and reference to such item shown immediately in connection with the commodity rates.

(3) Great care should be exercised in describing the scope of the class tariffs in order that users of the commodity tariff may determine without examining the class tariffs, which of such class tariffs is to be used in connection with any commodity rate. It also should be understood that the alternative application of commodity rates in one tariff with class rates in another tariff should be resorted to only where there is real necessity therefor and that wherever possible the commodity rates should be revised so that they will not exceed the class rates between the same points.

13. Cross reference following § 141.7 is deleted.

14. Section 141.8 Transfer and cancellation of rates is amended by redesignating subdivision (i) under subparagraph (3) of paragraph (a) as subparagraph (4), and by changing paragraphs (c) and (f) to read:

(c) Concurrence does not confer authority to cancel. A concurrence does not confer authority upon a carrier to cancel tariffs of the concurring carrier, and tariffs issued under concurrence must not assume to do so. Such cancellations must be made by the carrier which issued the tariff that is to be canceled.

* * * * *

(f) Cancellation by item numbers. (1) When portions of a tariff (excepting a tariff in loose-leaf form), or of a supplement to a tariff, are designated as items, they must be given numbers and the cancellation of an item by supplement must be made by bringing forward the item number with a capital letter suffix in alphabetical sequence. For example, if Item 445 is to be canceled, it shall be done by one of the following methods:

State the numbers of both the canceling and the canceled item. For example: "Item 445–A cancels Item 445."

or

Bring forward the item number with letter suffix; for example: "Item 445–A", "Item 445–B". When cancellation under this method is used the following provision is to be published in the general rules section of the tariff proper:

METHOD OF CANCELING ITEMS

As this tariff is supplemented numbered items with letter suffixes cancel correspondingly numbered items in the original tariff or in a prior supplement. Letter suffixes will be used in alphabetical sequence starting with A. Example: Item 445–A cancels Item 445, and Item 365–B cancels Item 365–A in a prior supplement, which in turn canceled Item 365.

(2) When special circumstances require, appropriate variations of the above methods may be used. For example, if an item is to be republished on the same or an earlier effective date, the following may be used: "Item 40–B cancels Item 40–A and 40."

(3) When due to suspension or other circumstances, a portion of an item is to be canceled or items cannot be canceled in consecutive sequence, the following may be used: "Item 40–B cancels Item 40–A except portions under suspension." or "Item 40–B cancels Item 40–A and completes the cancellation of Item 40."

(4) If an item or any part thereof is transferred to another item of different number in the same tariff, the cancellation must be carried under the original item number and must show in what item or items the effective rates are to be found.

(5) If an item is withdrawn in its entirety, leaving no rates or provisions in effect in that item, the cancellation must be brought forward in subsequent supplements as a reissued item.

(6) If an item in a supplement expires by its own terms, and that supplement is canceled by a subsequent supplement, the item, or more accurately, the item number, must be brought forward in the new supplement, together with a statement reading, "Expired with _____, in (Date)
Supplement _____."

(7) An item once lawfully eliminated by cancellation or expiration may not be reinstated except by republication under a new effective date. Such republication must be under the same item number and must be given the next letter suffix. For example: If the canceling item is 445–B then the newly published item should be numbered 445–C.

(8) When withdrawing a rule or item designated by an item number the canceled matter need not be reproduced in connection with the item effecting the cancellation except to the extent necessary to identify the item.

15. The headnote of paragraph (a) and subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of § 141.9 Amendments and supplements are changed to read:

(a) Amendment procedure. (1) A change in or addition to a tariff shall be known as an amendment, and, excepting amendments to tariffs of less than five pages and amendments to tariffs in loose-leaf form, shall be published in a supplement to the tariff. When an amendment is made in a numbered item or other unit, such item or other unit must be published in a supplement in its entirety as amended, except that additions, changes, or eliminations in a numbered item or other unit consisting of a list of commodities or a list of stations comprising 10 lines or more (measured along the left margin), may be made without publishing such items or units as amended in their entirety, provided that only one such partial amendment of any such item or unit may be in effect at any one time. When rates are published in numbered items, cancellation shall be made as prescribed in § 141.8 (f). When rates are published in numbered units other than item numbers, supplements effecting such change must specifically provide for cancellation of previously effective matter by reference to the number of the unit it cancels. When such a change is made in matter published in a supplement in a numbered unit other than an item, the new supplement must also give reference by number to the previous supplement. In those instances where matter is not published in numbered units, the changed provision must be published in the supplement in its entirety and reference must be made to the page or pages of the tariff on which the matter to be canceled is shown. If such matter has been canceled by a previous supplement, specific cancellation must be made of the corresponding matter in the "tariff as amended" and specific reference shall be made by number to page or pages of the previous supplement containing the matter to be changed, and to the page or pages of the original tariff formerly containing such matter corresponding thereto.

16. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 141.9 are changed to read:

(b) Cancellation of rates when participating carrier is eliminated. When a participating carrier is eliminated by supplement or by a revised page of a loose-leaf tariff, the tariff must be amended on the same effective date to provide for the cancellation of rates and other provisions in connection with that carrier. This may be done either by appropriate amendment of the individual items or provisions, or by a notation immediately following the statement that the carrier has been eliminated, reading:

This has the effect of canceling all rates and other provisions published in connection with this carrier in this tariff.

(1) When the notation method is used in a supplement the notation must be brought forward as reissued matter, together with reference to the supplement in which the change first appeared.

(2) When the notation method is used in loose-leaf tariffs, subsequent revised pages containing the list of participating carriers must bear reference to such elimination so long as the name of the eliminated carrier appears elsewhere in the tariff, the reference to be shown in the following manner:

(Show name of carrier here)
eliminated as a participating carrier in this tariff and all rates and other provisions published in connection with that carrier canceled effective _____. See _____, Revised Page _____.

(c) Supplement number and cancellations. Supplements to a tariff shall be numbered consecutively. Each supplement shall specify on its title page the supplement or supplements or tariff or tariffs which it cancels, and shall also show what supplements contain actual changes from the rates, rules, or regulations in the original tariff. Supplements filed under the authority of paragraphs (i), (j), (k), (m) of this section, and § 141.12(d), and blanket or special supplements that do not change rates, rules or regulations, must be shown separately and the nature of each such supplement must be clearly indicated.

17. The headnote of paragraph (d) of § 141.9 is changed to read:

(d) Effective date; reissued matter. * * *

18. The headnote and subparagraphs (1), (2), (4), and (13) of paragraph (e) of § 141.9 are changed to read:

(e) Amount of supplemental matter; loose-leaf tariffs. (1) Except as authorized in §§ 141.8 (d), paragraphs (i), (j), (k), (m) of this section, 141.11 and 141.12 (d), the following is the maximum number of effective supplements permitted to any tariff:

4 pages or less—No supplements.
5 to 16 pages, inclusive—1 supplement.
17 to 80 pages, inclusive—2 supplements.
81 to 200 pages, inclusive—3 supplements.
201 pages or more—4 supplements.

In addition to the above, tariffs of 17 pages or more may have one additional supplement not exceeding 4 pages.

(2) Except as authorized in §§ 141.8 (d), paragraphs (f), (h), (i), (j), (k), (m) of this section, §§ 141.11 and 141.12 (d), tariffs having 5 or more pages may have supplemental matter aggregating not more than 50 percent of the total number of pages in the tariff, except that if the number of pages in the supplement which brings the volume up to that authorized by this rule is not evenly divisible by 4, it may exceed the volume authorized to the extent necessary to bring the number of pages of such supplement to the next multiple of 4. The concluding page or pages of supplements on which appear only explanations of abbreviations and reference marks shall not be counted in applying this paragraph.

* * * * *

* * * * *

(13) Supplements shall not be issued to loose-leaf tariffs, except for the purposes authorized by paragraphs (i), (j), and (k) of this section, and § 141.12 (d). When all changes made by a supplement to a loose-leaf tariff have been incorporated in the tariff proper by revision of the appropriate pages, the supplement shall be canceled. Such cancellation must be made by the reissue of the check sheet page (page 1) and by adding in the upper right-hand corner immediately following the words "cancels revised page 1" the words "also cancels Supplement No. _____."

19. Paragraphs (f), (k), and (m) of § 141.9 are changed to read:

(f) Periodical tariffs. A tariff may provide that it will be reissued periodically, but not less frequently than once a year. Such tariff must carry on its title page the notation:

A reissue of this tariff will become effective not later than _____, 19__.

Supplements may be issued to such tariffs without limit as to volume.

* * * * *

(k) Suspension of tariff schedules. (1) Upon receipt of an order suspending any tariff or portion thereof, the carrier or agent who filed such tariff shall immediately file with the Commission a supplement, not bearing an effective date, which shall contain a reproduction of the pertinent portions of the Commission's order of suspension (including the paragraph prohibiting changes in the suspended matter), followed by a statement that by reason of the Commission's order (i) the use and application of the suspended publication or portions thereof (which must be identified with certainty) is either indefinitely deferred or deferred for the period prescribed in the Commission's suspension order and (ii) the schedules which were to be changed by the suspended publication (which schedules must also be identified with certainty) will remain in effect and will not be changed so long as effectiveness of the suspended matter is deferred (if deferred only for the term of the Commission's order, the date must be specified), except by order or special permission of the Commission.

(2) If the responsible carrier or publishing agent has elected to file a supplement deferring the suspended matter only for the period prescribed by the Commission's order, and if prior to the expiration of that order, the Commission formally or informally requests that a further deferment be made, the carrier or publishing agent may, under the authority of this section, issue a supplement effecting such further deferment. Where suspended matter has previously been deferred under the authority of this section, the carrier or publishing agent may, when requested by the Commission and prior to the date to which the matter is postponed, issue a supplement under the authority of this section, further postponing the effective date of the matter originally suspended. Supplements issued should be filed on statutory notice if practicable, and otherwise on shorter notice, but the notice shall be as long as time will reasonably permit and in no event less than one day. Where the effectiveness of matter originally suspended by the Commission has been voluntarily postponed beyond the term of the Commission's order, no change during the period of such voluntary postponement may be made in the tariff matter which was originally held in force by the Commission's suspension order, except by order or special permission of the Commission.

(3) Where, following the entry of a report and order in an investigation and suspension proceeding, a further order is entered in such proceeding postponing the effective date or requirement of the original order, the carrier or publishing agent, under authority of this section, may issue a supplement effecting such further deferment of the suspended schedule, and may also issue a supplement to announce postponement of the effective date of a cancellation or vacation supplement or notice filed following the entry of such report and order, to and including a date immediately preceding the effective date fixed in the further order effecting the postponement. Further, where pursuant to the provisions of section 17 (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, the filing of an application for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration stays the order fixing the effective date of a requirement or other action in an investigation and suspension proceeding, as evidenced by notice of the Commission to the parties, the carrier or publishing agent, under authority of this section, may issue a supplement effecting further deferment of the schedule under suspension or under voluntary postponement, and may also issue a supplement to announce postponement of the effective date of a cancellation or vacation supplement or notice that was filed following the entry of the report and order in such investigation and suspension proceeding. (Postponement should be to the last day of the suspension period prescribed in the suspension order, except where the responsible carrier or publishing agent elects to defer the use of the suspended schedule beyond the statutory period of suspension, in which event postponement should be until the date upon which the supplement announcing such postponement is canceled.) Supplements issued should be filed on statutory notice if practicable, and otherwise on shorter notice, but the notice shall be as long as time will reasonably permit and in no event less than one day.

(4) When the Commission has suspended a supplement in whole or in part, it sometimes occurs that prior to the filing of the supplement announcing suspension, a later supplement has been filed which purports to reissue the suspended matter. In such instances the suspension supplement required by this section shall also (i) specifically cancel from the later supplement such reissued matter, and (ii) amend the cancellation notice on the title page of said supplement so as to except the suspended matter from the cancellation. Tardiness in filing supplements announcing suspension may result in the rejection by the Commission of the supplement which cancels the suspended matter.

(5) When the Commission suspends an entire tariff, the previous tariff and effective supplements are continued in effect and will remain in force during the period of suspension or until lawfully canceled or reissued. Except as to loose-leaf tariffs and tariffs of less than five pages, supplements containing additions and/or changes in rates or other provisions which were not sought to be changed by the suspended tariff may be filed to the previous tariff without regard to the volume of supplemental matter which the effective supplements in the aggregate may contain. If the volume of supplemental matter permitted by paragraph (e) of this section has been exceeded under authority of this paragraph, and the Commission orders the cancellation of the suspended tariff, the volume of supplemental matter must be brought within the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section by schedule filed within 90 days, or such tariff must be reissued in accordance with the following: If consisting of less than 100 pages, by schedule filed within 90 days, and if consisting of 100 or more pages, by schedule filed within 120 days, from date upon which the suspended tariff is canceled.

(6) When the Commission suspends an entire supplement, the supplement will not be counted in the number of supplements nor in the volume of supplemental matter permitted by paragraph (e) of this section; nor in the event of suspension of a portion of a supplement will that supplement be so counted after all matter therein except the suspended portions has been reissued in or canceled by a subsequent supplement. Such subsequent supplement shall cancel the supplement containing the suspended matter "except portions under suspension in I. & S. Docket No. ------, viz, (identifying the suspended portion by item and page number)."

(7) When a tariff (not a supplement), any portion of which is under suspension, is canceled, the new tariff may either (i) cancel the previous tariff "except portions under suspension in I. & S. Docket No. ------, viz, (identifying the suspended matter and the matter held in force by the suspension order by item and page number)," or (ii) cancel the previous tariff entirely and bring forward without change the matter held in force by the order of suspension, followed immediately by the matter under suspension. The matter held in force by the order of suspension must be identified as such and shown as expiring with the date to which the suspended matter has been postponed. The suspended matter immediately following must likewise be identified as such and shown as effective on the day following the expiration of the matter held in force by the order of suspension.

(8) When an order of suspension relates to a portion of a new tariff or a supplement thereto, intended to supersede completely a readily identifiable item (or other unit) in the prior tariff, such matter as is continued in effect by the order of suspension may be published (see Note following subparagraph (9) of this section) in the supplement announcing suspension. When so published the following notation must be provided in connection therewith, either as a note or in the form of a reference mark:

The matter subject to this (note or reference mark as the case may be) is reissued from tariff I. C. C. -------- and is continued in effect by the terms of the order of suspension in I. & S. Docket No. ------, and unless it is sooner canceled, changed, or extended, will expire with -------- (The date to be shown will be the date to which the suspended matter has been postponed.)

(9) When an order suspends a particular rate or rates or a portion of matter in an item (or other unit) in a new tariff and the matter remaining in effect in a prior tariff thereby becomes an integral part of such item (or other unit) of the new tariff, the entire item (or other unit) of the new tariff may be republished in the supplement announcing the suspension, provided there is shown in such item (or other unit), (i) the matter continued in effect by reason of the order of suspension, (ii) the suspended matter, and (iii) all other provisions of the item (or other unit) without change and appropriately indicated as reissued from the new tariff (see Note following this paragraph). The matter held in force by the order of suspension must be identified as such and shown as expiring with the date to which the suspended matter has been postponed. The suspended matter immediately following must likewise be identified as such and shown as effective on the day following the expiration of the matter held in force by the order of suspension. When the effective date of suspended matter has been indefinitely postponed, that fact must be stated by appropriate language.

NOTE: The form of publication permitted by the two paragraphs preceding may be used only when it permits complete cancellation of the tariff containing the matter continued in effect by the order of suspension. It may not be used in loose-leaf tariffs nor where the application of matter continued in effect depends in whole or in part upon other provisions, such as station grouping, rate bases, rules or regulations, which differ from those in the new tariff and which cannot be brought forward in the supplement announcing suspension.

(11) Neither a suspended tariff provision nor a provision held in force by reason of an order of suspension may be changed or canceled except by order or permission of the Commission.

(12) When the Commision vacates an order of suspension, or when suspended matter has been voluntarily postponed beyond the term of the Commission's order, and the Commission finds the suspended matter justified, a supplement may be filed making the suspended or postponed matter effective on one day's notice unless the Commission directs otherwise.

(13) When an order which suspended a tariff in its entirety is vacated and/or the Commission formally finds that the suspended tariff is justified, the vacating supplement filed under authority of this section may also include as reissues any changes or additions which in the interim have been made in the tariff which was held in force by the order of suspension. If by special permission a new tariff has been filed during the period of suspension, canceling the tariff proposed to be canceled by the suspended tariff, any changes or additions published in the new tariff which are not included in the suspended tariff may likewise be included in the vacating supplement as reissued items, but in such cases the vacating supplement must also cancel the new tariff. No other matter may be included in vacating supplements. When reissued matter is published in a vacating supplement, the vacation notice must be printed in not less than 10-point type, either on the title page or immediately preceding the particular tariff matter to which the notice applies.

(14) When a tariff has been canceled except portions under suspension by a new tariff and the Commission vacates its suspension order and/or formally finds the suspended matter justified after the new tariff has become effective, a supplement may be filed to the new tariff on not less than one day's notice (unless the Commission directs otherwise), republishing and establishing the suspended matter and canceling the matter which was effective during the period of suspension, together with the matter under suspension in the former issue. When the Commission vacates its suspension order and/or formally finds the suspended matter justified before the new tariff becomes effective, a vacating supplement as provided in this section should be filed to the old tariff, and a supplement should also be filed to the new tariff on not less than one day's notice (unless the Commission directs otherwise), establishing therein the matter which was under suspension in the old tariff. A supplement common to both tariffs as authorized by paragraph (h) of this section may be issued for this purpose.

(15) When the Commission suspends matter in a tariff or a supplement thereto and thereafter orders its cancellation, the cancellation shall become effective upon not less than one day's notice (unless the Commission directs otherwise), by supplement to or reissue of the tariff. When the Commission orders suspended matter canceled and the final date for compliance is subsequent to the date to which the matter has been postponed, carriers should endeavor to make the cancellation in time to prevent the rates or other provisions which have been found not justified from becoming effective. If this is not done and the suspended matter becomes temporarily effective, it is necessary when cancellation is effected to republish and reestablish the matter which was continued in force by reason of the order of suspension.

(16) Every suspension, vacation, and cancellation supplement issued under authority of this section must bear on its title page the following notation:

Issued under authority of rule 9 (k) of Tariff Circular No. 20 and in compliance with order of the Interstate Commerce Commission in I. & S. Docket No. ------ of (date).

Postponement supplements issued under authority of this section must show on the title page:

Issued upon -------- day's notice under authority of rule 9 (k) of Tariff Circular No. 20.

(17) Supplements issued under authority of this section will not be counted in the number of effective supplements, or the volume of supplemental matter, permitted under paragraph (e) of this section, but must be listed among the effective supplements as required by paragraph (c) of this section.

(18) The provisions of this section relating to suspension, postponement, vacation, and cancellation supplements will also govern in connection with tariffs issued in loose-leaf form, except that such supplements must not contain any other matter. All changes made in loose-leaf tariffs must be published on revised pages. (See paragraph (e) of this section.)

(l) [Reserved.]

(m) Additional supplement to establish rates under rule or order of Commission. Except as to loose-leaf tariffs and tariffs of less than five pages, one additional supplement may be issued to any tariff without regard to the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section for the purpose of establishing rates or other provisions in compliance with an order or formal decision of the Commission and/or to establish rates under authority of § 141.56 or § 141.57. The next regular supplement filed must bring the number of effective supplements within the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section. Only one such supplement may be in effect at any time and, except as provided in § 141.14 (f), may contain no other matter. It must be designated on its title page as "Issued under authority of rule 9 (m) of Tariff Circular No. 20."

20. In the last sentence of subparagraph (8) of paragraph (i) of this section the reference to § 141.26 (e) is changed to § 141.26 (b).

21. Cross reference following paragraph (i) of § 141.9 is changed to read:

CROSS REFERENCE: For provisions concerning powers of attorney and concurrences, see §§ 141.17 to 141.26, inclusive.

22. Section 141.10 Terminal and special services; distance and mileage rates is amended by deleting the cross reference following paragraph (a) and by changing paragraphs (g) and (i) to read:

(g) Distance rates may be used when no other rates provided. (1) A carrier or an agent acting for two or more carriers may file tariffs containing distance or mileage class or commodity rates, or both. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 141.7 and 141.27, distance or mileage class rates may be used only when no specific through class rates from and to the same points are provided and distance or mileage commodity rates may be used only when no specific through commodity rates from and to the same points are provided. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 141.7 and 141.27, distance or mileage commodity rates will apply even though specific through class rates from and to the same points are provided.

(2) Tariffs containing distance or mileage rates must clearly and definitely show the application of the rates, must contain an alphabetical list of points between which the rates apply and must also show in proper arrangement the specific distances between such points, or may make reference by I. C. C. number to a separate tariff for such list of points and distances. (See paragraph (h) of this section.)

(3) Each tariff that contains only distance or mileage class rates must bear on its title page the following rule:

The distance or mileage class rates shown herein may be used only when no commodity rates or specific through class rates from and to the same points have been provided on the same shipment.

(4) Each tariff that contains only distance or mileage commodity rates must bear on its title page the following rule:

The distance or mileage commodity rates shown herein may be used only when no specific through commodity rates from and to the same points have been provided on the same shipment.

(5) Each tariff that contains only distance or mileage class and commodity rates must bear on its title page the following rule:

The distance or mileage class rates shown herein may be used only when no commodity rates or specific through class rates from and to the same points have been provided on the same shipment; and the distance or mileage commodity rates shown herein may be used only when no specific through commodity rates from and to the same points have been provided on the same shipment.

(6) If distance or mileage rates without alternative application are published in a tariff which also contains specific rates, the notations for class or commodity or both class and commodity rates, as the case may be, prescribed by this paragraph must be shown immediately in connection with such distance or mileage rates.

(7) If distance or mileage rates have alternative application, the notations prescribed in this paragraph g must be qualified by the prefatory words, "Except to the extent alternative application of rates is provided."

* * * * *

(i) List of stations showing facilities, additions and abandonments. (1) A tariff publication may be filed containing a list of stations with the railroad location of each, alphabetically and geographically arranged with index numbers, prepay requirements, station facilities, additions of stations, abandonments of stations, changes in names of stations, and restrictions as to acceptance and delivery of freight. No rates or charges and no matter that will in any way operate to increase or decrease the rate or charge in tariffs making reference to this publication may be shown therein. Changes in such a tariff may be made on not less than one day's notice, except that announcement of the abandonment of stations, changes in index numbers of stations and restrictions as to the acceptance or delivery of freight must be made effective on not less than thirty days' notice.

(2) Changes made on less than statutory notice under the authority of this paragraph shall recite that they are so made, either directly or by reference to an item in the original tariff stating:

Changes in this tariff that make reference to this item are established upon less than statutory notice under authority of rule 10 (i) of Tariff Circular No. 20.

Rate tariffs that are to be governed by such separate tariff publication must make reference thereto in the wording shown below:

Governed by -------- I. C. C. No. -------, supplements thereto or successive issues thereof, as to additions and abandonments of stations, and except as otherwise shown herein, as to prepay requirements, changes in names of stations, restrictions as to acceptance or delivery of freight and changes in station facilities. When a station is abandoned as of a date specified in the above named tariff, the rates from and to such station as published in this tariff are inapplicable on and after that date.

(3) When a station has been abandoned as of a date specified in the tariff authorized by this paragraph, the rates from or to such station in rate tariffs governed thereby have become inapplicable and must be eliminated in the next amendment of such rate tariffs. When the elimination is made by supplement, the following notation must be used:

Eliminate account station abandoned. For effective date see (here make reference to the governing tariff issued under this rule).

This notation must be continued in connection with the name of the station as long as the tariff remains effective, and indicated as a reissue from the supplement in which it was first published, without stating the effective date of such supplement.

23. The text of § 141.11 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.11 Index of tariffs. (a) Each carrier shall publish as a tariff, under I. C. C. number, a complete index of all effective tariffs to which it is a party either as initial or delivering carrier. Such index shall be arranged in sections as indicated below, and shall show as to each tariff: (1) I. C. C. number, (2) full or abbreviated name of issuing carrier, tariff publishing bureau, or agent, (3) type of tariff or description of the traffic upon which it applies, (4) where tariff applies from, (5) where tariff applies to, and (6) whether tariff contains other than all-rail rates. The information required by items (3), (4), and (5) shall be stated in sufficient detail to show clearly the application of the tariff. Additionally, the index may show as to each tariff the carrier's own number, the index number, and the issuing carrier's (or agent's or tariff publishing bureau's) number.

First section: A list of all tariffs as to which the carrier is an initial carrier, entered in the following order: Specific commodity tariffs, general commodity tariffs, class and commodity tariffs, class tariffs, and miscellaneous schedules such as billing books, classifications, exception sheets, switching tariffs, etc. Specific commodity tariffs shall be entered alphabetically under the names of commodities or principal commodities. Tariffs applying to different groups of the same commodity shall be grouped together; for example, "Lumber, hardwood, Lumber, yellow pine," etc. Each group of specific commodity tariffs and tariffs grouped under the respective heads of general commodity tariffs, class and commodity tariffs, and class tariffs, shall be entered by alphabetical arrangement of the points or territory from or to which they apply, in either the "From" or "To" column. Miscellaneous schedules shall be entered in alphabetical order.

Second section: A list of all tariffs under which the carrier is a delivering carrier arranged alphabetically by names of issuing carriers, tariff publishing bureaus, or agents, with the items arranged by commodities and classes under each of such carriers, tariff publishing bureaus, or agents, as prescribed for the first section. If carrier so desires, lists of tariffs under which it is an intermediate carrier may be included in this section provided those tariffs under which it is a delivering carrier or an intermediate carrier or both are indicated.

Third section: A complete list of the numbers of effective tariffs of its own I. C. C. series arranged in numerical order.

(b) Tariffs covering only specific circus movements and supplements to tariffs should not be included in indexes. Where supplements have the effect of changing the application of the original tariff, the descriptions of such tariff in the index should be amended accordingly. If carriers so desire, lists of their intrastate tariffs, division sheets, official circulars, etc., may appear in this publication. In connection with intrastate tariffs which do not bear I. C. C. numbers the reference mark prescribed in § 141.4 (m) must be used with explanation "Rates in this tariff do not apply on interstate shipments." All intrastate tariffs which bear I. C. C. numbers must be properly shown in the index.

(c) A group of family lines may unite in the publication and filing by a connecting trunk line of a joint index of the tariffs of such family lines, provided the application of the tariffs as to each line is plainly indicated and such lines are shown as parties to the joint index under concurrence.

(d) The index must be kept current by supplements, which, however, need not be issued more frequently than quarterly; and must be reissued biennially. Supplements must be numbered consecutively, must be constructed in accordance with specifications for the index itself and must show additions, changes and cancellations made in index itself or in prior supplements, by reference to the page or index number of the entry changed or canceled. Supplements may be issued without regard to volume of supplemental matter permitted by § 141.9 (e), but not more than five supplements may be in effect at any time.

(e) Each index must bear on its title page these notations: "This index contains list of tariffs in effect on (date of issue of index)" to which in proper circumstances may be added "or which have been filed to become effective at a later date as shown within"; also "This index will be reissued on or before ------ 19--, and all changes will be reflected in supplements issued quarterly."

(f) Each supplement to an index must bear on its title page the notation, "Supplements Nos. ---, --- and ------ contain all changes from original index that are in effect on date hereof"; to which may be added "or which have been filed to become effective at a later date as shown within."

(g) The title page of each index and of each supplement must bear date of issue but must not bear an effective date. The rule requiring thirty days' notice does not apply to these indexes and their supplements.

NOTE: One index containing both freight and passenger tariffs may be filed, but if both freight and passenger tariffs are included in one index the information required by each rule must be shown in separate sections, the index must be given an I. C. C. number in both freight and passenger series, and four copies must be filed with the Commission.

24. Cross reference following § 141.11 is deleted.

25. The headnote of § 141.12 is changed to read:

§ 141.12 Restoration and discontinuance of water service. • • •

26. The note following the introductory paragraph of § 141.12 is deleted.

27. Paragraph (a) of § 141.12 is changed to read:

(a) Notation on title page. The following notation shall appear either (1) on the title page of the tariff, (2) amongst the rules governing the application of rates, or (3) immediately in conjunction with the rates to which the notation applies:

Transportation service in connection with (here insert name of water carrier or carriers specified in the tariff) is subject to restoration and discontinuance as indicated on page ------.

When the foregoing notation is published in the tariff amongst the rules governing the application of rates, reference thereto must be made in the table of contents of the tariff, and the words "as follows" must be substituted for "as indicated on page ------."

28. The notes following paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 141.12 are changed to read:

NOTE: In applying the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the date on which final instructions are received for transportation via the water line will be considered the date of acceptance of the shipment for transportation by that line. The rate to be applied on shipments moved via the water line will be the rate in effect on the date shipments are received for transportation at points of origin.

29. Section 141.13 Filing tariffs is amended by deleting from paragraph (c) the parenthetical reference to § 141.26 (j) and by changing paragraphs (a) and (b) to read:

(a) Tariffs shall be published and filed by carriers either directly or through duly authorized tariff-publishing agents. When filed directly by a carrier the concurrence (or power of attorney as authorized in § 141.18 (f)), and when filed by an agent the power of attorney, of every carrier participating therein must be filed or on file with the Commission. (See §§ 141.17 to 141.20, inclusive.)

(b) A tariff publishing agent must file tariffs under his or its own single series of I. C. C. numbers and not in the series of any of his principals. If the agent is a corporation or an unincorporated association (see § 141.17 (a)) having jurisdiction over two or more tariff publishing organizations, bureaus, or committees, the tariffs issued through each such tariff publishing organization may bear a separate series of I. C. C. numbers.

30. Cross reference following paragraph (e) of § 141.13 is changed to read:

CROSS REFERENCE: For provisions concerning powers of attorney and concurrences, see §§ 141.17 to 141.26, inclusive.

31. Paragraph (h) of § 141.14 is amended to read:

(h) Number of copies; address. Two copies of each tariff, supplement, revised page, classification, or other schedule of rates or regulations, shall be filed with the Commission, both copies to be filed together under one letter of transmittal (see § 141.29). They must be addressed to the "Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C.," with the envelope marked as containing "Tariffs."

32. The text of § 141.16 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.16 Classification; exceptions tariff—(a) Classification. (1) A classification as the term is used in this part has reference to a tariff in which all of the commodities which the carriers parties thereto may be called upon to transport, so far as can reasonably be foreseen, are listed either by specific or generic names and are assigned to ratings or classes with reference to which the carriers' class rates are applied. The classification must contain an alphabetical index of all of the articles so listed.

(2) Appropriate rules should be provided in a classification, not only to govern the application of the classification itself, but also the application of other tariffs which are made subject to the classification. Each rule should be so expressed as to make it clear whether it applies only in connection with the classification proper, or in connection also with classification exceptions and commodity tariffs governed by the classification. The rules must be separately numbered, and thoroughly and accurately indexed.

(3) Among others, each classification must contain the following rules:

(i) Except when provision is made in exceptions tariffs for alternation of the exceptions with this classification, the establishment of a classification exception removes the application of the corresponding provisions of this classification on traffic covered by such exception.

(ii) Unless otherwise provided in applicable tariffs, if there is an effective commodity rate on a given shipment, that rate and not the class rate must be applied, except that rates (either class or commodity) specifically designated as applicable only on import, export, coastwise or intercoastal shipments must be applied on such shipments to the exclusion of all other rates not so designated.

(4) When a tariff is governed by a classification each carrier for which the tariff so governed applies must also be a party to the classification.

(5) Each classification should state on its title page:

This tariff is applicable only in connection with tariffs specifically made subject hereto.

(b) Exceptions tariff. (1) An exceptions tariff as the term is used in this part is a tariff which contains exceptions to the ratings and/or rules in a classification. Except as provided in subparagraph (9) of this paragraph, classification exceptions may be published only in exceptions tariffs.

(2) If it is desired to establish rates differing from the classification basis between a limited number of points, the method of publication must be by commodity rate tariffs and not by classification exceptions.

(3) Each exceptions tariff must state on its title page that it contains exceptions to a designated classification, and that:

This tariff is applicable only in connection with tariffs specifically made subject hereto.

(4) When a tariff is governed by an exceptions tariff each carrier for which the tariff so governed applies must also be a party to the exceptions tariff.

(5) A rate tariff may not be made subject to more than one exceptions tariff unless the rate tariff is subject to more than one classification, in which case the rate tariff may be made subject to not more than one exceptions tariff for each classification.

(6) Commodities for which ratings are provided in an exceptions tariff shall be listed and indexed therein in a manner corresponding with that in the classification. Commodity descriptions in the exceptions tariff should, so far as possible, conform to those in the classification. Exceptions to rules must be numbered and completely indexed, and each rule in the exceptions tariff must specify the rule in the classification to which it is in fact an exception. Each rule must likewise indicate clearly, as in the classification, whether it applies only in connection with traffic for which ratings are provided in the exceptions tariff or whether it has broader application, and if so, precisely how much broader.

(7) Alternation of certain ratings in an exceptions tariff with corresponding ratings in the classification (general alternation is not permitted) may be accomplished by publishing the following provision in the rules of the exceptions tariff and making specific reference to it in each item as to which alternation is desired, or by publishing it, appropriately modified, immediately in conjunction with each such item:

If on a given shipment the charge accruing under the provisions of (here identify the classification) is lower than that accruing under an item of this tariff which makes specific reference hereto, the lower charge under the classification will apply.

For alternation purposes, there may be published in the same item of an exceptions tariff an exceptions rating and a rating on the same article reproduced from the classification.

(8) Rules which are not classification exceptions, as covered by § 141.4 (h) may be included in exceptions tariffs. In such cases the exceptions tariff will be counted in applying the provisions of § 141.4 (h). Commodity lists as authorized by § 141.6 (a) may also be published in exceptions tariffs, in which case the carriers parties thereto may not publish other general commodity-list tariffs. When classification exceptions are thus published in the same tariff with other rules and/or commodity lists, the tariff shall be divided into sections, the first containing the rules (all rules), the second containing the exceptions (ratings only), and the third containing commodity lists. The several sections must be separately indexed.

(9) Classification exceptions, either ratings or rules, which apply only in connection with the class rates published in a particular tariff may be published in that tariff.

33. The text of §§ 141.17 to 141.26, inclusive, also the cross references included in and immediately following such sections, are deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.17 Tariffs issued through an agent. (a) If a carrier desires to issue a tariff or tariffs through an agent it may do so by filing with the Commission an appropriate power of attorney to the designated agent. Agents may be either natural persons, corporations, or unincorporated associations whose articles of association (or other form of agreement) have been approved by the Commission in a proceeding pursuant to the provisions of section 5a, part I, of the Interstate Commerce Act. An officer or employee of an incorporated tariff-publishing agent may not act as an agent in his individual capacity for the publication of tariffs.

(b) When an association or corporation has been appointed an issuing agent the executive head thereof shall at once notify the Commission of the name of the individual who is to be responsible for the actual compilation and filing of each I. C. C. series of tariffs issued by the agent. There may be only one issuing officer for each such series of tariffs, and the same individual may not act as issuing officer for more than one series without the special permission of the Commission. When an issuing officer is replaced the Commission shall be immediately notified in like manner of his successor.

(c) When a natural person is authorized by power of attorney to act as a tariff-publishing agent, such instrument shall designate another natural person to act as alternate agent in the event of the death or disability of the principal agent. On or before the date of filing of the first tariff or supplement by the alternate agent under the authority granted in the instrument, such alternate agent shall notify the Commission in writing that death or disability of the principal agent has occurred and that he, the alternate agent, will thereafter act until the appointment of a new principal agent. The term "disability" as used in the instrument means resignation, permanent transfer to other duties, or other permanent absence of the principal agent. After an alternate agent has once exercised the authority granted by the instrument, the principal agent may not thereafter act under that instrument.

§ 141.18 Powers of attorney—(a) Publishing agents. (1) A power of attorney shall be used by a carrier to give to a publishing agent, but not to another carrier, authority to publish and file freight rate tariffs and supplements for it, except that a carrier may give a power of attorney to another carrier in the circumstances and subject to the conditions stated in paragraph (f) of this section. Powers of attorney given to publishing agents may be either unlimited or limited, and in the case of corporations or unincorporated associations comprised of more than one bureau, committee or regional organization, the power of attorney may consist of multiple instruments, such instruments to define separately the authority to be exercised by each component bureau, committee or regional organization.

(2) A carrier may not have in effect at the same time an unlimited power of attorney and a limited power of attorney in favor of the same agent for use by the same bureau, committee, or regional organization.

(b) Unlimited power of attorney form. (1) An unlimited power of attorney, when given to a publishing agent, authorizes the agent to file any freight tariff in which the carrier giving the power is a participating carrier. Form FA1 confers unlimited authority to publish local rates and charges for the carrier issuing the power and to publish joint rates and charges for such carrier and such other carriers as have issued the necessary authority.

(2) The following form of power of attorney, FA1, shall be used to give such unlimited powers:

(d) Manner of execution. (1) In the blank space for the name of the carrier in Forms FA1, FA2, and FA3, there must be shown, if the carrier is an individual, the individual name followed by the trade name, if any. If the carrier is a partnership, the correct names of all partners must be given, followed by the trade name, if any. If the carrier is a corporation, the correct corporate name must be used.

(2) If the carrier is an individual, the power of attorney must be signed by the individual; if a partnership, the power of attorney must be signed individually by each partner. If the carrier is a corporation, the power of attorney must be signed by the president, a vice-president or any other authorized official of the carrier. However, before the signature of an employee other than the president or a vice-president on a power of attorney will be recognized by the Commission, the carrier must file with the Commission, over the signature of the president or a vice-president, a statement reciting that the individual is authorized to sign powers of attorney. The statement must include a specimen signature of the individual or individuals so designated. The authority to sign powers of attorney may be conferred in the manner described, on more than one official of the carriers. If the carrier is being operated by trustees or receivers the power of attorney must be signed by each trustee or receiver individually or by his or their designee. Trustees or receivers may invest others with the authority to sign in the same manner as the president or vice-president of a corporation may confer the authority on subordinate officials.

(3) If the agent appointed by either FA1 or FA2 is a corporation or an unincorporated association the last full paragraph of the form shall be omitted.

(e) Joint agents. If an agent does not hold the requisite authority to publish a particular tariff the authority to do so may be obtained by pooling the authority held by him with that held by one or more other agents, and the tariff may be published jointly by both or all such agents in the I. C. C. series of each. For example, if one agent has authority to publish rates only from territory A to territory B, and another agent has authority to publish rates only from territory B to territory A, the rates may be published in a single tariff on a "between" basis and filed with the Commission as a joint tariff of both agents under the I. C. C. series of each.

(f) Carrier acting for another carrier. (1) A power of attorney may be given by small carriers to large carriers with which they connect, or by subsidiary to parent carriers, authorizing the large or parent carriers to publish tariffs, to give and receive concurrences, and to give powers of attorney to agents, all in behalf of the small or subsidiary carrier. The authority granted may be unlimited, as in the form which follows (Form FA3), or it may be limited in any appropriate manner, provided the limitations are specifically and unambiguously expressed in the instrument. When an FA3 form of power of attorney has been given, the granting carrier may not thereafter do in its own behalf anything which it has authorized the grantee carrier to do in its stead. Concurrences and powers of attorney given by the grantee carrier will, however, be deemed to be given on its own behalf only, unless the instrument expressly recites that it is given or is also given, in behalf of the granting carrier. An FA3 form of power of attorney will be construed as authorizing the grantee carrier to give a concurrence to itself in behalf of the granting carrier.

(2) The following form of power of attorney, Form FA3, shall be used by a carrier to give authority to another carrier. When the authority is to be limited in any way, the form should be altered to the extent necessary.

And the undersigned carrier does hereby give and grant unto its said attorney and agent, full, sole and exclusive power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing above specified for and on behalf of the undersigned carrier as fully, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were done and performed by the undersigned carrier itself, and does hereby assume full responsibility for the acts and failures to act of its attorney and agent.

§ 141.19 Concurrences. (a) A carrier desiring to become a participant in a tariff or tariffs issued by another carrier (not by an agent) may do so by filing with the Commission a limited or unlimited concurrence (except as provided in § 141.18 (f)) in one of the four following forms. In Forms FC2 and FC4 the limitations must be specifically and unambiguously expressed.

(1) Form FC1 which follows is unlimited and covers all freight tariffs applying on traffic moving from, to, via or at points on the line of the carrier giving the concurrence:

(b) Concurrences shall be personally signed by any official of the issuing carrier.

(c) If a carrier has been authorized by power of attorney to issue concurrences in behalf of one or more small or subsidiary carriers (see § 141.18 (f)), the carrier holding such authority may by a single instrument issue a concurrence in its own behalf and in behalf of any or all of such small or subsidiary carriers.

§ 141.20 Filing of powers of attorney and concurrences. (a) If a power of attorney or concurrence is issued subsequent to the date of the filing of the tariff with the Commission the original instrument shall be forwarded directly to the Commission with a copy to the issuing agent or carrier, but if it is issued prior to or concurrently with the issuance of the tariff, the original instrument may either be forwarded directly to the Commission, or it may be sent to the carrier or agent issuing the tariff and be transmitted by it or him to the Commission with the tariff. (For exceptions see §§ 141.22 and 141.23 (a).)

(b) Powers of attorney, concurrences, amendments thereto and revocation notices shall be printed or typed on paper of good quality, 8 x 10½ inches, and must show the date on which they are issued. Each power of attorney and concurrence shall bear a form and serial number, the serial numbers to run consecutively for each form of instrument. Concurrences issued by a carrier jointly in its own behalf and in behalf of one or more other carriers (see § 141.18 (f)) may, if desired, be issued under a separate series of numbers. The form and serial numbers shall be shown on the upper right-hand corner and immediately thereunder shall be shown the form and number of the power of attorney or concurrence, if any, which is canceled thereby. If the instrument to be canceled contains more authority or is broader in scope than the new instrument, such new instrument must in addition to the date of issue, bear an effective date at least 60 days after the date on which it is received by the Commission. When the new instrument is the same or broader in scope than the instrument which it cancels, it becomes effective when filed with the Commission. The instrument shall also show, in the lower left-hand corner, the name, title and address of the person to whom the duplicate is sent.

§ 141.21 Certificate stating correct name of carrier to be filed. When a corporate or partnership carrier files its first tariff, power of attorney or concurrence, it shall also file a certificate stating the precisely correct name of the carrier as it appears in the charter or articles of incorporation, or in the articles of co-partnership, as the case may be. If, for example, the article "The" is a part of the carrier's name, if the conjunction "and" appears therein as "&", or if the word "Company" is abbreviated to "Co.", the certificate must so indicate.

§ 141.22 Transfer of authority from one agent to another agent. (a) When it is desired to transfer authority from one agent to another agent superseding the former agent as to all such agent's effective tariffs, the transfer shall be accomplished by filing a new power of attorney naming the agent (and alternate when the new agent is a natural person) thereafter to serve, which shall specifically cancel the previous instrument or instruments, by including the following in the power of attorney to the new agent:

This power of attorney cancels the following power(s) of attorney:

Power of attorney form and number	In favor of
(Insert power of attorney forms and numbers)	(Insert name of agent and alternate)

(b) Under all other conditions the power of attorney must be revoked in accordance with § 141.26 (b).

(c) The originals of such powers of attorney shall not be sent immediately to the Commission, but shall be forwarded to the new agent, who, after all the necessary instruments shall have been secured, shall file all of the originals with the Commission at one time. The new agent may file no tariffs with the Commission until the powers of attorney from all of the carriers shown therein as participants have been so filed.

§ 141.23 Procedure when one publishing agent succeeds another. (a) When powers of attorney have been issued to a natural person and his alternate, and death or disability of either the principal agent or the alternate occurs, new powers of attorney shall be filed with the Commission within 180 days, canceling the previous instruments and designating the new agent (and also his alternate if the new agent is a natural person) thereafter to serve. If the filing of the new instruments is occasioned by the death or disability of the former alternate, the new instruments may, if desired, continue the former principal agent and designate a new alternate only. Likewise if death or disability of the principal agent has occurred it is permissible to continue the former alternate agent in the new instruments and designate a new principal agent only. As soon as the instruments appointing the new agent are filed the alternate agent who in the interim has acted may no longer do so. The new powers of attorney shall not be forwarded directly to the Commission, but shall be collected by the new agent and forwarded to the Commission together, as provided in § 141.22. The new agent may not file a tariff for any carrier until that carrier's power of attorney to him is on file with the Commission.

(b) In the first amendment to each tariff issued by the alternate agent after the death or disability of the principal agent, there shall be shown a statement reading substantially as follows: "On and after (show here the date on which the principal agent ceased to act) this publication shall be considered as the issue of ----------, Alternate Agent."

(c) A new agent, on or after the filing of his or its authorities, shall include in the next supplement to each of the effective tariffs previously taken over by the alternate agent a statement reading substantially as follows: "On and after (show here the date on which the new authorities are filed with this Commission) this publication shall be considered as the issue of ----------, Agent."

§ 141.24 I. C. C. numbers of tariffs issued by a new agent or alternate agent. Tariffs issued by a new agent may be, and those issued by an alternate agent must be, numbered in the I. C. C. series of the former agent. If it is desired to number the tariffs of a new agent in a different I. C. C. series, this may be done as to new or reissued tariffs, but amendments (supplements or revised pages) to tariffs issued by the former agent must be continued in the original series.

§ 141.25 Powers of attorney and concurrences in special situations.—(a) Joint concurrences. If joint concurrences are issued in behalf of two or more carriers by the same traffic officer, all concurrences in each series must be issued on behalf of all such carriers, except as to concurrences interchanged between those carriers. If concurrences in a single series are issued separately for different carriers, separate files in that series must be maintained for each carrier, and concurrences of each carrier must be issued in consecutive numerical order as required by § 141.20 (b).

(b) When operation discontinued or taken over by another carrier. Powers of attorney and concurrences issued in favor of a carrier which has discontinued operations should be revoked within 120 days after such discontinuance. If its operations have been taken over by another carrier all effective powers of attorney and concurrences should be canceled within 120 days either by new issues or revocation notices.

NOTE: § 141.25 (b) applies, among other situations, when an incorporated carrier is placed in the hands of trustees or receivers and is thereafter reorganized. When trustees or receivers are appointed they normally assume, and the corporation discontinues, operations; and thereafter, following reorganization, operations again pass from the receivers or trustees to the reorganized corporation.

(c) Forms for joint rail-motor tariffs. Powers of attorney and concurrences authorizing the publication of joint rail-motor tariffs and supplements shall be issued on the standard FA and FC Forms described in §§ 141.18 and 141.19. Such powers of attorney and concurrences must bear the following notation in the upper portion of the document: "Joint Rail-Motor Power of Attorney" or "Joint Rail-Motor Concurrence."

§ 141.26 Amendment and revocation of powers of attorney and concurrences.—(a) Amendments. (1) A power of attorney on Forms FA2 or FA3 or a concurrence on Forms FC2 or FC4 may be amended by issuing an "Amendment to Power of Attorney," or "Amendment to Concurrence," respectively. However, only four amendments to any one power of attorney or concurrence will be permitted. The amendment must specify with particularity the exact change in the scope of the powers or the authority conferred, by appropriate reference by number to the power of attorney or concurrence affected, by identification by I. C. C. and agent's or carrier's number of the tariff or tariffs affected, and by a detailed description of the traffic or territory affected.

(2) If an amendment to a power of attorney or to a concurrence reduces the scope of the original instrument, such amendment must bear in addition to the date of issue, an "effective" date at least 60 days after the date on which it is received by the Commission. If the amendment adds to or increases the scope of the original power of attorney or concurrence, no notice is required, and it becomes effective when filed with the Commission. (See paragraph (e) of this section.)

(3) The form of an "Amendment to Power of Attorney" is as follows:

(b) Revocations. A power of attorney or a concurrence may be revoked upon not less than 60 days' notice by filing a Notice of Revocation with the Commission and serving at the same time a copy thereof on the the agent, in the case of powers of attorney on Forms FA1 and FA2, or on the carrier, in the case of concurrences or powers of attorney on FA3, in whose favor the instrument was executed. Such notice shall not bear a separate serial number, but shall specify the form and number of the power of attorney, or the form and number of the concurrence, to be revoked, shall name the agent, and alternate agent, if any, or the carrier in whose favor the instrument was executed, and shall specify a date upon which revocation is to become effective. (See paragraph (e) of this section.)

(c) Corresponding revision of tariff. When a power of attorney or concurrence is revoked corresponding revision of the tariff or tariffs must be made not later than the effective date stated in the notice of revocation. If the tariff or tariffs are not so amended the rates and other provisions therein remain effective and must be protected by the carrier or carriers responsible for their continued maintenance.

(e) Manner of execution. (1) An amendment to, or a revocation of a power of attorney shall be executed in the same manner as powers of attorney, and a statement of the kind specified in § 141.18 (d) shall be filed with the Commission to designate persons authorized to sign such amendments or revocations. The statement filed in accordance with § 141.18 (d) may include in the one instrument designations and specimen signatures of persons authorized to sign powers of attorney, amendments to powers of attorney, and revocations of powers of attorney .

(2) An amendment to, or a revocation of a concurrence shall be executed in the same manner as concurrences. (See § 141.19 (b).)

34. The text of § 141.27 is deleted and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

§ 141.27 Intermediate application of rates. Tariffs may provide for the application of class or commodity rates from or to intermediate points (except for account of irregular-route motor carriers) by incorporating in such tariffs the appropriate one or more of the rules set forth below, subject to the limitations of this section.

(a) Intermediate rules to be used only where routing is provided. Effective on and after June 10, 1959, an intermediate point rule may not be published so as to result in establishing from (or to, as the case may be) an intermediate point, a rate from (or to) a more distant point unless the tariff contains specific routing instructions showing definitely in accordance with the plan listed in subdivision (i) of § 141.4 (k) the routes through the intermediate point over which the rate from (or to) the more distant point applies.

(b) Intermediate point commodity rate rules—(1) From intermediate points. Subject to the provisions of notes 1, 2, 3, and 4 in this subparagraph from any point of origin from which a commodity rate on a given article to a given destination and via a given route is not named in this tariff, which point is intermediate to a point from which a commodity rate on said article is published in this tariff via a route through the intermediate point over which such commodity rate applies to the same destination, apply from such intermediate point to such destination and via such route the commodity rate in this tariff on said article from the next point beyond from which a commodity rate is published herein on that article to the same destination via the same route.

NOTE 1: When by reason of branch or diverging lines there are two or more "next beyond" points, apply the rate from the next point beyond (in this tariff) which on that article to the same destination via the same route results in the lowest charge.

NOTE 2: If the intermediate point is located between two points from which commodity rates on the same article via the same route are published in this tariff, apply via that route from the intermediate point the rate from the next point in either direction which results in the higher charge. In applying this note, if there are two or more next beyond points due to branch or diverging lines, eliminate all such next beyond points except the point from which the lowest charge is applicable.

NOTE 3: If the class rate on the same article via the same route from the intermediate point produces a lower charge than would result from applying the commodity rate under this rule, such commodity rate will not apply.

NOTE 4: If there is in any other tariff a commodity rate on the same article from the intermediate origin point applicable over the same route to the same destination, the provisions of this rule are not applicable from such intermediate origin point.

(2) To intermediate points. Subject to the provisions of notes 1, 2, 3, and 4 in this subparagraph, to any point of destination to which a commodity rate on a given article from a given point of origin and via a given route is not named in this tariff, which point is intermediate to a point to which a commodity rate on said article is published in this tariff via a route through the intermediate point over which such commodity rate applies from the same point of origin, apply to such intermediate point from such point of origin and via such route the commodity rate in this tariff on said article to the next point beyond to which a commodity rate is published herein on that article from the same point of origin via the same route.

NOTE 1: When by reason of branch or diverging lines, there are two or more "next beyond" points, apply the rate to the next point beyond (in this tariff) which on that article from the same point of origin via the same route results in the lowest charge.

NOTE 2: If the intermediate point is located between two points to which commodity rates on the same article via the same route are published in this tariff, apply via that route to the intermediate point the rate to the next point in either direction which results in the higher charge. In applying this note, if there are two or more next beyond points due to branch or diverging lines, eliminate all such next beyond points except the point to which the lowest charge is applicable.

NOTE 3: If the class rate on the same article via the same route to the intermediate point produces a lower charge than would result from applying the commodity rate under this rule, such commodity rate will not apply.

NOTE 4: If there is in any other tariff a commodity rate on the same article to the intermediate destination point applicable over the same route from the same point of origin the provisions of this rule are not applicable to such intermediate destination point.

(c) Intermediate point class-rate rules. Class rates should be provided between practically all points and there appears little occasion for the employment of intermediate point rules in connection with class rates except for the purpose of establishing rates from and to newly established stations. For this purpose only the following clause may be shown in tariffs for use in connection with class rates: "From (or to) any point not named in this tariff which is intermediate to a point from (or to) which class rates are published herein through such unnamed point, apply from (or to) such unnamed point the class rate published herein from (or to) the next more distant point."

(d) "From" and "to" rules may apply in connection with same rate. When the rules providing application from and to intermediate points are both shown in connection with any class (or commodity) rate, they establish class (or commodity) rates from intermediate points of origin to intermediate points of destination on such classes (or commodities). Concurrences are not posted at stations and their provisions are not published in tariffs. Unless otherwise provided in the tariff intermediate application rules establish rates from (or to) intermediate points on the lines of carriers parties to the tariff without regard to the concurrence forms and numbers under authority of which carriers are shown as participating carriers.

(e) Application of rules may be restricted. Tariffs may by appropriate application published in connection with one or more of such rules, provide that they apply only in connection with the rates or routes making reference thereto, or may provide for the nonapplication of such rule or rules to particular rates or routes.

(f) Wording of rules not to vary. The wording of the above rules may not be varied, except that (1) in tariffs containing alternative sections the rules may be modified by substituting the words "in this section" for the words "in this tariff" wherever they appear. If this is done such rules must be published in each section of tariff in which they are to apply and may not be published elsewhere in the tariff; or (2) when it is desired to alternate the rates in any section of a tariff with the rates made only by use of an intermediate point rule applicable in connection with rates in another section, such intermediate rule must be published in a separate section and must be modified by changing the words "this tariff" to read "Section No. ------" (here insert number of the section which contains the points and rates in connection with which the intermediate rule is to be used). The provisions of this paragraph do not waive the requirements of § 141.7 (b).

35. Sections 141.30 and 141.31 and the cross reference following § 141.31 are deleted.

36. Cross reference following § 141.55 is deleted.

37. Sections 141.100 to 141.110, inclusive, are deleted and the following cross reference is inserted in lieu thereof:

CROSS REFERENCE: §§ 141.100 to 141.110, inclusive, have been canceled. For provisions to govern see §§ 141.0 to 141.67, inclusive.

38. Cross References immediately preceding the regulations in Part 187, Freight Rate Tariffs, Schedules and Classifications, are changed to read:

CROSS REFERENCE: For tariff circular governing joint rail-motor tariffs, see Part 141 of this chapter.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective on the 15th day of November A. D. 1956.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy hereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

[7 CFR Part 1005]

[Docket No. AO-272]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NORTH CENTRAL IOWA MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the reopening of the hearing held in Waterloo, Iowa, on June 20–25, 1955, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the North Central Iowa marketing area.

The purpose of the reopened hearing is to afford interested parties opportunity to submit additional evidence with respect to the proposed marketing agreement and order contained in the notice of hearing issued by the Deputy Administrator on March 31, 1955 (20 F. R. 2116), and with respect to the findings and conclusions issued by the Deputy Administrator on February 27, 1956 (21 F. R. 1358). The proposals contained in the aforementioned notice of hearing and the recommended findings and conclusions have not been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The reopened hearing will be held in the Black Hawk County Courthouse, Waterloo, Iowa, on August 21, 1956, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t.

Copies of this notice of reopening of hearing may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: July 12, 1956.

AUTHORIZATION TO STATE BOARD OF STOCK INSPECTION COMMISSIONERS OF THE STATE OF COLORADO FOR INSPECTION OF LIVESTOCK

The State Board of Stock Inspection Commissioners of the State of Colorado, pursuant to the provisions of section 317 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 217a), has filed a written application with the Secretary of Agriculture for authority to act as an official livestock inspection agency with respect to livestock originating in or shipped from the State of Colorado. It is found that the applicant is an agency of the State of Colorado, that branding and marking of livestock as a means of establishing ownership prevails by custom or statute in said State, that no other application of a similar nature has been filed with the Department of Agriculture, and that it is necessary to authorize the State Board of Stock Inspection Commissioners of the State of Colorado to charge and collect a reasonable and nondiscriminatory fee at posted stockyards which are subject to the provisions of the act for the inspection of brands, marks, and other identifying characteristics of livestock originating in or shipped from the State of Colorado for the purpose of determining the ownership of such livestock.

Therefore, after consideration of such application and all data, views and argument submitted as a result of the notice of proposed rule making in connection therewith published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 20, 1956 (21 F. R. 1735), and pursuant to the provisions of section 317 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended, the following authorization is granted to become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Authorization. The State Board of Stock Inspection Commissioners of the State of Colorado is hereby authorized, with respect to livestock originating in or shipped from the State of Colorado, to charge and collect, at those stockyards posted under the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), at which the said State Board of Stock Inspection Commissioners of the State of Colorado may register as a market agency to perform such inspection, reasonable and non-discriminatory fees for the inspection of brands, marks and other identifying characteristics of livestock for the purpose of determining the ownership of such livestock. Such charges as are authorized to be made under this authority shall be collected by the market agency or person receiving and disbursing the funds received from the sale of livestock with respect to the inspection of which such charge is made, and shall be paid by it to the said State Board of Stock Inspection Commissioners of the State of Colorado. Such inspection charges and collection of fees shall be subject to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder. (7 U. S. C. 217a)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of July 1956.

ALASKA STEAMSHIP COMPANY ET AL.

ANNUAL REVIEW OF BAREBOAT CHARTERS

Notice of tentative finding. In accordance with section 5 (e) (1) of the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as amended, existing bareboat charters of Government-owned, war-built, dry-cargo vessels have been reviewed as of June 30, 1956.

The Federal Maritime Board has tentatively found that conditions exist justifying the continuance of each of the following charters under the conditions previously certified by the Board:

Charterer and vessel. Alaska Steamship Company: Coastal Monarch, Coastal Rambler, Lucidor, and Palisana.

Coastwise Line: Ira Nelson Morris.

Pacific Far East Line, Inc.: Contest, Flying Dragon, Surprise, Fleetwood, and Sea Serpent.

Any interested party may request a hearing concerning the above-mentioned tentative finding with respect to any of these charters by filing written objections stating the reasons therefor with the Secretary, Federal Maritime Board, within fifteen (15) days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The findings will become final if no objection thereto or request for a hearing is filed, as provided above. If such hearing is granted, the ultimate resulting finding will be the subject of a report by the Board.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Dated: July 12, 1956.

[Docket No. E-6691]

INTERSTATE POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 10, 1956.

Take notice that on July 3, 1956, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act by Interstate Power Company ("Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and doing business in the States of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota, with its principal business office at Dubuque, Iowa, seeking an order authorizing Applicant to acquire by purchase from A. O. Fisher ("Seller"), an individual, the local electric distribution facilities serving the Village of Triumph, Minnesota. The consideration to be paid by Applicant aggregates $135,000, to be paid in six installments. Applicant will not acquire all of Seller's electric operating facilities. Seller will retain all real estate and building, all household appliances for resale, all passenger cars and trucks, all electric generating equipment, all copper wire and wiring supplies normally used for household wiring; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission, which is available for public inspection.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 27th day of July 1956, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

[Docket No. G-10460]

EAST TENNESSEE NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 10, 1956.

Take notice that East Tennessee Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Tennessee corporation with principal place of business at P. O. Box 831, Knoxville 1, Tennessee, filed, on May 24, 1956, an application, as supplemented on June 18 and 22, 1956, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application, as supplemented, which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate, as an integral part of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described which are necessary to the delivery and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce by Applicant, and to sell and deliver natural gas in interstate commerce on a firm basis pursuant to 14-year requirements contracts to the Middle Tennessee Utility District (MTUD) for resale and distribution by MTUD for residential and commercial use.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by Applicant are described as follows:

(a) A physical connection and necessary measuring and regulating equipment to be located on Applicant's existing 22-inch pipeline, at a point approximately seven miles north of Carthage, Tennessee;

(b) A physical connection and necessary measuring and regulating equipment to be located on Applicant's existing 22-inch pipeline, at a point approximately two miles north of Monterey, Tennessee;

(c) A physical connection and necessary measuring and regulating equipment to be located on Applicant's existing 12¾-inch pipeline, at Applicant's existing "Chattanooga North" measuring and regulating station; and

(d) A physical connection and necessary measuring and regulating equipment to be located on Applicant's existing 12¾-inch pipeline, near the town of Alto, Tennessee.

MTUD proposes to construct and operate four separate gas distribution systems and to sell gas at retail for residential and commercial use in the following communities:

System (1) Carthage, Gordonsville, Alexandria, Watertown, Liberty, Dowelltown, Smithville, Auburntown, Woodbury.

System (2) McMinnville, Centertown, Morrison, Viola.

System (3) Monterey, Sparta, Doyle, Crossville, Homestead.

System (4) Daisy, Soddy, Sale Creek, Graysville, Dayton.

The estimated total gas requirement in Mcf (at 14.9 psia) for the entire MTUD system which applicant proposes to serve are as follows:

	First year	Third year	Fifth year
Annual requirements	1,171,491	1,479,435	1,676,829
Maximum daily demand	13,859	16,975	19,098

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on July 30, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 20, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearings shall be construed as waiver of a concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY TO ISSUE SUBPENAS, ETC.

Section 1.1 (appearing in the issues of Saturday, February 21, 1948 (13 F. R. 801) and Saturday, September 24, 1949 (14 F. R. 5855)) is redesignated section 1, and is revised to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Delegation of authority to employees to issue subpenas, etc. (a) Employees occupying or acting in the positions designated in paragraph (b) of this section shall have the power to issue subpenas for (by countersigning VA Form 2-4003) and compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of 100 miles from the place of hearing and to require the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence. Discretion will be used in the exercise of this power which will not be used except when necessary or when the evidence cannot be obtained efficiently in any other way.

(b) Designated positions: Assistant Administrator for Appraisal and Security, Director, Investigation Service, Managers of district offices, regional offices, and centers having district office and/or regional office activities.

(c) Any person required by such subpena to attend as a witness shall be allowed and paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States. In case of disobedience to any such subpena, the aid of any district court of the United States or the District Court of the United States in and for the District of Columbia may be invoked in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence, and such court within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on may, in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpena issued to any officer, agent, or employee of any corporation or to any other person, issue an order requiring such corporation or other person to appear or to give evidence touching the matter in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3148

ESTABLISHING THE EDISON LABORATORY NATIONAL MONUMENT—NEW JERSEY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Advisory Board on National Parks, Historic Sites, Buildings, and Monuments, recognizing the primary significance in our civilization and industry of the Edison Home (Glenmont) and Laboratory, West Orange, New Jersey, recommended that they be considered eligible for recognition as being the most suitable sites at which to commemorate the outstanding achievements of the great American inventor, Thomas Alva Edison; and

WHEREAS the Edison Home (Glenmont) was designated as a national historic site by order of the Secretary of the Interior of December 6, 1955 (20 F. R. 9347), in furtherance of its preservation for the benefit and inspiration of the American people; and

WHEREAS the Edison Laboratory, used by the great inventor for the last 44 years of his life and the scene of many of his celebrated inventions, has been generously donated to the American people for preservation as a national monument:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of June 8, 1906, 34 Stat. 225 (16 U. S. C. 431), do proclaim and declare that the following-described land, with the improvements thereon, situated in the Town of West Orange, County of Essex, State of New Jersey, are hereby established as the Edison Laboratory National Monument, and shall be administered pursuant to the act of August 25, 1916, 39 Stat. 535 (16 U. S. C. 1-3), and acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof:

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10673

FITNESS OF AMERICAN YOUTH

WHEREAS recent studies, both private and public, have revealed disturbing deficiencies in the fitness of American youth; and

WHEREAS, since the youth of our Nation is one of the greatest of our assets, it is imperative that the fitness of our youth be improved and promoted to the greatest possible extent; and

WHEREAS such fitness is the responsibility of the government at all levels, as well as the responsibility of the family, the school, the community, and other groups and organizations; and

WHEREAS it is necessary that the activities of the Federal Government in this area be coordinated and administered so as to assure their maximum effectiveness and to provide guidance and stimulation; and

WHEREAS a comprehensive study and a reevaluation of all governmental and non-governmental programs and activities relating to the fitness of youth are necessary in the interest of achieving and maintaining higher standards of youth fitness:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

PART I. PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL ON YOUTH FITNESS

SECTION 1. There is hereby established the President's Council on Youth Fitness (hereinafter referred to as the Council), which shall be composed of the Vice President of the United States, who shall be the Chairman of the Council, the Attorney General, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Labor, and the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

SEC. 2. The Council shall promote the efficacy of existing programs and the launching of additional programs which will enhance the fitness of American youth. The Council shall seek to coordinate, stimulate, and improve the functions of Federal agencies with respect to the fitness of youth.

SEC. 3. Each executive department the head of which is referred to in section 1 of this order shall, as may be necessary for the purpose of effectuating the provisions of this order, furnish assistance to the Council in accordance with section 214 of the act of May 3, 1945, 59 Stat. 134 (31 U. S. C. 691). Such assistance may include detailing employees to the Council, one of whom may serve as its executive officer, to perform such functions consistent with the purposes of this order as the Council may assign to them.

PART II. PRESIDENT'S CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE FITNESS OF AMERICAN YOUTH

SEC. 4. There is hereby established the President's Citizens Advisory Committee on the Fitness of American Youth (hereinafter referred to as the Advisory Committee). The Advisory Committee shall be composed of such members as the President may designate, and each member shall serve at the pleasure of the President. A member of the Advisory Committee shall be designated by the President as the chairman of the Advisory Committee.

SEC. 5. The Advisory Committee shall consider and evaluate existing and prospective governmental and private measures conducive to the achievement of a happier, healthier, and more completely fit American youth.

PART III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 6. The Council shall be the President's official link with the Advisory Committee. The Council shall meet with the Advisory Committee at least once a year for the purpose of determining the progress made with respect to the problems relating to the fitness of American youth, and, taking into account the results of such meetings and other factors, shall prepare and present reports on this subject to the President.

SEC. 7. Nothing in this order shall be construed to abrogate, modify, or restrict any function vested by law in, or assigned pursuant to law to, any executive department or other agency of the Government or any officer thereof.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

AUTHORITY TO EXECUTE LIEN WAIVERS IN CONNECTION WITH 1956 ACREAGE RESERVE PROGRAM

Part 371 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, is hereby amended to add a new § 371.16 to provide authority for execution of lien waivers by County Office personnel in connection with the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program, and to read as follows:

§ 371.16 Waiver of liens in connection with the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program (a) Waivers of Farmers Home Administration liens on Form CSS–809 (Soil Bank), "Lien Waiver," or other form approved for this purpose, may be made to enable borrowers indebted to the Farmers Home Administration to participate in the Acreage Reserve Program under Public Law 540, 84th Congress, provided:

(1) The County Supervisor and the borrower determine that such participation is in the best interest of both the Government and the borrower, and

(2) The Farmers Home Administration is listed on Form CSS–800, "Soil Bank Acreage Reserve Agreement," or supplement thereto, as a lienholder with the amount to which the Farmers Home Administration is entitled being shown in the appropriate column(s). Compensation to be received under the Acreage Reserve Program will be treated as though it were income from the sale of crops, and will be subject to the provisions of § 371.4 (b) with respect to the release of crop income.

(b) County Supervisors are authorized to execute waivers of Farmers Home Administration liens on crops as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, and to redelegate such authority to any employee(s) in their offices determined by them to be qualified through training and experience to exercise properly the authority.

PART 131—HANDLING OF ANTI-HOG-CHOLERA SERUM AND HOG-CHOLERA VIRUS

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO BUDGET OF EXPENSES AND FIXING RATES OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1956

On June 19, 1956, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 4293) regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rates of assessment for the calendar year 1956, under the marketing agreement and the marketing order (9 CFR 131.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to Public Law No. 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935 (7 U. S. C. 851 et seq.).

The notice provided a period of 20 days for interested parties to file data, views or arguments with the Hearing Clerk. After consideration of all relevant matters, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, it is hereby found and determined that:

a. Section 131.156 is added to read as follows:

§ 131.156 Budget of expenses and rates of assessment for the calendar year 1956—(a) Budget of expenses. The expenses which will necessarily be incurred by the Control Agency, established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and of the marketing order, for the maintenance and functioning of said Agency during the calendar year 1956, will amount to $40,090.00 under the recommendation of the Control Agency.

(b) Rates of Assessment. Of the amount of $40,090.00 to be collected during the calendar year 1956, the sum of $30,789.12 shall be assessed against handlers who are manufacturers, and $9,300.88 shall be assessed against handlers who are wholesalers. The pro rata share of the expenses of the Control Agency to be paid for the calendar year 1956 by each handler who is a manufacturer shall be $18.84 for each ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler during the calendar year 1955 and the pro rata share of such expenses to be paid for the calendar year 1956 by each handler who is a wholesaler shall be $25.00 for the first ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof and $7.95 for each additional ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler. Such assessments shall be paid by each respective handler in accordance with the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement and order.

(c) Terms. As used in this section, the terms "handler", "manufacturer", "wholesaler", "virus", and "serum" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said marketing agreement and marketing order.

Findings relative to effective date. It is hereby further found that (1) the fiscal year of the Control Agency established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and the marketing order corresponds to the calendar year, and the current calendar year 1956 is already well advanced; (2) the expenses of operating this regulatory program since January 1, 1956, have been paid with funds representing assessments collected in excess of expenses incurred during the calendar year 1955 and prepayments of a portion of their 1956 assessments by manufacturer and wholesaler handlers; (3) in order for the administrative assessments to be collected, it is essential that the specification of the assessment rates be effective immediately so as to enable the Control Agency to perform its respective duties and functions under the aforesaid marketing agreement and marketing order; and (4) no preparation with respect to this determination is required of persons regulated which cannot be completed prior to the effective date hereof. Wherefore, it is hereby determined that good cause exists for making this determination effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 60, 49 Stat. 782; 7 U. S. C. 855)

Done at Washington, D. C. this 13th day of July 1956, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54137]

PART 1—CUSTOMS DISTRICTS AND PORTS

EXTENSION OF LIMITS OF VARIOUS CUSTOMS PORTS OF ENTRY

JULY 12, 1956.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U. S. C. 2), which was delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by the President by Executive Order No. 10289, September 17, 1951 (3 CFR, 1951 Supp., Ch. II), the limits of the customs ports of entry of Port Arthur, Beaumont, Orange and Sabine, Texas, Lake Charles, Louisiana, Chicago, Illinois, and Toledo, Ohio, are hereby extended to include the additional territory described herein, effective upon the date of publication of this Treasury Decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

1. The limits of the customs port of entry of Port Arthur, Texas, the headquarters port of Customs Collection District No. 21 (Sabine), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include all points on the Neches River between the northerly corporate limits of Port Arthur and the plant of the Texas Company, including the plant and docks of that company; all points on that river between the southerly corporate limits of Port Arthur and the Intracoastal Canal; and the territory embracing the Jefferson County Airport.

2. The limits of the customs port of entry of Beaumont, Texas, in Customs Collection District No. 21 (Sabine), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include the territory embracing the Bethlehem Shipyards, and all points on the Neches River between the corporate limits of Beaumont and Port Neches, Texas; also, the territory within the corporate limits of Port Neches, Texas.

3. The limits of the customs port of entry of Orange, Texas, in Customs Collection District No. 21 (Sabine), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include all points on the Sabine River betwen the corporate limits of Orange and the Lake Charles Ship Canal.

4. The limits of the customs port of entry of Sabine, Texas, in Customs Collection District No. 21 (Sabine), comprising the territory within that municipality, are extended to include all points on the Neches River between the plant of the Sun Oil Company (including the plant and dock of that company) and the Gulf of Mexico.

5. The limits of the customs port of entry of Lake Charles, Louisiana, in Customs Collection District No. 21 (Sabine), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include all points on the Calcasieu River between the corporate limits of Lake Charles and Calcasieu Lake.

6. The limits of the customs port of entry of Chicago, Illinois, the headquarters port of Customs Collection District No. 39 (Chicago), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include the territory bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on Devon Avenue where it intersects the corporate limits of Chicago, thence extending westerly along Devon Avenue to the DuPage County (Illinois) line; thence southerly along said county line to 87th Street; thence easterly to Harlem Avenue; thence southerly to 138th Street; thence easterly to the Indiana State line. Also, the territory embracing North Township in Lake County, State of Indiana.

7. The limits of the customs port of entry of Toledo, Ohio, in Customs Collection District No. 41 (Ohio), comprising the territory within the corporate limits of that city, are extended to include the territory within the corporate limits of Maumee, in Lucas County, and Rossford, in Wood County, and the territory embracing the Townships of Washington, Adams, and Oregon, in Lucas County, State of Ohio.

Section 1.1 (c), Customs Regulations, is amended by inserting "(including territory described in T. D. 54137)" opposite "•FORT ARTHUR, TEX." in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 21 (Sabine); by inserting "(including territory described in T. D. 54137)" after the notation opposite "•Beaumont, Tex." in the column headed "Ports of entry" in District No. 21 (Sabine); by inserting "(including territory described in T. TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

[Sugar Reg. 814.23, Amdt. 1]

PART 814—ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR QUOTAS

MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA, 1956

Basis and purpose. This allotment order is issued under section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1100 et seq., hereinafter called the "act") for the purpose of allotting the 1956 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. The basis and purpose of the order are more fully explained below.

Preliminary statement. Section 205 (a) of the act requires the Secretary to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary, among other things to (1) prevent disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar and (2) afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market sugar or liquid sugar. Section 205 (a) also requires that such allotment be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may prescribe.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the act and in accordance with applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR 801.1 et seq.) a preliminary finding was made that allotment of the quota is necessary, and a notice was published on December 31, 1955 (20 F. R. 10167), of a public hearing to be held at New Orleans, Louisiana, in the International House on January 19, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Secretary, (1) to affirm, modify or revoke the preliminary finding of necessity for allotments, and (2) to establish fair, efficient and equitable allotments of the 1956 quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area for the calendar year 1956. The hearing was held at the place and time specified in the notice.

Based upon the record of the hearing and pursuant to the applicable rules of practice and procedure, the Acting Administrator, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, on June 20, 1956, filed a recommended decision and proposed order with respect to the allotment of the 1956 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Notice of such filing and opportunity to file exceptions thereto were given to all interested persons in the manner provided in the rules of practice and procedure (21 F. R. 4520). Within the period reserved therefor, interested parties filed exceptions to certain of the findings, conclusions and actions recommended by the Administrator.

In arriving at the findings, conclusions, and regulatory provisions of this order, each of the exceptions filed to the findings, conclusions and actions recommended by the Administrator, and all proposed findings and conclusions were carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that findings, conclusions and actions decided upon herein are at variance with any of the exceptions filed to the recommended decision, such exceptions are overruled. To the extent that findings and conclusions proposed by interested persons are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the specific or implied requests to make such findings and reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions herein set forth.

Basis for findings and conclusions. Section 205 (a) of the act reads in pertinent part as follows:

• • • Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such quota or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of Section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person and the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such quota or proration thereof alloted to him • • •.

The record of the hearing indicates that the prospective supply of mainland cane sugar available for marketing in 1956 exceeds the quota for that area to an extent that allotment of the quota is necessary (R. 9, 10).

All three factors specified in the provision of law quoted above have been considered and each is given a percentile weighting by the formula on which this allotment of 500,000 short tons, raw value, of the 1956 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota is based. That formula follows the proposal made by the Government witness in the record as to the measures and weightings of factors to be used for determining allotments (R. 18, 19).

In addition to the Government proposal two alternative methods for determining allotments were proposed by a representative of 40 of the 46 Louisiana processors (R. 70, 80; Ex. 14), and another method was supported by 3 Florida processors (R. 101, 102; Ex. 18). All proposals were similar in the following respects: (1) An allotment of 100 short tons, raw value, would be made to the Louisiana State University and the balance of the quota would be allotted to the other processors; (2) the factor "processings" would be measured by the total production from 1955-crop cane; (3) the factor "past marketings" would be measured by the 1951–55 average marketings within allotments and weighted 20 percent; (4) the factor "ability to market" would be measured in part by January 1, 1956, effective inventories exclusive of quantities contracted to the Commodity Credit Corporation and, in part, by some other measure and (5) each factor would be expressed, for each processor, as the percentage that his tonnage for the factor represents of the total tonnage for that factor. No testimony in the hearing record was in disagreement with the above and all allottees agreed and recommended for the record that an allotment of 100 short tons, raw value, be made to Louisiana State University (R. 87, 113).

The proposals differed in the following respects: The proposal supported by the Florida processors weighted the factors "processings," 40 percent; "ability to market," 40 percent and "past marketings," 20 percent, the same as proposed by the Government, while the Louisiana processors' proposals would weight the factors "processings," 60 percent; "past marketings," 20 percent and "ability to market," 20 percent. Varied proposals for measuring the factor "ability to market" were made, differing, however, only with respect to the quantities to be added to January 1, 1956, effective inventories (exclusive of quantities contracted to CCC) to complete the measure of "ability to market".

The method of allotment adopted gives recognition to the importance of having allotments in line with recent crop production levels by giving 1955-crop production a weight of 40 percent. A greater weight to this factor is deemed inappropriate under present circumstances in view of the wide variations for individual processors between their 1955-crop production and that for other recent years, and in view of the method proposed for measuring and weighting "ability to market".

The method adopted to measure the factor "ability to market" gives recognition to the extent sugar production of the past four crop-years exceeded mar-ketings during the past three calendar years (including quantities contracted to CCC). Consequently, it recognizes the increments of current inventories traceable to the restrictions of marketings in the entire sequence of recent years in which quotas have been allotted. The quantity of sugar represented by the measure is substantially the same as the quantity of sugar which, from a supply or availability standpoint, will depend upon allotments for a fair, efficient and equitable opportunity to be marketed in 1956 (R. 21).

Expressed in other terms, but with identical results, this method of measuring the "ability to market" factor represents the quantity of sugar in effective inventory on January 1, 1956 (exclusive of quantities contracted to CCC), plus the quantity of new-crop sugar marketed in 1952. Effective inventories on January 1, 1956, represents the physical quantity of sugar held by processors on that date, plus the quantity of 1955-crop sugar produced in 1956.

Viewing "the ability to market" factor in terms of these two components supports its applicability. For most processors, new-crop marketings in 1952 fairly reflected their capabilities to market sugar in the closing months of that year, the most recent year without marketing restrictions. To the extent some failed to fully demonstrate their potential marketing abilities in late 1952, their January 1, 1953, inventories were increased accordingly. Such inventory increases, except as offset by subsequent marketings, continue to be reflected in January 1, 1956, effective inventories (R. 22). The component January 1, 1956, effective inventories, from a supply standpoint, reflects the entire ability of processors to market sugar in 1956 prior to October when processing of the 1956-crop begins, and the component new-crop marketings, as demonstrated by processors in the most recent period of unrestricted marketings, reflects the relative abilities of processors to market sugar in the last quarter of the year.

In 1956 the processors continue to fall into the same groups as in 1952 based on the percentage of the crop they process in the last quarter of the year and their tendencies to market all of the crop as it is produced or to distribute marketings over a longer period. Consequently, 1952 new-crop marketings, when added to January 1, 1956, effective inventories, provides a measure of ability which recognizes both the current and normal sizes of inventories and the length of time such inventories are normally carried.

Thus, this measure of "ability to market," described initially as the difference between the production of sugar from the four most recent crops and the marketings (including quantities contracted to CCC) for the three most recent years when marketings have been restricted, gives recognition to current inventories, and gives appropriate consideration to differences between processors in their customary marketing and storage patterns and is, therefore, a suitable and acceptable measure of ability.

Comparisons have been made between the allotments resulting from giving consideration to the three statutory factors as proposed herein, and production from crops in various years, inventory and new-crop situations as an aid in gauging whether such allotments result in a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of the quota (R. 26–30; Ex. 9, 10). Such analysis supports the conclusion that the allotments as proposed are fair, efficient and equitable.

All processings of sugar from 1955-crop sugarcane are used as a measure of the factor "processing of sugar or liquid sugar from * * * sugarcane to which proportionate shares * * * pertained," although total processings may include negligible quantities of sugar processed from sugarcane to which proportionate shares did not pertain since such quantities have insignificant effect in the formula used for fixing allotments (R. 19–20). It was proposed that contract quantities of sugar purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation be used in computing final allotments (R. 18). No exception was taken to such use of total processings and contract quantities, and no evidence to the contrary was offered at the hearing. Final data have been made a part of the record subsequent to and as provided for in the hearing and are reflected in the proposed allotments (R. 16–17).

As the hearing record shows that the Department has received satisfactory evidence that Glenwood Coop., Inc., is the successor in interests to the E. G. Robichaux Company, Ltd., for allotment of quota purposes including pertinent history of production, marketings and inventories, such change has been reflected accordingly in the findings and allotment order (R. 32).

It was proposed in the record that any deficits in allotments of individual allottees, and any increases in quota due to deficits in other areas be allotted without further notice or hearing to such allottees as can supply the additional quantities in proportion to the allotments then in effect made pursuant to the record of this proceeding (R. 33). Written notification to the Sugar Division by an allottee that he is unable to fill a part of his allotment, and any regulations issued by the Secretary which allots deficits in quota of other areas to the 1956 quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area are to be considered a part of the record of this hearing for the purpose of official notice to be taken thereof (R. 33).

The findings and the allotment order include provisions similar to those included in the 1955 order (R. S. R. 814.22; 20 F. R. 7126), paragraphs (b) Restrictions on Marketing, and (c) Transfer of Allotment, and also include a provision similar to that included in the 1954 order (S. R. 814.21; 19 F. R. 1337), paragraph (d) Exchanges of Sugar Between Allottees. The need for including these provisions was supported by the Government witness (R. 31) and by a representative of many of the processors (R. 87) and there was no testimony or argument opposed to their inclusion.

Findings and conclusions. On the basis of the record of the hearing, I hereby find and conclude that:

(1) January 1, 1956, effective inventories of mainland cane sugar approximate 400,000 short tons, raw value. New-crop marketings during 1948–1952, the most recent five-year period without marketing restrictions, ranged from a low of about 274,000 tons to a high of about 435,000. Thus, the supply of sugar available for marketing in 1956 is expected to greatly exceed the quota.

(2) Prospects in other domestic areas and Cuba are such that no increase in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota through proration of deficits is likely.

(3) The supply situation makes necessary the allotment of the 1956 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area to assure an orderly flow of such sugar in the channels of interstate commerce, to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar, and to afford all interested persons equitable opportunities to market sugar within the quota.

(4) Total processings of all sugar from 1955-crop sugarcane by each processor is a fair, efficient and equitable measure of processings of sugar from the 1955-crop of sugarcane to which proportionate shares pertained.

(5) An allotment of 100 short tons, raw value, shall be established for the Louisiana State University and the balance of the 500,000 ton Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota allotted herein, amounting to 499,900 short tons, raw value, shall be allotted in accordance with the method set forth in (6) and (7), below.

(6) For processors other than the Louisiana State University each of the three factors specified in section 205 (a) of the act shall be measured and weighted, and allotments determined as follows, based on final data in the hearing record:

(a) The factor processings from proportionate shares shall be measured by each processor's production of all sugar from 1955-crop sugarcane, in short tons, raw value, expressed as a percentage of the total of such processings for all processors, and weighted by 40 percent;

(b) The factor past marketings shall be measured by each processor's average annual marketings within his allotment for the years 1951 through 1955, in short tons, raw value, expressed as a percentage of the total of the measure for all processors, and weighted by 20 percent.

(c) The factor ability to market shall be measured for each processor by subtracting (1) his total marketings in the calendar years 1953, 1954 and 1955, plus contract quantities of his sales to the Commodity Credit Corporation from (2) his total production of sugar for the crop years 1952 through 1955. The result of subtracting (1) from (2), above, in short tons, raw value, expressed as a percentage of the total of the measure of all processors shall be weighted by 40 percent.

(d) The total of the percentages resulting from (a), (b) and (c), above, for each processor shall be multiplied by 499,900 to determine his allotment in short tons, raw value.

(7) The quantities of sugar and the percentages referred to in paragraph (6), above, based on final data, are set forth in the following table:

Processor	Processings of sugar from 1955-crop cane		Past marketings average within allotments 1951–55		Ability to market					Processor's percentage share of 499,000 tons (column 2 x 40 percent plus column 4 x 20 percent plus column 9 x 40 percent)

(8) The Glenwood Cooperative, Inc., successor to the interests of E. G. Robichaux Co., Ltd., shall have its 1956 allotment based on its past production, marketings and inventories of sugar combined with those formerly representing the operations of E. G. Robichaux Co., Ltd.

(9) An efficient distribution of the quota requires provision for transfer of allotments in unusual circumstances when deemed necessary to assure the processing of all proportionate shares.

(10) To aid in the efficient movement and storage of sugar, provision shall be made to enable a processor to market a quantity of sugar of his own production in excess of his allotment, equivalent to the quantity of sugar which he holds in storage and which was acquired by him within the allotment of another allottee of the 1956 mainland cane sugar area quota.

(11) The order shall be revised without further notice or hearing, for the purpose of allotting any additional quota resulting from proration of deficits in the quota for other supply areas, or any deficit in the allotment of any allottee under the order, by allotting any such additional quota or deficit to allottees, who are able to supply the additional sugar, in the proportion that their respective allotments bear to the total allotments of such allottees under the order.

(12) Allotments established in the foregoing manner and in the amounts set forth in the order provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of the quota as required by section 205 (a) of the act.

(13) Allotments established by this order for some allottees are substantially larger than the allotments established in S. R. 814.23. To afford processors adequate opportunity to market within the time remaining in the calendar year the additional quantities of sugar in an orderly manner, it is imperative that this order be effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and, consequently, this order shall be effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Order. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act; the section number designation § 815.23 as published in 20 F. R. 9851 is corrected to read § 814.23: And it is hereby ordered, That § 814.23 be amended to read as follows:

§ 814.23 Allotment of the 1956 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area—(a) Allotments. The 1956 sugar quota of 500,000 short tons, raw value for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area is hereby allotted to the following processors in amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

(b) Restrictions on marketings. During the calendar year 1956 each person named in paragraph (a) of this section and any other person is hereby prohibited from marketing in interstate commerce, or in competition with sugar or liquid sugar shipped, transported or marketed in interstate or foreign commerce, any sugar or liquid sugar produced from sugarcane grown in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area in excess of his allotment established in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Transfer of allotment. When approved in writing by the Director, Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, of the Department, allotments made in paragraph (a) of this section may be transferred, in whole or in part, to another allottee thereunder upon a showing that the transferee has processed or will process 1956-crop sugarcane because of inability of the transferor, arising subsequent to the processing of the 1955 crop, to process the tonnage of sugarcane which otherwise would be processed by him.

(d) Exchanges of sugar between allottees. When approved in writing by the Director of the Sugar Division, or the Chief of the Quota and Allotment Branch thereof, Commodity Stabilization Service of the Department, any allottee holding sugar or liquid sugar acquired by him within the allotment of another person established in paragraph (a) of this section, may ship, transport or market up to an equivalent quantity of sugar processed by him in excess of his allotment established in paragraph (a) of this section. The sugar or liquid sugar held under this paragraph shall be subject to all other provisions of this section as if it had been processed by the allottee who acquired it for the purpose authorized by this paragraph.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Plum Order 17]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.542 Plum Order 17—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 19, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information was submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about July 19, 1956; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 19, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Sharkey plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(3) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: July 16, 1956.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 19, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about July 19, 1956; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 19, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Ace plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and, except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 4 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 6-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{12}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the applicable one of following requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days but only after shipment has been made of any other quantities of such smaller-sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on those 2 succeeding calendar days.

(4) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.547 Plum Order 22—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 19, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about July 20, 1956; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 19, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Emily plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed eleven and eleven one-hundredths (11.11) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the applicable one of following requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a $7\frac{1}{2}$-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days but only after shipment has been made of any other quantities of such smaller-sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on those 2 succeeding calendar days.

(4) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "$7\frac{1}{2}$-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 19, 1956. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 10, 1956; recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 10, 1956, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information were submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about August 3, 1956; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 19, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1956, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Elephant Heart plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 4 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 6-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{13}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the applicable one of following requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in a special plum box, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack;

(iii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket or special plum box, ninety (90) percent, by count, of the plums measure $1^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and of the remainder of the plums none measures less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, no lot of plums shall be considered as failing to meet this requirement if one package of such plums contains not more than one (1) percent, by count, of plums that are smaller than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and

(iv) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days but only after shipment has been made of any other quantities of such smaller-sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on those 2 succeeding calendar days.

(4) As used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "diameter," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for plums and prunes (fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1530 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 984—WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

SIZE GRADE SPECIFICATIONS

Notice of proposed rule making with respect to amendment of the administrative rules and regulations, as amended (7 CFR 984.401 et seq.; 20 F. R. 6675), issued pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 105 and Order No. 84, as amended (7 CFR Part 984; 20 F. R. 5387), regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 16, 1956 (21 F. R. 4258). Such proposed amendment relates to pack specifications. In said notice opportunity was afforded interested persons to submit to the Department written data, views, or arguments, for consideration in connection with the proposals. Four such communications were received from walnut packers.

A packer in California opposed the proposed change on the basis that in his opinion it would tend to reduce the sale of inshell walnuts and accelerate the trend toward marketing walnuts in the shelled form. It was argued that this would adversely affect grower returns. Concern was also expressed in regard to expense for sizing screens to effect the proposed changes. Three Oregon packers expressed the view that making the proposed changes at this time would work a hardship on the Oregon industry because of expense of changing sizing equipment and the reduced producer income to be expected from the short 1956 crop.

The proposed changes were fully discussed at the Walnut Control Board meeting on April 17, 1956, and were unanimously recommended. Industry discussion was to the effect that at times it had been difficult to meet the trade demand for Large size, and that the proposed changes would tend to correct this situation by moderately increasing the percentage of walnuts which would classify as Large. Since the price per pound of Large size walnuts is customarily higher than for Medium and Baby sizes the change would tend to improve grower returns. Justification for the proposed size changes was based on statistics of the industry and the California crop and Livestock Reporting Service which indicate a pronounced shift in walnut production away from the round type varieties such as Placentia to the longer or more oval types particularly the Franquette. The content of a Franquette type walnut of a specified diameter will equal that of a round type walnut of slightly greater diameter. A reduction in the diameter requirement for any size does not necessarily mean a reduction in content of individual walnuts in that size classification. The proposed change is intended to result in a higher percentage of Large size walnuts than in some recent years, more in line with the historical sizeout of the crop.

Argument that the changing of screens for the 1956–57 marketing year to comply with the proposal would work a hardship on some packers is believed to have some merit. It is possible that the expense of changing sizing equipment at this time, in the case of some small packers, might tend to decrease grower returns for the 1956–57 marketing year. Use of present sizing equipment would produce packs which meet the minimum size requirements of the proposal but could result for Medium and Baby sizes in percentages above the proposed maximum size requirements and in excess of the proposed tolerances. Under present size grade specifications, there is an overlapping betwen the top of the range for Baby size ($^{75}/_{64}$ inches) and the lower limit of Medium size ($^{71}/_{64}$ inches). The continuation of a $^{1}/_{64}$ inch overlapping between Baby and Medium sizes and the authorizing of an overlapping of $^{3}/_{64}$ inch between Medium and Large sizes should make it possible for those handlers, who find it impracticable or disadvantageous to change their sizing screens at this time, to meet the new requirements.

In view of the foregoing, it is concluded that the proposed changed provisions as published in the aforesaid notice should be put into effect, except that the top range of Baby size should be $^{71}/_{64}$ inches, instead of $^{73}/_{64}$ inches, and the top range of Medium size should be $^{79}/_{64}$ inches, instead of $^{77}/_{64}$ inches.

Therefore, paragraph (a) of § 984.402 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 984.402 Pack specifications for merchantable (unshelled) walnuts, including minimum standards of size, quality and maturity; (part I) for walnuts produced in California—(a) Size grade specifications. To be certified as merchantable, any lot of walnuts must meet the specifications of one of the following size classifications: Provided, That any lot of walnuts which the Walnut Control Board finds will be used solely for shelling, and which is subsequently used solely for that purpose, may be certified with respect to size, at the option of the particular handler, without reference to such size classifications, if not over 3 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{60}/_{64}$ inch in diameter.

(1) Mammoth Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{96}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(2) Jumbo Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{80}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Large Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter, except that, for walnuts of the Eureka variety and type, such limiting dimension as to diameter shall be $^{76}/_{64}$ inches.

(4) Medium Size. Walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{79}/_{64}$ inches in diameter and of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(5) Standard Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(6) Baby Size. Walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{71}/_{64}$ inches in diameter and of which not over 10 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{60}/_{64}$ inch in diameter.

Also, paragraph (a) of § 984.403 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 984.403 Pack specifications for merchantable (unshelled) walnuts, including minimum standards of size, quality and maturity; (part II) for walnuts produced in Oregon and Washington—(a) Size grade specifications. To be certified as merchantable, any lot of walnuts must meet the specifications of one of the following size classifications: Provided, That any lot of walnuts which the Walnut Control Board finds will be used solely for shelling, and which is subsequently used solely for that purpose, may be certified with respect to size, at the option of the particular handler, without reference to such size classifications, if not over 3 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{60}/_{64}$ inch in diameter.

(1) Mammoth Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{96}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(2) Jumbo Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{80}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(3) Large Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(4) Medium Size. Walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{79}/_{64}$ inches in diameter and of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(5) Standard Size. Walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{73}/_{64}$ inches in diameter.

(6) Baby Size. Walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{71}/_{64}$ inches in diameter and of which not over 10 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{60}/_{64}$ inch in diameter.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter I—Office of the Secretary of Defense

Subchapter A—Armed Services Procurement Regulations

[Amdt. 13]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following miscellaneous amendments are made to this subchapter:

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SUBPART A—INTRODUCTION

Section 1.108 has been amended to provide that in subject areas not fully covered by this subchapter, the Military Departments shall not adopt policies, procedures or take individual actions involving a major policy question without prior coordination with the other Departments and prior approval of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics). Section 1.108 as revised reads as follows:

§ 1.108 Publications of the Military Departments. The Military Departments and procuring activities may issue directives and other publications to implement this subchapter and other Department of Defense publications mentioned in § 1.106. Such implementation shall consist of providing for such delegations of authority and assignment of responsibilities and only such other implementing actions as are essential to the respective procurement operations of the Departments. Duplication of this subchapter shall be avoided to the extent feasible. In areas which are not fully covered by this subchapter, each military department may, consistent with the provisions of this subchapter, and other Department of Defense publications mentioned in § 1.106, maintain and issue such policies and procedures as are necessary for the efficient performance of procurement operations; provided, however, that no Department shall adopt any policy or procedure (including methods, systems, instructions, practices and contract clauses) which involves a major policy question without first coordinating with the other military departments through the ASPR Committee and obtaining the approval of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) or, alternatively, at the option of the Materiel Secretary through use of the Materiel Secretaries' Council. Such approval involving Departmental publications shall be secured in advance. Approval of such matters not involving publications, but which relate to a single transaction, shall likewise be secured in advance unless exigency of the situation requires immediate action. Secretaries of the Departments will determine whether a major policy question is involved. One copy of military department publications and directives (including those of procuring activities) will be furnished to the other military departments and to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics).

Section 1.109 has been revised so as to define "Deviation." With respect to deviations affecting one contract or a single transaction, there must be special circumstances justifying a deviation, and written notice must be given to the other Departments and the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics). Notice shall be given in advance of the effective date unless exigency requires immediate action. Where deviations affect more than one contract or contractor, they must be approved in advance by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics). Where proposed deviations do not involve major policy, unanimous approval of the ASPR Committee shall be the equivalent of Secretarial approval.

§ 1.109 Deviations from this subchapter and Department of Defense publications governing procurement.

§ 1.109-1 Applicability. For the purposes of this section, a deviation shall be considered to be any of the following:

(a) When a prescribed contract clause is set forth verbatim in this subchapter or a Department of Defense Directive, use of a contract clause covering the same subject matter which varies from the subchapter coverage or a Directive constitutes a deviation.

(b) When a Standard, DD, or other form is prescribed by subchapter or a Department of Defense Directive, use of any other form for the same purpose constitutes a deviation.

(c) Alteration of a Standard, DD, or other form (other than Departmental forms), except as authorized by subchapter or a Department of Defense Directive constitutes a deviation.

(d) When limitations are imposed in subchapter or a Department of Defense Directive upon the use of a contract clause, form, procedure, type of contract, or any other procurement action, including but not limited to the making or amendment of a contract, or actions taken in connection with the solicitation of bids or proposals, award, administration or settlement of contracts, the imposition of lesser or greater limitations constitutes a deviation.

(e) When a policy, procedure, method or practice of conducting procurement actions of any kind at any stage of the procurement process is covered by this subchapter, any policy, procedure, method, or practice which is inconsistent with that set forth constitutes a deviation.

§ 1.109-2 Deviations affecting one contract or transaction. Deviations from this subchapter or a Department of Defense directive which affect one contract only or a single transaction in connection with one contract, may be made or authorized in accordance with Departmental procedures providing (a) special circumstances justify a deviation and (b) written notice of such deviations is furnished to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) and to the other military departments. Such written notice shall be given in advance of the effective date of such deviations unless exigency of the situation requires immediate action.

§ 1.109-3 Deviations affecting more than one contract or contractor. Deviations from this subchapter or Department of Defense directives which affect more than one contract or contractor will not be effected unless approved in advance by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics); provided, however, that unanimous approval by the members of the ASPR Committee will constitute approval of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) of all matters except those involving major policy. Written requests for such approval will be submitted to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) through the ASPR Committee as far in advance as exigencies of the situation will permit, or alternatively, at the option of the Materiel Secretary concerned, through use of the Materiel Secretaries' Council.

SUBPART C—BASIC POLICIES

Section 1.309 has been revised to clarify the following points: (1) The requirement for 100 percent use of the United States-flag vessels is limited to the transportation of supplies for the use of the military departments, (2) in the shipment of non-reimbursable contributions under foreign aid programs, shipment by MSTS is not required where the recipient country arranges such transportation at its own expense. Changes appear in § 1.309 (b) (2), (d) (1), and (e), and read as follows:

§ 1.309 Preference for United States-flag privately owned ocean carriers. • • •

(b) General. • • •

(2) Only United States-flag vessels will be employed for the transportation of the supplies defined in subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph when such supplies are for the use of the Military Departments unless such vessels are not available at fair and reasonable United States-flag rates.

• • • • •

(d) Procedures. (1) Except for those supplies obtained for non-reimbursable contributions to foreign assistance programs for which the ocean transportation is to be provided by and at the expense of the recipient Government, ocean transportation of supplies owned by the Government and in the possession of either a Military Department, or a contractor, or subcontractor of any tier, of a Military Department, will be provided by the Military Sea Transportation Service. Accordingly, any contract which may involve ocean transportation of property owned by the Government and in the possession of the contractor or any of its sub-contracts (including any contract under which title to property may pass to the Government prior to shipment) shall include a provision requiring the shipment of such property only as directed by the Contracting Officer, who shall be guided by this regulation and applicable Departmental procedures. The Military Sea Transportation Service shall take such action as may be necessary and practicable to assure proper utilization of Government vessels and private United States vessels in accordance with this section, and applicable regulations. The Commander of the Military Sea Transportation Service, or his designated representative is authorized to make any determination as to availability of United States-flag vessels required to assure such proper utilization.

• • • • •

(e) Responsibilities—(1) Military Departments. (i) Each Military Department will furnish quarterly reports to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, showing the gross tonnage of all supplies owned, procured, contracted for or otherwise obtained (computed separately for dry bulk carriers, dry cargo liners, and tankers) which have been transported by ocean carrier, during the report period. Such report will consist of two parts. Part I shall include all tonnage subject to this paragraph except Mutual Defense Assistance Program tonnage and shall also show the geographic area of origin and of destination and shall separately reflect all such information for:

(a) Private United States vessels;

(b) Government vessels (showing separately where Government vessels were used due to nonavailability of private United States vessels); and

(c) Foreign-flag vessels (showing separately where foreign vessels were used due to nonavailability of United States-flag vessels).

Part II shall show all Mutual Defense Assistance Program tonnage shipped showing the geographic areas of origin and of destination and shall separately identify any shipments in other than foreign-flag vessels. Cargoes transported under arrangements made by the Military Sea Transportation Service will be excluded from the reports made by the Military Departments. Until a Department of Defense report form is announced in Part 16 of this subchapter, the Military Departments will maintain records of required information and prepare reports in accordance with Departmental procedures. After promulgation, the appropriate Department of Defense form will be used by the Military Departments in furnishing the required reports, except that if a Military Department develops, for its own use, reports which meet the requirements of this paragraph, and which are acceptable to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics), such reports may be forwarded in lieu of the Department of Defense form.

(ii) The Department of Navy will also furnish quarterly reports in two parts to the Office of the Secretary of Defense showing the gross tonnage of all supplies (computed separately for dry bulk carriers, dry cargo liners, and tankers) for which transportation has been arranged by the Military Sea Transportation Service by geographic areas of origin and destination for:

(a) Private United States vessels;

(b) Government vessels (showing separately where Government vessels were used due to nonavailability of private United States vessels); and

(c) Foreign-flag vessels (showing separately where foreign vessels were used due to nonavailability of United States-flag vessels).

Part I shall include all tonnage subject to this section except Mutual Defense

Assistance Program tonnage, and Part II shall show Mutual Defense Assistance Program tonnage.

(2) Office of the Secretary of Defense. The Office of the Secretary of Defense will evaluate the reports submitted under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. In the event the evaluation of the reports indicates the need for increased utilization of private United States vessels, the Office of the Secretary of Defense shall issue appropriate instructions to the Military Departments.

PART 2—PROCUREMENT BY FORMAL ADVERTISING

SUBPART B—SOLICITATION OF BIDS

Section 2.204 has been revised as follows:

§ 2.204 Bidders' mailing lists.

§ 2.204–1 General. Bidders' mailing lists shall be established by purchasing offices or activities to insure ready and current sources of supplies, except when the purchasing office or activity is relatively small and sources of supply are readily available in sufficient number to provide adequate competition. All suppliers who appear, from the bidders' mailing list application or other available information, to be qualified and eligible to fill the requirements of a particular procurement shall be placed on the appropriate bidders' mailing list. Such lists shall be maintained on a current basis and subject to continuous review and revision by the head of the purchasing office or activity or his authorized representatives. The Bidders' Mailing List Application (Standard Form 129) shall be used as prescribed in § 16.810 of this subchapter in conjunction with the establishment and maintenance of bidders' mailing lists.

§ 2.204–2 Suppliers' response to invitations for bids. Included with or in each invitation for bids or pre-invitation notice there shall be a notice to suppliers that if no bid is to be submitted, the supplier should advise the issuing officer in writing if future invitations for the type of supplies or services covered by the invitation are desired. Where Standard Form 30 (Invitation and Bid) or Standard Form 33 (Invitation, Bid, and Award) are used for the solicitation of bids, such notice is given by paragraph 2 (c) of the terms and conditions of the Invitation for Bids as printed on the reverse side of these forms.

§ 2.204–3 Removal of names from bidders' mailing lists. Removal of names from bidders' mailing lists shall be accomplished as provided in this section. Purchasing offices and activities shall provide for periodic review to insure conformance with the provisions of this section.

(a) The name of each supplier who fails to respond to an invitation for bids or pre-invitation notice may be removed from the bidders' mailing list without notice to the supplier, but only for the item or items involved in the invitation or pre-invitation notice. Where a supplier fails to respond to two consecutive invitations for bids or pre-invitation notices, his name shall be removed from the bidders' mailing list to the extent indicated above, except that, in individual cases, suppliers thus failing to respond may be retained on a bidders' mailing list if such retention is determined to be in the best interest of the Government. A response to an invitation for bids or pre-invitation notice shall be deemed to include both actual bids and written requests from nonbidding suppliers for retention on the bidders' mailing list.

(b) The names of suppliers who have been (1) debarred from entering into Government contracts or (2) otherwise determined to be ineligible to receive an award of a Government contract, including ineligibility by reason of suspension or other disqualification, shall be removed from the bidders' mailing lists to the extent required by such debarment or determination of ineligibility.

§ 2.204–4 Reinstatment on bidders' mailing lists. Suppliers whose names have been removed from bidders' mailing lists may be reinstated upon their request and, where required, by filing a new application on Standard Form 129: Provided, That no supplier who has been debarred or declared to be ineligible shall be reinstated until after termination of the period of his debarment or ineligibility.

§ 2.204–5 Excessively long bidders' mailing lists. When the number of names on a bidders' mailing list is deemed to be excessive in relation to a specific procurement, such methods as (a) rotation of bidders' mailing lists, (b) use of pre-invitation notices, or (c) otherwise determined to be advantageous in this respect, may be employed to provide a reduced list of names for use in making the specific procurement. (But see § 1.302–4 (b) (3) with respect to firms located in labor surplus areas.)

§ 2.204–6 Release of bidders' mailing lists. Except as provided below, the list of prospective bidders to whom invitations for bids or requests for proposals have been submitted will not be released outside the Department of Defense, and will not be made available for inspection to individuals, firms, or trade organizations. Such lists may be made available to other Government agencies, at their specific written request, and upon the condition that the lists will not be made available for inspection to anyone outside the Government.

§ 2.204–7 Release of names of prospective bidders on construction contracts. When invitations for bids for construction contracts have been issued, trade journals, prospective subcontractors, material suppliers, and others having a bonda fide interest in such information, will be supplied, upon request, with a list of names of all prospective bidders who have been furnished copies of the plans and specifications.

Section 2.206.4 is revised as follows:

§ 2.206–4 Individual procurement action report. Prior to submitting DD Form 350 for review and approval (see § 16.807 of this subchapter), the contracting officer shall note on the form whether the procurement was publicized in the Department of Commerce Synopsis, and if it was not publicized, shall give the reason therefor by reference to the appropriate exception in § 2.206–1.

PART 3—PROCUREMENT BY NEGOTIATION

SUBPART B—CIRCUMSTANCES PERMITTING NEGOTIATION

Sections 3.201–2 (b) and 3.211 have been revised in order to standardize procedures in connection with the negotiation of contracts for research and development work and supplies related thereto. These revisions have the following effect:

(1) Such contracts with educational institutions, notwithstanding the current state of national emergency and irrespective of amount, shall be negotiated under the authority of section 2 (c) (5) of the Armed Services Procurement Act of 1947, as amended (see § 3.205).

(2) During the current national emergency, such contracts with contractors other than educational institutions, in amounts of $100,000 or less, shall be negotiated under the authority of section 2 (c) (1) of the act (see § 3.201–2 (b) (4)).

(3) Notwithstanding the current national emergency, such contracts with contractors other than educational institutions, in amounts over $100,000 shall be negotiated under section 2 (c) (11) of the act (see § 3.211).

The term "contracts" in connection with the above includes all amendments or supplemental agreements to contracts for new procurement, each of which shall be evaluated in the light of the above. Contract changes resulting from action under the "Changes" Clause shall not require Secretarial determinations and findings. No authorities, other than the above, shall be cited as the authority for experimental, developmental, or research work.

Section 3.201–2, as revised, reads as follows:

§ 3.201–2 Application. (a) This authority shall be used only to the extent determined by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) to be necessary in the public interest, and then only in accordance with Departmental procedures consistent with § 3.201.

(b) With respect to procurements initiated on or after January 1, 1956, and for the duration of the national emergency declared pursuant to Presidential Proclamation 2914, dated December 16, 1950, the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) has determined that the following procurements only shall be made pursuant to the authority of section 2 (c) (1) of the act:

(1) Procurements made pursuant to labor surplus and disaster area programs. Set asides shall be negotiated in accordance with procedures set forth in § 3.219.

(2) Procurements made in keeping with the small business programs.

(3) Nonperishable subsistence (pending resolution of the recommendation on this subject contained in the report of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, subject "Food and Clothing").

(4) Procurements which are authorized to be negotiated under the provisions of § 3.211–1 for $100,000 or less from contractors other than educational institutions. Such negotiated procurements from educational institutions shall be negotiated under the authority of section 2 (c) (5) of the act (see § 3.205) irrespective of amount.

(c) Except as authorized in paragraph (b) of this section, procurements may be negotiated only when authorized by subsections (2) through (17) of section 2 (c), and section 2 (e) of the act (§ 3.202 through § 3.218) and § 3.219; determinations and findings shall be made in accordance with section 7 of the act (subpart C of this part); and the appropriate authority shall be cited in each contract.

This amendment is effective with respect to procurements initiated on or after January 1, 1956.

Section 3–211 as revised reads as follows:

§ 3.211 Experimental, developmental, or research work.

§ 3.211–1 Authorization. Pursuant to the authority of section 2 (c) (11) of the act, purchases and contracts may be negotiated without formal advertising if the Secretary:

determines that the purchase or contract is for expiremental, developmental, or research work, or for the manufacture or furnishing of supplies for experimentation, development, research, or test.

Provided, That during a national emergency negotiated contracts for $100,000 or less shall be negotiated under the authority of section 2 (c) (1) of the act (see § 3.201–2 (b) (4)).

§ 3.211–2 Application. The following are illustrative of circumstances with respect to which this authority may be used:

(a) Contracts relating to theoretical analysis, exploratory studies, and experimentation in any field of science or technology;

(b) Developmental contracts calling for the practical application of investigative findings and theories of a scientific or technical nature;

(c) The purchase of such quantities and kinds of equipment, supplies, parts, accessories, or patent rights thereto, and drawings or designs thereof, as are necessary for experimentation, development, research, or test;

(d) Services, tests, and reports necessary or incidental to experimental, developmental, or research work.

This authority shall not be used for negotiated contracts with educational institutions or for quantity production except that such quantities may be purchased hereunder as are necessary to permit complete and adequate experimentation, development, research or test; however, research or development contracts which call for the production of a reasonable number of experimental or test models, or prototypes, shall not be regarded as contracts for quantity production. Negotiated contracts with educational institutions shall be negotiated under the authority of section 2 (c) (5) of the act (see § 3.205) irrespective of amount.

§ 3.211–3 Limitation. In order for this authority to be used, the required determination to be made by any Secretary must be made in accordance with the requirements of subpart c of this part.

§ 3.211–4 Records and reports. Each Department shall maintain a record of the name of each contractor with whom a contract has been entered into pursuant to the authority of this section, together with the amount of the contract and (with due consideration given to the national security) a description of the work required to be performed thereunder, and shall prepare a report thereon, at the end of the current fiscal year (covering that portion of the current fiscal year during which this subchapter is effective) and at the end of each six-month period thereafter, and in the form and manner to be prescribed by the Department, to be submitted to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) for the preparation of a combined Armed Services report to be submitted semi-annually to the Congress.

PART 7—CONTRACT CLAUSES AND FORMS

SUBPART A—CLAUSES FOR FIXED-PRICE SUPPLY CONTRACTS

Section 7.104–12 has been amended as follows:

§ 7.104–12 Military security requirements. Insert the following clause in all contracts which are classified by a Department as "Confidential," including "Confidential—Modified Handling Authorized," or higher and in any other contracts the performance of which will require access to such classified information or material, except that this clause shall not be used in contracts performed outside the continental United States, its territories and possessions. In those cases where the situation so warrants because of the nature of the item, or conditions under which it is to be produced, the contract shall provide and establish by a separate contract provision such additional security safeguards as may be required for the protection of that item. When the "Military Security Requirements" clause is inserted in any contract, the contracting officer or his authorized representative shall prepare and transmit to the contractor and the material inspector a Security Requirements Check List (DD Form 254) in accordance with § 16.811 of this subchapter.

MILITARY SECURITY REQUIREMENTS

(a) The provisions of this clause shall apply to the extent that this contract involves access to information classified "Confidential" including "Confidential—Modified Handling Authorized" or higher.

(b) The Government shall notify the Contractor of the security classification of this contract and the elements thereof, and of any subsequent revisions in such security classification, by the use of a Security Requirements Check List (DD Forms 254 and 254–1).

(c) To the extent the Government has indicated as of the date of this contract or thereafter indicates security classification under this contract as provided in paragraph (b) above, the Contractor shall safeguard all classified elements of this contract and shall provide and maintain a system of security controls within its own organization in accordance with the requirements of (i) the Security Agreement (DD Form 441), including the Department of Defense Industrial Security Manual for Safeguarding Classified Information as in effect on date of this contract, and any modification to the Security Agreement for the purpose of adapting the Manual to the Contractor's business; and (ii) any amendments to said Manual made after the date of this contract, notice of which has been furnished to the Contractor by the Security Office of the Military Department having security cognizance over the facility.

(d) Representatives of the Military Department having security cognizance over the facility and representatives of the contracting Military Department shall have the right to inspect at reasonable intervals the procedures, methods, and facilities utilized by the Contractor in complying with the security requirements under this contract. Should the Government, through these representatives, determine that the Contractor is not complying with the security requirements of this contract the Contractor shall be informed in writing by the Security Office of the cognizant Military Department of the proper action to be taken in order to effect compliance with such requirements.

(e) If subsequent to the date of this contract, the security classifications or security requirements under this contract are changed by the Government as provided in this clause and the security costs under this contract are thereby increased or decreased, the contract price shall be subject to an equitable adjustment by reason of such increased or decreased costs. Any equitable adjustment shall be accomplished in the same manner as if such changes were directed under the "Changes" clause in this contract.

(f) The Contractor agrees to insert, in all subcontracts hereunder which involve access to classified information, provisions which shall conform substantially to the language of this clause, including this paragraph (f) but excluding the last sentence of paragraph (e) of this clause.

(g) The Contractor also agrees that it shall determine that any subcontractor proposed by it for the furnishing of supplies and services which will involve access to classified information in the Contractor's custody has been granted an appropriate facility security clearance, which is still in effect, prior to being accorded access to such classified information.

Section 7.106 has been amended as follows: Price escalation clauses for standard and semi-standard supplies have been revised to permit contractors to furnish required certificates either with each invoice or with the final invoice. The clause for basic steel and other basic metal products has also been revised so as to increase and decrease the unit price, and to limit such changes, by the amount of the fluctuation rather than on a percentage basis; other revisions have also been made to facilitate administration. Section 7.106, as revised, reads as follows:

§ 7.106 Price escalation clauses (established prices). This section sets forth uniform clauses for use when it is desired to provide for price escalation in the event of changes in the contractor's established prices. Each clause is preceded by a statement of the conditions under which it may be used.

§ 7.106–1 Escalation clause for basic steel, aluminum, brass, bronze or copper mill products. The following price escalation clause is authorized for use in advertised or negotiated fixed-price supply contracts for basic steel, aluminum, brass, bronze or copper mill products, such as sheets, plates and bars, when:

(a) An established price exists for the particular supply being procured; and

(b) The contract is made with a producer of steel, aluminum, brass bronze or copper, or with an operator of a steel foundry.

The percentage figure to be used in paragraph (d) (3) of the clause shall not exceed 10 percent.

PRICE ESCALATION

(a) The Contractor warrants that the unit prices stated herein, excluding any part of the prices which reflects requirements for preservation, packaging and packing, beyond standard commercial practice, are not in excess of the Contractor's applicable established prices in effect on the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date, if this is a negotiated contract rather than one entered into by means of formal advertising) for like quantities of the supplies covered by this contract.

(b) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer as to the amount and effective date of each decrease in any established price, and each applicable unit price shall be decreased by the amount of the decrease in the applicable established price. Any such decrease in a unit price shall apply to those supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each applicable decrease in the Contractor's established price, and this contract shall be amended accordingly. The Contractor shall certify on each invoice submitted under the contract that each unit price stated therein reflects all decreases, if any, which the Contractor had made in the established price applicable thereto, since the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date, if this is a negotiated contract rather than one entered into by formal advertising), or shall certify on the final invoice that all such decreases have been applied to supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each such decrease in the Contractor's established prices.

(c) The Contractor may from time to time after the date of this contract and during the performance hereof, by written notice to the Contracting Officer, request an upward adjustment in any of the contract unit prices to be effective as of a date to be specified by the Contractor. Such request shall be acted upon in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(d) An upward adjustment in a contract unit price may be made under this clause only in accordance with the following conditions.

(1) Such an upward adjustment shall be made only if the Contractor's applicable established price has increased subsequent to the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date, if this is a negotiated contract rather than one entered into by means of formal advertising).

(2) No unit price shall be increased by an amount greater than the amount of the increase in the Contractor's applicable established price.

(3) The aggregate of the increases in any unit price made under this clause shall not exceed ------ percent of the original applicable contract unit price.

(4) No adjusted unit price shall be effective earlier than the effective date of the increase in the applicable established price, but if the Contractor's request for adjustment is received by the Contracting Officer more than 10 days after the effective date of the increase in the Contractor's applicable rate, no adjusted unit price shall be effective earlier than the date of receipt by the Contracting Officer of such request.

(5) No upward adjustment in unit prices hereunder shall apply to supplies which were required by the contract delivery schedule to be delivered prior to the effective date of the related increase in the applicable established price, unless the Contractor's failure to deliver supplies in accordance with the delivery schedule results from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the clause of this contract entitled "Default," in which case the contract shall be amended to make an equitable extension of the delivery schedule.

(e) In the event the requested upward adjustment in any contract unit price is acceptable to the Contracting Officer, he shall so notify the Contractor, and the contract shall be amended accordingly. In the event the requested upward adjustment is not acceptable to the Contracting Officer, or if the Contracting Officer does not reach an agreement with the Contractor with respect to a price increase, the Contracting Officer may, within 30 days after receipt of the Contractor's request, cancel without liability to either party the Contractor's right to proceed with performance of that portion of the contract which is undelivered at the time of such cancellation, except that the Contractor may make delivery of all or any of the supplies which a duly authorized officer of the company shall certify were completed or in the process of manufacture at the time of receipt of notice of such cancellation. In such event the Government shall pay for all supplies so delivered at the applicable unit price contained in the Contractor's request, and the contract shall be amended accordingly; provided, that such certification is made within 10 days after receipt of notice of such cancellation, and provided further that such requested increase satisfies all of the conditions and does not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d). In the event this contract is for standard steel supplies, they shall be deemed to be in the process of manufacture when the steel therefor is in any state of processing after the beginning of the furnace melt.

(f) During the period after the Contractor has requested an upward adjustment, and prior to an agreement between the parties with respect to the request or cancellation of the contract pursuant to paragraph (e), the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract. The Contractor shall be paid for such deliveries at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d), and provided further that if the parties agree on an increase less than that requested, payments previously made at the requested amount shall be adjusted accordingly. If the Contracting Officer neither reaches an agreement with the Contractor on the requested adjustment, nor cancels the contract, the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract, and the Contractor shall be paid therefor at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d).

§ 7.106–2 Escalation clause for nonstandard steel items. The following price escalation clause is authorized for use in negotiated fixed-price supply contracts when—

(a) The contractor is a steel producer and actually manufactures the basic steel item referred to in paragraph (d) of the clause; and

(b) Items being procured are nonstandard steel items made wholly or in major part of steel.

PRICE ESCALATION

(a) The Contractor represents that the unit prices set forth in this contract do not include any contingency allowance to cover the possibility of increased costs of performance resulting from increases in either (i) the Contractor's rates of pay for labor employed by it, or (ii) the prices which the Contractor charges its manufacturing shops for the steel required in the performance of this contract.

(b) Each contract unit price shall be subject to revision, pursuant to the provisions of this clause, to reflect changes in the cost of labor and steel. For the purpose of any such price revision, the proportion of the contract unit price attributable to costs of labor not otherwise included in the price of the steel item identified in paragraph (d) below shall be ____ percent, and the proportion of the contract unit price attributable to the cost of steel shall be ____ percent.

(c) For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "labor index" shall mean the average straight time hourly earnings of the Contractor's employees in the [see Note (1)] shop of the Contractor's [see Note (1)] plant for any particular month. The word "month" as used herein means "calendar month;" provided, however, that if the Contractor's accounting period does not coincide with the calendar month, then such accounting period shall be used throughout the clause in lieu of "month." Unless otherwise specified in this contract, the labor index shall be computed by dividing the total straight time earnings of the Contractor's employees in the particular shop identified above for any given month by the total number of straight time hours worked by such employees in that month. Any revision in a contract unit price to reflect changes in the cost of labor shall be computed solely by reference to the "base labor index," which shall be the average of the labor indices for the three months consisting of the month of [see Note (2)] 19--, the month immediately preceding and the month immediately following, and to the "current labor index," which shall be the average of the labor indices for the month in which delivery of supplies is required to be made in accordance with the terms of this contract and the month preceding.

(d) Any revision in a contract unit price to reflect changes in the cost of steel shall be computed solely by reference to the "base steel index," which shall be the Contractor's established or published price to the public [see Note (3)] including all applicable extras of $____ per ____ (unit) for [see Note (4)] on [see Note (5)], 19--, and the "current steel index," which shall be the Contractor's established or published price to the public [see Note (3)] of said item including all applicable extras in effect [see Note (6)] days prior to the first day of the month in which delivery of supplies is required to be made in accordance with the terms of the contract.

(e) Each contract unit price shall be revised for each month in which, by the terms of this contract, delivery of supplies is required to be made, and such revised contract unit price(s) shall apply to the deliveries of those quantities of supplies required to be made in that month regardless of when actual delivery be made of said quantities of supplies. Each revised contract unit price for any month shall be computed by adding together the following three amounts: (i) the amount (representing the adjusted cost of labor) obtained by multiplying ____ percent of the contract unit price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the current labor index and the denominator of which shall be the base labor index; (ii) the amount (representing the adjusted cost of steel) obtained by multiplying ____ percent of the contract unit price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the current steel index and the denominator of which shall be the base steel index; and (iii) the amount equal to ____ percent of the original contract-unit price (representing that portion of such unit price which relates neither to the cost of labor nor to the cost of steel and which is therefore not subject to revision); provided, however, that any revised contract unit price made pursuant to the provisions of this clause shall in no event exceed 110 percent of the original contract unit price. All computations shall be made to the nearest one-hundredth of one cent.

(f) Pending revisions of the contract unit price(s), if any, to be made pursuant to this clause, the Contractor shall be paid the contract unit price(s) for deliveries made. Within thirty days after the final delivery of supplies, or within such further period of time as may be authorized by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall furnish a statement signed by the official supervising accounting with respect to this contract setting forth and certifying the correctness of (i) the average straight time hourly earnings of the Contractor's employees in the shop of the Contractor identified in paragraph (c) above which earnings are relevant to the computations of the "base labor index" and the "current labor index," and (ii) the Contractor's established or published prices to the public [see Note (3)] including all applicable extras, for like quantities of the item identified in paragraph (d) above, which prices are relevant to the computation of the "base steel index" and the "current steel index." Upon request of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative, the Contractor shall make available its records used in the computation of the labor indices. After the receipt of such certificate by the Contracting Officer, the revised contract unit price(s) shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this clause, and this contract shall be amended accordingly.

(g) In the event of any total or partial termination of any item of this contract for the convenience of the Government, the month in which notice of such termination is received by the Contractor, if prior to the month in which delivery is required by this contract, shall be considered the month in which delivery of such terminated or partially terminated item is required for the purpose of determining the current labor and materials indices under paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof; provided, however, that as to the quantity of such item which is not terminated for convenience, the month in which delivery is required by this contract shall continue to apply for determining said indices. In the case of termination of any item for default on the part of the Contractor, any price revision shall be limited to the quantity of each item which has been delivered by the Contractor and accepted by the Government prior to receipt by the Contractor of notice of termination for default.

(h) As used in this clause the phrase "the month in which delivery of supplies is required to be made in accordance with the terms of this contract" shall mean any month in which under the terms of this contract a specific quantity of units of the supplies called for by this contract is required to be delivered; provided, however, that in case the failure of the Contractor to make delivery of such quantity shall have arisen out of causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the clause of this contract entitled "Default," the quantity not delivered shall be required to be delivered as promptly as possible after the cessation of the clause of such failure, and the delivery schedule set forth in this contract shall be amended accordingly.

(i) Failure to agree upon any determination to be made under this clause shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes."

NOTES

(1) Identify the shop and plant in which the standard steel mill item identified in paragraph (d) will be finally fabricated or processed into the contract item.

(2) Insert the month in which the Contractor submitted its quotation.

(3) When there is no established or published price to the public, or when it is not desirable to use such price, this paragraph may refer to another appropriate price basis, such as an established interplant price.

(4) Identify the standard steel mill item used by the Contractor in the manufacture of the contract item.

(5) Insert the date of the Contractor's quotation.

(6) Insert the number of days which represents the Contractor's best estimate of the period of time required for processing the standard steel mill item in the shop identified in paragraph (c).

§ 7.106–3 Escalation clause for standard supplies. The following price escalation clause is authorized for use in negotiated fixed-price supply contracts for standard supplies for which established prices exist. The clause may be used only when the total contract price is over $5,000 and delivery is not to be completed within six months after the contract date. The percentage figure to be used in subparagraph (d) (3) of the clause shall not exceed 10 percent. If any standard trade discounts offered by the contractor against its list or catalog price are taken into account in negotiating the contract unit price, the Contracting Officer's file should contain a statement setting forth the list or catalog price and the discounts. The discounts referred to do not include prompt payment or cash discounts.

PRICE ESCALATION

(a) The Contractor warrants that the unit prices stated herein, excluding any part of the prices which reflects requirements for preservation, packaging, and packing beyond standard commercial practice, are not in excess of the Contractor's applicable established prices in effect on the contract date for like quantities of the supplies covered by this contract. The term "established price" as used in this clause is the net price after applying any applicable standard trade discounts offered by the Contractor from its list or catalog price.

(b) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer as to amount and effective date of each decrease in any applicable established price, and each applicable contract unit price shall be decreased by the same percentage that the applicable established price is decreased. Any such decrease in a unit price shall apply to those supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each applicable decrease in the Contractor's established price, and this contract shall be amended accordingly. The Contractor shall certify on each invoice submitted under the contract that each unit price stated therein reflects all decreases, if any, which the Contractor had made in the established price applicable thereto, since the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date, if this is a negotiated contract rather than one entered into by formal advertising), or shall certify on the final invoice that all such decreases have been applied to supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each such decrease in the Contractor's established prices.

(c) The Contractor may from time to time after the date of this contract and during the performance hereof, by written notice to the Contracting Officer, request an upward adjustment in any of the contract unit prices to be effective as of a date to be specified by the Contractor. Such request shall be acted upon in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(d) An upward adjustment in a contract unit price may be made under this clause only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) Such an upward adjustment shall be made only if the Contractor's applicable established price has increased subsequent to the contract date.

(2) No unit price shall be increased by a percentage greater than the percentage increase in the Contractor's applicable established price.

(3) The aggregate of the increases in any unit price made under this clause shall not exceed -- percent of the original applicable contract unit price.

(4) No adjusted unit price shall be effective earlier than the effective date of the increase in the applicable established price, or the date of receipt by the Contracting Officer of the Contractor's request for adjustment, whichever is the later.

(5) No upward adjustment in unit prices hereunder shall apply to supplies which were required by the contract delivery schedule to be delivered prior to the effective date of the related increase in the applicable established price, unless the Contractor's failure to deliver supplies in accordance with the delivery schedule results from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the clause of this contract entitled "Default," in which case the contract shall be amended to make an equitable extension of the delivery schedule.

(e) In the event the requested upward adjustment in any contract unit price is acceptable to the Contracting Officer, he shall so notify the Contractor, and the contract shall be amended accordingly. In the event the requested upward adjustment is not acceptable to the Contracting Officer, or if the Contracting Officer does not reach an agreement with the Contractor with respect to a price increase, the Contracting Officer may, within 30 days after receipt of the Contractor's request, cancel without liability to either party the Contractor's right to proceed with performance of that portion of the contract which is undelivered at the time of such cancellation.

(f) During the period after the Contractor has requested an upward adjustment, and prior to an agreement between the parties with respect to the request, or cancellation of the contract pursuant to paragraph (e), the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract. The Contractor shall be paid for such deliveries at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d), and provided further that, if the parties agree on an increase less than that requested, payments previously made at the requested amount shall be adjusted accordingly. If the Contracting Officer neither reaches an agreement with the Contractor on the requested adjustment, nor cancels the contract, the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract, and the Contractor shall be paid therefor at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d).

§ 7.106–4 Escalation clause for semi-standard supplies. The following price escalation clause is authorized for use in negotiated fixed-pric supply contracts for semistandard supplies, the prices of which can be reasonably related to the prices of nearly equivalent standard supplies for which established prices exist. The clause may be used only when the total contract price is over $5,000 and delivery is not to be completed within six months after the contract date. A clear understanding should be set forth in writing prior to making the contract as to the identity of the standard supply items which are applicable. The percentage figure to be used in subparagraph (d) (3) of the clause shall not exceed 10 percent. If any standard trade discounts offered by the Contractor against its list or catalog price are taken into account in negotiating the contract unit price, the Contracting Officer's file should contain a statement setting forth the list or catalog price and the discounts. The discounts referred to do not include prompt payment or cash discounts. When the supplies being purchased are standard supplies in all respects except for preservation, packaging, and packing requirements, the following clause should not be used; in such cases the Escalation Clause for Standard Supplies, in § 7.106–3, is the appropriate clause.

PRICE ESCALATION

(a) The Contractor warrants that the supplies covered by this contract are supplies which the Contractor customarily offers for sale commercially, except for modifications in accordance with the specifications of this contract, and that as of the contract date any differences between the unit prices stated herein and the Contractor's established prices for like quantities of the supplies which are the nearest commercial equivalents of the supplies covered by this contract (herein referred to as "the established prices") are due to compliance with such specifications, and to compliance with any requirements which this contract may contain for preservation, packaging, and packing beyond standard commercial practice. The term "established price" as used in this clause is the net price after applying any applicable standard trade discounts offered by the Contractor from its list or catalog price.

(b) The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer as to the amount and effective date of each decrease in any applicable established price, and each applicable contract unit price shall be decreased by the same percentage that the applicable established price is decreased. Any such decrease in a unit price shall apply to those supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each applicable decrease in the Contractor's established price, and this contract shall be amended accordingly. The Contractor shall certify on each invoice submitted under the contract that each unit price stated therein reflects all decreases, if any, which the Contractor had made in the established price applicable thereto, since the date set for opening of bids (or the contract date, if this is a negotiated contract rather than one entered into by formal advertising), or shall certify on the final invoice that all such decreases have been applied to supplies delivered on and after the effective date of each such decrease in the Contractor's established prices.

(c) The Contractor may from time to time after the date of this contract and during the performance hereof, by written notice to the Contracting Officer, request an upward adjustment in any of the contract unit prices to be effective as of a date to be specified by the Contractor. Such request shall be acted upon in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(d) An upward adjustment in a contract unit price may be made under this clause only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) Such an upward adjustment shall be made only if the Contractor's applicable established price has increased subsequent to the contract date.

(2) No unit price shall be increased by a percentage greater than the percentage increase in the Contractor's applicable established price.

(3) The aggregate of the increases in any unit price made under this clause shall not exceed ____ percent of the original applicable contract unit price.

(4) No adjusted unit price shall be effective earlier than the effective date of the increase in the applicable established price, or the date of receipt by the Contracting Officer of the Contractor's request for adjustment, whichever is the later.

(5) No upward adjustment in unit prices hereunder shall apply to supplies which were required by the contract delivery schedule to be delivered prior to the effective date of the related increase in the applicable established price, unless the Contractor's failure to deliver supplies in accordance with the delivery schedule results from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, within the meaning of paragraph (b) of the clause of this contract entitled "Default," in which case the contract shall be amended to make an equitable extension of the delivery schedule.

(e) In the event the requested upward adjustment in any contract unit price is acceptable to the Contracting Officer, he shall so notify the Contractor, and the contract shall be amended accordingly. In the event the requested upward adjustment is not acceptable to the Contracting Officer, or if the Contracting Officer does not reach an agreement with the Contractor with respect to a price increase, the Contracting Officer may, pursuant to the clause of the contract entitled "Termination for Convenience of the Government," terminate the Contractor's right to proceed with performance of that portion of the contract which is undelivered at the time of such termination.

(f) During the period after the Contractor has requested an upward adjustment, and prior to an agreement between the parties with respect to the request, or termination of the contract pursuant to paragraph (e), the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract. The Contractor shall be paid for such deliveries at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d), and provided further that if the parties agree on an increase less than that requested, payments previously made at the requested amount shall be adjusted accordingly. If the Contracting Officer neither reaches an agreement with the Contractor on the requested adjustment, nor terminates the contract, the Contractor shall continue deliveries according to the terms of the contract, and the Contractor shall be paid therefor at the applicable increased unit prices as requested, provided that such requested increases satisfy all the conditions and do not exceed the limitations of paragraph (d).

PART 8—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

SUBPART F—TERMINATION INVENTORY

Section 8.609 has been revised to integrate Defense procedures with the programs for donation of surplus termination inventory for educational and public health purposes, including research. Files reflecting donable property will be established at military installations and made available to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for screening. Such property will not be disposed of until that Department has an opportunity to request donations in accordance with the procedures set forth in this section, as revised. Section 8.609 now reads as follows:

§ 8.609 Donations for educational and public health programs. (a) Termination inventory which is to be sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with § 8.608 may be donated for educational or public health purposes, including research, upon allocation by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, subject to approval by the General Services Administration, as authorized by the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended. To assist the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in locating property which is available for donation, each military department will furnish that Department with a directory of activities where donable property files are maintained and may be examined.

(b) Schedules of termination inventory available for donation shall be maintained in a donable property file for a period of 10 days from the date of the decision to dispose of the property in accordance with § 8.608. Within that time the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare has the responsibility (1) to notify the Contracting Officer of the items selected for donation and (2) to initiate a request to the appropriate General Services Administration regional office for approval of the donation. Disposition of the property selected shall be postponed pending action by the General Services Adminstration; otherwise, the property shall be disposed of in accordance with § 8.608. Notification to the contracting officer by the General Services Administration of the action on the request shall constitute authority for the contracting officer to hold the property for a period not to exceed 40 days from the date of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph or to take such action as the General Services Adminstration may direct. If shipping instructions are not received for the property within the 40-day period, together with provision for payment of costs of care, handling and transportation incurred incident to donation, the Contracting Officer shall dispose of the property in accordance with § 8.608.

(c) Property required for use by the Department of Defense may be withdrawn from the items available for donation at any time prior to shipment or removal.

Section 8.613–2 (d) has been amended as follows:

§ 8.613–2 Required review. • • •

(d) A determination to destroy or abandon material in accordance with § 8.610, if the original acquisition cost of the material exceeds $1,000.

PART 16—PROCUREMENT FORMS

SUBPART C—PURCHASE AND DELIVERY ORDER FORMS

Section 16.301 has been revised as follows:

§ 16.301 Receipt for cash—subvoucher (Standard Form 1165). Standard Form 1165 may be used in connection with procurements by the imprest fund (petty cash) method in accordance with § 3.604 of this subchapter.

SUBPART E—SPECIAL CONTRACT AND ORDER FORMS

Forms and procedures for novation agreements are included in a new § 16.505, as follows:

§ 16.505 Novation agreements.

§ 16.505–1 Scope of section. This section prescribes the policy and procedures for recognition of (a) a successor in interest to Government contracts when such interests are acquired incidental to a transfer of all the assets of a contractor or such part of its assets as is involved in the performance of the contracts or (b) a change of name of a contractor.

§ 16.505–2 Agreement to recognize a successor in interest. (a) The transfer of a Government contract is prohibited by law (41 U. S. C. 15). However, the Government may recognize a third party as the successor in interest to a Government contract where the third party's interest is incidental to the transfer of all the assets of the contractor, or all that part of the contractor's assets involved in the performance of the contract. Examples include, but are not limited to:

(1) Sale of such assets;

(2) Transfer of such assets pursuant to merger or consolidation of corporations; and

(3) Incorporation of a proprietorship or partnership.

(b) Where it is consistent with the Government's interest to recognize a successor in interest to a Government contract, the Department concerned shall execute an agreement with the transferor and the transferee, which shall ordinarily provide in part that:

(1) The transferee assumes all the transferor's obligations under the contract;

(2) The transferor waives all rights under the contract as against the Government;

(3) The transferor guarantees performance of the contract by the transferee (a satisfactory performance bond may be accepted in lieu of such guarantee); and

(4) Nothing in the agreement shall relieve the transferor or the transferee from compliance with any Federal law.

A form for such an agreement for use when the transferor and transferee are corporations, and all the assets of the transferor are transferred, is set forth below. This form may be adapted to fit specific cases, and may be used as a guide in preparing similar agreements for use in other situations.

AGREEMENT

This agreement, entered into as of _____ _____, 19__, by and between the ABC Corporation, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of _____ with its principal office in the City of _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Transferor"); the XYZ Corporation [formerly known as the LMN Corporation], a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of _____ with its principal office in the City of _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Transferee"); and the United States of America (hereinafter referred to as the "Government").

WITNESSETH:

Whereas the Government, represented by various Contracting Officers of the Department of the _____, has entered into certain contracts, letter contracts and purchase orders with the Transferor, [namely: _____ _____] or [as set forth in the attached list marked "Exhibit A" to this Agreement and herein incorporated by reference;] and the term "the contracts" as hereinafter used means the above contracts, letter contracts, and purchase orders, and all other contracts, letter contracts and purchase orders, including amendments and change orders thereto, heretofore made between the Government, represented by various Contracting Officers of the Department of the _____, and the Transferor (whether or not performance and payment have been completed and releases executed, if the Government or the Transferor has any remaining rights, duties, or obligations thereunder), and including amendments and change orders thereto hereafter made between the Government and the Transferee;

Whereas as of _____, 19__, the Transferor assigned, conveyed and transferred to the Transferee all the assets of the Transferor by virtue of a [term descriptive of the legal transaction involved] between the Transferor and the Transferee;

Whereas the Transferee, by virtue of said assignment, conveyance and transfer, has acquired all the assets of the Transferor;

Whereas by virtue of said assignment, conveyance and transfer, the Transferee has assumed all the duties, obligations and liabilities of the Transferor under the Contracts;

Whereas the Transferee is in a position fully to perform the Contracts, and such duties and obligations as may exist under the Contracts;

Whereas it is consistent with the Government's interest to recognize the Transferee as the successor party to the Contracts;

Whereas there has been filed with the Government evidence of said assignment, conveyance or transfer [add if desired, "in the form of a certified copy of the (list the documents required by paragraph (c) of this section)"];

[Where a change of name is also involved, such as a prior or concurrent change of name of the transferee, an appropriate recital shall be used; for example:

Whereas there has been filed with the Government a certificate dated _____, 19__, signed by the Secretary of State of the State of _____, to the effect that the corporate name of LMN Corporation was changed to XYZ Corporation on _____, 19__];

Now therefore, in consideration of the premises, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Transferor hereby confirms said assignment, conveyance and transfer to the Transferee, and does hereby release and discharge the Government from, and does hereby waive, any and all claims, demands, and rights against the Government which it now has or may hereafter have in connection with the Contracts.

2. The Transferee hereby assumes, agrees to be bound by, and undertakes to perform each and every one of the terms, covenants, and conditions contained in the Contracts. The Transferee further assumes all obligations and liabilities of, and all claims and demands against, the Transferor under the Contracts, in all respects as if the Transferee were the original party to the Contracts.

3. The Transferee hereby ratifies and confirms all actions heretofore taken by the Transferor with respect to the Contracts with the same force and effect as if the action had been taken by the Transferee.

4. The Government hereby recognizes the Transferee as the Transferor's successor in interest in and to the Contracts. The Transferee hereby becomes entitled to all right, title, and interest of the Transferor in and to the Contracts in all respects as if the Transferee were the original party to the Contracts. The term "Contractor" as used in the Contracts shall be deemed to refer to the Transferee rather than to the Transferor.

5. Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any rights of the Government against the Transferor.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, all payments and reimbursements heretofore made by the Government to the Transferor and all other action heretofore taken by the Government, pursuant to its obligations under any of the Contracts, shall be deemed to have discharged pro tanto the Government's obligations under the Contracts. All payments and reimbursements made by the Government after the date of this Agreement in the name of or to the Transferor shall have the same force and effect as if made to said Transferee and shall constitute a complete discharge of the Government's obligations under the Contracts, to the extent of the amounts so paid or reimbursed.

7. The Transferor and the Transferee hereby agree that no claim for payment by or reimbursement from the Government shall be made by either of them with respect to any costs, increased taxes or other expenses arising out of or attributable to (i) said assignment, conveyance and transfer, or (ii) this Agreement, other than those which the Government would have been obligated to pay or reimburse under the terms of the Contracts in effect prior to the execution of this Agreement.

8. The Transferor hereby guarantees payment of all liabilities and the performance of all obligations which the Transferee (i) assumes under this Agreement, or (ii) may hereafter undertake under the Contracts as they may hereafter be amended or modified; and the Transferor hereby waives notice of and consent to any such amendment or modification.

9. Except as herein modified, the Contracts shall remain in full force and effect.

In Witness whereof, each of the parties hereto has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

A form for such an agreement, which shall be adapted for specific cases, is set forth below.

AGREEMENT

This agreement, entered into as of_____, 19__, by and between the ABC Corporation [formerly the XYZ Corporation and hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Contractor"], a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of _____, and the United States of America, represented by the Department of the _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Government").

WITNESSETH:

Whereas the Government, represented by various Contracting Officers of the Department of the _____, has entered into certain contracts, letter contracts and purchase orders with the XYZ Corporation, [namely:] or [as set forth in the attached list marked "Exhibit A" to this Agreement and herein incorporated by reference;] and the term "the Contracts" as hereinafter used means the above contracts, letter contracts, and purchase orders, and all other contracts, letter contracts, and purchase orders, including amendments and change orders thereto, entered into between the Government, represented by various Contracting Officers of the Department of the _____; and the Contractor (whether or not performance and payment have been completed and releases executed, if the Government or the Contractor has any remaining rights, duties, or obligations thereunder);

Whereas the XYZ Corporation, by an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, dated _____, 19__, has changed its corporate name to the ABC Corporation;

Whereas a change of corporate name only is accomplished by said amendment, so that rights and obligations of the Government and of the Contractor under the Contracts are unaffected by said change; and

Whereas there has been filed with the Government documentary evidence of said change in corporate name;

Now therefore, in consideration of the premises, the parties hereto agree that the Contracts covered by this Agreement are hereby amended by deleting therefrom the name "XYZ Corporation" wherever it appears in the Contracts and substituting therefor the name "ABC Corporation."

In witness whereof, each of the parties hereto has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

(b) Prior to the execution of such agreement, one copy of each of the following shall be deposited by the contractor with the Department concerned:

(1) A copy of the instrument by which the change of name was effected, authenticated by a proper official of the State having jurisdiction;

(2) An opinion of counsel for the contractor that the change of name was properly effected in accordance with applicable law; and

(3) A list of all contracts, letter contracts, and purchase orders, which have not been finally settled between the Department concerned and the contractor, showing contract number, and the name and address of the respective procuring activities involved.

Section 16.506 is added as follows:

§ 16.506 Communication Service Authorization (DD Form 428). DD Form 428 shall be used in accordance with Departmental procedures as an order for facilities and services under contracts for telephone and telegraph communications facilities and services.

Section 16.803–1 (c) has been amended to provide for issuance and distribution of DD Form 879, "Contractor's Weekly Payroll Affidavit;" however, contractors are authorized to reproduce this form or to submit a combined payroll-affidavit form. Part 16 now also includes information regarding DD Form 350 (Individual Procurement Action Report); Standard Form 129 (Bidders' Mailing List Application); and DD Form 254 (Security Requirements Check List). Section 16.803–1 (c) reads as follows:

(c) When required by § 12.404–6 (a) and the contract clauses prescribed by § 12.403–1 of this subchapter or § 12.403–4 of this subchapter, a "Contractor's Weekly Payroll Affidavit" (DD Form 879) shall be submitted by the contractor. When the contract clauses prescribed by § 12.403–2 of this subchapter are applicable, DD Form 879 likewise shall be used but with paragraphs (2) and (3) deleted or omitted from the affidavit. A supply of DD Form 879 may be furnished to contractors for their use. However, the existence of the DD Form shall not preclude any contractor from submitting the affidavit on a contractor's combined payroll-affidavit form or from reproducing the DD Form as a separate contractor's form, provided that in either instance there is a certification on the contractor's form that the affidavit is reproduced in the exact language of the DD Form.

Sections 16.807 through 16.811 have been added as follows:

§ 16.807 Individual Procurement Action Report (DD Form 350).

§ 16.807–1 General. DD Form 350 is designed to provide essential management statistics on a uniform basis. This report also provides the Department of Labor with data required in connection with the administration of the Walsh-Healey Act.

§ 16.807–2 Conditions for use. DD Form 350 will be prepared in all Military Departments and Joint Procuring Agencies for all debit or credit procurement actions where the amount involved is $10,000 or more, and, regardless of amount for:

(a) All procurements negotiated pursuant to § 3.211 or § 3.216 of this subchapter, and all other contracts for research and development;

(b) All letter contracts; and

(c) All definitive contracts superseding letter contracts.

This requirement applies to procurement actions against appropriated funds, contract authorizations, and stock or other revolving funds which are replenished from appropriated funds. Military Interdepartmental Purchase Requests, and procurement actions citing non-appropriated funds, are excluded.

§ 16.807–3 Preparation of forms. DD Form 350 will be prepared at the time of the procurement action, or as soon afterward as possible, in accordance with Departmental procedures.

§ 16.808 Duty Free Entry Certificate (Customs Form 7501). [Reserved]

§ 16.809 Report of Inventions and Subcontracts (DD Form 882). Form 882 is approved for optional use by contractors in reporting information required by paragraph (c) (ii), (c) (iii), and (h) of the Patent Rights clause set forth in § 9.107–1 of this subchapter.

§ 16.810 Bidders' Mailing List Application (Standard Form 129).

§ 16.810–1 General. Standard Form 129 shall be used in connection with the establishment and maintenance of bidders' lists as prescribed in § 2.204 of this subchapter. Supplemental information, where required, may be obtained by using DD Form 558–1 (Bidders' Mailing List Application Supplement).

§ 16.810–2 Conditions for use. Additions to the bidders' mailing list of a purchasing activity shall be made only after considering a properly completed application on Standard Form 129. The application shall be submitted and signed by the supplier (the manufacturer or regular dealer), as distinguished from an agent of the supplier. However, suppliers are not precluded from designating, in the Standard Form 129, their agents to receive Invitations for Bids.

§ 16.810–3 Item listings for information of bidders. In order to enable suppliers to indicate readily the items on which they will generally desire to submit bids or proposals, there shall be attached to Standard Form 129 forwarded to suppliers for completion, a list of items, or item groups, or an index to such listing of the items, procured by the purchasing activity maintaining the list, which are considered applicable to the supplier's type of business.

§ 16.811 Security Requirements Check List (DD Form 254). The "Military Security Requirements" clause (§§ 7.104–12 and 7.204–12 of this subchapter) is included in all contracts which are classified "Confidential" including "Confidential—Modified Handling Authorized" or higher and in any other contracts the performance of which will require access to such classified information or material. Contracting officers shall inform contractors of the security classifications assigned to the various documents, materials, tasks, subcontracts, and components of classified contracts by using DD Form 254 and, when components from subcontractors are involved, DD Form 254–1 (Appendage to Security Requirements Check List). Instructions for preparation are included in the form. The Contracting Officer is responsible for preparation of the form and shall insure that it is physically attached to the copies of the contract forwarded to the contractor and the material inspector.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 11374; FCC 56–648]

[Rules Amdts. 7–11 and 8–17]

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules to delete the frequencies 6240 kc and 6455 kc and to make the frequency 4372.4 kc available on a full-time basis for ship and coast stations using radiotelephony on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waterways (except the Great Lakes).

1. This proceeding was instituted on April 27, 1955, by the Commission's notice of proposed rule making which would amend Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules to delete the frequencies 6240 kc and 6455 kc and make the frequency 4372.4 kc available on a full-time basis for ship and coast stations using radiotelephony on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (except the Great Lakes). This proposal was instituted as one in a progressive series of actions since 1951, involving changes in various parts of the Commission's rules as necessary to achieve conformity with the Table of Frequency Allocations and related provisions of the Radio Regulations of Atlantic City, 1947. Such actions are in accordance with the program set forth in the Agreement concluded by the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (Geneva, 1951), hereinafter referred to as the Agreement.[1]

2. The proposed rule changes contemplated establishment of "the internationally protected Rivers frequencies" (including 4067 kc and 4372.4 kc but not 6240 kc and 6455 kc) "on a firm active basis", inasmuch as it appeared that this would serve public interest and necessity pursuant to sections 303 (f) and (r) of the Communications Act. The proposal designated August 5, 1955, as the final date for the submission of original comments in written form by interested persons. In response to petitions from certain interested persons, the date for submission of original comments was extended to October 31, 1955.

3. Comments were filed by American Waterways Operators, Inc., the Central Committee on Radio Facilities of the American Petroleum Institute, Radiomarine Corporation of America, and Warner & Tamble Radio Service, Inc., hereinafter referred to as Waterways Operators, Petroleum Institute, RMCA, and Warner & Tamble, respectively. The comments submitted by RMCA and Warner & Tamble also incorporated by reference their respective comments previously filed in closed Dockets 10377 and 10724 concerning Commission Notices of Proposed Rule Making, likewise pertaining to changes in radiotelephone frequencies assignable for use by coast and ship stations of the Mississippi River System. In addition to direct comment filed by Petroleum Institute, the latter expressed full concurrence with the comments filed by RMCA and Waterways Operators. To the extent that comments submitted in closed Dockets 10377 and 10724 by RMCA and Warner & Tamble have a bearing upon matters covered by the proposals in this proceeding, such comments have been considered in the action taken in this Docket.

4. All of the commenting parties objected to the proposed rule making essentially on the ground that the loss of frequencies in the 6 Mc band would deprive the Mississippi River commercial transportation system of a means of communication which is essential to the efficient operation of the system.[2] The

[1] See Subpart G, Appendix A to Part 2, FCC rules and regulations for more detailed information regarding these and all other applicable international agreements mentioned in this Report and Order.

[2] Various parties pointed out that the commercial transportation system of these inland waters is important in the national economy. According to Petroleum Institute, River traffic has increased more than 520 percent present radio communication system is substantially as follows: Public coast stations at five primary locations are licensed for radiotelephone communication with ship stations on the Rivers:

Call sign	Location	Licensee
WAY	Lake Bluff and Chicago, Ill.	Illinois Bell Telephone Co.
WFN	Louisville, Ky.	Warner & Tamble.
WGK	St. Louis, Mo.	RMCA.
WCM	Pittsburgh, Pa.	RMCA.
WBN and WJG	Memphis, Tenn.	Warner & Tamble.

There are approximately 500 vessels engaged in commerce on the Rivers which are licensed for ship-shore public telephone service through these coast stations.

5. During each period of several weeks, in which typical towboats with barges in tow are engaged in hauling freight on the Rivers over round-trip distances of some 500 to 1,500 miles, it is necessary to report the position of the ships daily and to carry on telephone conversations with the home office at least several times each day. According to RMCA in a previous comment filed in preceding Docket No. 10377, it is important to the barge lines, the largest commercial users of the river radio-communication service, that their home offices can reach all their vessels "through the nearest land station at a given time—from two to four times a day during daylight hours—and to the greatest possible extent on the same frequency". Further, RMCA advised that the barge line arranges with "the land station in its port" to call all its tows on schedules prescribed in advance. Each tow knows of these schedules and is waiting for its call on a pre-selected frequency. In this manner each ship knows in advance when it is to be called, and the time wasted in effecting contact is reduced to an absolute minimum. Another comment (Ashland Oil and Refining Company) in Docket No. 10377 explained that the radiotelephone service consisted of reporting service and message service, as well as telephone contact. "Reporting Service" consists of receiving the positions from a group of boats at a predetermined scheduled time, and transmission of all positions to the Home Office by telephone, telegraph or teletype. "Message Service" consists of the coast station receiving and delivering, to or from the boat or Home Office, telephone calls, telegrams, or teletype on matters other than position reports. The frequencies now available under the Commission's Rules for this ship-shore radiotelephone service, as contrasted with those which would be available under the instant proposal, are as follows:

Presently available	Proposed to be available
2782 kc	2782 kc
4067	4067
4372.4	4372.4
6240	8205.5
6455
8205.5

Thus, the primary effect of the proposal is to delete from the present complement of frequencies the frequencies 6240 and 6455 kc.

6. In this proceeding the Commission has proposed to delete the frequencies 6240 kc and 6455 kc because the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations does not provide for the use of these frequencies, or indeed any frequencies in the 6 Mc band, by the maritime mobile radiotelephone service anywhere in the world, including the Mississippi River. As a signatory to the Radio Regulations and the Agreement, the United States, along with other signatories, is obligated to bring its assignments into conformity with the Table of Frequency Allocations contained in the Radio Regulations. But the Radio Regulations provided in Paragraphs 86 and 88 as follows:

86. SEC. 1. The countries, members of the Union, adhering to these regulations, agree that in assigning frequencies to stations which, by their very nature, are capable of causing harmful interference to the services rendered by the stations of another country, they will make such assignments in accordance with the table of frequency allocations and other provisions of this chapter.

88. SEC. 3. A country, member of the Union, shall not assign to a station any frequency in derogation of either the table of frequency allocations given in this chapter or the other provisions of these regulations, except on the express condition that harmful interference shall not be caused to services carried on by stations operating in accordance with the provisions of the Convention and of these regulations.

7. Therefore, under some conditions the authorization of station operation at variance with either the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations or other provisions of the related Radio Regulations, but in accordance with paragraph 88 of these regulations, would be not inconsistent with law. On the other hand, we do not find in these provisions a justification for disregard of the established international use of frequencies unless both the provisions of international agreement are met and there exists some compelling domestic need for such derogation. The effective functioning of the vast and complicated communication systems of the United States is dependent in substantial measure upon continued international protection. As a matter of general policy, therefore, the communication interests of the United States are clearly best served by "in-band" operation of the stations of all countries consistent with the table of frequency allocations and related provisions of the international radio regulations.[3] We cannot take the position that others should operate in this manner if we are not ourselves prepared to do likewise. Accordingly, the initial issue in this proceeding is whether the compelling circumstances exist which would warrant taking advantage of the exceptional provisions of Paragraph 88 of Atlantic City or, stating the issue more definitively, whether the important communication system now provided on the Mississippi River will, if frequencies in the 6 Mc band are not provided, be substantially impaired and if so, whether such circumstances would warrant derogation of the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations. For the reasons hereinafter set forth, we conclude that there is not a sufficient basis for such a finding of compelling necessity. In view of this conclusion, we do not in this decision reach the second portion of the question just stated, i. e. whether, from a technical and legal standpoint, derogation under other circumstances would be feasible.[4]

8. Our judgment here turns primarily upon a detailed consideration of the effect of withdrawing 6240 kc and 6455 kc from use by the telephone communication system of the Rivers and not providing for the use of any frequency for this purpose in the 6 Mc band. According to the comments, the use of presently available frequencies is as follows. The 4 Mc frequency seems in general to be capable of rendering service to areas between 30 and 250 miles during the day, and to areas between 60 and 800 miles at night. Its noise level, however, is comparatively high and this disadvantage coupled with its short daytime range makes it of limited utility during the day, when traffic is heaviest. The 6 Mc frequencies are the preferable frequencies for daytime communication. They have a low noise level and seem capable of rendering service to areas between about 50 to 800 miles or more during the day and to areas between 500 and 1,200 miles or more at night. The 8 Mc frequency seems capable of rendering service during the day to areas beginning about 350 to 500 miles, and extending over 1,300 miles. Its noise level is exceptionally low. This makes it particularly valuable for long-range daytime calls from stations which are not centrally located. Because it cannot be relied upon to cover calls closer to the transmitter than 350 to 500 miles, however, it does not have the advantage of the 6 Mc frequency during the day for meeting communication needs over relatively short distances.

9. The "principal advantage" of the communication service of the Mississippi System as it presently exists is the ability of each ship station to communicate with each of the five coast stations under normal conditions from any location on the Rivers. "The 6 Mc frequencies are necessary to preserve this advantage" because "a 6 Mc frequency is the only frequency which has the desired daytime effective range" to complete the complement of frequencies necessary to enable each coast station to communicate with a vessel at any location on the Rivers. The hardship and injury which would result from the deletion of the 6 Mc frequencies would derive from the existence of 6 Mc "dead areas," i. e., gaps of no communication between two given stations because of the absence of 6 Mc frequencies.

10. In support of the conclusion concerning the existence of 6 Mc "dead areas," RMCA submitted the results of a propagation study of the effective range of the 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8 Mc bands under specified typical operating conditions of the Rivers system. From this RMCA concluded that there would be 6 Mc "dead areas" in certain localities up to 215 kilometers (133 miles) in length during the summer months at the height of the eleven-year sunspot cycle, which may mean a "dead" area of over 1,350 miles of navigable waterways. Because of the 6 Mc "dead" areas, these disadvantages would allegedly accrue:

(1) Inability of vessels to contact directly at all times the coast station nearest the home office;

(2) Inability of each coast station to communicate at all times with a vessel at any location on the rivers system;

In turn, it is asserted that the following adverse effects would be engendered by the above.

(3) At these times when a coast station could not reach a particular ship, it would have to make connection to other coast stations which in turn would attempt to contact the ship.

(4) The "scheduling technique" method of operation whereby a ship company places all of its daily ship calls through a particular single coast station would be crippled and may well have to be abandoned. The numerous advantages of this scheduled reporting service, with its attendant economies and benefits to freight transportation and the public, would be lost.

(5) The use of the 4 Mc and 8 Mc frequencies to handle calls and message traffic normally handled on a 6 Mc frequency would "overcrowd" these frequencies, would double the amount of interference, and would double the amount of time required to handle the same communications; resulting in a degradation of service.

(6) There would be necessarily an increased use of and dependence upon landwire lines for relaying messages to and from coast stations. This would be time consuming, would increase operating expenses, and might be highly dangerous to the safety of life and property.

11. The Commission has carefully examined the propagation data submitted by RMCA. A detailed analysis of that data is contained in Appendix 3. On the basis of that analysis, the Commission has noted the following:

(a) The RMCA comments referred to localities which constitute only a minor portion of the waterways, i. e., localities south of 32 degrees north latitude (approximately midway between Vicksburg, Mississippi and Natchez, Mississippi). In these localities, the limiting atmospheric "noise grade" is 3.5. But in localities constituting a major portion of the waterways, i. e., north of 32 degrees north latitude, the atmospheric "noise grade" is only 3. As a result, at localities north of 32 degrees, the 6 Mc "dead" area under the same conditions except for the lower noise grade, will be less, i. e., up to 135 kilometers (84 miles).

(b) For all practical purposes, the only time a 6 Mc communications gap exceeding about 6 miles will occur on the major portion of these waterways (north of 32 degrees) will be during the summer under conditions of maximum sunspot activity, reaching a maximum of about 83 miles at noon local time.

(c) There will be an additional "dead" area in summer daytime which will not be served by any frequency in the 2, 4, 6 or 8 Mc band; this area is beyond the extreme daytime range of the 8 Mc frequency under the same condition of sunspot maximum. With respect to the entire Mississippi Waterways System, the two "dead" areas (6 Mc and beyond 8 Mc maximum range) in terms of "river miles" will be of comparable size in respect to the coast stations at Louisville and St. Louis, but when considered in reference to the remaining coast stations (Chicago, Memphis and Pittsburgh) the "dead" area beyond 8 Mc maximum range which is not covered by any available frequency will be considerably larger in the same terms of "river miles".[5]

(d) The gap areas, in respect to specific geographic locations in relation to station locations, are different at different times of the day. A ship located in one of the gap areas at a given time, and thus prevented at that time from reaching a particular coast station, would be able to reach that coast station at some other time of the day. At no time would the ship, because of existing 6 Mc gap areas, be unable to communicate with one or more of the other coast stations on the rivers system.

12. Further as a result of the study set forth in detail in Appendix 3 the Commission finds that when 6 Mc "dead" areas are present in the ship-shore telephone system during daylight hours, as represented by the comments of RMCA referenced to its engineering study:

(a) A ship station on the Rivers System using either a 2, 4 or 8 Mc frequency can effectively contact the nearest coast station as often as it can effectively contact the coast station nearest the home office of the ship when a 6 Mc frequency also is available. This change in opcrating practice should not cause an increase in interference.

(b) Since there is no factual showing otherwise, it is appropriate to assume that the ship's home office should know with sufficient accuracy the location of the ship being called, so as to permit placing a call to that ship via the coast station nearest the ship. If this procedure is followed, there appears to be no acceptable reason why the valued "scheduling technique" could not be continued, inasmuch as a particular ship company could place its daily ship calls with one or more appropriately located coast stations instead of limiting this placement to one selected coast station only. This change in procedure should not result in a larger number of calls or increased interference.

(c) With reference to calls to ships originating during the day with persons on land who do not know the approximate location of the ship being called, a moderate amount of increase in calling and relaying by wire-line facilities would probably occur at certain times in the absence of an available 6 Mc channel. It would appear that this type of communication would not originate with commercial ship companies and would not have any significant relation to operation of commercial transportation on these waterways. (In any event, the availability of a 6 Mc channel would not alleviate the same kind of condition in regard to ships located in any of the coexistent "dead" areas beyond the maximum daytime range of the 8 Mc frequency.)

(d) In the absence of a factual showing, there is no reason to regard as valid the general assertion that common-carrier wire-line systems serving industry in the Mississippi Valley area are any less reliable, less efficient, or more susceptible to interruption and delay than are such systems in other industrial areas of the United States with which there are no complaints of this kind from industry users in general; certainly not of the kind which would be expected to jeopardize the safety or substantially reduce the efficiency of commercial river transportation.

(e) With reference to increased operating expenses to be caused by an anticipated increased use of land-line facilities, there is no showing in comments of interested persons, other than general statements, not supported by facts, that this would have any significant adverse effect upon the operation of Rivers radiocommunications. We find no basis in this general assertion, unsupported since 1931, and a large portion of this traffic involves the transportation of petroleum products over great distances. Waterways Operators reported frequent round-trip hauls of lumber, coal, petroleum, automobiles, sand, grain, steel and other commodities over distances of some 500 to 1,500 miles by barge tows each consisting of 10 to 12 barges hauled by a towboat. Waterways Operators stated that since 1941, freight transportation on the Mississippi River System had increased in volume from 17,100 to 37,000 billion ton miles, and that the average miles per ton transported was steadily increasing. Comment of Mississippi Barge Line Co. submitted under date of February 24, 1953, in related preceding Docket 10377 reported that during 1950 commercial transportation on the Rivers System was conducted by about 1,500 self-propelled towboats and 7,000 barges and scows; that in 1951 there were 154,637,041 tons of freight transported over this waterway system; and that this volume comprised more than two-thirds of the amount transported on all the inland waterways of the United States combined, other than the Great Lakes. In its comments submitted in the current proceeding, Petroleum Institute advised that during World War II, 4,031 vessels built at ship yards on the Great Lakes were navigated through the Illinois Waterway and thence down the Mississippi River to the Gulf of Mexico. The Commission accepts all of these comments as authentic information and recognizes the national value and importance of commercial transportation on the Mississippi River System. The Commission also concurs in the opinion expressed by various of the parties that an effective ship-shore radiotelephone system contributes substantially to the efficiency and safety of this commercial transportation.

[3] See Appendix 1, a list of stations other than ship stations known to have used frequencies in the Cairo ship bands prior to clearance of Atlantic City service allocations. Appendices 1, 2, and 3, filed as part of the original document.

[4] The Commission has, however, examined the feasibility of continued operation on the frequencies 6240 kc and 6455 kc. For the information of interested parties the results of this examination are contained in Appendix 2 to this Report and Order.

[5] The existence of 8 Mc "dead areas" (of the order of magnitude which occurs at the same time as the involved 6 Mc "dead areas" occur) would appear to have an adverse effect upon the rivers telephone system of no less an impact than the effect of the 6 Mc "dead areas". It is worth noting in this regard that no reference is made by any of the parties to this fact.

by specific data concerning the cost referred to, the assumptions made by those who commented with respect to the applicable rate structure, etc., for concluding that any change in operating costs would be of such significance that we would be warranted in using this as a basis for failure to comply with the basic frequency allocations in the Radio Regulations.

13. On the basis of these findings, the Commission concludes that the proposed rule changes, if adopted at this time, should:

(a) Not necessarily compel abandonment of the valued "scheduling technique" as used by particular coast stations in behalf of Rivers shipping companies;

(b) Not increase the volume of calls nor the amount of interference, assuming that operation of the involved stations will be in accordance with applicable rules of the Commission;

(c) Not overload the available 2, 4 and 8 Mc ship-shore frequencies used by stations of the Rivers communication system in accordance with applicable rules of the Commission;

(d) Not cause any significant delays in River communication nor any substantial increase in operating costs by reason of increased use of public service land-line facilities to relay communications to and from public coast stations serving the Rivers;

(e) Result in less interference within the Rivers ship-shore public radiotelephone service.

14. In summary, the Commission concludes that the principal effect of the loss of the 6 Mc frequencies to the Rivers communication system will be the necessity from time to time for communications to be conducted through a coast station other than the one which might have been used if the 6 Mc frequencies were available; that as against the apparently insubstantial reduction in communication efficiency which might result therefrom, there must be weighed the general importance to the overall communication interests of the United States in adhering wherever feasible to the established international uses of frequencies. On balance of these considerations, the Commission is of the opinion that derogation of the international frequency allocations in order to provide 6 Mc frequencies for the Rivers communication system is not warranted.

15. In the light of the foregoing conclusion, it does not appear to be necessary to consider in detail comments filed by the parties relating to other aspects of this proceeding. Brief reference to some of these comments may, however, prove helpful.

16. Thus, RMCA compared (in Docket No. 10377) the proposed frequency assignments in the 4 Mc and 8 Mc bands for the Mississippi River area to those provided for the Great Lakes area and pointed out that the Mississippi River area is of comparable importance and "should not be slighted". However, so far as availability of 6 Mc frequencies is concerned, both areas have been subjected to the same criteria regarding derogation and these frequencies are not being provided for the respective communication systems in either area. To meet the frequency needs of each of the areas while not utilizing the 6 Mc frequencies, the Commission has sought to provide for each area the best possible complement of frequencies in the 4 Mc and 8 Mc bands consistent with the Commission's international obligations and the facts of frequency availability. If users in the Rivers area believe that an improvement can feasibly be effected in their frequency complement in the 4 Mc and 8 Mc bands, they may, of course, by petition, make proposals specifically directed to that objective and, thus, institute a separate proceeding for this purpose. The same is true with regard to the comment of Warner & Tamble in preceding Docket No. 10724 asserting that "the need of the Rivers for more frequencies is admitted * * *. Giving to the Rivers no more than they had before * * * does not meet that need."

17. The comments of Waterways Operators concerning possible use of the Rivers communication system to transmit messages concerning civil defense have also been noted and are not considered to be sufficiently significant to justify continuance of the availability of 6 Mc frequencies for the system. As indicated above, the Commission believes that the efficiency of the system will not be substantially impaired by the deletion of the 6 Mc frequencies and in any event, as the Commission has indicated on previous occasions in connection with civil defense planning, assumptions as to the availability of any particular frequencies for the civil defense function during war or emergency are not warranted unless the Commission has made a specific announcement ensuring such availability. As yet no such announcement has been made in reference to these particular frequencies.

18. There remains for consideration the request of Petroleum Institute and Waterways Operators that this matter be designated for public hearing pursuant to section 303 (f) and other provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, in the event the Commission decides not to abandon its proposed rule amendment which would delete availability of the frequencies 6240 kc and 6455 kc for the Rivers communication service and not to hold informal conferences with interested parties to consider other 6 Mc possibilities.

19. In this respect the Commission observes that a hearing was held in an earlier Docket 6651 with respect to the post-war allocation of all radio frequencies between 10 kc and 30,000,000 kc, for all radio services, and that the final recommendation of the Commission,[4] based on that proceeding, was that no spectrum space be allocated to the maritime mobile (telephone) service in the 6 Mc band (6000 to 7000 kc). All persons interested in the Mississippi River Communication System had an opportunity to participate in that hearing. Moreover, there is no showing whatever that facts might be developed through hearing or conference which could not have been provided by the process of filing pertinent comments, a process which in due course has been concluded. There is no provision of law or Commission rules which requires a hearing in this proceeding, since changes to involved radio station licenses in force are not affected by Commission action in this proceeding during their current license period. Accordingly, and in view of the considerations mentioned above, the said requests for conferences or hearing are denied.

20. If and when interested persons reach the conclusion that, in their opinion, factual information is available for presentation to the Commission which is not available at this time (in particular the results of adequate experience obtained by operation of the Rivers communication system without the use of a 6 Mc frequency) and which reflects a need for the use of a 6 Mc frequency sufficiently compelling to support assignment of such frequency in derogation of the established international use of the particular frequency or frequency band involved, they may then formally petition the Commission in a new proceeding to amend its rules accordingly. This procedure would be appropriate, however, only if a specific frequency can be selected for effective use under the conditions and limitations of the treaty which apply to the assignment of a frequency in derogation of the established international use of frequencies or frequency bands.

21. To provide for an orderly transition period in which licensed stations on the rivers can make the necessary arrangements for discontinuance of operation on 6240 kc and 6455 kc and for operation on 4067 kc, 4372.4 kc or such other available frequency or frequencies as may be appropriate, beginning February 1, 1957, no new or renewal ship or coast station authorizations will be issued for telephony on 6240 kc and/or 6455 kc, and as of that date these latter two frequencies will be deleted from availability for maritime telephony under Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules. Coast and ship stations of the Rivers telephone system authorized prior to February 1, 1957, to transmit on either or both of these frequencies may, at their discretion, continue to do so for the remainder of their respective license periods under the same conditions that now apply to the use of these frequencies under existing rules, or they may apply for modification of license to delete 6240 kc and/or 6455 kc. As a practical matter, however, the ability of stations of the Rivers system to carry on ship-shore communication on these two frequencies will cease when the existing licenses of the coast stations expire on February 1, 1957. In regard to such ship stations as may receive new or renewed licenses between the date of adoption of the instant rule amendments and February 1, 1957, their authority to transmit on 6240 kc and/or 6455 kc (obtained by reason of such licensing) will, by the terms of such licenses issued pursuant to the rules as amended herein, expire on February 1, 1957. The frequencies 4067 kc and 4372.4 kc are available for assignment under conditions set forth in the existing rules, and application for authority to operate on them may be filed at any time. Additionally, it should be noted that effective August 14, 1956, the daytime limitation currently in effect on Rivers use of 4372.4 kc will be deleted. That frequency will then be available for use by the Rivers on a full time basis, at a date earlier than that set for deletion of 6240 and 6455 kc from the rules, to facilitate the transition from 6 Mc to 4 Mc.

It appearing that the public interest, convenience, and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered, the authority for which is contained in section 303 (c), (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective August 14, 1956, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below and that effective February 1, 1957, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

It is further ordered, Herewith, that the requests for hearing and informal conferences in this proceeding are denied and that the proceedings in Docket 11374 are terminated.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

A. Part 7 is amended as follows effective August 14, 1956:

Section 7.304 (d) (3) and (5) is amended to read as follows:

(3) The frequencies 4067 and 4372.4 kc are authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes); such use of these frequencies is authorized upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

* * * * *

(5) The frequency 8205.5 kc is authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes) upon the express condition that transmission on this frequency during the period 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

B. Part 8 is amended as follows effective August 14, 1956:

1. Section 8.351 (d) (8) is amended to read as follows:

(8) Use of the frequencies 4067 and 4372.4 kc in the Mississippi River system is authorized upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

2. In § 8.351 (d), the text of subparagraph (10) is deleted in its entirety and the word "Reserved" is substituted therefor. As amended, the subparagraph reads as follows:

(10) [Reserved.]

3. Section 8.351 (d) (11) is amended to read as follows:

(11) The frequency 8025.5 kc is authorized for use on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (except the Great Lakes), upon the express condition that transmission on this frequency during the period from 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

C. Part 7 is amended as follows, effective February 1, 1957.

1. In § 7.304 (a), the table in this paragraph is amended by deleting the following two lines:

6240—Mississippi River system only.
6455—Mississippi River system only.

2. In § 7.304 (d), the text of this subparagraph (4) is deleted in its entirety and the word "Reserved" is substituted therefor. As amended, the subparagraph reads:

(4) [Reserved.]

3. In § 7.306 (c), the table is amended as follows:

a. In the second column headed "Carrier frequency (kc)'" delete the frequencies 6240 and 6455.

b. In the third column headed "Specific limitations imposed upon availability for use" delete the word "DO" opposite 6240 and opposite 6455.

D. Part 8 is amended as follows, effective February 1, 1957:

1. In § 8.351 (a), the table is amended by deleting footnote designator ' opposite the frequency 6240 and opposite 6455 and by deleting the frequencies 6240 and 6455.

2. In § 8.351 (d) (9), the text of this subparagraph is deleted in its entirety and the word "Reserved" is substituted therefor. As amended, the subparagraph reads as follows:

(9) [Reserved.]

3. Section 8.355 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) The following frequency is authorized for use by ship stations on board vessels while navigated on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (other than the Great Lakes); exclusively for communication with coast stations located in the vicinity of any harbor, port, or place on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (other than the Great Lakes), when the ship station and the coast stations transmit alternately on the same radiochannel:

PART 12—AMATEUR RADIO SERVICE

PART 20—DISASTER COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE

CONSTRUCTION, MARKING AND LIGHTING OF ANTENNA STRUCTURES

The Commission having under consideration the amendment of Parts 12 and 20 of its rules governing the Amateur Radio Service and the Disaster Communications Service, respectively, to conform with changes recently effected in Part 17 of its rules;

It appearing that the existing provisions of Parts 12 and 20 with regard to the circumstances under which filing of Form 401–A is required are at variance with the requirements of Part 17; and

It further appearing that the substance of the amendments herein ordered has already been the subject of formal rule-making procedures (Docket 11306) resulting in amendment of Part 17; and

It further appearing that general notice of proposed rule making is not required in this matter under Section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act because these amendments are solely for the purpose of conforming Parts 12 and 20 with Part 17, and that for the same reason the amendments may become effective immediately;

It is ordered, Pursuant to the authority contained in sections (4) (i) and 303 (f), (q), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 (a) of the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority and Other Information that effective July 11, 1956, Parts 12 and 20 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Amend § 12.9 to read as follows:

§ 12.9 Antenna structure defined. The term "antenna structure" includes the radiating system, its supporting structures, and any surmounting appurtenances.

2. Amend § 12.60 (a) (1), (2), and (b) to read as follows:

(a) * * * (1) the antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an overall height of 170 feet above ground level, except where the antenna is mounted on an existing man-made structure other than an antenna structure and does not increase the overall height of such man-made structure by more than 20 feet, or (2) the antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an overall height of one foot above the established airport (landing area) elevation for each 200 feet of distance, or fraction thereof, from the nearest boundary of such landing area, except where the antenna does not exceed 20 feet above the ground or if the antenna is mounted on an existing man-made structure other than an antenna structure or natural formation and does not increase the overall height of such man-made structure or natural formation by more than 20 feet as a result of such mounting. Application for Commission approval, when such approval is required, shall be submitted on FCC Form 401–A (revised), in triplicate.

(b) In cases where FCC Form 401–A (revised) is required to be filed, further details as to whether an aeronautical study and/or obstruction marking may be required, and specifications for obstruction marking when required, may be obtained from Part 17 of this chapter, "Construction, Marking and Lighting of Antenna Structures." Information regarding requirements as to inspection of obstruction marking, recording of information regarding such inspection, and maintenance of antenna structures is also contained in Part 17 of this chapter.

3. Amend §§ 20.8, 20.14 (a) (1), (2), and (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.8 Antenna structure defined. The term "antenna structure" includes the radiating system, its supporting structures, and any surmounting appurtenances.

§ 20.14 Limitation on antenna structures. (a) * * * (1) the antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an overall height of 170 feet above ground level, except where the antenna is mounted on an existing man-made structure other than an antenna structure and does not increase the overall height of such man-made structure by more than 20 feet, or (2) the antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an overall height of one foot above the established airport (landing area) elevation for each 200 feet of distance, or fraction thereof, from the nearest boundary of such landing area, except where the antenna does not exceed 20 feet above the ground or if the antenna is mounted on an existing man-made structure other than an antenna structure or natural formation and does not increase the overall height of such man-made structure or natural formation by more than 20 feet as a result of such mounting. Application for Commission approval, when such approval is required, shall be submitted, in triplicate, on FCC Form 401–A (revised).

(b) In cases where FCC Form 401–A (revised) is required to be filed, further details as to whether an aeronautical study and/or obstruction marking may be required, and specifications for obstruction marking when required, may be obtained from Part 17 of this chapter, "Construction, Marking and Lighting of Antenna Structures." [Rules Amdt. 15-3]

PART 15—INCIDENTAL AND RESTRICTED RADIATION DEVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On December 21, 1955, the Commission, by a First Report and Order, adopted a revision of Part 15 of its rules which concerns the regulation of incidental and restricted radiation devices. The amendments included general rules applicable to the operation of such devices as well as rules specifically applicable to incidental radiation devices and radio receivers. The Commission stated that it would adopt rules applicable to other types of restricted radiation devices as soon as the problems involved were resolved.

2. Accordingly, the purpose of this Second Report and Order is to adopt rules concerning Community Antenna Television Systems, hereafter referred to as CATV systems. These systems are a relatively new development in comparison to the other types of devices coming within the scope of Part 15. Their formation resulted from the fact that many communities, either because of the distance from, or their peculiar geographic location, do not receive usable signals from existing television broadcast stations. It was found to be feasible in some of these communities to erect a suitable receiving antenna system at a favorable location in the vicinity, such as on a neighboring hill, and to amplify and distribute the TV signal to the community by means of wires or cables. Due to the loss of energy occurring in the cable, it is necessary to provide amplifiers at regular intervals along the cable. In most cases, conventional television receivers are used in the home. The local distribution system brings television service to each home that subscribes to the service in much the same manner that telephone and power service are provided. An installation charge and monthly rental fee are normally made to each subscriber. It is inevitable that there is some radiation from the CATV system and this radiation may produce interference to the reception of the direct signal by nonsubscribers to the CATV system, some of whom have installed their own antenna systems and boosters or amplifiers to provide for the direct reception of weak signals.

3. The Commission has received a great many complaints of interference from CATV systems. Experience gained from investigations of these complaints has shown that interfering radiations can be reduced to a negligible amount if reasonably good engineering practice is incorporated in the design, installation and maintenance of the system. In many cases, it was found that systems were constructed using unbalanced open wire transmission lines carrying high signal levels, which resulted in high levels of radiation.

4. The Commission's Notice of Further Proposed Rule Making issued April 1954 provided that CATV systems shall not radiate in excess of ten microvolts per meter at a distance of ten feet, or more, from any point in the system, and that all existing systems would have to comply with this limit after June 30, 1955. The Notice also proposed that each CATV system have posted a certificate of an engineer indicating that measurements had been made to show compliance with the applicable rules. These conditions were proposed as prerequisites to operation without a license.

5. Comments on this proposal were received from the Radio-Television Manufacturers Association (RETMA), the National Community Television Association, Inc. (NCTA), and others.

6. The RETMA comment states that in most cases the radiation limits can be raised above the value proposed by the Commission and still provide adequate protection to persons attempting direct reception of weak television signals. RETMA recommends a multiplicity of limits depending on the relation between the frequency of radiation from the CATV system and the frequency of the signal being directly received. RETMA also recommends that the radiation limits in uninhabited areas be set at 100 uv/m at 100 feet, since a more stringent limit will impose an unnecessarily severe economic burden on the CATV system. In connection with implementing these rules, RETMA recommends that the rules become effective one year after adoption to new systems and to additions to existing systems. Existing systems would be allowed five years within which to comply with the rules with the proviso that actual interference cases be solved on a case-by-case basis.

7. In its comment, RETMA recommended radiation limits for CATV systems which are contingent upon the availability of a signal for direct reception on the same or adjacent channels. The radiation limits recommended by RETMA would apply where the signal level, over a period of one week, was at least 10 uv/m more than half of the time or where the calculated F (50, 50) signal does not exceed 10 microvolts per meter on one or more channels. The comments submitted by this group do not indicate what steps should be taken by the operator of a CATV system if a television station is constructed after the CATV system is in operation. This illustrates the practical difficulty of establishing radiation limits which are dependent on the existence of broadcast signals on the same or adjacent frequencies. There is, of course, the further difficulty of determining the appropriate point of measurement of the direct signal since television signals are characterized by extreme variability both in terms of time and particular location.

8. While there may be many places in the United States where television signals capable of direct reception are not presently available, it is expected that this will be only a temporary situation. The Commission has under consideration a number of rule making proposals which will alter the availability of signals. Most of these involve changes in the present assignment table. One rule making proposal is that contained in Docket No. 11331, which provides for the revision of the Commission's Rules to permit the operation of co-channel amplifying transmitters in conjunction with the main transmitter. Another rule making action recently finalized (Docket No. 11237) provides for the establishment of stations with a lower minimum antenna height and power and it is expected to increase the number of TV stations. For these reasons the Commission believes it is not practical to permit radiation limits to vary depending on whether the signal being received directly is co-channel, adjacent channel, or further removed from the signal being distributed by the cable system, part of which is radiated to produce interference to the direct reception of television broadcast signals.

9. The RETMA comments, furthermore, are based entirely on considerations of monochrome television and no consideration is given to interference with the reception of color television signals. This is an important factor. While the comments in the color television proceeding (Docket No. 9175) indicated that the presently standardized color television signals are not appreciably more susceptible to co-channel interference than the monochrome signals, adjacent channel interference could be appreciably worse in the case of color television signals, depending on the type of receiver in use. Therefore, we do not believe it will be in the public interest to relax the limit for adjacent channel operation of the CATV system in relation to the direct signal.

10. There are two distinct problems in the design of the community TV antenna system. The first is the problem of transmission of the received signals to the population center in which the programs are to be distributed. The second problem is one of the distribution network which brings the programs into each subscriber's home. In many cases the reception is on a mountain top or other general uninhabited region and the main transmission line or conveying portion of the system may pass through country which is uninhabited or sparsely inhabited. In this area, the relative danger of interference to direct reception is at a minimum and there is no need to restrict radiation close to the cable particularly since efficient transmission systems are not necessarily those with the minimum radiation. For these reasons the Commission is making special provisions for that part of the system that passes through uninhabited or sparsely inhabited areas. For the purpose of these rules, a sparsely inhabited area is defined as an area where television broadcast signals are not, in fact, being directly received within 1,000 feet of any part of the community antenna television system. The general radiation limits are based on the assumption that the direct reception antenna is 50 feet from the CATV system. The radiation limits in sparsely inhabited areas have been computed to provide the same protection to direct reception antennas located 1,000 feet from the CATV system assuming inverse distance attenuation of the interfering signal being radiated by the CATV system.

11. The proposed rules provided that CATV systems radiate not more than 10 microvolts per meter at ten feet. The RETMA comments (Report No. 1 of Committee R–18) contained an extensive engineering analysis of the interfering effects of radiation from CATV systems located in areas where television broadcast signals are being received directly. This analysis indicates that somewhat greater radiation than was proposed is possible without the likelihood of interference to the direct reception of authorized stations. Therefore, the Commission is adopting, except as indicated above, the radiation limits which the RETMA proposed.

12. Since the majority of community antenna television systems are frequently modified by adding additional circuits for new subscribers, the Commission has reconsidered its proposal to require the posting of a certificate indicating that measurements have been made which show compliance with the Rules. Rather than resort to the certification requirement which would involve repeated certifications in many cases, the Commission has decided that the provision for periodic measurements, as set forth below, will assure adequate compliance with the prescribed radiation limits.

13. The National Community Television Association, Inc., an organization of operators of CATV systems, strongly supports the RETMA comments, except that the NCTA recommends that existing CATV systems be permitted seven years within which to comply with the rules.

14. Comments were also filed by Theodore Haeffner, who has an interest in the "G" line, a single wire transmission line which operates by means of a surface wave on the single conductor. Mr. Haeffner contends that the "G" line is considerably cheaper than other more conventional transmission lines and that it is particularly suitable for use in the transmission line part of a CATV system. The comment continues with the argument that the limit of 10 uv/m at 10 feet as proposed is unreasonable when applied to the "G" line and will preclude its use by CATV systems. The Commission has provided a relaxation in the case of that part of the CATV system running through uninhabited areas, and it may be here that the application of the "G" line will be found. It does not seem to be feasible on an engineering basis to provide for a higher radiation limit for the single wire transmission system in populated areas where nearby power, telephone and other wires may distort the field and result in radiation causing interference to direct reception.

15. The Simplex Designing and Engineering Company raises the question as to the responsibility for the radiation of energy originating in a receiver connected to a CATV system. Particular difficulties have been encountered in a case of the harmonics of the horizontal sweep frequency of television receivers which fall in the standard broadcast band. The design and construction of many TV receivers permit the sweep circuit energy to be coupled to the antenna terminals of the receiver. When connected to a CATV system, the system acts as an efficient radiator particularly for the energy in the standard broadcast band. It has been found feasible to provide suitable means of blocking such interference from entering the system at the point of connection to the receiver. We believe that the responsibility for providing such means shall fall on the operator of the CATV system. However, if interference originating from the receiver continues after the CATV operator has effectively blocked such interference from entering his system at the point of connection to the receiver it will be the responsibility of the receiver owner to insure that his set complies with the requirements of the receiver subpart of these rules. It is not considered equitable to require the CATV system operator to be responsible for radiation from a receiver over which he has no control.

16. The Commission received a number of comments in favor of its proposal to regulate interference from CATV systems. The City Manager of the City of Sherman, Texas, urged the adoption of radiation limitations for the benefit of those people who wish to use their own antenna systems but who are experiencing interference from the local CATV system. This view is supported by the comments of Mr. J. G. Rountree, Consulting Engineer of Dallas, Texas.

17. The Wire and Television Corporation indicated that the proposed limitation is more rigorous than necessary and would impose a tremendous economic burden, and requested a relaxation in the 10 uv/m at 10 feet limit. However, no specific justification to support a relaxed limit was given.

18. Many of the comments point out that it is not reasonable to expect existing systems to be modified to comply with the new radiation limits within one year's time, and that consideration be given to the proposal that CATV system operators be allowed a period of five years to comply with revised rules. The Commission recognizes the difficulty of dealing with the problem in view of the substantial investment that has been made in such systems and the considerable expense that may be required to bring existing systems within the limits specified in the rules. Considering that the Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making issued on April 15, 1954, indicated the Commission's intention of reducing the allowable radiation from CATV systems to a low value, it has been decided that existing systems will be granted the period until December 31, 1959, within which to comply with the requirements of these rules. However, the Commission will require that all CATV systems take prompt and effective action with respect to any interference that may be caused during the interim period.

19. The Commission believes that the public interest will be served by adopting the rules set forth below governing Community Antenna Television Systems. Authority for the adoption of the rules set forth below is contained in section 4 (i), 301 and 303 (f) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

20. In view of the foregoing considerations: It is ordered, That effective August 20, 1956, Part 15 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 49 Stat. 1082, amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: July 11, 1956.

Released: July 12, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

1. Add the following definition to § 15.4:

(e) Community antenna television system. A restricted radiation device designed and used for the purpose of distributing television signals by means of conducted or guided radio frequency currents to a multiplicity of receivers outside the confines of a single building.

NOTE: The television signals that are distributed are modulated radio frequency signals and may be:

(a) Broadcast signals that have been received and amplified,

(b) Broadcast signals that have been received and converted to another frequency,

(c) Any other modulated radio frequency signals fed into the system.

2. Add the following to Part 15 as Subpart D:

Sec.
15.161 Radiation from a community antenna television system.
15.162 Demonstration of compliance.
15.163 Interference from a community antenna television system.
15.164 Responsibility for a receiver generated interference.
15.165 Measurement of field strength.
15.166 Effective date of radiation limits in this subpart.

AUTHORITY: §§ 15.161 to 15.166 issued under sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303.

SUBPART D—COMMUNITY ANTENNA TELEVISION SYSTEMS

§ 15.161 Radiation from a community antenna television system. Radiation from a community antenna television system shall be limited as follows:

Frequencies (Mc)	Distance (ft.)	Radiation limits (uv/m)
		General requirement	Sparsely inhabited areas [1]
Up to and including 54	100	15	15
Over 54 up to and including 132	10	20	400
Over 132 up to and including 216	10	50	1,000
Over 216	100	15	15

[1] For the purpose of this section, a sparsely inhabited area is an area where television broadcast signals are not, in fact, being received within 1,000 feet of any part of the community antenna television system.

§ 15.162 Demonstration of compliance. The operator of each CATV system shall be responsible for insuring that each such system is designed, installed and operated in a manner which fully complies with the provisions of this subpart. Each system operator shall be prepared to show, upon reasonable demand by an authorized representative of the Commission, that the system does, in fact, comply with the rules.

§ 15.163 Interference from a community antenna television system. In the event that the operation of a community antenna television system causes harmful interference to reception of authorized radio stations the operator of the system shall immediately take whatever steps are necessary to remedy the interference.

§ 15.164 Responsibility for receiver generated interference. Interference originating in a radio receiver shall be the responsibility of the receiver operator in accordance with the provisions of Subpart C of this part: Provided, however, That the operator of the community antenna television system to which the receiver is connected shall be responsible for the suppression of receiver generated interference that is distributed by the system when this intereference is conducted into the system at the receiver.

§ 15.165 Measurement of field strength. Measurements to determine the field strength of radio frequency energy generated by community antenna television systems shall be made in accordance with standard engineering procedures. Measurements made above 25 megacycles shall include the following:

(a) A field strength meter using a horizontal dipole antenna shall be employed.

(b) Field strength shall be expressed in terms of the RMS value of synchronizing peak.

(c) The dipole antenna shall be placed 12 feet above the ground and positioned directly below the system components. Where such placement results in a separation of less than 10 feet between the center of the dipole antenna and the system components, the dipole shall be repositioned to provide a separation of 10 feet.

(d) The horizontal dipole antenna shall be rotated about a vertical axis and the maximum meter reading shall be used.

(e) Measurements shall be made where other conductors are 10 or more feet away from the measuring antenna.

§ 15.166 Effective date of radiation limits in this subpart. (a) The radiation limits for community antenna television systems shall be met by all new systems whose construction begins on or after October 1, 1956, and by all new sections added to existing systems whose construction begins on or after October 1, 1956.

(b) Community antenna television systems in existence on September 30, 1956, shall comply with the radiation limits in these rules not later than December 31, 1959: Provided, That any harmful interference to the reception of authorized radio stations caused by such systems shall be promptly remedied during this period by the operator of the CATV system.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR (1954) Part 1]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

SPECIAL RULES FOR DETERMINING CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: T:P, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805).

[SEAL] RUSSELL C. HARRINGTON,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The following regulations are hereby prescribed under part IV (except sections 1233, 1235, and 1237) of subchapter P, relating to special rules for determining capital gains and losses, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954:

SPECIAL RULES FOR DETERMINING CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

Sec.
1.1231 Statutory provisions; property used in the trade or business and involuntary conversions.
1.1231–1 Gains and losses from the sale or exchange of certain property used in the trade or business.
1.1231–2 Livestock held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes.
1.1232 Statutory provisions; bonds and other evidences of indebtedness.
1.1232–1 Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness; scope of section.
1.1232–2 Retirement.
1.1232–3 Gain upon sale or exchange of obligations issued at a discount after December 31, 1954.
1.1232–4 Obligations with excess coupons detached.
1.1234 Statutory provisions; options to buy or sell.
1.1234–1 Options to buy or sell.
1.1236 Statutory provisions; dealers in securities.
1.1236–1 Dealers in securities.
1.1238 Statutory provisions; amortization in excess of depreciation.
1.1238–1 Amortization in excess of depreciation.
1.1239 Statutory provisions; gain from sale of certain property between spouses or between an individual and a controlled corporation.
1.1239–1 Gain from sale or exchange of certain property between spouses or between an individual and a controlled corporation.
1.1240 Statutory provisions; taxability to employee of termination payments.
1.1240–1 Capital gains treatment of certain termination payments.
1.1241 Statutory provisions; cancellation of lease or distributor's agreement.
1.1241–1 Cancellation of lease or distributor's agreement.

SPECIAL RULES FOR DETERMINING CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

§ 1.1231 Statutory provisions; property used in the trade or business and involuntary conversions.

SEC. 1231. Property used in the trade or business and involuntary conversions—(a) General rule. If, during the taxable year, the recognized gains on sales or exchanges of property used in the trade or business, plus the recognized gains from the compulsory or involuntary conversion (as a result of destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation or the threat or imminence thereof) of property used in the trade or business and capital assets held for more than 6 months into other property or money, exceed the recognized losses from such sales, exchanges, and conversions, such gains and losses shall be considered as gains and losses, from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months. If such gains do not exceed such losses, such gains and losses shall not be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. For purposes of this subsection—

(1) In determining under this subsection whether gains exceed losses, the gains described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing gross income and the losses described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing taxable income, except that section 1211 shall not apply; and

(2) Losses upon the destruction, in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or requisition or condemnation of property used in the trade or business or capital assets held for more than 6 months shall be considered losses from a compulsory or involuntary conversion.

(b) Definition of property used in the trade or business. For purposes of this section—

(1) General rule. The term "property used in the trade or business" means property used in the trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 167, held for more than 6 months, and real property used in the trade or business, held for more than 6 months, which is not—

(A) Property of a kind which would properly be includible in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year,

(B) Property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or

(C) A copyright, a literary, musical, or artistic composition, or similar property, held by a taxpayer described in paragraph (3) of section 1221.

(2) Timber or coal. Such term includes timber and coal with respect to which section 631 applies.

(3) Livestock. Such term also includes livestock, regardless of age, held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes, and held by him for 12 months or more from the date of acquisition. Such term does not include poultry.

(4) Unharvested crop. In the case of an unharvested crop on land used in the trade or business and held for more than 6 months, if the crop and the land are sold or exchanged (or compulsorily or involuntarily converted) at the same time and to the same person, the crop shall be considered as "property used in the trade or business."

§ 1.1231–1 Gains and losses from the sale or exchange of certain property used in the trade or business—(a) In general. Section 1231 provides that a taxpayer's gains and losses from the disposition (including involuntary conversion) of assets described in that section as "property used in the trade or business" and from the involuntary conversion of capital assets held for more than 6 months shall be treated as long-term capital gains and losses if the total gains exceed the total losses. If the total gains do not exceed the total losses, all such gains and losses are treated as ordinary gains and losses. Therefore, if the taxpayer has no gains subject to section 1231, a recognized loss from the condemnation (or from a sale or exchange under threat of condemnation) of even a capital asset held for more than 6 months is an ordinary loss. Capital assets subject to section 1231 treatment include only capital assets involuntarily converted. The noncapital assets subject to section 1231 treatment are (1) depreciable business property and business real property held for more than 6 months, other than stock in trade and certain copyrights and artistic property; (2) timber and coal, if disposed of in a manner coming within the provisions of section 631; and (3) certain livestock and unharvested crops. See paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Treatment of gains and losses. For the purpose of applying section 1231 a taxpayer must aggregate his recognized gains and losses from—

(1) The sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of property used in the trade or business (as defined in section 1231 (b)), and

(2) The involuntary conversion (but not sale or exchange) of capital assets held for more than 6 months.

If the gains to which section 1231 applies exceed the losses to which the section applies, the gains and losses are treated as long-term capital gains and losses and are subject to the provisions of section 1201 through 1212, relating to capital gains and losses. If the gains to which section 1231 applies do not exceed the losses to which the section applies, the gains and losses are treated as ordinary gains and losses. Therefore, a loss from the involuntary conversion of a capital asset held for more than 6 months is treated as an ordinary loss and is not subject to the limitation on capital losses in section 1211. The phrase "involuntary conversion" is defined in paragraph (e) of this section.

(c) Transactions to which section applies. Section 1231 applies to recognized gains and losses from the following:

(1) The sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of property held for more than 6 months and used in the taxpayer's trade or business, which is either real property or is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under section 167 (even though fully depreciated), and which is not—

(i) Property of a kind which would properly be includible in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business;

(ii) A copyright, a literary, musical, or artistic composition, or similar property, held by a taxpayer described in section 1221 (3); or

(iii) Livestock held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes, except to the extent included under subparagraph (4), of this paragraph or poultry.

(2) The involuntary conversion of capital assets held for more than 6 months.

(3) The cutting or disposal of timber, or the disposal of coal, to the extent considered arising from a sale or exchange by reason of the provisions of section 631 and the regulations thereunder.

(4) The sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of livestock if the requirements of § 1.1231–2 are met.

(5) The sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of unharvested crops on land which is (i) used in the taxpayer's trade or business and held for more than 6 months, and (ii) sold or exchanged at the same time and to the same person. See paragraph (f) of this section.

For purposes of section 1231, the phrase "property used in the trade or business" means property described in this paragraph (other than property described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph).

(d) Extent to which gains and losses are taken into account. All gains and losses to which section 1231 applies must be taken into account in determining whether and to what extent the gains exceed the losses. For the purpose of this computation, the provisions of section 1211 limiting the deduction of capital losses do not apply, and no losses are excluded by that section. With that exception, gains are included in the computations under section 1231 only to the extent that they are taken into account in computing gross income, and losses are included only to the extent that they are taken into account in computing taxable income. The following are examples of gains and losses not included in the computations under section 1231:

(1) Losses of a personal nature which are not deductible under section 165 (c) or (d), such as losses from the sale of property held for personal use.

(2) Losses which are not deductible under section 267 (relating to losses with respect to transactions between related taxpayers) or section 1091 (relating to losses from wash sales);

(3) Gain on the sale of property (to which section 1231 applies) reported for any taxable year on the installment basis under section 453, except to the extent the gain is to be reported under section 453 for the taxable year;

(4) Gains and losses which are not recognized under section 1002, such as those to which sections 1031 through 1036, relating to common nontaxable exchanges, apply.

(e) Involuntary conversion. For purposes of section 1231, the terms "compulsory or involuntary conversion" and "involuntary conversion" of property mean the conversion of property into money or other property as a result of complete or partial destruction, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof. Losses upon the complete or partial destruction, theft, seizure, requisition or condemnation of property are treated as losses upon an involuntary conversion whether or not there is a conversion of the property into other property or money. For example, if a capital asset held for more than 6 months, with an adjusted basis of $400, is stolen, and the loss is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, section 1231 applies to the $400 loss.

(f) Unharvested crops. Section 1231 does not apply to a sale, exchange or involuntary conversion of an unharvested crop if the taxpayer retains any right or option to reacquire the land the crop is on, directly or indirectly (other than a right customarily incident to a mortgage or other security transaction). The length of time for which the crop, as distinguished from the land, is held is immaterial. A leasehold or estate for years is not "land" for the purpose of section 1231.

(g) The provisions of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, an individual, makes his income tax return on the calendar year basis. A's recognized gains and losses for 1955 of the kind described in section 1231 are as follows:

	Gains	Losses
1. Gain on sale of machinery, used in the business and subject to an allowance for depreciation, held for more than 6 months	$4,000
2. Gain reported in 1955 (under sec. 453) on installment sale in 1954 of factory premises used in the business (including building and land, each held for more than 6 months)	6,000
3. Gain reported in 1955 (under sec. 453) on installment sale in 1955 of land held for more than 6 months, used in the business as a storage lot for trucks	2,000
4. Gain on proceeds from requisition by Government of boat, held for more than 6 months, used in the business and subject to an allowance for depreciation	500
5. Loss upon the destruction by fire of warehouse, held for more than 6 months and used in the business (excess of adjusted basis of warehouse over compensation by insurance, etc.)		$3,000
6. Loss upon theft of unregistered bearer bonds, held for more than 6 months		5,000
7. Loss in storm of pleasure yacht, purchased in 1950 for $1,800 and having a fair market value of $1,000 at the time of the storm		1,000
8. Total gains	12,500
9. Total losses		9,000
10. Excess of gains over losses	3,500

Since the aggregate of the recognized gains ($12,500) exceeds the aggregate of the recognized losses ($9,000), such gains and losses are treated under section 1231 as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than six months.

Example (2). If in example (1) A also had a loss of $4,000 from the sale under threat of condemnation of a capital asset acquired for profit and held for more than six months, then the gains ($12,500) would not exceed the losses ($9,000 plus $4,000, or $13,000). Neither the loss on that sale nor any of the other items set forth in example (1) would then be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets, but all of such items would be treated as ordinary gains and losses. Likewise, if A had no other gain or loss, the $4,000 loss would be treated as an ordinary loss.

Example (3). A's yacht, used for pleasure and acquired for that use in 1945 at a cost of $25,000, was requisitioned by the Government in 1955 for $15,000. A sustained no loss deductible under section 165 (c) and since no loss with respect to the requisition is recognizable, the loss will not be included in the computations under section 1231.

§ 1.1231–2 Livestock held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes. (a) Section 1231 applies to the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of livestock, regardless of age, held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes, and held by him for 12 months or more from the date of acquisition. For the purposes of section 1231, the term "livestock" is given a broad, rather than a narrow interpretation and includes cattle, hogs, horses, mules, donkeys, sheep, goats, fur-bearing animals, and other mammals. However, it does not include poultry, chickens, turkeys, pigeons, geese, other birds, fish, frogs, reptiles, etc.

(b) Whether or not livestock is held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes depends upon all of the facts and circumstances in each case. The purpose for which the animal is held is ordinarily shown by the taxpayer's actual use of the animal. However, a draft, breeding, or dairy purpose may be present if an animal is disposed of within a reasonable time after its intended use for such a purpose is prevented by accident, disease, or other circumstance. Under certain circumstances, an animal held for ultimate sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business may be considered as held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes. However, an animal is not held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes merely because it is suitable for such purposes or merely because it is held by the taxpayer for sale to other persons for use by them for such purposes. Furthermore, an animal held by the taxpayer for other purposes is not considered as held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes merely because of a negligible use of the animal for such purposes or merely because of the use of the animal for such purposes as an ordinary or necessary incident to the other purposes for which the animal is held.

(c) These principles may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). An animal intended by the taxpayer for use by him for breeding purposes is discovered to be sterile, and is disposed of within a reasonable time thereafter. This animal is considered as held for breeding purposes.

Example (2). The taxpayer retires from the breeding or dairy business and sells his entire herd, including young animals which would have been used by him for breeding or dairy purposes if he had remained in business. These young animals are considered as held for breeding or dairy purposes.

Example (3). A taxpayer in the business of raising hogs for slaughter customarily breeds sows to obtain a single litter to be raised by him for sale, and sells these brood sows after obtaining the litter. Even though these brood sows are held for ultimate sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, they are considered as held for breeding purposes.

Example (4). A taxpayer in the business of raising horses for sale to others for use by them as draft horses uses them for draft purposes on his own farm in order to train them. This use is an ordinary or necessary incident to the purpose of selling the animals, and, accordingly, these horses are not considered as held for draft purposes.

Example (5). The taxpayer is in the business of raising registered cattle for sale to others for use by them as breeding cattle. Prior to sale, he causes certain cattle to be bred in a progeny test in order to establish their fitness for sale as registered breeding cattle. The breeding of the cattle is an ordinary or necessary incident to the purpose of selling the animals as registered breeding cattle, and their breeding does not demonstrate that the taxpayer is holding them for breeding purposes. Only breeding cattle used by the taxpayer to produce calves for use in the taxpayer's own herd are considered as held for breeding purposes.

Example (6). A taxpayer, engaged in the business of buying cattle and fattening them for slaughter, purchased cows with calf. The calves were born while the cows were held by the taxpayer. These cows are not considered as held for breeding purposes.

§ 1.1232 Statutory provisions; bonds and other evidences of indebtedness.

SEC. 1232. Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness—(a) General rule. For purposes of this subtitle, in the case of bonds, debentures, notes, or certificates or other evidences of indebtedness, which are capital assets in the hands of the taxpayer, and which are issued by any corporation, or government or political subdivision thereof—

(1) Retirement. Amounts received by the holder on retirement of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be considered as amounts received in exchange therefor (except that in the case of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued before January 1, 1955, this paragraph shall apply only to those issued with interest coupons or in registered form, or to those in such form on March 1, 1954).

(2) Sale or exchange—(A) General rule. Except as provided in subparagraph (B), upon sale or exchange of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued after December 31, 1954, held by the taxpayer more than 6 months, any gain realized which does not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to the original issue discount (as defined in subsection (b)) as the number of complete months that the bond or other evidences of indebtedness was held by the taxpayer bears to the number of complete months from the date of original issue to the date of maturity, shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset. Gain in excess of such amount shall be considered gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held more than 6 months.

(B) Exceptions. This paragraph shall not apply to—

(i) Obligations the interest on which is not includible in gross income under section 103 (relating to certain governmental obligations), or

(ii) Any holder who has purchased the bond or other evidence of indebtedness at a premium.

(C) Election as to inclusion. In the case of obligations with respect to which the taxpayer has made an election provided by section 454 (a) and (c) (relating to accounting rules for certain obligations issued at a discount), this section shall not require the inclusion of any amount previously includible in gross income.

(b) Definitions—(1) Original issue discount. For purposes of subsection (a), the term "original issue discount" means the difference between the issue price and the stated redemption price at maturity. If the original issue discount is less than one-fourth of 1 percent of the redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity, then the issue discount shall be considered to be zero. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "stated redemption price at maturity" means the amount fixed by the last modification of the purchase agreement and includes dividends payable at that time.

(2) Issue price. In the case of issues of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the term "issue price" means the initial offering price to the public (excluding bond houses and brokers) at which price a substantial amount of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness were sold. In the case of privately placed issues of bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, the issue price of each such bond or other evidence of indebtedness is the price paid by the first buyer of such bond. For purposes of this paragraph, the terms "initial offering price" and "price paid by the first buyer" include the aggregate payments made by the purchaser under the purchase agreement, including modifications thereof.

(3) Issue date. In the case of issues of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the term "date of original issue" means the date on which the issue was first sold to the public at the issue price. In the case of privately placed issues of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, the term "date or original issue" means the date on which each such bond or other evidence of indebtedness was sold by the issuer.

(c) Bond with excess number of coupons detached. If—

(1) A bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued at any time with interest coupons is purchased after the date of enactment of this title, and

(2) The purchaser does not receive all the coupons which first become payable more than 12 months after the date of the purchase, then the gain on the sale or other disposition of such evidence of indebtedness by such purchaser shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset to the extent that the market value (determined as of the time of the purchase) of the evidence of indebtedness with coupons attached exceeds the purchase price. If this subsection and subsection (a) (2) (A) apply with respect to gain realized on the retirement of any bond, then subsection (a) (2) (A) shall apply with respect to that part of the gain to which this subsection does not apply.

(d) Cross reference. For special treatment of face-amount certificates on retirement, see section 72.

§ 1.1232–1 Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness; scope of section—(a) In general. Section 1232 applies to any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness (referred to in §§ 1.1232–1 through 1.1232–4 as an obligation) (1) which is a capital asset in the hands of the taxpayer, and (2) which is issued by any corporation, or by any government or political subdivision thereof. In general, section 1232 (a) (1) provides that the retirement of an obligation, other than certain obligations issued before January 1, 1955, is considered to be an exchange and, therefore, is usually subject to capital gain or loss treatment; and section 1232 (a) (2) provides that in the case of a gain realized on the sale or exchange of certain obligations issued at a discount after December 31, 1954, a portion of the gain is considered to represent the recovery of interest and is ordinary income. Section 1232 (c) treats as ordinary income a portion of any gain realized upon the disposition of coupon obligations which were acquired without all coupons maturing more than 12 months after purchase attached.

(b) Requirement that obligations be capital assets. In order for section 1232 to be applicable, an obligation must be a capital asset in the hands of the taxpayer. See section 1221 and the regulations thereunder. Obligations held by a dealer in securities (except as provided in section 1236) or obligations arising from the sale of inventory or personal services by the holder are not capital assets.

(c) Face-amount certificates. The taxability of amounts received under "face-amount certificates", as defined in sections 2 (a) (15) and 4 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U. S. C. 80a–2 and 80a–4) which are issued after December 31, 1954, is governed by section 72, rather than section 1232, and is, therefore, subject to the limit on tax provided by section 72 (e) (3). See section 72 (l).

§ 1.1232–2 Retirement. Section 1232 (a) (1) provides that any amount received by the holder upon the retirement of an obligation shall be considered as an amount received in exchange therefor. However, this section does not apply to obligations issued before January 1, 1955, which were not issued with interest coupons or in registered form, or were not in registered form on March 1, 1954. With respect to obligations issued with coupons attached or in registered form, whenever issued, and which are held by a bank, see section 582.

§ 1.1232–3 Gain upon sale or exchange of obligations issued at a discount after December 31, 1954—(a) General rule. Section 1232 (a) (2) (A) provides that gain realized upon the sale or exchange of obligations issued at a discount after December 31, 1954, and held by the taxpayer for more than six months, shall be considered ordinary income to the extent of the "original issue discount" recovered, and the balance of the gain shall be considered as long-term capital gain. The term "original issue discount" is defined in paragraph (b) of this section. The computation of the amount of original issue discount recovered is illustrated in paragraph (c) of this section. Whether gain representing original issue discount and realized upon the sale or exchange of obligations issued at a discount before January 1, 1955, is capital gain or ordinary income shall be determined without reference to section 1232.

(b) Definitions—(1) Original issue discount. For purposes of section 1232, the term "original issue discount" means the difference between the issue price and the stated redemption price at maturity. The stated redemption price is determined without regard to optional call dates. If the original issue discount is less than one-fourth of one percent of the stated redemption price at maturity, multiplied by the number of full years from the date of original issue to maturity, then the discount shall be considered to be zero. For example, a 10-year bond with a stated redemption price at maturity of $100 issued at $98 would be regarded as having an original issue discount of zero. Thus, any gain realized by the holder would be a long-term capital gain if the bond was a capital asset in the hands of the holder and held by him for more than six months. However, if the bond were issued at $97.50 or less, the original issue discount would not be considered zero. The term "stated redemption price at maturity" means the amount fixed by the last modification of the purchase agreement, including dividends payable at that time. Thus, in the case of face-amount certificates, the redemption price at maturity is the price as modified through changes such as extensions of the purchase agreement and includes any dividends which are payable at maturity. If an obligation is issued for property other than money, the determination of whether an original issue discount exists, and its amount, if any, depends upon the relationship between the fair market value of the property and the face amount of the obligation. If the obligation is issued in an arm's-length transaction and bears a fair rate of interest, the face amount of the obligation will be presumed to represent the fair market value of the property, unless it appears that the parties to the transaction intended otherwise.

(2) Issue price. The term "issue price" in the case of obligations registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission means the initial offering price to the public at which price a substantial amount of such obligations were sold. For this purpose, the term "the public" does not include bond houses and brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters or wholesalers. Ordinarily, the issue price will be the first price at which the obligations were sold to the public, and the issue price will not change if, due to market developments, part of the issue must be sold at a different price. When obligations are privately placed, the issue price of each obligation is the price paid by the first buyer of the particular obligation, irrespective of the issue price of the remainder of the issue. The terms "initial offering price" and "price paid by the first buyer" include the aggregate payments made by the purchaser under the purchase agreement, including modifications thereof.

Thus, all amounts paid by the purchaser under the purchase agreement or a modification of it are included in the issue price, such as amounts paid upon face-amount certificates or installment trust certificates in which the purchaser contracts to make a series of payments which will be returnable with an increment at a later date.

(3) Date of original issue. In the case of issues of obligations which are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the term "date of original issue" means the date on which the issue was first sold to the public at the issue price. In the case of issues which are privately placed, the term "date of original issue" means the date on which each obligation was sold to the original purchaser.

(c) Computation of amount of original discount recovered. The amount of the original issue discount considered to be recovered by the holder is computed by multiplying the original issue discount by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of full months the obligation was held by the holder and the denominator of which is the number of full months from the date of original issue to the date specified as the redemption date at maturity. (See paragraph (b) (3) of this section for definition of "date of original issue".) The period that the obligation was held by the holder is determined under section 1223 and the regulations thereunder. This computation is illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). An individual purchases a 10-year, 3 percent coupon bond for $900 on original issue on February 1, 1955, and sells it on February 20, 1960 for $940. The redemption price is $1,000. The bond has been held by the taxpayer for 60 full months. (The additional days amounting to less than a full month are not taken into account.) The number of complete months from date of issue to date of maturity is 120 (10 years). The fraction $^{60}/_{120}$ multiplied by the discount of $100 is equal to $50 which represents the proportionate part of the original issue discount attributable to the period of ownership by the taxpayer. Accordingly, any part of the gain up to $50 will be treated as ordinary income. Therefore, in this case the entire gain of $40 is treated as ordinary income.

Example (2). Assume the same facts in the preceding example, except that the selling price of the bond is $970. In this case $50 of the gain of $70 is treated as ordinary income and the balance of $20 is treated as long-term capital gain.

Example (3). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the selling price of the bond is $800. In this case, the individual has a long-term capital loss of $100.

Example (4). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the bond is purchased by the second holder February 1, 1960, for $800. The second holder keeps it to the maturity date (February 1, 1965) when it is redeemed for $1,000. Since that holder has held the bond for 60 full months, he will, upon redemption, have $50 in ordinary income and $150 in long-term capital gain.

(d) Exceptions to the general rule. Section 1232 (a) (2) (B) provides that section 1232 (a) (2) (A) does not apply (1) to obligations the interest on which is excluded from gross income under section 103 (relating to certain government obligations), or (2) to any holder who purchased an obligation at a premium. A taxpayer whose basis for an obligation is the same as the basis for the obligation would have been in the hands of a holder who purchased it at a premium is considered a holder who purchased the obligation at a premium. Thus, the donee of an obligation purchased at a premium by the donor will be considered a holder who purchased the obligation at a premium.

(e) Amounts previously includible in income. Any amount previously includible in a taxpayer's income on account of obligations issued at a discount and redeemable for fixed amounts increasing at stated intervals is not again includible in his gross income under section 1232. For example, amounts includible in gross income by a cash method taxpayer who has made an election under section 454 (a) or (c) (relating to accounting rules for certain obligations issued at a discount) are not includible in gross income under section 1232. In the case of a gain which would include, under section 1232, an amount considered to be ordinary income and a further amount considered long-term capital gain, any amount to which this paragraph applies is first used to offset the amount considered ordinary income. For example, on January 1, 1955, A purchases a ten-year bond which is redeemable for fixed amounts increasing at stated intervals. The purchase price of the bond is $75 which is also the issue price. The stated redemption price at maturity of the bond is $100. A elects to treat the annual increase in the redemption price of the bond as income pursuant to section 454 (a). On January 1, 1960, A sells the bond for $90. A's gain on this sale is $15. The total stated increase in the redemption price of the bond which A has reported annually as income for the taxable years 1955 through 1959 is $7. A's gain which is attributable to the original discount recovered is $12.50, computed as follows:

$$\frac{60 \text{ (months bond is held by A)}}{120 \text{ (months from date of original issue to redemption date)}} \times $25 \text{ (original issue discount)}.$$

However, $7 which represents the annual stated increase taken into income is offset against the amount of $12.50, leaving $5.50 of ordinary income from the sale. The $2.50 balance of the gain from the sale, ($15 minus $12.50) is considered long-term capital gain.

(f) Record keeping requirements. In the case of any obligation held by a taxpayer which was issued at an original issue discount after December 31, 1954, the taxpayer shall keep a record of the issue price and issue date upon or with each such obligation (if known to or reasonably ascertainable by him). The issuer (or in the case of obligations first sold to the public through an underwriter or wholesaler, the underwriter or wholesaler) shall mark the issue price and issue date upon every obligation which is issued at an original issue discount after the promulgation of the regulations under section 1232.

§ 1.1232–4 Obligations with excess coupons detached. Section 1232 (c) provides that if an obligation which is issued at any time with interest coupons is purchased after August 16, 1954, and the purchaser does not receive all the coupons which first become payable more than 12 months after the date of the purchase, any gain on the later sale or other disposition of the obligation by the purchaser (or by a transferee of the purchaser whose basis is determined by reference to the purchaser) shall be treated as ordinary income to the extent that the fair market value of the obligation (determined as of the time of the purchase) with coupons attached exceeds the purchase price. If both the preceding sentence and section 1232 (a) (2) (A) apply with respect to the gain realized on the retirement or other disposition of an obligation, then section 1232 (a) (2) (A) shall apply only with respect to that part of the gain to which the preceding sentence does not apply. For example, a $100 bond which sells at $90 with all its coupons attached is purchased by A for $80 with 3 years' coupons detached. Three years later, A sells the bond for $92. The first $10 of the $12 profit is taxable as ordinary income. The remaining $2 gain is taxable either as ordinary income or as long-term capital gain, depending upon the application of section 1232 (a) (2) (A).

§ 1.1234 Statutory provisions; options to buy or sell.

SEC. 1234. Options to buy or sell. Gain or loss attributable to the sale or exchange of, or loss on failure to exercise, a privilege or option to buy or sell property which in the hands of the taxpayer constitutes (or if acquired would constitute) a capital asset shall be considered gain or loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset; and, if the loss is attributable to failure to exercise such privilege or option, the privilege or option shall be deemed to have been sold or exchanged on the day it expired. This section shall not apply to losses on failure to exercise options described in section 1233 (c).

§ 1.1234–1 Options to buy or sell—(a) Sale or exchange—(1) Capital assets. Gain or loss from the sale or exchange of an option (or privilege) to buy or sell property which is (or if acquired would be) a capital asset in the hands of the taxpayer holding the option is considered as gain or loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset (unless under the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the gain or loss is subject to the provisions of section 1231). The period for which the taxpayer has held the option determines whether the capital gain or loss is short-term, or long-term, unless the acquisition of the option is considered as a short sale under section 1233 (b) (see paragraph (c) (1) of this section).

(2) Section 1231 transactions. Gain or loss from the sale or exchange of an option to buy or sell property is considered a gain or loss subject to the provisions of section 1231 if, had the sale or exchange been of the property subject to the option, held by the taxpayer for the length of time he held the option, the sale or exchange would have been subject to the provisions of section 1231.

(3) Other property. Gain or loss from the sale or exchange of an option to buy or sell property which is not (or if acquired would not be) a capital asset in the hands of the taxpayer holding the option is considered ordinary income or loss (unless under the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph the gain or loss is subject to the provisions of section 1231).

(b) Failure to exercise option. If the holder of an option to buy or sell property incurs a loss on failure to exercise the option, the option is deemed to have been sold or exchanged upon the date that it expired. Any such loss to the holder of an option is treated under the general rule provided in paragraph (a) of this section. Any gain to the grantor of an option arising from the failure of the holder to exercise it is ordinary income.

(c) Certain options to sell property at a fixed price (puts)—(1) Exercise or failure to exercise puts. If a taxpayer exercises or fails to exercise an option to sell property described in section 1233 (e) (2) (A) at a fixed price (a put), and if he or his spouse had held substantially identical property for less than 6 months when he acquired the option (or acquired substantially identical property while he held the option), any gain realized is treated as short-term capital gain under section 1233 (b) (1) and the holding period of the substantially identical property is determined under section 1233 (b) (2) (unless the option is one described in section 1233 (c) and subparagraph (2) of this paragraph). See sections 1233 (b) and (e), and the regulations thereunder since section 1234 has no application to such a transaction.

(2) Hedging transactions. Section 1234 does not apply to a loss on the failure to exercise an option to sell property at a fixed price which is acquired on the same day on which the property identified as intended to be used in exercising the option is acquired. Such a loss is not recognized, but the cost of the option is added to the basis of the property with which it is identified. See section 1233 (c) and the regulations thereunder.

(d) Dealers in options to buy or sell. Any gain or loss realized by a dealer in options from the sale or exchange of an option to buy or sell property is considered ordinary income or loss under paragraph (a) (3) of this section. A dealer in options to buy or sell property is considered a dealer in the property subject to the option.

(e) Other exceptions. Section 1234 does not apply to gain resulting from the sale or exchange of an option—

(1) To the extent that the gain is in the nature of compensation (see section 61 and the regulations thereunder, relating to employee stock options);

(2) If the option is treated as section 306 stock (see section 306 and the regulations thereunder, relating to dispositions of certain stock); or

(3) To the extent that the gain is a distribution of earnings or profits taxable as a dividend (see section 301 and the regulations thereunder, relating to distributions of property).

(f) Limitations on effect of section. Losses to which section 1234 applies are subject to the limitations on losses under sections 165 (c) and 1211 when applicable. Section 1234 does not permit the deduction of any loss which is disallowed under any other provision of law.

(g) Examples. The rules set forth in this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A taxpayer is considering buying a new house for his residence and acquires an option to buy a certain house at a fixed price. Although the property goes up in value, the taxpayer decides he does not want the house for his residence and sells the option for more than he paid for it. The gain which taxpayer realized is a capital gain since the property, if acquired, would have been a capital asset in his hands.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the property goes down in value, and the taxpayer decides not to purchase the house. He sells the option at a loss. While this is a capital loss under section 1234, it is not a deductible loss because of the provisions of section 165 (c).

Example (3). A dealer in industrial property acquires an option to buy an industrial site and fails to exercise the option. The loss is an ordinary loss since he would have held the property for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business if he had acquired it.

§ 1.1236 Statutory provisions; dealers in securities.

SEC. 1236. Dealers in securities—(a) Capital gains. Gain by a dealer in securities from the sale or exchange of any security shall in no event be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset unless—

(1) The security was, before the expiration of the 30th day after the date of its acquisition, clearly identified in the dealer's records as a security held for investment or if acquired before October 20, 1951, was so identified before November 20, 1951; and

(2) The security was not, at any time after the expiration of such 30th day, held by such dealer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(b) Ordinary losses. Loss by a dealer in securities from the sale or exchange of any security shall, except as otherwise provided in section 582 (c), (relating to bond, etc., losses of banks), in no event be considered as loss from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset if at any time after November 19, 1951, the security was clearly identified in the dealer's records as a security held for investment.

(c) Definition of security. For purposes of this section, the term "security" means any share of stock in any corporation, certificate of stock or interest in any corporation, note, bond, debenture, or evidence of indebtedness, or any evidence of an interest in or right to subscribe to or purchase any of the foregoing.

§ 1.1236–1 Dealers in securities—(a) Capital gains. Section 1236 (a) provides that gain realized by a dealer in securities from the sale or exchange of a security (as defined in paragraph (c) of this section), shall not be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset unless—

(1) The security is, before the expiration of the thirtieth day after the date of its acquisition, clearly identified in the dealer's records as a security held for investment, or if acquired before October 20, 1951, was so identified before November 20, 1951; and

(2) The security is not held by the dealer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business at any time after the identification referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph has been made.

Unless both of these requirements are met, the gain is considered as gain from the sale of assets held by the dealer primarily for sale to customers in the course of his business.

(b) Ordinary losses. Section 1236 (b) provides that a loss sustained by a dealer in securities from the sale or exchange of a security shall not be considered a loss from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset if at any time after November 19, 1951, the security has been clearly identified in the dealer's records as a security held for investment. Once a security has been identified after November 19, 1951, as being held by the dealer for investment, it shall retain that character for purposes of determining loss on its ultimate disposition, even though at the time of its disposition the dealer holds it primarily for sale to his customers in the ordinary course of business. However, section 1236 has no application to the extent that section 582 (c) applies to losses of banks.

(c) Definitions—(1) Security. For the purposes of this section, the term "security" means any share of stock in any corporation, any certificate of stock or interest in any corporation, any note, bond, debenture, or other evidence of indebtedness, or any evidence of any interest in, or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing.

(2) Dealer in securities. For definition of a "dealer in securities," see the regulations under section 471.

(d) Identification of security in dealer's records. (1) A security is clearly identified in the dealer's records as a security held for investment when there is an accounting separation of the security from other securities, as by (i) making appropriate entries in the dealer's books of account to distinguish the security from inventories and to designate it as an investment, and (ii) indicating with such entries, to the extent feasible, the individual serial number of, or other characteristic symbol imprinted upon, the individual security.

(2) In computing the 30–day period within which the security must be clearly identified, and after which the security must be deemed held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the trade or business if it is not so identified, the first day of the period is the day following the date of acquisition. Thus, in the case of a security acquired on March 18, 1957, the 30–day period expires at midnight on April 17, 1957.

§ 1.1238 Statutory provisions; amortization in excess of depreciation.

SEC. 1238. Amortization in excess of depreciation. Gain from the sale or exchange of property, to the extent that the adjusted basis of such property is less than its adjusted basis determined without regard to section 168 (relating to amortization deduc-tion of emergency facilities), shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is neither a capital asset nor property described in section 1231.

§ 1.1238–1 Amortization in excess of depreciation—(a) In general. Section 1238 provides that if a taxpayer is entitled to a deduction for amortization of an emergency facility under section 168, and if the facility is later sold or exchanged, any gain realized shall be considered as ordinary income to the extent the amortization deduction exceeds normal depreciation. Thus, under section 1238 gain from a sale or exchange of property shall be considered as ordinary income to the extent that its adjusted basis is less than its adjusted basis would be if it were determined without regard to section 168. If an entire facility is certified under section 168 (e), the taxpayer may use allowances for depreciation, based on any rate and method which would have been proper if the basis of the facility were not subject to amortization under section 168, in determining what the adjusted basis of the facility would be if it were determined without regard to section 168. If only a portion of a facility is certified under section 168 (e), allowances for depreciation based on the rate and method properly used with respect to the uncertified part of the facility are used in determining what the adjusted basis of the facility would be if it were determined without regard to section 168. The principles of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:
